As will be set forth below, later Personal Property Tax Lists included an Austin

Wright, Jr., and the Austin Wright with the larger amount of property in 1815 was probably Austin Wright, the son of Augustine Wright.

The 1816 Personal Property Tax List for Nelson County, Virginia, listed two Austin Wrights, one of whom was Austin Wright, Jr., and the other with the following household on April 27:

As set forth above, on about May 16, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, a complaint was filed by Austin Wright which accused Austin's older brother Robert Wright of altering the will of Augustine Wright so as to cause it to be rejected for probate, thereby causing an intestacy which under the rules of primogeniture would pass the land to Robert as eldest son:

"To the Honorable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery holden in Lynchburg your Orator Austin Wright humbly complaining respectfully sheweth: That his Father Austin Wright departed this life on or about the year ____ (at which time your Orator was about ____ years of age.) seized and possessed as your Orator is informed of a Tract of Land in the County of Amherst now Nelson containing ____ acres adjoining at this time the Lands of Robert Mays. The Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright and the Lands of Mary Stoneham. Your Orator is informed and believes his said Father regularly made and executed his Last Will and Testament by which He devised the Land aforesaid to him. He is also informed and believes, and expressly charges that a certain Robert Wright an Elder Brother of your Orator possessed himself of said Will and with the view of making your Orator's Father die intestate as to said Land, by which as the eldest Brother, and Heir at Law by the then existing Laws he would take the Land himself, altered, interlined and obliterated said Will in such manner that it was rejected by the Court before whom it was offered for probate - and by which iniquitous conduct of the said Robert your Orator was defeated of the Legacy intended him by his Father and the said Robert took possession of the Land as Heir at Law. Your Orator also charges that the Will aforesaid, remained in the possession of said Robert or some one else interested in his behalf and never came to the Hands of your Orator and therefore cannot now be produced by him and although this fraudulent conduct in altering said Will and defeating your Orator's Legacy intended for him by the benevolence of his Father was & has been whispered about from the time of its perpetration till the present moment it has not been till lately that your Orator discovered he could produce testimony to prove the fraud and establish himself in his just rights. Your Orator charges that the said Robert Wright hath sold the Land in question to a certain Samuel Edmunds now deceased, who by his last Will and Testament devised it to his Widow for life remainder to a certain Samuel Edmunds and by said Will appointed Samuel Edmunds Rowland Edmunds & Chs Edmunds his Executors. He also states that together with the said Robert Wright; Wm Wright, John Wright, Susan Mays formerly Susan Wright Wm Pamphlin and Mary his Wife formerly Mary Wright, John Edmunds and Sally his Wife formerly Sally Wright Lavender London & Jane his wife formerly Jane Wright are the Heirs & Representatives of Austin Wright decd. And that Chas. Edmunds. Wm Edmunds. Rowland Edmunds, Jno. Edmunds. Samuel Edmunds Joseph Mays & Jane his wife formerly Jane Edmunds Chesly Kenny & Mary his wife formerly Mary Edmunds George Vaughn, & Alcy his wife formerly Alcy Edmunds are the Heirs & Representatives of Saml Edmunds decd and that Alcy Edmunds is the widow of said Saml decd all of whom together with said Exors your Orator prays may be made defendants to this Bill. To the end therefore that said Defendants may be compelled to produce the said Will of the said Austin Wright that the same may now be set up and established and your Orator put in possession of the Land aforesaid may it please your Honour to grant to your Orator the aid of this Court to compel the Defendants to answer the allegations of this Bill and to disclose all they know of the altering, destroying, or suppressing said Will, or anything in relation to it and to grant to your Orator all such other & further aid & relief in the premises as the Justice of this case may require or as may be consistent with the usages & practices of Courts of Equity: and your Orator as in duty bound will ever pray &c.

Claihdam(?)"

This record identifies Austin Wright as a child of Augustine Wright.

