INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work 1825 Achilles Wright Of Oldham County, Kentucky is Part XVII of the project.

The material for this project is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second is the descendants charts, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices have been published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Botetourt, Campbell, Cumberland, Essex, Franklin, Montgomery, Nelson, Prince Edward, Roanoke, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia, the City of Lynchburg and the City of Roanoke, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future.

The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County" indicates that this was the Augustine Wright who died in 1776 in Amherst County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky". A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 100,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, flashsticks, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

XVII. 1825 Achilles Wright Of Oldham County, Kentucky, His Wife Nancy ()
Wright, And His Descendants

The parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, have not as yet been identified, but it seems probable that his brothers were 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, and 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, based on the following evidence.

On July 1, 1765, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. B/27 Killis Wright purchased from Menos Wright 100 acres of land on the north side of Tye River. Sometime before September 3, 1770, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. C/104 Killis Wright and Menos Wright acted as witnesses to a deed from Augustine Wright and Alice Wright to Thomas Wilsher. In Amherst County, Virginia, Deed F/168 dated June 4, 1787, Robert and Keziah Wright conveyed to Samuel Edmunds the land formerly owned by Augustine Wright and the land of Menos Wright was described as adjoining that land. The land of Augustine Wright is similarly described in the complaint in Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery File 1486 as adjacent to the "Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright." In the deposition of Achilles Wright dated December 1, 1817, at his home in Henry County, Kentucky, he stated that he was named executor of the will of Augustine Wright. In addition, Achilles Wright stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the signing of the will. Similarly, in the deposition of Alcy Edmunds on December 26, 1817, she stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the writing of the will. In the deposition of Moses Hughes dated June 19, 1819, he stated that "Achilles Wright" and Parmenos Wright were witnesses to the will of Augustine Wright and that Parmenas Wright applied to administer the estate of Augustine Wright, but that administration was granted to the widow Alcey Wright. Administration of an intestate would normally be granted to a relative. The will of Joseph Mays dated January 7, 1798, listed sons Jesse, Moses, and Louis Mays and, as set forth below, Louis/Lewis Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Achilles Wright, and in addition, Jesse Mays married Susannah Wright, daughter of Augustine Wright, and Moses Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Parmenos Wright.

The associations among Achilles Wright, Augustine Wright, and Parmenos Wright and the common classical given names strongly suggest a common relationship and probably a parent who liked classical names, but further research will be required to confirm this.

This family may have come from Buckingham County, Virginia. Minos Wright was listed as a member of the Company of Minute Men under Captain Nicholas Cabell from November 17, 1775, through December 6, 1775, in Buckingham District. Buckingham County is a burned record county and so if this family was from Buckingham County, documentation of the parents of Achilles Wright, Augustine Wright, and Parmenos Wright may be difficult to find.

1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, is the subject of Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XV, and 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, is the subject of Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVI.

Y-DNA sequencing has also been pursued to identify the parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky. Paul G. Wright is a descendant of 1825 Achilles Wright and as set forth below and in the descendants chart, his line of descent is as follows:

- 1st Generation: 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky,
- 2nd Generation: James Wright of Kentucky,
- 3rd Generation: George Wright,
- 4th Generation: Newton Wright,
- 5th Generation: 1961 Carl Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky,
- 6th Generation: 1985 Wallace G. Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, and
- 7th Generation: 2012 Norris Allen Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky.

Paul G. Wright has participated in the Wright DNA Project, his Kit is #857305, and his Y-DNA sequence is as follows:

Paul's sequencing indicates that he is in Haplogroup R-M269, Group 4, on the Wright DNA Project Chart of Results found at:

<https://www.familytreedna.com/public/Wright?iframe=yresults>.

These results mean that 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, had an as yet unidentified common Wright ancestor with the others in that Group 4, which includes the following Wright lines:

1) Robert Wright, Sr., (Campbell County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part V, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1246610?availability=Family%20History%20Library>,

2) William Wright (Amherst County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part VIII, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1787439?availability=Family%20History%20Library>

20Library,

3) Jesse Wright (Amherst County, Virginia), the material on whom is in still in draft form and available from the author,

4) 1791 John Wright of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, the material on whom is in still in draft form and available from the author,

5) probably 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XV, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807583?availability=Family%20History%20Library>, and

6) probably 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVI, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807585?availability=Family%20History%20Library>.

Although these results mean that further research and Y-DNA testing will be required to identify the parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, the large number of separate families with a common Wright ancestor bodes well for the success of that research.

The remainder of this work will set forth the documentation that has been found relating to Achilles Wright, his wife Nancy (____) Wright, and their descendants.

If Achilles Wright was at least 18 years of age when he purchased this property, then his date of birth was probably before 1748.

However, Amherst County was not formed until 1758 and Achilles Wright purchased land in Amherst County in 1765, so his place of birth had to be somewhere other than Amherst County.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Achilles Wright was born in Virginia, married Nancy _____, died about 1825 in Henry County, Kentucky, and his will was probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, that Nancy (_____) Wright died about 1824 in Oldham County, Kentucky, and that Achilles Wright and Nancy (_____) Wright had the following children:

- 1) George Wright, born in 1763 in Amherst County, Virginia,
- 2) Nancy (Wright) Johnson,
- 3) Samuel Wright, born between 1766 and 1771 in Amherst County, Virginia,

- 9) Polly (Wright) Campbell,
- 10) James Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Achilles Wright was born in Virginia, married Nancy _____, and that Nancy (_____) Wright died in about 1824 in Oldham County, Kentucky, and that Achilles Wright and Nancy (_____) Wright had the following children:

- 1) George Wright, born in 1763 in Amherst County, Virginia,

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Achilles Wright and Nancy (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) George Wright, born in 1763 in Amherst County, Virginia,
- 2) Samuel Wright, born probably after 1764 and between 1766 and 1771 and probably before May 8, 1766, in Amherst County, Virginia,

George Wright has not as yet been located in the 1810 Census. As set forth below, George Wright resided in 1810 in Greene County, Tennessee, and the 1810 Census for that county has been lost. However, Tennessee, Compiled Census and Census Substitutes Index, 1810-1891, available from Ancestry.com, listed a George Right in Greene County, Tennessee, in 1812 and this listing was probably for George Wright, the son of 1825 Achilles Wright.

On December 4, 1833, at Pension File S 31501 George Wright filed his application for a pension by reason of his service in the Revolutionary War:

"State of Kentucky)
 Oldham County) Ct

Be it known that on this 4th day of December 1833 personally appeared before Wm Gatewood a Justice of the peace in and for Oldham County in the State of Kentucky and one of the Judges of the County Court of said County George Wright a resident of the said County of Oldham Kentucky aged 70 years And upward who being first duly sworn according to law doth upon his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress papers June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated - that is to say being a resident of Amherst County in the State of Virginia he did in the month of October in the year 1779 as well as he at this time remembers enter the service of the United States as a drafted Militia Man and private soldier in the Company of Capt Banks upon a tour of two months - that he rendezvoused with his Company at Amherst Courthouse and was marched from thence to the Albemarle Barracks where he was Kept stationed during the whole of his said tour in guarding prision and public Stores and at the termination of his said tour he had fully and faithfully served out the Same he was discharged and returned home - He states that while he was at the Barracks as above named he recollects that there were some other troops there under the Command of Captain Burley that he understood were regular soldiers and from his present best impression Captain Burley had the command of the Garrison at that place and that there was no field officer there except Frances Taylor

He further states and declares that in the month of February 1780 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted Militia Man and private soldier in the Company of Captain Banks upon another tour of two months that he rendezvoused with his Company at the Courthouse in Amherst County in which County he still resided and was marched by his Captain to Albemarle Barracks, the same place at which he was stationed in his preceding tour - that he was there kept as a part of the Garrison of that place and as a part of the guard for the British prisoners and for the public stores at that place till the full expiration of this his second tour and at the termination thereof after having fully & faithfully served out the same he was discharged & returned home - He states that he recollects that Capt Burrell was still at the said Barracks and he understood was in the regular service and had the Command at that place.

He further States and declares that in the month of December in the year 1780 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted Militia man and private soldier in the Company of Captain Ballinger upon a tour of three months - that a man by the name of Pollard was the lieutenant of the company and that he rendezvoused with his said Company at the Muster ground in Amherst County where he this declarent still resided and he was marched from thence by his said Captain to Richmond Va and from thence to Hoods fort on James River where he was kept as a part of the Garrison of that place till the full expiration of his said tour of duty and for one month longer comprising a period of four months actual and active service upon this tour instead of three months service for which he was originally drafted and he was there discharged and returned home He states that during this service he was under the command of no higher officer than Captain.

He further States and declares that in the month of June in the year 1781 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted militia man and private soldier upon a tour of twenty days (the draft being called the twenty days draft) in the Company of Captain Rees - that he rendezvoused with his Company at the Courthouse in Amherst County and was there attached to the regiment of Col Meriweather and to the Brigade of Genl. Lawson - that he was marched with the other troops and joined the Army of Genl La Fayette near Williamsburg Va. - that the British under Cornwallis had retreated to the lower parts of Virginia and after he joined Genl La Fayette he was marched with the Army to the Morban or Moblin Hills where he remained till he had been in the service about one month perhaps a few days over and he was then discharged and returned home. He states that he is positive in his recollection that he served at the least one month during this tour - And he recollects to have seen Col. Caball & Col. Mathews beside his own Col. and he recollects also Genl La Fayette Wayne and Stueban & Lawson - He does not recollect the names of any of the regular Colos.

He states that from the great lapse of time and his advanced age his memory has greatly failed him - but that he is confident from his present best recollection that he did not serve in the war of the revolution less than nine months as a private Militia soldier in the Manner above stated and for that service he claims a pension

He states that he has no documentary evidence and that he Knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any State

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter relative to George Wright, a soldier of the Revolutionary War, "who was a resident of Trimble County, Kentucky, at the time he applied for his pension".

