INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work 1776 Augustine Wright Of Amherst County is Part XV of the project.

The material for this project is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second is the descendants charts, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices have been published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Botetourt, Campbell, Cumberland, Essex, Franklin, Montgomery, Nelson, Prince Edward, Roanoke, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia, the City of Lynchburg and the City of Roanoke, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future.

The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County" indicates that this was the Augustine Wright who died in 1776 in Amherst County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio." A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 100,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, flashsticks, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

XV. 1776 Augustine Wright Of Amherst County, His Wife Alice Or Alcey (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds, And His Descendants

The parents of Augustine Wright have not as yet been identified, but it seems probable that his brothers were Parmenos or Menos Wright and Achilles Wright, based on the following evidence.

In Amherst County, Virginia, Deed C/104 dated in 1768 by which Augustine Wright and his wife Alice sold 150 acres of land the witnesses included Menos Wright and Killis Wright. In Amherst County, Virginia, Deed F/168 dated June 4, 1787, Robert and Keziah Wright conveyed to Samuel Edmunds the land formerly owned by Augustine Wright and the land of Menos Wright was described as adjoining that land. The land is similarly described in the complaint in the case of Wright v. Wright, Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, as adjacent to the "Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright." In the deposition in that case of Achilles Wright dated December 1, 1817, at his home in Henry County, Kentucky, he stated that he was named executor of the will of Augustine Wright. In addition, Achilles Wright stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the signing of the will. Similarly, in the deposition in that case of Alcy Edmunds on December 26, 1817, she stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the writing of the will. In the deposition in that case of Moses Hughes dated June 19, 1819, he stated that "Achilles Wright" and Parmenus Wright were witnesses to the will of Augustine Wright and that Parmenas Wright applied to administer the estate of Augustine Wright, but that administration was granted to the widow Alcey Wright. Administration of an intestate estate would normally be granted to a relative. The will of Joseph Mays dated January 7, 1798, listed sons Jesse, Moses, and Louis Mays and, as set forth below, Jesse Mays married Susannah Wright, daughter of Augustine Wright, and in addition, Moses Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Parmenos Wright, and Louis/Lewis Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Achilles Wright.

The associations among Augustine Wright, Parmenos or Menos Wright, and Achilles Wright and the common classical given names strongly suggest a common relationship and probably a parent who liked classical names, but further research will be required to confirm this.

This family may have come from Buckingham County, Virginia. Minos Wright was listed as a member of the Company of Minute Men under Captain Nicholas Cabell from November 17, 1775, through December 6, 1775, in the Buckingham District. Buckingham County is a burned record county and if that origin is correct, then documentation of the parents of Augustine Wright, Parmenos Wright, and Achilles Wright may be difficult to find.

The remainder of this work will set forth the documentation that has been found relating to Augustine Wright, his wife Alcy (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds, and their descendants.

On December 7, 1767, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. B/276, Augustine Wright acquired from the executors of the will of Philip Grymes 341 acres of land on Tye River:

This record reflects a correction of the acreage of the first parcel of land to 191 acres, which is consistent with the purchase and partial sale of Amherst County Deeds B/276 and C/104. Further research will be required to trace how and when Augustine Wright acquired the second parcel of 250 acres.

On June 4, 1787, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. F/168 Robert Wright and Keziah Wright, as son and heir of Augustine Wright, sold to Samuel Edmonds 191 acres of land on Tye River:

If Augustine Wright died without a will, then Robert Wright, as eldest son of Augustine Wright, would be entitled by primogeniture to the land of his father. The legal description makes clear that this is the same land as that purchased by Amherst County Deed B/276 and partially sold by Amherst County Deed C/104.

The 1788 Land Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Augustine Wright in the First Battalion Hudson Martin list with the following property:

The 1792 and later Land Tax Lists did not have a listing for Augustine Wright. This suggests that the listing for 250 acres of land taxable to Augustine Wright may have been a mistaken entry which was corrected after Robert Wright sold the 191 acres that Augustine Wright did own at his death.

On February 23, 1799, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, Augustin Wright executed his receipt for payment in full by Samuel Edmunds of what was due to Augustin from the estate of Augustine Wright:

On about May 16, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, a complaint was filed by Austin Wright which accused Austin's older brother Robert Wright of altering the will of Augustine Wright so as to cause it to be rejected for probate, thereby causing an intestacy which under the then applicable rules of primogeniture would pass the decedent's land to Robert as eldest son:

"To the Honorable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery holden in Lynchburg your Orator Austin Wright humbly complaining respectfully sheweth: That his Father Austin Wright departed this life on or about the year ____ (at which time your Orator was about ____ years of age.) seizd and possessed as your Orator is informd of a Tract of Land in the County of Amherst now Nelson containing ____ acres adjoining at this time the Lands of Robert Mays. The Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright and the Lands of Mary Stoneham. Your Orator is informed and believes his said Father regularly made and executed his Last Will and Testament by which He devisd the Land aforesaid to him. He is also informd and believes, and expressly by charges that a certain Robert Wright an Elder Brother of your Orator possessd himself of said Will and with the view of making your Orators Father die intestate as to said Land, by which as the eldest Brother, and Heir at Law by the then existing Laws he would take the Land himself, altered, interlined and obliterated said will in such manner that it was rejected by the Court before whom it was offerd for probat - and by which iniquitous conduct of the said Robert your Orator was defeated of the Legacy intended him by his Father and the said Robert took possession of the Land as Heir at Law. Your Orator also charges that the Will aforesaid, remaind in the possession of said Robert or some one else interested in his behalf and never came to the Hands of your Orator and therefore cannot now be produc'd by him and although this fraudulent conduct in altering said Will and defeating your Orators Legacy intended for him by the benevolence of his Father was & has been whispered about from the time of its perpetration till the present moment it has not been till lately that your Orator discoverd he could produce testimony to prove the fraud and establish himself in his just rights. Your Orator charges that the said Robert Wright hath sold the Land in question to a certain Samuel Edmunds now deceased, who by his last Will and Testament devisd it to his Widow for life remainder to a certain Samuel Edmunds and by said Will appointed Samuel Edmunds Rowld Edmunds & Chs Edmunds his Executors. He also states that together with the said Robert Wright; Wm Wright, John

On December 16, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, Samuel Edmunds filed his answer to the complaint:

"The Separate Answer of Samuel Edmunds to a bill of Complaint exhibited against himself and others; in the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg District by Austin Wright.

This respondent saving and reserving to himself all benefit of exception to the many errors and false allegations in the complainants bill contained for answer to so much thereof as he is advised it is in any way material he should answer he answers and says. That he knows nothing of the fraud charged by the plaintiff to have been perpetrated by Robert Wright in the destruction of the last Will and Testament of Austin Wright deceased, and if the same is any way material to the plaintiffs to claim, this defendant requires proof thereof. This respondent admits that his father purchased for valuable consideration of Robert Wright the heir at law of Austin Wright in the month of June 1787 a tract of Land, which he presumes to be the Land in the bill mentioned, the Deed of Conveyance from the said Wright bearing date 4th June 1787 is hereunto annexed as a part of this answer. That his said father enjoyed the actual possession of the said Land from the Date of the Deed aforesaid to the time of his death, and devised the same by will (a copy of which is hereto annexed) under certain on restrictions to his widow for life and after her death to this respondent.

This respondent believes that the plaintiff to have been at least forty five years of age at the time this suit was instituted, and consequently that he has been competent in Law for the last Twenty four years of asserting his rights this Defendant therefore relies upon the purchase of his father for a valuable consideration and the laps of time as opposing a bar both in Law and equity to the plaintiffs action. He therefore relies upon the several acts of limitations in such cases under _____ & denying all fraud he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs by him expended in this suit &c.

On December 20, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, an order was issued by the court for the taking of the depositions of witnesses in the case:

"The Commonwealth of Virginia,

Witness JOHN WILLS, Clerk of our said Court at Lynchburg this 20th day of Decem. 1817, and in the 42 year of the Commonwealth.

Jno Wells C.C."

On December 26, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, the deposition of Alcy Edmunds, the widow of both Augustine Wright and Samuel Edmunds, was taken at her house in Nelson County, Virginia, and she stated there had been a will made a few days before the death of Augustine Wright, Sr., that left his land to Augustine Wright, Jr., but that it must have been replaced by another document, which she did not realize because she could not read or write:

"The Deposition of Alcy Edmunds of Lawful age taken at her own House ____ in the County of Nelson on Friday the 26th day of December 1817 to be read as evidence on the trial of a Cause depending in the Chancery Superior Court holden in Lynchburg in which Austin Wright is Plaintiff and Robert Wright, William Wright, John Wright & others are Defendants. The witness being first duly sworn deposeth and saith, That she is the Widow and Relict of Austin Wright decd. and that after his death she intermarried with Samuel Edmunds who is now decd.

Question by the Plaintiff, Did Austin Wright decd leave a Will, and if so, what became of it and to whom did he devise his Tract of Land on Tye River in the County of Nelson.

Answer, A few days before the death of Austin Wright who was my Husband and your Father He made his Will. He was very low at the time and continued confined to his Bed until he died. The Will was written at his request by a Mr. Dalman a Schoolmaster, and was read to him before he signd it. He approvd of it, it was signd and witnessd by a number of persons present, among whom she thinks were Charles Lavender, Sally Lavender, Parmenas Wright and Benjamin Bryant. In the said Will it was stated that the said Austin Wright had given the Tract of Land on Tye River, the one now in dispute to his youngest Son Austin Wright. This Deponant can neither read or write, and she therefore knew the contents of the Will only from hearing it read in the presence of her Said

Husband. After He had signd and executed the Will he handed it to this Deponant to keep, and she put it away where she supposed it would be safe. She was continually by the Bed Side of the sd. Austin Wright till he died which happend a few days afterwards, and this was the last Will he made. The present Plaintiff Austin Wright was at that time an Infant not exceeding she thinks five years of age, and her said Husband mentiond this as his reason for giving him the Land, as it was more likely to do him some Service than personal property. After the Death of her said Husband she carried what she thought was his Will to court to have it provd but she was there told the paper had been alterd and the subscribing witnesses objected to it and it was not proven. Nothing more was ever done in relation to the Will, - As this Deponent can neither read or write, It was impossible for her to say whether the paper she carried to Court was the same one her said Husband had given her or had been altered. It was easily practicable to impose on her, in either way, by substituting another paper, or altering the one left with her. She does not know, who alterd it, if it was alterd as the persons Interested were her children and she had no preference. And the Plaintiff, and Samuel Edmunds who now holds the Land are both her children and she has no preference. She does not know what became of the paper she carried to Court, and if that was not the one left with her by her Husband She does not know what became of that.

The case made some noise in the neighbourhood at the time, as it was generally known the Land had been left to the Plaintiff who was then an Infant, but no Body took any legal measure concerning it, and it has stood so to the present day.

Question by the Dft Samuel Edmunds.

Do you think Austin Wright Senr. was in a situation of mind to make a Will at the time you speak of.

Answer, I am satisfied he was perfectly in his senses

And further this Deponant saith not.

This Deponant was in the Room as it was read to the said Austin Wright, and heard it read that the Land was given to his Son Austin Wright the present Plaintiff, the same Land now in controversy, between the parties and as the pars of the Will that had been written were read and among others the clause devising the Land as aforesaid they were approved of by said Austin Wright decd. This Deponant being unwell himself did not stay till the Will was finished and heard no more of it unlike the paper purporting to be the Will of Austin Wright decd, was proved in court for probat, when it was stated that the Subscribing Witnesses refused to prove it, stating it had been alterd or was not the same Will, or something to that effect.

At that time the Plaintiff was an Infant of very tender years.

The Witnesses being interrogated by the Deft Samuel Edmunds as to the state of mind of Austin Wright decd. saith that he conceived him to be of disposing memory, and being askd if he was at Court at the time he speaks of saith he was.

On October 3, 1818, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, the deposition of John Edmunds was taken at the house of Joseph Mays:

"The deposition of John Edmunds of lawfull age taken at the House of Joseph Mays (agreable to notice hereto annexed) this 3rd day of October 1818, before me Tho S. Holloway one of the Comrs. appointed by the Chancelor for the Lynchburg district to be read as evidence on the Trial of a cause now depending in said Court in which Austin Wright is Pltff and Robert Wright, William Wright, John Wright & others are Defts who being first duly sworn Deposeth and saith

1. That on or about 17 or 18 years ago as well as this depont now recolects, that he was in company with his Father Samuel Edmunds, when the said Samuel observd to him that the land whereon he then lived belong to Austin Wright the Pltf in this sute and that he understood he intended to bring sute for it when he became of age, it made me very uneasy about it and I went to William Crawford to get his advice about said land and I mentioned to said Crawford that I would go and get said Wright to come & ___ him and asked said Crawford to put the said Austin Wright out of the notion of attempting to get it as much as possible and when he came home he mentioned to the said Wright that he understood that he intended to bring sute for the said land when he came of age, to which the said Wright replied I am not able Mr. Edmunds to do so when the said Edmunds further observed to him I think you had better go to some Attorney and get their advice, you had better go to Mr. William Crawford as I think he is the best I am acquainted with to advise with - I then asked my Father if the land was Willd to Austin Wright, he said yes it was - Oh how so Father - I courted his mother in about three months after the death of his Father, and we concluded to get married but I considered the land willd to Austin Wright and not to be cut untill the said Austin become of age. and thought it would not do to raise both families on my own land, but we conclud to get the Will altered as it yet was in the House: by the same person who wrote it as he was living in the House at that time say a certain John Doleman by giving him two Cotton shirts as a reward for his service and the alteration was made as we wished it by cutting said Austin out of it, by which means it would fall to Robert Wright an elder brother and I would get it much sooner I then mentioned to my Father and said I suppose that Robert Wright had some hand in altering the Will but my Father replied he had not, and knew no more of it than a Child unborn. There is no person that knew anything about it except Doleman my Wife and myself - in about Seven month's after the death of Mr. Wright the Will was carried to Court, when the Witness denied it was the same Will and refused to be qualified to sd. Will (& it never was recorded) but ___ observed that he knew it to be the same Will - sometime after that his Wife was summoned to Court to know what had become of her first

Husband Will and was sworn, when she observed if that was not the Will she knew of no other, which he observed was true enough for there was no other.

He further observed to this deponent and sd. John, it is a good to be Honest, there is two things hangs heavy on my mind, one is defrauding Austin Wright out of his land if it were not for them two things I could meet my Maker in peace - He had observed to this deponent that it was a Tract of land he had long wished to own by observing the Fisheries on it was worth three of the best Beefs in the County every year and charged me particular to say nothing about it and further this deponent saith not

From the probate records and File 1486 the following family of Augustine Wright can be identified:

Wife: Alice or Alcey (___) Wright

Children:

- 1) Robert Wright;
- 2) William Wright;
- 3) John Wright;
- 4) Susan or Susannah "Sukey" (Wright) Mays;
- 5) Mary "Polly" (Wright) Pamphlin or Pamplin;
- 6) Augustine or Austin Wright, Jr.;
- 7) Sally (Wright) Edmunds; and
- 8) Jane "Jenny" (Wright) London.

In her letter dated January 9, 1988, Doris C. Hardwick enclosed family group sheets from Mrs. Roy J. Cochran which listed Alice (_____) Wright as the daughter of Valentine Ball and Susannah (Lewis) Ball.

The will of Valentine Ball was dated on January 12, 1769, probated on March 5, 1770, at Amherst County W.B. 1/155, and listed his wife as Susanna and gave one shilling to eight persons, apparently his children, including one named Alice Wright:

"In the Name of God - Amen. The twelfth Day of January in the Year of our Lord MDCCLXIX, I, Valentine Ball of Amherst, Planter, being very sick and weak in Body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God for the same, & Calling to mind the mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. That is to say, Principally & first of all I Give & Recommend my Soul unto the hands of God that gave it and for my Body I Recommend it to the Earth to be Buried in a Christian like & Decent manner at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as Touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I Give, Devise & Dispose of the Same in manner & form following, that is to Say

In the first place after my Debts are paid I lend all & Singular my whole Estate to Susanna Ball my well beloved wife during her natural life.

I also give & bequeath to James Ball, Lewis Ball, Alice Wright, Sarah Bowman, Susana Heughs, Elizabeth Heughs, John Ball & Mary Hargrove one Shilling Sterling each to be levied out of my Estate.

I also Give to William Ball my well beloved Son the Land and Plantation whereon I now live after his mothers decease.

I also give & bequeath to Jane Ball, my well beloved Daughter, after her Mother's Decease, all and Singular my household Goods of all kinds, Stock, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs &c, also the Negro Man named Will.

I also give and bequeath to Capn Henry Key one five Shills whom I also Constitute and Ordain with Susanna Ball, Executor & Executrix of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby utterly Disallow Revoke and Disanul all and every other former Testaments, Wills & Legacies Requests & Executors by me in any ways before this time named, willed and bequeathed, Ratifying & Confirming this and no other to be my last Will & Testament, In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Day and Year Before written.

Some Southern Balls by Donna Rachal Mills stated that Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds "was born circa 1737, possibly at St. Margaret Parish of Caroline County, Virginia, from which her parents moved in 1743." Some Southern Balls also stated that Valentine Ball was described as of St. Margaret Parish, Caroline County, Virginia, in a deed of lease and release dated November 7, 1743, by which he purchased 200 acres of land in Henrico County on the north side of the James River, citing Henrico County, Misc. Court Record, v. 4, 1738-1746: 1212. The legal description placed this land on Lower Westham Creek, located approximately 10 to 15 miles west of Richmond. In 1756 and on February 5, 1757, Valentine Ball was described as owning land adjacent to Thomas Lewis on the north side of the James River. On October 6, 1760, Valentine Ball sold his land in Henrico County and was then described as of Albemarle County. On July 5, 1762, his wife Susanna Ball resided in Amherst County where she acknowledged the previous deed by which their land in Henrico had been sold. The new land was located on Tye River in the part of Albemarle and Amherst Counties that later became Nelson County.

As set forth below, the first child of Augustine Wright and Alice (Ball) Wright was their son Robert Wright who was born on March 7, 1762. If Augustine Wright and Alice Ball were married in 1760 or 1761, then they may well have met after Valentine Ball's family moved to Albemarle/Amherst County. However, there remains the possibility that the Wright and Ball families knew each other previously in Henrico or Caroline Counties and that the Wright family originated from one or both of those places.

As set forth above, after the death of her first husband Augustine Wright, Alice (Ball) Wright married Samuel Edmunds. The marriage bond of "Samuel Edmonds and Alse Wright" was dated on September 22, 1777, at Amherst County, Virginia, with Charles Irving as surety. The deposition of Alcey Edmunds in File 1486 dated December 26, 1817, also stated that she was "the widow and relict of Austin Wright and that after his death she intermarried with Samuel Edmunds who is now dec'd."

Samuel Edmunds and Alcey (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds had children by their marriage, but it is not as yet clear who all of those children were. In the deposition of John Edmunds dated October 13, 1818, in File 1486, he quoted his father as saying,

"I courted his mother in about three months after the death of his Father, and we conclud to get married. but I considered the land will'd to Austin Wright and not to be cut untill the said Austin became of age. and thought it would not do to raise both families in my own land,"

The will of Samuel Edmunds indicated that his children by both of his marriages were as follows:

- 1) Charles Edmunds,
- 2) William Edmunds,
- 3) Rowland Edmunds,
- 4) John Edmunds,
- 5) Samuel Edmunds,
- 6) Jane (Edmunds) Mays,
- 7) Mary (Edmunds) Kenney, and
- 8) Alcey (Edmunds) Nevil.

The will clearly refers to Samuel as son of Samuel and Alice when he is given "the land and plantation whereon I now, with the Island adjoining the same, which he is to take in possession after the death of his mother. . . ." In addition, the naming of a daughter Alcey clearly suggests that she was a daughter of Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds.

The deposition of Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds on December 26, 1817, was taken "at her own House ___ in the County of Nelson", indicating her residence there at that time.

There was no further record of Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds in Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, and no probate record has been found, so that the best that can be said is that she died some time after December 26, 1817.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Augustine Wright and Alice or Aalsey (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds were the following:

- 1) Robert Wright, born on March 7, 1762,
- 2) William Wright, born before March 21, 1775,
- 3) Susan or Susannah "Sukey" (Wright) Mays, born between 1760 and 1765,
- 4) John Wright, born probably before 1774,
- 5) Mary "Polly" (Wright) Pamplin, born between 1769 and February 20, 1772, probably in Amherst County, Virginia,
- 6) Augustine or Austin Wright, Jr., born in about 1771 or 1772 or 1774 probably in Amherst County, Virginia,
- 7) Sally (Wright) Edmunds, born in about 1775 or before September 2, 1775, probably in Amherst County, Virginia, and
- 8) Jane "Jenny" (Wright) London, born after 1775 and probably before 1777 probably in Amherst County, Virginia.

A. 1847 Robert Wright Of Madison County, Alabama, His Wives Keziah (Bibb) Wright And Peggy (Calvert) Wright, And His Descendants

1847 Robert Wright of Madison County, Alabama, was a son of 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County and Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds. (1776 Augustine¹)

The 1783 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed two Robert Wrights, one of whom was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, with numerous horses and cattle, and the other of whom was Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright, with the following household:

_____	Whites above 21 years	Slaves above 16	Slaves Total	Horses	Cattle	Wheels R.	Ordinary License

This record indicates that Robert Wright was born before spring of 1782.