The deposition dated December 1, 1817, of Achilles Wright at Henry County, Kentucky, in File 1486 also listed Austin Wright as a son of Austin Wright:

"Answer. I know that he the said Austin Wright Dec'd Did Make A will & left all his Lands to his son Austin and I was Left An Exetor to the Will"

The answer of Samuel Edmunds to the complaint dated December 16, 1817, in File 1486 stated:

"This Respondent believes that the plaintiff to have been at least forty five years of age at the time this suit was instituted. . . ."

This record indicates that Augustine Wright was born in about 1772.

In the deposition of Alcy Edmunds dated December 26, 1817, in File 1486 she stated that:

". . . . A few days before the death of Austin Wright who was my Husband and your Father He made his Will. He was very low at the time and continued confined to his Bed until he died. The Will was written at his request by a Mr. Dalman a Schoolmaster, and was read to him before he signd it. He approvd of it, it was signd and witnessd by a number of persons present, among whom she thinks were Charles Lavender, Sally Lavender, Parmenas Wright and Benjamin Bryant. In the said Will it was stated that the said Austin Wright had given the Tract of Land on Tye River, the one now in dispute to his youngest Son Austin Wright. This Deponant can neither read or write, and she therefore knew the contents of the Will only from hearing it read in the presence of her Said Husband. After He had signd and executed the Will he handed it to this Deponant to keep, and she put it away where she supposed it would be safe. She was continually by the Bed Side of the sd. Austin Wright till he died which happend a few days afterwards, and this was the last Will he made. The present Plaintiff Austin Wright was at that time an Infant not exceeding she thinks five years of age, and her said Husband mentiond this as his reason for giving him the Land, as it was more likely to do him some Service than personal property"

These last two records indicate a date of birth of Austin Wright of approximately 1771 or 1772. Since Augustine Wright, Sr., resided in Amherst County at that time, the place of birth of Austin Wright was probably at Amherst County, Virginia.

On August 16, 1838, The Lynchburg Virginia printed the following obituary for Austin Wright:

"Obituary.

Died, at his residence in Nelson county, the 2d day of August, Austin Wright, in the 64th year of his age. The deceased was an unobtrusive private citizen, yet a man of excellent judgment, distinguished for untiring assiduity to business, and uprightness and integrity, in all his dealings. He was exemplary in the discharge of all his social and relative duties, an excellent neighbour, kind relative, and most indulgent master. He was indeed the noblest work of God, an honest man. He retained his senses to the last; was fully aware of the approach of death, and met it with firmness and resignation, dying in the hope of a blissful immortality. He has left a wide circle of friends and relatives to mourn their loss."

This record indicates that he was born in about 1774.

The will of Austin Wright was dated July 28, 1838, probated on August 27, 1838, at Nelson County, Virginia, W.B. E/292, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God I Austin Wright of the County of Nelson State of Virginia being of sound mind do make this my last will and testament revoking all others

The 1839 and later Land Tax Lists for Nelson County, Virginia, did not list Austin Wright.

On September 6, 1845, at Nelson County, Virginia, D.B. 11/218, John H. Pamplin conveyed to Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, as trustees for Martha L. Pamplin, any right he might have in the property inherited by Martha L. Pamplin from her father Lavender London, her mother Jane London, and her uncle Austin Wright:

"This Indenture made this 6th day of September, in the year 1845, between John H. Pamplin, of the first part; Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London of the second part, and Martha L. Pamplin, wife of the said John H. Pamplin of the third part, witnesseth, that whereas there is at the date of these presents in the hands of the said Daniel A. Cheatwood, as administrator of Lavender London decd. a portion of his estate which the said John H. Pamplin has not, as the husband of the said Martha L. Pamplin reduced to his possession, she being one of the heirs at Law and distributees of the said Lavender London decd. and whereas there is also, at the date hereof, certain slaves and other property in the hands of the said Jane London as widow of the said Lavender London, held in right of dower, and of which the said Martha L. Pamplin will be entitled to her distributive share at the death of her mother, and which the said John H. Pamplin has not, as husband, reduced to his possession - And whereas, also, the said Martha L. Pamplin is entitled to certain rights and property in the estate of Austin Wright decd. of whose will the said Lavender London was the executor, and which interest, right and property the said John H. Pamplin the said John H. Pamplin has not, as husband of the said Martha, reduced to his possession - And, whereas, also, the said Martha is entitled in her own demesne as of fee to certain lands situate and lying in the County of Nelson, a portion thereof descended to her from her father, the said Lavender London decd. and which has never yet been divided between herself and the widow and the other heir at law, and into which the said John H. Pamplin, as husband, has never entered - And she is also entitled to certain lands in said county derived to her from her uncle, Austin Wright decd. and into which the said John H. Pamplin has never entered - And the said John H. Pamplin being disposed, as an act of justice to his said wife, not to reduce her said property and estate to his possession, and divest her thereof, and to leave the same untouched and unaffected by his marital rights, or by any exercise on his part of such marital rights by reducing it to his possession, or of appropriating it in any manner whatsoever, so that she may at any aftertime receive, control, enjoy and dispose of the same, for her own separate use and benefit, separate and apart from him, as fully as if no marriage had ever been had between them, leaving her the power and right to dispose of the same as fully as if she were an unmarried woman. - Now, to effectuate these ends, and in consideration thereof, and for the further consideration of one dollar in hand paid to him by the said Daniel A. Cheatwood, who is the brother-in-law of the said Martha, and the said Jane London, who is her mother, he, the said John H. Pamplin doth, by these presents, covenant and agree with the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, and with each of them, that he will not at any after time, after the date of these presents, take any step, or make any attempt in Law or Equity, or in any other manner or form whatsoever to reduce to his possession, or to sell, transfer, convey or assign, or in any other manner interfere with any of the rights, interests, property and subject herein-before referred to as belonging to the said Martha; and that he will abandon, as he does hereby abandon, all manner of right to, or control over said property and subject - that he will abandon, as he does hereby abandon forever, all manner of marital right which he could exercise over the same, leaving the same for the use, benefit and support of the said Martha, as fully as if she had never married. And hereby agreeing that the said property, right, interest and subject shall stand forever discharged from any claim on his part as husband, leaving the same in the hands of the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, in trust for the said Martha L. leaving them to account with the said Martha therefor, in any manner consistent with the equity in her favor flowing from this Indenture; as, also, leaving them, the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, for and in behalf of the said Martha, to enter upon the said lands for the use and behoof of the said Martha, untrammelled by any marital right of the said John H. Pamplin, intending that the said Martha shall stand protected by the trustees aforesaid and by each of them, against any and every attempt, act or deed of the said John H. Pamplin, as her husband, or otherwise, in relation to the said rights and property and estate of the said Martha, hereby and herein enumerated and specified - And the said John H. Pamplin, for himself, his heirs, exors. and adms. covenants and agrees to and with the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, that he will well and truly perform all the stipulations contained in this Indenture, to be performed on his part - and this Indenture is not only not to be construed as an act of ownership over said rights, interests and estate herein before enumerated, but it is to be construed as a covenant and declaration on the part of the said John H. Pamplin, that he never has, nor never will exercise any marital right, whatever, in relation to said property, subject and estate, by reducing it to possession, or otherwise interfering with it in any manner or shape whatever, in law, or equity, or otherwise.

This record identifies Sally (Wright) Edmunds as one of the children of Augustine Wright.

The complaint dated probably May 16, 1817, and filed October 13, 1817, in File 1486, Superior Court of Law and Chancery, Lynchburg, Virginia, listed Sally (Wright) Edmunds as the wife of John Edmunds and an heir of Augustine Wright:

"He also states that together with the said Robert Wright; . . . John Edmunds and Sally his wife formerly Sally Wright . . . are the Heirs & Representatives of Austin Wright dec'd. . . ."

This record indicates that Sally (Wright) Edmunds was born in approximately 1775 or before September 2, 1775. Since her father was then resident in Amherst County, her place of birth was probably in Amherst County, Virginia.

The summons dated May 16, 1817, and returned October 10, 1817, in File 1486 listed the defendants as in Nelson or Amherst County and stated that it was "Executed on William Wright on the 20th Day of September 1817 . . . Executed on John Edmunds & wife on the same Day. . . ."