The record of George Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, in 1834, follows as found in pension claim, S.31501, based upon his military service in that war.

George Wright was born in Amherst County, Virginia, in 1763, day, month and the names of his parents are not shown.

While a resident of Amherst County, Virginia, George Wright enlisted in October 1779, and served two months as private in Captain Banks' and Burnley's Virginia Companies. He enlisted in February 1780, and served two months as private in Captains Banks' and Burnley's Virginia Companies. He enlisted in December 1780 and served four months as private in Captain Ballinger's Virginia Company. He enlisted in June 1781 and served more than one month as private in Captain Rees' Company, Colonel Merriwether's Virginia Regiment.

About 1806 he moved from Amherst County, Virginia, to Greene County, Tennessee, and about ten years later he moved to Henry County, that part which was later called Oldham County, Kentucky.

He was allowed pension on his application executed December 4, 1833, at which time he was a resident of Oldham County, Kentucky.

There are no family data.

This record indicates that Wesley J. Wright and Hannah H. (Gibson) Wright were born between 1790 and 1800.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2 stated that on August 7, 1842, Wesley J. Wright was commissioned as a justice of the peace of Trimble County, Kentucky, and that on September 12, 1842, he presented his commission to court:

“At a county court began and held at the court house in the Town of Bedford on Monday the 12th day of September 1842. Present John Sibley Jack Pryor Benjamin H Logan, John F Butler Daniel S Lane

Wesley J Wright came into court and produced a commission from the Governor as a justice of the peace and took his seat”

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2 stated that on September 8, 1845, at Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book 1/385 the following court order was filed:

“Satisfactory proof was this day made in open court by the oths of Archibald Bain and Frances E Skidmore credible witnesses and known to the court that George Wright late a pensioner of the United States departed this life on the 30th June 1845 and that the said George Wright was the identical person named in an original certificate now here shown to the Court bearing date the 5th February one thousand eight hundred and thirty four and signed by Lew Cass Secretary of war granting to the said George Wright a pension of Thirty Dollars and numbered 25567 and it was further proven that the said George Wright died leaving no widow and that Wesley J Wright Ellis G Wright and Louraney Wright are the only children of said George Wright dec’d”

This record identifies Wesley J. Wright as a son of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright.

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed W. J. Wright with the following household on July 31, 1850:

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of Ben, a son of Wesley J. Wright, on March 18, 1853, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Name	Birth Date	Gender	Father's Name
Ben	18 Mar 1853	Male	Wesley J Wright
Mother's Name

As set forth above, Hannah (Gibson) (Bell) Wright was about 60 years old in 1853 and it would be improbable that she was the mother of Ben. The absence of a last name or the name of a mother indicates that Ben was a slave. The listing of Wesley J. Wright as father may have been intended to reflect that he was the owner. However, the listing of the youngest female slave in the 1850 Slave Schedule as mulatto indicates that she had a white parent, which in turn suggests that Wesley J. Wright may have been the father of Ben and the mother of Ben was one of Wesley J. Wright's female slaves.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of _____, a daughter of Wesley J. Wright, on April 16, 1854, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

In her letter dated September 21, 1991 Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Wesley J. Wright was a son of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright and was born in about 1792.

a. Possibly Ben Wright

Ben Wright was possibly a son of Wesley J. Wright and _____ (1825 Achilles¹, George², Wesley J.³)

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of Ben, a son of Wesley J. Wright, on March 18, 1853, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

Name	Birth Date	Gender	Father's Name

Mother's Name

As set forth above, Hannah (Gibson) (Bell) Wright was about 60 years old in 1853 and it would be improbable that she was the mother of Ben. The absence of a last name or the name of a mother indicates that Ben was a slave. The listing of Wesley J. Wright as father may have been intended to reflect that he was the owner. However, the listing of the youngest female slave in the 1850 Slave Schedule as mulatto indicates that she had a white parent, which in turn suggests that Wesley J. Wright may have been the father of Ben and the mother was one of Wesley J. Wright's female slaves.

b. Possibly _____ Wright

This record identifies Byron G. Wright as a son of Wilson L. Wright and Dorothy (Bain) Wright and that his mother had died before April 1, 1842.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2, compiled by the Trimble County Historical Society, stated that on March 10, 1845, at Trimble County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1/360 Byron G. Wright, the orphan of Wilson L. Wright, deceased, chose Wesley J. Wright as his guardian:

the date of his parents' marriage of November 18, 1828, probably between 1828 and March 10, 1831, and that his father had died before March 10, 1845, probably in Trimble County, Kentucky.

This record indicates that Byron G. Wright was born in about 1831. The absence of Miranda (Cook) Wright from the household indicates that she had probably died before March 1, 1885. Although both Byron G. Wright and Sally Wright were listed as married, this was probably an error of the census taker treating them as if they were husband and wife rather than father and child.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Byron G. Wright was a son of Wilson W. Wright and Dorothy (Bain) Wright, married Virginia Cook, and moved in 1880 to Kansas, and that Virginia (Cook) Wright was born in 1832 and died in 1879.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Miranda Cook was a daughter of Sarah (Gatewood) (Harney) Cook and Charles B. Cook, was born in 1832, married Byron G. Wright, and died in 1879.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Byron G. Wright and Miranda (Cook) Wright were the following:

- 1) Sally E. Wright, born in about 1858 or 1859 or 1861 or July 1862 or in about 1863 in Kentucky or Indiana,
- 2) Myatitta Hellen Wright, born in about 1861 in Kentucky,
- 3) Charles Wilson Wright, born in about 1862 or on April 28, 1863 or in about 1864 or 1865 or 1868 in Bedford, Trimble County, Kentucky,
- 4) George W. or R. Wright, born in about 1864 or 1865 in Kentucky,
- 5) Harry A. Wright, born in July 1867 or in about 1868 in Trimble County, Kentucky,
- 6) Dorothy "Dolly" N. or M. or H. (Wright) Tomlinson, born on November 8, 1868, or in about 1868 or 1875 or in November 1876 in Kentucky, and

This record indicates that Josephine L. (Wright) Shearer was born in about 1875 and that George W. Shearer was born in about 1873.

5. Matilda (Wright) Hicks, Her Husband John H. Hicks, And Her Descendants

Matilda (Wright) Hicks was a daughter of 1845 George Wright of Trimble County and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George²)

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850 listed the marriage of Matilda Wright and John H. Hicks on September 29, 1823, at Henry County, Kentucky:

"Name: John H. Hicks
 Marriage Date: 29 Sep 1823
 Marriage Place: Henry, Kentucky, USA

Spouse: Matilda Wright"

The death record of George W. Hicks dated on July 5, 1857, in Trimble County, Kentucky, listed his parents as John and Matilda Hicks and his age as 28 years and born in Trimble County, Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1829.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that the will of Wesley J.

Wright identified Josephine Hix as his niece:

"I, Wesley J. Wright, of Bedford, Trimble County, Ky., do make and publish this my last will & testament. . . . Item 5; I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use forever. . . . In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 6th day of July, 1873.

Signed in the presence of us
W. F. Peak,
J. W. Greenwood." Wesley J. Wright

Trimble County, Kentucky, Will Book I, 1837-1875 stated that the will of Wesley J. Wright dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

"Wright, Wesley J.: 6 July 1873: Probate July 17, 1873: Will. . . . I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford, adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever. . . ."

These last two records identify Josephine Hicks as a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks.

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed George W. Hicks in the Henry Kile household on October 16, 1850, and the 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Josephine Hicks in the Robert Kyle household on August 13, 1850. The presence of both children of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks in the households of relatives indicates that Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks had died before August 13, 1850.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Matilda Wright was a daughter of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Matilda Wright was a daughter of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright, married John H. Hicks on September 29, 1833, at Henry County, Kentucky, and that Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks had the following child:

- 1) Josephine Hicks, born in about 1840.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks were the following:

- 1) George W. Hicks, born in about 1829 in Trimble County, Kentucky, and
- 2) Josephine (Hicks) Richmond, born in about 1835 or 1836 or 1840 in Kentucky.

a. George W. Hicks

George W. Hicks was a son of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George², Matilda³)

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed George W. Hicks in the Henry Kile household on October 16, 1850, his age as 21 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1829, and his occupation as laborer.

The death record of George W. Hicks, son of John and Matilda Hicks, was dated on July 5, 1857, in Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Name of Deceased.	George W Hicks

b. Josephine (Hicks) Richmond, Her Husband David Richmond, And Her Descendants

Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George², Matilda³)

The 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Josephine Hicks in the Robert Kyle household on August 13, 1850, and her age as 15 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1835.

Josephine Hicks has not as yet been located in the 1860 Census.

The 1870 Census for Trimble County, Virginia, listed Josephine Hicks and David Richmond in the John Richmond household on July 2, 1870:

This record indicates that Josephine Hicks was born in about 1840. The listing of Josephine as Hicks and the separate listing of David Richmond indicates that they had not married before July 2, 1870.

The will of Wesley J. Wright dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, at Trimble County, W.B. 1/223, listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

"I Wesley J Wright of Bedford Trimble County Ky do make and publish this my last will and testament

. . . .

Item 5 I will and bequeath to my niece Josephine Hix four town lots on the East Side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Wesley J. Wright died in 1873 at Trimble County, Kentucky, and that the will of Wesley J. Wright provided as follows:

"I, Wesley J. Wright, of Bedford, Trimble County, Ky., do make and publish this my last will & testament. . . . Item 5; I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use forever. . . . In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 6th day of July, 1873.

Signed in the presence of us
W. F. Peak,
J. W. Greenwood."