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed only one Robert Wright who was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, with numerous horses and cattle, and did not list Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright.

The marriage record of Robert Wright and Keziah Bibb was dated on November 25, 1784, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"Know all Men by these presents that We Robert Wright & William Bibb are held & firmly Bound to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the Sum of fifty pounds Virg,a Currency To which payment well and truly to be made we Bind ourselves and Each of us our and Each of our Heirs Exors and Admors Jointly and Severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals & Dated this Twenty Second Day of November One thousand Seven hundred and Eighty four

The Condition of the above Obligation is Such that Whereas there is a marriage Shortly Intended to be Solemnized Between the above Bound Robert Wright Batchelor and Keziah Bibb Spinster, if there be no Lawfull Cause to Obstruct the said Marriage Then the above Obligation to be Void otherwise to Remain in full force & Virtue

Signed Sealed & Deld) Robt. Wright
 In presence of) William Bibb
 William Loving Junr"

If Robert Wright was at least 18 years of age at the time of his marriage, then his date of birth would be probably before 1767 and if Keziah Bibb was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be probably before 1769.

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed only one Robert Wright who was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, with numerous horses and cattle, and did not list Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright.

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed two Robert Wrights, one of whom was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, with numerous horses and cattle, and the other of whom was Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright, with the following household:

_____	_____	Whites above 21	Whites between 16 & 21	Slaves above Sixteen	Slaves under Sixteen

The 1787 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed two Robert Wrights, one of whom was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, and the other of whom was Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright. Each had virtually the same household:

First Robert Wright:

Date	Persons names chargeable with the tax	Number of white male Tithables above 21	Number of white males above 15 & under 21	Blacks above 16

Blacks under 16	Horses, Mares, colts & mules	Cattle	Carriage Wheels	Ordinary Licences	Stud Horses	Rate Covering

The second Robert Wright was listed on the same date as Achilles Wright and was probably Robert Wright, the son of Augustine Wright.

On June 4, 1787, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. F/168, "Robert Wright son and Heir of Augustine Wright decd and Keziah his wife, of Amherst County" sold to

Samuel Edmunds the land inherited from his father. The legal description clearly identifies the land involved as the same land as that purchased by Augustine Wright, Sr.:

"This Indenture made this fourth Day of June one thousand Seven hundred and eighty seven, Between Robert Wright son and Heir at Law of Augustine W. Wright decd and Keziah his wife, of Amherst County of the one part, and Samuel Edmunds of the aforesaid County of the other part. The 1788 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed two Robert Wrights, one of whom was Robert Wright, the son of William Wright, and the other of whom was Robert Wright Tye river:

The land of Augustine Wright was located adjacent to Tye River, which identifies this Robert Wright as the son of Augustine Wright.

On about May 16, 1817, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, Austin Wright filed a complaint in which he accused his older brother Robert Wright of altering the will of their father Augustine Wright so as to cause the will to be rejected for probate, thereby causing an intestacy which under the rules of primogeniture would pass the Augustine Wright's land to Robert as the eldest son:

"To the Honorable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery holden in Lynchburg your Orator Austin Wright humbly complaining respectfully sheweth: That his Father Austin Wright departed this life on or about the year ____ (at which time your Orator was about ____ years of age.) seizd and possessed as your Orator is informd of a Tract of Land in the County of Amherst now Nelson containing ____ acres adjoining at this time the Lands of Robert Mays. The Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright and the Lands of Mary Stoneham. Your Orator is informed and believes his said Father regularly made and executed his Last Will and Testament by which He devisd the Land aforesaid to him. He is also informd and believes, and expressly by charges that a certain Robert Wright an Elder Brother of your Orator possessd himself of said Will and with the view of making your Orators Father die intestate as to said Land, by which as the eldest Brother, and Heir at Law by the then existing Laws he would take the Land himself, altered, interlined and obliterated said will in such manner that it was rejected by the Court before whom it was offerd for probat - and by which iniquitous conduct of the said Robert your Orator was defeated of the Legacy intended him by his Father and the said Robert took possession of the Land as Heir at Law. Your Orator also charges that the Will aforesaid, remaind in the possession of said Robert or some one else interested in his behalf and never came to the Hands of your Orator and therefore cannot now be produc'd by him and although this fraudulent conduct in altering said Will and defeating your Orators Legacy intended for him by the benevolence of his Father was & has been whispered about from the time of its perpetration till the present moment it has not been till lately that your Orator discovered he could produce testimony to prove the fraud and establish himself in his just rights. Your Orator charges that the said Robert Wright hath sold the Land in question to a certain Samuel Edmunds now deceased, who by his last Will and Testament devised it to his Widow for life remainder to a certain Samuel Edmunds and by said Will appointed Samuel Edmunds Rowld Edmunds & Chs Edmunds his Executors. He also states that together with the said Robert Wright; Wm Wright, John Wright, Susan Mays formerly Susan Wright Wm Pamphlin and Mary his Wife formerly Mary Wright, John Edmunds and Sally his Wife formerly Sally Wright

Lavender London & Jane his wife formerly Jane Wright are the Heirs & Representatives of Austin Wright decd. And that Chas. Edmunds. Wm Edmunds. Rowland Edmunds, Jno. Edmunds. Samuel Edmunds Joseph Mays & Jane his wife formerly Jane Edmunds Chesly Kenny & Mary his wife formerly Mary Edmunds George Vaughn, & Alcy his wife formerly Alcy Edmunds are the Heirs & Repres.s of Saml Edmunds decd and that Alcy Edmunds is the widow of said Saml decd all of whom together with said Exors your Orator prays may be made defendants to this Bill. To the end therefore that said Defendts may be compelled to produce the said Will of the said Austin Wright that the same may now be set up and established and your Orator put in possession of the Land aforesaid may it please your Honour to grant to your Orator the aid of this Court to compel the Dfts to answer the allegations of this Bill and to disclose all they know of the altering, destroying, or suppressing said Will, or anything in relation to it and to grant to your Orator all such other & further aid & relief in the premises as the Justice of this case may require or as may be consistent with the usages & practices of Courts of Equity: and your Orator as in duty bound will ever pray &c.

This record identifies Robert Wright as the oldest son of Augustine Wright and Alice (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds.

The summons dated May 16, 1817, in Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, and returned October 10, 1817, listed "Robert Wright out of this state".

On August 15, 1817, the Territory of Alabama was formed from the Territory of Mississippi.

On October 3, 1818, at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, the deposition of John Edmunds was taken at the house of Joseph Mays and he testified that Robert Wright knew nothing of the fraudulent altering of the will of Augustine Wright:

"The deposition of John Edmunds of lawfull age taken at the House of Joseph Mays (agreable to notice hereto annexed) this 3rd day of October 1818, before me Tho S. Holloway one of the Comrs. appointed by the Chancellor for the Lynchburg district to be read as evidence on the Trial of a cause now depending in said Court in which Austin Wright is Pltff and Robert Wright, William Wright, John Wright & others are Defts who being first duly sworn Deposeth and saith

1. That on or about 17 or 18 years ago as well as this depont now recolects, that he was in company with his Father Samuel Edmunds, when the said Samuel observd to him that the land whereon he then lived belong to Austin Wright the

Pltf in this sute and that he understood he intended to bring sute for it when he became of age, it made me very uneasy about it and I went to William Crawford to get his advice about said land and I mentioned to said Crawford that I would go and get said Wright to come & ___ him and asked said Crawford to put the said Austin Wright out of the notion of attempting to get it as much as possible and when he came home he mentioned to the said Wright that he understood that he intended to bring sute for the said land when he came of age, to which the said Wright replied I am not able Mr. Edmunds to do so when the said Edmunds further observed to him I think you had better go to some Attorney and get their advice, you had better go to Mr. William Crawford as I think he is the best I am acquainted with to advise with - I then asked my Father if the land was Willd to Austin Wright, he said yes it was - Oh how so Father - I courted his mother in about three months after the death of his Father, and we concluded to get married but I considered the land willd to Austin Wright and not to be cut untill the said Austin become of age. and thought it would not do to raise both families on my own land, but we conclud to get the Will altered as it yet was in the House: by the same person who wrote it as he was living in the House at that time say a certain John Doleman by giving him two Cotton shirts as a reward for his service and the alteration was made as we wished it by cuting said Austin out of it, by which means it would fall to Robert Wright an elder brother and I would get it much sooner I then mentioned to my Father and said I suppose that Robert Wright had some hand in altering the Will but my Father replied he had not, and knew no more of it than a Child unborn. There is no person that knew anything about it except Doleman my Wife and myself - in about Seven month's after the death of Mr. Wright the Will was carried to Court, when the Witness denied it was the same Will and refused to be qualified to sd. Will (& it never was recorded) but ___ observed that he knew it to be the same Will - sometime after that his Wife was summoned to Court to know what had become of her first Husband Will and was sworn, when she observed if that was not the Will she knew of no other, which he obseved was true enough for there was no other.

He further observed to this deponant and sd. John, it is a good to be Honest, there is two things hangs heavy on my mind, one is defrauding Austin Wright out of his land if it ware not for them two things I could meet my Maker in peace - He had observed to this deponant that it was a Tract of land he had long wished to own by observing the Fisheries on it was worth three of the best Beefs in the County every year and charged me particular to say nothing about it and further this deponant saith not

This record indicates that Robert Wright was born between 1760 and 1770. The reappearance of a female aged 50 to 60 indicates that Peggy (Calvert) Wright may have survived until 1840 and simply been missed in the 1830 Census.

In her letter dated July 28, 1988, Margaret S. Connolly enclosed an obituary for Robert Wright from The Huntsville Democrat dated March 21 (27?), 1847:

"Another Revolutionary Patriot gone. Departed this life on the 24th instant, Robert Wright, Sr., a Patriot of the Revolution, aged 85 years and 17 days. He was a native of Amherst County, Virginia, was at the siege of York, and assisted in the capture of Cornwallis.

He emigrated to Madison County, Alabama in 1808, where he continued until the day of his death, greatly esteemed and beloved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

'The Southern Advocate and Richmond Enquirer are requested to copy.'"

This record indicates that Robert Wright was born on March 7, 1762.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Robert Wright in the Wright Cemetery, Cherrytree, Madison County, Alabama:

The 1860 Census for Madison County, Alabama, did not list an Elizabeth Esslinger, but did list a Mary Esslinger, age 52, with her own household, indicating that Elizabeth (Wright) Esslinger probably died between 1850 and 1860.

The DAR Application of Charlotte Arelia McNeill Autry dated November 19, 1991, included in the supporting documentation a transcription of the declaration of William Francis Esslinger dated October 12, 1948, at Huntsville, Alabama, which provided as follows:

“The State of Alabama
Madison County.

My name is William Francis Esslinger. I am an actively practicing attorney at law. I was born January 9, 1868, the son of Andrew J. Esslinger and his wife Katherine M. (Fennell) Esslinger, who were married in Marshall County, Alabama on December 27, 1866. This said Andrew J. Esslinger was the son of William Wright Esslinger and his wife Martha C. (Neal) Esslinger. I have lived all my life in Madison County, Alabama, in the midst of very numerous kin, so naturally have known many of the older relatives personally and have often heard them talk of family matters.

I knew my great-uncle, also named Andrew J. Esslinger, the brother of my grandfather William Wright Esslinger; I also knew his wife who was formerly Sarah C. Hunt. I can recall in my childhood the two great-aunts, Aunt Sarah Esslinger and Aunt Polly Esslinger, spinsters, who lived at the old home, but their mother, Elizabeth Esslinger had died some years before. The beforementioned great uncle (known as “Uncle Jack”) took care of these sisters of his until they died. The old home, on the East half of the Northeast quarter of section 7, Township 4, Range 2 East was then turned over to him; the said Andrew J. Esslinger sold the tract to Calloway Potts who had married his aunt, Aley Wright, sister of Elizabeth Esslinger, the mother of the said Andrew J. Esslinger.

From often heard conversations of my parents, grand-parents great uncles, and may other relatives I know that Elizabeth Esslinger, after the death of her husband, moved here from Tennessee with her children, whose names were as follows:

Andrew J. Esslinger (Uncle Jack) who married Sarah C. Hunt
William Wright Esslinger, my grandfather, who married Martha C. Neal
Mary (Polly) Esslinger, spinster
Sarah Esslinger, spinster
Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger who married William Potts
Robert Esslinger who married (1) Nancy Harless and (2) Nancy Jenkins
James Esslinger who died in Texas
Thomas S. Esslinger who married Eliza Ann Scott

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed and in his letter dated November 18, 1996, Mark S. Esslinger enclosed a copy of Two Hundred Years Of The Esslinger Family by W. F. Esslinger, May 1950, which stated as follows:

"Earliest History Of Esslingers (Eslingers) In America

Robert Wright was married to Kesiah Bibb of Amherst County, Virginia, in the year 1784; but, his obituary says that he was also in service and at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, October 21st, 1781.

Robert Wright, it is shown, was born March 7th, 1762, in Amhurst County, Virginia, and died in Madison County, Alabama, (where he had purchased 160 acres of land in 1813) March 24th, 1847.

Kesiah Bibb, his wife, and Mother of Elizabeth Wright Esslinger, (and thirteen younger children) was born in Amhurst County, Virginia, on November 22, 1768.

We personally know that a family connection existed between the Bibb and Esslinger families. About 1877 the writer recalls a conversation between William Wright Haden and my grandfather, William Wright Esslinger, at his home, in regard to the relationship between the two families. At that time there had been a report and some newspaper publication that a descendant of the Virginia Bibb family named Nancy Bibb Key had died in some large city, New York or Chicago, without direct descendants, so that a large fortune would be left for distribution among the descendants of the early Bibb family.

It is also to be noted that the William Bibb, surety on the bond of Robert Wright is believed to be the same William Bibb who became first governor of the state of Alabama. It is further noted that this same family had a Robert Bibb, who in turn became governor of Alabama, and was probably named "Robert" for this same Robert Wright. Handsome houses were erected by these men, one on Williams street in Huntsville, Alabama, and the other upon a fine farm in Limestone County, which was given the name of "Belle Manor" from which the railroad station in Limestone County, nearby, was given the name of "Belle Mina."

The son of Robert Wright, William Wright, became his administrator, Case No. 53918, in the records of the Orphans Court of Madison County, Alabama. The list of heirs filed by him indicates that our "Grandmother Elizabeth" was the oldest daughter of Robert Wright, who had fourteen (14) children.

On the 10th of February 1851, William Wright as such administrator, filed in the Probate Court of Madison County the following list of the heirs of Robert Wright, Senior, to-wit:

Robert Wright, Senr., dec'd.
List of Heirs.

James Taft, Administrator

From Tennessee

The records of Dandridge, Tennessee show that the property of him we term Andrew the Second, was sold at public outcry, late in 1837 as shown upon the preceding page. His widow, Elizabeth Esslinger and her sons, Robert and William, (called Bob and Bill) having purchased such articles as they desired, evidently at a price less than that required of any other bidder, having previously arranged the proper barge, or bulwark flatboat, soon departed from Dandridge, down the French Broad river, and on down the Tennessee river to their future home in Alabama. This was in keeping with the advice of her father, Robert Wright, her brother William Wright. Her oldest son, Andrew Jackson Esslinger, who for some time had lived in Madison County, Alabama, with his grandfather, Robert Wright and his uncle, William Wright also advised her to come.

Without doubt their preparations were already made before the sale, so that as soon as the widow's share and the articles purchased at the sale, could be delivered to them, the fall season being almost over, they embarked early one Sunday morning on the trip down the river. Later in the year ice would be forming on the upper branches of the river and upon that account, the trip could not be delayed.

Whether Mother Elizabeth owned the barge or not, the record does not disclose, yet it was of the type, in common use in those pioneer days. It must have been at least thirty feet in length and the central part of the barge well covered over with a good wooden roof. The prow of the boat was left uncovered for a look-out, or pilot, who had charge of two long poles, one of which was tipped with an iron point and hook, a masterpiece of the local blacksmith. These poles were used for moving the boat where the current did not carry, or to fend off floating logs, or to push away from dangerous banks.

The rear of the boat was uncovered and here stood the man who managed the steering oar. The steering oar was a long lever, or stout pole, to which a wide board had been attached by wooden pins. About midway the lever was fastened to the barge by a swivel (also made by the blacksmith), the up end being smooth for handling, and the board extending deep into the water. By this the course of the barge could be gradually changed in a current, with or without the aid of the poles.

Rains and winds had to be considered and her household goods carefully loaded, or packed under the shelter.

This was after such voyages down the river were prohibited by the embargo of Draging Canoe, and other chiefs of the Chickasaw and Cherokee tribes. The trading post at Ross' landing, was now called Chattanooga. At Ross' landing a guide was usually engaged by the boatmen for a passage through the "Suck," The "Boiling Pot, the "Skillet" and the "Frying Pan." All combined, often called "The Suck." This was where the Tennessee River cut through the Cumberland mountains to what was the Indian town called "Nickajack," and the beginning of the broad lands of the Tennessee Valley in Alabama. Her big boys were deemed ample boatmen to manage the barge down the rivers, except perhaps through the dangerous passages below Chattanooga generally called the "Suck." At Chattanooga a guide was secured to conduct the voyagers through the perils of "the Suck." This guide would leave the boat at Nickajack (near Nickajack Cave, Tennessee) and find his way on foot, back to Ross' landing, by the old Indian trail, which skirted the River and the north end of Lookout Mountain. The writer has been told that their heavy boat became involved in the whirlpool, at night, and that they had the usual experience of passing the same objects which they thought to be duplicated, as they appeared to be, on the bank of the river, more than once, as they drifted with the current. The story of their mother's experience, even with a guide, was told the writer, when quite a lad, about the year 1877, as I recollect, by his father and grandfather, and an accompanying story, somewhat as follows: "A barge loaded with pioneers with a guide, was caught at night, in the whirlpool of "the Suck", and after floating, as they thought, for miles with the current, noticed that they passed cabin after cabin, in which people were dancing and mountain fiddlers were playing "Old Zip Coon," until they discovered that it was the same cabin that they were repeatedly passing, as they floated round and round in the whirlpool."

This story, quoted from a local boatman, is elaborately told by Donald Davidson in his book "The Tennessee," Volume One, beginning on page 205.

Robert, Thomas S., and James were the younger boys, and gave valuable aid to their sisters Elizabeth Bowman, Mary (Polly) and Sarah (Sallie) in the daily routine of housekeeping, kitchen and family laundry work, aboard the floating world.

A stone hearth, near the steering oar, under the roof, the useful oven with an iron tripod to support the hanging kettle, supplied the means of cooking. Wood in abundance, was easily secured from dry drifts, or dead trees.

Upon leaving "The Narrows," our people floated out into the beautiful plains of lower Sequatchie Valley and quietly, but constantly drifted into the great bend of "the Tennessee." The barge bore to the right of a long island, and under the protection of a hill, tied up for a windy night. This must have been at the town of Bridgeport, then all wild woods. All along, the men secured fish and game to replenish their ample larder with fresh food, even though they were well provided with essentials from the farm.

In a southwesterly direction the barge drifted, making slow progress as the land became more level, until the rear wind came along to help.

The streams and valleys were widening, Sand Mountain rose to the left, back of fertile valleys, now being settled up like those on the right hand, extending back to the picture-like blue peaks of the Cumberland foothills. Places where large creeks emptied into the river, were passed; but Crow Creek, Mud Creek and Sauter's Creek were not known to our voyagers by name.

For hours, mother Elizabeth Wright Esslinger and her interested family would admire the beautiful hills and mountains, extending from Moccasin Bend above the Narrows to the mouth of Paint Rock River, so much like the Tennessee Mountains left behind, upon the brawling French Broad. At such times, they spoke of her family, her father's and uncle's families, with joyful hopes for their early meeting. They looked forward to the more level lands, and to farming wider fields. They spoke of the prosperity of her kinsmen, William Bibb and Robert Bibb. William Bibb, first governor of Alabama was her uncle and their success in politics in Alabama, as well as the prosperity of her brother, William Wright, and her father, Robert Wright, now owning such goodly lands as they needed, cheered them on their way.

Our voyagers drifted on southwardly with the tide until they reached a point near some high land on the north side of the river. That was Thursday morning. The sun was bright and the wind from the southwest was mild and rather warm for the season. Our people had plenty of food but the meat had so far, been almost entirely, pork of some kind, procured from their own pigs raised in Tennessee. Some of them suggested that in addition to what few fish they had captured, some beef might be had from some of the settlers near the bank of the river. At this point a canoe came out and our voyagers soon observed that he was not an Indian, but a white man clad in the garb of a frontiersman. He held up his hand and hailed the barge, asking what they had to trade. The reply was that they had only a few furs, two grey fox pelts, one red fox pelt and the skin of one black bear. "Where did you catch the black bear?" asked the canoeman. "The boys shot him in a hunting trip over on the Tuckaseegee River," was the reply. The canoeman came aboard and introduced himself. "Name is Larkin, I live the house back on the hill there in the clearing."

