published in 1895, stated in a biography of Wilson A. Campbell that:

"Wilson A. Campbell, of Holden, was born in Lafayette County, this state, November 10, 1830, and is a son of Tandy and Mary (Wright) Campbell, both of whom were natives of Virginia, where they were married and where three children were born. From Virginia the family removed to Warren County, Ky., soon after the War of 1812, in which the father was a soldier. . . ."

This record indicates that Mary Ann (Campbell) Doak, as the third child, was born in Virginia

History Of Johnson County, Missouri, by Ewing Cockrell and published in 1918, included in a biographical sketch of John A. Doak the following information regarding Alexander A. Doak:

"John A. Doak, retired pioneer of Holden, Missouri, is one of the oldest of Missouri's native-born pioneer settlers. Four score and three years ago, this patriarch was born in Missouri, a son of one of the earliest of the brave pioneer settlers, who redeemed this great state from a wilderness of plain and forest and made it habitable for mankind. Nearly ninety years have elapsed since the Doak family settled in Missouri and during that period a great nation has grown and the great state of Missouri has achieved a foremost place among the galaxy of states which make up the greatest republic on earth of which history has ever recorded the story. Probably no living man has witnessed more or greater changes than John A. Doak, the pioneer of Holden, Missouri.

John A. Doak was born in 1834 on a pioneer farm in Lafayette county, Missouri. He is a son of Alexander and Mary A. (Campbell) Doak, both of whom were of old Southern pioneer stock. Alexander Doak was a native of Tennessee and his wife was a native of Virginia. The two were married in Kentucky and resided in that state until 1828, when they came to Missouri, residing in Lafayette county until 1842, when they made a permanent settlement in Johnson county on a farm six miles south of Holden, on Bear creek. Here they developed a fine farm and spent the remainder of their lives. Alexander Doak entered a small tract of government land and also bought land which was partly improved. He died in 1879, being followed to the Great Beyond by the wife and mother five years later, in 1884. This pioneer couple were parents of eleven children, three girls and eight sons, only two of whom are now living: the subject of this review; and Mrs. Sarah J. Raker, who lives on a farm near Columbus, Missouri, in Johnson county.

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included an article dated March 18, 1933, from an unidentified newspaper regarding Captain D. M. Raker and his family and which provided as follows with regard to Alexander Aikin Doak and his family:

"Mrs. D. M. Raker Has Muster Roll of Company in Confederate Army

After being mustered out of service in June 1865 at Shreveport, La., Captain Raker lost little time getting home to mother and his warlike spirit was laid aside for the gentler pursuit of wooing and winning a bride. He soon located that maiden who had helped feed those hungry soldiers, her was accepted and on November 2, 1865 Miss Sarah J. Doak and Captain D. M. Raker were married.

Mrs. Raker was born in Rose Hill township about six miles south of Holden. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Doak had settled in Lafayette County in the early thirties, a son, John, was born in that county January 26, 1834. The father was a native of Kentucky and the mother of Virginia. They came to Rose Hill township in 1842 and reared a family of eleven children, seven sons and four daughters. Mrs. Raker being the youngest child and the only one surviving.

Five of the Doak sons enlisted in the Confederate service. Three died in hospitals in Little Rock during the war and one, Hall Doak, was killed in the battle of Wilson Creek (Springfield). John Doak was in battles in Prairie Grove and Helena, Ark. His health failed and he was transferred to hospital service for the remainder of the war. John Doak's son, T. S. Doak, lives near Magnolia and his four children, Walter, Blanche, Harold and Wilson, live in the home community. A daughter of John Doak, Mrs. Oscar Phipps, and her family live in Blairstown. John Doak was a public spirited citizen. He served as school director and justice of the peace for many years.

The Doak & Doak Family Tree also included the following article regarding the Doak family dated December 21, 1939, and published in The Holden Progress, Holden, Missouri:

"Doak Family Has Been Represented in Johnson County for Nearly a Century

The Doak family have so many descendants of those early settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Doak who came to this section in 1828 and moved south in 1842 into Johnson County, that only a few of the present generation can be named in this short article. Mrs. David M. Raker and her brother, John A. Doak, were the last immediate members of that pioneer family, to pass away. Mrs. Raker a few weeks ago in her ninety-third year and John A. Doak, in 1925 in his ninety-second year, both having lived that sturdy life so characteristic of pioneers.

Mrs. Raker, Sarah Jane Doak Raker, was born in Johnson County, and her life was spent within its borders. Her brother, John was born January 26, 1834 in Lafayette County and was brought to this county by his parents when eight years old and except when in the army spent the rest of his life on the farm south of Holden on Bear Creek in Rose Hill township until he retired and moved to Holden for the remaining years of his long and useful life.

Great Grandson a County Officer

One of the descendants of the family who came here from Kentucky in 1828 is Paul Phipps, county clerk, who is a great-grandson of the pioneers. His mother, Mrs. Oscar Phipps (Etta May Doak), also lives in Warrensburg. County Clerk Phipps was a prominent farmer and stockman in Chilhowee-twp. and a leader in many farm bureau movements before his election to his county position.

Mrs. Oscar Phipps was born and reared in Rose Hill-twp. and after her marriage to Oscar Phipps (who died in 1929) went to home-making just across the line in Chilhowee-twp. There John, Paul and Dwight, their three sons were born and grew to maturity. Dwight lives in St. Louis and has three children, Donald, Garland and Ruth. John died in 1925 and his widow and three sons, John W., Eldon B., and Gerald R., live in Harrisonville. Eldon is a student in Missouri Valley college.

Came to County in 1866

Mrs. Oscar Phipps' parents were John A. Doak and Martha C. Tuttle Doak. The Tuttle came from Maryland and lived in Cole-co. Mo. for some years, where Martha Tuttle was born. They located in this county in 1866 and were highly respected and worthy citizens. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Doak were married June 21, 1874 and she passed away in April 1939 in Holden.

