This record indicates that John Robert Potts was born in about 1845 and that Mattie M. (Campbell) Potts was born in about 1865. Their presence of John and Mattie together in the same household and their listing as "Head" and "Wife" indicate that they were no longer separated, but the marital status column first listed them as "M" for married and then crossed that out and inserted "Wd" for widowed, or as a euphemism for divorced. So it is unclear whether they had divorced but reconciled or never divorced at all.

The 1920 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed John Potts in the Susan Jacobs household on January 16, 1920, his relationship as brother in law, his age as 75 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1845, and his marital status as married.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of John R. Potts in the Moon Cemetery, Owens Cross Roads, Madison County, Alabama:

"John R Potts
Pvt Co C 4 Ala Cav
Confederate States Army
1845 1908"

The stone is a modern one and the year of birth may have been taken from his age at enlistment in the 4th Alabama Cavalry. The persons responsible for preparing the stone may have inadvertently taken the combination of John's residence in Paint Rock, Jackson County, Alabama, in 1907 and 1908 and his absence from that location thereafter as an indication of his death in about 1908 and thus inserted an erroneous year of death.

The death record of Robert Calloway Potts dated April 6, 1952, in Wilson County, Tennessee, listed his parents as John Potts and Mattie Campbell and his birth on December 4, 1883, in Alabama.

The death record of Mamie Potts Thompson Neal dated April 27, 1956, in Lebanon, Wilson County, Tennessee, listed her parents as John Potts and Mattie Campbell and her birth on May 13, 1884, in Alabama.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that John R. Potts was a son of Alsey Ball (Wright) Potts and Calloway Potts, was born in November 1845 in Madison County, Alabama, and married Mattie M. Campbell on August 2, 1878, in Madison County, Alabama.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of John Robert Potts and Mattie M. (Campbell) Potts were the following children:

- 1) Alva Potts, born in December 1879 in Alabama,
- 2) Robert Calloway Potts, born in September 1882 or on December 4, 1883, in Alabama,
- 3) Mary "Mamie" O. (Potts) (Stewart) (Thompson) Neal, born on May 13, 1884, or in about 1885 or 1886 in Madison County, Alabama,
- 4) Bessie T. (Potts) McDowell, born in April 1888 or in about 1889 in Alabama,
- 5) Burton "Bertie" C. Potts, born on April 27, 1890, in Alabama, and
- 6) George Frank Potts, born on December 3, 1892, or December 3, 1893, in Madison County, Alabama.

Alva Potts was a son of John Robert Potts and Mattie M. (Campbell) Potts. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Alsey Ball³, John Robert⁴)

ii. Robert Calloway Potts

Robert Calloway Potts was a son of John Robert Potts and Mattie M. (Campbell) Potts. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Alsey Ball³, John Robert⁴)

The 1900 Census for Paint Rock, Jackson County, Alabama, listed Robert Potts in the Mattie Potts household on June 5, 1900, his relationship as son, his birth in September 1882 in Alabama, and his occupation as sawer in pencil mill.

The 1910 Census for Wilson County, Tennessee, listed Bob Potts in the John Potts household on April 3, 1910, his relationship as son, his age as 27 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1883, and his occupation as working in a pencil factory.

The 1920 Census for Rutherford County, Tennessee, listed Robert Potts in the Harry Thompson household on January 21, 1920, his relationship as boarder, his age as 37 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1883, and his occupation as sawyer in pencil factory. Although listed as a boarder, as set forth below, Harry Thompson was the second husband of Robert's sister Mamie.

The 1930 Census for Jessamine County, Kentucky, listed Bob Potts in the Aaron Stocker household on April 13, 1930, his relationship as boarder, his age as 45 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1885, and his occupation as night watchman in cedar mill.

This record indicates that Sarah Margaret (Potts) McNeill was born in about 1856 and that Thomas Jefferson McNeill was born in about 1846. Although Margie L. Reed and Leana O. O'Neal were listed as daughters, the places of birth of their parents were inconsistent with being children of Sarah Margaret (Potts) McNeill and Thomas Jefferson McNeill. In addition, the 1910 Census listed Sarah Margaret (Potts) McNeill as having had 3 children of whom only one was then alive. The result is that these two persons listed as daughters may have been relatives or boarders who were mis-listed as daughters by the census taker.

"Maria E.

The 1930 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Andy J. Brooks in the Robert A. Woody household on April 2, 1930, his relationship as father in law, his age as 60 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1870, his marital status as divorced, and his occupation as farmer. However, as set forth above, Maria Elizabeth (Potts) Brooks died in 1921 and so the census taker apparently incorrectly listed Andy J. Brooks as divorced rather than widowed.

Alabama, Deaths and Burials Index, 1881-1974, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Andy Brooks on February 23, 1950, in Brownsboro, Madison County, Alabama:

This might be the stone for the husband of Maria Elizabeth (Potts) Brooks, since it is in the same cemetery as that of Maria, but the absence of data on the stone will necessitate additional research to confirm the identification.

In her letter dated August 18, 1988, Margaret S. Connally enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mariah Elizabeth Potts was a daughter of Alsey Ball (Wright) Potts and Calloway Potts, was born in February 1860 in Alabama, married Andrew L. Brooks on December 5, 1889, in Madison County, Alabama, that Andrew L. Brooks was born in March 1870 in Alabama, and that Mariah Elizabeth (Potts) Brooks and Andrew L. Brooks had the following child:

- 1) Nannie Brooks, born in December 1891 in Alabama.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Mariah Elizabeth (Potts) Brooks and Andrew L. Brooks was the following:

- 1) Nannie B. (Brooks) Woody, born in December 1891 or in about 1892 in Alabama.

- i. Nannie B. (Brooks) Woody And Her Husband Robert Andrew Woody

Nannie B. (Brooks) Woody was a daughter of Mariah Elizabeth (Potts) Brooks and Andrew L. Brooks. (1776 Augustine¹, 1847 Robert², Alsey Ball³, Mariah Elizabeth⁴)

The 1900 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Nannie Brooks in the Andy Brooks household on June 19, 1900, her relationship as daughter, and her birth in December 1891 in Alabama.

The 1910 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Nannie B. Brooks in the Andy Brooks household on June 26, 1900, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 18 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1892.

This record indicates that Mary Charlotte (Potts) McNeill was born in May 1862 and that George Andrew McNeil was born in September 1860. This record indicates that Sarah Matilda "Tildie" (Wright) Miller was born in about 1874 and that James H. Miller had died before April 2, 1930.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of S. A. Matilda Miller and James W. Miller in the Mount Vernon Cemetery, Waldo, Columbia County, Arkansas:

"S. A. Matilda	Gone	James W.
June 5, 1872	Home	June 28, 1862
Jan. 6, 1954		June 18, 1926

Miller"

Although the summary of the birth and death dates of James W. Miller listed his year of death as 1926 and the stone appears to have that date chisled in the stone, the image of the stone appears to have 1968 written over the 1926. It is unclear why the stone is so marked, but the 1930 Census would appear to make clear that James H. Miller died before 1930.

Although this record listed Mary's place of birth as Mississippi, this may have been a confusion with the place of birth of her first husband Robert Othneil Bailey and the census records set forth above make clear she was born in Alabama. The listing of Jonathan R. Wright as her father in conjunction with her date and place of birth identify Mary E. (Wright) (Bailey) Umbarger as the daughter of 1874 Jonathan R. Wright of Madison County, Alabama, and Sarah Ann "Sallie" (Potts) Wright.

The death record of R. O. Bailey was dated on September 27, 1940, in Merkel, Taylor County, Texas:

Alaskahistory.org published online the following article on Ira and Mattie (Mathison) Bailey:

"Ira S. Bailey was born in Mt. Vernon, Texas in 1890. As a young man he learned the trade of interior decorating and was practicing it when World War I broke out. He enlisted in the United States Army at Corsicana, Texas, serving from July 1917 to April 1919. Two weeks before he left for overseas duty, he married Mattie Mathison in Corsicana.

Mattie Mathison, who became a schoolteacher, was born in Texas on May 7, 1893. Her parents, Claude and Ida Mathison, moved from Texas to Hope, Alaska in 1901 in search of gold. Not having any luck in Hope, the family moved to Seward in 1904, then back to Texas later that year. After about a year, they returned to Alaska, landing in Unga on the Aleutian Chain, where Claude worked in a coal mine. They returned to Seward, staying until 1911. Then, Ida took the family back to Texas and lived there for the next seven years.

When Ira Bailey sailed for France, Mattie's mother took all of the Mathison family back to Seward. Mattie was pregnant at the time and the firstborn son, Ira S., Jr., was born in Seward in 1918. While serving in France, Ira rose to the rank of first sergeant in Battery B, 132nd Field Artillery. After World War I ended, Ira was discharged on April 10, 1919 and he immediately sailed for Seward, to rejoin the family.

Ira Bailey resumed his trade as a painter while in Seward and soon thereafter the Alaska Engineering Commission (AEC) hired him as a painter and then as a timekeeper. From 1920 until 1921, he worked for the Alaska Railroad in Seward, and then moved to Anchorage in 1922. He was appointed assistant fire chief in Anchorage in 1931 and held the position until his death. Ira was active as a baseball player and also manager of the local team. He organized the first Boy Scout troop in Anchorage under the auspices of the American Legion.

Ira Bailey died on November 25, 1937, and his widow was left with their five sons, Ira S., Jr., Robert, Albert, William and Warren, and one daughter, Lucille. Mattie worked for the Alaska Railroad during the summers of 1938 and 1939 and also taught school in Hope, Ellamar and Eagle.

The eldest son, Ira S., Jr., better known as Stan, and his first wife, Addie, had one daughter, Barbara Jean. Stan's second wife, Patricia, had five daughters from a previous marriage, and she and Stan had another daughter, Monica. Stan was a master mariner, and retired with 58 years' experience on Alaska waters, as well as in Panama and Russia.