The visitor explained that he did not need any extra furs at this time, but was sadly needing some Sweetening. "Have you any beef?" Asked our voyagers. "We have no beef but we have some fine venison up at my house. Last week I shot a fine spiked buck in my back new ground. I would be glad to trade half of this buck to you for some molasses if you have it." The voyagers remembered that they had a barrel well filled with excellent molasses in good condition; so they soon made a trade with Mr. Larkin for half of his buck, giving him in return, eight gallons of splendid molasses. With this transaction closed, Mr. Larkin bid them good bye with wishes for a successful trip down the river.

At Pine Island, they stopped to secure some fuel, then continued the voyage on down by Gunter's Landing. This seemed to be a busy settlement at this time, barges and canoes were much in evidence and it seemed many Indians were gathered in groups. Subsequently they learned that this was part of the exodus of the Cherokees from this section of Alabama to their western territory, under the iron clad orders of President Andrew Jackson, and Millard Fillmore, who succeeded him as President.

Passing below Guntersville where the river was wide and gravel bars were numerous, much help to the progress of the barge was rendered by the big boys with their poles.

About six miles down the river they came to the bluff on the north side called Honeycomb Bluff. From these successions of caverns from the water, up to a considerable height, the bluffs were named and from them the creek known as Honeycomb Creek, with its valley, and the Little Honeycomb Creek and valley just north of the river. Between two cliffs full of these caverns, with their echoes and honeycomb-like formation, a valley came down the river. Here is where Andrew Jackson and his army crossed the river on their way to defeat the Seminoles and later the English at New Orleans, in 1812. Here the river was deep and quiet. On the south the bank was sandy and easily accessible, but on the north the river was approached down a steep hill. In later years, from 1876 to 1915, the writer was thoroughly familiar with this part of the Tennessee River as he was born on the Fennell Plantation, at his grandmother's, just south of this crossing, or ferry, later known as Deposit. This was just about four miles north of the town of Warrenton.

At this point in the year 1864, a small battle was fought exactly at this crossing, between Union soldiers on the north and Confederate soldiers on the south. At this time all territory north of the Tennessee river was occupied and held by the Federal troops, but all south of the Tennessee river was in the Southern lines. The names of the commanders in charge, have escaped me. The Federal troops erected a barricade of logs, near the river, but the Confederate troops being where the soil was more easily handled, threw up an earthen embankment, and from these shelters each side fired vigorously at the other. One man was killed on the Confederate side. In my boyhood days, it appeared most wonderful to hear the echoes as the steam-boats urged by large engines and large stern-wheel paddles, came chugging up the river.

At first the echo would resound down to the left, as we stood on the south side of the river, and could hear the echo from the caves and bluffs on the north side. As the boats progressed the echo would grow further and further up the river, and finally when the boat was near, with its towering smokestacks and wonderful loads of cotton, goods, animals and merchandise of various kinds, and people, the echo would be far up to the right; and all was excitement as the boat landed. One of these boats was the "Robert R. Anderson", another the "Chattanooga."

A small boat was the "Ida." One of the most modern was the "Guntersville" later the tug "Huntsville" with its stern wheel and strong engines, pushed the barges from Hobbs Island to Guntersville, joining the two parts of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad, with all the splendor of the noises, echoes and hissing of steam, incidental to all boats. This writer knew the captains of some of these boats. One was Captain Samuels of Guntersville and another was Captain James R. Johnson of New Hope, which was called Vienna, before the Civil War. It is said that after the destruction of the town by Federal soldiers; after the war was ended, the new town was named, and expressed a "new hope."

(Incidentally, Captain James R. Johnson, in a Democratic convention, for Madison County, Alabama, put in nomination for Tax Collector of Madison County, Andrew J. Esslinger, who was nominated and elected, serving four years from 1892 to 1896, as Tax Collector of Madison County. He was the father of this writer.)

At Deposit a messenger was secured to send by horseback, over the Jackson Trail, to the home of William Wright, the brother of grandmother Elizabeth, and to her son, Jack Esslinger, the information that their barge would soon be in the Paint Rock River, and for them to send to Vienna such transportation as they saw fit, to bring them up into the Little Cove.

Within a few hours down the river appeared the face of the wonderful cliff known as the Painted Rock. It is so located that its face shows many miles up the river. From this beautiful rock, the river takes its name and the valley, drained by it, known as the beautiful, Paint Rock Valley. The railroad town located on the river, is also called Paint Rock, in Jackson County, Alabama.

Just past this bluff the mouth of Paint Rock River reaches the Tennessee. Into this our barge was steered and then some work with hooks and poles to slowly work the heavy barge up the Paint Rock River, to a suitable landing on the Jackson Trail near Vienna just east or southeast of what is now New Hope. Here they rested until the teams from up the valley came with one large ox wagon and a carry-all for the women, and a wagon pulled by two strong mules, and men enough to load all the goods onto the wagon. Then began their long day's journey back up the valley over the well marked military and Indian road, called Jackson's Trail.

After the first mile of soft ground, the traveling was fairly good, until the mountain gap called Cedar Ridge, was reached. Here the road was extremely rough and the drivers had to proceed with undue care and very slowly. Further on they came to what was subsequently named the Cave Spring. A space between a large mountain and a small mountain that is a depression, rather than a hill like Cedar Ridge. Between these mountains there is a level sunken area of a few acres over which a creek flows, right out of one cave and across the bottom of the depression and into another cave, estimated at about one thousand feet. The water is as pure and as sweet as any water in the County of Madison, with all of its wonderful and sweet springs. Once under the little mountain it continues about two miles, then comes out at what is called Hinds Spring and comprises one of the main feeders of Goose Creek. Goose Creek, across which our people went also, in their wagons, has its origin in what is called the Horse Cove of Keel's Mountain, which is a part of the Big Cove lying southeast of Huntsville. This name, Horse Cove, was given to this cove in the mountains, because here the settlers could turn out their horses and cattle for grazing and know that it would not be easy for the Indians to stampede them out over the mountains, while they themselves, guarded the mouth of the Cove. Just south of this cove and at the Cave Springs mentioned above, a skirmish was also fought during the Civil War and a fine young man from one of the homes near Hurricane Creek, was killed. With his comrades they met a squad of Federal soldiers returning from a raid near Vienna. They fought from behind fences and rocks. Mr. Chambers, who was killed, was lying behind a rock and he would raise up and shoot over it, so once as he raised, a minnie ball struck his head and killed him.

As our friends followed the trail north they came also by the foot of Raven Bluff, which is undoubtedly the tallest bluff at the foot of a mountain in Madison county, not located on a stream. It is a wonderful sandstone, full of caves and has often been a great shelter for sheep running at large on the mountain. At the front of this formation is a rock, large at the top and small as a large barrel, at the base, called the Candle Stand, which can be reached by a three-foot jump from the main cliff. This formation, and the Cave Spring, are worth a half-day's drive over our improved roads, to see, any Sunday afternoon.

It is also said that a band of soldiers or home guards called "bushwhackers" shot from this rock, at a squad of Federal soldiers, passing south, conducted by Alex Wright, a slave of Uncle William Wright, who had been impressed by the squad to show them the road. Fortunately the bullets rose too high and only one of the Federals was wounded, being shot in the wrist. The man, Alex, was terribly frightened. He ran away from the bluff, getting more and more into the range of the bullets, yet he escaped the bullets, only to be so badly frightened that it was said, he never was very well again. His daughter, Paralee Wright, told me this, while she was a maid in my mother's home, when I was less than twelve years old.

Soon our travelers were resting in the home of her brother and the brothers and sisters were enjoying a reunion with their brother Jack at the home of her brother William Wright. Here I will remark that in my early days, when this home was occupied by another, I often saw a machine, lying out, rusting away. It was called a "spinning jenny." Soon after Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin, additions were made and suggested, some of which led to this odd machine, which would have done the work of an ordinary yarn factory, in addition to ginning the cotton, as directed by the inventor of the cotton gin.

Our family was finally located and their history and the history of their descendants has formed a part of the history of Madison County. Their industry, men and women, has done much to build the homes and establish the farms so valuable and so beautiful in this our home county of Madison. Who was Elizabeth Esslinger? In a former page we have indicated that Elizabeth was the daughter of Robert Wright, whose wife was Keziah Bibb. Their home was in Virginia and from this home it is possible Elizabeth came into Tennessee to teach school or to perform some service and there met Andrew Esslinger, designated in this booklet as Andrew the Second. The son of Andrew Esslinger the First, who was the son of Christian Esslinger, who came to Pennsylvania in the good ship "Patience" in the year 1749, whose English master was Captain Hugh Steel.

After the arrival of our family at the homes of her father and brother, we may properly follow the history of the children of Elizabeth Wright Esslinger after she established her home in the Little Cove from which her children were sent into the business life of north Alabama, among whom were so many industrious farmers and teachers. The family evidently was engaged with her father, Robert Wright, for some years, in farming. During this time she occupied a home on the hundred and sixty acres of fine land in Little Cove, purchased from the Government by her father. It has been suggested that as a veteran of the Revolutionary War of 1776, his purchase was effected by land warrants granted veterans. Subsequently Elizabeth Esslinger bought a farm home which adjoins here father's place, where she and two of her daughters lived the remainder of their lives. Until recent years one of her sisters Asey Potts, many years younger than she, who was the thirteenth child of Robert Wright, with Calloway Potts her husband, owned and occupied that eighty acres of land in Madison County, Alabama. It was the E ½ of the NE ¼ of Section Seven, Township Four, Range two East.

The Sublett Family

Her daughter, Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger, was married to William L. Potts, and lived in this vicinity. They had only one child, Elizabeth Potts, who became the wife of a fine young farmer in that vicinity known as L. M. (Pug) Sublett. She and her husband lived until their deaths upon an adjoining farm which is now owned and occupied by a son, Mr. Oda W. Sublett. His wife is Mrs. Belle Conally Sublett, who has helped Mr. Sublett to operate and conduct the farm with the energy and industry leading to deserved success.

Oda W. and Belle have two sons, both married. The elder son, William C. Sublett, whose wife is Kate Brewer Sublett, lives in or near the City of Birmingham, where he is in business. The children of William C. and Kate B. Sublett are Carolyn, aged 7 years; Donald, aged 4 years; and Linda, aged 1 year.

Another son, Robert L., married Miss Sue Bailey, who also gives valued aid to him in his farming operations, at their home south of Brownsboro, (R.F.D. No. 1) in this Madison County.

Nydia Sublett, a daughter, was married to Mr. James W. Terry, of Route No. 2, Elora, Tenn., where he is engaged in farming. At her death, she left a son and two daughters, Maurice B. Terry, Annie C. Terry and Mary Willie Terry. The son's wife is named Lillian, and they live in Birmingham, Ala., while he is in the armed service of the U.S., with rank of Master Sergeant. Annie C. is the wife of Walter T. Albright, an advanced farmer of Monticello, Ky. The daughter, Mary Willie Terry, now living in Huntsville, Ala., is an attentive, attractive sales lady, very efficient and much in demand, as such, as well as being likable and popular.

If the parents of Rhesa W. Sublett had not been supplied with kin named William, Mr. L. M. Sublett and Elizabeth Potts Sublett, would probably have given that name to their oldest son, Rhesa, but, her father was William L. Potts, his brother, was William Sublett, and four of Pug's sisters had married men named William. They were William Nail, William W. Esslinger, William J. Potts and William Jacobs.

Rhesa W. Sublett attended a school taught my me. From a fine, energetic affable boy, he developed into a fine man, whose principal occupation has been that of our family's pride, farming. He was born in the Little Cove about 1877, and about the year 1901 was married to Miss Lula Bob Campbell, about five years his junior. They have a most attractive half dozen children, of which any parents might be proud, and now live in Athens, Alabama, a college city, in adjoining County.

Their oldest son, William Berry Sublett, born 1903, was married in 1924 to Miss George Earl Greene, of Tennessee, and they now reside at Hohenwald, Tennessee, where William Berry is a prosperous farmer and trucker. Like all farmers, who succeed best, his wife has always been by him, willing at all times to lend a hand and do more than her full part to make a happy home.

The seven children born to W. B. Sublett and Miss Greene, are briefly mentioned here as follows: William Earl Sublett, age 25, married to Miss Jean Woodfin, to whom a baby boy, named Wm. E. Junior, has been born: who is also engaged in the honored business of farming, in Tennessee, meeting great success in that calling.

A daughter, Doris M. Sublett Dorning aged 23, is married to Mr. Richard Dorning, of Tennessee, a fine farmer and experienced salesman, and they have two fine children, Judy and Larry.

W. B. Sublett and Miss Greene, also have three fine sons, namely: William Wayne, age 21, unmarried, and enlisted in the Coast Guards of U.S.: Kenneth Lee Sublett, aged 19 years, who will finish high school in 1950; and Harold Sublett, a ball-playing school boy of 16 years. Also, two sweet girls, Amy June, aged 12, and Carolyn, aged 9, both in school, where they excel.

Mr. L. M. Sublett and his wife, have a grand daughter, daughter of Rhesa and Lula Bob, living in Sheffield, Alabama, named Sara G. Sublett Stroud, about 39, wife of Clarence E. Stroud, to whom she was married in 1932, where he is a valued Carpenter Foreman. Their two children are a manly boy Columbus Walter Stroud, 17, who will graduate from high school in 1950, and a sweet school girl of 7 years named Susan Stroud, the pride and pet of the family.

Their third daughter, is D. Lurline Sublett Clem, aged 36, who like her parents, resides in the College City of Athens, Alabama, where she was married in 1941 to Mr. R. Turner Clem, a prosperous and energetic produceman and farmer, our boasted avocation of the Esslingers.

Another son of Rhesa and Lula Bob, Edwin Ellis Sublett, lives in Mundelian, Ill., his employment being that of a "Radio Technician." He is about 32, and was married in 1918 to Miss Anna Mae Heinshon, of Illinois, with whom he divides the care and rearing of their idol, Edwin Ellis Sublett, Jr., a bouncing baby boy.

The youngest of the children of Rhesa and Lula B. Campbell, is Edsel Ford Sublett, aged 27, still unmarried who seems to be too busy teaching school at Crawfordsville, Florida, to see a way to secure the lovely bride he deserves, to help him properly enjoy the sweet Orange Blossoms of that grand state of Florida or the state of matrimony.

The eldest daughter of Rhesa Sublett and his wife, Lula B. Campbell is Mrs. Velma E. Sublett Smith, born 1908, ho lives in another school city of Alabama, Montevallo, in Shelby County. She was married in 1932 to Mr. Ruby Carl Smith, a farmer and steel worker; one of those handy men mechanical, as well as a grower of all kind of crops. Velma and her husband have four most attractive children, the eldest being Betty Jane, who will graduate from high school in 1951, and may teach. Robert Carl Smith, aged 15, who likes ball playing, his studies and the girls his own age; with the two younger children, Ellis Aaron Smith, age 8, in school and Gail Sharleen Smith, aged five years, just anxious to begin school.

Their daughter, Comelia Florence Sublett is the wife of James Macon McNeill, they live upon a farm at Rives, Tennessee, where Mr. McNeill has been a successful farmer and cattle raiser. They have an interesting family, in which a son Harold Nathan McNeill is much in demand as an expert accountant. His wife is Mary Duncan McNeill, is well educated and assists him in his work.

Another farmer of our family is their son Murriell Russell McNeill, whose wife is Frances Carmack McNeill, she being well connected with the prominent Carmack family of Tennessee. Their son, George Macon McNeill, is doing well and hopes to make both the McNeill and Carmack family, relatives on his mother's side, proud of the manly son. Florence and Macon have another son, Wilbern Oliver McNeill, very useful and systematic in his career as a valued Rural Mail Carrier. Though, this booklet is not to be a mailing list, I suggest that any mature single lady, interested in a fine, able-bodied single man of 36 summers, might reach him by mail.

Another son of L. M. and Lizzie Potts Sublett lives at R. No. 1, Owens X Roads, in Madison County. His wife's name was Miss Tommie Schrimsher, whose industry has done much to help Mr. Loyd Sublett succeed so well in farming, the avocation and pride of our family. Their son, Thomas Loyd Sublett, also of Owens X Roads, is an ambitious young farmer, and will be heard from along this line.

Loyd and Tommie S. have a married daughter, Elaine Sublett Baker, the wife of C. O. Baker, Jr., of Hobbs Island, Ala. Mr. Baker is prominent and successful in the trade of his wife's ancestors, being tops in farming and also a teacher of Vocational Agriculture, whose services as teacher are much in demand.

Nora, a daughter of L. M. Sublett and Lizzie Potts Sublett, is the wife of Wm. O. Smith, a prosperous farmer of R. No. 5, Fayetteville, Tenn., where they and their son and daughter now live.

Their son, Grady Odell Smith, married Ernia O. Wilson, of Toney, Alabama, and they have five children: Billie Sue Smith (18), Martha Jean Smith (17), Lewis Bay Smith (15), and Sarah Carolyn Smith (7), all making good progress in school.

Their daughter, Mildred Adana Smith Gowen, is the wife of an industrious farmer and business man, William Cowden Gowen, and their son, of whom they are justly proud, Hiram C. Gowen, is now 15 years of age and makes good in his work and in school.

Another son of Mr. L. M. Sublett and Lizzie Potts, his wife, Edward Clifton Sublett, whose wife is Stella Florence Keel Sublett, lives at Union City, Tennessee, is also a farmer out on Route No. 1. They have a most interesting family of eleven children, of whom six are married. It is their good fortune to have at home with them, an industrious daughter, Florence Elizabeth, who is called upon for much attention by the other children at home, especially the school aged, who like help in about everything, not to mention lessons.

A daughter, Velta Mae Sublett Garrigan, of Woodland Mills, Tennessee, is the wife of another industrious farmer, Mr. W. T. Garrigan, Junior, who like the mother is devoted to the 2½ year old daughter, Judith Dianne Garrigan.

Martha Helen Sublett Tynes is the wife of Albert Lavern Tynes, owner and operator of a filling station at Bagalusa, La., where they delight in the possession of two fine children not yet of school age; Albert Laverne Tynes, Jr., aged 3, and Marthalene Tynes, aged 1½ years.

LaNora Glennell Sublett married an industrious mechanic of Union City, Tennessee, whose name is Mr. Coble R. Garrett, who with his wife, is very proud of their two lovely children, John Edward Garrett aged 3 years, and Amelia Lou Garrett, almost two.

James Carl Sublett, also lives in Union City, Tenn., has an industrious wife, Pauline Phebus, and two sweet children, the boy being James Carl Sublett, Jr., aged three, and the girl baby being Shirley Jo Sublett, aged one. James Carl is a farmer and G.I. teacher.

Edward Clifton Sublett, Jr., is a skilled mechanic, whose services are much in demand in Union City, where he lives, his wife being Marion June Roberts, of Tennessee, and their baby boy of two years being named Edward Clifton Sublett, Jr., a delight to grand parents also.

Their daughter, Elmer Louise Sublett, became the wife of James Marvin Reeder, an active employee of Ford's Plants, where she is also employed, their home being on Shearer Drive, Plymouth, Michigan.

Harry Keel Sublett an unmarried man, lives on Route No. 1, Union City, and takes pride in being an up-to-date farmer.

The three younger sons of Edward C. and Florence Keel Sublett live and work at home with the parents, William Kenneth being in high school, and David Lynn, being in the graded school, both being ambitious and industrious pupils.

"Transcription of Letter From Dr A. T. Grayson to Margaret Elizabeth Wall Cummings

Dr. Ambrose Tilden Grayson

Mrs. Charles Cummings,

You may think odd of me writing an unsolicited letter, & when I get started I don't stop quick. I slept all the evening and tonight I can't begin to go to sleep. -- Kate Sanford Jones after I told her some of the history of Uncle Mills Jenkins, Aunt Jane Wright Jenkins that you may be interest in seeing. Aunt Jane Wright oil painting & where she married & lived & buried. I went to the Esslinger Kin meeting and two or three wondered how I was kin, and interested? So I wrote a letter that night not about the Esslingers or the Jenkins but most about my g-grandfather born 1796. The 6th child of Robert Wright who was First Leut. in A.R. Army, and whose name is on a bronze plaque at Courthouse placed there by the Chapter of D.A.R.'s the most influential in politics of all society or chapter in our nation today, and his wife Kesiah Bibb, where my aunt & father gave credit for much. I also mentioned John William Connally my grandmother's grand father whose name is on the D.A.R. bronze plaque at Courthouse. You can see why I am kin to every old settler in the County, Wrights, Conally's, Allison's, Cobbs & Graysons. (over)

Jane Wright was the 10th child was a business woman and helped her husband Mills Jenkins in selling his produce. Kept books or a diary for him. My father always kept one for every day in the year & would say like Aunt Jane, kept hers. first thing after supper put on book. date new calf or colt baby on the farm & etc. and referred to it often. While we lived over a mile the Jenkins could hear my father call hogs. Uncle Mills Jenkins would go for miles with three yoke of oxen to get wood so afraid he would burn up all the wood close. Now you can't give wood away after you cut it. Elaine(?) was 13th child. Married Uncle Calleny(?) Potts. She & Jane bought the Wright's home & Robert Sr. & Kesiah moved to near the Cradlestand or Chestnut Grove. Where William & Robert Jr. and some other Wrights owned cotton land in a big two story house. Only a large tree & the Wright Cem to mark it. When Robert & Kesiah left N.C. to take up a soldiers grant they selected 3-1/2 miles due west of where Gurley is now, 1808, homesteaded 1809 & 10. Selected before buying set out holly trees one is living now 150 yrs. That is as good land as the County has today. Mr. John Acuff & Blake McMullen own it.