John A. Doak's first wife was Susan J. Potts of North Carolina and they were married Feb. 1, 1854. They were the parents of seven children. Of these, Charles of Henderson, Ark. is the only one living. He married in Arkansas and has three children who also live there.

Tobias S. Doak, who was a brother of Charles, spent his life in this county and died a few years ago near Chilhowee. He married Belle Atkins of that community and they reared five children. Walter, John A., Harold, Wilson and Blanche. John is in Texas and Harold lives in Oklahoma. Wilson lives on the home place; Blanche is Mrs. Ivan Howerton of near Chilhowee. Walter lives near Magnolia and has five children, Marion, Catherine, Cecil, Ronda and Paul.

Two Living in Oklahoma

Marion and Cecil Doak live in Oklahoma. Paul lives with his parents. Catherine married Charles Atchison of Chilhowee and Ronda is Mrs. J. C. Atkins of near Magnolia. Walter Doak is a grandson of John A. Doak who lived to be a nonagenarian.

A daughter of John A. Doak and Susan (Potts) Doak, Dora, married Robert Atkins of Chilhowee. She is dead and a daughter, Miss Mary Atkins lives with her father on the home place. There are five other children: J. G. Atkins of Henry-co; Mrs. Ernest Ward (Edith Atkins) of near Blairstown; George Atkins who lives northwest of Warrensburg; Jennings Atkins, Blairstown; and Mrs. Harry Salsbury (Ethel Atkins) of Warrensburg.

John A. Doak who was born 105 years ago in this part of Missouri took an active and worthwhile part in the development of Johnson-co. He was credited as being one of the most substantial and respected citizens of the county. His community kept him in office many years. He was justice of the peace of Rose Hill for years and was a member of the Doak school board for nearly three decades and clerk most of that time. He donated the school yard to the school district. He was ever ready to go to the help of a neighbor and was known far and wide for his interest in promoting the welfare of his community and county.

Attend Log School

When John Doak came to this county most of the homes were cabins as were the school houses and churches. He attended the little log school hut with a log out of one side to let in the sunlight, and a fire-place almost across one end of the small room. All of his schooling was in that typical cabin and he had to pay to go because before the Civil War all schools here were subscription schools.

The forebears, Alexander Doak and Mary Ann Campbell Doak, perhaps were induced to settle on Bear Creek because the settlement there had organized a Methodist Church in 1837 and most of the settlers were democrats. The Whigs along the Missouri river crowded out the Rices, the Houxes and may have caused this family to seek a more pleasant settlement.

This may not have had any influence on Alexander Doak, yet when the Civil War began, he gave five sons to the Confederate cause, four of whom lost their lives in that conflict and only John came back when it ended. He was with Colonel Jackman and General Price and saw plenty of action and of course for most of the time out of this state.

When Alexander Doak settled in Rose Hill-twp. it was called Madison-twp. and Holden and Kingsville had not been dreamed of at that time. That year a store and post office were started at Rose Hill and Dr. R. Z. R. Wall had his drug store and some other supplies not far from Bear Creek settlement. However the settlers for several years depended on Lexington for their greater stock of supplies, the trip there and back requiring several days.

Alexander Doak was born in Tennessee and Mary Campbell Doak in Virginia and they met and married in Kentucky where they continued to live until 1828 when they settled near Lexington. Thus they were in the county when it lost about two-thirds of its area when Johnson and Henry counties were organized Dec. 13, 1834. They saw the new county organized, soon became citizens of it and through them, their neighbors and other pioneers, the county took its place among the leading counties of the state. The Doak families have contributed greatly in making the county prosperous and exemplifying good neighbors. --Jos. L. Ferguson in the Star Journal.

This record indicates that Caroline Tizah (Summers) (Doake) Purdy was born in about 1832 and that Joseph Purdy was born in about 1820.

In her letter dated June 24, 2002, Phyllis Pengilly enclosed family group sheets which stated that Nicholas T. Doake was a son of Mary Ann (Campbell) Doake and Alexander A. Doake, was born on January 19, 1832, married Tirizah C. Summers on June 15, 1854, resided in Rose Hill, Missouri, enlisted as a private on August 1, 1862, at Johnson County, Missouri, in Company D, 16th Missouri Infantry, Confederate States of America, fought in the battles of Lone Jack and Prairie Grove, and died on February 14, 1863, in hospital at Little Rock, Arkansas.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Nicholas Tandy Doak and Tizah Caroline (Summers) Doak were the following:

- 1) Margaret Ann (Doake) Lotspeich, born on April 16, 1855, or in about 1856 in Missouri,
- 2) Mary Melissa (Doak) Koontz, born on April 18, 1857, or in about 1858 in Missouri, and

The 1870 Census for Johnson County, Missouri, listed Margaret A. Doake in the Caroline T. Doake household on August 6, 1870, and her age as 14 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1856.

Missouri Marriages, 1750-1920, available from available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Margaret A. Doke and Charles L. Lotspeich on January 9, 1872, in Henry County, Missouri:

This record indicates that Margaret Ann (Doake) Lotspeich was born in about 1855 and was divorced by June 8, 1880. The census taker apparently listed her name as Purdy since she was in the Joseph Purdy household, even though her maiden name was Doake.

ii. Mary Melissa (Doake) Koontz, Her Husband John W. Koontz, And Her Descendants

Mary Melissa (Doake) Koontz was a daughter of Nicholas Tandy Doak and Tizah Caroline (Summers) Doak. (1825 Achilles¹, Mary², Mary Ann³, Nicholas Tandy⁴)

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included a copy of the Family Bible of Alexander Aikin Doak which provided as follows:

The 1860 Census for Johnson County, Missouri, listed Mary M. D. Doake in the Nicholas Doake household on September 3, 1860, and her age as 3 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The 1870 Census for Johnson County, Missouri, did not list Mary Melissa Doake in the Caroline T. Doake household on August 6, 1870.