Wesley J. Wright

This record identifies Joseph Hix as a niece of Wesley J. Wright.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Will Book I, 1837-1875 stated that the will of Wesley

J. Wright was dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, and listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

“Wright, Wesley J.: 6 July 1873: Probate July 17, 1873: Will. . . . I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford, adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever. . . .”

These two records indicate that Josephine Hicks and David Richmond had probably not married by July 6, 1873.

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed David Richmon with the following household on June 22, 1880:

This record indicates that Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was born in about 1836 and that David Richmond was born in about 1835 and that they married before June 22, 1880.

The death record of Susie Hackney dated September 30, 1894, in Trimble County, Kentucky, listed her as the daughter of David Richmond and Josie Richmond and born in about 1869 in Trimble County, Kentucky. However, the 1870 Census listed Susie Richmond in the John Richmond household, and her age as 12, indicating a date of birth in about 1868. That census also listed David Richmond and Josephine Hicks separately, indicating that they had not yet married. And the will of Wesley J. Wright dated July 6, 1873, listed Joseph as Hix, indicating that she had not yet married. The result is that Susan (Richmond) Hackney was a step daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and not her biological daughter and the informant for the death record gave the clerk incorrect information.

The 1900 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed David Richmond with the following household on June 9, 1900:

This record indicates that David Richmond was born in about 1835.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed the following obituary for David Richmond:

"Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

The will of David Richmond was dated on July 15, 1918, probated on January 27, 1919, at Trimble County, Kentucky, W.B. 2/316, and provided as follows:

I. O. S. Joyce, Clerk of the County Court for the County and State aforesaid, certify that the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Richmond, deceased, was on the 27th day of January 1919 produced in open Court and offered for probate which was proven by the oaths of F. W. Hudson and J. B. Joyce the two attesting witnesses thereto to be the last Will and Testament of David Richmond, deceased, and ordered to record as such which was done accordingly together with this certificate in my said office.

O. S. Joyce Clerk
By Mabel Wright"

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Josephine Hicks was a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks and was born in about 1840.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond were the following:

- 1) possibly Susan "Susie" Richmond, born in about 1868 in Kentucky,
- 2) possibly Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond, born in about 1870 in Kentucky,
- 3) Robert or Richard Richmond, born on October 26, 1872, or October 27, 1873, or in about 1874 in Kentucky, and
- 4) Alice (Richmond) Davis, born in about 1879 in Kentucky.

i. Possibly Susan "Susie" Richmond

Susan "Susie" Richmond was possibly a daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George², Matilda³, Josephine⁴)

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Susie Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 12 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1868. However, since Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was listed in that census record as Josephine Hicks, this Susan Richmond may have been a child of David Richmond by a prior marriage.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Susan Richmond as a daughter of David Richmond in the following obituary:

"Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

ii. Possibly Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond

Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond was possibly a daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George², Matilda³, Josephine⁴)

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Bettie Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 10 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1870. However, since Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was listed in that census record as Josephine Hicks, this Susan Richmond may have been a child of David Richmond by a prior marriage.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Elizabeth Richmond as a daughter of David Richmond in the following obituary:

"Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

iii. Robert Or Richard Daniel Richmond And His Wife
Mary Ethel () Richmond

Robert or Richard Daniel Richmond was a son of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles¹, 1845 George², Matilda³, Josephine⁴)

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Robert Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 6 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1874.

The 1900 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Robert __. Richmond in the David Richmond with the following household on June 9, 1900, his relationship as son, his birth in October 1872, his marital status as single, and his occupation as farm laborer.

The 1910 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Richard Richmond in the David Richmond household on April 21, 1910:

This record indicates that Robert or Richard Daniel Richmond was born in about 1875 and that Ethel (____) Richmond was born in about 1879 and that they were married in about 1901. In addition, it appears that sometime between 1900 and 1910 Robert Richmond decided to go by the name Richard rather than Robert.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Richard D. Richmond as a son of David Richmond in the following obituary:

In his letter dated May 21, 2004, Leonard E. Wright stated that Rezin Wright was a son of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright, but did not have documentation to confirm this identification. Leonard E. Wright further stated that Rezin Wright was born between 1780 and 1790 in Amherst County, Virginia, married Nancy Kindall, resided in 1830 in Gallatin County, Kentucky, resided in 1840 to 1843 in Carroll County, Kentucky, and died before December 15, 1843, in Carroll County, Kentucky, that Nancy (Kindall) Wright was born in 1794 and died on December 1, 1854, and that Rezin Wright and Nancy (Kindall) Wright had the following children:

1. Possibly Achilles Wright

Achilles Wright was possibly a son of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. (1825 Achilles¹, Samuel²)

No documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Achilles Wright as a son of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. However, the similarity of his given name and his grandfather's given name makes this a possible identification.

The 1840 Census for McCracken County, Kentucky, listed Achilles Wright with the following household:

This record indicates that this Achilles Wright was born between 1800 and 1810.

Achilles or Achillus or Killus Wright has not as yet been located in the 1850 Census.

In her letter dated June 10, 1988, Virginia H. Korn enclosed family group sheets which stated that Killus Wright was a son of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright, was born in 1792 in Amherst County, Virginia, resided in McCracken County, Kentucky, and died in Paducah, McCracken County, Kentucky.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Killus Wright was a son of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Killus Wright was a son of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

Lucinda (Wright) Lemaster was a daughter of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. (1825 Achilles¹, Samuel²)

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850 listed the marriage of Lucinda Wright and Duch Lemaster on February 20, 1815, in Henry County, Kentucky:

"Name: Lucinda Wright
 Marriage Date: 20 Feb 1815
 Marriage Place: Henry, Kentucky, USA
 Spouse: Duch Lemaster"

Although the husband's given name was listed as Duch, this was probably a misreading of Zach.

The 1830 Census for Marion County, Indiana, listed Zachariah Lamaster with the following household:

Names		Free White Males		Free White Females

Deaf & Dumb under 14	Deaf & Dumb 14 to 25	Deaf & Dumb 25+	Blind

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Zacharia Lemaster in the Vorhies Cemetery, Marion County, Indiana:

The photograph of this gravestone shows it to have been very worn. If this gravestone is correctly read, then Zachariah Lemaster was born on December 6, 1784.

The 1840 Census for Marion County, Indiana, listed Lucinda Lemaster with the following household:

and died on October 3, 1879, in Indianapolis, Indiana, that George Havens was born on January 16, 1817, in Kentucky, and died on March 8, 1891, in Ladoga, Montgomery County, Indiana, and that Sarah (Lemaster) Havens and George Havens had the following child:

1) Abraham Lincoln Havens, born on February 6, 1859, near Kokomo, Indiana.

However, Morgan County, Kentucky, was not formed until December 7, 1822, when it was created from Bath and Floyd Counties and so the county of birth was probably one of those two counties.

The Family Tree of Gary Vardell Poole stated that Sarah LeMaster was born on July 18, 1820, in Morgan County, Kentucky, and died on October 3, 1879, in Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Sarah (Lemaster) Havens and George Havens were the following:

- 1) Harriet W. Havens, born in about 1852 or 1853 or 1854 in Indiana,
- 2) Alice D. Havens, born in about 1854 or 1856 in Indiana,
- 3) George W. Havens, born on July 14, 1857, or in about 1858 in Indiana,
- 4) Abraham Lincoln Hamilton Havens, born on February 6, 1859, or February 6, 1860, or in about 1861 near Kokomo, Howard County, Indiana, and
- 5) Luetta Havens, born in about 1862 in Indiana.

Dow W. Vorhies, 63 years old, a member of the Board of County Commissioners, died at his home on the Bluff road yesterday, following an illness of six weeks.

Mr. Vorhies, who was serving his third term as commissioner, had been active in Democratic politics many years. He also had been both Perry township trustee and township assessor.

Funeral services will be in Shirley Brothers Central chapel, 946 North Illinois street, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Brief services will be held in the Center M. E. Church on the Bluff road at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon for Perry township friends and acquaintances.

Life Resident of County.

Mr. Vorhies had lived on the Bluff road all his life. He had resided at the present Vorhies farm place, near Troy avenue, since 1881. He was born at the LeMaster farm on the Bluff road on what is known as the LeMaster hill. Both farms were obtained by the LeMaster and Vorhies families by land grant from the Federal government. Mr. Vorhies was the son of pioneer residents of the county, John B. Vorhies and Lucinda LeMaster Vorhies.

Mr. Vorhies attended public school No. 9 on the Bluff road, the old Indianapolis High School, Emmerich Manual Training High School and Purdue University.

He was a charter member of the Indiana Democratic Club, a member of the board of trustees of the Center Methodist Church and a director of the Southport State Bank. He had been active in affairs of the Indiana Farm Bureau and was one of the organizers of the Indiana County Commissioners Association. He had served as president and was secretary-treasurer of the association at his death.

The county commissioner had held public office for 27 years. He was known as a staunch advocate fo home rule in government. He served as Perry township assessor for 10 years, as trustee of the township for eight years and as commissioner for almost nine years. His term was to end Dec. 31. Mr. Vorhies was defeated for renomination in the Democratic primary election last May.

Commissioners indicated yesterday that Harry F. Hohit, the successful candidate for the post, will be named to fill Mr. Vorhies's unexpired term.

The widow of Mr. Vorhies, Mrs. Henrietta Vorhies, is the only immediate survivor.

The Re. A. L. Swarens, pastor of Center Church, will have charge of the funeral services. John F. Linder, county attorney, also will speak at the services in the funeral home chapel. 3. Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, Her Husband William Jackson, and Her Descendants

Rhoda (Wright) Jackson was a daughter of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. (1825 Achilles¹, Samuel²)

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Rhoda Wright and William Jackson on February 2, 1819, at Warren County, Kentucky:

"Name: William Jackson
 Marriage Date: 2 Feb 1819
 Marriage Place: Warren, Kentucky, USA
 Spouse: Rhoda Wright"

The 1820 Census for Warren County, Kentucky, listed one William Jackson with the following household:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners

Since Samuel Wright first married in 1791, the male aged 16 to 26 would be William Jackson, Jr., and the female aged 16 to 26 would be his wife Rhoda (Wright) Jackson. This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were born between 1795 and 1804.