Some day I would to take you, Douglas, the other Mr. Chas., Emily & Wilfred the 4 and show you Aunt Jane's oil painting. The owner takes pride in showing. Then show you where my Great Grandfather William Wright and Jerousha Connally built lived & died but buried in Wright Cem. Will go from there to Robert Wright Sr. bought 1809 or 10. Then by the Jenkins Cem. on by where I was born by the Candle Stick by Chestnut Grove Church, to see the tree and birds eye view of the 1 acre cem. Nothing but bushes & weeds. See it from Mary Joe Collins(?) house a negro.

Then return by where Congressman W. R. W. Cobb. Catherine Allison's my aunt. Bryant Cobb & Polly Grayson married in Grayson home Big Cove 1813. See the Cem from Cobbs Bridge, too many weeds. Come home by Goldsmith's born on through Bankhead Mountain Road home. Katie has been but if can stand Wilfred 4th & Douglas will be o.k. with me if its your pleasure if Mr. Chas. should not go, but I will be glad to have him. He won't think less of you for your ancestors. They showed good judgment. Elizabeth Wright Esslinger was their 1st child & married when they left N.C. William was 12 when they moved here. Dr. A. T. Grayson"

Although the online marriage records list Sarah's maiden name as Hanby, there were no Hanbys listed in the 1850 Census for Madison County, Alabama, and the death record of Sallie C. (Esslinger) Campbell listed her mother's maiden name as Hunt. In addition, there were a large number of Hunts listed in the 1850 Census. And the declaration of William Francis Esslinger dated October 12, 1948, at Huntsville, Alabama, and set forth below stated that his great uncle was Andrew J. Esslinger and his wife was the former Sarah C. Hunt. With regard to the year of marriage, as set forth below, the 1850 Census listed the oldest child as 9 years of age, suggesting a marriage in 1841 rather than 1844 and the 1844 date may have been a misreading of a 1 as a 4, due to a long tail on the one.

Hunt on March 4, 1841, in Madison County, Alabama, and died in 1895 in Madison County, Alabama, and that Andrew Jackson Esslinger and Sarah C. (Hunt) Esslinger had the following children:

- 1) Levi W. Esslinger,
- 2) James Thomas Esslinger,
- 3) John W. Esslinger,
- 4) Sallie (Esslinger) Campbell,
- 5) Elizabeth Esslinger,
- 6) Albert Ogden Esslinger, and
- 7) Huldah E. (Esslinger) Crumine.

In his letter dated November 18, 1996, Mark S. Esslinger enclosed family group sheets which stated that Andrew Jackson "Jack" Esslinger was a son of Elizabeth (Wright) Esslinger and Andrew Esslinger, was born on May 24, 1804, in Tennessee, married Sarah C. Hunt on March 4, 1841, in Madison County, Alabama, and died in 1895 in Madison County, Alabama, that Sarah C. (Hunt) Esslinger was born in 1825 in North Carolina, and that Andrew Jackson Esslinger and Sarah C. (Hunt) Esslinger had the following children:

- 1) Charles A. Esslinger, born on December 7, 1841, in Alabama,
- 2) Levi William Esslinger, born on November 1, 1843, in Alabama,
- 3) James Thomas Esslinger, born on November 20, 1845, in Alabama,
- 4) Elizabeth T. Esslinger, born on November 16, 1847, in Alabama,
- 5) John Washington Esslinger, born on February 28, 1850, in Alabama,
- 6) Samuel K. Esslinger, born on June 26, 1852,
- 7) Albert Ogden Esslinger, born on November 14, 1854,
- 8) Ann A. K. Esslinger, born on December 9, 1856,
- 9) Eliza J. Esslinger, born on September 12, 1858,
- 10) Sarah C. (Esslinger) Campbell, born on April 6, 1806, and
- 11) Huldah E. (Esslinger) Crumrine, born on October 29, 1861.

The date of birth of Andrew Jackson Esslinger is prior to the date of marriage of Andrew Esslinger and Elizabeth (Wright) Esslinger and it appears the date was incorrectly listed as 1804 rather than 1814. In addition, as set forth above, Andrew Jackson Esslinger survived until June 13, 1900, when he was listed in the census, rather than dying in 1895.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Andrew Jackson Esslinger and Sarah C. (Hunt) Esslinger were the following:

- 1) Charles A. Esslinger, born on December 7, 1841, in Alabama,
- 2) Levi William Esslinger, born on November 1, 1843, in Alabama,
- 3) James Thomas Esslinger, born on November 20, 1845, in Alabama,
- 4) Elizabeth T. or J. Esslinger, born on November 16, 1847, in Alabama,
- 5) John Washington Esslinger, born on February 28, 1850, in Alabama,
- 6) Samuel K. Esslinger, born on June 26, 1852,
- 7) Albert Ogden Esslinger, born on November 14, 1854, or in about 1855 in Alabama,
- 8) Ann A. K. Esslinger, born on December 9, 1856, in Alabama,

- 9) Eliza J. Esslinger, born on September 12, 1858, in Alabama,
- 10) Sarah C. "Sallie" (Esslinger) Campbell, born on April 6, 1806, or in about 1861 in Alabama, and
- 11) Huldah E. (Esslinger) Crumrine, born on October 29, 1861, or in about 1862 in Alabama.

On March 22, 1904, J. W. Grayson, former captain of Company E, 37th Tennessee Infantry, C.S.A., wrote to Martha Druscilla (Pickett) Esslinger regarding her husband's service in the Civil War, a copy of which letter was included her pension file:

"Gurley, Ala., March 22, 1904

Mrs. Esslinger:

It was with much regret and deepest sorrow that I saw the announcement of the death of your husband Levi W. Esslinger.

I desire to tender you and his children this testimonial of the high appreciation in which I held him. But few know him better than I did. Four years service together in the greatest war recorded in history gave me an opportunity to form a closer acquaintance with him than almost anyone else had.

He enlisted in the war 1861-5 as a private in Co., E, 37th, Tenn., Inf., Volunteers, C. S. A., which company I had the honor of command as Captain. He was soon promoted by a competitive examination to 3rd. Lt., in the Company, and then to 2nd, and to 1st. Lieut., by seniority as others died. No man ever made a better or braver soldier. He was always ready, willing and fearless in the discharge of his duties.

I was right by him when he was wounded in the ankle at the bloody battle of Franklin, Tenn., which made him slightly lame for life. He did not murmur, but readily resigned himself to his misfortune like the good soldier he was.

I want his children to remember that scar as one of the evidences of his devotion to the cause for which he fought and which we then believed and now know was just.

I am so glad I went a few years ago to see Cousin Jack and you and Levi and your children and have an opportunity of getting acquainted with them.

Respectfully,

J. W. Grayson
Capt. Col, E, 37th Tenn.,
Regt., Inf., C.S.A."

"The State of Alabama
Madison County.

My name is William Francis Esslinger. I am an actively practicing attorney at law. I was born January 9, 1868, the son of Andrew J. Esslinger and his wife Katherine M. (Fennell) Esslinger, who were married in Marshall County, Alabama on December 27, 1866. This said Andrew J. Esslinger was the son of William Wright Esslinger and his wife Martha C. (Neal) Esslinger. I have lived all my life in Madison County, Alabama, in the midst of very numerous kin, so naturally have known many of the older relatives personally and have often heard them talk of family matters.

I knew my great-uncle, also named Andrew J. Esslinger, the brother of my grandfather William Wright Esslinger; I also knew his wife who was formerly Sarah C. Hunt. I can recall in my childhood the two great-aunts, Aunt Sarah Esslinger and Aunt Polly Esslinger, spinsters, who lived at the old home, but their mother, Elizabeth Esslinger had died some years before. The beforementioned great uncle (known as "Uncle Jack") took care of these sisters of his until they died. The old home, on the East half of the Northeast quarter of section 7, Township 4, Range 2 East was then turned over to him; the said Andrew J. Esslinger sold the tract to Calloway Potts who had married his aunt, Alosey Wright, sister of Elizabeth Esslinger, the mother of the said Andrew J. Esslinger.

From often heard conversations of my parents, grand-parents great uncles, and may other relatives I know that Elizabeth Esslinger, after the death of her husband, moved here from Tennessee with her children, whose names were as follows:

Andrew J. Esslinger (Uncle Jack) who married Sarah C. Hunt

William Wright Esslinger, my grandfather, who married Martha C. Neal
Mary (Polly) Esslinger, spinster
Sarah Esslinger, spinster
Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger who married William Potts
Robert Esslinger who married (1) Nancy Harless and (2) Nancy Jenkins
James Esslinger who died in Texas
Thomas S. Esslinger who married Eliza Ann Scott

In October 1923 Andrew J. Esslinger applied for a pension in right of his service in Company K, 31st Alabama Infantry, later reorganized as the 49th Alabama Infantry. On November 24, 1923, the Auditor's Office requested further information regarding his service after July 12, 1863:

"November 24th, 1923.

Mr. Andrew J. Esslinger
R.F.D. #1
Chase, Ala.

Dear Sir:-

In your application you give no further account of your service than to date of July 12th, 1863, when you were paroled at Port Hudson.

The Commission wishes to know something of service after that date until the end of the War, April 1865. Did you rejoin your command after this date above state?

Please write the Commission fully a statement of your service after that date and on until the ward ended and where you were finally discharged as a soldier from the Confederate service?

Your immediate reply will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Chief Clerk, Pension Division,
Auditor's office."

On November 28, 1923, A. J. Esslinger replied to the Auditor's Office regarding his service:

"Chase, Ala. Nov. 28, 1923

Hon. J. R. Waldman,
Chief Clerk, Pension Division,
Auditor's Office,
Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your inquiry dated November 24, 1923, as to my service in the army after being paroled at Port Hudson July 12th, 1863, will say:

I did not again enter the army, being prohibited by the terms of my parole, unless I could have been exchanged.

I was never exchanged and remained on parole in Madison County, Alabama, until the close of the war.

Our commissioned officers were all in federal prisons until the close of the war, and if any final discharges were issued to the men on parole, the fact has slipped my memory. My Captain, Thos. J. Taylor, of Company K, 49th Alabama, remained a prisoner until the close of the war at Johnson's Island.

Yours very truly,

A. J. Esslinger"

On March 5, 1924, the Director of the Pension Commission reported to Judge Charles E. McCall of the Pension Commission regarding the service of the 49th

Alabama Infantry:

"March 5, 1924

My dear Judge McCall:-

re: 49th Ala. Inf.

Replying to your inquiry of this date with reference to the record of the 49th Ala. Inf., according to Brewer, the regiment passed the winter of 1862 at Port Hudson, being brigaded with the 17th and 35th Ala. and two Miss. Regts. The regiment lost 45 men killed at the siege of Port Hudson and all the others were captured. Three months from the date of the fall of Port Hudson, the men were exchanged and the regiment as a regiment was re-organized at Cahaba and attached to the brigade of Gen. Scott of Louisiana with the 12th La. Regt. and the 27th, the 35th and the 57th Ala. Regts. The 49th participated in the Dalton-Atlanta campaign but lost little. It participated in the Battle of Frank. It surrendered as a mere skeleton of a regiment at Greensboro.

Very Truly,

Director

Judge Charles E. McCall,
Pension Commission,
State Capitol."

On May 23, 1924, A. J. Esslinger also executed an affidavit in support of his application for a Confederate pension:

"State of Alabama,
Madison County.

The following affidavit is offered by A. J. Esslinger in support of his application to the State Board of Confederate Pension Examiners.

The undersigned A. J. Esslinger, being duly sworn, by the undersigned Officer, deposes and says as follows:

In January, 1862, he being then under 18 years of age, volunteered into the service of the Confederacy joining 31st Alabama, Vol. Infantry, and was sent with the recruits to Nashville, Tennessee. In March, 1862, about Murphreesboro, he was stricken with measles, became wet and very sick. Was sent home where he suffered from measles, pneumonia and erysipelas. For weeks was expected to die, but recovering some degree of strength, followed his Regiment to some point near Jackson, Mississippi, then, being reorganized as Company K, 49th Alabama Volunteers. There his comrades stated that they thought he had died as his name had been dropped from the roll. Saw service in Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, being under fire fifty-one or two days. Was active in repulsing every assault made on Port Hudson and was present when a U. S. Gun boat was burned and Dewey captured. Later the fort was surrounded by the Federal Army, all communications cut off and the garrison starved into surrender. The starving and suffering is fresh in the recollection of soldier. The privates and non-commissioned officers were paroled. The commissioned officers were sent to Northern prisons, where they remained until the end of the war. Soldier finally reached home in August, 1863, after difficulty in passing into the union lines then extending to the Tennessee River, his home being with the lines. Soldier never knew or was never notified of any exchange or reorganization of his old company. Many of his comrades, some of whom drew pensions from the State of Alabama, as John Connally, Jack Potts, J. F. Norment, lived in Madison County, within the Federal lines and remained there, like affiant, as paroled prisoners of war until the close of the war.

A. J. Esslinger

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 23 day of May, 1924."

On March 10, 1925, the Chairman of the Alabama Pension Commission wrote to M. W. Pratt, as attorney for Andrew Jackson Esslinger, stating that the application for pension should be denied because Andrew Jackson Esslinger's regiment had been exchanged and he had not reported for duty:

"March 10, 1925

Hon. M. W. Pratt,
Fairfield, Ala.

Dear Judge Pratt:

With reference to application of Mr. Esslinger to be placed on the pension roll, authentic, historical information is that Gen. Stanley's Federal Cavalry came through Madison County and occupied Huntsville about July 1863 but retreated when Hood's Army occupied Tennessee and at this time there were several new companies made up in Madison County and lots of recruits from Madison County joined old companies.

We have had numbers of applicants who were paroled at Port Hudson who reported back to service.

While the fact is not of our dispute that Mr. Esslinger was for awhile within the enemies lines in Madison County, yet the known fact that this territory in Madison County was free from occupation by Federal forces for long lapses of time during the last years of the war and the further fact, as stated above, that new companies were actually formed in this territory and many recruits joined old companies, operates against any warranted justification of placing Mr. Esslinger's name on the pension roll.

The Georgia and Tennessee campaigns were both after the Port Hudson surrender. The larger part of those surrendered at Port Hudson and Vicksburg were in these campaigns. The general order of the Confederate Government requiring all those surrendered at Vicksburg and Port Hudson to report back to their companies or to some other command was generally known and observed.

It is my candid conclusion that Mr. Esslinger is not entitled to be placed on the pension roll.

With regards, I am

Your friend,
Chairman Alabama Pension Commission."

As set forth below, Andrew Jackson Esslinger's brother James Wesley Esslinger was one of those referred to in the Chairman's letter, having joined on January 20, 1864, at Dalton, Georgia, Company K of the 49th Alabama Infantry.

On May 15, 1925, Andrew Jackson Esslinger's attorney M. W. Pratt was notified that after review with the Attorney General, Andrew Jackson Esslinger had been placed on the pension roll.

"A. J. Esslinger

A Prominent Citizen Died Friday April 30

Was taken with pneumonia while on the road from Gurley two weeks ago.

Brownsboro, May 5 - (Special) - It is with great sorrow that we chronicle the death of one of Madison county's highly esteemed citizens, Mr. Andrew J. Esslinger, who, on last Friday morning at 9:40 o'clock departed from this rugged life for the peaceful inheritance beyond.

While on the road from Gurley about two weeks ago Mr. Esslinger was taken with pneumonia and suffered greatly until last Thursday evening when it was found that a disease of the head had set in. The family physician worked faithfully all Thursday night thinking that some change might be brought about, but it was seen early Friday morning that there was no hope, and that his end was drawing near. The relatives and friends were notified and gathered around the bedside to see their loved ones fall into peaceful sleep.

Mr. Esslinger was fifty years of age and had always lived in or near this neighborhood. He was one of the trustees of the Beech Grove public school and always took an active part in educational work. He was a member of the Farmers Union, joining the Beech Grove local as a charter member and was several times president of the local here. He was vice president at the time of his death.

The deceased was laid to rest in the family burying ground by the members of the Farmers Union, who assembled at their hall and marched to the graveyard where they went through with the burial ceremonies as laid down in the Union ritual.

Brother Esslinger leaves a wife, one son and two daughters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

After the arrival of our family at the homes of her father and brother, we may properly follow the history of the children of Elizabeth Wright Esslinger after she established her home in the Little Cove from which her children were sent into the business life of north Alabama, among whom were so many industrious farmers and teachers.

The Sublett Family

Her daughter, Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger, was married to William L. Potts, and lived in this vicinity. They had only one child, Elizabeth Potts, who became the wife of a fine young farmer in that vicinity known as L. M. (Pug) Sublett. She and her husband lived until their deaths upon an adjoining farm which is now owned and occupied by a son, Mr. Oda W. Sublett. His wife is Mrs. Belle Conally Sublett, who has helped Mr. Sublett to operate and conduct the farm with the energy and industry leading to deserved success.

Oda W. and Belle have two sons, both married. The elder son, William C. Sublett, whose wife is Kate Brewer Sublett, lives in or near the City of Birmingham, where he is in business. The children of William C. and Kate B. Sublett are Carolyn, aged 7 years; Donald, aged 4 years; and Linda, aged 1 year.

My name is Mills J. Potts, I am over the age of 84 years and have lived in said State and County, all my life.

I am the son of Elsy Potts and Calloway Potts.

Elizabeth Esslinger was the sister of my mother and died near our home. Said Elizabeth Esslinger, was the oldest child of Robert Wright; the widow of Andrew Esslinger, who died in Tennessee, and had the following children:

Andrew J. Esslinger
Polly Esslinger
Sarah (Sally) Esslinger
William Wright Esslinger
Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger
Robert Esslinger
Thomas S. Esslinger
James Esslinger

Said Elizabeth Esslinger and her children came to Madison County, Alabama, about 1838, where she lived until her death, as I am informed and believe.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed and in his letter dated November 18, 1996, Mark S. Esslinger enclosed a copy of Two Hundred Years Of The Esslinger Family by W. F. Esslinger, May 1950, which stated as follows:

Robert, Thomas S., and James were the younger boys, and gave valuable aid to their sisters Elizabeth Bowman, Mary (Polly) and Sarah (Sallie) in the daily routine of housekeeping, kitchen and family laundry work, aboard the floating world.

After the arrival of our family at the homes of her father and brother, we may properly follow the history of the children of Elizabeth Wright Esslinger after she established her home in the Little Cove from which her children were sent into the business life of north Alabama, among whom were so many industrious farmers and teachers.

The Sublett Family

Her daughter, Elizabeth Bowman Esslinger, was married to William L. Potts, and lived in this vicinity. They had only one child, Elizabeth Potts, who became the wife of a fine young farmer in that vicinity known as L. M. (Pug) Sublett. She and her husband lived until their deaths upon an adjoining farm which is now owned and occupied by a son, Mr. Oda W. Sublett. His wife is Mrs. Belle Conally Sublett, who has helped Mr. Sublett to operate and conduct the farm with the energy and industry leading to deserved success.

Oda W. and Belle have two sons, both married. The elder son, William C. Sublett, whose wife is Kate Brewer Sublett, lives in or near the City of Birmingham, where he is in business. The children of William C. and Kate B. Sublett are Carolyn, aged 7 years; Donald, aged 4 years; and Linda, aged 1 year.

My name is Mills J. Potts, I am over the age of 84 years and have lived in said State and County, all my life.

I am the son of Elsy Potts and Calloway Potts.

Mills J. Potts.

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this the 1st day of October, 1947, as witness my hand and seal of office.

W. F. Esslinger,
Notary Public in and for Madison County, Alabama."

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Elizabeth Potts was a daughter of Elizabeth Bowman (Esslinger) Potts and William L. Potts and married L. M. "Pub" Sublett and that Elizabeth (Potts) Sublett and L. M. Sublett had the following children:

- 2) Nydia (Sublett) Terry,
- 3) Rhesa Sublett,
- 4) Loyd Sublett,

a. Leannah (Hallmark) Marcrum, Her Husband Thomas Marcrum, And Her Descendants

Leannah (Hallmark) Marcrum was a daughter of Mary (Wright) Hallmark and Jesse Hallmark. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Mary³)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying Leannah (Hallmark) Marcrum as a daughter of Mary (Wright) Hallmark and Jesse Hallmark. However, as set forth below, the marriage of Leannah Hallmark in 1829 in Blount County, Alabama, indicates that her parents lived there at that time. The 1830 Census for Blount County, Alabama, listed five persons named Hallmark or a variation of that name, such as Halmack or Holmark, and only one of those was old enough to have had a daughter age 15 to 20 in 1829 and that was Jesse Hallmark, listed in the census as Jesse Holmark. On that basis, Leannah (Hallmark) Marcrum has been identified as the daughter of Mary (Wright) Hallmark and Jesse Hallmark. Further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The marriage record of Leannah Hallmark and Thomas Marcrum was dated on December 24, 1829, at Blount County, Alabama:

4. 1872 John Wright Of Madison County, Alabama, His Wife Sarah
"Sally" (Moon) Wright, And His Descendants

1872 John Wright of Madison County, Alabama, was a son of 1847 Robert Wright of Madison County, Alabama, and Keziah (Bibb) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert²)

There were two John Wrights in Madison County, Alabama, who have sometimes been confused. One John Wright was 1847 John Wright of DeSoto County, Mississippi, who was the son of 1838 Daniel Wright of Madison County, Alabama, married Mary Wood in 1819, and moved to DeSoto County, Mississippi, by 1839. His identification as a descendant of 1792 John Wright of Fauquier County, Virginia, has been confirmed by Y-DNA matching, as set forth at the Wright DNA Project. The other John Wright was 1872 John Wright of Madison county, Alabama, discussed in this section.