As will be set forth below, Mary Melissa Doak married John W. Koontz in about 1872 or 1873.

The will of A. A. Doak was dated on November 26, 1878, and probated on February 8, 1879, at Johnson County, Missouri, W.B. D/332, listed Mary Melissa Doak as a daughter of his deceased son N. T. Doak:

The 1885 Kansas State Census listed J. W. Koontz with the following household on March 1, 1885, in Atwood, Rawlins County, Kansas:

This record indicates that Mary Melissa (Doake) Koontz was born in about 1857 and that John W. Koontz was born in about 1846. Although John W. Koontz was listed as born in Vermont, this was probably a misreading by the census taker of his notes indicating Virginia as the place of birth.

The 1895 Kansas State Census listed J. W. Koontz with the following household on March 1, 1895, in Rawlins County, Kansas:

This record indicates that Mary Melissa (Doake) Koontz was born in about 1857 and that John W. Koontz was born in about 1846. Although John W. Koontz was listed as born in Iowa, this was listed by a ditto mark under the listing for the prior person in this record and was simply an erroneous listing.

The 1900 Census for Rawlins County, Kansas, listed John Koontz with the following household in June 1900:

This record indicates that Mary Melissa (Doake) Koontz was born in April 1857, that John W. Koontz was born in October 1845, and that they were married in about 1873. Although this and later records listed the place of birth of John W. Koontz as West Virginia, since that state was not formed until 1863, the place of birth was in Virginia in a part that later became West Virginia.

The 1905 Kansas State Census listed J. W. Koontz with the following household on March 1, 1905, in Rawlins County, Kansas:

"JOHN A. DOAK, son of A. A. Doak, who was a native of Tennessee. The subject of this sketch was born, January 26, 1834, in Lafayette county, Missouri, which then also comprised Johnson. In the spring of 1842, with his father's family, he moved to what is now Johnson county, settling upon what is known as Bear Creek. Mr. D.'s sympathies were with the south during the war, and he enlisted in the 16th Missouri infantry, under Col. Lewis. He was engaged in the following battles: Prairie Grove, and Helena, Ark. In the early part of the war Mr. D.'s health failing, he was transferred to the hospital department. When the war closed he returned to his home in Johnson county, and engaged in agricultural pursuits. Mr. Doak was married February 1, 1854, to Miss Susan J. Mrs. Doak dying in the fall of 1872, he was again married in the spring of 1874, to Miss Martha Tuttle. From this union there are two children, both of whom are now living; viz: Ettie M. and Mary E. Mr. Doak is public spirited, and a man of intelligence; he has held for many years the public position of justice of the peace, and has frequently been school director in his district, and is looked upon by his neighbors as a man of principle and integrity. He has a fine little farm of 110 acres in this county, besides 320 acres in Henry."

History Of Johnson County, Missouri, by Ewing Cockrell and published in 1918, included the following biographical sketch of John A. Doak:

"John A. Doak, retired pioneer of Holden, Missouri, is one of the oldest of Missouri's native-born pioneer settlers. Four score and three years ago, this patriarch was born in Missouri, a son of one of the earliest of the brave pioneer settlers, who redeemed this great state from a wilderness of plain and forest and made it habitable for mankind. Nearly ninety years have elapsed since the Doak family settled in Missouri and during that period a great nation has grown and the great state of Missouri has achieved a foremost place among the galaxy of states which make up the greatest republic on earth of which history has ever recorded the story. Probably no living man has witnessed more or greater changes than John A. Doak, the pioneer of Holden, Missouri.

John A. Doak was born in 1834 on a pioneer farm in Lafayette county, Missouri. He is a son of Alexander and Mary A. (Campbell) Doak, both of whom were of old Southern pioneer stock. Alexander Doak was a native of Tennessee and his wife was a native of Virginia. The two were married in Kentucky and resided in that state until 1828, when they came to Missouri, residing in Lafayette county until 1842, when they made a permanent settlement in Johnson county on a farm six miles south of Holden, on Bear creek. Here they developed a fine farm and spent the remainder of their lives. Alexander Doak entered a small tract of government land and also bought land which was partly improved. He died in 1879, being followed to the Great Beyond by the wife and mother five years later, in 1884. This pioneer couple were parents of eleven children, three girls and eight sons, only two of whom are now living: the subject of this review; and Mrs. Sarah J. Raker, who lives on a farm near Columbus, Missouri, in Johnson county.

John A. Doak was eight years of age when he accompanied his parents to the farm near Holden, Missouri. He endured all the hardships of the pioneer era in the upbuilding of Johnson county and has a vivid recollection of conditions in Johnson county in the early forties. There was no city of Holden at that time and no one even dreamed of building a city on the present site. Lexington was the nearest trading point and this city was forty-five miles distant. The settlers followed the trail straight across country when it became necessary for them to go to Lexington for trading purposes, and the round trip would require several days. The settlements were all located along the creeks so that the pioneer families would be provided with two prime necessities in those days - water and timber, the latter for fuel and building purposes. There were no luxuries although food was plentiful and wild game, such as deer, turkeys and prairie chickens, abounded and could be killed from the front door. The settlers supplied their tables with plenty of wild game, such as would be an unheard-of luxury at the present day. The pioneer had meats and food stuffs which are high-priced at the present day and he had no longing for other luxuries which were beyond his means. All lived alike; none were overly rich; everybody tried to be neighborly and kind; all vied with one another in making the newcomer feel at home and assisted him and his in every way possible. Mr. Doak has witnessed prairie fires and assisted in subduing them. This patriarch attended the old-time "subscription schools" in a little log school house, roughly and poorly furnished with crude, hand-made benches. The only ventilation or light was admitted to the hut by means of a hole made by omitting a log in the side of the building. His first teacher was W. L. King. He was later taught by Mr. Emerson. Mr. Doak engaged in farming and became very prosperous as a successful farmer and stockman in the vicinity of Holden. He remained on his farm until 1901, at which time he removed to Holden and is now living in comfortable retirement and truly enjoying the eventide of life after a long and productive period of energetic endeavor. Mr. Doak disposed of his farm lands and has carefully invested his life earnings so that the returns from his well-earned hoard will yield him a comfortable income for the remainder of his days.