Robert Bailey and his first wife, Grace, had one daughter, Michelle, and one son, Ira. With his second wife, Allene, Robert had three daughters, Alandra, Keri, and Jody. Albert Bailey was married three times. He and his first wife, Joanne, had a daughter, Susan; with his second wife, LaVerne, he had a son, Scott; and with his third wife, Jean, he had a daughter, Allison and a stepson, Ernie.

William Bailey and his first wife, Marilyn, had one son, William, and one daughter, Carolyn. He had no children with his second wife, Maggie. Warren Bailey and his first wife, Jackie, had two sons, Jeff and Robert. With his second wife, Sandy, he had one son, James, and one daughter, Lorri. There were also two stepchildren, Steve and Jayne. Lucille Bailey Gardner had no children.

Ira S. Bailey, Sr. is buried in the American Legion Tract, Anchorage Memorial Park Cemetery. Mattie Bailey died on September 1, 1977 in Los Angeles, California. Ira S., Jr. died in 1993, and Warren died in 1989."

j. 1951 Thomas Walker Wright Of Madison County, Alabama, His Wife Mary B. (Esslinger) Wright, And His Descendants
1951 Thomas Walker Wright of Madison County, Alabama, was a son of _____ and Sarah Ann "Sallie" (Potts) Wright. (Sarah Ann (Potts) Wright¹)

The 1880 Census for Madison County, Alabama, listed Thomas Wright in the Sarrah Wright household on June 9, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 3 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1877. Other records set forth below indicate that Thomas was born on January 13, 1877, or in January 1878 or in about 1879. As set forth above, Jonathan R. Wright died on March 8, 1874. This combination of records indicates that Thomas Wright was a son of Sarah Ann (Potts) Wright by someone other than Jonathan R. Wright, possibly a Walker from whom Thomas's middle name was taken.

Although apparently not a son of Jonathan R. Wright, Thomas was a son of Sarah Ann (Potts) Wright and therefore, the information found regarding Thomas Walker Wright is set forth below.

The marriage record of Thomas W. Wright and Mary B. Esslinger was dated on April 3, 1898, in Madison County, Alabama:

"The State of Alabama,

This was probably the marriage of William Wright, the son of Augustine Wright. There were only two William Wrights listed in the Personal Property Tax Lists for Amherst County, Virginia, at this time, the first William Wright, the son of William Wright, and the second William Wright, the son of Augustine Wright. The marriage record of William Wright, Jr., and Margaret Johnson was dated on November 21, 1787, at Amherst County, Virginia. There are several reasons for identifying this marriage as that of William Wright, the son of William Wright. First, William Wright, the son of William Wright, was older than William Wright, the son of Augustine Wright, and so the use of "Jr." in the marriage record suggests a reference to a father of the same name, rather than to an older/younger designation. Second, the marriage of the older William Wright would be expected to occur earlier than that of the younger William Wright. And third, as will be set forth below, the older William Wright continued to be listed in the Amherst County records after 1800, the younger William Wright was not so listed, and the 1810

Census for Nelson County listed the older William Wright with children whose ages are consistent with a 1787 marriage, but not a 1793 marriage.

The 1794 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was the son of William Wright (Amherst County) and the other of whom was William Wright (Tye river) with the following household on May 19:

Lynchburg, Virginia And Nelson County, Virginia Wills, Deeds And Marriages, 1807-1831 compiled by Reverend Bailey Fulton Davis stated that on September 26, 1808, at Nelson County, Virginia, Deed I/23 Jesse Mays executed a deed of trust to James Vigus and Robert Franklin as to 150 acres where he then lived to secure a debt due to James Murphy and Company.

Lynchburg, Virginia And Nelson County, Virginia Wills, Deeds And Marriages, 1807-1831 also stated that on August 28, 1809, at Nelson County, Virginia, W.B. A/46 an inventory and appraisement for Jesse Mays was filed.

Susannah Mays	2	16-26	1	45+
			2	16-26

This record indicates that Susannah (Wright) Mays was born before 1765.

Lynchburg, Virginia And Nelson County, Virginia Wills, Deeds And Marriages, 1807-1831 also stated that on June 25, 1810, at Nelson County, Virginia, W.B. A/114 an administrator's account of the estate dated November 2, 1809, was filed listing the names of Robert, Elisha, Austin, and Lewis Mays.

A/495 Susanna Mays qualified to administer the estate of Jesse Mays with James Edmunds and Lavender London as sureties. As will be shown below, Lavender London was Susannah (Wright) Mays' brother-in-law. This is clear and direct evidence that Susannah Wright, the daughter of Augustine Wright, was the wife of Jesse Mays.

The complaint in the case of Wright v. Wright dated probably May 16, 1817, and filed October 13, 1817, in File 1486, Superior Court of Law and Chancery, Lynchburg, Virginia, listed Susan Mays as an heir of Augustine Wright:

". . . He also states that together with the said Robert Wright; . . . Susan Mays formerly Susan Wright . . . are the Heirs & Representatives of Austin Wright dec'd. . . "

On May 16, 1817, in the case of Wright v. Wright at Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 1486, a summons was issued to the heirs of Augustine Wright to answer the complaint filed by Austin Wright:

On March 28, 1836, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, George S. Mays filed a complaint to enforce a judgement he had obtained against Moses J. Mays by enjoining the removal of the undivided interest of Moses J. Mays in the estate of Jesse Mays held by Susannah Mays:

"To the worshipful County Court of Nelson sitting in Chancery

Humbly complaining your orator George S. Mays respectfully showeth unto the Court, that some time in the year of 1834 your orator obtained a judgment against a certain Moses J. Mays who was at that time a resident of the County of Nelson for the sum of $14.47 with interest thereon from the 31st Decr 1832 till paid and costs 30 cents that some time in the year 1832 one John Dillard obtained a judgement against the said Moses for the sum of $14.98 with interest on the same from the 12th of Feby 1830 which was assigned to your orator of which assignment the said Moses had then & there notice all of which will be seen by reference to exhibits A & B herewith exhibited and prayed to be taken as a part of this file.

The said Moses has since left the commonwealth of Virginia and is now living without the jurisdiction of this Court: But has left an undivided interest in the estate of Jesse Mays who was his father, which interest amounts to one sixth part and which is now in the hands of Susannah Mays as the Extrix of the said Jesse and which belongs to her during her life and then to be divided among the children of the said Jesse of whom there are six to wit Daniel Mariah Johnson formerly Mays Wilson B. Moses J. James L. William Mays

Your orator charges that without the interposition of this court that interest may be removed from the commonwealth and he deprived of the means of making his debt aforesaid he therefore prays the interposition of this court, that the said Susannah Mays Extrix of Jesse Mays deceased and Moses J. Mays and Danl Benj Johnson & Mariah his wife Wilson B. James L. William Mays be made defendants to this bill that the said Susannah Mays Extr as aforesaid be enjoined from disposing of any part of that portion of the estate of the Moses J Mays now in her hands, that she render into court a true account of the same. That the said defendants be required to answer the allegations of this bill on oath, that an order of publication may be awarded against the absent defendant Moses, and the interest belonging to the said Moses J Mays may be subjected to the payment of the debt aforesaid & for all other and further relief as may be consistent with Equity & good conscience and in duty bound will ever pray &c

Question by the Pltff - State what you know or ever heard Mr Austin Wright in his life time say in relation to a negro girl Minerva - Whether he regarded her as his property absolutely or as being in his possession as a hireling to pay a debt which was due him from Moses J Mays -

Answer, I do not know of any bargain between my son Moses J Mays and Mr Austin Wright about the hire of Minerva. But she was in his possession and curiosity led me to enquire something about it and was told by Mr Wright that Moses J Mays was indebted to him and he held the Girl as security for that debt and when it was paid she was his and should be returned to him.

On December 1, 1840, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, James L. Mays and George S. Mays filed their bill for a division of the estate of Jesse Mays following the death of his widow Susannah Mays:

"To the worshipful the County Court of Nelson sitting in Chancery

Your orators James L. Mays and George S. Mays humbly complaining respectfully represent, that your orator James L. Mays and the defendants Daniel W Mays, Mariah Johnson formerly Mariah Mays, Moses J Mays, William W Mays and Wilson B. Mays are the children and legal heirs of a certain Jesse Mays and Susannah Mays, the first of whom departed this life many years ago intestate, that at the time of his death he left sundry slaves and other perishable property, and real estate, that after his death his wife Susannah took upon herself the administration of the estate, and after paying all the debts of the intestate proceeded to divide the land and negroes according to law among those entitled to distribution. Upon that division three slaves and one hundred and fifty acres of land fell to the said Susannah in right of her dower in the said estate, and each of the children at that time received their just and equal portions of the same. Since that division, some time during the last fall the said Susannah departed this life leaving the slaves and real estate which were allotted to her in right of her dower. By this event the said slaves and real estate now descend and pass to your orator James in his own right, and your orator George S Mays in right of Moses J. Mays who was one of the children of the said Jesse and Susannah Mays, William H. Mays who is a non resident of this commonwealth Benjamin Johnson in right of his wife Mariah and Wilson B Mays in his own right, and as the administrator of Susannah Mays the wife of the said Jesse who, your orators are advised, purchased the interest which Daniel W Mays had in the estate which fell to her in right of her dower, upon the division of the estate the said Jesse Mays, by which purchase that interest became the absolute property of the said Susannah, and subject to equal distribution among all her children. Your orator George S. Mays became entitled to the interest of Moses J. Mays by virtue of a purchase made by him, under a sale directed by a decretal order of this court pronounced at the suit of the said George S Mays against the said Moses J Mays on the ___ day of ____ all of which will seen by reference to the record and proceedings in that cause a copy of which is herewith filed marked A and prayed to be taken as part of this bill.