The marriage record of John Wright and Sarah Moon was dated on September 22, 1820, in Madison County, Alabama:

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that John Wright was a son of Robert Wright and Keziah (Bibb) Wright, was born on February 3, 1791, in Amherst County, Virginia, served in the War of 1812, married Sarah "Sallie" Moon on September 23, 1820, in Madison County, Alabama, died on October 23, 1872, at Owens Cross Roads, Madison County, Alabama, and was buried in the Moon Cemetery, that Sarah (Moon) Wright was born on February 15, 1788, in Virginia, died on December 3, 1877 or 1879, at Owens Cross Roads, Madison County, Alabama, and was buried in the Moon Cemetery, and that John Wright and Sarah (Moon) Wright had the following children:

- 1) possibly Susan Jane (Wright) Moon, born in 1825,

- 2) Robert James Wright, born in 1830 in Madison County, Alabama, and
- 3) Keziah Wright, born in 1832 in Madison County, Alabama.

Mrs. Connally also stated that:

"Judge Jones says on page 42 & 43 of his book in describing fierce fighting of Capt. Hamilton's Co. at a village called Emuckfou on the Coosa River in Alabama, 'John Wright once so well known in New Madison was slightly wounded while carrying Grant Taylor out of reach of the bullets.'"

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of John Wright and Sarah "Sally" (Moon) Wright were the following:

- 1) possibly Susan Jane (Wright) Moon, born in about 1825 in Alabama,
- 2) Margaret Keziah (Wright) Cobb, born in about 1832 or 1833 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 3) Robert James Wright, born on September 28, 1833, or in about 1834 in Madison County, Alabama.

Susan Jane (Wright) Moon was possibly a daughter of John Wright and Sarah (Moon) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², John³)

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Susan Jane (Wright) Moon was probably a daughter of John Wright and Sarah (Moon) Wright, was born in 1825 and married John Moon and that John Moon was born in 1822. However, no direct documentary evidence has as yet been located to confirm this identification. Nevertheless, this identification is possible given the marriage between Susan Jane Wright's brother Robert and Samantha Moon and, therefore, the information that has been found for Susan Jane (Wright) Moon and John Moon is given here.

This record indicates that Robert Wright was born in about 1793. The listing of Cicely Wright in the household may indicate a second marriage for Robert Wright, but further research will be required to confirm that identification.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Robert Wright was a son of Robert Wright and Keziah (Bibb) Wright, was born in about 1793 in Amherst County, Virginia, married Nancy Calvert on July 4, 1811, in Madison County, Alabama, and resided in 1830, 1840, and 1850 in Madison County, Alabama, and that Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Keziah Wright, born in 1812 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 2) probably Albert Wright, born in 1815,
- 3) Unis or Eunice Wright, born in 1820 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 4) Jane Wright, born in 1824 in Madison County, Alabama, and
- 5) Nancy Ann Wright, born in 1828 in Madison County, Alabama

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Robert Wright, Jr., and Nancy (Calvert) Wright were the following:

- 1) Keziah Wright, born in about 1812 in Madison County, Mississippi Territory (now Alabama),
- 2) Possibly Albert Wright, born in about 1819 in Alabama,
- 3) Unias or Unis or Eunice (Wright) Ellett, born in about 1817 or 1819 or 1820 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 4) Jane Wright, born in about 1824 or 1825 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 5) _____ Wright, a son, born between 1820 and 1825, and
- 6) Nancy Ann (Wright) Elliott, born in about 1828 in Madison County, Alabama.

a. Keziah Wright

Keziah Wright was a daughter of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Robert³)

The 1850 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Kizziah Wright in the Robert Wright household on November 21, 1850, and her age as 38 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1812.

The 1860 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Keziah Wright in the Robert Wright household on June 22, 1860, and her age as 48 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1812.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Keziah Wright was a daughter of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright, was born in 1812 at Madison County, Alabama, and resided with her father in 1850 at Madison County, Alabama.

b. Possibly Albert Wright, His Wife Susan N. () Wright, And His Descendants

Albert Wright was possibly a son of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Robert³)

The 1840 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Robert Wright with 1 male age 15 to 20 years in his household. As set forth below, this age would be consistent with the age of Albert Wright as listed in the 1850 Census.

The 1850 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed

This record indicates that Albert Wright was born in about 1819 and that Susan N. (____) Wright was born in about 1822.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Albert Wright was probably a son of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright and was born in 1815. However, further research will be required to confirm this identification and so it is left as only a possibility.

c. Unias Or Unis Or Eunice (Wright) Ellett And Her Husband
____ Ellett

Unias or Unis or Eunice (Wright) Ellett was a daughter of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Robert³)

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Unis or Eunice Wright was a daughter of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright and was born in 1820 in Madison County, Alabama.

d. Jane Wright

Jane Wright was a daughter of Robert Wright and Nancy (Calvert) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Robert³)

This record indicates that John Ellett had married Nancy (____) Ellett in about 1859. If this listing of Richer Ellett in this household is for the Richard B. Wright born in about 1829 or 1830, then the absence of his wife Nancy would indicate she had died before June 18, 1860.

37th Tennessee Infantry Company E, available at <http://barthlynnmccoy.tripod.com/alabamaroots-index-2.html>, stated that on October 8, 1861, Richard Ellett, age 32, was listed on the roster of Company E.

The second oldest male and female in this record were probably William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright, which would indicate that they were born between 1790 and 1800 and between 1800 and 1810, respectively.

On April 13, 1847, at Madison County, Alabama, Orphan's Court Minute Book 12, page 116, the court appointed William Wright as administrator of the estate of Robert Wright:

This record indicates that William Wright was born in about 1795.

The 1870 Mortality Schedule for Madison County, Alabama, listed the death of a William Wright in March 1870:

"Name: William Wright
Gender: Male
Race: White
Marital Status: Widowed
Estimated birth year: abt 1795
Birth Place: North Carolina, USA
Age: 75
Death Date: Mar 1870
Cause of Death: Disease of the Heart
Census Year: 1870
Census Place: District 80, Madison, Alabama, USA
Line: 9"

Since William Wright had resided in Madison County, Alabama, this record would normally indicate the death of William Wright in Madison County. However, the place of birth is incorrectly listed as North Carolina and there is a second record which may be for William Wright, the son of Robert Wright.

U.S., Federal Census Mortality Schedules Index, 1850-1880, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of William Wright in March 1870 in DeSoto County, Mississippi:

"Surname:	William Wright
Year:	1870
County:	De Soto CO.
State:	MS
Age:	75
Gender:	M (Male)
Month of Death:	Mar
State of Birth:	VA
ID#:	198_381635
Occupation:	Farmer
Cause of Death:	Bowel Infl"

This record correctly listed the place of birth as Virginia, but it is unclear when or why William Wright would have moved in old age from Madison County, Alabama, to DeSoto County, Mississippi. The explanation may be provided by a letter dated August 18, 1988, from Margaret S. Connally who enclosed family group sheets which stated that George Wright was a son of William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright and that in the notice of William Wright's death it stated that he had died while visiting his son George in Senatobia, Mississippi. The result is that William Wright may have been temporarily in Senatobia, Mississippi, which resulted in the listing of his death in the Mortality Schedules of both DeSoto County, Mississippi, and his normal residence of Madison County, Alabama.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that William Wright was a son of Robert Wright and Keziah (Bibb) Wright, was born in about 1795 in Amherst County, Virginia, married Jerusha Connally on May 21, 1818, in Madison County, Alabama, and died in 1869 at Senatobia, Tate County, Mississippi, that Jerusha (Connally) Wright was born on September 12, 1800, in Orange County, North Carolina, and that William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Paralee (Wright) Grayson, born in 1821 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 2) Susan Rebecca (Wright) Pickens, born in 1828 in Madison County, Alabama,

- 3) William J. Wright, born in 1830 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 4) Thomas A. Wright, born in 1833 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 5) Mary Jane Wright, born in 1836, in Madison County, Alabama,
- 6) Jerusha E. Wright, born in 1839 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 7) James K. P. Wright, born in 1845, and
- 8) George Wright.

However, Tate County, Mississippi, was not formed until 1873 at which time Senatobia became part of that new county and therefore, Mrs. Connally may have been referring to DeSoto County as the place of death rather than Tate County, which would be consistent with the second Mortality Schedule set forth above. Again, further research will be required to determine which place of death was the correct one for William Wright, the son of Robert Wright and Keziah (Bibb) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright were the following:

- 1) Paralee (Wright) Grayson, born on December 16 or 17, 1820, in Madison County, Alabama,
- 2) George Burton Wright, born in about 1825 or 1826 in Alabama,
- 3) Susan Rebecca (Wright) Pickens, born in about 1828 or 1829 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 4) William J. Wright, born in about 1830 in Madison County, Alabama,

The will of John W. Grayson was dated on August 21, 1916, and probated on April 27, 1917, at Madison County, Alabama, W.B. 4/268:

"State of Alabama,
County of Madison.

Last Will And Testament Of John W. Grayson

Know all men by these presents: That whereas, I, John W. Grayson of Colliers Precinct, in Madison County, Alabama, am mindful of the uncertainty of life and of the certainty of death, and being desirous of making disposition of my worldly estate, do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, revoking all wills and parts of wills heretofore made by me.

Item I. - It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid after my death, as soon as may be convenient for my Executor hereinafter named.

Item II. - It is my judgment, that I have advanced to my several children now living and to Nannie P. Laughinghouse, a deceased daughter, and her husband and children, property and money in quantities, amounts and value making them all equal, up to this date of my said will. Nothing is to be charged to any of my children or grand children as an advancement unless it appears on my books charged as of a date later than this.

Item III. - I give to my beloved wife, Mrs. Azuba P. Grayson, during her life, to descend at her death as though I had died intestate, the following decribed real estate as a home-stead, to-wit:

The North Half of the North-west Quarter of Section Twenty-one (21), and South Half of the South Half of the South-west Quarter of Section Sixteen (16), all in Township Four (4), Range Two (2) East, in Madison County, Alabama, reserving rights of way during the life of my said wife, over the roads as they now exist, from the Turn Pike in front of my residence to my other lands, but the said Mrs. Azuba P. Grayson is authorized to maintain gates across said roads.

My residence, the out house, three tenant houses, one large corn crib, one large stable with hay loft above, one large corn crib with hay loft above, one large corn crib and long cattle shed with hay loft above, one cow stable (large) with hay loft above, one wheat granary, one blacksmith shop; cribs and stables are located on said lands and said property is worth over Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars, in my judgment and this provision in my will is intended to be in lieu of the Homestead secured to my said wife under the provisions of section 4196 of the Alabama Code of 1907.

Item IV. - I do give and bequeath to my wife, the said Azuba P. Grayson, One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, to be paid to her, either in cash or in personal property to be selected by her and taken at the valuation fixed by the appraisers appointed by the court to appraise my property. This bequest is to be in lieu of the One Thousand (1,000.00) Dollars of exempt personal property to which my said wife would be entitled if I had died intestate, and I do hereby direct that in making distribution of my personal property, that she be charged with this sum as is now provided under Section 4800 of the Code of 1907, of the State of Alabama.

I request that my said wife leave this said sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, by will to my children and grand children, to be distributed among them as though the property belonged to my estate and I had died intestate.

Item V. - I do hereby direct that in the event there is any money on hand after paying my just debts and funeral expenses, and after making provisions for my said wife, that said money not exceeding Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars in cash, be set aside and placed in the hands of Claude A. Grayson, as trustee, which said sum he is directed to invest and the income he will expend for the benefit of Miss Callie Herrin, who has been a member of my household for nearly thirty-five years. The annual income is to be paid to the said Miss Callie Herrin or for her benefit, in monthly instalments of not less than Ten ($101.00) Dollars per month. On the death of Miss Callie Herrin, I direct and it is my will that said sum of Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars be distributed as though I had died intestate.

In the event my personal property does not yield enough money to meet this item of my will, it is my will that enough of my real estate be sold in order to raise said fund of Fifteen Hundred ($1500.00) Dollars. I further direct that said sum shall be delivered to said Claude A. Grayson, without his being required to give bond as such trustee.

Item VI. - I have two Life Insurance Policies on my own life, payable in such manner that the children of any of my children who may be dead at the time of my deceased, may not receive any of said insurance money. Should the courts hold that the children of my deceased daughter, or the children of any other or others of my children who may not be living at my death are not entitled to take any part of the said insurance money which the parent would have taken if living at my death, then it is my will that those children of my said children who are not living at the time of my death shall have in excess of what my living children received from the insurance money enough carved from my personal or real property to make said children (grand children) receive sums, respectively, equal to what they would have received had the insurance money been a part of my estate and I had died without making a will.

If for any reason the insurance money is not paid to my children living at my death, due to the insurance company failing or for any other reason then this item of my will is to have no effect.

Item VII. - It is my will that the debts due by my son-in-law, Murphy Laughinghouse to the firm of J. W. Grayson & Son, amounting to over Nine Hundred ($900.00) Dollars in the year 1901, and which was assigned by J. G. Grayson, the other member of the firm of J. W. Grayson & Son or charged on the books of the firm to me in such a way as to make Murphy Laughinhouse indebted to me, shall not be collected of him, nor shall two individual notes amounting to about One Hundred Twenty-five ($125.00) Dollars payable to me be collected of him or his estate because all the accounts and notes were really intended as advancements to my daughter Nannie P. Laughinhouse, his wife.

Item X. - It is my will that of the residue of my estate my descendants shall take as provided by the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Alabama, just as though I had made no will.

Item XI. - It is my will that at the death of Miss Callie Herrin, mentioned in the fifth item of this will, if there is not enough interest due on the trust fund mentioned therein to pay her funeral expenses, then the trustee is directed to pay out of said trust funds her funeral expenses and the balance of said trust funds he will distribute as directed in said item Five.

Items XII. - I hereby nominate as the executor of this my last will and testament, my son, David A. Grayson, and it is my will that he shall not be required to give bond as such executor.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Emma P. Allison and David E. Allison in the Gurley Cemetery, Gurley, Madison County, Alabama:

"Allison

- b. 1888 George Burton Wright Of Pulaski County, Arkansas, His Wife Huldah (Rigney) Wright, And His Descendants
1888 George Burton Wright of Pulaski County, Arkansas, was a son of 1870 William Wright of Madison County, Alabama, and Jerusha (Connally) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², 1870 William³)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying George Burton Wright as a son of William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright. However, in her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that George Wright was a son of William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright and that in the notice of William Wright's death it stated that he had died while visiting his son George in Senatobia, Mississippi. That notice of death has not as yet been located. Nevertheless, as set forth below, the birth of George Burton Wright in 1828 in Alabama and his marriage in Madison County, Alabama, in 1846 add to the likelihood that this identification is correct.

Alabama Marriages, 1816-1957, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of George B. Wright and Huldah Rigley on November 4, 1846, in Madison County, Alabama:

"Name	George B. Wright
Spouse's Name	Huldah Rigney

Tate County And The Civil War: The Roll Of Tate County And The City Of Senatobia During The War Between The States, excerpted from a manuscript for "The Senatobia Cenntennial" published in 1960, stated as follows:

"April 8, Began early to fix up camp and named our town "Camp Davis." Nothing strange until about the 12th the election came off. Capt. J. R. Chalmers of the Irrepressibles, Hernando, elected Colonel over Col. Kit Mott; A. R. Bowd elected Major, formerly Captain, Senatobia Invincibles; Jas. L. Autre elected Lieutenant Colonel. Orderly Sergeant G. B. Wright was elected Captain of the Irrepressibles over First Lieutenant White. Wright's friends were willing that White should be elected Captain (but objected to 3rd Lt. Banks' being a 1st Lt) Wright, feeling that the [o]position was due White on account of his many valuable services to the company, resigned. White was then elected Captain and Wright first Lieutenant. O. F. West, 2nd Lt., was elected Captain of the Invincibles. J. M. S. Jones elected 2nd Lt"

On January 11, 1881, as reported in Index To The Miscellaneous Documents Of The House Of Representatives For The First Session Of The Forty-Seventh Congress, 1881-'82, George B. Wright, Sr., testified regarding the contested election of Buchanan vs. Manning in the 2nd Congressional District:

"State of Mississippi,
Tate County:

The depositions of George B. Wright and the other witnesses, as set out hereinafter, taken before J. E. Ballard, mayor of Batesville, Panola County, Mississippi, at the court-house in the town of Senatobia, Tate County, Mississippi, the same to be read on behalf of Geo. M. Buchanan, who is contesting with Van H. Manning for a seat in the 47th Congress of the United States of America, from the 2d Congressional district of Mississippi, and taken upon proper and legal notice to said Manning, which notice is herewith filed marked "A," said Van H. Manning being represented by his attorneys, Shands & Johnson, and N. A. Taylor.

Said Geo. B. Wright, being legally sworn, testified as follows:

Question 1. Where do you reside—where did you reside November 2, 1880? what is your occupation and politics?—Answer. I reside near Senatobia, Tate County, Miss. I am a farmer by occupation, and a Republican in politics.

Q. 2. How long have you resided in the county, and what offices, if any, have you held during the time of your residence in the county?—A. I have resided in what is now this county twenty-five years, and three years in Hernando. I was three times elected a member of the board of supervisors (called board of police then). I acted three years as deputy sheriff of De Soto County, and four years as sheriff—Tate County being now what was then a portion of De Soto County, and since the formation of Tate County I have acted as a member of the board of registration.

Q. 3. Do you know the politics of the members of the county board of election commissioners at the time of and just prior to the last election here on 2nd November, 1880? If so, state the politics of the members of that board, and whether or not the Republicans had any representation on that board.—A. Two of them were Democrats and one a Greenbacker. The Republicans had no representation on the said board.

Q. 4. What acquaintance have you with the voting population of this county, and what position do you now hold, and did you hold at and prior to the late election, as a political representative of your party, in the county?—A. My acquaintance with the voting population of the county is tolerably general. I was a member of the county executive committee during the late canvass of my party.

Q. 5. Do you know the politics of the clerks and inspectors of election at the several 13 voting-places in your county at the election November 2, 1880? If so, state what representation the Republicans had in the said officers of that election.—A. I know the politics of the most of them. I know of but one officer out of the entire thirteen boxes that claims to be a Republican.

Q- 6. Did you, as chairman of the republican executive committee of your county, make demand of the county board of election commissioners for representation for the Republicans in the officers to hold the last election? If so, state how you made the demand and with what result.—A. I was a member of the county executive committee, but not chairman, but by the request of the chairman I went before the board of election commissioners and requested them to give us one inspector of election at each voting-place in the county, which they refused to do.

Q- 7. Do you know if there was an intelligent representation of the republican voters at each of the voting-places in the county?—A. I think there are Republicans at each voting-place of sufficient intelligence to assist in holding an election, with the exception of Evansville box. I do not know of a Republican in the neighborhood.

Q.- 8. Do you know when the registration books of the county were ___(?) just preceding the last election? If so, state when.—A. I do not know. They were registering at Senatobia on Saturday preceding the election.

Cross-examined :

X Int. 1. How many parties were represented by candidates in this county at the election preceding the last one; and what parties were they?

-A. Two parties. The democratic and the national greenback party.

X Int. 2. Which one of these parties in that election succeeded in electing its candidates?

This question is ruled out as being irrelevant and not pertinent to the case.)

X Int. 3. When, before the last election, had the republican party an organization in Tate County?—A. My recollection is that the Republicans have not had a regular organized party in Tate County since 1876, until last fall.

X Int. 4. There was an election in this county in 1878, was there not? (This question ruled out.)

X Int. 5. In the election of 1878 was the republican party represented by candidates? State how this was. (This question overruled.)

X Int. 6. Now state when, for the first time since 1876, the republican party was organized and had candidates before the people.—A. They were organized in July last and had candidates in the field for the first time, since 1876.

X Int. 7. Was not the greenback party, so called, the only organized opposition to the democratic party in this county from the summer of 1879 up to the fall of 1880?—A. In 1879 the greenback party was the only organized party in opposition to the democratic party, but was not in 1880.

X Int. 8. Was not the greenback party an organized party in 1880, and in opposition to the democratic party? I mean in Tate County.—A. Yes; they were an organized party in opposition to both of the other parties.

X Int. 9. Didn't the greenback party have candidates in the field for all the offices that were to be filled at last election?—A. Yes, sir.

X Int. 10. Were not the inspectors of election at the thirteen boxes in this county selected from three lists recommended by the democratic county executive committee, the republican county executive committee, and the greenback county executive committee? State fully what you may know upon this point.—A. I presented a list of persons to the board of election commissioners and asked that they be appointed to represent the republican party, but my recollection is that only one or two were appointed. The democratic members of the board replied that they could not give this representation. They claimed that they had the right to appoint two democratic inspectors of election at each voting-place, and proposed to give the other inspector at each box to the greenback and republican party. Capt. Jones dissented to this proposition and left the board, and saying that if he could not get full representation he would not have anything to do with it.