John A. Doak was united in the bonds of matrimony with Susan J. Potts of North Carolina in 1855. To this union have been born seven children: Susan Ann, who died in childhood; William M., deceased; Tobias S., a farmer located near Chilhowee; Dora, deceased; Charles, now living in Arkansas; James, deceased; and Robert, deceased. The mother of the above named children departed this life in 1872. Two years later, in 1874, Mr. Doak was married to Martha C. Tuttle, a native of Cole county, Missouri, and daughter of John Tuttle, who was born and reared in Maryland and came to Missouri and made a settlement in Johnson county in 1866. The Tuttle's spent their lives in useful farming pursuits in Johnson county and were well-respected citizens. To this second marriage of John A. Doak were born two daughters, as follow: Etta May, wife of Oscar Phipps, living on a farm south of Holden; and Mary E., deceased.

Mr. Doak has been one of the most useful citizens of Johnson county and has filled various offices of trust and honor conferred upon him by his fellow-citizens. For a period of twenty-five years, he capably filled the office of justice of the peace and also served as a member of the school board. This patriarch also has an honorable war record of which his descendants may be proud. He, with five brothers, served in the Confederate Army during the war between the states and he was the only one of the six boys who came out of the terrible conflict alive. Mr. Doak enlisted in 1861 and served as a member of Company D, Sixteenth Missouri Infantry, Second Brigade, under Colonel Jackman with whom he enlisted, serving also under General Price. He fought at the Battle of Prairie Grove and at Helena, Arkansas, taking an active part in countless minor battles and skirmishes. The nearest he ever came to being wounded was when a bullet passed through his collar at Prairie Grove. His command operated extensively in Missouri and Arkansas and Mr. Doak served the cause until the close of the war.

Mr. Doak is religiously inclined and has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, since 1856. He is a stockholder in the Blairstown Bank and is a stockholder and a director of the Farmers and Commercial Bank of Holden. He is numbered among Holden's most substantial and respected citizens and has many warm and steadfast friends whom he has made by acts of kindness and by honorable and honest dealings during the many active years which he has been a factor in the development of Johnson county."

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included the following article regarding the Doak family dated December 21, 1939, and published in The Holden Progress, Holden, Missouri:

"Doak Family Has Been Represented in Johnson County for Nearly a Century

The Doak family have so many descendants of those early settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Doak who came to this section in 1828 and moved south in 1842 into Johnson County, that only a few of the present generation can be named in this short article. Mrs. David M. Raker and her brother, John A. Doak, were the last immediate members of that pioneer family, to pass away. Mrs. Raker a few weeks ago in her ninety-third year and John A. Doak, in 1925 in his ninety-second year, both having lived that sturdy life so characteristic of pioneers.

Mrs. Raker, Sarah Jane Doak Raker, was born in Johnson County, and her life was spent within its borders. Her brother, John was born January 26, 1834 in Lafayette County and was brought to this county by his parents when eight years old and except when in the army spent the rest of his life on the farm south of Holden on Bear Creek in Rose Hill township until he retired and moved to Holden for the remaining years of his long and useful life.

Mrs. Oscar Phipps' parents were John A. Doak and Martha C. Tuttle Doak. The Tuttle came from Maryland and lived in Cole-co. Mo. for some years, where Martha Tuttle was born. They located in this county in 1866 and were highly respected and worthy citizens. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Doak were married June 21, 1874 and she passed away in April 1939 in Holden.

John A. Doak's first wife was Susan J. Potts of North Carolina and they were married Feb. 1, 1854. They were the parents of seven children.

John A. Doak who was born 105 years ago in this part of Missouri took an active and worthwhile part in the development of Johnson-co. He was credited as being one of the most substantial and respected citizens of the county. His community kept him in office many years. He was justice of the peace of Rose Hill for years and was a member of the Doak school board for nearly three decades and clerk most of that time. He donated the school yard to the school district. He was ever ready to go to the help of a neighbor and was known far and wide for his interest in promoting the welfare of his community and county.

Attend Log School

When John Doak came to this county most of the homes were cabins as were the school houses and churches. He attended the little log school hut with a log out of one side to let in the sunlight, and a fire-place almost across one end of the small room. All of his schooling was in that typical cabin and he had to pay to go because before the Civil War all schools here were subscription schools.

This may not have had any influence on Alexander Doak, yet when the Civil War began, he gave five sons to the Confederate cause, four of whom lost their lives in that conflict and only John came back when it ended. He was with Colonel Jackman and General Price and saw plenty of action and of course for most of the time out of this state.

.....
--Jos. L. Ferguson in the Star Journal.

The Holden Progress, Holden, Mo. December 21, 1939"

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included the following news article dated October 9, 1908, from the Holden Press:

"Friday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock fire broke out in the barn of Mr. T. S. Doak, about 2 miles west of town and the fine barn containing 100 bu of old corn, 500 bu of oats, 600 bu of wheat and over 50 tons of hay was entirely consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown as it first appeared near the roof in the haymow. The barn was filled to its utmost and the loss is very heavy. The barn was one of the finest and best in this country and was built about 5 years ago by Sam Harris for Dr. G. H. Gains who then owned that farm.

Mr. Doak had never carried any insurance until last Spring when Mr. Hoover, an insurance agent of Clinton, persuaded him to take a small line which will help him greatly in his misfortune. His loss will be fully $1500 above insurance."