Your orators charge that in order to effect a division of the said slaves and real estate a sale will be necessary, there being five distributees and and three slaves, and the land being poor and not of sufficient value to divide to each distributee land worth $300. To the end that justice may be done in the premises, your orators pray that Benjamin Johnson and Mariah his wife, Daniel W Mays Wilson B. Mays in his own right and as the administrators of the said Susannah Mays deceased, William W. Mays and Moses J Mays the two last of whom are non residents of the commonwealth of Virginia be made defendants to this bill and answer the same on oath, that the commonwealth subpoena may be awarded against the home defendants and that an order of publication may be also awarded against the said William W Mays and Moses J Mays - That your worships would decree a sale and division of the said slaves according to the rights of the parties interested, and for all such other and further aid as may be consistent with Equity and good conscience and in duty bound will ever pray &c

- 5) William W. Mays. and
- 6) Wilson B. Mays.

On August 23, 1841, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, Moses J. Mays filed his answer to the complaint:

"To the worshipful Court of Nelson County in Chancery

Moses J Mays humbly complaining respectfully showeth that on the 28th March

1836 a certain George S Mays exhibited his bill in this Court against him as an absent defendant to which and the proceedings had under it the cause being non state defendants he here returns and prays that they may be considered by the Court. The bill charges that your orator owned certain interests in the estate of Jesse Mays in the hands of Susanna Mays his Satx.(?) On presentation the Court granted an Inj. against the said Susanna preventing her from parting with such Interest and an order of publication was directed against your Orator. This order not having been recorded at the May rules a new order of pub was made - the Cause was continued without further steps till the 25th Sept. 1837 when a decree was entered appointing J J Hargrove a Comr. to sell your Orators in the estate of the said Jesse mays for the benefit of the said George S mays and to pay to the said George the Amo mony(?) & Costs mentioned in the decree And the said Comr. is directed to report & the Cause was then continued til the 26th Augt. 1839 when an order is made stating the death of said Hargrove who his said was appointed a Comr. to sell the land &c and Hiram W JDawson is appointed a Comr. to execute the said decree. On the 28th Octo. 1839 the said Dawson reported that he had made the sale to George S Mays for eighty dollars. When the said report was confirmed with a decree per costs at which time it was stated that the said George had given Security &c

Your Petitioner states that the said Susanna Mays held an estate for life in _____ acres of land in the County of Nelson and in _____ slaves which had been assigned to her as for dower in the estate of Jesse Mays. The Owners was thereof being in your Orators and the five other persons mentioned in the bill. And it was this estate in reversion in this land and three slaves which the Pltff styles his interests in the estate of Jesse Mays.

He here shows to the Court that the whole proceeding was utterly erroneous, in this to wit first, that no proceeding was had to ascertain what this interest to which the Pltff sought to Interpret(?) consisted of, whether of land or personalty and if the latter of what character and to what amount.

Secondly, the case was never set for hearing or heard as to the home deft. or any inquiry made of him.

Thirdly, because the law required that to me day should be set apart either by the Court or at rules for your Petitioner to enter his appearance and give security for performing the decree which was not done.

fourthly, because the law required that a copy of the order for appearance and security should be posted at the front door of the Court house which was not done.

fifthly, because the law required preliminary to the decree of the 25th Sepr. 1837 and the same term otherwise Court that the Pltff should give bond & security for abiding with further order as the Court might make in the Cause, which was not done. Sixthly because the law required that before any sale should be made of any land or tenements belonging to an absent defendant an amount should be taken of the personal fund in the hands of the Court. And moreover that the sale should be decreed which said lands were valued by discount Commissioners for that purpose acting upon oath and the valuation returned to Court and untill the Pltff had given security in double the Value of the Land so value to perform the further orders or decrees of the Court, no part of which was done.

He moreover states that the said George S. Mays pretending to be the owner of all your Orators share in the said remainder under said erroneous, united with the other Tenants in Common, leaving your Orator entirely out of the question, and having presented their tale which is also chls(?) depending, they obtained a decree for the sale of the reversion in the said Land & slaves, appointing Harrod B Scott a Comr. who having made the sale reported it to the Court which was confirmed by the Court and at the last term of this court, in the absence and regardless of the rights of your Petitioner, they obtained an order authorizing said Scott to collect the proceeds of sale and distribute them giving to the said George S Mays your Orators share of realty and personalty.

This share as appears by the report of the sale amounts to upwards of Three hundred dollars which the said George should ___(?) taken for the two Judgmts rendered by a Justice of the peace referred to in his suit.

For all which reasons your Petitioner under the Act of Assembly in such causes made and provided begs to be permitted to enter his appearance in both said suits and to give such security as the Court may judge reasonable. And he prays that all the said decrees so erroneously entered in the first suit shall be set aside - that the decree entered in the second suit directing Mr. Scott to collect the proceeds of sale be set aside so far as his interests are concerned, that until he is properly before the Court the order decreeing the sale of the land to be confirmed & conveyance made be set aside - that the said cases may be reviewed, the errors corrected and justice done to him, and as in duty bound he will ever pray &c

filed 23 Aug. 1841."

On May 1, 1846, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, William W. Mays of Marion County, Kentucky, filed his answer to the complaint:

"To the Honorable Lucas P Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of law and Chancery for the County of Nelson

The separate answer of William W. Mays to a bill of complaint exhibited against himself and others in the county court of Nelson, by James L Mays and George S Mays, which suit is now depending in the Circuit Superiour Court of law and Chancery for said County having been removed thence from the Chancery side of said county court.

This Defendant reserving to himself the benefit of all and every just and necessary exception, which now, or at any other time hereafter might be taken to the said plttfs bill, for answer thereto, or as much thereof as he is advised it is material or proper for him to answer unto, answers & says,

That the allegations set forth in the plaintiffs bill, as far as he is advised, are true, and that the is one of the children and legal heirs of the said Jesse Mays and Susanna Mays, and was at the time of the filing of the said bill, a nonresident fo this common wealth, and has continued to be, and is now a nonresident, and therefore had no knowledge fo the said bill of complaint exhibited by the plaintiffs, nor as to the proceedings had thereon, and the disposition made of the estates therein named until within the last ____ months. He therefore allleges that upon recently making enquiry into the court house of said intestates estate, he is informed that the said county court of Nelson, did, on the 25th day of January 1841 by a decretal order, direct that the slaves and real estate mentioned in the plaintiffs bill, should be sold, in order to effectuate division among those entitled to distribution, and appointed one Harrod B Scott a commissioner to sell the same and report thereof to the court. That the said Scott in obedience to the authority vested in him by said decree of the court, did sell the said realty and personalty, for which he took bond and security from the purchasers, and made report thereof to the court. And that afterwards (to wit) on the 26th day of July 1841 the said County Court, by another decree, directed the said Scott to collect said bonds, and to distribute the proceeds thereof among those entitled to distribution: All of which your honor will observe by reference to the papers filed with the plaintiffs bill.

This Defendant further says that he has not received one cent of whatever he is entitled to, out of said Dower estate referred to in the plaintiffs bill, nor has he received any part of whatever he may be entitled to out of the separate estate of his mother Susanna Mays, and not having consented to the proceedings of said court, nor authorized any one else to consent to the same for him, and being of opinion that great injustice tohis just rights might result from the acts and management of the said Scott, he protests against the proceedings of said county court, and all those acting under its authority, so far as the said proceedings required his consent to the same; and he also protests against said proceedings, being binding upon him, or his right to one sixth part of said intestates estate, because it is required by law, that publication of notice to absent Defendants, to come forward and enter their appearance in a given time, shall be made in some public Newspaper within the commonwealth, two months successively, and that affidavit of such publication should be made by the publication thereof and filed in the cause, which was not done.

This Defendant further says that he is also informed, the said H B Scott now lives in Washington County State of Missouri and his is uninformed as to whether he has legally collected all, or any part of said bonds filed with his said report, nor whether he has legally distributed any part of the same if collected, to any of those entitled to distribution, but he is informed that some of the bonds remain uncollected, others partly collected, and that no deed has been executed to the purchaser of the said realty, and that it is not known, whether said Scott, has left the said bonds in the hands of any person in this commonwealth, and therefore the whole matter, is wrapped up in much mystery, doubt and uncertainty.

This Defendant therefore trusting to the wisdom and discretion of your honors court, asks its protection, and prays, that your honor may take such steps, as will ensure a proper and speedy settlement, of said Dower estate, and the said separate estate of the said Susanna Mays, to the end that the same may be properly divided among those entitled to distribution, and that strict justice may be dealt out to both parties, plaintiff and Defendants, and this Defendant having answered said bill, prays hence to be dismissed with his costs.

Oct 1, 1846

Floyd L. Whitehead Comr."

On May 10, 1847, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, the court entered its decree regarding the division and distribution of the dower and separate estate of Susannah (Wright) Mays:

"Mays vs Mays

The Defendant Benjamin Johnson having departed this life, the court doth order that his death be suggested of record; and it appearing that Mariah his wife, hath qualified as his administratrix the cause by consent is revived against her.

Thereupon this cause came on again to be heard upon the papers formerly read, and the report of Commissioner Whitehead, made in pursuance of the decretal order of the 2nd day of May 1846; exhibits since filed, the examination of witnesses, and was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof, and it appearing to the court, by the evidences in the case, that the report of the Commissioner Whitehead, is erroneous so far as it differs from the following facts, that is to say,

It appears that the gross amount of sales, as reported by Commissioner Scott, instead of being the sum of $1854.00, should have been $1800.75, the sum of $53.25 having been deducted from the sale of the land to Jordan, for a deficiency in the quantity of land, which was sold at $3.00 per acre. From which gross amount of $1800.75, should be deducted, the fee account and commissions of Scott, amounting to the sum of $102.70 and $33.30 retained by him to pay costs of suit; Which leaves a net ballance for distribution of $1664.75. But it appears that Scott did not collect from James L Mays, a purchaser at the sale, and one of the Pltffs in this suit $352.21 the ballance due upon his bond, so that the sum to be accounted for by Scott, amounts to $1312.54 as of the 22nd of August 1841. And it also appears by the report of the Commissioner Whitaker, that the said Scott, in money, and by orders upon the said James L Mays, and by cancelling the bond of Wilson B Mays, paid to the said Wilson, the sum of $343.60: to Benjamin Johnson & wife, the sum of $286.33 and to Moses J. Mays the sum of $285.52, all as of the 22nd of August 1841; amounting altogether, to the sum of $915.45, laeving a defalcation on the part of Scott of $397.09.