In her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that on February 15, 1827, at Henry County, Tennessee, D.B. B/243 William H. Jackson of Henry County purchased from Samuel Hewlet 20 acres of land on the waters of Holly Fork of Sandy River:

"This Indenture made and entered into this the 15th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and twenty Seven Between Samuel Hewlet of the County of Henry and State of Tennessee of the one part and William H Jackson of the County and State aforesaid Witnesseth that the Said Samuel Hewlet for and in the consideration of the Sum of Eighty dollars conveyd unto the Said William H Jackson twenty Acres of land Situated lying and being in the County of Henry and State aforesaid on the Waters of the Holly fork of Sandy in the fifth range and Eighth Section and twelfth District Entered in the name of the Said Samuel Hewlet At the North West Corner of Entry No 831 in the name of Daniel Anderson for 150 acres to a Stake On Andersons line containing twenty acres

Samuel X Hewlet [his mark]"

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that the 1827 Tax List for Henry County, Tennessee, listed William H. Jackson with 20 acres of land and 1 free poll.

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that on March 3, 1828, at Henry County, Tennessee, County Court Minute Book 3/516 William H. Jackson acted as surety on an administration bond filed by John N. Jackson and Nancy Hudspeth:

"On motion it is ordered by the Court that letters of administration of all and singular the goods & chattels rights & credits of John Hudspeth be granted to John N Jackson & Nancy Hudspeth who entered into bond of $200 with Wm Jackson Senr & Wm H Jackson as Securities and was sworn according to law".

The 1830 Census for Warren County, Kentucky, did not list a William Jackson.

The 1830 Census for Henry County, Tennessee, listed two William Jacksons, one of whom was William Jackson, Sr., age 70 to 80, and immediately below him William Jackson with what appears to be the designation "Junr" after his name and with the following household:

Names Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age

This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were born between 1790 and 1800 and in conjunction with the 1820 Census, between 1795 and 1800. The second oldest male in the household would be too old to be born to William and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, but might have been a sibling.

In her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that the Henry County, Tennessee, Tax Lists for 1832, 1833, and 1835 listed William H. Jackson with 40 acres of land and 1 free poll.

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that on May 9, 1835, at Henry County, Tennessee, D.B. E/295 William H. Jackson of Henry County sold to Richard Lee the 20 acres of land purchased in 1827 by Henry County, Tennessee, Deed B/243:

The 1840 Census for Henry County, Tennessee, listed two William Jacksons, one of whom was William Jackson with the oldest male in his household aged 20 to 30 and the second of whom was William H. Jackson with the oldest male in his household aged 20 to 30. Both of these William Jacksons were too young to be the William Jackson who married Rhoda Wright in 1819.

The 1840 Census for McCracken County, Kentucky, listed a William H. Jackson with the following household:

This record may be for William H. Jackson who married Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, because Achilles Wright was listed on the same census page and within ten households of William H. Jackson. If this identification is correct, then this record indicates that William H. Jackson and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson were born between 1800 and 1810.

As more fully set forth below, William H. Jackson moved in 1841 to Massac County, Illinois.

The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index listed the marriage of William H. Jackson and Rachel Finly on February 19, 1849, in Massac County, Illinois:

"Groom	Bride	Date	Volume	Page
JACKSON, WILLIAM H	FINLY, RACHEL	1849-02-19	0MB	0006

This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson had died before February 19, 1849.

On January 2, 1854, at BLM Accession No. MW-0736-266 William H. Jackson, as assignee of Virtue Sweath, patented 42.79 acres of land in Massac County, Illinois:

"The United States of America,

The Biographical Review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin Counties, Illinois, Biographical Publishing Co., Chicago, 1893, pages 296-297, included the following about Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson in a biography of James H. Johnson:

". . . .
James H. Johnson was reared on his father's farm and had few educational advantages. In his twenty-first year he left home and was married in Massac County, Ill., to P.M. Jackson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1826. Her parents, William H. and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, were natives of Indiana and Tennessee respectively. The father was a farmer by occupation and became a resident of Massac County, Ill., in 1841. He and his son James H. prepared the grounds for the court house in Metropolis, clearing away the timber and stumps. The mother died in 1846, leaving a family of five sons and five daughters, while her husband survived her many years, dying in 1868, at which time he had reached the age of seventy-two years. Of the large family of brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johnson and one brother, James H., are the only surviving members. He is a farmer of Massac County and in his early manhood was noted for his courage, physical strength and agility. At Metropolis he once swam the Ohio River, and, like his father before him, was a model of great physical strength.

. . . ."

In her letter dated June 10, 1988, Virginia H. Korn enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright, was born in Virginia, and married William Jackson in Kentucky.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were the following:

- 1) possibly Thomas N. Jackson,
- 2) James H. Jackson, born in about 1824 or 1826 or in February 1828 in Henry County, Tennessee,
- 3) Paralee Melissia (Jackson) Johnson, born in about 1825 or in January 1826 or in about 1827 in Henry County, Tennessee,
- 4) possibly William C. Jackson,
- 5) possibly Charlotte (Jackson) Wilson, and
- 6) Easter Jackson, born in 1844 in Illinois.

a. Possibly Thomas N. Jackson

Thomas N. Jackson was possibly a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson. (1825 Achilles¹, Samuel², Rhoda³)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying Thomas N. Jackson as a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson.

However, in her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that Thomas N. Jackson was probably a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson for the following reasons:

"1. Charlotte Nelms Jackson, mother of William H. Jackson, was herself the daughter of Thomas Nelms. Nancy Jackson Hudspeth, sister of William H. Jackson, named one of her sons Thomas N. Hudspeth.

2. In the censuses of 1860 and 1870, Thomas N. Jackson was reported as born about 1819 in Kentucky. William H. Jackson married Rhoda Wright in Warren Co, KY, on 2 February 1819.

3. At the time of the 1860 and 1870 censuses, Thomas N. Jackson was living in Butler Co, MO, the county to which William H. Jackson moved prior to 1860. In 1860, Thomas N. Jackson was recorded next household to the household of an H./A.? M. Thompson which included a Lucinda Finley, aged 16, born IL. William H. Jackson married as his second wife Rachel Finley in Massac Co, IL, on 19 February 1849. In 1870, Thomas N. Jackson was recorded 2nd household from William H. Jackson."

Further research will be required to confirm this identification.

b. James H. Jackson, His Wives Elizabeth (Johnson) Jackson
And Amanda (Brumit) Jackson, And His Descendants

James H. Jackson was a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson. (1825 Achilles¹, Samuel², Rhoda³)

This record indicates that James H. Jackson was born in about 1824 and that Amanda (Brumit) Jackson had died before June 9, 1880. The information for the last child E. F. Jackson appears to be a conflation of the data for Elizabeth F. Jackson and James H. Jackson's son Franklin Jackson listed in the 1900 Census and the census taker may have dropped the end of one line of information and the beginning of the next.

This record indicates that Paralee Melissia (Jackson) Johnson and James H. Johnson were born in about 1827. This was the only record where James H. Johnson's name was listed as John H. The Biographical Review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin Counties, Illinois, published by the Biographical Publishing Co., Chicago, 1893, included the following biography of James H. Johnson at pages 296-297:

"JAMES H. JOHNSON, one of the well-known farmers of Johnson County, owns a farm on section 1, township 12, range 4. He is a native of Pope County, born near New Dixon Springs, November 9, 1825, to Lewis Johnson, who was a native of Green County, Tenn., his birth having occurred in 1804. The latter was a son of Thomas, a native of North Carolina and a farmer by occupation, and died in Tennessee at a ripe old age, leaving a family of six children, of whom Lewis was the eldest. Our subject's grandmother, whose maiden name was Frances Herrington, died in Missouri in 1858, aged about seventy-five years. Lewis Johnson was married in Pope County in the year 1824, to Miss Tennessee Ward, of Kentucky. To them were born five children, three sons and two daughters, of whom our subject is the eldest, and with a brother, Thomas, is the only surviving member of the family. The mother of these children died on the old homestead in Pope County in 1837, while still in early womanhood, being only about thirty years of age. The father was afterwards married, and departed this life in Missouri May 9, 1873, aged sixty-nine years.

James H. Johnson was reared on his father's farm and had few educational advantages. In his twenty-first year he left home and was married in Massac County, Ill., to P. M. Jackson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1826. Her parents, William H. and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, were natives of Indiana and Tennessee respectively. The father was a farmer by occupation and became a resident of Massac County, Ill., in 1841. He and his son James H. prepared the grounds for the court house in Metropolis, clearing away the timber and stumps. The mother died in 1846, leaving a family of five sons and five daughters, while her husband survived her many years, dying in 1868, at which time he had reached the age of seventy-two years. Of the large family of brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johnson and one brother, James H., are the only surviving members. He is a farmer of Massac County and in his early manhood was noted for his courage, physical strength and agility. At Metropolis he once swam the Ohio River, and, like his father before him, was a model of great physical strength.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson began housekeeping in Metropolis on a very small scale, their cash capital amounting to only $1.35. They rented a house in the village, which was then a very small one, and raised a crop on rented land. Their eldest child, James H., is a minister in the Baptist Church, and a daughter, who was commonly called Alice, became the wife of Samuel W. Hester. She was christened Sarah Elizabeth Clementine Rhoda Tennessee Catherine Alice Ann Virginia, and died in 1887, leaving two sons. Our subject and wife have the following living children: James H., who is married and has a son and two daughters; Lewis G., a farmer of Massac County; Eli W., who is a railroad man, his residence being in Brooklyn, this State; William T., who carries on a farm near his father's residence and has a family of five sons and two daughters; and Charles F., a railroad man living at Cairo, Ill., who has a family comprising a wife and two sons. They have also buried two infant sons.