"John A. Doak, retired pioneer of Holden, Missouri, is one of the oldest of Missouri's native-born pioneer settlers.

John A. Doak was united in the bonds of matrimony with Susan J. Potts of North Carolina in 1855. To this union have been born seven children: Susan Ann, who died in childhood; William M., deceased; Tobias S., a farmer located near Chilhowee; Dora, deceased; Charles, now living in Arkansas; James, deceased; and Robert, deceased. The mother of the above named children departed this life in 1872. Two years later, in 1874, Mr. Doak was married to Martha C. Tuttle, a native of Cole county, Missouri, and daughter of John Tuttle, who was born and reared in Maryland and came to Missouri and made a settlement in Johnson county in 1866. The Tuttle's spent their lives in useful farming pursuits in Johnson county and were well-respected citizens. To this second marriage of John A. Doak were born two daughters, as follow: Etta May, wife of Oscar Phipps, living on a farm south of Holden; and Mary E., deceased.

Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated December 7, 1933, from The Clinton Eye, Clinton, Missouri:

"November 15, 1883, T. S. Doak of Holden, Mo., and Miss Lettie Belle Adkins, daughter of Thos. H. Adkins, of Brownington, Mo., were happily married at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of a small group of relatives and close friends who had braved the winter's first snow storm over miles of almost impassable roads in horse-drawn vehicles. A half of a century of time has passed and the participants in that solemn ceremony have witnessed a marvelous evolution in the history of the world, yet that love and devotion proclaimed by bride and groom, has neither changed nor waned, but has grown more dear and more real throughout the fifty years of wedded life.

During the Thanksgiving holiday of November, 1933, the above mentioned ceremony of fifty years ago was reenacted in a far different environment. To witness the second ceremony was a great number of friends, four sons, one daughter, four daughter-in-laws, one son-in-law and ten grandchildren.

Tobe Doak and his young bride first settled on a farm in Henry County, Mo., where they lived until 1910 when with the added members of their family, they moved across the line into Johnson County, Mo., where the end of the half century of happy married life finds them at the close of a long eventful day surrounded with the crowning glory of a happy wedded life, loving devoted children and grandchildren and a host of time tried friends.

Those present at the anniversary celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Salsbury, Mrs. S. O. Burgard and daughter, Miss Emmalina and Miss Madilyn Munkers, Warrensburg; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Foster and children, Paul, Audine, Eva Venta and Barbara Ann, Clinton; Dr. R. S. Bills and wife Magnolia, and Mrs. Bill's mother, Mrs. Nan Greaves, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and sons, Harry and William, Mr. and Mrs. John Howerton, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Howerton and children, John Doak and Mae Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson F. Doak, Mr. and Mrs. Estel

Davis, Rev. and Mrs. Watts and son, Junior, Mrs. Elmer Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Byers and Arthur Byers, all of Chilhowee; Joseph M. King, Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doak, sons, Paul and Cecil, and daughter, Miss Ronda, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Doak, Forgan, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Doak and sons, Jack, Harland and Joseph Braxton, Houston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Hunt, Blairstown. Mrs. Hunt was the only one present who attended the wedding 50 years ago."

History Of Johnson County, Missouri, by Ewing Cockrell and published in 1918, in a biographical sketch of John A. Doak listed Dora Doak as a child of John A. Doak and Susan J. (Potts) Doak:

"John A. Doak, retired pioneer of Holden, Missouri, is one of the oldest of Missouri's native-born pioneer settlers.

....

John A. Doak was united in the bonds of matrimony with Susan J. Potts of North Carolina in 1855. To this union have been born seven children: Susan Ann, who died in childhood; William M., deceased; Tobias S., a farmer located near Chilhowee; Dora, deceased; Charles, now living in Arkansas; James, deceased; and Robert, deceased. The mother of the above named children departed this life in 1872. Two years later, in 1874, Mr. Doak was married to Martha C. Tuttle, a native of Cole county, Missouri, and daughter of John Tuttle, who was born and reared in Maryland and came to Missouri and made a settlement in Johnson county in 1866. The Tuttle's spent their lives in useful farming pursuits in Johnson county and were well-respected citizens. To this second marriage of John A. Doak were born two daughters, as follow: Etta May, wife of Oscar Phipps, living on a farm south of Holden; and Mary E., deceased.

History Of Johnson County, Missouri also listed R. O. Atkins as an appointed Democratic county judge:

"County Officers. - The following are the county officers who have been elected from the township since 1882, with the dates of their election:

1916 - R. O. Atkins (Democrat), county judge (appointed).

Now, therefore, be it known, That I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, do hereby grant to the said David M. Parker a full pardon and amnesty for all offences by him committed, arising from participation, direct or implied, in the said rebellion, conditioned as follows:

John A. Doak was born in 1834 on a pioneer farm in Lafayette county, Missouri. He is a son of Alexander and Mary A. (Campbell) Doak, both of whom were of old Southern pioneer stock. Alexander Doak was a native of Tennessee and his wife was a native of Virginia.
Alexander Doak entered a small tract of government land and also bought land which was partly improved. He died in 1879, being followed to the Great Beyond by the wife and mother five years later, in 1884. This pioneer couple were parents of eleven children, three girls and eight sons, only two of whom are now living: the subject of this review; and Mrs. Sarah J. Raker, who lives on a farm near Columbus, Missouri, in Johnson county.

This record indicates that Sarah Jane (Doak) Raker was born in about 1847.

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included the following article dated March 18, 1933, from an unidentified newspaper regarding Captain D. M. Raker and his Confederate service:

"Mrs. D. M. Raker Has Muster Roll of Company in Confederate Army
(By J. L. Ferguson)

Captain D. M. Raker was an outstanding citizen, official and soldier of Johnson County. He was born in Kentucky March 12, 1838 and came to Missouri in 1857 with his parents and settled in Pettis County and in 1858 they all came to Johnson County and located about seven miles southeast of Holden in Chilhowee township.