The court is of opinion therefore, under the circumstances of this case, and doth decide, that the said $397.09 shall be a common loss to all the parties interested. The result of which is, that after deducting the defalcation of said Scott, from the sum that ought to have been distributable, and dividing the share of Daniel W Mays into six parts, including himself (which is authorized by his certificate filed in the cause) it gives the sum of $246.48 to each of the five distributees, that is to say,

To James I Mays the sum of $246.48

To Wilson B Mays the sum of $246.48

To Moses J Mays the sum of $246.48

To William W Mays the sum of $246.48

To Benj Johnson & wife the sum of $246.48

To Daniel W Mays the sum of $35.26, it being the one sixth part of his share, which it is admitted, was purchased by Susanna Mays in her lifetime. And it appearing that James L Mays is still indebted on his bond as of the 22nd of August 1841, $352.21, subject to a deduction of $246.48, his distributable share, it is ordered that he pay to Orville Loving who is hereby appointed by the court a receiver in this case, the sum of $105.73, with interest from the 22nd day of August 1841 til paid, the ballance due from him. That Wilson B Mays having received $343.60 and being entitled to only $246.48, it is ordered that he pay to the said receiver, the sum of $97.12 with interest from the 22nd of August 1841 til paid, the ballance due from him. That Moses J Mays having received $285.52 and being entitled to only the sum of $246.48, it is ordered, that he pay to the said receiver, the sum of $39.04, with interest from the same 22nd of August 1841 till paid, the ballance due from him. And that Benjamin Johnson & wife having received $286.33 and being entitled to only $246.48, it is ordered that Mariah Johnson, the widow and administratrix of said Benjamin Johnson, decd out of the goods & chattels of her intestate, in her hands to be administered, do pay to the said receiver, the sum of $39.85, the ballance due from her intestate, with interest from 22nd of August 1841 till paid. Which said several amounts, when collected, the said receiver shall pay to the said William W Mays $246.48, with interest from the 22nd day of August 1841 till paid, it being his distributable share; and pay to Daniel W Mays, the sum of $35.26, it being the amount he is entitled to, out of the share sold by him to Susanna Mays decd.

The court is of opinion, and doth decide, that the cost of this suit, both as to Pltffs & Defendants, since the filing of the answer of William W Mays, shall be borne by the parties, one sixth of a sixth part thereof, by Daniel W Mays, and the residue, in equal portions by the other five parties, to wit, James L Mays, Wilson B Mays, Moses J Mays, William W Mays, and Mariah Johnson administratrix aforesaid. And the Clerk of the court is directed, after ascertaining and dividing the cost as aforesaid, to include in the executions which may be issued, the sums to be paid respectively by any debtor party, on the score of cash, to any creditor party; which sums the said receiver will disburse accordingly, and report his proceedings herein to the court.

It is further ordered, that this cause be retained upon the docket of the court, and liberty is reserved to the creditor parties, to resort back to the court, for further relief, in case any of the decree hereby given against the debtor parties, shall be returned unsatisfied."

Filed 1 Decr. 1840"

As set forth above, on October 1, 1846, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, the court appointed commissioner filed his report and account of the of the division and distribution of the dower and separate estate of Susannah (Wright) Mays. On May 10, 1847, in the same case the court entered its decree regarding the division and distribution of the dower and separate estate of Susannah (Wright) Mays and noted the death of Benjamin Johnson.

"Mays vs Mays

The Defendant Benjamin Johnson having departed this life, the court doth order that his death be suggested of record; and it appearing that Mariah his wife, hath qualified as his administratrix the cause by consent is revived against her.

These two records taken together indicate that Benjamin Johnson died between October 1, 1846, and May 10, 1847.

3. William W. Mays, His Probable Wife Elizabeth (Skinner) Mays And His Wives Hester (Plummer) Mays And Julina (Riney) Mays, And His Descendants

William W. Mays was a son of Susannah (Wright) Mays and Jesse Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah²)

As will be set forth below, the gravestone of William W. Mays located in the Mayes Chapel Cemetery, Lebanon, Marion County, Kentucky, stated that he moved in 1818 to Kentucky.

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of William Mays and Elizabeth Skinner on June 17, 1818, in Washington County, Kentucky:

"Name: William Mays
 Marriage Date: 17 Jun 1818
 Marriage Place: Washington, Kentucky, USA
 Spouse: Elizabeth Skinner"

This was probably the marriage of William W. Mays, the son of Jesse Mays and Susannah (Wright) Mays. As set forth above, William W. Mays was in Kentucky by 1818 and as set forth below, resided in Washington County, Kentucky, in a part that later became Marion County, Kentucky, and this marriage occurred in Washington County. However, further research will be required to confirm this identification.

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of William Mays and Hester Plummer on November 6, 1821, in Washington County, Kentucky:

"Name: William Mays
 Marriage Date: 6 Nov 1821
 Marriage Place: Washington, Kentucky, USA
 Spouse: Hester Plummer"

If the 1818 marriage was for William W. Mays, then this record indicates that Elizabeth (Skinner) Mays had died before Nov 6, 1821.

The 1830 Census for Washington County, Kentucky, listed William Mays with the following household:

On December 1, 1840, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, James L. Mays and George S. Mays filed their bill for a division of the estate of Jesse Mays following the death of his widow Susannah Mays which listed William W. Mays as a son of Jesse and Susannah Mays and a non-resident of Virginia:

Your orators James L. Mays and George S. Mays humbly complaining respectfully represent, that your orator James L. Mays and the defendants Daniel W Mays, Mariah Johnson formerly Mariah Mays, Moses J Mays, William W Mays and Wilson B. Mays are the children and legal heirs of a certain Jesse Mays and Susannah Mays, the first of whom departed this life many years ago intestate,

. . . .

Since that division, some time during the last fall the said Susannah departed this life leaving the slaves and real estate which were allotted to her in right of her dower. By this event the said slaves and real estate now descend and pass to your orator James in his own right, and your orator George S Mays in right of Moses J. Mays who was one of the children of the said Jesse and Susannah Mays, William H. Mays who is a non resident of this commonwealth Benjamin Johnson in right of his wife Mariah and Wilson B Mays in his own right, and as the administrator of Susannah Mays the wife of the said Jesse

Filed 1 Decr. 1840"

On May 1, 1846, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, William W. Mays of Marion County, Kentucky, filed his answer to the complaint:

"To the Honorable Lucas P Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of law and Chancery for the County of Nelson

The separate answer of William W. Mays to a bill of complaint exhibited against himself and others in the county court of Nelson, by James L Mays and George S Mays, which suit is now depending in the Circuit Superiour Court of law and Chancery for said County having been removed thence from the Chancery side of said county court.

This Defendant reserving to himself the benefit of all and every just and necessary exception, which now, or at any other time hereafter might be taken to the said plffs bill, for answer thereto, or as much thereof as he is advised it is material or proper for him to answer unto, answers & says,

That the allegations set forth in the plaintiffs bill, as far as he is advised, are true, and that the is one of the children and legal heirs of the said Jesse Mays and Susanna Mays, and was at the time of the filing of the said bill, a nonresident fo this common wealth, and has continued to be, and is now a nonresident, and therefore had no knowledge fo the said bill of complaint exhibited by the plaintiffs, nor as to the proceedings had thereon, and the disposition made of the estates therein named until within the last ____ months. He therefore alledges that upon recently making enquiry into the court house of said intestates estate, he is informed that the said county court of Nelson, did, on the 25th day of January 1841 by a decretal order, direct that the slaves and real estate mentioned in the plaintiffs bill, should be sold, in order to effectuate division among those entitled to distribution, and appointed one Harrod B Scott a commissioner to sell the same and report thereof to the court. That the said Scott in obedience to the authority vested in him by said decree of the court, did sell the said realty and personalty, for which he took bond and security from the purchasers, and made report thereof to the court. And that afterwards (to wit) on the 26th day of July 1841 the said County Court, by another decree, directed the said Scott to collect said bonds, and to distribute the proceeds thereof among those entitled to distribution: All of which your honor will observe by reference to the papers filed with the plaintiffs bill.

This Defendant further says that he has not received one cent of whatever he is entitled to, out of said Dower estate referred to in the plaintiffs bill, nor has he received any part of whatever he may be entitled to out of the separate estate of his mother Susanna Mays, and not having consented to the proceedings of said court, nor authorized any one else to consent to the same for him, and being of opinion that great injustice tohis just rights might result from the acts and management of the said Scott, he protests against the proceedings of said county court, and all those acting under its authority, so far as the said proceedings required his consent to the same; and he also protests against said proceedings, being binding upon him, or his right to one sixth part of said intestates estate, because it is required by law, that publication of notice to absent Defendants, to come forward and enter their appearance in a given time, shall be made in some public Newspaper within the commonwealth, two months successively, and that affidavit of such publication should be made by the publication thereof and filed in the cause, which was not done.

This Defendant further says that he is also informed, the said H B Scott now lives in Washington County State of Missouri and his is uninformed as to whether he has legally collected all, or any part of said bonds filed with his said report, nor whether he has legally distributed any part of the same if collected, to any of those entitled to distribution, but he is informed that some of the bonds remain uncollected, others partly collected, and that no deed has been executed to the purchaser of the said realty, and that it is not known, whether said Scott, has left the said bonds in the hands of any person in this commonwealth, and therefore the whole matter, is wrapped up in much mystery, doubt and uncertainty.

This Defendant therefore trusting to the wisdom and discretion of your honors court, asks its protection, and prays, that your honor may take such steps, as will ensure a proper and speedy settlement, of said Dower estate, and the said separate estate of the said Susanna Mays, to the end that the same may be properly divided among those entitled to distribution, and that strict justice may be dealt out to both parties, plaintiff and Defendants, and this Defendant having answered said bill, prays hence to be dismissed with his costs.

The will of George W. Glazebrook was dated on October 30, 1937, probated on August 3, 1943, in Marion County, Kentucky, W.B. 1-4/338, and provided as follows:

"I, George W. Glazebrook, of Penick, Marion County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, hereby make and declare this to be my true and last will and testament:

First - I direct that all my just debts be first paid.