The eldest of the family, James H., was with his father in the army, both being members of the Sixth Illinois Cavalry. Our subject was however, first a member of Company M, Light Artillery, enlisting in 1861 and serving in that regiment until August 29, 1863, when he returned and re-enlisted in March, 1865, in Company M. At the end of one year's service father and son were both honorably discharged. Mr. Johnson, Sr., has been an invalid for many years, much of the time being confined to his bed as a result of the privations and hardships of his service in the defense of the Union. He is one of the worthy pensioners of Uncle Sam and is patiently awaiting his last discharge and final promotion. He and his sons are true-blue Republicans, and are esteemed members of the Baptist Church."

On June 28, 1814, in the case of Crisp v. Montgomery, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1820-013, a summons was issued against James Wright who had intermarried with one of the legatees of William Crisp, deceased:

"The Commonwealth of Virginia -

To the Sheriff of Nelson County, Greeting.

About or sometime after June 28, 1814, in the case of Crisp v. Montgomery, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1820-013, Lucy Crisp filed the following petition:

"To the worshipful Court of Nelson County in Chancery sitting your oratrix Lucy Crisp represents that she executed her bond to James Montgomery &c for the benefit of James Wright for the sum of £133:6:10 on the 11th December 1809 being the whole amount of James Wrights legacy and interest in the estate of William Crisp, that the said bond was Credited for £15:14:9 before the dat of the said bond. That Jenkins filed an attachment in chancery against the said James Wright & obtained a decree against him as also Thomas Hawkins William Brown & Co. has also filed an attachment and £75 has been restrained in her hands subject to the further order and decree of this Court, which order has never been recinded. Your Oratrix represents that at the last term she was too sick to attend and as some of her defence was of an equitable nature she could not then have availed herself of it at Common law that the aforesaid decrees and amount restrained in her hands by Wm Brown & Co and her order drawn on your Oratrix by the Commissioners for Hawkins decree for £23:18:3 and other payments, and her claim for Costs as Garnished will she supposes more than balance the amount of said bond. Yet so it is that a Judgt. has been obtained on the same for the benefit of Samuel Edmunds who had also a decree for a debt against the said Wright and your Oratrix is now harrassed with an execution for the same for £37:1:0. Your Oratrix prays to refer to this Court to ascertain their several amounts. your Oratrix avers that all the payments made for James Wright were out of her said legacy and that he had no funds visible besides that legacy She prays therefore that the said Judgment may be enjoined untill she can make the case more plain and manifest and that the said Edmunds may be made party to this bill. your Oratrix boaded said Wrights wife and two children four months which was not Credited on said bond. These with her other claims which she expects to prove will show the propriety of arresting the said Judgment

James Wright has not as yet been identified in the 1820 Census.

The will of Achilles Wright dated January 17, 1824, and probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/34 listed James Wright as one of his children:

". . . . Item Second. My will and desire is that my sons George and Nelson and my daughters Lucy, Milly, Patsy and Polly and the heirs of my son James have an equal share or portion of the balance of my estate, and as there is accounts standing against each of the above named seven children except the heirs of James, my desire is that these assets shall be taken account of and considered as part of my estate and each receive his portion accordingly. Item third. My will and desire is that the heirs of my son James shall receive an equal portion of the balance of my estate with the above seven mentioned children and that his son George shall receive one half of that portion, and the other half shall be equally divided between the two girls Mahala and Elizabeth. . . ."

This record identifies George Wright, Mahala Wright, and Elizabeth Wright as the children and heirs of James Wright and indicates that James Wright had probably died before January 17, 1824.

On November 10, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, George Wright, Elijah Skidmore, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and Mahala (Wright) Covert, as heirs of their parents James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright and their grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp, filed a petition for the sale of the land of William Crisp:

They further charge that the lands aforesaid of which said William Crisp died seized and possessed have been since the death of Lucy Crisp decd, wholly in the possession of said Charles Purvis, that the said lands have been productive and was worth in yearly rent a large sum to wit the sum of $____ and that they have as yet received no part of the lands aforesaid or the profits thereof nor have they received any part of the dower estate of Lucy Crisp decd. in the personal estate of Wm Crisp decd. nor have they received any part of the Estate of Peggy Crisp decd. all of which has been disposed of by the said Charles Purvis and some one or more of the other children & heirs of said William Crisp decd. to their great injury and oppression. They therefore pray that Justice may be done unto them and for that purpose pray that the lands of which said William Crisp died seized and possessed which is not worth three hundred dollars to each of the original heirs and legal representatives may be sold and the proceeds divided among those legally and equitably entitled thereto, and that the said Charles Purvis render an account of the rents and profits thereof, that the dower slaves of the said Lucy Crisp in the estate of her husband William Crisp decd if to be found in the possession of any one or more of the heirs of said William Crisp decd be also divided or sold & the proceeds divided among the legal claimants thereto, and if not to be found that a decree over in favour of your orators & oratrices against those heirs who have received them be awarded by the Court for their just distributable share and for that purpose they pray that an account be taken of the value and hires of said slaves, or of the amount of sales and interests thereof, and that an account be also taken of such of the slaves if any or other personal estate which went into the Lands possession or to the personal estate which to the use of any of the brothers & sisters of Peggy Crisp decd. and that the said Charles Purvis be also compelled to render an account of his actings & doings as admr. of Lucy Crisp decd. and the just portion of your orators & oratrices therein be decreed to them.

The plaintiffs are the same persons described in the will of Achilles Wright as his grandchildren and, therefore, this record confirms that James Wright, the son of Achilles Wright, married Lucy Crisp. This record also identifies the children of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright as the following:

- 1) George Wright,
- 2) Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and
- 3) Mahala (Wright) Covert.

This record also indicates that James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright migrated in about 1806 to Kentucky, that they resided in about 1814 in Kentucky, that Lucy (Crisp) Wright died in about 1826 in Kentucky, and that James Wright may have died after 1826 in Kentucky.

George Wright of this record was 1845 George Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, a son of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, and Ellis G. Wright was a son of 1845 George Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, and Silas Gatewood was a son of Mildred (Wright) Gatewood and grandson of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky. These deponents clearly connect James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright with the family of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky.

Sometime after May 22, 1846, the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, was settled among the parties by an agreed payment of $400 by Charles Purvis to the plaintiffs:

As set forth below, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore was the daughter of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright.

On August 28, 1832, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore and her husband Elijah Skidmore in Henry County, Kentucky, appointed Charles Purvis their attorney in fact to act for them in connection with Elizabeth's interest in the estates of her grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp and her aunt Margaret Crisp, a copy of which power of attorney was included in the case of Wright v. .....
Claim of Mr. Frank Skidmore
vs. For Pension
Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Mr. Skidmore, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

- Q. Mr. Skidmore, what is your age and occupation?
A. I am 71 past, used to be a farmer.
Q. How long have you been a resident of Trimble County?
A. 71 years only what time I was in the army. I did live two years in Henry County. I have been here a long time.
Q. What Property, if any, do you own?
A. I don't own any.
Q. What property does your wife own?
A. She owns 82 acres of land down by Antioch.
Q. What is that land worth?
A. Give it in at $800.
Q. What in your opinion is its real vendable value, that is to sell it?
A. It woud'nt bring over $1200.
Q. What means of support do you have out side of this farm?
A. None at all.
Q. How much during the year do you make on the farm?
A. I don't make anything, I can only work in the garden a little.
Q. What income does your wife get off the farm?
A. Nothing only a living, the boy that we live with don't make all of that on the farm. He supports us.
Q. Who lives on the farm with you?
A. George and John. John supports us.
Q. How old is John?
A. 35 years old.
Q. Do you have as much as $300 during the run of the year?
A. No sir, I don't have that much income.
Q. What is your ability to work and earn money by manual labor?
A. I could'nt do a hard days work to save my life. I have completely broken down my nerves.

- Q. Do you have any income at all except what you get off the farm?
A. No sir.
Q. But for your son that lives with you, could you earn a living for you and your wife off the farm?
A. No sir, I could not do it, I am not able and besides I never could plough in my life. I was not raised to plough and don't know anything about it.
Q. You have any trade or profession other than gardening or farming?
A. When I was a young man I was a wood butcher, making $1.00 a day.
Q. How long has it been since you followed that profession?
A. It has been 20 years since I worked at that business.
Q. What would you say would be your income from the farm, combined with your ability to earn a living?
A. I hardly know. We get a right smart from the garden and that is all I can do.
Q. Do I understand you to say that John supports you and his mother?
A. He takes care of us, Yes sir.
Q. You have no other income from any other place?
A. No sir.
Q. Would that farm support you and your wife should you rent it to some one else other than your own son?
A. I don't expect it would. It is getting worn out pretty bad now, no tobacco land, no timber and no grass.
Q. Have you sown any of it in grass?
A. Yes, but it don't get no stand. We sow every year but it is rough and hilly and hard to get a stand.
Q. You say there is 82 acres of that land, Mr. Skidmore?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Does both your sons and yourself and wife get a support off that farm?
A. John raises his young stock every year and sells it.
Q. Does he raise the stock on this farm?
A. He keeps it there a while and when he takes it off he has to pay pasturage on it, there is not any grass on that farm.
Q. Do they cultivate any land other than on that farm, don't raise any crop?
A. That is all.
Q. Have they any income other than what they get from that farm?
A. George is always carpentering around in the winter and he makes his support by that and raises a few mules and sells them to throw in on it.
Q. About how much do they get for their crop that they sell off that place a year?
A. They sell from $150 to $200 a piece, sometimes it is not so much.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Virginia Skidmore, George Skidmore, John Skidmore, and Katie Skidmore in the Bedford Cemetery, Bedford, Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Skidmore
George	John	Katie	Virginia
1869 - 1952	1874 - 1946	1871 - 1917	1866 - 1937"

Although this stone listed Virginia Skidmore as born in 1866 and died in 1937, which would indicate that it was for someone other than Virginia (Colbert) Skidmore, since her birth was in 1836 and her death in 1927, this was probably an error in preparing the stone and this is the gravestone for Virginia (Colbert) Skidmore.