David M. Raker was the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Raker, Jr.

The first year of the Civil War saw the older brothers, D. M. and R. N., enlisted in the Confederate service. D. M. Raker was elected captain of the company that was organized August 1, 1862. Mrs. D. M. Raker of Warrensburg has the Muster Roll of that company. It was Company D, 16th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, C. S. A.

The roll shows there were five commissioned officers including Captain Raker, ten non-commissioned officers and one hundred and thirty-four privates.

As there are many in this county now who did not know Captain Raker, his characteristics as written would be of interest to them as well as to his many friends. He gave his age as 24, grey eyes, black hair, fair complexion, six feet two inches, native of Clark County, Kentucky, his address, Rose Hill, Mo., and he enlisted for a period of three years or until the end of the war. Most of them enlisted for the duration of the war or three years and as they were mustered out in June, 1865, each period meant about the same length of time.

This company saw heavy fighting in south Missouri, Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana through all those trying three years. It fought under Gen. Kirby Smith and also saw service under Col. Lewis, Col. Joe Shelby and others. It did not cross the Mississippi river but remained on the west side throughout the war.

D. M. Raker and most of the men on this scrool had been with state troops and had fought at Wilson's Creek and at Lexington and some with Quantrell's men through the first year of the war. They made up their minds that they desired to fight in the regular Confederate army. They met at Rose Hill to be mustered into that service. South of Holden they were surprised by a group of women who lived south and southwest of Holden. These women brought well filled baskets and gave the men the biggest feed and warmest welcome that they had had since the war began. D. M. Raker was among those men, he was not Captain then, his election coming after the muster. Among those women was a fair maiden, who, though she knew it not at the time, attracted the eye of the young soldier, D. M. Raker, and he made up his mind then and there just what he was going to do if he ever got out of the war alive.

After being mustered out of service in June 1865 at Shreveport, La., Captain Raker lost little time getting home to mother and his warlike spirit was laid aside for the gentler pursuit of wooing and winning a bride. He soon located that maiden who had helped feed those hungry soldiers, her was accepted and on November 2, 1865 Miss Sarah J. Doak and Captain D. M. Raker were married.

Mrs. Raker was born in Rose Hill township about six miles south of Holden. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Doak had settled in Lafayette County in the early thirties, a son, John, was born in that county January 26, 1834. The father was a native of Kentucky and the mother of Virginia. They came to Rose Hill township in 1842 and reared a family of eleven children, seven sons and four daughters. Mrs. Raker being the youngest child and the only one surviving.

Five of the Doak sons enlisted in the Confederate service. Three died in hospitals in Little Rock during the war and one, Hall Doak, was killed in the battle of Wilson Creek (Springfield). John Doak was in battles in Prairie Grove and Helena, Ark. His health failed and he was transferred to hospital service for the remainder of the war. John Doak's son, T. S. Doak, lives near Magnolia and his four children, Walter, Blanche, Harold and Wilson, live in the home community. A daughter of John Doak, Mrs. Oscar Phipps, and her family live in Blairstown. John Doak was a public spirited citizen. He served as school director and justice of the peace for many years.

Captain and Mrs. Raker began home-making near the present site of Magnolia where they made a fine success in home-building and also in neighborliness and in all community and church work. Captain Raker was a good road booster and acted as road overseer for years. Every year he donated days and weeks in time and labor keeping the roads in good shape. Upon the solicitation of Democrats and friends and neighbors he announced for sheriff in 1886, and he was nominated and elected by large majorities. Captain Raker was a man of unquestioned integrity and fearlessness and the county has never had a better or more efficient peace officer.

Captain Raker and family moved to Warrensburg in 18_6 and live here about eleven years. They then moved to their farm near Columbus where they lived until 1918 when Captain Raker had reached his four score of years. he retired from farming and they moved back to Warrensburg wehre he died in 1926.

There were eight children born to Captain and Mrs. Raker and all grew to maturity and married except one son, Walter, who remains single. All of the children are living except Mrs. Mary (Raker) Henry who died three years ago near Columbus. The children are, Mrs. F. M. Mitchell, Warrensburg, Mrs. Cora Chamblin Smith, Sioux Falls, S. D., Mrs. Hays Lockard, near Warrensburg, Will, Warrensburg, Jacob, Festus, Mo., Walter, Warrensburg merchant, and Harry, retired farmer, Odessa.

The Rakers in the Warrensburg, Columbus and Magnolia communities have always been eminently successful stockmen. This trait is also found in the children as evidenced by the Raker Calf Club members and the boys have not had a monopoly in this work either as was demonstrated by the excellent showing of Jewell Blanch and Virginia Raker with their fine Herefords last fall."

The Doak & Doak Family Tree also included the following article dated March 24, 1933, from an unidentified newspaper regarding the roll of Captain D. M. Raker of Confederate veterans:

"Pioneer County Families Represented On Roll of Confederate Army Company

In giving these names mustered into the Confederate service at Rose Hill August 1, 1862, as written in this roll of Captain D. M. Raker, it is believed to be the first time these names have ever been published.

Anyway here is the roll as Captain Raker kept it and as Mrs. Raker still highly prizes it.

The privates listed from Rose Hill were: W. J. Doak, N. T. Koak, M. A. Doak, Samuel Doak,"

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included the following article regarding the Doak family dated December 21, 1939, and published in The Holden Progress, Holden, Missouri:

"Doak Family Has Been Represented in Johnson County for Nearly a Century

The Doak family have so many descendants of those early settlers, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Doak who came to this section in 1828 and moved south in 1842 into Johnson County, that only a few of the present generation can be named in this short article. Mrs. David M. Raker and her brother, John A. Doak, were the last immediate members of that pioneer family, to pass away. Mrs. Raker a few weeks ago in her ninety-third year and John A. Doak, in 1925 in his ninety-second year, both having lived that sturdy life so characteristic of pioneers.