Second - All the remainder of my property, real and personal, I will, bequeath and devise to my wife, Nannie Glazebrook, to be held, used and enjoyed by her so long as she lives, with the right and authority to sell and convey any real estate that I may own at the time of my death.

Third - At the death of my said wife, all of the property remaining and not consumed by her, I will and bequeath and devise in equal shares to my seven children, Roy Glazebrook, Uriah S. Glazebrook, Susie G. Richards, Effie G. Lankford, Lesta G. Veatch and Marie G. Collier.

Fourth - I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Nannie Glazebrook Executrix of this will and direct that she be permitted to qualify as such without surety upon her bond.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand, this the 30, day of Oct, 1937 -

G. W. G Glazebrook

Subscribed in our presence by George W. Glazebrook, at whose request and in whose presence we have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses while in the presence of each other. This 30 day of October 1937.

Florence Mattingly -

At a Special term of the Marion County Court, held in and for said County on the 2 day of August, 1943, the foregoing paper purporting to be the last will and Testament, of G. W. Glazebrook was this day produced in open court and proven by the testimony of Florence Mattingly, one of the attesting witnesses thereto it being proven that the other attesting witness to same, James M. Huber, is now dead.

Thereupon the Court being advised, ordered and directed that said paper be ordered to record as the law will and testament of said decedent, G. W. Glazebrook, which is accordingly done. Whereupon I have recorded it, and this certificate -

Given under my hand this 3 day of August, 1943 -

I. M. Gray, Clerk, M. C. C."

The attorney preparing the will apparently did not notice that he had listed only 6 of the 7 children referred to in the will.

Harrison W. Brown, 68 years old, well known farmer and stockman of the county, died at his home on the Mays Chapel Road yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock of pneumonia. He had been ill only a few days and his death comes as a shock to everyone.

A native of this county, Mr. Brown was born January 24, 1866, a son of Marion and Susan Mays Brown, both deceased. He received his education at Loventhal School and St. Joseph's College in Bardstown. In 1897 he was united in marriage to Miss Cordie Christie of this county, who survives him. No children were born to this union. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. George Glazebrook of this county.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Bosley Funeral Home by the rev. W. S. Bolles. Special services will be conducted by the Knight Templar. The pallbearers will be members of the Lebanon Masonic Lodge. Interment will be in Mays' Chapel Cemetery."

George Monarch Mays, 71, well known farmer, who had been in bad health for some time, died suddenly of a heart attack at noon last Friday at his home in the Penick section, seven miles east of Lebanon. While his condition was not known to be serious, he had been much better in recent weeks, and his passing came as a shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Mays was a lifelong resident of the county, born here on February 21, 1878, a son of Andrew J. and Kate England Mays, both deceased. On August 16, 1903, he was united in marriage to Miss Ethel Marple, the ceremony taking place in the Lebanon Baptist Church. In his youth, he united with Mays Chapel Methodist Church and was a faithful member through the years.

Surviving are his wife and three sons, W. Smith Mays, A. Jack Mays, and J. Ray Mays, all of this county. Seven grandchildren also survive, Smith, Jr, Gerald, Arthur, Ray, Jack, Jr., Joseph Dalton, and Miss Betty Ray Mays. The late W. G. Mays was a brother.

The remains were taken to the Bosley Funeral Home and on Saturday were removed to the Mays residence. Funeral services were conducted at Mays Chapel by the pastor, Rev. D. A. Payton. Burial was in the church cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Howard Sapp, Howard Helm, Allen Helm, McElroy Crawford, Mose Tatum and Herbert Clark."

On or about December 24, 1838, in the case of Mays v. London at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1852-016, Moses J. Mays filed a complaint to recover the slave Minerva and her children on the grounds that she was not sold but merely mortgaged to Austin Wright:

"To the Honbl. Lucas P. Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Nelson

Moses J Mays humbly complaining respectfully shewith, that on or about the year 1825 or 1826 he put into the possession of his Uncle Austin Wright of the County of Nelson a negro slave named Minerva which belonged to him and who was at that time about ____ years of age: The said Austin Wright was to hold her as a security or pledge for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars which your Orator owed him and so continued to hold her up to the date of his death which happened in the year 1838.

He states that during the time she has been in the possession of the said Austin Wright she has had two children, whose names are unknown to your Orator: And he also states that during the whole period of time she has been held by the said Austin she has been worth hire and that this hire would far exceed the legal interest upon the said one hundred and fifty dollars and would by a fair compensation discharge the principal also. So that your Orator is now entitled to the return of his negress the debt and interest for which they was pledgd. being paid - but should it be so that the whole debt has not been paid your Orator is willing to redeem his negress by paying whatever may be justly due.

But the said Austin Wright having departed this life and having first made and published his last Will and Testament probat whereof has been duly had in the County Court of Nelson by which ____ a certain Lavender London was appointed Executor and qualified as such. The said slave Minerva and her Two children have come to the hands of the said Lavender London by whom they are now held and who refuses to restore them to your Orator: Your Orator is informed an charges that the transaction aforesd is in Equity a mortgage and that he has a right to redeem his said property by paying whatever is justly due - which he is willing to do if upon a proper account to be taken of the hires of the negro aforesaid and it should turn out that any thing was due

To the End therefore that your Orator may have that justice to which he is entitled may it please your Honor to make the said Lavender London Executor of Austin Wright decd. Defendant to this Bill; And to decree that a proper Account be taken of the debt aforesaid and its interest and of the hires and profits of said slave; and that your Orator be permitted to redeem his said negress by paying whatever is justly due and if nothing is due that they with all future increase of the said Minerva be delivered up to him discharged of said mortgage. And may it please your Honor to grant your Orator all other & proper aid & relief

On April 29, 1839, in the case of Mays v. London, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1852-016, Lavender London filed his answer to the complaint of Moses J. Mays denying the claim that the sale of Minerva was actually a mortgage:

"To the Hon. Lucas P. Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Nelson

The separate answer of lavender London to a bill of complaint exhibited against him and another in said Court by Moses J Mays.

This defendant reserving to himself the benefit of all Just and necessary exceptions which now or at any time hereafter might be taken to said plaintiffs bill, for answer thereto saith That he admits the death of said Austin Wright, the publication of his last will and testament of which a true copy is exhibited with said bill, and this defendants appointment and qualification as Executor thereof.

This defendant admits the purchase of said slave Minerva by his testator from the plaintiff and a the price stated, and that since said purchase she has been delivered of two children. But this defendant denies that there was any condition in said purchase, that she was pledged as a surety for the loan of money or any thing else, but the sale was absolute and unconditional. This defendant states this not only from the declarations of the plaintiff to this defendant but from the absolute character of the bill of sale executed by said plaintiff to the said Austin Wright which is herewith exhibited as part of this answer marked, C, which is unconditional upon its face.

And this defendant having fully answered said bill prays hence to be dismissed with his costs &c.

This record identifies Moses Jackson Mays as a nephew of both Lavender London and Elijah Mays. As set forth below, Lavender London married Jane Wright, the sister of Susannah (Wright) Mays.

On May 2, 1840, in the case of Mays v. London, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1852-016, Susan Mays gave her deposition:

"The Deposition of Susan Mays taken at the house of Wilson B Mays in the County of Nelson on the 2d day of May 1840 to be read as evidence in the trial of a Cause depending and undetermined in the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Nelson between Moses J Mays Plaintiff and Lavender London Executor of Austin Wright decd Defendant -

Question by the Pltff - State what you know or ever heard Mr Austin Wright in his life time say in relation to a negro girl Minerva - Whether he regarded her as his property absolutely or as being in his possession as a hireling to pay a debt which was due him from Moses J Mays -

Answer, I do not know of any bargain between my son Moses J Mays and Mr Austin Wright about the hire of Minerva. But she was in his possession and curiosity led me to enquire something about it and was told by Mr Wright that Moses J Mays was indebted to him and he held the Girl as security for that debt and when it was paid she was his and should be returned to him.

This record indicates that Moses Jackson Mays was born between 1790 and 1800 and that Harriet (Allen) Mays was born between 1810 and 1820.

On December 1, 1840, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, James L. Mays and George S. Mays filed their bill for a division of the estate of Jesse Mays following the death of his widow Susannah Mays which listed Moses J. Mays as a son of Jesse and Susannah Mays:

Your orators James L. Mays and George S. Mays humbly complaining respectfully represent, that your orator James L. Mays and the defendants Daniel W Mays, Mariah Johnson formerly Mariah Mays, Moses J Mays, William W Mays and Wilson B. Mays are the children and legal heirs of a certain Jesse Mays and Susannah Mays, the first of whom departed this life many years ago intestate,

. . . .

Since that division, some time during the last fall the said Susannah departed this life leaving the slaves and real estate which were allotted to her in right of her dower. By this event the said slaves and real estate now descend and pass to your orator James in his own right, and your orator George S Mays in right of Moses J. Mays who was one of the children of the said Jesse and Susannah Mays, William H. Mays who is a non resident of this commonwealth Benjamin Johnson in right of his wife Mariah and Wilson B Mays in his own right, and as the administrator of Susannah Mays the wife of the said Jesse

Filed 1 Decr. 1840"

On August 23, 1841, in the case of Mays v. Mays at Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1847-024, Moses J. Mays filed his answer to the complaint:

"To the worshipful Court of Nelson County in Chancery

Moses J Mays humbly complaining respectfully showeth that on the 28th March 1836 a certain George S Mays exhibited his bill in this Court against him as an absent defendant to which and the proceedings had under it the cause being non state defendants he here returns and prays that they may be considered by the Court. The bill charges that your orator owned certain interests in the estate of Jesse Mays in the hands of Susanna Mays his Satx.(?) On presentation the Court granted an Inj. against the said Susanna preventing her from parting with such Interest and an order of publication was directed against your Orator. This order not having been recorded at the May rules a new order of pub was made - the Cause was continued without further steps till the 25th Sept. 1837 when a decree was entered appointing J J Hargrove a Comr. to sell your Orators in the estate of the said Jesse Mays for the benefit of the said George S Mays and to pay to the said George the Amomony(?) & Costs mentioned in the decree And the said Comr. is directed to report & the Cause was then continued til the 26th Augt. 1839 when an order is made stating the death of said Hargrove who his said was appointed a Comr. to sell the land &c and Hiram W JDawson is appointed a Comr. to execute the said decree. On the 28th Octo. 1839 the said Dawson reported that he had made the sale to George S Mays for eighty dollars. When the said report was confirmed with a decree per costs at which time it was stated that the said George had given Security &c

Your Petitioner states that the said Susanna Mays held an estate for life in _____ acres of land in the County of Nelson and in _____ slaves which had been assigned to her as for dower in the estate of Jesse Mays. The Owners was thereof being in your Orators and the five other persons mentioned in the bill. And it was this estate in reversion in this land and three slaves which the Pltff styles his interests in the estate of Jesse Mays.