On May 28, 1927, at Trimble County, Kentucky, Administrator's Bond Book 1885-1966, page 48, G. J. Skidmore acted as surety on the bond filed by E. B. McCain to act as administrator of the estate of Virginia Skidmore:

Now, we E. B. McCain Administrator and G. J. Skidmore surety, do hereby covenant to and with the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the penal sum of One McCain will well and truly administer the goods, chattels, credits, and effects of the said estate according to law, and will further make a just and true account of all his actings and doings therein; and will well and truly make a proper distribution of any surplus money, effects, and rents, which may come to his hands, or to any one for him by color of his office, to the persons entitled thereto. If it shall hereafter appear that a last Will and Testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved and recorded, we further covenant that the said E. B. McCain will, in such case, surrender his letters of administration; and that he will account with, and pay and deliver over to the Executor or Administrator with the Will annexed, the assets in his hands unadministered.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Isadore (Skidmore) (Colbert) Callis and Harvey Colbert were the following:

Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated March 23, 1909, from the Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis, Indiana, regarding Perry D. Colbert and his return from a round the world tour:

"Chinese Dislike American Clothes

I want a nice, quiet room where I can rest and won't be disturbed for two whole days," said a tall young man wearing a brown traveling suit, as he deposited a big traveling bag on the desk at the Claypool Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Behind him stood two bell boys holding other traveling bags and suit cases which belonged to the tall young man.

The new guest wrote on the register: "Perry D. Colbert, Hong Kong, China."

Mr. Colbert got his quiet room, and did not emerge until 6 o'clock, when he came down for his dinner. He had just finished a trip of 32,000 miles, which included a tour of the world. Years ago Mr. Colbert lived in Indiana. At the close of the Spanish-American war he went to Hong Kong and opened a tailoring establishment. He also opened a branch house in Manilla. A year ago he sold out his business and started out to see the world. He completed the tour yesterday when he arrived in Indianapolis.

"I sold clothes to the Americans and Europeans in Hong Kong, " he said, "but not to the natives. The Chinese will never take kindly to our mode of dress. Even the fetching costumes of American women who go over there do not appeal to the Chinese women. They say the Americans and the English dress "queerly."

Mr. Colbert was in Japan when the American fleet touched the Japanese shores. "A war with Japan," he said, "would be a fine fight, for the Japanese government is just as well fixed as America in the way of battle ships. I saw the American fleet when it reached Japan. For every battle ship in the fleet Japan had one just as good.

"I want to say, however, that this talk about war with Japan is all rot. There is nothing to it. Japan does not want to fight America, and feels kindly toward us. In all my travels of 32,000 miles I did not find a single country that does not feel friendly toward the United States.

"Concerning the Phillippines I should like to be quoted as saying that the United States made no mistake in taking over those Islands. It is a great country, and is going to develop enormous riches in the way of mining.

In his tour of the world Mr. Colbert says that he found France the most up to date of the foreign countries. "The most miserable conditions I found," he said, "were in Egypt."

The 1910 Census for Amarillo, Potter County, Texas, listed Perry D. Colbert in the Amarillo Hotel on May 31, 1910, his relationship as boarder, his age as 30 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1880, his marital status as single, and occupation as traveling salesman of dry goods.

The 1910 Census for Carroll County, Missouri, listed Nora Heins in the Daniel Heins household on April 18, 1910, her relationship as daughter, her age as 32 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1878, and her marital status as single. As set forth below, Nora E. Heins was the first wife of Perry Dudley Colbert.

The 1910 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Lizzie Wright in the William Wright household on May 8, 1910, her relationship as daughter, her age as 19 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1891, and her marital status as

The age and place of birth of this Lucy Ellen Wright are the same as those for Lucy Wright, the daughter of George Wright and Jemima (Lane) Wright. In addition, the marriage location of the residence of E. F. Skidmore, who would be Franklin Elijah Skidmore, the brother in law of George and Jemima Wright, would seem to confirm this identification. The witness Daniel Lane Jr. was probably Daniel Smith Lane, a cousin of George Wright, and adds additional circumstantial evidence to this identification.

The chantges become effective tonight, and include a general shakeup among bicyclemen and wagonmen.

"Board Reduces Wright; Explanation Withheld

Action Taken On Recommendatio Of Perrott.

Other Police Cases Held Up

On the recommendation of Sam V. Perrott, chief of police, the board of public safety, yesterday afternoon, reduced Zack Wright, a wagonman at plice headquarters, to the rank of patrolman. When Perrott made the recommendation the members of the board asked no questions and amde no comment. They simply did what Perrott recommended. Perrott did not make any explanation of the reason for the reduction of Wright.

"What's the matter with Wright?" Perrott was asked by a man at the meeting.

The chief did not reply, but merely gazed out at a window.

"What's the matter with Wright?" Perrott was asked again.

Perrott seemed to have developed a sudden attack of ear trouble.

"What's the matter with Wright?" was asked again.

"Why, were you talking to me?" Perrott asked, whereupon he walked out of the room.

Signed Remonstrance.

Wright lives in the Fourth ward, and he signed the remonstrance filed with the county commissioners to prohibit licensed saloons in the ward. Whether this action had any effect on his standing as a member of the police department, however, does not appear in connection with his reduction in rank.

This record indicates that Howard Wright and Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis were born in about 1889. The listing of Howard Wright's occupation as steam shovel engineer confirms him as the same Howard Wright as listed in the World War I Draft Registration Card and the identification of Jada Borden as brother in law confirms the identification of Howard's wife Della as Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis. Although Della's daughter Hazel was listed as Wright, her age of 14 confirms that this was actually Hazel Empson, a daughter of Della's prior marriage to Harry Empson. This census record in conjunction with the records relating to Harry Empson set forth above indicate that Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis and Harry Empson divorced probably before his enlistment in the Army on May 7, 1918, and that Harry survived World War I to remarry on October 24, 1919.

Although this record listed his death in 1851, I suspect that this was a misreading of 1891 and therefore, this record is the gravestone of James Logan Colbert.

Neither Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert nor James L. or Logan Colbert has been located in the 1900 Census.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert and James Logan Colbert were the following:

married second Lillie (____) Phillips in about 1910. The listing of Nellie Phillips as born in 1901 indicates that she was the daughter of Martha Ann (Colbert) Phillips and John Hamilton Phillips.

iii. Pearl O. (Colbert) Haire, Her Husband William A. Haire, And Her Descendants

Pearl O. (Colbert) Haire was a daughter of Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert and James Logan Colbert. (1825 Achilles¹, 1831 Nelson², William B.³, Luradine or Laura D.⁴)

The marriage record of Arthur P. Colbert and Willie Hair was dated on January 16, 1905, in Henderson County, Kentucky:

"[1904-1905] Marriages.

Although this record listed the bride as Arthur P. Colbert, that would seem clearly not to be a bride's given name. A number of Ancestry.com family trees listed her first given name as Offa, but no documentation has as yet been found to confirm that first given name. If her first given name was Offa, then this record may have been a mislisting of the bride's first name, which sounded like Arthur. In any event, the date of marriage and the ages of the parties are consistent with the 1910 Census set forth below and, therefore, this record is probably that of the marriage of Pearl O. Colbert and William A. Haire.

The 1910 Census for Henderson County, Kentucky, listed William Haire with the following household on May 12, 1910:

Although her given name was listed as Bivian, this was apparently a mistake of the census taker and all other records that have been found listed her given name as Vivian.

This record indicates that William Franklin Wright was born in about 1856, married apparently a second time before April 22, 1930, and divorced before April 22, 1930. Alternatively, his first marriage may have ended in divorce and the 1900 Census listed him as widowed rather than divorced, because of the social stigma then attached to divorce. Further research will be required to clarify this issue.

Death saddened a honeymoon last night when it suddenly claimed Mrs. Geo. A. Peak of No. 840 Carondolet street. Mrs. Peak, who was aged 56 years, became ill at 9:30 o'clock and a physician was at once summoned, but she passed away within an hour. She was the mother of Miss Pauline P. Peak, who was married on Saturday under very romantic circumstances. The two events, while not in any way connected, have a peculiar and pathetic interest on account of the coincidence. It is an unusual instance of great joy and deep sorrow doming together.

Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated January 29, 1907, in The Los Angeles Times regarding the death of Minerva (Ray) Peak and the marriage of Pauline P. Peak and Albert W. McCready:

"Death Makes Sad Their Honeymoon.

Death saddened a honeymoon last night when it suddenly claimed Mrs. Geo. A. Peak of No. 840 Carondelet street. Mrs. Peak, who was aged 56 years, became ill at 9:30 o'clock and a physician was at once summoned, but she passed away within an hour. She was the mother of Miss Pauline P. Peak, who was married on Saturday under very romantic circumstances. The two events, while not in any way connected, have a peculiar and pathetic interest on account of the coincidence. It is an unusual instance of great joy and deep sorrow doming together.

The marriage - in every way a happy one - was an elopement.

Saturday morning, Albert W. McCready - or "Willie," as his mother still fondly calls him - awoke before the first sunbeams found their way into his little room in the McCready establishment at No. 942 Carondelet street. Down the street a way, at No. 840, Miss Pauline Peak, formerly of Topeka, Kan., also awoke, simultaneously. The awakenings were prearranged, premeditated, and were caused by two alarm clocks, set so as to ring at the same time.