Mrs. Raker, Sarah Jane Doak Raker, was born in Johnson County, and her life was spent within its borders.

This record indicates that William Lee Raker was born in about 1872 and that Ivy (Lockard) Raker was born in about 1875. The absence of Anna May Raker and the listing of no children for Ivy Raker in the 1910 Census and the listing of the age of Anna May Raker of 16 and her place of birth in New York in the 1920 Census suggests that Anna May Raker may have been an adopted child, but further research will be required to confirm or deny this speculation.

This record indicates that Cora A. (Raker) (Chamblin) Smith was born in about 1874. The absence of Frank Eugene Chamblin from the household and the listing of Cora A. (Raker) (Chamblin) Smith as a widow indicates that Frank Eugene Chamblin had died before April 23, 1910. However, as set forth below, that was incorrect and Frank Eugene Chamblin was still living and married to a new wife in 1910.

The Minnesota Official Marriage System listed the marriage of Frank E. Chamberlin and Marie Moone on November 23, 1907, in Koochiching County, Minnesota:

"County	Koochiching

This record indicates that Frank Eugene Chamblin had moved to Minnesota and had begun using the surname Chamberllin.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Cora A. Smith dated December 29, 1956, in the Argus-Leader, Sioux Falls, South Dakota:

"Mrs. Cora Smith Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Cora A. Smith, 83, Sioux Falls resident for 45 years, died at a local nursing home this morning following an illness of four months. Mrs. Smith had been living with a son , Charles Chamblin, 2408 S. Norton Ave., for several years.

Funeral services will be held at the Miller Funeral Home at 11 a.m. Wednesday with the Rev. Rodney Gist officiating. Mrs. Rex. Ireland will be organist. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Born in holden, Mo., Sept. 3, 1873, Cora Raker attended W arrensburg, Mo., Normal College. She then taught school in the Warrensburg vicinity before her marriage to Frank Chamblin in 1894. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Chamblin moved to a farm in the Warrensburg vicinity.

Following Mr. Chamblin's death in 1904, she moved into Warrensburg.

In June of 1911, she was married to Edward Smith. The Smiths came to Sioux Falls the same year. Mr. Smith died in 1924.

Mrs. Smith was past state president of the Degree of Honor in addition to holding local offices in the organization. She was a member of the Methodist Church, Rebekah Lodge No. 53 and of Royal Neighbors.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Mattison, Seattle; three son, Robert and Charles, Chamblin, Sioux Falls, and Albert Chamblin, Seattle; two brothers, Walter Raker, Warrensburg, Mo., and Harry Raker, Odessa, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Lockerd and Mrs. Sally Mitchell, Warrensburg; six grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren."

This record indicates that Frank Eugene Chamblin was believed to have died in 1904.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Cora A. Smith in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Sioux Falls, Minnehaha County, South Dakota:

"Mother
Cora A. Smith
Sept. 3, 1873 - Dec. 29, 1956"

From the above evidence, the story of Cora A. (Raker) (Chamblin) Smith and Frank Eugene Chamblin appears to be the following. In approximately 1904, Frank left the home and Missouri without informing his wife or his siblings about his departure. Frank went to Minneapolis where he assumed the surname Chamberlin and married Marie A. Moore in 1907. Frank also used the name Chamberlin in the 1910 Census for Minneapolis. The Missouri Revised Statutes provided for a presumption of death if a person left the state and did not return for seven successive years. In 1911 when the presumption would first apply, Cora married her second husband Edward L. Smith and they moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota. By 1915 Frank and his new family had moved to Towner, North Dakota, where he resumed his original surname of Chamblin. Frank and his family then moved back to Minnesota and he was listed in the 1920 Douglas County Census as Chamblin. The quiet title action regarding property previously owned by the Chamblin family and filed in 1920 in Lafayette County, Missouri, indicated that the plaintiff knew that Cora had remarried to a Smith and that her daughter Nancy had married a Bornemann, but also indicated that the plaintiff did not know whether Frank was then alive or dead. When Cora died in 1956, her obituary indicates that the family still believed that Frank had died in 1904 and either did not realize that he had lived until 1950 about 200 miles away in the adjacent state of Minnesota or if they knew, chose not to acknowledge his survival after 1904.

One year later he was transferred to the warehouse for eleven years and then returned to the Construction department until April 7, 1930, when he came back to the Warehouse, where he remained until his death.

The sincere sympathy of his many friends and fellow workmen is extended to his bereaved wife, Mrs. Bessie L. Raker, and their son, J. D. Raker."

Newspaper Abstracts also listed the following obituary dated April 27, 1939, published in Glass Rays, Crystal City, Missouri:

"Funeral Services for Jacob T. Raker Held Here April 11.

Funeral services for Jacob Taylor Raker, Sixty four year old Warehouse employee and resident of Festus, were conducted at two o'clock Friday afternoon, April 14, in the Festus Methodist church, with the Rev. E. L. Boyles officiating. Fink Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements and burial was in the Festus Methodist cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dennis Thomure, Fred Killy, Harold Hurley, Paul Gilmore, Paul Morris and Dave Perryman. William Smith of Festus was in charge of the church choir that participated in the services. Boy Scouts of Troop No. 6, of which Mr. Raker's son, J. D., is a member, and under the direction of Paul Thomure, scoutmaster, attended the service in a group. Members of the Festus Hi-Y organization, of which J. D. is also a member, likewise attended in a group.

Mr. Raker was in poor health the past several years. He became violently ill suddenly, about noon Easter Sunday, April 9. He was taken immediately in Fink's ambulance to Barnes hospital in St. Louis, where an operation was performed for a serious stomach disorder at six o'clock that evening.