He here shows to the Court that the whole proceeding was utterly erroneous, in this to wit

first, that no proceeding was had to ascertain what this interest to which the Pltff sought to Interpret(?) consisted of, whether of land or personalty and if the latter of what character and to what amount.

Secondly, the case was never set for hearing or heard as to the home deft. or any inquiry made of him.

Thirdly, because the law required that to me day should be set apart either by the Court or at rules for your Petitioner to enter his appearance and give security for performing the decree which was not done.

fourthly, because the law required that a copy of the order for appearance and security should be posted at the front door of the Court house which was not done.

fifthly, because the law required preliminary to the decree of the 25th Sepr. 1837 and the same term otherwise Court that the Pltff should give bond & security for abiding with further order as the Court might make in the Cause, which was not done. Sixthly because the law required that before any sale should be made of any land or tenements belonging to an absent defendant an amount should be taken of the personal fund in the hands of the Court. And moreover that the sale should be decreed which said lands were valued by discount Commissioners for that purpose acting acting upon oath and the valuation returned to Court and untill the Pltff had given security in double the Value of the Land so value to perform the further orders or decrees of the Court, no part of which was done.

He moreover states that the said George S. Mays pretending to be the owner of all your Orators share in the said remainder under said erroneous, united with the other Tenants in Common, leaving your Orator entirely out of the question, and having presented their tale which is also chls(?) depending, they obtained a decree for the sale of the reversion in the said Land & slaves, appointing Harrod B Scott a Comr. who having made the sale reported it to the Court which was confirmed by the Court and at the last term of this court, in the absence and regardless of the rights of your Petitioner, they obtained an order authorizing said Scott to collect the proceeds of sale and distribute them giving to the said George S Mays your Orators share of realty and personalty.

This share as appears by the report of the sale amounts to upwards of Three hundred dollars which the said George should ___(?) taken for the two Judgmts rendered by a Justice of the peace referred to in his suit.

For all which reasons your Petitioner under the Act of Assembly in such causes made and provided begs to be permitted to enter his appearance in both said suits and to give such security as the Court may judge reasonable. And he prays that all the said decrees so erroneously entered in the first suit shall be set aside - that the decree entered in the second suit directing Mr. Scott to collect the proceeds of sale be set aside so far as his interests are concerned, that until he is properly before the Court the order decreeing the sale of the land to be confirmed & conveyance made be set aside - that the said cases may be reviewed, the errors corrected and justice done to him, and as in duty bound he will ever pray &c

On March 7, 1842, in the case of Mays v. London, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1852-016, Lavender London gave his deposition:

"Deposition of witnesses produced, sworn and examined on the 7th day of March in the year of our lord eighteen hundred and forty two between the hours of 6 o'clock in the morning and sunset of the same day at the house of Napoleon B Tapscott in the County of Monroe and state of Missouri before me William N Penn a Justice of the peace within and for the County aforesaid in a certain cause now depending in the Circuit Superior Court of law and chancery for the County of Nelson and state of Virginia in which Moses J Mays is plaintiff and Lavender London executor of Austin Wright Decd. with others defendant on the part of the defendant Napoleon B Tapscott here deposeth & saith

1st Question of Lavender London by his attorney

You will state whether or not you were acquainted Moses J Mays formerly of Nelson County Virginia and what was his pecuniary condition at the time he left Virginia and before - Answer

I was well acquainted with Mr Mays and while I knew him he was generally hard run for money and owned but very little property I cannot say anything regards his situation when or about the time he left Virginia having myself left the County of Nelson before he did.

2nd Question by the same

You will state whether you ever heard said Mays say any thing in reference to a negro girl Minerva sold by said Mays to Austin Wright; if so state the substance of the conversation the time and the place; Answer

Sometime in June or July 1834, I bought Mesrs Susannah Jackson & Wilson B Mays crop Tobacco and shortly after the purchase Austin Wright came to the Variety Mills in the County of Nelson (where I then lived and done business for Mesrs Brown & Hargrove) and wanted to know of me whether Jackson Mays had mad any arrangement for me to pay him some money. I told him he had not some few weeks after this (from the best of my recollection) I saw Jackson Mays and enquired what portion out of money his Tobacco he intended paying Mr Wright he observed that he intended the best portion of it to go Wright and remarked it was to release a negro girl he had pawned with him (Wright) from the best of my recollection this conversation took place at the Variety Mills and at this time I had paid Mays little or no money towards the crop Tobacco but some few days afterwards, several orders were presented me from Mays some on his own account and others on account his mother Susannah Mays all of which I accepted & paid some of which I think were in favor of Geo. Mays and probably Norborn Patteson After I had paid or accepted these orders and perhaps some verbal acceptances I saw Mays again and observed what he intended me to pay Mr. Wright and whether or not he had authority to command provend(?) of all the money arising from the Tobacco he told me he had sold the girl to Mr Wright and that I might hold the balance of the money subject to his order and then I think verbally requested me to pay John Thompson Jr. Trustee & admr of John Thompson thirty Dollars in part for rent and to take a receipt for the same which I did I am not able to say when the conversation took place with surety but think it was at the Septr Circuit Court of Nelson - that is the day on which I paid Mr Thompson the money

This record indicates that Harriet (Allen) Mays was born in about 1820. However, this would make her about 9 years old when she married and so probably in incorrect.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Moses Jackson Mays and Harriet (Allen) Mays were the following:

- 1) Lucy Elizabeth (Mays) Rhodes, born in about 1825 or 1828 or 1829 in Virginia,
 - 2) Archelous G. Mays, born in about 1832 or in February 1833 or in about 1834 in Virginia,
 - 3) Leanah (Mays) Dillard, born in December 1834 in Virginia,
 - 4) Susannah Mays, born in about 1842 in Arkansas,
 - 5) Martha Jane Mays, born in about 1843 or 1844 in Arkansas,
 - 6) Alexander James Mays, born in about 1848 or in June 1852 in Arkansas,
- and
- 7) Emaline Mays, born in about 1851 in Arkansas.

- a. Lucy Elizabeth (Mays) Rhodes, Her Husband Raiford Riley Rhodes, And Her Descendants

Lucy Elizabeth (Mays) Rhodes was a daughter of Moses Jackson Mays and Harriet (Allen) Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah², Moses Jackson³)

Arkansas Marriages, 1837-1944, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Elisabeth Mays and Raiford R. Rhodes on September 17, 1847, in Clark County, Arkansas:

This record indicates that Lucy Elizabeth (Mays) Rhodes was born in about 1825 and that Raiford Riley Rhodes was born in about 1810.

The 1850 Census for Clark County, Arkansas, also listed Elizabeth Mays in the Moses J. Mays household on October 25, 1850, and her age as 20 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1830.

It is unclear why Elizabeth Mays would still be listed in the Moses Jackson Mayse household in 1850 after her marriage to Raiford Riley Rhodes in 1847 and their listing in the 1850 Census for Carroll County, Arkansas. The explanation may be that the census taker for the Moses Jackson Mays household was inadvertently given the names of all the children of the family rather than the children still living in the household in 1850.

On April 2, 1860, at BLM AR1360_.425 Riley R. Rhodes patented 40 acres of land in Clark County, Arkansas, described as the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 25, T 5 S, R 23 W.

Findagrave.com also listed a gravestone for Mrs. R. R. Rhodes in the Moore Cemetery, Cabana, Carroll County, Arkansas:

"Mrs. R. R. Rhodes

Since Raiford Riley Rhodes married Lucy Elizabeth Mays in 1847 when he was 36 or 37 years old, this may be a gravestone for a prior wife, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The 1870 Census for Clark County, Arkansas, listed Elizabeth Rhodes with the following household on September 7, 1870:

This record indicates that Lucy Elizabeth (Mays) Rhodes was born in about 1832. The absence of Raiford Riley Rhodes from the household indicates that he had died before September 7, 1870, and the birth of Augustus Rhodes in about 1867 indicates that Raiford Riley Rhodes had died after about 1866.

As set forth above, Columbus Mays was a son of Archelous G. Mays and Sarah (Rowland) Mays. In her Genforum for Mays posting dated February 28, 2008, Edith M. Ochs posted two orders, the first a Clark County, Arkansas, Chancery Court Order from the estate of Christopher C. Mays dated June 2, 1939, and the second a Clark County, Arkansas, Probate Court Order from the estate of Christopher C. Mays dated September 4, 1940. The two orders taken together identify the heirs of Christopher Columbus Mays and, therefore, the descendants of Archelous G. Mays:

First Order:

"Order: Now on this 2nd day of June 1939 is presented to the court the petition of George Spraggin Dews as Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased, which petition is in words and figures as follows to-wit:

Comes the Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased and shows to the court:

That at the time of the death of the said Christopher C. Mays he had a United States Government policy of insurance in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to himself. That upon his death the Veterans Administration awarded the insurance to his seven full brothers and sisters and one half brother (James Reed Mays) and one half sister (Mary Jane Mays Wilson), each being awarded a one ninth share of $6.38 per month payable over a term of 20 years. The insurance being awarded to these heirs as distributees and not as designated beneficiaries. That one of said distributees, Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney a sister of the said Christopher C. Mays died during the year 1934 and that payments to her were stopped at that time. Another of said distributees William Mays died during the year 1935 and payments to him were stopped at that time; that another of said distributees J. Reed Mays died during the year 1936 and payments to him were stopped at that time; and that another of said distributees Andrew Mays died during the year 1937 and payments to him were stopped at that time.