On October 3, 1818, in the case of Wright v. Wright at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, the deposition of John Edmunds was taken at the house of Joseph Mays:

"The deposition of John Edmunds of lawfull age taken at the House of Joseph Mays (agreable to notice hereto annexed) this 3rd day of October 1818, before me Tho S. The 1820 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed one John Edmunds with the following household:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners

This record indicates that Sally (Wright) Edmunds and John Edmunds were born before 1775.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Sally (Wright) Edmunds and John Edmunds was the following:

1) Samuel Edmunds, born between 1794 and 1804.

1. Samuel Edmunds

Samuel Edmunds was a son of Sally (Wright) Edmunds and John Edmunds. (1776 Augustine¹, Sally²)

The will of Austin Wright dated July 28, 1838, and probated on August 27, 1838, at Nelson County, Virginia, W.B. E/292, listed Samuel Edmunds as his nephew:

"In the name of God I Austin Wright of the County of Nelson State of Virginia being of sound mind do make this my last will and testament revoking all others

1st after all of my just debts and funeral expenses is paid I give to my Nephew Samuel Edmund Two Hundred Dollars"

The 1820 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed one male age 16 to 26 in the John Edmunds household, indicating a date of birth for Samuel Edmunds of between 1794 and 1804.

H. Jane "Jenny" (Wright) London, Her Husband Lavender London, And Her Descendants

Jane (Wright) London was a daughter of 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County and Alice or Aalsey (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds. (1776 Augustine¹)

The marriage record of Jane Wright and Lavender London was dated on April 21, 1800, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"Amherst

This record would place her date of birth before April 22, 1779, and since Augustine Wright died in about 1776, probably before 1777. Since Augustine Wright then resided in Amherst County, her place of birth was probably at Amherst County, Virginia.

Before August 8, 1805, Moses Mays filed his complaint against Lavender London and Lavinia Wright regarding a surety bond in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File _____:

"To the Worshipful the Court of Amherst County in Chancery sitting. Humbly complaining sheweth unto your Worships your Orator Moses Mays alleges, that he was induced to become the security of a certain Jaurdan Wright now decd. in a Bond for the Sum of about £17.0.0. executed to Proffitts Admr. but upon this express condition that for your Orators indemnification, a certain Lavender London (whom your Orator prays may be made Defendant hereto, with apt, and proper words, &c. who was indebted to the said Jaurdans in or about the sum of £20.0.0. This record indicates that Jane (Wright) London and Lavender London were born between 1770 and 1780 and in conjunction with the 1820 Census, between 1770 and 1775.

On September 6, 1845, at Nelson County, Virginia, D.B. 11/218, John H. Pamplin conveyed to Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, as trustees for Martha L. Pamplin, any right he might have in the property inherited by Martha L. Pamplin from her father Lavender London, her mother Jane London, and her uncle Austin Wright:

"This Indenture made this 6th day of September, in the year 1845, between John H. Pamplin, of the first part; Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London of the second part, and Martha L. Pamplin, wife of the said John H. Pamplin of the third part, witnesseth, that whereas there is at the date of these presents in the hands of the said Daniel A. Cheatwood, as administrator of Lavender London decd. a portion of his estate which the said John H. Pamplin has not, as the husband of the said Martha L. Pamplin reduced to his possession, she being one of the heirs at Law and distributees of the said Lavender London decd. and whereas there is also, at the date hereof, certain slaves and other property in the hands of the said Jane London as widow of the said Lavender London, held in right of dower, and of which the said Martha L. Pamplin will be entitled to her distributive share at the death of her mother, and which the said John H. Pamplin has not, as husband, reduced to his possession - And whereas, also, the said Martha L. Pamplin is entitled to certain rights and property in the estate of Austin Wright decd. of whose will the said Lavender London was the executor, and which interest, right and property the said John H. Pamplin the said John H. Pamplin has not, as husband of the said Martha, reduced to his possession - And, whereas, also, the said Martha is entitled in her own demesne as of fee to certain lands situate and lying in the County of Nelson, a portion thereof descended to her from her father, the said Lavender London decd. and which has never yet been divided between herself and the widow and the other heir at law, and into which the said John H. Pamplin, as husband, has never entered - And she is also entitled to certain lands in said county derived to her from her uncle, Austin Wright decd. and into which the said John H. Pamplin has never entered - And the said John H. Pamplin being disposed, as an act of justice to his said wife, not to reduce her said property and estate to his possession, and divest her thereof, and to leave the same untouched and unaffected by his marital rights, or by any exercise on his part of such marital rights by reducing it to his possession, or of appropriating it in any manner whatsoever, so that she may at any aftertime receive, control, enjoy and dispose of the same, for her own separate use and benefit, separate and apart from him, as fully as if no marriage had ever been had between them, leaving her the power and right to dispose of the same as fully as if she were an unmarried woman. - Now, to effectuate these ends, and in consideration thereof, and for the further consideration of one dollar in hand paid to him by the said Daniel A. Cheatwood, who is the brother-in-law of the said Martha, and the said Jane London, who is her mother, he, the said John H. Pamplin doth, by these presents, covenant and agree with the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, and with each of them, that he will not at any after time, after the date of these presents, take any step, or make any attempt in Law or Equity, or in any other manner or form whatsoever to reduce to his possession, or to sell, transfer, convey or assign, or in any other manner interfere with any of the rights, interests, property and subject herein-before referred to as belonging to the said Martha; and that he will abandon, as he does hereby abandon, all manner of right to, or control over said property and subject - that he will abandon, as he does hereby abandon forever, all manner of marital right which he could exercise over the same, leaving the same for the use, benefit and support of the said Martha, as fully as if she had never married. And hereby agreeing that the said property, right, interest and subject shall stand forever discharged from any claim on his part as husband, leaving the same in the hands of the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, in trust for the said Martha L. leaving them to account with the said Martha therefor, in any manner consistant with the equity in her favor flowing from this Indenture; as, also, leaving them, the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, for and in behalf of the said Martha, to enter upon the said lands for the use and behoof of the said Martha, untrammelled by any marital right of the said John H. Pamplin, intending that the said Martha shall stand protected by the trustees aforesaid and by each of them, against any and every attempt, act or deed of the said John H. Pamplin, as her husband, or otherwise, in relation to the said rights and property and estate of the said Martha, hereby and herein enumerated and specified - And the said John H. Pamplin, for himself, his heirs, exors. and adms. covenants and agrees to and with the said Daniel A. Cheatwood and Jane London, that he will well and truly perform all the stipulations contained in this Indenture, to be performed on his part - and this Indenture is not only not to be construed as an act of ownership over said rights, interests and estate herein before enumerated, but it is to be construed as a covenant and declaration on the part of the said John H. Pamplin, that he never has, nor never will exercise any marital right, whatever, in relation to said property, subject and estate, by reducing it to possession, or otherwise interfering with it in any manner or shape whatever, in law, or equity, or otherwise.

In witness whereof, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

This record indicates that Martha L. (London) Pamplin was born in about 1819 and that John H. Pamplin was born in about 1815.

In August 1874, as reported in the case of Garland v. Pamplin, 32 Gratt., 305, Virginia Reports Annotated, Samuel M. Garland filed a creditor's suit against Martha L. Pamplin regarding rights to the land conveyed in 1845 by Nelson County, Virginia, D.B. 11/218 set forth above:

"Garland v. Pamplin & als.
 September Term, 1879, Staunton.
 Absent, Moncure, P., and Anderson, J.

This was a creditor's suit in the circuit court of Nelson county, brought in August, 1874, by Samuel M. Garland, to subject the real estate of Martha L. Pamplin, the wife of John H. Pamplin, to the payment of a bond for $884, executed by said Martha L. Pamplin to the plaintiff in 1856, and payable on the 1st of January, 1857. The bond purports to be given in part of the purchase money of land and buildings thereon (mills, &c.) at the Gulf Ford, purchased by Mrs. Pamplin of James McDonald and others. It appears that Mrs. Pamplin had sold to McDonald this land, retaining the title; that McDonald had made extensive improvements thereon, building a mill and other houses; and that she afterwards purchased it back at an enhanced price; and McDonald being indebted to Garland, this bond was executed to Garland by the direction of McDonald. The plaintiff insisted that he was entitled to a vendor's lien on this land, in preference to any other creditor of Mrs. Pamplin.