X Int. 11. If I understand you correctly, you state that your party claimed one inspector at each box and the greenback party claimed one at each box, and the democratic registrars proposed to divide the thirteen inspectors between the Republicans and Greenbackers—that is, give the Republicans representation at some boxes and the greenback party representation at others. Is this correct?—A. Yes, this is correct.

X Int. 12. Now don't you remember that the registrars appointed five or six inspectors from the list your party recommended; I am not asking as to whether they served or not; were they not appointed?—A. Upon the examination of the list I handed to the board I find four names as being appointed who were recommended, but only two of the four acted.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of George Burton Wright, Sr., in the Mount Holly Cemetery, Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas:

"George Burton Wright, Sr

Birth: 1817
Death: Aug. 29, 1883

Burial:
Mount Holly Cemetery
Little Rock
Pulaski County
Arkansas, USA
Plot: W.H. Wright lot"

As set forth below, the W. H. Wright lot was for William Henry Wright, born in 1849 in Senatobia, Mississippi, and therefore, despite the incorrect date of birth, this record was for George Burton Wright, the son of William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright. In addition, the year of death was apparently misread as 1883 when it should have been read as 1888.

On September 3, 1888, the Arkansas Democrat published the following obituary for George B. Wright:

"Wright - Died at Walnut Lake, Ark., August 29th, age sixty-three years. Buried in Mount Holly Cemetery on the 2d inst., attended by a large number of friends, from the residence of his son, W. H. Wright

'Friend after friend departs, who has not lost a friend.' When the writer of this notice looked for the last time upon the face of his departed friend, and saw standing around the casket of their father a trio of noble sons, recollections of the past came over him. George B. Wright, sr., is no more. For a number of years he was sheriff of Desoto county, Mississippi. He was held in high esteem by his fellow citizens, and none knew him but to love him. Admired for his bravery, candor, devotion to friends, he has gone to his grave deeply lamented by friends and relatives. Warmly respected and esteemed by all classes. Peace to his ashes, and

'May birds of sweetest notes, from spring to spring,
In Mount Holly his peaceful requiem sing."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of George Burton Wright and Huldah (Rigney) Wright were the following:

- 1) William Henry Wright, born in about 1847 or in August 1848 or on August 11, 1849, in Senatobia, DeSoto County (now Tate County), Mississippi,
- 2) Charles A. Wright, born in about 1849 in Mississippi,
- 3) George Burton Wright, Jr., born on March 4, 1850, or in about 1851 in DeSoto County (now Tate County), Mississippi, and
- 4) Jeff D. Wright, born in about 1852 or 1854 in Mississippi.

Arkansas Families: Glimpses of Yesterday, Columns from The Arkansas Gazette, by Lucy Marion Reaves, edited by Desmond Walls Allen, included the following biography of Mrs. William Henry Wright dated March 31, 1935:

Sandwiching in History, Nannie C. Wright House, 1617 S. Battery Street, Little Rock, April 1, 2016, by Rachel Silva, included the following biography of Nannie Caroline Wood Wright:

"Nannie Caroline Wood Wright was born on January 26, 1848, at Charlottesville, Virginia, to Drury Wood and his wife, Laura Poore Wood. In 1872 she married Captain William Henry "Dan" Wright and in 1875 moved to Little Rock. The couple had four children: a son, Drury Wright (b. 5/28/1873); and three daughters, Mary Wright Bodman (b. Jan. 1875), Laura Wright McClerkin (b. 8/21/1878), and Nan Wright Wendell (b. 8/4/1882).

Nannie Wright's husband, W. H. "Dan" Wright, was one of the city's most well-known residents and was a pioneer in Arkansas's cotton oil industry. Captain Wright was born on August 11, 1849, at Senatobia, Mississippi. He served in the Confederate Army and settled at Memphis after the war. Wright worked in the cotton oil business at Memphis, and after he moved to Little Rock in 1875, he and Edward Urquhart started the Little Rock Oil and Compress Company, which manufactured cotton seed oils, cake, and meal (used for lamp fuel, animal feed, fertilizer, and later, for cooking—cotton seed oil was the main ingredient in Crisco shortening for many years).

The company's Little Rock mill was located at the northeast corner of E. Second and Byrd streets, which is presently the green space in front of the Clinton Presidential Library. The Little Rock Oil and Compress Company also operated 6 plants at Brinkley, Helena, Newport, Fort Smith, Texarkana, Pine Bluff, and Arkansas City. W. H. Wright initially served as secretary and treasurer of the company but was later promoted to vice president. The chain of cotton oil mills was later purchased by the American Cotton Oil Company, and Wright served as vice president and manager of that company's Arkansas interests until 1897, when he resigned to start the Pine Bluff Cotton Oil Company, of which he was president and manager until the end of 1902. Wright also served as president of the Brinkley, Helena & Indian Bay Railroad, later known as the Arkansas Midland Railroad and ultimately, a branch of Missouri Pacific. While visiting New York City in 1903, Wright "was taken ill" and never fully recovered. He died on January 30, 1905, at his Little Rock home at 810 Cumberland Street (810 Cumberland is no longer extant) and was buried in the family plot at Mount Holly Cemetery.

According to the 1907 Little Rock City Directory, Wright's widow, Nannie C. Wright, continued to live in the family home at 810 Cumberland with her youngest child, Nan, for a couple years after her husband's death. By 1908, Nannie Wright lived at 1611 S. Battery with her daughter, Nan. Her other two daughters, Mary Wright Bodman (Mrs. Ernest J. Bodman) and Laura Wright McClerkin (Mrs. Felix W. McClerkin), along with their husbands, lived at 1615 Battery. By 1910, the house at 1617 S. Battery was completed, and Nannie C. Wright and her daughter, Nan, moved there. 1615 then became the home of Nannie's daughter, Laura, and son-in-law, Felix McClerkin, who owned and operated McClerkin's Drug Store at 700 Main Street. 1611 became the residence of Nannie's daughter, Mary, and son-in-law, Ernest Bodman, then-assistant secretary of the Union & Mercantile Trust Company.

About 1919 Nannie Wright moved in with her daughter and son-in-law, Laura and Felix McClerkin, at 1615 Battery. The 1920 Census actually lists Nannie Wright twice—it shows her living with her daughter, Mary Bodman, at 1611

Battery, and it shows her living with her daughter, Laura McClerkin, at 1615 Battery. Nannie Wright would have been in her early 70s at that time.

About 1927 the Bodmans moved to a house in the upscale Prospect Terrace Addition in the Heights (5124 Crestwood), and Nannie Wright remained in her daughter, Laura McClerkin's, home at 1615 S. Battery. Nannie C. Wright died on June 26, 1930, at the home of her daughter, Laura. She was 82 years old."

"The State Of Mississippi,
County of Tate :

Pursuant to the notice herewith attached, I proceeded to take the deposition of George B. Wright, jr., a witness on the part of George M. Buchanan, in the case of George M. Buchanan vs. Van H. Manning, contesting the seat of the Hon. Van H. Manning in the Forty-seventh Congress

The said George B. Wright, jr., appeared before me, and made the following answers to the interrogatories propounded to him. The Hon. Van H. Manning was represented by Eugene Johnson, Esq.

Interrogatory 1. State your residence, occupation, and politics.—Answer. Tate County, Mississippi; school-teacher and farmer; Liberal in politics.

Int. 2. Were you an officer of election November 2, 1880, and if so, where, and what officer?—A. I was one of the clerks of the election held at Sherrod's.

Int. 3. Was there any adjournment of the election from time polls opened until the vote was counted? If so, when, and for how long, and what was done with ballot-box during adjournment?—A. They adjourned for one hour for dinner. The box remained at the place of voting. They adjourned from twelve o'clock until one o'clock. Nothing was done with ballot-box. Those present with the box were C. A. Grayson, supervisor, and an inspector.

Int. 4. Did any person or persons apply to vote at this box who were refused a vote? If so, how many, for what reason, and what was the politics of those refused, and whether or not those so refused a vote claimed to be lawfully registered?—A. There were twenty persons who were not allowed to vote (colored) because their names were not found upon the poll-book. They were Republicans. They claimed to be lawfully registered.

Int. 5. Did any of those persons refused a vote make any effort on the day of election to show that they were refused, and if so, how did they make the effort, and were they voters at this box heretofore?—A. There were three persons who went to Senatobia and obtained certificates that they had registered their names as voters and returned to the polls within legal hours, and were refused because their names were not found on the pollbook. One voter who presented a youthful appearance was not allowed to vote. He asserted that he had registered, and was twenty-one years of age. Three-fourths of the voters that were refused had voted there heretofore.

Int. 6. What was the politics of the election officers at that box? Answer particularly.—A. There were two democratic inspectors and one Greenbacker. Clerks, one Democrat and one Republican.

Int. 7. Were the officers of election sworn to perform their duties as such officers before they entered on the discharge of the same?—A. I can simply answer for myself. I was not sworn. I was selected after they had organized, or after the election officers had met. So far as the others were concerned I don't know whether they were sworn or not.

Int. 8. When the count was commenced, was the box publicly opened and the count publicly made?—A. The box was publicly opened and the count publicly made.

Int. 9. How did the voters generally turn out, and especially the republican voters, at this box?—A. The votes polled at Sherrod's were the same as usual. The Republicans always nearly double that of the Democrats.

Int. 10. Is Sherrod's a republican or democratic box? If a republican box, is it a large one?—A. I consider it a republican box by several majority. The polls at this place sometimes vary, though it is nearly always double that of the Democrats.

Cross-examined :

X Int. 1. At the adjournment at 12 o'clock was not the ballot-box sealed up, and did not C. A. Grayson, the United States supervisor of election, remain with the box during the adjournment?—A. I do not know whether it was sealed or not. Mr. C. A. Grayson was with the box all the time. The box was locked.

X Int. 2. What was the politics of C. A. Grayson, and was he not supervisor of election?—A. He is a Republican. He was also supervisor of election held at Sherrod's.

X Int. 3. You state, in answer to interrogatory fifth, that one voter was rejected because of his youthful appearance. Was there not some proof taken as to his age? If so, state by whom the proof was made and the nature of it. —A. After he asserted that he was of age, Mr. C. A. Grayson said that he didn't think that he was of the requisite age. Mr. Grayson knew the family, and asserted that to the best of his knowledge and belief that he was not old enough for competency to vote.

Geo. B. Wright, Jr.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 2d February, A. D. 1881.

Jno. C. Clifton, Circuit Clerk."

Alabama, Civil War Soldiers, 1860-1865, available from Ancestry.com, listed a William J. Wright who enlisted on January 15, 1862, in Company K, 31st Alabama Infantry Regiment, in the Civil War, died on March 25, 1862, and whose widow was Mary C. Wright. However, the 1860 Census set forth above indicates that William J. Wright resided in Falls County, Texas, and the biography of John Calhoun Peever set forth below indicates that Mary Catherine (Peevey) Wright remained in Falls County, Texas, and remarried in 1866. The result is that this military listing for William J. Wright may be for a different person than the son of 1870 William Wright and Jerusha (Connally) Wright and further research will be required to determine the identity of this William J. Wright.

This record indicates that Louisa (Ratliff) (Anderson) Wright was born in about 1861. Although William Wright was listed as a son in the 1900 Census, that was corrected to Willie Wright, a daughter, in this 1910 Census.

The 1930 Census for Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, listed Louisa Wright in the Constance Wright household on April 5, 1930, her relationship as mother, her age as 68 and born in Texas, indicating a date of birth in about 1862, and her marital status as widowed.

California, Death Index, 1940-1997, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Louisa (Ratliff) Wright on March 12, 1943, in Los Angeles, California:

"Name:	Louisa Wright [Louisa Ratliff]

Woodward County Pioneer Families Before 1915, produced by Plains Indians and Pioneer Historical Foundation in 1975, stated in a biography of Lovilla (Wright) Trego that:

"In 1898, when she was nine months old, Lovilla Wright (Mrs. George Trego) traveled from Haskell, Texas, to Fort Supply, Oklahoma Territory, in a covered wagon. The Fort had been made available by the government in 1893 for the use of citizens. Lovilla, her mother, Elizee Cook Wright, her father, Walter Jefferson Wright, and her three year old brother, Dee Wright, lived in what had been General Sheridan's home. Their neighbors were Gandys, Masons, Brewers, DeVore, Mrs. W. P. Wright, Mrs. Erwin and Sarah.

This record indicates that William P. Wright had died and that Walter Jefferson Wright had probably moved to Woodward County, Oklahoma, to be near his brother William P. Wright.

Families of Falls County, compiled by the Falls County Historical Commission, stated the following in a biography of John Calhoun Peevey:

"JOHN CALHOUN PEEVEY, I

Mary C. Peevey, b January 19, 1832 in Alabama, d December 31, 1915 and buried in Carolina Cemetery near Durango, Falls County, Texas, who married first to William J. Wright, b 1859 in Texas, and Walter Wright, b 1861 in Texas, and married second on May 31, 1866 in Falls County to Jesse T. Hedrick, of Durango;"

iv. 1923 Walter Jefferson Wright Of Woodward County, Oklahoma, His Wife Mary Elizee (Cook) Wright, And His Descendants

1923 Walter Jefferson Wright of Woodward County, Oklahoma, was a son of 1861/66 William J. Wright and Mary Catherine (Peevey) Wright. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², 1870 William³, 1861/66 William J.⁴)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies 1923 Walter Jefferson Wright of Woodward County, Oklahoma, as the same person as Walter Wright, the son of 1861/66 William J. Wright and Mary Catherine (Peevey) Wright. However, his date of birth in about 1862 and his place of birth in Texas indicate that he may have been that Walter Wright. In addition, although there are three other Walter Wrights and one other W. J. Wrights in the 1880 Census for Texas, only Walter J. Wright, the son of 1861/66 William J. Wright and Mary Catherine (Peevey) Wright, and 1923 Walter Jefferson Wright of Woodward County, Oklahoma, both had parents born in Alabama. This circumstantial evidence seems adequate to make the identification.

The 1870 Census for Falls County, Texas, listed Walter Wright in the Jesse and Mary Headthrik with the following household on April 1, 1870, and his age as 9 and born in Texas, indicating a date of birth in about 1861.

The 1880 Census for Falls County, Texas, listed W. J. Lyons in the W. P. Wright with the following household on June 9, 1880, his relationship as brother, and his age as 19 and born in Texas, indicating a date of birth in about 1861.

The marriage record of W. J. Wright and Lizzie Cook was dated on October 11, 1893, in Haskell County, Texas:

"State of Texas, Haskell County, SS:

Woodward County Pioneer Families Before 1915, produced by Plains Indians and Pioneer Historical Foundation in 1975, stated in a biography of Lovilla (Wright) Trego that:

"In 1898, when she was nine months old, Lovilla Wright (Mrs. George Trego) traveled from Haskell, Texas, to Fort Supply, Oklahoma Territory, in a covered wagon. The Fort had been made available by the government in 1893 for the use of citizens. Lovilla, her mother, Elizee Cook Wright, her father, Walter Jefferson Wright, and her three year old brother, Dee Wright, lived in what had been General Sheridan's home. Their neighbors were Gandys, Masons, Brewers, DeVore, Mrs. W. P. Wright, Mrs. Erwin and Sarah.

The children who lived in the Fort used the Firehouse as their playhouse. "Cowboys and Indians" was their favorite game. The firehouse is now property of the pioneer Museum in Woodward.

Walter Wright staked a claim eighteen miles northwest of Old Fort Supply on the South Fork of Clear Creek in Beaver County. Walter was a rancher and cattle trader so Elizee took her two children and spent the required three months of each year out on the prairie to prove up their claim. There was an old sod dugout house, half tumbled down. Elizee cooked their meals there but was afraid it would fall in on them so they spent their nights under the stars.

Lovilla moved with her family to Woodward and lived on the old Dougherty place, which had an orchard on it. Lovilla picked and ate Mr. Dougherty's prize apple he had planned to show at the County Fair.

.....

Lovilla's mother died when she was ten and now she spent more and more time on a horse.

....

In 1922, Walter and Dee Wright fought a prairie fire which had started on their land on Hell's Half Acre. They both contracted pneumonia from smoke inhalation and died within three days of each other.

...."

This record indicates that Mary Elizee (Cook) Wright died in about 1898 in Woodward County, Oklahoma.

Families of Falls County, compiled by the Falls County Historical Commission, stated the following in a biography of John Calhoun Peevey:

This record indicates that William Calvert was born between 1790 and 1800. The absence of a female age 40 to 50 indicates that Sarah (Wright) Calvert probably died before 1840.

On July 1, 1845, at BLM Patent Deed AL3620_.470 William Calvert of Walker County, Alabama, patented a further 39.61 acres of land in the Southwest 1/4 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 32, Township 11 South, Range 4 West, in Walker County (now Cullman County), Alabama.

On February 12, 1850, Hancock County, Alabama, was formed from Walker County, Alabama.

On April 1, 1850, at BLM Patent Deed AL3660_.049 William Calvert of Walker County, Alabama, patented 40.21 acres of land in the Northwest 1/4 of the Southwest 1/4 of Section 18, Township 12 South, Range 4 West, in Hancock County (later Winston County and now Cullman County), Alabama.

The 1850 Census for Hancock County, Alabama, listed William Calvert with the following household on November 13, 1850:

This record indicates that William Calvert was born in about 1792. The absence of Sarah (Wright) Calvert from the household, the presence of Mariah (____) Calvert in the household, and the ages of the children indicate that Sarah (Wright) Calvert had probably died before about 1840.

Immediately adjacent to the William Calvert household were the households of Robert Calvert, age 30, Jane Calvert, age 29, William Calvert, age 27, and Joseph Calvert, age 25. In the Jane Calvert household were Nancy Calvert, age 19, Thomas Calvert, age 18, and Jonathan Calvert, age 14. As set forth below, all of these persons were children of Sarah "Sally" (Wright) Calvert.

On February 10, 1851, at Madison County, Alabama, Probate File 1387, William Wright filed his list of the heirs of Robert Wright, Sr., and which included Sally Calvert, deceased:

“Robert Wright Sen’r dec’d.

The DAR Application of Charlotte Arelia McNeill Autry dated November 19, 1991, included in the supporting documentation the following order dated February 10, 1851, at Madison County, Alabama, Probate Record Book 15, page 406, settling the accounting of the estate of Robert Wright and which listed Sally Calvert (dec'd) as one of the children of Robert Wright:

“Probate Record Book No. 15, page 406. February Term, 1851

And it being shown by the affidavit of said administrator that and the following named children of Sally Calvert dec'd who was a daughter of said Robert Wright dec'd to wit: Elizabeth, Keziah, Eunice, Robert, William, Jane, Joseph, Rebecca, Mary, Nancy, Thomas, Jonathan, Eliza are the distributees of said balance .

On April 2, 1857, at BLM Patent Deed AL3740_.423 William Calvert of Hancock County, Alabama, patented 80.05 acres of land in the Southwest 1/4 of the Northwest 1/4 and the Northwest 1/4 of the Southwest 1/4 of Section 14, Township 12 South, Range 5 West, in Hancock County (later Winston County and now Cullman County), Alabama.

On January 22, 1858, the name of Hancock County, Alabama, was changed to Winston County, Alabama.

The 1860 Mortality Schedule for Winston County, Alabama, listed the death of William Calvert in September 1860:

"Persons who Died during the Year ending 1st June, 1860, in the Eastern Division in the County of Winston State of Ala., enumerated by me, T. A. Tatham Ass't Marshall.

Name of Person Who Died	William Calvert
Description.
Age.	61
Sex.	M
Color.
Free or slave.
Married or Widowed.	W
Place of Birth.	Unknown
Month Died.	Sept
Profession, Occupation, or Trade.	Farmer
Disease or Cause Of Death.	Typhoid Fever
Number of Days Ill.	6 weeks"

This record indicates that William Calvert died in September 1859 and was born in about 1798. However, William Calvert was apparently married in about 1812, which would be too young for a birth in 1798. The explanation may be that the age of William Calvert was mis-written or mis-read as 61 rather than 67. The latter age would be consistent with the 1850 Census and his gravestone set forth below and would place his birth in about 1792.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Calvert in the Calvert Cemetery, Cullman County, Alabama:

"William Calvert
1792 1859"

Findagrave.com also listed the gravestone of America A. Calvert in the Calvert Cemetery, Cullman County, Alabama:

"America A. Calvert
Died - 1863"

Findagrave.com also stated that American Ann (Lay) Calvert was the second wife of William Calvert.

The gravestone of Jane Calvert in the Calvert Cemetery, Cullman County, Alabama, listed her as the daughter of William and Sarah Calvert, thereby confirming that Sarah (Wright) Calvert's husband was William Calvert:

"Jane

William & Sarah
Calvert
Born May 31, 1821
Died May 7, 1902
She followed virtue
Her Truest Guide
Lived As A Christian
As A Christian Died"

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Sarah "Sally" Wright was a daughter of Robert Wright and Keziah (Bibb) Wright, was born in about 1797 in Amherst County, Virginia, married William Calvert, and died before 1840 and that Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert had the following children:

- 1) Elizabeth Calvert,
- 2) Kezziah Calvert,
- 3) Eunice Calvert,
- 4) Robert Calvert,
- 5) William Calvert,
- 6) Jane Calvert,
- 7) Joseph Calvert,
- 8) Rebecca Calvert,

- 9) Mary Calvert,
- 10) Nancy Calvert,
- 11) Thomas Calvert, and
- 12) Jonathan Calvert.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Calvert,
- 2) Kezziah Calvert,
- 3) Eunice Calvert,
- 4) Robert Calvert, born on November 17, 1819, or in about 1820 in Alabama,
- 5) Jane Calvert, born on May 31, 1821, or in about 1823 or 1825 in Alabama,
- 6) William Calvert, born in about 1823 in Alabama,
- 7) Joseph J. Calvert, born in about 1825 in Alabama,
- 8) Rebecca A. (Calvert) Lay, born in about 1825 or on February 23, 1826, in Alabama,
- 9) Mary Calvert,
- 10) Nancy Calvert, born in about 1830 or 1831 in Alabama,
- 11) Thomas Calvert, born in about 1832 in Alabama,
- 12) Jonathan Calvert, born in about 1836 in Alabama, and
- 13) Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris, born on March 10, 1838, in Alabama.

(Under the Act of Congress of March 3d, 1871)

Washington, D.C.

The petition of Robert Calvert, a citizen of the State of Alabama, residing at Ryans Creek, in the County of Winston, and State of Alabama respectfully represents that, at the time the claim herewith presented accrued, he was a citizen of the State of Alabama, residing at Ryans Creek that he was the original owner of said claim; that no other person or persons have any interest in or right or title to said claim or an part thereof; that he is a citizen of the United States and remained a loyal adherent to the cause and the Government of the United States during the war of the rebellion; that he was so loyal before and at the time of the taking of the property for which this claim is now made; and that said claim has never been presented to any officer agent or department of the Government, nor to Congress or to any committee thereof; and that the property for which this claim is now made was the property of your petitioner and taken as he was informed and believes for the use of the Army of the United States.

Of his own knowledge your petitioner avers and states the fact to be that on or about the 16th day of April 1865 at your petitioners residence in said county and state, officers and soldiers of the United States Army under command of Brig. Gen. Croxton then on a raid in the state of Alabama took from your petitioner one Grey mare valued at one hundred and twenty five dollars, one hundred and twenty five bu. corn valued at one dollar and twenty five cents pr bushel, twenty bu corn meal valued at one dollar pr bushel and five hundred lbs Bacon valued at twenty five cents pr pound

For which no voucher receipt or other writing was given by any officer or authority of said army taking said property as aforesaid

Your petitioner was informed and believes and so states the fact to be that said Brig. Genl. Croxton was on a raiding expedition in the enemies country, that siad property was removed to the camps of his army, but for the use of which particular regiment your petitioner is unable to state and that said Brig. Genl Croxton was in command of the forces of said army in the district in which said property was taken as aforesaid..

Your petitioner further states of his own knowledge that said proeprty was in good merchantable order

Your petitioner further avers that he believes the prices charged for the property so taken to be reasonable and just, and of his own knowledge do not exceed the market price for such property at the times and places stated.

The premises considered, your petitioner therefore prays that he may be allowed the sum of Three Hundred and Ninety Five dollars as compensation for said property as aforesaid for the use and benefit of the United States.

On January 24, 1872, in the same case of Robert Calvert vs. The United States, Robert Calvert testified along with other witnesses regarding his claim for compensation:

"Robert Calvert, Claimant, Vs.
United States, Defendant.

In pursuance fo the Commission issued by the Commissioners of Claims at Washington City, D. C., to the undersigned, on the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1871, I, John Brown, have called and caused to come before me at Jasper, in the County of Walker, and State of Alabama, on the 24" day of January, A. D. 1872, Robert Calvert the claimant, James C Harris, Samuel H Davis, Nathaniel Calvert and Samuel H Given witnesses in behalf of the claimant in the cause now pending before said Commissioners in the City of Washington, in which Robert Calvert, of Winston County Ala, is claimant and the United States is defendant

The said Robert Calvert, being first duly sworn, says, in answer to the Interrogatories propounded to him, that he is fifty two years of age, resides about 2 & 1/2 miles from Ryans Creek Winston Co Ala, and is a farmer, has resided at his present residence for about forty five years, and was there personally all during the war, from the beginning of the Rebellion to the end thereof, he was in favor of the Union cause, and opposed to secession and Rebellion. Never was in the Rebel army, nor never did anything voluntarily for the Confederacy, that he advocated the Election of and voted for C. C. Sheats as the union candidate for delegate to secession convention of Winston Co, Ala, and after the state seceded he did not go with the state but still adhered to the Union cause, that from first to last opposed secession and Rebellion and done all he could for the Union cause, that he never owned any Confederate bonds or done anything to sustain the credit of the so called confederate states.

Claimant says that he often fed Union men who were in the Union army and who were lying in to evade conscription in the Rebel army. That he carried rations at one time to a man, co___ the Rebel cavalry had shot, and who was lying in the woods. That he aided and assisted said Union man until he was able to get away. That he was threatened to be arrested in consequence of his Union sentiments, and that they would frequently make raids on his property, and feed off of him, that they would forage and live off of Union men more frequently than those of Rebel proclivities

Claimant says that in the Fall of 1862 he was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace by Union votes and Union votes only, which office he held the remaining part of the Rebellion Claimant says in answer to the question, why he accepted said office States as nas_s as follows. that he he had fully determined never to go into the Rebel army, that he was a poor man with a large family, and could not well have crossed to the Union lines, only one son, and he a cripple, and that if had left then he would have had to left a family of females unprotected, he felt it his duty to stay with them, provide for them and protect them, and for the farther reason that he was advised by his Union friends, to accept said office, to exempt him from conscription in the Rebel army, and for the farther reason that his county Winston) was by an overwhelming majority in favor of the Union, that it was the determined policy of the Union party to fill all its civil offices by Union men, and Union men alone. Above are the reasons alone which caused him to accept said office

Claimant solemnly declares that from the beginning of hostilities against the United States to the end thereof his sympathies were constantly with the cause of the United States that he never of his own free will or accord, did anything, or offered or sought or attempted to do anything by word deed, to injure said cause or retard its success and that he was at all times ready and willing when called upon, or if called upon, to aid and assist the cause of the Union, so far as his means and power and the circumstances of the case permitted. Claimant says that after the war was over he was in favor of the reconstruction acts of Congress, and voted for U. S Grant for President in 1868.

Robert Calvert"

On January 24, 1877, Cullman County, Alabama, was formed in part from Winston County, Alabama.

On December 5, 1877, in the same case of Robert Calvert vs. The United States, the commissioners rejected the claim of Robert Calvert because his election as justice of the peace of Winston County in 1862 constituted holding office under the Confederate government:

"Remarks

Claimant resided in Winston Co. Ala. In the fall of 1862 he was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace & served as such throughout the war. He undoubtedly took the oath of office which included an oath to the Confederacy.

He alleges that he was elected by Union votes & Union votes only; that the county (Winston) was overwhelmingly Union at this time &c His first witness swears "that in the latter part of the year 1862 it became dangerous for Union men to publicly express their Union sentiments in the section of county where the claimant lived": That his property was endangered: that he was in danger of being arrested, hung, shot, &c; that their families were in danger of being molested & maltreated. The witness mentions several persons who were arrested & put in Blount Co. jail on account of their Union sentiments. No doubt this witness testifies truly. But the facts stated by him are wholly irreconcilable with the statement that claimant was elected a justice of the peace as a Union man by Union men & their interest.

The acceptance of this office & the exercise of its functions under a Confederate authority, after having been duly qualified, are inconsistent with adherence to the Union cause.

The claim is disallowed.

 O. Ferriss) Claims."

On November 21, 1901, The Cullman Democrat published the following obituary:

"The Cullman Democrat, 21 Nov 1901 A Ripe Old Age. "Uncle Robert" Calvert Died Suddenly Last Wednesday Night. Mr. Robert Calvert, well known to nearly all our older citizens, was found dead in his bed last Thursday morning. Mr. Calvert was nearly 90 years of age and for many years had lived on his farm on Ryan's Creek about midway between Bremen and Logan. Last Wednesday Mr. Calvert appeared to be in better health than usual and was planning some duties for the succeeding day. When one of his daughters went to call him for breakfast, it was found that he had passed away. Mr. Calvert, while living on the same farm has the peculiar distinction of having lived in three counties. When first going on the farm it was in Hancock county. After a while the portion of Hancock on which his farm laid was taken to form Winston and later it was converted into Cullman. The deceased leaves many relatives and hundreds of friends to mourn his loss."

"Nathaniel Calvert Witness for claimant as to taking of his property being first duly sworn says that he is twenty seven years of age resides with claimant and by occupation a farmer. Affiant says he was present at claimants' residence about the 15th April 1865, when U S. Troops belonging to the command of Brig Gen Croxton came and took therefrom one mare about 11 or 12 years of age, was in good serviceable condition and worth about one hundred twenty five dollars and twenty four bushels corn, the quantity of which affiant judges from the size of the crib it was said corn was good & dry & worth as much as one dollar per bushel about twenty bushels meal, the amount of which affiant estimates from the sacks it was in, said meal was fresh & good and worth as much as one dollar & fifty cents per bushel, about five hundred pounds Bacon, the quantity of which affiant estimates from the number and size of Hogs that claimant had killed and from number & size of pieces taken said bacon was well cured & dry and worth as much as twenty five cents per pound. This record indicates that Joseph J. Calvert was born in about 1825 and that Eliza C. (____) Calvert was born in about 1829.

The DAR Application of Charlotte Arelia McNeill Autry dated November 19, 1991, included in the supporting documentation the following order dated February 10, 1851, at Madison County, Alabama, Probate Record Book 15, page 406, settling the accounting of the estate of Robert Wright and which listed Joseph Calvert as a child of Sally Calvert, deceased, and grandchild of Robert Wright:

The 1860 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Joseph J. Calvert with the following household on July 16, 1860:

The similarity of names for the parents and their dates and places of birth indicate that this was the household of Joseph Calvert, the son of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert. This record indicates that Joseph J. Calvert was born in about 1825 and that Eliza C. (____) Calvert was born in about 1829.

FamilySearch.org stated that the Angelina County, Texas, courthouse burned in 1891 and many of the county records were destroyed.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Joseph Calvert in the Gann Cemetery, Lufkin, Angelina County, Texas:

"Joseph Calvert
Co B
29 Regt
Ala Inf
C S A
1824 1869"

However, this appears to be a modern gravestone and not one erected in 1869 and it seems unlikely that Joseph J. Calvert, who resided in 1860 in Angelina County, Texas, would have returned to Alabama to join the 29th Alabama Infantry Regiment rather than joining a Texas regiment. In addition, there was a Joseph Calvert listed in the 1870 Census for Morgan County, Alabama, who was born in 1824 in Alabama and may have been the Joseph Calvert who enlisted in the 29th Alabama Infantry. The result is that further research will be required to confirm whether Joseph J. Calvert, the son of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert, was the same Joseph Calvert who served in the 29th Alabama Infantry.

The 1870 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Marie Calvert with the following household on September 8, 1870:

This record indicates that Mary Elizabeth (Crawford) (Cheatham) Calvert was born in about 1839.

In her email dated August 24, 2016, Shirley Bray enclosed a transcription of a Petition by Mary Calvert dated February 18, 1877, in the Angelina County, Texas, Probate Court for Letters of Guardianship of the minor children of Joseph Calvert:

"The State of Texas,
County of Angelina.

To the Hon. John Granberry, Judge of the Probate Court of said County your petitioner Mary Calvert who resides in Angelina respectfully represents unto your honor that her late husband Joseph Calvert departed this life intestate leaving three minor children to wit Eliza Ellen, Charles & Rebecka N. Calvert by your petitioner and three other children by a previous marriage to wit Marion & Amanda who are of lawful age and Jasper G. who is a minor. That during the life of said Joseph Calvert he and petitioner sold a tract of land and received part payment therefore and that it is necessary in order to confirm the said sale and to collect the ballance of the purchase money that letters of guardianship be granted to your petitioner therefore your petitioner prays that notice hereof be given according to law and that letters of guardianship by granted to your petitioner in terms of law and in duty bound petitioner will ever pray.

Mary Calvert

This record identifies the children of Joseph J. Calvert as follows:

Children by first wife:

- 1) Marion Calvert,
- 2) Amanda Calvert, and
- 3) Jasper G. Calvert,

Children by second wife Mary:

- 1) Eliza Ellen Calvert,
- 2) Charles Calvert, and
- 3) Rebecka N. Calvert.

The 1880 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Mary Calvert in the A. C. Cheatham household on June 11, 1880:

This record indicates that Mary Elizabeth (Crawford) (Cheatham) Calvert was born in about 1839.

The 1900 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Mary Calvert in the Bolen(?) and Dollie Martin household on June 11, 1900, her relationship as mother in law, her birth in May 1845 in Texas, and her marital status as widowed.

The 1910 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Mary Calvert in the Robert Behannon household on April 27, 1910, her relationship as grandmother, her age as 71 and born in Texas, indicating a date of birth in about 1839, and her marital status as widowed.

The death record of Marion Calvert dated on November 22, 1941, at Angelina County, Texas, listed his parents as Joseph Calvert and Margaret South. This record indicates that his mother was Margaret Eliza (South) Calvert, but given that Marion Calvert was young when his mother died and that this record was made some 80 years after the mother's death, further research will be needed to confirm this identification.

The death record of Ella (Calvert) Nelson dated on December 13, 1944, in Angelina County, Texas, listed her parents as Joe Calvert and Mary Crawford and her birth on May 21, 1863, in Angelina County, Texas.

The death record of Charlie Calvert dated on March 1, 1942, in Angelina County, Texas, listed his parents as Joseph Calvert and unknown and his birth on October 29, 1868, in Angelina County, Texas.

The death record of Rebecca Calvert Martin dated on October 16, 1946, in Angelina County, Texas, listed her parents as Joseph Marion Calvert and Mary Crawford and her birth on June 29, 1869.

These last three records confirm that Mary Elizabeth (Crawford) (Cheatham) Calvert was the second wife of Joseph J. Calvert.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Joseph Calvert was a son of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Joseph J. Calvert and Eliza C. (____) Calvert were the following:

- 1) Jane or Mary A. Calvert, born in about 1849 in Alabama,
- 2) Marion Calvert, born on October 29, 1851, in Alabama,
- 3) Amanda (Calvert) O'Quinn, born in about 1854 or in April 1855 in Alabama,
- 4) Sarah J. Calvert, born in about 1856 in Alabama, and
- 5) Jasper G. Calvert, born on September 20, 1858, or in about 1860 in Alabama, and the children of Joseph J. Calvert and Mary Elizabeth (Crawford) (Cheatham) Calvert were the following:

- 1) Eliza Ellen (Calvert Nelson, born on May 21, 1863, or in May 1864 or in about 1865 or 1866 in Angelina County, Texas,
- 2) Charles Calvert, born in October 1866 or on October 29, 1867, or on October 29, 1868, or in about 1869 in Angelina County, Texas, and
- 3) Rebecca Narcissa "Dollie" (Calvert) Martin, born on June 29, 1869, or in about 1870 in Angelina County, Texas.

i. Jane Or Mary A. Calvert

Jane or Mary A. Calvert was a daughter of Joseph J. Calvert and Eliza C. (____) Calvert. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Sarah³, Joseph J.⁴)

The 1850 Census for Hancock County (now Winston County), Alabama, listed Jane Calvert in the Joseph Calvert household on November 13, 1850, and her age as 1 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1849.

The 1860 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Mary A. Calvert in the Joseph J. Calvert household on July 16, 1860, and her age as 11 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1849. It is unclear whether her name was Mary Jane Calvert and the "A" was a mis-listing of her middle initial or whether two children were involved, one Jane Calvert born in 1849 and a second Mary A. Calvert, born shortly thereafter.

In her email dated August 24, 2016, Shirley Bray enclosed a transcription of a Petition by Mary Calvert dated February 18, 1877, in the Angelina County, Texas, Probate Court for Letters of Guardianship of the minor children of Joseph Calvert and which did not list Jane or Mary A. Calvert among the surviving children of Joseph Calvert, indicating that Jane or Mary A. Calvert had died before their father's death in 1870.

ii. Marion Calvert, His Wife Martha C. (Allen) Calvert,
And His Descendants

Marion Calvert was a son of Joseph J. Calvert and Eliza C. (____) Calvert. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Sarah³, Joseph J.⁴)

The 1860 Census for Angelina County, Texas, listed Marion Calvert in the Joseph J. Calvert household on July 16, 1860, and his age as 9 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1851.

Texas, Select County Marriage Index, 1837-1965, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Marion Calvert and Martha C. Allen on January 4, 1872, in Angelina County, Texas:

"Name:	Marion Calvert
Gender:	Male
Marriage Date:	4 Jan 1872
Marriage Place:	Angelina, Texas, United States

In her email dated August 24, 2016, Shirley Bray enclosed a transcription of a Petition by Mary Calvert dated February 18, 1877, in the Angelina County, Texas, Probate Court for Letters of Guardianship of the minor children of Joseph Calvert and which identified Marion Calvert as an adult child of Joseph Calvert by his first wife:

"The State of Texas,

Alabama Deaths, 1908-1974, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the death of R. H. Lay on November 6, 1933, in Hodges, Franklin County, Alabama, and his parents as Thomas H. Lay and Rebecca Calvert, thereby identifying Rebecca Lay as Rebecca (Calvert) Lay and therefore, the daughter of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rebecca Calvert was a daughter of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Rebecca (Calvert) Lay and Thomas H. Lay were the following:

- 1) Sarah A. Lay, born in about 1848 in Alabama,
- 2) Martha J. Lay, born in about 1849 or 1850 or 1851 in Alabama,
- 3) Reuben H. Lay, born in August 1853 or in about 1854 or on August 27, 1855, or in about 1856 in Alabama,
- 4) Rufus Lay, born in about 1857 in Alabama,
- 5) Mary Susan Lay, born in about 1859 or 1860 in Alabama,
- 6) Alabama Lay, born in about 1861 in Alabama,
- 7) Elisabeth or Eunice M. Lay, born in about 1866 or 1867 in Alabama, and
- 8) Talitha Frances Lay, born in about 1868 or 1869 in Alabama.

Arkansas, County Marriages Index, 1837-1957, available from Ancestry.com. listed the marriage of Ruben L??y and ____ Clifton on November 15, 1874, in Van Buren County, Arkansas:

The listing of Janie Calvert in the household as her sister identifies Sarah E. Harris of this record as Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris. This record indicates that Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris was born in about 1838.

The 1900 Census for Cullman County, Alabama, listed Sarah E. Harris in the John F. Harris household on June 27, 1900, her relationship as mother, her birth in March 1838 in Alabama, and her marital status as widowed.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Sarah Eliza C. Harris in the Johnson Grove Cemetery, Brushy Pond, Cullman County, Alabama:

First Stone Broken:

"Sarah E.
Wife Of
James C. H____
As a wife devoted
As a mother affectionate
As a friend ever kind and true"

Second Stone Modern:

"Sarah Eliza C.
Harris
Mar. 10 1838
Jan. 5 1904"

The death record of John H. Harris dated May 11, 1924, in Cullman County, Alabama, as set forth at Alabama, Deaths and Burials Index, 1881-1974, available from Ancestry.com, listed his parents as James C. Harris and Eliza Cahart, probably a misreading of Calvert.

The death record of Nancy Harris Gibson dated February 17, 1934, in Lauderdale County, Alabama, as set forth at Alabama, Deaths and Burials Index, 1881-1974, available from Ancestry.com, listed his parents as James Harris and Eliza Calvert.

These last two records confirm that the husband of Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris was James C. Harris.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Eliza Calvert was a daughter of Sarah (Wright) Calvert and William Calvert.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris and James Constantine Harris were the following:

- 1) Nancy Ann (Harris) Gibson, born on August 26, 1862, or in about 1863 in Alabama,
- 2) William Henry Harris, born on March 10, 1864, or in about 1865 in Alabama,

- 3) Johnathan Nathaniel Harris, born in about 1865 or on February 25, 1866, or in September 1866 or in about 1867 or 1868 in Alabama,
- 4) John F. Harris, born on August 22, 1868, or in about 1869 in Alabama,
- 5) Robert J. Harris, born on July 19, 1871, or in about 1872 in Alabama,
- 6) Asberry Perkin Harris, born on October 4, 1873, or in about 1874 or in May 1876 in Alabama,
- 7) Albert N. Harris, born on January 9, 1876, in Alabama, and
- 8) James M. Harris, born on January 5, 1878, in Alabama.

i. Nancy Ann (Harris) Gibson, Her Husband James S. Gibson, And Her Descendants

Nancy Ann (Harris) Gibson was a daughter of Sarah Eliza (Calvert) Harris and James Constantine Harris. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Sarah³, Sarah Eliza⁴)

The 1870 Census for Winston County, Alabama, listed Nancy A. Harris in the James C. Harris household on June 28, 1870. However, the census taker inadvertently reversed the positions of Nancy A. and Sarah E. Harris and when corrected, this record indicates that Nancy A. Harris as age 8 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

The 1880 Census for Cullman County, Alabama, listed Nancy A. Harris in the Sarah E. Harris household on June 12, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 17 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1863.

Alabama, Select Marriages, 1816-1957, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Nancy Ann Harris and James S. Gibson on November 28, 1880, in Cullman County, Alabama:

From the evidence set forth above, the child of Jerusha F. (Wright) Owen and Robert H. Owen was the following:

1) James Owen, born in about 1862 in Alabama.

"State of Alabama)
Madison County.)

Know All Men By These Presents, that I, J. W. Connally, a resident citizen of Madison county, Alabama, being of sound mind and of disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills.

(1st) If my beloved wife Mary T. Connally shall survive me it is my will, devise and bequeth, that all my real and personal property situated in the Town of Gurley, in the County of Madison, in the State of Alabama, shall be held, owned, controlled and used by her for and during the term of her natural life, and that she shall collect from said property all the rents, and profits arising from the use thereof, and shall expend the same for and on behalf of her support. At her death it is my will, devise and bequeth, that all of said real and personal property shall go to my beloved niece Laura Sandford, to be held and used by her and her heirs in fee simple forever.

(2nd) It is also my will and desire that my said wife shall have, receive and control the interest arising from such sums of money, if any, which I have on hand or in bank at the time of my death. She is to use such interest for her support and in maintaining herself in such comfortable condition as she is accustomed to.

(3rd) It also is my desire and will, that if the interest arising from said sums of money in paragraph two hereof mentioned, together with the rents and profits derived from the property in paragraph one hereof described, are insufficient to support and maintain my said wife in such comfortable condition to which she now is accustomed, and if she make proof of that fact, then she is to have in addition to the above amounts the sum of one-hundred dollars yearly, to be drawn from the amount of cash which I have on hand or in bank at the time of my death.

(4th) I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved niece, Laura Sandford, all my property, real, personal and mixed, together with cash on hand and of every kind, character and description, subject however only to the above provisions of my will, to be held and owned by her and her heirs in fee simple and absolutely forever.

(5th) I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of the property which I own at the time of my death. Said amounts to be paid out of the cash which I have on hand or in bank, if it is sufficient to pay the same, if not, then such portion of my real-estate shall be sold as is sufficient to satisfy said debts and funeral expenses.

(6th) I nominate my wife Mary T. Connally, as executrix of this my last will and testament, and exempt her from making bon in said matter.

In Witness Whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this May 13, 1916.

In her letter dated July 24, 1996, Lillian Herrin enclosed copies of two undated letters from Dr. A. T. Grayson which provided as follows:

"Transcription of Letter From Dr A. T. Grayson to Margaret Elizabeth Wall Cummings

Dr. Ambrose Tilden Grayson

Mrs. Charles Cummings,

You may think odd of me writing an unsolicited letter, & when I get started I don't stop quick. I slept all the evening and tonight I can't begin to go to sleep. -- Kate Sanford Jones after I told her some of the history of Uncle Mills Jenkins, Aunt Jane Wright Jenkins that you may be interest in seeing. Aunt Jane Wright oil painting & where she married & lived & buried. I went to the Esslinger Kin meeting and two or three wondered how I was kin, and interested? So I wrote a letter that night not about the Esslingers or the Jenkins but most about my g-grandfather born 1796. The 6th child of Robert Wright who was First Leut. in A.R. Army, and whose name is on a bronze plaque at Courthouse placed there by the Chapter of D.A.R.'s the most influential in politics of all society or chapter in our nation today, and his wife Kesiah Bibb, where my aunt & father gave credit for much. I also mentioned John William Connally my grandmother's grand father whose name is on the D.A.R. bronze plaque at Courthouse. You can see why I am kin to every old settler in the County, Wrights, Conally's, Allison's, Cobbs & Graysons. (over)

Jane Wright was the 10th child was a business woman and helped her husband Mills Jenkins in selling his produce. Kept books or a diary for him. My father always kept one for every day in the year & would say like Aunt Jane, kept hers. first thing after supper put on book. date new calf or colt baby on the farm & etc. and referred to it often. While we lived over a mile the Jenkins could hear my father call hogs. Uncle Mills Jenkins would go for miles with three yoke of oxen to get wood so afraid he would burn up all the wood close. Now you can't give wood away after you cut it. Elaine(?) was 13th child. Married Uncle Calleny(?) Potts. She & Jane bought the Wright's home & Robert Sr. & Kesiah moved to near the Cradlestand or Chestnut Grove. Where William & Robert Jr. and some other Wrights owned cotton land in a big two story house. Only a large tree & the Wright Cem to mark it. When Robert & Kesiah left N.C. to take up a soldiers grant they selected 3-1/2 miles due west of where Gurley is now, 1808, homesteaded 1809 & 10. Selected before buying set out holly trees one is living now 150 yrs. That is as good land as the County has today. Mr. John Acuff & Blake McMullen own it.

Some day I would to take you, Douglas, the other Mr. Chas., Emily & Wilfred the 4 and show you Aunt Jane's oil painting. The owner takes pride in showing. Then show you where my Great Grandfather William Wright and Jerousha Connally built lived & died but buried in Wright Cem. Will go from there to Robert Wright Sr. bought 1809 or 10. Then by the Jenkins Cem. on by where I was born by the Candle Stick by Chestnut Grove Church, to see the tree and birds eye view of the 1 acre cem. Nothing but bushes & weeds. See it from Mary Joe Collins(?) house a negro.

Then return by where Congressman W. R. W. Cobb. Catherine Allison's my aunt. Bryant Cobb & Polly Grayson married in Grayson home Big Cove 1813. See the Cem from Cobbs Bridge, too many weeds. Come home by Goldsmith's born on through Bankhead Mountain Road home. Katie has been but if can stand Wilfred 4th & Douglas will be o.k. with me if its your pleasure if Mr. Chas. should not go, but I will be glad to have him. He won't think less of you for your ancestors. They showed good judgment. Elizabeth Wright Esslinger was their 1st child & married when they left N.C. William was 12 when they moved here. Dr. A. T. Grayson"

"Dear Phoebe You may & may not be interested in you ancestors. -- a few are till you wait too late. Your Aunt Mattie & Katie Samford Jones are better versed than any other. I am sending you some unsolicited history even if you read The 200 yr Esslinger Family it has to be explained. Robert Wright went to a military school ____ in American Revolutionary Army, was in battle Seige of York & Capture of Corn Wallase. 1784 married Kesiah Bibb her relative William Bibb signed as wedding witness. They later moved to N.C. where they had about 14 children the oldest Elizabeth married a Mr. Esslinger, about time my grandfather William (6) was a 12 the Government gave 160 acres land in Mississippi Territory, all but Elizabeth came brought a governess from Va. William had been a student & continued studying was a read lawyer, school teacher, surveyor, state senator, tax collector and administrator for several rich families Married Jerousha Connally daughter of John William Connally and American Revolutionary Soldier whose name is on a bronze plaque with Robt. Wright. he locate 3 miles N.W Maysville burried in the Connally cem. he had very fine farm. They (William) built a res. about 1820 in big Cove (the) chimneys are standing & cedar floor the E_dy Drake res. Elsie the (13) married Calloway Potts

Jane the (10)th child married Mills Jenkins they Elsie & Jane bought home place. Robert Jr. _ened the land Andrew Esslinger raised his family. William & Jerousha owned W. W. Ben & James Westly & where Wright Cem. is John William Connally helped his daughter, some. William had become land poor by time he was 35 -- His Sisters husband died in N. Carolina William and Govenor William Bibb her relative Kesiah she and Robert invited her to come from N.C. to Madison Co who came & visited after wrote Elizabeth he had a place for her. At this time Robert Wright Sr. lived 1/2 mile N. of Chestnut Grove Robert Wright Jr. the (5) lived on the Cousin Andrew Esslinger land SE 3/4 mile. Soon after Elizabeth got to where her father lived. The son Bill Esslinger built a house about 1-1/2 miles South the chimney is standing & the log house may be veneered with brick. where Cousin Andrew Jim Westly Ben & William Wright & several girls were born. W. W. has often remarked that he was proud to be named for his uncle & my G. grandfather who had befriended his grand mother in so many ways. Cousin Andrew married a neice of my mother Sarah Smith Allison by name.

Catharine Fennell. Her Mother Matilda Allison Mary Jane who married Rev Alex Pen_? Charaty who married (Col) Cooper died the Col. Lee. Catharine married Congressman W R W Cobb John married Nancy Cobb sister of Congressman & Bryant Cobb. David my grandfather married Sarah Smith later Jane Cooke. Those seven came from Ireland were prominent in Ireland came with finances and all did well.

That makes the Andrew Esslinger family & Mary Jane Parke decendants Katie Sanford Jones & John Sanford Pres Armour Fertilizer Co Kin to me on both sides Wright & Allison John Grayson's mother was Barbara Bibb William Wrights mother was Kesiah Bibb (a coincidence) 2 great grand mothers by name Bibb. The youngest son of John Grayson born 1817, James Josh married Nancy Paralee Wright 1837 daughter of Jerousha & William Wright (6) son of Robert & Kesiah. Why I wrote on reason

Several of the Esslingers did not know where I came in on Wright family. Had my great grand father no inviting his oldest sister to come she might have not come & she is really the great great great Grand mother of all the Esslinger I know. and I like every Esslinger & Connally I have ever known. & Cousin Lee Wright the only Wright I ever knew. I joined the Sons of American Revolution on the Robert Wright Sr. name he has a very high rating in Virginia as well as N.C & Ala. you should be very proud of the Wright name & the Allison even if they are Irish. direct from Ireland but leaders there -- Allison Irish ancestry is among the very best. While you are not expected to be invited to join the D.A.R. Chapter there is nothing wrong. It is the greatest of all organizations today I wish for your children you would join. Cousin Cassie your Grand Mother was my first cousin and as great a woman this Country ever had. Lovely & intelligent. Ambrose T. Grayson, M.C.

I was at the Wright Cem July 4th Cant see anything there but weeds Mr. Tom Martin's grandfather is buried there President of Alabama Power Co. Mr. Church Spivey. 1 acre in the Wright Cem. He has no marker I could locate. nor has Kesiah, 1/2 mile N. of Chestnut Grove Church, Berkley - on Mary Joe Cross Collier place Chris Coll__i__ is supposed to care for the cem.

The Wright graveyard is deeded to the Chestnut Grove Church 1 acre of land.

Chances are Catherine died first & was buried in Wilson Indian reservation on bank of a Spring? branch. And if he died at his father at Belfonte they took his body to Cobb Bridge & buried. I believe that Polly & Bryant are buried there.

John Allison & Nancy Cobb have Nonunts? at their home at Shiolo Church which finally was Cumberland Presbetry & may have been it was built after Cumberland desolved in 1910 in Ky or Tenn.

Camp Ground began before 1910 about 1800 as Sallie Carter & John Grayson help organise it & they came from Va a Prespytem.

Surviving are his wife, who was Miss Susan T. Haden, and the following sons: Marvin Esslinger, of Gurley; John Tate Esslinger, of Arizona; Hossmer Esslinger, of Florence, and James Norman Esslinger, who is teaching at Flot Rock school, werhe he is principal. There was a daughter, Mrs. Leila Esslinger Hall, whose death occurred in Guntersville in 1919, and a son, John M. Esslinger, who died several years ago in Florence. He is also survived by three brothers, W. W. and T. R. Esslinger of Huntsville, and J. C. Esslinger of Gurley. There are also numerous nieces and nephews, and other descendants.

Alabama, Deaths and Burials Index, 1881-1974, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Mills Jenkins Sibley on March 3, 1924, in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama:

"Name: Mills Jenkins Sibley
 Birth Date: abt 1859
 Death Date: 3 Mar 1924
 Death Place: Huntsville, Madison, Alabama

 Father Birth Place: Virginia
 Mother Name: Everline Jenkins
 Mother Birth Place: Madison County, Alabama

Although this record listed Mills Jenkins Sibley as black, the other records for him list him as white and this was an error in the record or in the transcription.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Mills J. Sibley in the Gurley Cemetery, Gurley, Madison County, Alabama:

"Mills J. Sibley
 1859 - 1922"

Although the gravestone listed the year of death as 1922, this appears to be a modern stone and that year of death is inconsistent with the death record.

Alabama, Deaths and Burials Index, 1881-1974, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Emma Virginia Sibley on July 16, 1928, in Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama:

"Name:	Emma Virginia Sibley [Emma Virginia Cobb]

Street address:	6407 1st Court North

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Emma C. Sibley in the Gurley Cemetery, Gurley, Madison County, Alabama:

"Emma C. Sibley
1860 - 1929"

The year of death is different from the death record and since this appears to be a new stone, is probably incorrect.

Personally appeared before me, Lewis M. Douglass, judge of the probate court in and for said county and State, James Sanford, who, after being duly sworn, deposeth and says, that about midnight on the night of the 24th day of July, A. D. 1869, a band of armed men, in disguise, came to my house and asked if a man named William Campbell lived on my place; I told them there was; they then asked if there was not a difficulty between myself and him; I told them that there had been but that it was settled, and that there was no difficulty between us now; they said there was a difficulty between us that is not settled, meaning the disguised men, and then asked for water, and they left; the next morning a black man came to my house and told me that William Campbell had been killed that night by a band of disguised men, and that he wanted to get some lumber to make a coffin out of; I went to the house and found that the man had been shot three times, and was dead, and on that day he was buried. I also found a pistol cylinder that was broken, laying in the yard; the wife of the man who was shot says that there was about fifteen of the disguised men in the gang that did the shooting.

I am the sheriff of Madison County, Alabama. I respectfully inform you that lawlessness prevails to such an extent in this county that armed forces are necessary to suppress violence. Murders are perpetrated by armed bands of disguised outlaws, and without the aid of armed men I cannot arrest the perpetrators or execute process. I ask for such force as you can give me, mounted, for the purposes stated above.

I further ask that you distribute your troops in such numbers as you can spare at Meridianville, Maysville, and Madison Station, in this county, also at Newmarket, and this request to exist until order is restored.

B.

State of Alabama, County of Madison.

On this 4th day of August, 1869, personally appeared before me, a clerk of the circuit court in and for the county and State aforesaid, Mary Campbell, of the county of Madison, State of Alabama, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on Saturday night, the 24th day of July, 1869, while she and her husband, William Campbell, were asleep in their bed in a house on the plantation of Mr. James Sanford, we were aroused from sleep by the report of a pistol-shot and I saw that my husband had been shot in the left side; I saw the blood running out of his side; it ran on my clothes; he cried out, "Oh, Lord," and I saw six or seven men in the room around our bed, which was on the floor; they had their faces covered over with black masks and their bodies were covered with black gowns.

These men said, "You are the damned rascal who has been keeping up all the fuss in the Cove," and one of them reached around me and shot my husband in the side of the head with a pistol-ball. They told my husband to go out of the room, saying, "Go out of this room, God damn you; you are the one that has been keeping up all the fuss in the Cove." He went out with them and leaned up against the fence, and I saw and heard some three or four of them shoot at him. He was hit in the small of his back by one fo the shots; he fell on the ground and the men shot at him again while he was lying on the ground. I saw some others outside of the yard, about three or four that I could see after they had fired the last shot. One of them said, "Come, let's go," and they left. I helped to carry my husband into the house and found that he had been shot some six times; he died in about an hour after he was shot. I am about seven months with child. I could not tell any of the men. I further swear that about three weeks before that, on a Sunday morning, Mr. James Sanford came down to our house; I was not there when he first came in; was at my brother's below it and I saw he had a pistol in his hand. Then I went to my house; my husband was sitting in a chair but set leaning against the house near the door. Mr. James Sanford was leaning against the fence around the grounds on which our house is situated. He had in his hands a pistol resting n the top of the fence, pointed toward my husband. He accused my husband of stealing his chickens, which my husband denied doing. Mr. James Sanford wanted him to pay for the chickens; hy husband refused to do so. Then Mr. James Sanford said if he did not he would shoot his infernal black heart out of him. He continued to curse and abuse my husband. When I got to my house I sat down in the door-way and my child was by my side. Mr. James Sanford told me to take my child away from there, that he did not want to shoot the child. I took my child in the house; then my husband told him he would come to town and report him for saying he would take his life, and for drawing his pistol over him. Mr. James Sanford said if he did come here and report it he would have to leave the county. Mr. Sanford left for his house; my husband left our house Sunday evening for town to report what Mr. Sanford said.

This record indicates that Lydia Bryn (Sanford) (Glover) Cole was born in about 1861. Although William M. Cole was not listed in this record, the entry immediately above Liddia Cole was for Geraldine Matthews and she was listed as a single person and yet married 14 years, the same number of years as that listed on the next line for Liddia. This suggests that the census taker inadvertently left out William M. Cole from the listing.

The 1930 Census for Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee, listed Lydia B. Cole along with Jennie W. Corum in the James O. Woodward household on April 7, 1930, her relationship as mother in law, her age as 69 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1861, and her marital status as widowed.

The image of this record is faded and the surname is difficult to read and may be incorrectly listed. This record indicates that Susan (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett was born in about 1835 and that Frederick M. Bennett was born in about 1845. The age of Mollie Bennett indicates that she was a daughter of Frederick M. Bennett by a prior marriage. Although the children James and Anna were listed as Bennetts, the relationship and age columns make clear that they were step-children born before the second marriage of Susan (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett, and therefore, their surnames should be Phipps.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Susan K. Jenkins was a daughter of Jane (Wright) Jenkins and Mills Jenkins, was born in 1835, and married ____ Phipps.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Susan K. (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and Robert S. Phipps were the following:

1) James S. Phipps, born on November 29, 1859, or in about 1860 in Madison County, Alabama, and

2) Jane Phipps, born in about 1862 in Alabama, and the child of Susan K. (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and Frederick M. Bennett was the following:

1) Daisy D. (Bennett) Maures, born in June 1874 in Alabama.

i. James S. Phipps

James S. Phipps was a son of Susan K. (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and Robert S. Phipps. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Jane³, Susan K.⁴)

The 1860 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed James Phipps in the R. S. Phipps household on June 16, 1860, and his age as 6/12 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1860.

The 1870 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed James Phipps along with Susan Phipps in the John Hamilton household on June 1, 1870, and his age as 10 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1860.

The 1880 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed James S. Bennett in the Frd. M. Bennett household on June 15, 1880, his relationship as step son, and his age as 20 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1860. Although his surname is listed as Bennett, the relationship and age columns make clear that he was a step child born before the second marriage of Susan (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and therefore, his surname should be Phipps.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of James S. Phipps in the Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama:

"James S. Phipps
Born
Nov. 29, 1859
Died
June 22, 1897
Darling we miss thee"

ii. Jane Phipps

Jane Phipps was a daughter of Susan K. (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and Robert S. Phipps. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Jane³, Susan K.⁴)

The 1870 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Jane Phipps along with Susan Phipps in the John Hamilton household on June 1, 1870, and her age as 8 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

The 1880 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Jane Bennett in the Frd. M. Bennett household on June 15, 1880, her relationship as step daughter, and her age as 18 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1862. Although her surname is listed as Bennett, the relationship and age columns make clear that she was a step child born before the second marriage of Susan (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and therefore, her surname should be Phipps.

iii. Daisy D. (Bennett) Maures, Her Husband Charles Anselm Maures, And Her Descendants

Daisy D. (Bennett) Maures was a daughter of Susan K. (Jenkins) (Phipps) Bennett and Frederick M. Bennett. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Jane³, Susan K.⁴)

The 1880 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Daisy Bennett in the Frd. M. Bennett household on June 15, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 6 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1874.

Findagrave.com listed the obituary of William Powell Jenkins dated November 20, 1900, from the Morning Oregonian:

"Was Killed By A Fall

Fatal Accident Suffered By W. P. Jenkins

He Was Blind and Made a Misstep, Which Resulted in His Death - East Side Affairs.

William Powell Jenkins, living at 514 East Oak street, corner East Eleventh, was killed yesterday afternoon by a fall, in which he struck on his head. Mr. Jenkins had been splitting and carrying in wood from the east side of the house just before his fall. He was totally blind, but was able to get about fairly well, and went out after the wood for exercise more than anything else. He usually sat in a chair while splitting the wood. He carried in several armfuls when he slipped and fell on a post. He was seen soon afterward by some neighbor women, who covered him with a blanket until he could be carried into the house, but he was then dead.

Dr. C. H. Raffety was called to the house and found him beyond all help. Dr. Raffety at first concluded that his neck had been dislocated, but without a post mortem investigation this could not be determined fully. At the inquest, which was held at 5 o'clock last evening, the physician gave it as his opinion that the direct cause of Mr. Jenkins' death was apoplexy caused by the fall and striking his head. This, he said, was his conclusion without making a post mortem examination. It was also brought out that Mr. Jenkins had been totally blind for about three years.. The verdict was that he came to his death from apoplexy produced by an injury received from a fall.

Mr. Jenkins had been in good health. He was born in Madison County, Alabama, and was 55 years old. He came with his children to Portland 10 years ago, and engaged in the real estate and insurance business until his failing eyesight compelled him to retire. He was a fine man, gentle and courtly, and respected by all who knew him. He is survived by six children, who are as