Heirs at the time of death: Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays; Andrew Mays; Charlie Lee Mays; Alfred E. Ewing Mays; Mary Jane Wilson; Grover C. Mays; Betsie Barbara Elizabeth Mays.

That the commuted value of the unpaid installments due each of said deceased distributees is as follows:

Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney $292.00

William Mays 259.00

J. Reed Mays 178.00

Andrew Mays 106.00

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That the funds now in the Administrator's hands consists entirely of the commuted value of the installments which would have been paid the said Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays and Andrew Mays had they lived the full term of the policy of insurance. That the said deceased distributees have left children and heirs some of whom are grown and some of whom are minors.

That one of the living brothers of Christopher C. Mays has been out considerable time and expense in getting information serviceable to the Administrator in making the proof necessary to collect the money awarded by the United States Veterans Bureau. That your petitioner has found such a complex situation in regard to the heirs and distributees that he felt the need of an attorney to help him handle said estate and that there will be considerable more detail work in working out an equitable distribution of the money paid.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that he be allowed commissions of 10% of the amount received, that he be authorized to pay to Grover C. Mays of Nashville, Arkansas the sum of $25.00 for services rendered the Administrator.
Probate, Clark County, State of Arkansas

"Order: Now on this 2nd day of June 1939 is presented to the court the petition of George Spraggin Dews as Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased, which petition is in words and figures as follows to-wit:

Comes the Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased and shows to the court:

That at the time of the death of the said Christopher C. Mays he had a United States Government policy of insurance in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to himself. That upon his death the Veterans Administration awarded the insurance to his seven full brothers and sisters and one half brother (James Reed Mays) and one half sister (Mary Jane Mays Wilson), each being awarded a one ninth share of $6.38 per month payable over a term of 20 years. The insurance being awarded to these heirs as distributees and not as designated beneficiaries. That one of said distributees, Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney a sister of the said Christopher C. Mays died during the year 1934 and that payments to her were stopped at that time. Another of said distributees William Mays died during the year 1935 and payments to him were stopped at that time; that another of said distributees J. Reed Mays died during the year 1936 and payments to him were stopped at that time; and that another of said distributees Andrew Mays died during the year 1937 and payments to him were stopped at that time.

Heirs at the time of death: Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays; Andrew Mays; Charlie Lee Mays; Alfred E. Ewing Mays; Mary Jane Wilson; Grover C. Mays; Betsie Barbara Elizabeth Mays.

That the commuted value of the unpaid installments due each of said deceased distributees is as follows:

Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney $292.00

William Mays 259.00

J. Reed Mays 178.00

Andrew Mays 106.00

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That the funds now in the Administrator's hands consists entirely of the commuted value of the installments which would have been paid the said Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney;

William Mays; J. Reed Mays and Andrew Mays had they lived the full term of the policy of insurance. That the said deceased distributees have left children and heirs some of whom are grown and some of whom are minors.

vi. Moses K. Mays

Moses K. Mays was a son of Archelous G. Mays and Sarah J. (Rowland) Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah², Moses Jackson³, Archelous

G.⁴)

The 1880 Census for Clark County, Arkansas, listed Moses K. Mays in the Archleaus Mays household on June 14, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 1 and born in Arkansas, indicating a date of birth in about 1879.

vii. Charles Lee Mays, His Wives Willie Jane (Emory) (Smith) (Mays) Chittenden And Mamie Corinne (Ivey) Mays, And His Descendants

Charles Lee Mays was a son of Archelous G. Mays and Sarah J. (Rowland) Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah², Moses Jackson³, Archelous G.⁴)

The 1900 Census for Clark County, Arkansas, listed Charles L. Mays in the Arch G. Mays household on June 27, 1900, his relationship as son, and his birth in October 1881 in Arkansas.

The 1900 Census for Hot Spring County, Arkansas, listed Willie J. Smith in the Docter T. Smith and Sintha A. Smith household on June 12, 1900, her relationship as daughter, and her birth in June 1896, in Arkansas.

Charles Lee Mays has not as yet been found in the 1910 Census.

The 1910 Census for Hot Spring County, Arkansas, listed Willia Emory in the Thomas Bright and Sentha A. Bright household on April 26, 1910, her relationship as step-daughter, and her age as 14 and born in Arkansas, indicating a date of birth in about 1896.

The following records help to sort the complicated background of Willie Jane's mother. The 1900 Census for Hot Spring County, Arkansas, listed Docter T. Smith and Sintha A. Smith as married 3 years with daughter Willie J. Smith, born in June 1896, and son Andrew L. Smith, born in March 1899. As set forth below, the death record of Willie Jane (Smith) Chittenden, her gravestone, and U.S., Social Security Applications and Claims Index, 1936-2007 all listed Willie Jane's birth as on June 13, 1895.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Doctor Topper Smith in the Mazarn Chapel Cemetery, Bonnerdale, Hot Spring, Arkansas, and his death on June 19, 1901.

Arkansas, County Marriages Index, 1837-1957 listed the marriage of Cynthia Calhoun, age 33, and Thomas Bright, age 47, on April 7, 1908, in Garland County, Arkansas.

The 1910 Census for Hot Spring County, Arkansas, listed the following in the Thomas Bright and Sentha A. Bright household on April 26, 1910:

- 1) Willia Emory, her relationship as step-daughter and born in about 1896,
- 2) Andrew Smith, his relationship as step son and born in about 1900, and
- 3) Virginia Calhoun, her relationship as step-daughter and born in about 1905.

The 1920 Census for Hot Spring County, Arkansas, listed Thomas Bright and Cynthia A. Bright with among other children Georgia V. Calhoun. Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Georgia Virginia Calhoun Davis in the Greenwood Memorial Park, Renton, King County, Washington, and stated that she was the daughter of William E. Calhoun and Cynthia Ann Buck Calhoun and was born on January 1, 1905, in Hot Spring County, Arkansas. Findagrave.com also listed the gravestone of Cynthia Ann Buck Bright in the Mazarn Chapel Cemetery, Bonnerdale, Hot Spring County, Arkansas. Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Ernest Calhoun in the Evergreen Memorial Park, East Wenatchee, Douglas County, Washington, and included a biography which stated that William Ernest married Cynthia Ann Buck on February 4, 1904, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, and had one child Georgia Virginia Calhoun, and that William Ernest and Cynthia Ann were divorced on January 29, 1907.

These records taken together indicate that Cynthia Ann (Buck) (Emory) (Smith) (Calhoun) Bright had the following relationships: first, Cynthia Ann Buck was probably married to ____ Emory or had a non-marital relationship with ____ Emory and had daughter Willie Jane Emory on June 13, 1895, or in June 1896; second, Cynthia Ann married Doctor Topper Smith in about 1897, had son Andrew L. Smith in March 1899, resided in 1900 in Hot Spring County, Arkansas, and was widowed in 1901 when Doctor Topper Smith died; third, Cynthia Ann married William E. Calhoun on February 4, 1904, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, had daughter Georgia Virginia Calhoun on January 1, 1905, and divorced on January 29, 1907; and fourth, Cynthia Ann married Thomas Bright on April 7, 1908, in Garland County, Arkansas, and had further children.

However, it is possible that Willie Jane (Smith) Emory was the daughter of Doctor Topper Smith and used the surname Emory in 1910 for some unknown reason. As set forth below, the death record of Willie Jane listed her father as Dock Smith and she was listed in records with both surnames Emery and Smith

"Order: Now on this 2nd day of June 1939 is presented to the court the petition of George Spraggin Dews as Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased, which petition is in words and figures as follows to-wit:

Comes the Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased and shows to the court:

That at the time of the death of the said Christopher C. Mays he had a United States Government policy of insurance in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to himself. That upon his death the Veterans Administration awarded the insurance to his seven full brothers and sisters and one half brother (James Reed Mays) and one half sister (Mary Jane Mays Wilson), each being awarded a one ninth share of $6.38 per month payable over a term of 20 years. The insurance being awarded to these heirs as distributees and not as designated beneficiaries. That one of said distributees, Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney a sister of the said Christopher C. Mays died during the year 1934 and that payments to her were stopped at that time. Another of said distributees William Mays died during the year 1935 and payments to him were stopped at that time; that another of said distributees J. Reed Mays died during the year 1936 and payments to him were stopped at that time; and that another of said distributees Andrew Mays died during the year 1937 and payments to him were stopped at that time.

Heirs at the time of death: Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays; Andrew Mays; Charlie Lee Mays; Alfred E. Ewing Mays; Mary Jane Wilson; Grover C. Mays; Betsie Barbara Elizabeth Mays.

That the commuted value of the unpaid installments due each of said deceased distributees is as follows:

Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney $292.00
William Mays 259.00
J. Reed Mays 178.00
Andrew Mays 106.00

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That the funds now in the Administrator's hands consists entirely of the commuted value of the installments which would have been paid the said Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays and Andrew Mays had they lived the full term of the policy of insurance. That the said deceased distributees have left children and heirs some of whom are grown and some of whom are minors.

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That one of the living brothers of Christopher C. Mays has been out considerable time and expense in getting information serviceable to the Administrator in making the proof necessary to collect the money awarded by the United States Veterans Bureau. That your petitioner has found such a complex situation in regard to the heirs and distributees that he felt the need of an attorney to help him handle said estate and that there will be considerable more detail work in working out an equitable distribution of the money paid.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that he be allowed commissions of 10% of the amount received, that he be authorized to pay to Grover C. Mays of Nashville, Arkansas the sum of $25.00 for services rendered the Administrator.