The other outward facts of an elopement that followed via the Seventh street car line, Salt Lake train to riverside and return, are commonplace, but the sotry back of the affair is a stirring one in the annals of lovers.

For six months Willie had been "teasing" to be allowed to marry pretty Miss Peak. Miss Peak was willing; Miss Peak's mother and father were willing, even to the extent of being in love with the boy themselves, according to McCready's mother; Willie's little brother was willing, looking upon the event as "inevitable;" everybody in the world was apparently willing, with the exception of Willie's own fond mother and father. Their only objection was that he hadn't attained sufficient years to entitle him to a marriage license.

Dread forebodings of what was going to happen came to Willie's younger brother, but he maintained a discreet silence. The parents remained firm in their stand that the event would have to be delayed until next September, when their boy would reach the age of 21, but at length they began to have an inkling that that would prove too long a time, and so began to hold out hopes to William that they might be moved to relent in June.

Signs of weakening were all that the young people wanted, and forthwith the alarm clocks were set. Sunday evening a messenger boy appeared before Mrs. McCready, saying that her son and daughter-in-law were comfortably settled in their new establishment at No. 840 Carondelet, the home of the bride, and that they would be glad to receive her and her blessing as soon as that was forthcoming.

Willie's mother only laughed when she got the news, which was all the blessing required.

Albert William McCready, the handsome and youthful groom, is well known in local automobile circles, and also as a former student at the Los Angeles High School. He attended the school for a year and a half, leaving it in December of 1905 to go into the automobile insurance business. At the High School he was a member of the Alpha Pi Fraternity, and did some good work on the track team. At present he has an office downtown, and besides doing an automobile insurance business, has an agency for a car. It was at a High School club dance at Kramer's on New Year's Eve of 1906 that he first met Miss Peak, and the match was a love-at-first-sight affair.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCready of No. 912 Carondelet street. His father is a well-known builder and contractor, and came here with his family eight years ago from South Dakota."

v. George Roby Peak

George Roby Peak was a son of Minerva (Ray) Peak and George A. Peak. (1825 Achilles¹, 1831 Nelson², Narcissa M.³, Minerva⁴)

The 1895 Kansas State Census listed Roby Peak in the George A. Peak household in Shawnee County, Kansas, on March 1, 1895, and his age as 4, indicating a date of birth in about 1891.

The 1900 Census for Shawnee County, Kansas, listed George R. Peak in the George A. Peak household on June 4, 1900, his relationship as son, and his birth in January 1891 in Kansas.

The 1905 Kansas State Census did not list George Roby Peak in the George A. Peak household in Shawnee County, Kansas, on March 1, 1905, indicating that he had probably died before that date.

The 1910 Census for Los Angeles County, California, listed Roby Peak in the Albert W. McCready household on April 20, 1910, his relationship as brother in law, his age as 20 and born in Kansas, indicating a date of birth in about 1890, his marital status as single, and his occupation as general machinist.

The California, Death Index, 1940-1997, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of a Roby L. Peak in 1913:

"Name:	Roby L Peak
Birth Year:	abt 1890
Death Date:	3 May 1913
Age at Death:	23
Death Place:	Los Angeles, California, USA"

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Roby G. L. Peak, Jr., in the Angelus Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California:

"Roby G. L.
Peak Jr.
1890 - 1913"

The differences in the names in the 1910 Census, the death record, and the gravestone, especially the use of the suffix "Jr.", raises the possibility that there were two Roby Peaks involved. However, the 1910 Census listed only one Roby Peak and no George Peak in Los Angeles County, California, and George Roby Wright has not as yet been found in the 1920 Census. The result is that George Roby Peak was probably the same person as Roby G. L. Peak, Jr.

Narrative of the Life and Adventures of Henry Bibb, An American Slave, Written by Himself, by Henry Bibb, published in New York in 1849, included the following letter written by Daniel S. Lane:

"Bedford, Kentucky, April 6th, 1845.

Mr. Charles H. Stewart.

Sir:--Yours of the 1st March is before me, inquiring if one Walton Bibb, a colored man, escaped from me at Louisville Ky., in the Spring of 1839. To that inquiry I answer, he did. The particulars are these: He ran off from William Gatewood some time in 1838 I think, and was heard of in Cincinnati. Myself and some others went there and took him, and took him to Louisville for sale, by the directions of his master. While there he made his escape and was gone some time, I think about one year or longer. He came back it was said, to get his wife and child, so report says. He was again taken by his owner; he together with his wife and child was taken to Louisville and sold to a man who traded in negroes, and was taken by him to New Orleans and sold with his wife and child to some man up Red River, so I was informed by the man who sold him. He then ran off and left his wife and child and got back, it seems, to your Country. I can say for Gatewood he was a good master, and treated him well. Gatewood bought him from a Mr. Sibly, who was going to send him down the river. Walton, to my knowledge, influenced Gatewood to buy him, and promised if he would never to disobey him or run off. Who he belongs to now, I do not know. I know Gatewood sold his wife and child at a great sacrifice, to satisfy him. If any other information is necessary I will give it, if required. You will please write me again what he is trying to do in your country, or what he wishes the inquiry from me for.

Yours, truly,

Daniel S. Lane."

Narrative of the Life and Adventures of Henry Bibb, An American Slave, Written by Himself also included the following description of Daniel S. Lane by Henry Bibb and a description of Bibb's escape from Lane:

"The next morning after they had taken breakfast, four of them left me in the care of Dan Lane. He was what might be called one of the watch dogs of Kentucky. There was nothing too mean for him to do. He never blushed to rob a slave mother of her children, no matter how young or small. He was also celebrated for slave selling, kidnapping, and negro hunting. He was well known in that region by the slaves as well as the slaveholders, to have all the qualifications necessary for his business. He was a drunkard, a gambler, a profligate, and a slaveholder.

While the other four were looking around through the city for a purchaser, Dan was guarding me with his bowie knife and pistols. After awhile the others came in with two persons to buy me, but on seeing me they remarked that they thought I would run away, and asked me if I had ever run away. I sprang to his feet and answered the question for me, by telling one of the most palpable falsehoods that ever came from the lips of a slaveholder. He declared that I had never run away in my life!

Fortunately for me, Dan, while the others were away, became unwell; and from taking salts, or from some other cause, was compelled to leave his room. Off he started to the horse stable which was located on one of the most public streets of Louisville, and of course I had to accompany him. He gallanted me into the stable by the arm, and placed himself back in one of the horses stalls and ordered me to standby until he was ready to come out.

At this time a thousand thoughts were flashing through my mind with regard to the propriety of trying the springs of my heels, which nature had so well adapted for taking the body out of danger, even in the most extraordinary emergencies. I thought in the attempt to get away by running, if I should not succeed, it could make my condition no worse, for they could but sell me and this they were then trying to do. These thoughts impelled me to keep edging towards the door, though very cautiously. Dan kept looking around after me as if he was not satisfied at my getting so near to the door. But the last I saw of him in the stable was just as he turned his eyes from me; I nerved myself with all the moral courage I could command and bolted for the door, perhaps with the fleetness of a much frightened deer, who never looks behind in time of peril. Dan was left in the stable to make ready for the race, or jump out into the street half dressed, and thereby disgrace himself before the public eye.

It would be impossible for me to set forth the speed with which I run to avoid my adversary; I succeeded in turning a corner before Dan got sight of me, and by fast running, turning corners, and jumping high fences, I was enabled to effect my escape.

Daniel Lane's account of my escape from him, looked so unreasonable to slaveholders, that many of them charged him with selling me and keeping the money, while others believed that I had got away from him, and was then in the neighborhood, trying to take off my wife and child, which was true. Lane declared that in less than five minutes after I run out of the stable in Louisville, he had over twenty men running and looking in every direction after me; but all without success. They could hear nothing of me. They had turned over several tons of hay in a large loft, in search, and I was not to be found there. Dan imputed my escape to my godliness! He said that I must have gone up in a chariot of fire, for I went off by flying; and that he should never again have any thing to do with a praying negro.

The next day after my arrival in Bedford, Daniel Lane came to the very house wherein I was concealed and talked in my hearing to the family about my escape from him out of the stable in Louisville. He was near enough for me to have laid my hands on his head while in that house--and the intimidation which this produced on me was more than I could bear. I was also aware of the great temptation of the reward offered to white or colored persons for my apprehension. I was exposed to other calamities which rendered it altogether unsafe for me to A longer under that roof."

 William B. Lane, U.S. Mounted Rifles, and Lydia Spencer, youngest daughter of the late Major George Blaney, U.S. Engineer Corps" (or words to that effect).

 the farewells spoken amid hearty good wishes for our future happiness, we started for Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, where Lieutenant Lane was to be

I Married A Soldier by Lydia Spencer Lane stated that Captain Lane served as chief mustering and disbursing officer for Pennsylvania in the Civil War:

". . . .

I was young and shy in 1861, and disliked to approach a stranger and ask his name.

When we reached Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, whom should I find waiting for us but Captain Lane? He had left New Mexico in the overland stage, and was in the East weeks before we arrived. He had applied to General Canby for a leave, which was refused. His object was to go to Kentucky, where a cavalry regiment had been raised, and the command of it offered to him. He wanted to go to Washington and ask permission to take it, so when his leave was refused there was nothing to do but resign, which he did, going immediately to Washington, where he withdrew his resignation and requested that he might accept the colonelcy of the Kentucky Union cavalry regiment. The authorities would not grant his petition, but ordered him to proceed to Philadelphia and assist Colonel Charles Ruff in mustering Pennsylvania regiments.

Afterwards he was made chief mustering and disbursing officer for Pennsylvania, and stationed at Harrisburg and Philadelphia until the close of the war.

We remained East all through the war, - those years so full of anguish for our whole country

. . . .

It was not until the summer of 1866 that we returned to the frontier, and I was glad New Mexico was again to be our station.

....

In January [1867], Colonel Lane was ordered to leave Santa Fe and return to Fort Union, to command that post. His rank then was major of the Third Cavalry and brevet lieutenant-colonel.

....

Colonel Lane's health, which had not been good, became worse, and the doctor told him he must apply for a leave and go East. It was a great surprise to us that the doctor took such a serious view of the case, but, as he said go, we obeyed.

....

We remained a year in the East, and before returning to the frontier placed our eldest daughter at school, there being no good ones in New Mexico, except for the convent in Santa Fe, where we did not care to send her.

....

In November, 1868, we left for New Mexico, via Texas.

....

February 3, 1869, we left San Antonio for Fort Bliss, where Colonel Lane expected to find orders assigning him to a post in New Mexico.

At the end of four months, the colonel's health failed so rapidly the doctor told him he must not only leave Fort Selden, but New Mexico, and he must lose no time in going.

....

We went East, fully expecting to return to the frontier in a few months, but it was not to be.

....

As I mentioned before, we never returned to our old frontier life again. We have been in New Mexico, California, and Texas several times since, but only as visitors. Colonel Lane was retired from active service in 1870, to my great grief.

...."

Newspapers.com included the following newspaper article regarding Joseph Garrard published on June 6, 1911, in the Daily Press, Newport News, Virginia:

"Taft Declares Col. Garrard Slanders Jews

Reprimands Officer for Blocking Man's Way to Promotion.
Warns Against Race Prejudice
Commander Refuses Private Because He Claims Him to be Undesirable Social Associate.

Washington, D. C., June 5. - President Taft today created something of a sensation, when he rebuked Colonel Joseph Garrard, commanding the cavalry post at Fort Myer, Va., for disapproving Private Frank Bloom's effort for promotion because of Bloom's Jewish parents.

Garrard's endorsement characterized Jews as not "desirable social associates" and President Taft immediately directed the secretary of war to investigate the matter. The President stamped the expressions as those of narrow race prejudice.

He also said it was hard to deal with the matter 'with patience and without condemnatory words that had better not be written.'

The war department pointed out that there have been many Jews among the army officers.

Incident Closed.

Notwithstanding the President's inquiry directed to the secretary of war as to what should be done to discipline Colonel Garrard, the incident has been closed with the rebuke.

The department decided that there was no ground for a court-martial; an officer being at liberty to express his actual belief as to the availability of any candidate from the ranks.

It was concluded that the President's purpose would be best served by the publication of the correspondence and with the delivery of a copy to Colonel Garrard with a letter from the secretary of war duly admonishing him not to repeat the endorsement.

The case of young Bloom, who is a private in Battery F, of the Third field artillery, now on duty on the Mexican border, was brought to the President's attention by Simon Wolf, a prominent lawyer of this city."

Made Good Record.

Several years ago Bloom was urged for appointment to West Point. President Roosevelt, not being in a position at the time to make the appointment, suggested to Bloom that he enlist and "like a true American," fight his way up from the ranks. Bloom took the advice, entered the army, where he is said to have made a good record and recently took his first examination for promotion.

It is said that Bloom failed in this examination, but in view of the prejudice brought about by Colonel Garrard's endorsement, Bloom will be allowed a final examination in September.

"I shall take steps to see that the examination to which Private Bloom is subjected is one in which he will be given a fair chance and not be exposed to any unjust prejudice," declared the President in a letter to Mr. Wolfe.

Colonel Garrard's endorsement on Bloom's papers, to which President Taft so strongly objected was as follows:

Colonel's Objection.

"The applicant is a son of Mr. Joseph A. Bloom, of Jewish persuasion, who is now, and has been for a number of years, a tailor at this post. His associates, as far as I know, and that of his family, have been with enlisted men and their families have been respectable.

"This young man is undoubtedly honest and upright, ambitious and probably deserving, but for the reasons stated I would not desire him in my command as an officer and a social and personal associate.

President Taft, in his letter to the secretary of war directing him to examine into the record in young Bloom's case said:

"The statements made by Colonel Garrard are not true with reference to the standing that Jews have in this country; and I resent, as commander-in-chief of the army and the navy, that any officer should permit himself in an official document to give evidence of such unfounded and narrow race prejudice as that contained in this endorsement."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of James R. Ryan and Emma (Branham) Ryan were the following:

- 1) Harry Ryan, born in about 1861 or 1862 in Indiana, and
- 2) James Robert Ryan, born in August 1872 or in about 1873 in Indiana.

- i. Harry Ryan

Harry Ryan was a son of James R. Ryan and Emma (Branham) Ryan. (1825 Achilles¹, Martha², Milly³)

The 1870 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Harry Ryan adjacent to James R. Ryan and Emma Ryan in the Elizabeth Hubbard household on June 7, 1870, and his age as 9 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1861.

The 1880 Census for Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, listed Harry Ryan in the James R. Ryan with the following household on June 7, 1880, and his age as 18 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

The 1900 Census for Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, listed James R. Ryan, Emma B. Ryan, and James R. Ryan on June 1, 1900, and that Emma had had two children of whom one was then living, indicating that Harry Ryan had died before June 1, 1900.

The Vawter Family In America, by Grace Vawter Bicknell, published in 1905, stated that:

"(4) Emma Branham, born in 1841; married in 1861 James R. Ryan, who was born in 1833. He was engaged in the wholesale commission business in Indianapolis. Their children: Harry, born in 1862; died in 1898, unmarried, and Robert, born in 1872; died in 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan live at 522 North New Jersey street, Indianapolis."

- ii. James Robert Ryan

James Robert Ryan was a son of James R. Ryan and Emma (Branham) Ryan. (1825 Achilles¹, Martha², Milly³)

The 1880 Census for Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, listed Robert Ryan in the James R. Ryan with the following household on June 7, 1880, and his age as 7 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1873.

The 1900 Census for Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, listed James R. Ryan in the James R. Ryan with the following household on June 1, 1900, his birth in August 1872 in Indiana, his marital status as single, and his occupation as electrician.

The Vawter Family In America, by Grace Vawter Bicknell, published in 1905, stated that:

"(4) Emma Branham, born in 1841; married in 1861 James R. Ryan, who was born in 1833. He was engaged in the wholesale commission business in Indianapolis. Their children: Harry, born in 1862; died in 1898, unmarried, and Robert, born in 1872; died in 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan live at 522 North New Jersey street, Indianapolis."

b. Henry Ryan, Probably Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan, His Wife Alice (Vanvalkenberg) Ryan, And His Descendants

Henry Ryan, probably Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan, was a son of Milly (Lane) Ryan and Robert B. Ryan. (1825 Achilles¹, Martha², Milly³)

The 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Henry Ryan in the Robert Ryan household on August 16, 1850, and his age as 14 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1836.

No documentary evidence has as yet been found which directly identifies Henry Ryan as the same person as Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan, but circumstantial evidence indicates such an identification.

First, Henry Ryan was born in about 1836 in Kentucky and Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan was born on September 25, 1835 or in about 1836 or 1837 in Kentucky.

Second, Henry Ryan appeared in the 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, but has not been located in any later census and Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan appeared in the 1880 Census for Madison County, Alabama, but has not been located in any prior census.

Third, Henry Ryan's brother Daniel T. B. Ryan was employed on a railroad in 1860 and Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan was a railroad conductor in 1880 and 1900.

Fourth, Henry Ryan's brother was James R. Ryan and Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan named one of his sons James Richard Ryan.

And fifth, Henry Ryan's brother James R. Ryan named one of his sons Harry Ryan and Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan was listed as Harry P. Ryan in his wedding record.

This circumstantial evidence indicates that Henry Ryan was probably the same person as Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan, but further research will be required to confirm this identification with certainty.

The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation for Henry "Harry" Prior Ryan that has been found.

The marriage record of Harry P. Ryan and Alice Vanvalkenberg was dated on November 13, 1876, in Madison County, Alabama:

This record indicates that Nellie (Ryan) Campbell was born in about 1880, that William Edward Campbell was born in about 1878, and that they were married in about 1907.

The combination of the marriage of Nellie (Ryan) Campbell and William Edward Campbell in 1907, the designation of that marriage as the first for Nellie (Ryan) Campbell, and their son Harry P. Ryan in the household and his birth in 1901 indicates that Harry P. Ryan was an illegitimate child of Nellie (Ryan) Campbell by a prior relationship. The death record of Harry R. Campbell dated July 29, 1965, in Terrell, Kaufman County, Texas, listed his father as unknown and his mother as Nell Ryan and his birth on November 4, 1900, in Huntsville, Alabama.

On May 4, 1911, at Madison County, Alabama, Probate File 5664, J. Van Ryan

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Charles Ambrose Sr., in Brooklyn Cemetery, Brooklyn, Morgan County, Indiana, his parents as William B. Ambrose and Mildred A. Ryan Ambrose, and his birth in 1887. However, as set forth above, since Millie A. (Ryan) Ambrose and William B. Ambrose were married in September 1888, Charles was probably not a son of Millie A. (Ryan) Ambrose and may have been a son of William B. Ambrose by a prior marriage or relationship. The 1900 Census for Marion County, Indiana, listed Charles Ambrose in the Margaret Ambrose household on June 9, 1900, along with William, Ethel, and George Ambrose, his relationship as adopted grandson, and his birth in February 1887 in Indiana. World War I Draft Registration Cards, 1917-1918, available from Ancestry.com, listed Charles Ambrose and his birth on February 14, 1887, in New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana. The result of these records is that Charles Ambrose was the adopted son of William B. Ambrose and further research will be required to identify the biological parents of Charles Ambrose.