 [remainder of case not included here]"

The judgment of the circuit court was reversed and remanded for further proceedings.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Jonathan H. Pamplin with the following household on June 15, 1880:

a. Sarah J. Pamplin

Sarah J. Pamplin was a daughter of Martha L. (London) Pamplin and John H. Pamplin. (1776 Augustine¹, Jane², Martha L.³)

The 1850 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed L. J. Pamplin in the John H. Pamplin household on August 26, 1850, and her age as 9 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1841.

The 1860 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Sarah J. Pamplin in the John H. Pamplin household on July 19, 1860, and her age as 18 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1842.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Sally J. Pamplin in the Jno. H. Pamplin household on June 15, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 38 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1842.

b. Alice E. (Pamplin) Jordan, Her Husband Henry Clay Jordan,
And Her Descendants

Alice E. (Pamplin) Jordan was a daughter of Martha L. (London) Pamplin and John H. Pamplin. (1776 Augustine¹, Jane², Martha L.³)

The 1850 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Alice Pamplin in the John H. Pamplin household on August 26, 1850, and her age as 7 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1843.

The 1860 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Allis E. Pamplin in the John H. Pamplin household on July 19, 1860, and her age as 16 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1844.

The 1870 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Alice Pamplin in the John H. Pamplin household on July 19, 1870, and her age as 27 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1843.

Virginia, Marriages, 1785-1940, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Alice E. Pamplin, daughter of Jno. M. and Ma. L. Pamplin, and H. Clay Jordan on March 6, 1873, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name	H. Clay Jordan
Birth Date	1846
Birthplace	Nelson

Confusingly, the 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Alice E. Pamplin in the Jno. H. Pamplin household on June 15, 1880, her relationship as daughter, her age as 34 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1846, and her marital status as single. This may have been an inadvertent listing of Alice in her father's household.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed H. C. Jordan with the following household on June 15, 1880:

Name	Color	Sex	Age	Month of Birth	Relationship

This record indicates that Henry Bruce Fogus was born in November 1854 and that Margaret Lelia (Pamplin) Fogus had died before June 1, 1900.

The 1910 Census for Newport News, Virginia, listed Henry B. Bruce in the James E. Patrick household on April 15, 1910, his relationship as father-in-law, his age as 55 and born in Virginia, indicating a birth in about 1855, his marital status as married, and his occupation as carpenter in shipyard. As set forth below, Martha L. Fogus, the daughter of Henry Bruce Fogus, married John Edmond Patrick. The census taker apparently mis-listed several items in this record: the first name of the head of the household, the last name of the father-in-law, and the marital status of the father-in-law and this record is properly that of Henry Bruce Fogus, the widowed father-in-law of John Edmond Patrick.

The death record of Henry B. Fogus was dated on August 19, 1916, at Norfolk County, Virginia:

This record indicates that William Ray Harvey was born in August 1854.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of William Ray Harvey and Mary Alice Harvey in the Hollywood Cemetery, McComb, Pike County, Mississippi:

"In Memory Of
William Ray Harvey
Beloved Husband Of
Mary Harvey
Aug. 16, 1854
Dec. 23, 1915
God's Will Be Done

Mary Alice Harvey
Feb. 1, 1871
Jan. 31, 1936"

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Daniel C. Pamplin and Lucy Petty (Bosley) Pamplin was the following:

- 1) Edgar Harvey, born in August 1888 in Mississippi.

i. Edgar Harvey

Edgar Harvey was a son of Melissa Bell (Pamplin) Harvey and William Ray Harvey. (1776 Augustine¹, Jane², Martha L.³, Melissa Bell⁴)

The 1900 Census for Pike County, Mississippi, listed Edgar Harvey in the Ray W. Harvey household on June 21, 1900, his relationship as son, and his birth in August 1888 in Mississippi. Given the date of William Ray Harvey's third marriage of 1894, Edgar Harvey would be a son of William Ray Harvey's second marriage to Melissa Bell (Pamplin) Harvey.