"Name: Arch Mays
Gender: Male
Spouse: Sarah J Roland
Child: Grover Cleveland Mays "

In her Genforum for Mays posting dated February 28, 2008, Edith M. Ochs posted a Clark County, Arkansas, Chancery Court Order from the estate of Christopher C. Mays dated June 2, 1939, which identified Grover C. Mays as a sibling of Christopher Columbus Mays and, therefore, a child of Archelous G. Mays:

"Order: Now on this 2nd day of June 1939 is presented to the court the petition of George Spraggin Dews as Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased, which petition is in words and figures as follows to-wit:

Comes the Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased and shows to the court:

That at the time of the death of the said Christopher C. Mays he had a United States Government policy of insurance in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to himself. That upon his death the Veterans Administration awarded the insurance to his seven full brothers and sisters and one half brother (James Reed Mays) and one half sister (Mary Jane Mays Wilson), each being awarded a one ninth share of $6.38 per month payable over a term of 20 years. The insurance being awarded to these heirs as distributees and not as designated beneficiaries. That one of said distributees, Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney a sister of the said Christopher C. Mays died during the year 1934 and that payments to her were stopped at that time. Another of said distributees William Mays died during the year 1935 and payments to him were stopped at that time; that another of said distributees J. Reed Mays died during the year 1936 and payments to him were stopped at that time; and that another of said distributees Andrew Mays died during the year 1937 and payments to him were stopped at that time.

Heirs at the time of death: Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays; Andrew Mays; Charlie Lee Mays; Alfred E. Ewing Mays; Mary Jane Wilson; Grover C. Mays; Betsie Barbara Elizabeth Mays.

That the commuted value of the unpaid installments due each of said deceased distributees is as follows:

Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney $292.00
William Mays 259.00
J. Reed Mays 178.00
Andrew Mays 106.00

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That the funds now in the Administrator's hands consists entirely of the commuted value of the installments which would have been paid the said Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays and Andrew Mays had they lived the full term of the policy of insurance. That the said deceased distributees have left children and heirs some of whom are grown and some of whom are minors.

In her Genforum for Mays posting dated February 28, 2008, Edith M. Ochs posted two orders, the first a Clark County, Arkansas, Chancery Court Order from the estate of Christopher C. Mays dated June 2, 1939, and the second a Clark County, Arkansas, Probate Court Order from the estate of Christopher C. Mays dated September 4, 1940. The two orders taken together identify Andrew J. Mays as a sibling of Christopher Columbus Mays and, therefore, a child of Archelous G. Mays and also as the husband of Ellen Mays who later married A. W. Finney:

First Order:

"Order: Now on this 2nd day of June 1939 is presented to the court the petition of George Spraggin Dews as Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased, which petition is in words and figures as follows to-wit:

Comes the Administrator of the estate of Christopher C. Mays, deceased and shows to the court:

That at the time of the death of the said Christopher C. Mays he had a United States Government policy of insurance in the amount of $10,000.00 payable to himself. That upon his death the Veterans Administration awarded the insurance to his seven full brothers and sisters and one half brother (James Reed Mays) and one half sister (Mary Jane Mays Wilson), each being awarded a one ninth share of $6.38 per month payable over a term of 20 years. The insurance being awarded to these heirs as distributees and not as designated beneficiaries. That one of said distributees, Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney a sister of the said Christopher C. Mays died during the year 1934 and that payments to her were stopped at that time. Another of said distributees William Mays died during the year 1935 and payments to him were stopped at that time; that another of said distributees J. Reed Mays died during the year 1936 and payments to him were stopped at that time; and that another of said distributees Andrew Mays died during the year 1937 and payments to him were stopped at that time.

Heirs at the time of death: Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays; Andrew Mays; Charlie Lee Mays; Alfred E. Ewing Mays; Mary Jane Wilson; Grover C. Mays; Betsie Barbara Elizabeth Mays.

That the commuted value of the unpaid installments due each of said deceased distributees is as follows:

Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney $292.00
William Mays 259.00

J. Reed Mays 178.00
Andrew Mays 106.00

That the United States Veterans Bureau required an administration on the estate of Christopher C. Mays and hence your petitioner was appointed Administrator of his said estate and as such administrator has had paid to him by the United States Government the sum of $835.00 which he now holds.

That the remaining five of the original distributees according to the best information obtainable by your petitioner did receive the monthly payments of $6.38 awarded them until the end of the term of the policy. That the funds now in the Administrator's hands consists entirely of the commuted value of the installments which would have been paid the said Mrs. Rhoda Lucinda Finney; William Mays; J. Reed Mays and Andrew Mays had they lived the full term of the policy of insurance. That the said deceased distributees have left children and heirs some of whom are grown and some of whom are minors.

Second Order:

"First And Final Settlement Of George S. Dews, Administrator Of Christopher C. Mays

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Elizabeth Mays as the same person as Elizabeth "Bettie" (Mays) Bright, but circumstantial evidence and secondary evidence indicates that identification is correct. The date of birth, place of birth, and place of residence in 1919 indicate these two persons were the same and a posting by a relative in 2001 stated they were the same person. Accordingly, the information that has been found on Elizabeth "Bettie" (Mays) Bright and her husband Isaac Dozier Bright is set forth below.

This record indicates that Alexander James Mays was born in about 1851. The absence of Margaret J. (Garner) Mays from the household indicates that she may have died before May 3, 1910, but the record indicates that Alexander James Mays was married and not widowed, which is inconsistent with Margaret J. (Garner) Mays' death before that date and further research will be required to determine the date of death of Margaret J. (Garner) Mays.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Alexander James Mays and Margaret J. (Garner) Mays were the following:

- 1) Melvina (Mays) Howell, born in November 1873 or in about 1874 in

Arkansas,

- 2) Susan H. (Mays) Garner, born in about 1876 or 1877 in Arkansas,
- 3) Martha Adeline "Addie" (Mays) Partridge, born on September 10, 1883, or in about 1884 or in September 1885 or in about 1886 in Clark County, Arkansas, and
- 4) Lee Anna E. (Mays) Fagin, born on October 5, 1887, or on October 5, 1889, or in November 1889 or in about 1890 or 1891 in Clark County, Arkansas.

- iii. Cora Blanch (Mays) Tinsley, Her Husband Charles M. Tinsley, And Her Descendant

Cora Blanch (Mays) Tinsley was a daughter of James Wesley Mays and Julia Ann (McBride) Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah², Wilson B.³, James Wesley⁴)

The 1880 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Cora Mays in the J. W. Mays household on June 17, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 4 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1876.

The 1880 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Charlie Tinsley in the Stephen Tinsley household on June 2, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1870.

Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Cora B. Mays and Charles M. Tinsley on February 20, 1895, in Bedford County, Virginia:

"Name:	Charles M. Tinsley
Gender:	Male
Marital Status:	Single
Birth Place:	Amherst Co., VA

Age:	19
Birth Date:	1876
Father:	James W. Mays
Mother:	Julia Mays
Marriage Date:	20 Feb 1895
Marriage Place:	Bedford Co., VA
FHL Film Number:	0030597
Reference ID:	2:3VPM4G8"

Virginia, Deaths And Burials Index, 1853-1917, available from FamilySearch, listed the death of Cora B. Tinsley on December 19, 1897, in Bedford County, Virginia:

"Name	Cora B. Tinsley

Death Place	Bedford, Virginia
Age	19
Birth Date	1878
Marital Status	Married
Spouse's Name	Charles M. Tinsley
Father's Name	J. W. Mays
Mother's Name	Julia Mays"

Although this record indicates the year of death as 1897, the gravestone indicates the year of death was 1895. The birth of her daughter Cora Blanch Tinsley on December 20, 1895, indicates that Cora Blanch (Mays) Tinsley died shortly after childbirth and so the 1895 year of death would be the correct year.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Cora Blanch Mays, wife of Charles M. Tinsley, in the Pleasant View Baptist Church Cemetery, Forest, Bedford County, Virginia:

"Cora Blanch
Mays
Wife of
Chas. M. Tinsley

This record indicates that James L. Mays and Rosanna (Wright) Mays were born in about 1802. The listing of Susannah (Bibb) Wright in this household indicates that she was probably related to the heads of the household and given the marriage record of Rosanna Wright to James L. Mays, this record indicates that Rosanna (Wright) Mays was probably a daughter of John Wright and Susannah (Bibb) Wright. However, James L. Mays was also a nephew of Susannah (Bibb) Wright and, therefore, may have been the family connection to Susannah (Bibb) Wright. But as set forth below, James L. Mays and Rosanna (Wright) Mays named one of their children Robert Bibb Mays, which indicates a connection to Susannah (Bibb) Wright and supports the identification of Rosanna (Wright) Mays as the daughter of John Wright and Susannah (Bibb) Wright.

iii. James Hersey Mays, His Wife Annie (Mays) Mays,
And His Descendants

James H. Mays was a son of Marcellus Hersey Mays and Martha A. (Scruggs) Mays. (1776 Augustine¹, Susannah², James L.³, Marcellus Hersey⁴)

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Clarence Mays in the Marcellus Mays household on June 10, 1880, and his age as 7 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1873. No further record of a Clarence Mays has as yet been found and given the date of birth, this was probably the birth record of James Hersey Mays.

The 1900 Census for Hartford County, Connecticut, listed James H. Mays in the Bruce F. Smith household on June 4, 1900, his relationship as cousin, his birth in February 1873 in Virginia, his marital status as single, and his occupation as electrician. This record also listed John E. Mays in the same household. The similarity of birth dates indicates that Clarence Mays of the 1880 Census was the same person as James Hersey Mays.

Virginia, Marriages, 1785-1940, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of James H. Mays and Annie Mays on May 26, 1909, at Richmond, Virginia:

"Name	James H. Mays
Birth Date	1872

Virginia Births And Christenings, 1853-1917, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the birth of Ludella Mays, daughter of M. H. and Martha A. Mays, on August 10, 1873, at Amherst County, Virginia:

Mary "Polly" (Wright) Pamplin, as a daughter of 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County and Alice or Aley (Ball) (Wright) Edmunds. (1776 Augustine¹)