He died a few minutes before seven o'clock Tuesday morning, April 11. The body was brought to the family residence at 310 North Mill street in Festus, where it lay in state until time for the funeral.

Mr. Raker was born on a farm at Warrensburg, in Johnson County, Missouri, on April 18, 1875. He was the son of Mrs. Sarah Daok Raker of Warrensburg who is now ninety-three years old, and the late David M. Raker, who died about twelve years ago. His father was a captain in the Civil War and later served two terms as sheriff of Johnson County.

Jacob T. Raker attended school at Warrensburg which included a two year course at the Warrensburg State Teachers College. His first work was assisting in the construction of a telephone line from Kansas City through the southwest. His next work was in saw mills throughout Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas.

In 1906 Mr. Raker returned to his home in Warrensburg. A year later, on Nov 28, 1907, he was married to Miss Bessie L. Shanks of Warrensburg. He then began work for the Warnick Hardware Company there, at which he was engaged for ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. Raker came to the Twin City community and he began work at the factory Aug. 2, 1917. His first work here was as a painter for about a year. On Oct. 19, 1918, he was transferred to the Warehouse department, where he remained until Nov. 20, 1929. At that time he returned to the Construction department until April 4, 1930, when he came back to the Warehouse to remain in that department until his death. His last work was as sweeper in the Warehouse, at which he worked his last regular shift on Friday, April 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Raker have one son, J. D. Raker, who is sixteen years old a sophomore in Festus high school. Recently he won second prize in an essay contest on "What Adequate National Defense Means to American Youth." The contest was conducted at the school and sponsored by the local American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides Mr. Raker's aged mother, his wife and son, the surviving relatives are three sisters and three brothers: Mrs. Sallie Mitchell and Mrs. Hayes Lockhard, both of Warrensburg, Mrs. Cora Smith of Sioux Falls, S.D., W. L. Raker and Walter Raker, both of Warrensburg, and Harry Raker, who is a guard at the penitentiary at Jefferson City. One sister, Mrs. Mary Henry, formerly of Warrensburg, preceded his brother in death about ten years ago. Also surviving are one uncle, Taylor Raker of Holden, Mo., and several nephews and nieces.

Mr. Raker's favorite pastimes were radioing and reading. his chief delight was listening to foreign stations on his radio. He was an ardent reader of all news of local and national interest. He was also a strong baseball fan.

About 1909 both Mr. and Mrs. Raker united with the southern Methodist church at Warrensburg and transferred their membership to the Festus Methodist church upon moving to this community.

The sincere sympathy of his many friends and fellow workmen is extended to the bereaved relatives."

and her occupation as saleslady in dry goods store. Although this record listed her as widowed, her first husband John Norman Raker survived until 1977, indicating that the use of the term widowed in this record was a euphemism for divorced.

viii. Harry David Raker, His Wife Anna Eva (Whitsitt)
Raker, And His Descendants

Harry David Raker was a son of Sarah Jane (Doak) Raker and David Michel Raker. (1825 Achilles¹, Mary², Mary Ann³, Sarah J.⁴)

The 1900 Census for Johnson County, Missouri, listed Harriet E. Raker in the David M. Raker household on June 12, 1900, her relationship as daughter, and her birth in September 1889 in Missouri. Although this person was listed as a daughter Harriet, this was probably an error by the census taker who misheard Harry D. as Harriet E. This census and other records set forth above indicate that Sarah Jane (Doak) Raker had only eight children, including Harry D. Raker born in about 1890 or 1891, and the addition of a daughter Harriet would make nine children and would leave Harry D. Raker unaccounted for in the 1900 Census.

The 1910 Census for Johnson County, Missouri, listed Harry D. Raker in the David M. Raker household on April 21, 1910, his relationship as son, his age as 19 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1891, and his occupation as farm laborer.

World War I Draft Registration Cards, 1917-1918, available at Ancestry.com, listed Harry David Raker on June 5, 1917, with the following information:

From the evidence set forth above, the children of James D. Doak and Mary Ellen (Koontz) Doak were the following:

- 1) A. B. Doak, born in about 1875 in Missouri, and
- 2) Sterling C. Doak, born in 1878.

i. A. B. Doak

A. B. Doak was a son of James D. Doak and Mary Ellen (Koontz) Doak. (1825 Achilles¹, Mary², Mary Ann³, James D.)

The 1880 Census for Bates County, Missouri, listed A. B. Doak in the J. D. Doak household on June 3, 1880, and his age as 5 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1875.

ii. Sterling C. Doak

Sterling C. Doak was a son of James D. Doak and Mary Ellen (Koontz) Doak. (1825 Achilles¹, Mary², Mary Ann³, James D.)

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Sterling C. Doak in the Cove Creek Cemetery, Aaron, Bates County, Missouri:

" Sterling C Doak

Birth	1878
Death	1879
Burial	Cove Creek Cemetery Aaron, Bates County, Missouri, USA
Memorial	ID 10600081"

The stone itself was unreadable in the photograph.

Bates County, Missouri, Cemetery Index, 1823-1959, available from Ancestry.com, listed the following for the gravestone of Sterling C. Doak:

"Name:	Sterling C. Doak

k. Mary Frances Doak

Mary Frances Doak was a daughter of Mary Ann (Campbell) Doak and Alexander Aikin Doak. (1825 Achilles¹, Mary², Mary Ann³)

The Doak & Doak Family Tree, compiled by drumwinds2 and available from Ancestry.com, included a copy of the Family Bible of Alexander Aikin Doak which provided as follows:

Family record.
. . . .
Alexander A Doak and Mary Ann Campbell

Births.
. . . .
Mary Francis Doake was born Sept 18 1857
. . . ."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Mary Frances Doak in the Strange Cemetery, Rose Hill, Johnson County, Missouri:

"Mary __

Findagrave.com also listed the following for the gravestone of Mary Frances Doak:
