INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work Jesse Wright (Amherst County)is Part XVIII of the project.

The material for this project is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second is the descendants charts, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices have been published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Botetourt, Campbell, Cumberland, Essex, Franklin, Montgomery, Nelson, Prince Edward, Roanoke, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia, the City of Lynchburg and the City of Roanoke, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future. The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County" indicates that this was the Augustine Wright who died in 1776 in Amherst County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky". A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 100,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, flashdrives, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list. Special thanks go to Karen A. Wright and Jayne Dunn who unselfishly shared their extensive research on this family without which this work would have been much less complete. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

XVIII. Jesse Wright (Amherst County), His Wives Susannah (Harper) Wright And Rachel (Welch) Wright, And His Descendants

The parents of Jesse Wright (Amherst County) have not as yet been identified, but a number of family connections have been identified.

First, as will be set forth below, Jesse Wright's son Lindsey Wright had a son Augustin or Augustus Wright, born in about 1800 in Virginia. That name suggests a family connection to 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County. That 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County was probably a brother or related to 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, and 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, but documentation to confirm that relationship has not as yet been found.

Second, Jeffrey Mason Wright is a descendant of Jesse Wright and as set forth below and in the descendants chart, his line of descent is as follows:

- 1st Generation: Jesse Wright (Amherst County, Virginia),
- 2nd Generation: 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright,
- 3rd Generation: Harrison M. Wright,
- 4th Generation: 1883 William Henry Wright of Sullivan County, Missouri,
- 5th Generation: 1945 William Braxton Wright of St. Louis, Missouri,
- 6th Generation: 2002 Wayne Braxton Wright of St. Louis, Missouri, and
- 7th Generation: Jeffrey Mason Wright.

Jeffrey Mason Wright has participated in the Wright DNA Project, his Kit is #113672, and his Y-DNA sequence is as follows:

Location	Number

Jeffrey's sequencing indicates that he is in Haplogroup R-M269, Group 4, on the Wright DNA Project Chart of Results found at:

<https://www.familytreedna.com/public/Wright?iframe=yresults>.

These results mean that Jesse Wright (Amherst County) had an as yet unidentified common Wright ancestor with the others in that Group 4, which includes the following Wright lines:

1) Robert Wright, Sr., (Campbell County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part V, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1246610?availability=Family%20History%20Library>,

2) William Wright (Amherst County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part VIII, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1787439?availability=Family%20History%20Library>,

3) 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVII, which is not yet available online for downloading,

4) 1791 John Wright of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, the material on whom is in still in draft form and available from the author,

5) probably 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XV, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807583?availability=Family%20History%20Library>, and

6) probably 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVI, available online for downloading at:

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807585?availability=Family%20History%20Library>.

Although these results mean that further research and Y-DNA testing will be required to identify the parents of Jesse Wright (Amherst County), the large number of separate families with a common Wright ancestor bodes well for the success of that research.

The remainder of this work will set forth the documentation that has been found relating to Jesse Wright, his wives Susannah (Harper) Wright and Rachel (Welch) Wright, and his descendants.

The marriage record of Jesse Wright and Susanah Harper, spinster, was dated on January 6, 1773, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"I do hereby certify that it is by my consent that Jesse Wright Take a licence & likewise i agree to have him given under my hand this fifth Day of Jany 1773

Susanah Harper

Know all men by these presents that we Jessie Wright & William Welch are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign lord King Geo the third by the Grace of God &c in fifty pounds Current money, to be paid to our sd Lord the King his Heirs & Successors To which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our Heirs Exors & Administrators Jointly and Severaly firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals & dated this Sixth Day of January 1773

Where there is a marriage suddenly Intended to be Solemnised between the above named Jessie Wright & Susana Harper Spinster the Condition of the present Obligation is such that if the be no lawful cause to Obstruct the same

Then this Obligation to be Void else go remain In full force

Test
Benjamin Taliaferro

Jesse Wright
Wm Welch"

If Jesse Wright was at least 18 years of age at the time of marriage, then his date of birth would be probably before 1756. If Susannah Harper was at least 16 years of age at the time of marriage, then her date of birth would be probably before 1758.

The Deeds Of Amherst County, Virginia, 1761-1807, And Albemarle County, 1748-1763, by The Rev. Bailey Fulton Davis, stated that on April 13, 1780, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. E/225 Jesse Wright acted as a witness to a deed from Jonathan Harper to Edmund Wilcox for 270 acres of land on the south side of Tye River.

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Jesse Wright with the following household:

_____	_____	Whites	Negroes	Cattle	Horses &c

The marriage record of Jesse Wright, widower, and Rachel Welch was dated on April 6, 1784, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"Know all Men by these presents that We Jessee Wright & Roderick McCulloch of Amherst County are held and firmly Bound to the Commonwealth of Virginia in the Sum of Fifty pounds To which payment well and truly to be made to the sd

_____ We bind ourselves Each of us our heirs Exors & Admors Jointly & Severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals and Dated this Sixth Day of April 1784

The Condition of the above Obligation is Such that Whereas there is a marriage Shortly Intended to be Solemnized Between the above Bound Jessee Wright Widower and Rachael Welch Spinster If there be no Lawfull Cause to obstruct the said Marriage Then the above Obligation to be Void otherwise to Remain in full force

Signed Sealed & Deld)	Jessee Wright
Richd Taliaferro	Roderick McCulloch
C Taliaferro Junr"

The reference to Jesse Wright as a widower indicates that this was the marriage record of Jesse Wright, Sr., (Amherst County) following the death of his first wife Susannah (Harper) Wright. The listing of William Welch as a surety on Jesse Wright's marriage bond to Susannah Harper is additional circumstantial evidence for this marriage as a second marriage for Jesse Wright, Sr. (Amherst County).

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Jesse Wright with the following household:

These two listings appear to be for the same family with a slight difference in age for one of the children. Both indicate that Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright were born between 1765 and 1784. And these records indicate that Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright had at least five sons by 1810. Since their marriage was in 1799, the oldest son would have been born in about 1800 and the remaining four sons would have been born between 1801 and 1810.

This record indicates that Lindsey Wright was born between 1780 and 1790, which would be later than the other census records. However, since the female of the household was listed as born between 1770 and 1780, consistent with prior censuses, this may have been a mis-listing of the age by one column and his age should have been listed as 6 to 70, giving a date of birth between 1770 and 1780.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2, compiled by the Trimble County Historical Society, listed the following court order dated October 11, 1847, at Court Order Book 1/486:

"Lindsay Wright & wife a pauper in hands of W. L. Wright $20.00"

The W. L. Wright of this record was probably Dr. Wesley J. Wright, a grandson of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, and as set forth above, based on Y-DNA matching, a distant cousin of Lindsey C. Wright.

The 1848 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, also listed Lindsey Wright with the following household:

Persons Names	Lindsay Wright

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2, compiled by the Trimble County Historical Society, listed the following court order dated October 9, 1848, at Court Order Book 1/534:

The 1849 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Lindsay Wright with the following household:

Persons Names	Lindsay Wright

The affidavit for this tax list stated that it was returned to the clerk on June 30, 1849.

The 1850 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, did not list Lindsey C. Wright. The affidavit for this tax list stated that it was returned to the clerk on May 28, 1850.

The 1850 Census did not list a Lindsay or Lindsey Wright of the appropriate age in any state. However, the 1850 Census for Clark County, Indiana, listed Elizabeth Wright in the Augustus Wright household on August 13, 1850, and her age as 76 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1774. This record in conjunction with the 1849 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, indicates that Lindsey C. Wright probably died between June 30, 1849, and August 13, 1850, and probably in Trimble County, Kentucky.

Henry County, Kentucky, W.B. 9 for the period 1847 to 1852 does not list any probate administration for the surname Wright.

The 1852 Tax List for Henry County, Kentucky, did list a Lindsey Wright, but with 1 horse and 2 children between the ages of 5 and 16, which is inconsistent with the prior listings set forth above for Lindsey C. Wright. This Lindsey Wright has not as yet been identified.

In his letter dated July 12, 1998, Wayne B. Wright stated that Harrison M. Wright was possibly a son of Lindsey Wright, based on the proximity of his residence to Lindsey Wright and the naming of one of his sons Lindsey H. Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright were the following:

- 1) Augustin or Augustus or Austin "Austin" Wright, born in about 1800 in Virginia,
- 2) _____ Wright, a son, born between 1800 and 1804,
- 3) _____ Wright, a son, born between 1800 and 1804,
- 4) Wyatt Wright, born in about 1807 in Kentucky,
- 5) Probably George Washington Wright, born in about 1808 in Kentucky,
- 6) Harrison M. Wright, born in about 1810 in Kentucky and probably in Henry County,
- 7) _____ Wright, a son, born between 1815 and 1820,
- 8) Probably Bennett Wright, born in about 1816 or 1817 in Kentucky, and
- 9) _____ Wright, a son, born between 1820 and 1825 or in about 1820.

1. Augustin Or Augustus Or Austin Wright, His Wife Martha "Patsy" (Ford) Wright, And His Descendants

Augustin or Augustus or Austin Wright was a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been located identifying Augustin or Augustus or Austin Wright as a son of Lindsey C. Wright. However, the circumstantial evidence indicates such an identification. As set forth below, the birth of Augustus Wright in 1800 in Virginia would be consistent with the birth of the first child of Lindsey Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright, who were married in 1799. The marriage of Augustin Wright and Martha "Patsy" Ford in 1821 in Henry County, Kentucky, is consistent with the residence of Lindsey Wright in 1820 in Gallatin County, Kentucky. Henry County is very near to Gallatin County and both Henry County and Gallatin County were formed from Shelby County. The 1823 deed for the sale of personal property from Lindsey C. Wright to Austin Wright indicates a family relationship. The presence of an Elizabeth Wright born in 1774 in Virginia in the Augustus Wright household in 1850 in Clark County, Indiana, is consistent with the birth of Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright between 1770 and 1775 in Virginia, the residence of Lindsey C. Wright in 1849 in Trimble County, Kentucky, which is immediately across the Ohio River from Clark County, Indiana, and the death of Lindsey C. Wright between June 30, 1849, and the date of that census. The conclusion seems fair that Augustin or Augustus or Austin Wright was a son of Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright.

The remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found regarding Augustin or Augustus or Austin Wright.

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Linsey Wright with nine males in his household in addition to himself, three and possibly four of whom were born between 1794 and 1804.

Kentucky, Compiled Marriages, 1802-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Aryinston Wright and Patsy Ford on October 20, 1821, in Henry County, Kentucky:

"Name:	Aryinston Wright
Marriage Date:	20 Oct 1821
Marriage Place:	Henry, Kentucky, USA
Spouse:	Patsy Ford"

No image of the marriage record was provided. Although his name was listed as Aryinston, this was apparently a misreading of Augustine.

In her Rootsweb posting dated September 19, 1999, Jayne Dunn stated that Augustin Wright married Patsy Ford in 1821 in Henry County, Kentucky, and resided in 1850 in Clark County, Indiana.

This record indicates that Robert Wright was born in August 1822 and that Nancy Ann (Harbin) Wright was born in July 1833.

When Clark County Was The Cement Center Of The United States stated as follows with regard to Clark County, Indiana:

"In 1900 there were 13 different cement mills in operation in Clark County, turning out over 2½ million barrels of cement – the peak year of production of the hydraulic or natural cement which was at that time the county's leading industrial product.

Today the old hydraulic cement has been replaced by the quicker-setting Portland cement which spelled the end of the numerous small mills which once dotted the Clark County countryside.

Hydraulic cement was made from a special type of limestone which needs only to be ground and burned to produce the cement. Clark County is one of the few places in the United States where this stone is found and the local deposits are the most extensive known anywhere in the country. It was only natural that Clark County should lead in cement manufacturing. But when Portland cement was developed, it meant the end of the hydraulic cement. Portland cement is a synthetic mixture of the elements which go into cement, and once the process was perfected it meant cement could be manufactured in all parts of the nation.

The discovery of the natural cement in the Falls Cities area was made about 1826 when the Portland Canal at Louisville was being excavated, and soon after the same limestone formations were found in Clark County. The first cement mill on the Indiana side of the Ohio River was in Clarksville operated by Lawson Very who had built a flour mill in 1832 along the river. But in the middle 1840s, with an eye to the future, he switched to cement production, quarrying the limestone along the riverbank.

The cement industry did not hit its full stride until after the Civil War, however. The second mill, the Falls City, was built in 1866 near Sellersburg and in the years following, mills sprung up rapidly around there and near Charlestown. The Speed Mill was also built in 1866 and the Gheen's Mill was opened in 1868 near what was to become the village of Cementville. The Queen City Mill was opened in 1869 near Watson.

While new mills were being opened in other parts of the county, the old Very Mill was sold to William Beach shortly after the Civil War and was operated for years as the Beach Mill. Other familiar names of mills were the Black Diamond, the Hoosier, the Golden Rule, the K & I, the United States, the Clark County, the Glove, the Banner and the Ohio Valley. Near Charlestown were the Haymaker and the Standard Mills, both opened in the 1890s.

Many of the mills were centered about Cementville, a town which grew up around the special freight yard the Pennsylvania Railroad built to handle the cement cars. Some cement workers lived at Cementville, but most of them made their homes in the clusters of little houses which grew up around each mill. At the peak of hydraulic cement production in Clark County over 1,000 were employed in the mills and in the nearby quarries, and trainloads of the finished product were shipped out to all parts of the United States.

The Louisville Cement Company, which operated the Speed Mill, was the only one of the mills to switch over to the manufacture of Portland cement. It was the largest of the old hydraulic cement plants, but its owners realized they would have to meet competition from the new product. The smaller mills were unable to afford the expensive machinery required for the mixing and fine grinding of the Portland cement, and one by one they dropped from the scene. By 1910 only three mills were in operation, and soon only the Speed Mill was left. The Silver Creek limestone from which the hydraulic cement was made is still quarried, however, and is used today by the Louisville Cement Company to blend with its Portland output.

Elsewhere, ruins of old kilns still remain here and there, and a recent subdivision on U.S. 31-E is named Black Diamond Heights, reviving the name of the nearby old Black Diamond Mill which has been closed 65 years. And the old quarries are still put to good use. The quarry of the Falls City Mill provides swimming and boating facilities for summer-time guests at Camp Chelan, owned by the Young Women's Christian Association of Louisville, and the Black Diamond quarry is a favorite spot for many Clark County fishermen.

In testimony whereof, I Charles P. Ferguson Clerk of the Clark Circuit Court, hereunto subscribe my name, and affix the seal of said court this 8 day of Decr 1853.

Charles P. Ferguson Clk

Be it further remembered, that on this 20 day of Decr 1853, the following certificate was filed in my office, to-wit:

Indiana, To-wit: Clark County,

This certifies that I joined in marriage as husband and wife Wm J. Wright and Mary J Moon on the 31st day of Novr 1853.

E. G. Wood, Minister of the Gospel"

Although the date of marriage was listed as November 31, since the license was issued on November 29 and the return was filed in December, this seems clearly to be a transcription error of the clerk mixing the number of days in November and December and the marriage was probably on November 30.

The birth record of ____ Wright, son of W. J. Wright and Mary J. Moon, was dated on September 16, 1856, in Oldham County, Kentucky:

This record indicates that William J. Wright was born in about 1828 and that Mary J. or Louisa (Moon) Wright was born in about 1829. The listing of Louisa Wright as the wife of William J. Wright is inconsistent with the marriage and birth records set forth above listing her name as Mary J., but as set forth below, both the given name Mary J. and the given name Louisa were alternately used by the wife of William J. Wright.

This record indicates that William J. Wright was born in about 1830 and that Mary J. or Louisa (Moon) Wright was born in about 1835. The presence of William's sisters Elizabeth Wright and Jane Wright in this household confirms the identity of this William J. Wright as the son of Augustin and Martha (Ford) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of William J. Wright and Mary J. or Louisa (Moon) Wright were the following:

- 1) Margaret Wright, born in about 1854 in Kentucky,
 - 2) Harry Wright, born on September 16, 1856, in Oldham County, Kentucky,
- and
- 3) Sallie B. Wright, born in about 1860 in Kentucky.

There is a marriage record for Silas M. Wright and Ella Neal dated on September 10, 1870, in Charlestown, Clark County, Indiana. However, there were two Silas Wrights born in about 1848 in Kentucky, one of whom lived in Clark County, Indiana, in 1860 and the other of whom married in 1870 in Clark County, Indiana. This 1870 marriage record was not for Silas Wright, the son of Augustin and Martha Wright, but for Silas Malcolm Wright, the son of Lavira J. and Minerva J. Wright. The 1860 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed S. Malcolm Wright in the L. J. and Minerva J. Wright household on June 20, 1860, and his age as 10 and born in Kentucky. The 1870 Census for Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, listed Malcolm Wright in the Lavira J. and Minerva Wright household on July 28, 1870, and his age as 20 and born in Kentucky. The death record of Silas Malcolm Wright dated on June 13, 1932, in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, listed his father as Lavira M. Wright, his birth on February 14, 1848, in Hardin County, Kentucky, and his wife as Ella Neill Wright. These three records confirm that the Silas M. Wright who married Ella Neal was the son of Lavira J. and Minerva J. Wright.

The 1870 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, listed Silas Wright in the William J. Wright household on August 3, 1870, his age as 27 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1843, and his occupation as blacksmith. This may have been the brother of William J. Wright, but more probably was his cousin Silas M. Wright, the son of Bennett Wright, for two reasons. First, Silas Wright, the brother, was born in about 1847 or 1848 while Silas Wright, the cousin, was born in about 1840 or 1843 or 1844 or 1846 and those earlier dates of birth fit the Silas in this record. And second, Silas Wright, the cousin, was also known as Silas M. Wright and no record of Silas Wright, the brother, has as yet been found which listed him with a middle initial M.

2. Wright

 Wright was a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

On February 11, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 19,465 Lockey Ann Malinda Bailey filed the following affidavit in support of that application and describing her first marriage to William Henry Wright:

On this 11th day of February, 1918, at Hillsboro, county of Fountain, State of Indiana, before me, F. L. Churchill, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Lockey A. M. Bailey, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 73 years of age.

Ques. How many times have you been married?

Ans. Just twice. My first husband was William Henry Wright. I married him in Rockville, Ind. on April 1, 1875. I was about thirty years old when we were married. I had never been married before that, I lived with him about two years.

William H. Wright drew a pension when I was living with him. I think that he got twelve dollars a month. I do not know what his service was. I do not know where he was raised, but he had an aunt and some cousins who lived on Sugar Creek, northeast of Rockville. The aunt was Polly Wright, and her children were Henry, Mattie and some others, whose names I do not remember. I was up to his aunt's place not long after we were married. Mattie Wright was sick at the time, and she died. Henry Wright is now dead. He was a deaf and dumb man. I do not know the names of William H. Wright's parents, and do not know whether he had a brother or sister.

This record indicates that William Henry Wright was a nephew of Polly (____) Wright whose children were Henry Wright and Mattie Wright and that Mattie Wright died shortly after Lockey's marriage in 1875. This is the family of Wyatt Wright, whose wife was Mary Ann (Welch) Wright and whose children included Henry J. Wright, who was deaf and dumb, and Martha J. Wright, the latter of whom died in about 1875 and before June 1, 1880. The result is that this record identifies Wyatt Wright as an uncle of William Henry Wright and thus a brother of William Henry Wright's father Harrison M. Wright and thus a son of Lindsey C. Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Wyatt Wright and Mary Ann (Welch) Wright were the following:

- 1) Sarah Elizabeth (Wright) Lough, born on July 14, 1837, or in about 1838 or 1839 in Indiana,
- 2) Lindsay or Lindsey Daniel Wright, born in November 1840 or in about 1841 in Indiana,
- 3) Henry J. Wright, born in October 1842 or on October 7, 1843, or in about 1844 or 1845 in Putnam County or Parke County, Indiana,
- 4) Newton Wright, born in about 1845 in Indiana, and
- 5) Martha J. Wright, born in September 1849 or in January 1850 in Indiana.

Around 1860 their young family of four moved to Minnesota. Reuben was a Union soldier in the Civil War. By 1866, they were living in Scott County where they raised a family that eventually grew to include seven children.

The "Jordan Independent," of March 30th, 1893 reporting on the sad occasion of Sarah's death wrote,

"No one could have been present at the services last Tuesday and failed to notice the deep sorrow which pervaded that large audience.

In the words of the poet,
 'None knew thee but to love thee,
 Nor named thee but to praise.'

Sarah was "a kind and tender hearted woman, whose cheerful manner made lasting friends of all of whom she came in contact."

County" history booklet published by the McLeod County Historical Museum. According to census records, he lived with his sister, Mary Alline (Lough) Walker and her husband, Hiram Laraway Walker, for a time. By 1885 when he was 16, Barton lived with his parents and siblings across the Minnesota River from Glendale in the town of Jordan, Scott County Minnesota. Barton is the first husband of Sarah "Sallie" Alice (Hyde) Carlson. A 1905 census shows Barton, wife Sallie and their first child, daughter Elsie, were living in northeast Minneapolis, MN(1). A few years later, they homesteaded in the sparsely populated ranch country of northwestern South Dakota, south of the small town of Meadow in Meadow Township, Perkins County(2). In 1913, Sallie and Elise had a close call with the harsh winter climate which was recorded in the regional news: "Losing their way in the dark, Mrs. Barton Lough and 7-year-old daughter, Elsie, of Meadow, narrowly escaped death by freezing. They attended a literary society meeting in a school house several miles from their home and wandered all night over the prairie in the 10 below zero cold." -Dakota Farmers' Leader(3). Findagrave.com listed the following obituary of Henry J. Wright dated September 15, 1903, from the Crawfordsville Daily Journal:

"Another victim was added to the already long list that death has claimed in the dangerous gravel pits in the death yesterday of Henry Wright, residing two and one-half miles southwest of Alamo. Mr. Wright was engaged in hauling gravel from the gravel pit located on the farm of John Ammerman, near Alamo. Several teams were engaged in hauling but at the time of the accident none of them were present, and it was at least two hours before Mr. Wright was found. The pit is quite deep and in the slide Mr. Wright was buried to a depth of four or five feet. The rear of the wagon was also buried but the horses did not suffer. As soon as the accident was discovered willing hands at once started to uncover the unfortunate man, but it required several hours hard work and not until late in the evening was the body found. The coroner was summoned and found Mr. Wright's neck broken, his back and lower limbs were also broken in several places, the body and face being horribly bruised and cut.

Mr. Wright was a man fifty-nine years of age, well know in the vicinity of Alamo. He was born in Howard Township, Parke county, living on his father's farm until he entered the school for deaf mutes in Indianapolis, graduating about the end of the civil war. Mr. Wright was industrious and a great favorite in his old neighborhood. When forty years of age he married Mrs. Etter, also a deaf mute. Three children survive him, one of them being a deaf mute. The funeral will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, the Rev. Mr. Whitmore officiating. Interment in the Alamo cemetery.

5. Probably George Washington Wright, His Wife Mary "Polly" A. Or Brown (Horrel Or Herrold) Wright, And His Descendants

George Washington Wright was probably a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies George Washington Wright as a son of Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. However, there is circumstantial evidence that makes that identification probable.

First, as set forth above, the 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey C. Wright with 9 sons. As set forth below, George Washington Wright was born in about 1808 in Kentucky, which fits among the sons of Lindsey C. Wright.

Second, as set forth above and below, the 1835 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed both Lindsey Wright and G. W. Wright.

Third, the 1840 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, listed only three Wrights, Lindsey Wright, Washington Wright, and Bennett Wright. Washington Wright was listed immediately after Lindsey Wright. Both Washington Wright's age and Bennett Wright's age listed in the census record were appropriate to be sons of Lindsey C. Wright.

Fourth, the 1848 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed both Lindsey Wright and George W. Wright and the 1849 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Lindsay Wright, George W. Wright, and Harrison W. Wright.

The presence of these Wrights in the same counties in 1835, 1840, 1848, and 1849 is suggestive of a family relationship and indicates that the family moved to similar areas in northern Kentucky and remained near to each other as a group over a period of more than three decades.

However, further research will be required to confirm this identification and the remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found for George Washington Wright.

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey Wright with nine males in his household in addition to himself, two of whom were born between 1804 and 1810.

The marriage record of George Washington Wright and Mary Horrell was dated on November 20, 1834, in Gallatin County, Kentucky:

"State of Kentucky Gallatin County to wit

. . . .

I hereby Certify that on the 20th day of November 1834 I joined together in Matrimony George Washington Wright and Mary Horrel daughter of John Horrell Given under my hand.

George Kendall M.G."

Newspapers.com listed the following news article about Albert H. Pranke and Alice F. Pranke dated on October 27, 1950, in The Decatur Herald, Decatur, Illinois:

"Christian Denies Plea To Drop Pensioner Suit

Taylorville, Oct 26 (Staff)

Judge James G. Burnside of Vandalia denied a motion to dismiss the suit brought by the Illinois Public Aid commission against Albert H. Pranke, Alice F. Pranke and Otto L. Pranke in Christian county circuit court here.

The motion contended that the suit filed on Aug. 13 failed to state a cause of action against the defendants.

The suit involves the estate of Flora Witchie of Pana, an old age pensioner at the time of her death on March 21, 1949. It contends she conveyed real estate to Otto L. Pranke, who later conveyed the property to Albert H. and Alice F. Pranke.

The Illinois Public Aid commission asks the court to set aside these conveyances on the grounds that execution of the deeds constituted a prima facie fraud against the commission."

Newspapers.com listed an obituary for Lydia Lynch dated March 1, 1953, in The Decatur Daily Review, Decatur, Illinois, which listed Mrs. A. H. Pranke, Sr., as her sister:

Berigan of St. Louis, a daughter of James Surles of Shelbyville, stated she had died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alva Cox in Shelbyville, Saturday [September 22, 1923]. Mrs. Berigan was a daughter of James and the late Elizabeth Surles, her maiden name being Lura Belle Surles. She was born in Shelbyville on October 8, 1879. In 1902 she was united in marriage to William Pearl and to this union one daughter, Vivian was born. The daughter had died in 1904 and Mr. Pearl was fatally injured in a railroad accident in 1911. In 1913 she was married to F. E. Berigan of Decatur, who with the father and sister, survived. The funeral was held from the Catholic Church, Rev. Fr. Timothy McKeogh officiating. h. Maria M. Wright

Maria M. Wright was a daughter of George Washington Wright and Mary A. or Brown (Horrel or Herrold) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², George Washington³)

The 1860 Census for Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois, listed Maria Wright in the George W. Wright household on August 3, 1860, and her age as 2 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1858.

The 1870 Census for Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois, listed M. M. Wright in the Mary B. Wright household on June 4, 1870, and her age as 11 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1859.

The 1880 Census for Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois, listed Mariah Wright in the Mary B. Wright household on June 16, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 21 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1859.

The 1880 Census for Shelbyville, Shelby County, Illinois, also listed Rosa D. Wright in the Mary B. Wright household on June 16, 1880, her relationship as granddaughter, and her age as 4 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1876. This possibly indicates that Robert G. Wright married, had a child Rosa, and then his wife died before June 16, 1880, but as Karen Wright noted, the father's place of birth was listed as unknown, which would not be the case if Robert G. Wright were the father. And so Rosa D. Wright may have been an illegitimate child of a daughter of Mary B. Wright and the most likely candidate for that mother would be Maria M. Wright listed in that same census record.

However, further research will be required to confirm this identification of the parents of Rosa D. Wright.

Several family trees on Ancestry.com list Maria M. Wright as the wife of John Robert Chitty.

There is a marriage record of Mariah Wright of Stoddard County, Missouri, and John R. Chitty of Stoddard County, Missouri, dated August 13, 1882, in Stoddard County, Missouri. However, Stoddard County, Missouri, is a substantial distance from Shelby County, Illinois, and none of the family trees listed any documentation which explained how or why Maria Wright would have moved from Shelby County, Illinois, in 1880 to Stoddard County, Missouri, in 1882 or how the identification was made that the Mariah Wright of this marriage record was the same person as the Maria Wright, daughter of Mary B. Wright, in the 1880 Shelby County, Illinois, Census.

However, the 1900 Census did list John R. Chitty and his wife Maria in Union County, Illinois, so there was some back and forth of this family between Missouri and Illinois.

There is also a death record of Maria Elizabeth Chitty, the wife of John Chitty, dated on August 19, 1922, in Fornfelt, Scott County, Missouri, which listed her parents as unknown and her birth on September 5, 1859, in Illinois. While the date and place of birth are consistent with Maria M. Wright, the daughter of Mary B. Wright, the 1870 Census for Shelby County, Illinois, listed Maria Wright, the daughter of Mary B. Wright, as M. M. Wright with the result that the middle name of Elizabeth from the death record is inconsistent with the middle initial of M from the census record.

So while it is possible that Mariah M. Wright, the daughter of Mary B. Wright, was the same person as Maria Elizabeth (Wright) Chitty, the wife of John Robert Chitty, there are enough inconsistencies in the records that further research will be required to confirm this identification.

6. Harrison M. Wright Of Union County, Illinois, His Wives Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright And Agnes () (Smiddy) Wright, And His Descendants

Harrison M. Wright of Union County, Illinois, was a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey Wright with nine males in his household in addition to himself, two of whom were born between 1804 and 1810.

In her letter dated January 26, 2007, Karen Wright enclosed a copy of the marriage record of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann Erwin dated July 7, 1834, at Henry County, Kentucky:

"Know all men by these presents that We Harrison M. Wright & Bazil Matherly are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the just and full Sum of £50 to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents Signed And Sealed this 7" day of July 1834

This record indicates that Harrison M. Wright was born in about 1810 and that Agnes (____) (Smiddy or Smithy) Wright was born in about 1813.

The 1870 Census for Union County, Illinois, listed Agnes Wright in the Peters (?) Ball household on June 9, 1870, and her age as 52 (?) and born in North Carolina. The absence of Harrison Wright from the household indicates that he had died before June 9, 1870.

The 1880 Census for union County, Illinois, listed Agnes Wright in the Reuben Smiddy household on June 28, 1880, her relationship as mother, and her age as 67 and born in North Carolina, indicating a date of birth in about 1813.

In her letter dated January 26, 2007, Karen Wright enclosed a copy of the affidavit of Susannah (Smiddy or Smithy) (Wright) Coleman dated May 4, 1920, formerly the wife of Lindsey Harper Wright, setting forth her memory of William Henry Wright:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215405

On this 4 day of May, 1920, at Dongola county of Union, State of Illinois before me, C. M. Lane, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Susannah Coleman, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 72 years of age, am not able to work and my P.O. address is Dongola, Ill. I am now the wife of Thomas Coleman. I was once the wife of Lindsey Harper Wright. Henry Wright and his father, Harrison Wright, came into this county just before or about the time the war broke out and Lindsey came a little later. The war was going on when I was married to Lindsey. His father had married my mother, Mrs. Smiddy. Lindsey was in the war as a member of Co. A 11th Ill. Inf. and Henry was with him and Lindsey was wounded and died as a result thereof. I was once pensioned as his widow.

When he came in here Henry Wright had a wife Teresa. I used to stay with her at Cobden, Ill. That was when Lindsey was in the army. Her oldest child, Julia, stole everything she could get her hands on and I left.

Old man Wright lived until after the war and died at his Son's, Henry's, at Cobden, Ill. He and mother lived together until he died however; mother was just away temporarily hunting a place to move to.

All of these Wrights came here from Indiana some place and I never knew any of their folks if they had any. I just knew the ones I have named.

Teresa had three little children by Wright one of whom was named Henrietta. I do not remember the youngeer ones' names. Then Teresa had two children older, the said Julia and Frank, and she told me that they were by her husband, Reynolds. Do not think I ever heard Reynold's given name. I asked no particular questions and learned nothing about Reynolds, did not learn where he was or what became of him. She said she and he had separated. She did not say that she and Reynolds had been divorced and I do not believe they were or she would have said something about it as she was saying that he was disagreeable to get along with. I do not think she knew where he was.

I do not think that Teresa had ever lived down in this country here or about Cairo, Ill. before she came here with Henry Wright. I do not know where she and Reynolds separated.

I did not pay much attention to the Wrights after my husband died.

No, I never learned what became of the girl Julia. No, I never learned that she left her mother. She never married that I know of. I just supposed that she left the country with her mother Teresa. Julia was older than Frank and they were both called Reynolds.

Julia was getting to be a good sized girl when I last saw her.

Teresa and Wright separated, I heard in some way, but I do not know where, whether at Cobden or elsewhere I don't know. Anyway Teresa left Cobden and I never kept in touch with her and never knew a single place where she was after she left there and I never knew any places where Henry Wright was after he left this country.

I never heard whether Teresa and Henry were divorced.

From the way Teresa talked to me, I am pretty certain that she never divorced Reynolds. I think from what she said that he just stepped off and left her.

I am not related to the claimant in this case that I know of, and have no financial interest in this case.

I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

This record identifies Agnes (____) (Smiddy or Smithy) Wright as the second wife of Harrison M. Wright and indicates that Harrison M. Wright died after 1865 in Union County, Illinois.

In his letter dated July 12, 1998, Wayne B. Wright stated that Harrison M. Wright was possibly a son of Lindsey Wright, was born in 1810 in probably Henry County, Kentucky, married Mary Ann Erwin on July 22, 1834, in Henry County, Kentucky, resided in 1850 at Trimble County, Kentucky, moved in the 1850's to Union County, Illinois, and that Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Martha A. (Wright) Orr, born in about 1835,
- 2) William Henry Wright, born in about 1837,
- 3) Thomas Wright, born in about 1840,
- 4) Lindsey H. Wright, born in about 1844,
- 5) Francis M. Wright, born in about 1846, and
- 6) Mary E. Wright, born in about 1846.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright were the following:

- 1) Martha A. Wright, born in about 1835 in Kentucky,
- 2) William Henry Wright, born in about 1834 or 1837 in Henry County, Kentucky,
- 3) Thomas Wright, born in about 1840 in Kentucky,
- 4) Lindsey Harper Wright, born in about 1844 in Kentucky,
- 5) Francis M. Wright, born in about 1846 in Indiana, and
- 6) Mary E. Wright, born in about May 1850 in Kentucky.

a. Martha A. Wright

Martha A. Wright was a daughter of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Harrison M.³)

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Martha A. Wright in the Harrison Wright household and her age as 15 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1835.

In his letter dated July 12, 1998, Wayne B. Wright stated that Martha A. Wright was a daughter of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright and married George Orr on October 22, 1851, in Trimble County, Kentucky. However, the marriage record of George Orr dated on October 23, 1851, listed his wife as Mary M. Wright and the death record of Mary M. Orr dated on October 18, 1909, in Bartholomew County, Indiana, listed her parents as Willis Wright and Summerfield Wright.

- b. 1883 William Henry Wright Of Sullivan County, Missouri, His Wives Teresa Augusta (Piquett) (Runnells Or Reynolds) Wright, Martha O. (Foreman) Wright, Lockey Ann Malinda (Brown) (Wright) Bailey, And Maria J. (Havens) (Wright) Jennings, And His Descendants

1883 William Henry Wright of Sullivan County, Missouri, was a son of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Harrison M.³)

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed William H. Wright in the Harrison Wright household and his age as 13 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1837.

Missouri, Marriages, 1750-1920 listed the marriage of Terease Picket and Edward Raynard on March 26, 1850, at St. Charles, Missouri:

"Name: Edward Raynard
Spouse's Name: Terease Picket
Event Date: 26 Mar 1850
Event Place: St Charles, Missouri
Indexing Project (Batch) Number: M51546-1 , System Origin: Missouri-ODM , GS
Film number: 966262"

As will be set forth below, Teresa Augusta (Piquett) (Runnells or Reynolds) Wright was the first wife of William Henry Wright.

The marriage record of Henry Wright and his first wife Lucretia Runnells was dated on May 13, 1858, in Lincoln County, Missouri:

"State of Missouri,) County of Lincoln.) ss.

I hereby certify that on the 3d day of May 1858 I united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Harrison Eggins to Miss Caroline Parker all of the State and County aforesaid Also on the 13th day of May 1858 I united in the Bonds of Matrimony Mr. Henry Wright to Mrs. Lucretia Runnells of the County of Lincoln & State of Missouri.

W. Crosland, J.P."

Although this record listed the wife's name as Lucretia, as will be set forth below, her name was properly Teresa.

The 1860 Census for Lincoln County, Missouri, listed William H. Wright with the following household on July 18, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
Wm H Wright	24	m		Farmer

This record indicates that William Henry Wright was born in about 1836 and that Teresa Augusta (Piquett) (Runnells or Reynolds) Wright was born in about 1834. Although the oldest two children were listed as Wrights, the date of marriage indicates that they were children of Teresa Augusta (Piquett) (Runnells or Reynolds) Wright's first marriage and only Henrietta would be a child of William Henry Wright.

In her letters dated January 26, 2007, and January 31, 2008, Karen Wright enclosed numerous records relating to William Henry Wright from his Civil War Pension

File, including muster rolls, pension applications, surgeon's certificates, and affidavits, which documents are set forth more fully below.

The muster roll for William H. Wright sets forth his service in Company C of the 109th Illinois Infantry:

Patriotism of Illinois, by T. W. Eddy, published in 1865, discussed the 109th Illinois Infantry Regiment:

"ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH ILLINOIS INFANTRY

Of one Illinois regiment we have an inglorious record to make. We would gladly omit it, but the trust of history compels it, and it will at least serve to illustrate the wonderful strength of treason in our midst, and by its contrast aid to illumine the record of the men who did their duty. The 109th regiment was organized at Anna, Union County, and mustered into the service on the 17th of September, 1862. It was freely charged and generally believed, that he regiment was composed almost exclusively of the knights of the Golden Circle. The following special order from the War Department tells as much of its history as it is necessary for us to follow:

'Lake Providence, Louisiana
April 10, 1863

Special Order No. 6

The officers of the 109th regiment Illinois Volunteers, except those of Company K, having been reported as utterly incompetent to perform the duties of their respective commissions, and evincing no disposition to improve themselves, are hereby discharged from the service of the United States.

This is the regiment which was within a few miles of Holly Springs when attacked by the rebels, failed to march to the support of their comrades, but drew in their pickets, and stood ready to surrender. From nine companies 347 men deserted, principally at Memphis, and but one from Company K. To render the men efficient, it is necessary to transfer them to a disciplined regiment, and they are accordingly transferred to the 11th regiment Illinois Volunteers, Company K to make the tenth company.

By order of the Secretary of War
S. Thomas, Adjutant General

Adjutant General's office.
Washington, April 24, 1863."

Although the muster rolls indicated that William Henry Wright had deserted, he apparently returned and rejoined the regiment in time for transfer to Company A of the 11th Illinois Infantry, but was reduced in rank from 5th sergeant to private.

The muster roll of Company A, 11th Illinois Infantry, dated April 1863 and probably April 24th, listed William H. Wright:

Patriotism of Illinois, by T. W. Eddy, published in 1865, which discussed the 11th Illinois Infantry Regiment:

"ELEVENTH ILLINOIS INFANTRY

The 11th regiment was organized at Springfield and was mustered into the three months' service on the 30th of April, 1861 On the 30th of July it was re-mustered for the three years' service

till February 11th, when it moved to Lake Providence. It made headquarters here till April 20th. On the 23d the 389 "faithful men" of the 109th Illinois Infantry were transferred to the 11th. April 26th the 11th marched to the rear of Vicksburg, arriving May 18th. On the 19th and 22d, it participated in assaults upon the enemy's works, and then in the advance siege works till the rebel surrender. During the assaults and siege it lost one field officer (Colonel Garrett Nevins) killed and three line officers and forty men killed and wounded. on the 17th of July it moved with an expedition to Natchez, participating in another to Woodville, Mississippi, returning to Vicksburg, October 12th, making its headquarters there till July 29, 1864. In the meantime it took part in various expeditions, skirmishing at Liverpool Heights, February 5th, Yazoo City, March 5th, and at several other places. July 29th it moved to Morganzia, and remainder there till September 3d, thence by water, to the mouth of the White River, Arkansas. On the 18th of October it moved to Memphis, Tennessee, returning to White River on the 27th. From this time it was engaged in "general campaigning", till February 4, 1865, when it moved to Dauphin Island, and from the 17th of March till April 12th, was engaged in operations against Mobile, on the latter date marching into and taking possession of the city. It had a part in the investment and siege of Spanish Fort and Fort Blakely, and in the assault on the latter. On the 27th of May it left Mobile for New Orleans, from thence to Alexandria La., where it remained till June 22d, when it was sent to Baton Rouge, where it was mustered out of service on the 14th day of July, 1865, and was sent thence to Springfield, where it was paid off and finally discharged."

On February 1, 1872, at Rockville, Parke County, Indiana, a further Surgeon's Certificate for William H. Wright was filed:

"Examining Surgeon's Certificate in the Case of an Applicant for Increase of Pension.
No. of Certificate, 86.792.

State of Indiana County of Parke.
Post Office: Rockville February 1the, 1872.

It is hereby certified That William H. Wright formerly a Private of Captain _____ Company (A) in the 11 Regiment of Ills Vols, in the war of 1861 who is paid at Salem Illinois Agency at the rate of four dollars per month, on account, as he states, of disability resulng from Rheumatism of the Heart which he states was contracted while in the line of duty in the military service of the United States, on or about the eight day of September, 1864, at a place called the mouth of White river in the State or Territory of Arkansas is still suffering in consequence of said Rheumatism of the Heart.

The disability originates entirely from the injury or disease on account of which he was originally pensioned, as follows:

Height, 6 ft 2 in.; weight, 170 lb; complexion, Fair age, 33; respiration, 16; pulse, 72.

In this case Rheumatism seems to affect the whole system; but more particularly the Heart. There is great irregularity of the heart action and of the circulation of the blood. The pulse is regular for six or ten pulsations, then during as many strokes it is very slow and intermitting. During the irregularity in the pulse the artery does not seem to more than half fill. He states that he suffers pain and fulness in the left side of the chest most of the time. His respiration is very laborious. He cannot labor or take active exercise without bringing on dyspnoea(?). He is wholly unable to do manual labor. The disability is now permanent and I do not think there is the least probability of his recovery.

I find his disability, as described above, to be equal to, and entitling him to: The total third grade.

William D. Thomas, M. D."

On February 9, 1873, at Platte City, Platte County, Missouri, another Surgeon's Certificated was filed for William H. Wright:

"Examining Surgeon's Certificate in the Case of an Applicant for Increase of Pension.

No. of Certificate, 86, 792

State: Missouri County: Platte
Post Office: Platte City Feb/9th 1873.

It is hereby certified That Wm. H. Wright formerly a Private of Captain _____ Company, A in the 11th Regiment of Ills Vols, in the war of Rebellion who is now paid at Salem Ills Agency at the rate of $4.00 dollars per month, on account, as he states, of Rheumatism of heart he further informs me that the amt of Pension has been reduced one 1/2) Rheumatism while in the line of duty in the military service of the United States, on or about the ___ day of Sept, 1864, at a place called White River, in the State or Territory of Arkansas is still suffering in consequence of said Rheumatism of the Heart.

The disability originates entirely from the injury or disease on account of which he was originally pensioned, as follows:

Height, 6 ft 2 in; weight, 164; complexion, fair age, 35; respiration, 24; pulse, 62

Has valvular lesions with Enlargement of the heart. This lesion appears to be situated in the left side of the heart, that is at the mitral and aortic orifice, action of heart very much accelerated - because circulation very feeble and impeded,, general health not good muscles soft and flabby. applicant presents no apparent evidence of any vicious habits. I regard the Disability permanent and would recommend an increase of his pension. { correction The disability is equal I think to the loss of a hand or foot for the purposes of manual labor as the applicant is not able to labor at all on account of the disease stated find his disability, as described above, to be equal to, and entitling him to Total 3 Grade $8.00 act of June 6th 1866

This record indicates that William Henry Wright had moved to Platte City, Platte County, Missouri, by February 9, 1873.

On September 4, 1875, at Rockville, Parke County, Indiana, a further Surgeon's Certificate for William H. Wright was filed:

"Surgeon's Certificate of Biennial, Annual, or Semi-annual Examination, on which the Pensioner draws his Pension.

State: Indiana County: Parke
Post Office: Rockville Ind Sept 4th, 1875

I hereby certify, That I have carefully examined William H. Wright, who was a Private in Co (A), 11 Regt Ills Vols in the war of the 2,S, (?) of 1861, and was granted an Invalid Pension under Certificate No. 86,792, to be paid now at the Agency in Salem Illinois, by reason of alleged disability resulting from Chronic rheumatism of the heart, which he states to have been received in the line of duty while he was in the military service of the United States.

In my opinion the said Pensioner's disability, from the cause aforesaid, continues at total third grade $12.00.

A more particular description of the Pensioner's condition is subjoined:

Height, 6 ft 2 ins; weight, 155 lbs; complexion, Fair; age, 36; respiration, 18; pulse, 82.

In this case I find there is Chonic Rheumatism of the heart. There is great irregularity of the hearts action and also of the circulation of the blood; The pulse is quick for three or five pulsations; then during as many strokes it is very slow and intermitting. His respiration is short and laborious. States he has pain at the region of the lower portion of the left lung, very frequently. He is almost wholly incompetent for manual labor. Respiration is very short and laborious at times.

On September 4, 1877, at West Joplin, Jasper County, Missouri, a further Surgeon's Certificate for William Henry Wright was filed:

"Surgeon's Certificate of Biennial, Annual, or Semi-annual Examination, on which the Pensioner draws his Pension:

State: Missouri County: Jasper
Post Office: West Joplin Sept 4th 1877.

I hereby certify, That I have carefully examined William H Wright, who was a Private Co A 11th Regt Ill Vols in the war of the Rebellion and was granted an Invalid Pension under Certificate No. 86, 792, to be paid now at the Agency in Indianapolis, Ind, by reason of alleged disability resulting from Rheumatism and Sequals(?) which he states to have been received in the line of duty while he was in the military service of the United States.

In my opinion the said Pensioner's disability, from the cause aforesaid, continues at 5/9 of Total 3d Grade $10.00 pr month

A more particular description of the Pensioner's condition is subjoined:

Height, 6 ft 2 in; weight, 150; complexion, Dark; age 39; respiration, 22; pulse, 72.

I find Hyperstrophy of heart Cannot on acct of smothered sounds exactly find the apex or base, seems to be crowded back. the left breast is swollen out ribs and all. the heart labors hard there is an intermission about every 7 beats of the heart, of one, A whirring sound with 1st sound of heart would show that there was some obstruction during the short interval between the two sounds (Systoli/Dyastoli) the same rushing sound continues which could seem to indicated some deficiency of Aortic valves. History is that he was taken in Cough, with severe Rheumatism of joints of shoulders Elbows and wrists, next day dizziness of head smothered respration and irregular beating of heart. It would seem to have been a case of Rheumatism complicated with Pen/Endo Carditis. A second examination after he had rested and I found the heart to miss every 3d beat. I would advice a continuance of present rate - 5/9 of Total 3d Grade $10.00 pr month

This record indicates that William Henry Wright had moved to West Joplin, Jasper County, Missouri, by September 4, 1877.

This record indicates that Teresa Augusta (Piquet) Wright was born in about 1830. Although Francis was listed as a Wright, as set forth below, his correct surname would have been either Runnells or Reynolds or Gui. The listings of the father's place of birth for Francis Runnells or Reynolds or Gui may be correct, but the similar listings for John Wright and Henrietta Wright are almost certainly just repetitions of the information for Francis rather than correct listings of their father's place of birth.

We then moved to Rockville, Parke Col, Indiana.

Ques. How many times have you been married?

Ans. Just twice. My first husband was William Henry Wright. I married him in Rockville, Ind. on April 1, 1875. I was about thirty years old when we were married. I had never been married before that, I lived with him about two years. I do not know just how long it was. We lived in Rockville for a time, and then near Rockville. We were living at the edge of Rockville when Wright went away and left me. I do not know why he went away. My mother was living in Rockville at the time, and he took me in to her house to stay with her because she was not well. He said that he would come in the evening and take me to my brother's place. In the evening he had not come and I went back out to our home. He had been tearing up the things and getting ready to move. He was out in the field when I went to the house. He came in and made me get into his wagon and he took me back to my mothers. I had two children by Wright. One of them was born after he went away. He left in the fall and my second child was born the next May. The oldest child was about a year old when he left. He did not tell me that he was going to leave me or that he was going away at all. His son by a former wife was living with us. He left the boy with me, but the next day he sent for him, or he had left word with Alex Smart of Rockville to take the boy to Paris, Ill. where he had gone from Rockville. I do not know how long he remained at paris or whether he located there at all. I never had any direct word from Wright after he left. All that I ever heard of him after that was that a store keeper in Rockville by the name of Hungerford got a letter from a woman who claimed to be the widow of Wright. She had written to Hungerford to get some information concerning a claim for pension. Hungerford would never tell me much about the matter, but from what I learned I understood that Wright had married again, and that he had died leaving a widow who was trying to get a pension. I do not know the name of the woman who wrote the letter or where the letter was written from.

William H. Wright drew a pension when I was living with him. I think that he got twelve dollars a month. I do not know what his service was. I do not know where he was raised, but he had an aunt and some cousins who lived on Sugar Creek, northeast of Rockville. The aunt was Polly Wright, and her children were Henry, Mattie and some others, whose names I do not remember. I was up to his aunt's place not long after we were married. Mattie Wright was sick at the time, and she died. Henry Wright is now dead. He was a deaf and dumb man. I do not know the names of William H. Wright's parents, and do not know whether he had a brother or sister. I had known him before I married him for several years. He had been around Rockville and I had gone with him. He was then working in the timber around Rockville. He married Mattie Foreman in Rockville and they moved to Missouri. A few years later he came back and reported that his wife had died in Missouri, but I do not know where they had lived in Missouri. His son, Eddie, was about four years old when he came back to Indiana. he stayed with his Aunt Polly wright for a time and then came to Rockville. He and I were married soon after he came back to Rockville.

William Wright told me that his full name was William Henry Wright. He must have been nearly forty years old when we were married. he was a tall man, about six feet I think. He had brown hair and I think brown eyes. he had no particular marks, scars or blemishes that I know of. I do not know what he drew his pension on. Do not know whether it was for the effects of a wound or disease. No, he did not have either thumb off. I have sent a picture of him to the Pension Bureau. That was a picture which my daughter got some years ago from a daughter of a cousin of William H. Wright. I have no papers of any kind that he left. I have no specimen of his handwriting. He had just a fair education. He worked at farming or any kind of work that he could get to do. He had no particular trade. I do not know of any one who was in the army with him. I do not know whether he belonged to the G.A.R. or any secret order. I do not know whether Alex Smart is dead, but my daughter says he is. Bill Woods of Rockville knew Wright. My son-in-law has talked with Mr. Woods, and he did not know any thing about Wright. I do not know of anyone else who might know what service Wright was in. The family of Mattie Foreman lived about Newport, Ind. Mattie was staying with an aunt in Rockville. The aunt was Jane Ritchie, and she is dead; she had some children but I do not know where they are or anything about them. I do not think Mattie Foreman's family knew much about Wright. I did not know any of the Foreman family except Mattie.

My second husband was Thomas Bailey. I married him in Hillsboro, Indiana, on July 27, 1897. He died in Hillsboro but I have forgotten the exact date of his death. I lived with Thomas Bailey from the date of our marriage until his death and was never divorced from him. I have not remarried since his death. I lived in Hillsboro for about two years after he died, and since then I have lived with my daughter. The word "since" cut out before signing. I have now found a memorial card which shows that Thomas Bailey died December 13, 1909, and that he was 87 years of age.

Ques. How many times was Thomas Bailey married?

Ans. Just once before he married me. He was married but the two times. His first wife was Sarah Gaylor. She had been dead about two years before I married Mr. Bailey. I never applied for a divorce from William H. Wright, and I never heard that he got a divorce from me. I thought that he was dead, and did not think that a divorce was necessary when I married Mr. Bailey. Frank Bailey and William Bailey who have been witnesses in my case are sons of the soldier. Joseph Glasscock and Pleasant Williams knew Mr. Bailey from the time he was a young man. I have three brothers living. Johnson Mills Brown lives at Anapolis, Ind., Z. A. Brown lives in Indianapolis, but is now here, and Nathaniel P. Brown, Bloomington, Ind. He is younger than I am, and the other two are older than I am. I have no living sister. I have but one child living, Alma Ellis. The exact date of my birth is May 14, 1844. I have the old family Bible which contains a record of my birth. My attorney is Richard Lowe, Crawfordsville, Indiana. I have not made any contract with him as to fees, and have not paid him any fee. I do not desire to be present when witnesses are seen in the case. I waive notice of further examination. I have heard the above read, understand the questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

On February 11, 1918, in Civil War Pension File 19,465, Alma Ellis filed her affidavit regarding her father William Henry Wright:

"Case of Lockey A. M. Bailey No. 19,465

On this 11th day of February, 1918, at Hillsboro, county of Fountain, State of Indiana, before me, F. L. Churchill, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Alma Ellis, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 42 years of age. P.O. Hillsboro, Indiana.

I am the wife of Alva Ellis, a farmer. The claimant is my mother. I am her only living child. I do not remember ever seeing my father. I know by hearsay that his name was William Henry Wright. I have heard the statement my mother has made in her case, and it is the same as I have always heard about my father. I can not add anything that would help to locate him or assist in determining what his army service was. I know that I have never heard anything as to what became of my father, except that I have heard about the letter that came to Mr. Hungerford of Rockville, and from which it was supposed that my father was dead.

The picture of my father that was sent to the Pension Bureau came to me from a Mrs. Nannie Holmes, who was a daughter of a cousin of my father. It was her mother who was a cousin of my father. She was a Mrs. Lowe, but he has been dead for years. Mrs. Holmes was visiting here, and she told me that she thought that she had a picture of my father. When she went home she sent it to me. That was about eight years ago. I remember that the name was written on the back of the picture, but I do not know who wrote the name or whether it was William H. or William W. Wright. Mrs. Holmes lives someplace in Minn. but I do not know her address. She has a sister Mrs. Edith Gephart, Danville, Ill. wife of Eddie Gephart. My husband's mother's uncle was the husband of a cousin of my father, and that cousin was the mother of Mrs. Holmes, but she has been dead for years. I do not know any other relatives of my father but that one family.

I know that my mother did not remarry after my father disappeared until she married Thomas Bailey. She lived with Mr. Bailey from the date of their marriage until his death, and was never divorced from him. I know that she was not remarried since the death of Thomas Bailey. She has lived with me for the last six years.

I have no financial interest in the case. I have heard the above read, understand the questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

On April 23, 1918, in Civil War Pension File 19,465, Johnson Mills Brown filed his affidavit regarding his sister Lockey A. M. Bailey:

"Case of Lockey A. M. Bailey No. 19,465

On this 23rd day of April, 1918, at Annapolis, county of Parke, State of Indiana before me, F. L. Churchill, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Johnson Mills Brown, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 76 years of age. P.O. Bloomington, Indiana. Occupation, farmer. The claimant, Lockey A. M. Bailey, is my sister.

Q. How many times has your sister been married? A. She has been married twice, and only twice. Her first husband was a man named Wright. She married him at Rockville, Ind. and they lived at Rockville together for about three years.

Then he left her and I never knew what became of him. I was living close to Rockville at the time. It was several years after the close of the war that they were married, but I could not fix the time.

I do not know why Wright left her. There had been no particular trouble between him and her that I know of, and he had not been accused of any crime or threatened with arrest. I do not know why he went, and I do not know where he went. I think my sister got word sometime later that Wright was dead, but I do not know anything definite about that. The only name I recall for Wright was Henry Wright. No, I do not remember that his name was William or William Henry Wright. I do not know whether he had been in the army or not, but I think that he had been. I could not say whether he got a pension. I had known him for a year or two before he married my sister. He had been married before, but his first wife was dead before I knew him. I do not know who his former wife was. he had a child by the first wife when he married my sister. He had Alex Smart take the boy to him after he had left Rockville, but I do not know where Smart took the child. I do not know whether Alex Smart is living now or not.

My sister had two children by Wright, and one them is still living. That daughter's name is Ellis now, and my sister is living with her. The second husband of my sister was Thomas Bailey. She lived with him at Hillsboro, Ind. She lived with Thomas Bailey until he died.

My sister had never been married before she married Wright, and she has been married to no other man than Bailey since Wright left her.

So far as I know there was never a divorce between my sister and Wright. She never got a divorce, and I never heard that he did. I do not know whether Wright ever married again. No, he did not run off with another woman, not that I ever heard of.

I do not know where Wright was born and raised. he had some relations who lived on Sugar Creek in northeastern part of Parke Co. He had a cousin up there who was a deaf and dumb man. I do not know whether any of that family live there now or not.

I have examined the picture shown me. It looks like the Wright who married my sister, but I could not be sure whether it is or not.

My recollection of Wright is that he was about my age. He might have been a little bit older than me when I knew him.

I have no interest in the case. I have heard the above read, and I understand the questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

On September 13, 1918, at Civil War Pension File 215,405, Maria J. Jennings filed her affidavit in support of her claim of pension in right of the service of her husband William Henry Wright:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215,405

On this 13 day of September, 1918, at Reger, county of Sullivan, State of Mo., before me, personally appeared Maria J. Jennings, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I have heretofore testified before you in my claim for pension as the remarried widow of William H. Wright. Q. In your deposition before me September 12 you admitted that you had known during the life of William H. Wright that he had a former wife named Lockey also that prior to the time that you applied for a pension as his remarried widow you had corresponded with a woman who alleged she was a daughter of William H. Wright and that her mother was his former wife; that her mother mentioned was still living and had not obtained a divorce from William H. Wright. Why did you not mention those former wives in your declaration for pension as the remarried widow of William H. Wright? A. I just did not think it necessary to mention either of these women. I believed that William H. Wright had obtained a divorce from his former wife Lockey and that she did not stand in the way of my getting the pension. About that other woman, Mr. W. F. Calfee, who went to St. Charles, Mo. and investigated the claim of the woman there who claimed to be a former wife of William H. Wright, told me he doubted that she was the lawful widow of William H. Wright; so I did not consider it necessary to mention her. I have no other explanation that I can make as to my failure to mention those women in my claim for pension as the remarried widow of William H. Wright. which I filed in the Bureau of Pensions during the fall of 1916. Mr. Calfee told me he went to Troy, Mo. and found a record of the marriage of a Henry Wright some woman, maybe that woman at St. Charles, Mo. But I doubted the fact of that Henry Wright having been my former husband William H. Wright. I had never heard him mention having lived in Mo. at any time until just prior to the time I met him in Joplin Mo. when he had moved there from Kansas with John Grayles I heard him say he had a cousin named Henry Wright, I think he said that cousin was deaf and dumb. I heard him mention a cousin named Mattie Wright and that she was dead. We used to have her picture. I never wrote to a storekeeper named Hungerford at Rockville, Ind. in regard to obtaining information to use in connection with a claim for pension. I never before heard of him. I have heard you read the statement of Lockey A. M. Bailey. I never understood from William H. Wright that she had more than one child. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

On September 13, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Eddie I. Wright, son of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit regarding his knowledge of his father:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405

On this 13 day of September, 1918, at near Boynton, county of Sullivan, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Eddie I. Wright, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age unknown to me, I think I must be about 47 years old. Address - RFD 1, Boynton, Sullivan Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer. I believe I was born October 8, 1871 [1871]. William H. Wright was my father. My mother was Mattie Foreman, I have always understood that she was his first wife and that she was never married until she married my father. I was very young when my mother died, it seems to me I remember something of her funeral, the crowd and everybody being so solemn impressed my mind and I have remembered it. I don't know what year she died. I think she died in Indiana. I don't know just where. I think she died at the home of some of her relatives or my father's relatives, I do not know which it was, and I don't remember the names of those relatives. I remember father had a wife called Lockey Brown, and I remember his living with her and that I was with them. That was also in Indiana, but I don't know where in Indiana. I do not know how long father lived with Lockey, I know nothing of their marriage, I only know they lived together awhile and that father went away and left me with her, then an uncle of mine, my mother's brother, whose surname was Foreman, took me to my father. I don't know where he took me, when he took me to father we found father in a covered wagon and we traveled in that wagon to Kansas, to the home of my grandmother, my mother's mother, Eliza Foreman. A distant relative of father's named John Grayless was also in that neighborhood. I think we were near Elk Falls, Kansas. I don't know how long we stayed in Kansas, I am sure we were there one winter. I understood that my father and mother and been out there and took up a land claim; that mother became ill and father took her back to their relatives in Ind. and soon after she died. Then he married Lockey Brown and right after he left her he took me and went back to his old claim. I don't know how old I was when we went to Kansas, I was small. We next moved to Joplin, Mo. I do not know what year it was we went to Joplin, Mo. I don't remember how long we had been there when father married Maria Havens. I know he lived as the husband of his wife Maria from the time they married until he died. I am sure they were not separated or divorced. I am positive his widow Maria did not remarry only to Andrew J. Jennings and she obtained a divorce from him and has never remarried since then.

Q. Did your father ever have a wife other than your mother and the woman Lockey and this pensioner Mariah J. Jennings? A. Not that I ever had any knowledge of. If he did it must have been before he was married to my mother. Quite a number of years ago I heard of some woman who lived in St. Charles, Mo. having written to my mother and claimed her mother was my father's widow also that he was the father of said woman, I mean the woman who wrote the letter to my mother. I was told that mother had Mr. Calfee, a lawyer living in Milan, Mo. go to St. Charles and investigate the claims of that woman. I don't now remember what he learned, I suppose I was told, but I have since forgotten. I know it was not considered there was anything to the claims of that woman. That was the only time I had ever heard of that alleged other wife of my father's and if she was ever his wife I know nothing of it. In calling this pensioner my mother I should have said my step-mother. I refer to Maria J. Jennings. I have never heard that my father had ever lived in Missouri prior to the time I went with him to live in Joplin, Mo. I have never heard he ever lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. I don't know whether he was usually called William Wright or Henry Wright. I think his full name was William Henry Wright. He has no relative living that I know of. My mother has relatives living in or near Joplin, Mo. They are Bruce Foreman, I don't know his city address. I don't believe I can name any other of my mother's relatives. Eli Havens, in Joplin, Mo. will be able to give the address of Bruce Foreman. I cannot name one postoffice where my father lived before he took me with him to Kansas. I cannot name any father's relatives now living. John Grayless is dead, his widow Jane Grayless lives in the northeast corner of Okla. Eli Havens will know her address. I think her mother is still living, I believe her name is Mrs. Eliza Foreman. I don't know where my father lived before he enlisted, I suppose he lived somewhere in Ill. As to how many children father's wife Lockey had, I remember only one and that child was a baby when I left her, I think the child was a girl. I never before heard that Lockey had two children. I never before heard of Mrs. Mary Wright of Waynetown, Ind., Mrs. Margaret Wright of Rose Hill, Iowa or Reuben Lough of Danville, Ill. I have no pecuniary interest in this claim for pension. I have heard this deposition read and it is correct, excepting that Jane Grayless and her mother Eliza Foreman must have been related to my mother.

On September 13, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Mary A. Ford, a daughter of Maria J. Jennings, filed her affidavit regarding her family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405

On this 13 day of September, 1918, at near Milan, county of Sullivan Co., State of Mo., before me, personally appeared Mrs. Mary A. Ford, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 40 years. Address - RFD 6, Milan, Sullivan Co. Mo. Occupation - I do my own housework. I am the wife of Thomas L. Ford, a farmer. Maria J. Jennings is my mother. My father was William H. Wright and I have always understood he was mother's first husband. I just do remember him, as I was about five years old when he died. I am sure my mother has never married since my father died, other than to Andrew J. Jennings, and she got a divorce from him. Mother was living as the wife of my father at the time he died. I know nothing of the marital history of my father only what my mother has told me. Of course I know he had a son Eddie Wright, who was a son by a former wife and I have heard that that wife died before he, William H. Wright, married my mother. Mother has told me that she had heard he had another former wife called Lockey Brown and that he left her and that he claimed to have had a divorce from her. Then I know mother received a letter, maybe two or three letters, from a woman who lived in St. Charles, Mo. and who claimed she was a daughter of my father, and that her mother was then living in St. Charles, Mo. and had never obtained a divorce from him. Mother had a lawyer named Calfee go to st. Charles, Mo. to investigate the matter and he reported that he had doubts of that woman being the lawful widow of my father. Father left property and we thought that if the woman believed she was his lawful widow she would have tried to have obtained possession of that property. As she made no attempt to get his property we just concluded she was not father's legal widow. I know mother did not think it was necessary to mention that woman when he applied for pension. And I know she believed he got a divorce from his former wife Lockey Brown, and so she did not consider it necessary to mention her, when she applied for pension as the former widow of my father. I am sure my father did not apply for a divorce from any woman after he married my mother, for if he had she would have mentioned the matter to me after I became grown. Mother has always told me all her business matters and family matters. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. I will add that I have no pecuniary interest in my mother's claim for pension, or in her pension. I will add that the woman who lived in St. Charles, Mo., who wrote my mother and who claimed to be a daughter of my father, signed her name to the latter as Henrietta Baker. I saw and read that letter, I remember seeing only one letter from her.

On November 26, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Henrietta C. Styers, a daughter of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit setting forth her memory of his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215,405.

On this 26 day of November, 1918, at near St. Charles, county of St. Charles, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Henrietta C. Styers, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 55 years. I was born February 24, 1863, near "Capaugris" Lincoln Co. Mo., near "Old Monroe", Lincoln Co. Mo. My occupation is doing my own housework. I am separated and divorced from my last husband George Styers. I was formerly the wife of Daniel G. Baker, now dead. I am a daughter of William Henry Wright and Teresa Wright. Mother's maiden name was Teresa Augusta Piquett. She was first married to Edward Randall, I believe they married in Calhoun Co. Ill. I know she told me she lived in Calhoun Co. Ill. I don't know just where in Calhoun Co., I think about Russell, no Brussells, or near Hardin. Now I remember she told me that when she married Edward Randall they came across the Miss. River to within about two miles from this place where I now live, and that they were married by a Justice of the Peace named Judge, given name unknown. They were married in this county. I don't know the exact date of their marriage but I think it was shortly before the Civil war began. They returned to Calhoun Co. Ill. I think mother got the divorce and I suppose she got it in Calhoun Co. I know I heard her say that after she got the divorce she went to stay with her sister, Antoinette Meeker, wife of Levi Meeker, both now dead. They have no child living. While mother was there she became acquainted with my father, William H. Wright and she married him in Lincoln Co. Mo. I don't know the date of their marriage, but I was their second child, their first child died when about two weeks old. I think the child was named Mary Alice. I was their next child, The next child was named Henry Wright and died an infant. I don't remember that child. Then the next child was Charles Wright, now dead. The next and last child was John Harvey Wright, now living in St. Louis, Mo. I don't know his city address, he is a carpenter. He was born in 1869 in March. I don't believe he remembers his father, because father left mother when John was about two years old, or in 1871. He had a habit of leaving us and staying several months and then coming home again. We were living near Cobden Union Co. Ill. when he left us, he had bought a little place there and wanted to sell it and mother would not sign the deed. One day mother took me and my brother John with her to Cobden and father claimed he was going to a log rolling in the neighborhood. When mother got home she found that father had taken his best clothing and a satchel and gone. She never afterwards saw him. Sometime later one of her near neighbors, John Carr, got a letter from him asking information as to what mother had done with the children. The letter was from Rockville, Indiana. Carr brought the letter to mother and neither he or mother answered the letter. Later, I don't know how long, he visited his aunt Elizabeth Daniels, near what is now Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo. and he had a woman with him. He said she was his wife and also said that his former wife, my mother, was dead. I don't know what her given name was. His aunt told me of that visit when I visited her when I was about seventeen years old. I don't know just what year it was my father left mother, it may have been as early as 1870, I had been under the impression my brother John was about two years old when father left us, but maybe he was not that old. I understood that my mother was his first wife and she told me he was her second husband. He has a cousin named Clem L. Genie now living in Lawton, Okla. who told me he knew my father when he was a boy, and he knows my father's history from his childhood. Father claimed he was born in Kentucky, or his parents came from Ky. He had brothers named Frank, he was a cripple, I have been told he fell down stair and broke his back. There was a brother named Lindsey who was also in the Union Army during the war. was killed while a soldier. They are the only brothers I remember hearing of. He had one sister, I don't know her name. I can't name any other cousin or other relative. I understood he and his parents lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. when he, my father was a boy, somewhere about Troy, someplace about there. After marrying my mother they moved over into Ill. near Cobden, Union Co. and lived there until he left her. My aunt Elizabeth Daniels and her husband are dead. They had no children. She also told me that some years after father brought that woman to her home he wrote her that he was in trouble; that he had married a preacher's daughter and had one child, given name of the child unknown, and that his wife had died in Kansas and he was left with the child and did not know what to do with that child. I don't know what became of that child, but his last wife, the one that is pensioned as his widow, wrote me that he had a son when she married him, named William I believe, I mean the child's name was William, I really cannot be sure as to his name. I don't believe I ever heard the name of that wife of my father. There is a man named Winfield Scott Kellum, he has a brother named Dave Kellum. they knew my mother and also my father. They lived in Winfield. Mo. In Cobden, Ill. our neighbors were John Carr, a man named Tweedy, given name unknown, he had a son John Tweedy, E. N. Clark, raised fruit and vegetables, given name unknown. Father worked for him and we lived in his, E. N. Clark's, houses. I cannot name any others. I think we remained there only two or three months after father left us. Then we moved to Grafton, Jersey Co. Ill. we came therein the fall of 1871, it may have been in 1870. We lived there one year or year and a half. I remember there Mrs. Minta Wright, given name of her husband unknown. Mrs. Barlow, she was called "Aunt Dicey Barlow", I believe her husband was James Barlow, Mrs. Wright was his sister, and Mrs. Wright's husband has a harness shop in Grafton, Ill. I can't name others now living. From Grafton, Ill. we moved to St. Charles, Mo. and mother lived in St. Charles, Mo. most of the time until she died. I believe we came to St. Charles in 1873, in the fall. We lived in St. Louis, Mo. in 1894 and 1895, then back to St. Charles, Mo. Then in 1909 we moved to Idaho, Boise City, and mother died there October 23, 1909, about one week after we arrived there. I was present when she died. I have no record of the date of her death. I have forgotten the undertakers name. She was treated by Dr. Beck, given name unknown. I am positive my mother never applied for a divorce from my father. I never heard that he obtained a divorce from my mother. In St. Charles, Mo. all the folks that we knew when we first came there are dead. I will name Capt. James Hill. Bridget Enright, 4th St. near Olive. Joe Strathman's wife Kate. 1133 Vine St. I heard mother name cousins of my father living in Ind. but I have forgotten their names. I heard mother say he had an uncle living at or near Rockville, Ind. Father had a cousin named Kittie Parker, wife of William Laborn Parker, both are dead, they lived near Winfield, Mo. I don't know the names of the wives of the cousins in Ind. I do remember cousins Harvey, Tom and Eugene, they were children of his own cousin. Tom's wife was Lou Overall, or Dorsey, She had a step-father named Dorsey or Overall, I don't know which name was her own name. Father's father died at our home while father was living with us, his name was William Henry Harrison Wright, so I was told. Father's mother was named Mary and her maiden name was Irvin. He had a cousin named Mary Irvin who married Griffin Jenkins, both are dead. That cousin has other sisters Susan and Nan, both dead. Susan married Richard McCormick. Nan married Grif Jenkins after his wife Mary died. I heard mother mention an aunt of father's named Polly Wright. I don't remember hearing he had a cousin or relative who was deaf and dumb. Father was tall, six feet and two or three inches tall, His eyes were brown, I think his hair was black or dark brown. His skin was dark. He had no marks or scars that I remember. He had not lost any finger or thumb that I remember. He had no trade that I remember, he was a common laborer. I heard mother say he was discharged from the army because he had inflamatory rheumatism. I can remember when I was a child he had inflamatory rheumatism and would be in bed weeks at a time. I had his certificate of discharge from the army, had it a good many years. I think I may still have it but don't know just where it is. I have a picture of my father that is a copy of a tin-type I had, which father had taken while he lived with mother. I had an enlarged picture taken from that tintype, but left it with other things in Boise City, Idaho. The tintype was what was called a "daguerreotype". (Deponent exhibits photograph which appears to be a copy from another picture. A comparison of this picture with the picture of soldier furnished by claimant Maria, I should have said by Lockey A. Bailey, shows without doubt that both pictures are pictures of the same man. H. L. E., Spl. Exr.) I think father's skin was rather dark, not real dark, his whiskers were light brown. I don't remember that he had lost a part of either thumb. I have forgotten what his service was. I wrote to the Pension Office intending to apply for a pension for mother if I found that father was dead. I had been told to write to the Pension Office and that if he had ever drawn a pension they would be able to tell me where he was if living or whether he was dead. I received an answer stating he was dead and that a woman had married him and had children by him and that a guardian had been appointed, or maybe it was that child by the wife who died in Kansas, at any rate there were children pensioned as his children. I was told the name of the guardian of the children and I wrote him several letters and sent him the picture I have shown you, which he returned to me. Later I heard a man was here to see me and said he had business with me. I did not see him and never knew his business. A neighbor told me a man was hunting me and said he wanted to see me about some of my folks that was dead. That might have been the man you have mentioned who claimed he came to see me as to my claim that I was a daughter of William H. Wright. If any man came to my home to ascertain whether William H. Wright was my mother's husband and my father I did not suspicion what his business was. I did not file a claim for pension for my mother because the Pension Office wrote me that he left children by a lawful wife and I did not see what I could do in the matter. I knew nothing about the pension business. I wrote several letters to the Pension Office and I was unable to get any satisfaction, so I let the matter drop. I am not related to this claimant I have no interest in this pension matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. I will add that my father's cousins Tom, Harvey and Eugene Parker lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. Harvey is dead. Tom lives near Winfield or Argenville, Lincoln Co. Mo. Eugene did live near Desoto, Mo., I don't know whether he still lives there. Mother's first husband, Edward Randall, had never been married before he married my mother, at any rate not that I ever heard of. I am sure mother got a divorce from him. Either in Lincoln Co. Mo. or in Calhoun Co. Ill. The word "Grafton" on line 31, first sheet of this deposition was crossed out and the words "Cobden, Union Co." on line 31, first sheet of this deposition, "him" on line 7 of this sheet were interlined before signing.

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215,405.

On this 27 day of November, 1918, at St. Louis, county of St. Louis, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared John Harvey Wright, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 52 years. I believe I was born near Cobden, Union Co. Ill. February 28, 1864. Occupation - Carpenter. I am a son of William Henry Wright and Thresa Wright, her maiden name something like Pickett or Picquett, it is a french name and I don't know how it is spelled. She died in Boise City, Idaho. I do not remember the month or year. I was not there when she died. I do not remember seeing my father only once. I was very small and mother had made me a pair of pants and I remember father coming home and I had my new pants on for the first time. That is the only recollection I have of having seen my father. My sister Henrietta knows the history of my parents much better than I do. She and our mother talked about him and also mother's history, I paid no attention to the matter and then too I have been away from mother, at work, since I was big enough to work. I have lived in this city since about 1890. My first recollection of living anywhere was at Grafton, Ill. I think we lived there three or four years. Then mother moved, with her children, to St. Charles, Mo. She lived there most all the time after that time until she went to Boise City, Idaho, well, she died within a very short time after arriving in Boise City, Idaho. We lived about two years in Lincoln Co. Mol, between Winfield and Foley. I don't remember the years we were there, I guess I was about 12 when we left there and returned to St. Charles. Mo. We all came to this city in 1890 and I was married Jany. 2, 1891, so I know we came here during the fall of 1890. Mother lived here then about two years, I know she returned to St. Charles in 1892. I don't know just where mother was raised. She had been married once before she married my father. Her first husband was named Reynolds, I don't know his given name or where he and mother were married or when they married. I believe I have been told they separated. I don't know when or where they separated. I do not know whether mother got a divorce from him or whether he got a divorce from her. I have understood my father left my mother when I was small and that she never saw him after he left her. I have never heard anything of his whereabouts that I now remember. I heard my sister Henrietta say she had corresponded with some woman in north Mo. who claimed she was his wife. I knew very little of the matter. Mother used to talk about trying to get a pension as father's widow and I think Henrietta wrote some letters about it but it never came to any thing. I believe the story I was told of my father leaving mother was that he ran away with a red-headed woman, eloped with her. I never hear her name, or if I did I do not remember what it was. I don't know whether she was a married or a single woman. I was too small too have understood anything about it. One of my relatives that was a relative of my mother's is Doug Genia, living here in St. Louis. I cannot name any other relative of mother's only Doug Genia's brother Clem Genia, I don't know his address. They are children of mother's sister Julia Genia, now dead, her husband is dead. I cannot name one of my father's relatives now living. I think my sister Henrietta can name some of father's relatives. So far as I ever knew or heard, my mother was married only twice, first to Reynolds and then to my father. She has a son by Reynolds named Frank, he is usually called Frank Wright, she had a girl by Reynolds, she is dead. If my sister gave the name of mother's first husband as Randall I believe she was mistaken in the name, I think it was Reynolds. I have no idea what became of him. I am sure mother never remarried after my father left her. I have never heard that my father had been married before he married my mother. Sister Henrietta could not have given her age correctly, there was one or two children between her and I, and I believe I was born in 1864. She has argued the matter with me and has claimed I was not as old as I believe I am, she does not want to have folks know how old she is. I never met any of the claimants in this pension matter. I have no interest or prejudice in the matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

No. 215, 405

On this 4 day of December, 1918, at St. Charles county of St. Charles, state of Mo., before me H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Francis M. My age is 61 years. Address-Rfd 1, Box 76, St. Charles, St. Charles Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer. I am a son of Theresa A. Wright. My father was Edward Reynolds and I understood from my mother that he was her first husband and that she was his first wife. I do not remember that I ever saw him, as he and mother separated when I was a baby. I don't remember that mother ever told me that she got a divorce from my father, I have supposed she was divorced from him. I don't know where they married. I don't know where they lived while they lived together. I cannot mention any one that knew my parents while they lived together. The first place I remember living was Cobden, Ill., Union Co., and mother was then living as the wife of William Henry Wright. I have supposed they were married, but I don't know where or when they were married. I never heard that my father got a divorce from my mother. I have no idea what became of him. I can't name any of his relatives. I don't know where any of his people lived or where he had lived before he married my mother. William H. Wright left my mother while they were living in Cobden, Ill. I have no idea where he went or where he lived at any time after he left my mother. I heard mother say she had heard of his being at Rockville, Ind. He never lived with mother after he left her at Cobden, Ill. I never heard that he got a divorce from her. I am sure mother never applied for a divorce from him. At Cobden I remember families named Tweedy, Clark, Carr, and John Foley. We did not remain in Cobden very long, we went to live in Grafton, Jersey Co. Ill. and lived there about one year or nearly two years. I remember there Charlie Stafford a butcher, Jim Barlow and wife, I cannot name any one else now living. We came from there to St. Charles, Mo. and lived there all the time afterwards only about two years that we lived in St. Louis, Mo. which was about 1890 and until 1892. We moved to Boise City, Idaho about eight or nine years ago, I don't remember the exact year, and mother died within one week after we arrived there. I was present when she died. Our friends there were Mrs. Cattle, or Mary Catherine Ford, wife of Eugene Ford, living near Merriden or Meriden or Meridian, Idaho. She was at mother's burial. She knew my father too. I cannot name any of mother's relatives only Doug Genie, in St. Louis, Mo. and Clem Genie living in Lawton, Okla. I cannot name any of my father's relatives. I mean I cannot name any of William H. Wright's relatives only his brother Lindsay Wright. I don't know where he lives or lived. I never saw any of W. H. Wrights wives only my mother. I don't know as a fact that he married after he left my mother. I don't know whether he had been married before he married my mother. I have no interest in this pension matter. I have been under the impression that my mother applied for a pension as the widow of William H. Wright. I don't know as a fact that she did apply for a pension. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. I understood mother had another child by my father, the child was called Julie or Julia. She grew to womanhood and left home while mother was living with William Wright at Cobden, Ill. and we never afterwards heard anything of her. I don't remember the exact date of mother's death. I have forgotten the name of the firm who sold me the coffin for her burial. Mother died at the home of Coonie J. Redell, a carpenter, he will know where the coffin was bought, he lives in South Boise City, Idaho.

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215, 405

On this 5 day of December, 1918, at near Winfiels, county of Lincoln, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Nathaniel N. Day, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 80 years. Address-RFD 1, Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo., Occupation-Farmer. I have live right in this neighborhood all my life. I have examined a photograph you showed me without informing me whose picture it is. It does not remind me of anyone I ever knew. Yes, I used to know a man whose surname was Wright, we called him Henry Wright. Since you have mentioned his name I will say this picture does remind me of him, though he did not wear whiskers when I knew him. We were both young men when I knew him, he married just before he left here. He married a french girl named Piquet, I have forgotten her given name. I did not witness their marriage, but I heard of their marriage and I knew of their living together as husband and wife and she was recognized as his wife. He lived with and worked with Levi Meeker, he also married a Piquet girl, sister of Henry Wright's wife. Henry Wright married that girl before the Civil war began, along in the fifties. I do not remember that she had been married before she married Henry Wright. Her sister had been married before she married Levi Meeker. I don't know who she had married, well now I do too, her former husband was named Genie and she had a son called Clem Genie and one called Doug Genie. Their father must be dead by this time. I cannot name other relatives of that Piquet family now living. I don't know know where Henry Wright's wife, the Piquet woman, had lived before she married him, I don't remember she had a former husband named Runnells or Reynolds, or that she had a son whose surname was Runnells or Reynolds. I never knew her until about the time she married Henry Wright. I am sure Henry Wright had never been married before he married that Piquet girl. I had known him six or seven years before he married her. We worked together a good deal. I knew his father and I remember he was called Harrison Wright, I guess his full name was William Henry Harrison Wright. I only remember he was called Harrison Wright. I don't know the given name of his wife. I did not know any brother of Henry Wright or the name of any of his brothers or sisters. Levi Meeker had a son, I remember he was called Hall Meeker, I don't know where he now lives. He was the only child Levi Meeker had that I now remember. I do not remember ever hearing Henry Wright called William Henry Wright. I knew him only as Henry Wright. I can not name any of his relatives now living. I do not remember ever hearing that he was a Union soldier in the Civil war, in fact he left here before that war began, I never knew anything about him after that time. I don't know where he lived or how many times he was married after he left here. I never knew, that I remember, that his wife, the Piquet girl, lived in St. Charles, Mo. I mean after the close of the civil war. I never heard that he and that woman were divorced. I know nothing of their history after they moved away from this neighborhood. I am not related to any of these claimants, I have no interest in this pension matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

My age is 61 years. Address - RFD 1, Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer. I had a distant relative called Henry Wright, I do not remember that William was part of his name, and I do not know just what the relationship was. I do not remember that I ever saw him, only once, and that was several years after the close of the Civil war. He came to our house and stayed a few hours. I think he was visiting his relatives, the Daniel family, all now dead. I don't remember that he had a wife with him at Mr. Amos Daniels home, I am sure he had no woman with him when he came to our house. As family history I have heard he had a wife who later lived in St. Charles, Mo. and that they separated; that later he had another wife. I know nothing of the second wife, I don't know whether he and the wife who lived in St. Charles, Mo. were divorced. I don't know how many wives he had or what became of them. The only wife he had that I ever saw was the wife who lived in St. Charles. Mo. I saw her while she and her children lived a few miles from this place. They were there only a short time. I had not heard, until you told me, that she was dead. I do not know where she married Henry Wright, or when they married. I do not remember her given name, and I don't know her maiden surname. As to how many times she had been married, I know she had a son called Frank Runnels or Reynolds, I had supposed she must have had another husband before she married Henry Wright. I do not remember having heard that Henry Wright was a Union soldier in the Civil war. I cannot name any of his relatives now living. I don't know where he had lived before he came to this neighborhood. I don't know the given names of his parents, or given names of his brothers and sisters. I called on the wife that lived in St. Charles, Mo. and met her daughter Rette or Henrietta and her, Mrs. Wright's sons Frank, I think her other sons were not in St. Charles when I was there, but I know she had other sons named John and Charley Wright. When I saw Henry Wright he did not wear whiskers. I am not sure I recognize the picture you have shown me as a picture of Henry Wright, still it does "favor him some". I do not know these pension claimants, I have no interest in this pension matter. I have heard this deposition read and it is correct. The word "he" on line 14 was crossed out before signing.

On this 5 day of December, 1918, at near Winfield, county of Lincoln, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Mrs. Lou Crosland, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 63 years. Address - Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo. Occupation - I do my own housework. I am the wife of George Crosland, a carpenter. My maiden surname was Parker. We had a relative, on my mother's side, named William Henry Wright. My mother's maiden surname was Irven. He was a distant relative, I don't know just the relationship. I just do remember him and that is all. He left this neighborhood when I was small and I never knew what became of him. In my recollection of him I do not remember that he had a wife, but some time after he left here there was a woman with two or three children came here and she was recognized here as the widow of William H. Wright. I remember she had a girl named Henrietta and a son called Charlie and a son called John Wright, and she had another son by a former husband and that child was called Frank Wright. I don't know the name of his father. That woman and her children lived in St. Charles, Mo. and they came here and lived near her aunt Mrs. Daniels a few months and then they went back to St. Charles, Mo. and they were there the last I heard of them. I did not know, until you told me, that Mrs. Wright was dead. I have forgotten her given name, I do not remember that it was Teresa or Theresa. It does seem to me her name was something like that. I do remember too that her son Frank's surname was Reynolds or Runnels, but he was called Frank Wright. I don't know what became of her husband Reynolds or Runnels. I just understood she had had a former husband of that name and then later married William H. Wright. I don't know where she married either of those men and I never heard, that I now remember, that she and her husband Reynolds were divorced or that she and William H. Wright were divorced. I think she and her children were here early in the eighties, her husband Wright was not with her here and I have thought they were divorced, but I have no knowledge that they were. I cannot name any place where Mrs. Wright and her children may have lived, other than St. Charles, Mo. only the few months they lived here. I did not know any member of her family, I mean brothers and sisters or other relatives, only her aunt Mrs. Daniels, now dead. I don't know where she lived before she married William H. Wright. As to his relatives, I cannot name any of his brothers or sisters. The only relatives he had that I knew were my folks, the Parker family and the Irvin family. All the Irvin folks are dead, all that I knew. Izzy Irvin is dead. William Laborn and Kittie Parker were my parents, both are dead. I don't know where William H. Wright had lived before he came to this neighborhood, I think he and his folks were from Kentucky. I do not know the given names of his parents. I don't know what his army service was. I do not know these pension claimants, I have no interest in this pension matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. My age is 70 years. Address - Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer. I have lived here all my life. I have examined a picture which you handed me without informing me whose picture it is. I am sure it is a picture of Henry Wright who lived about here before the Civil war. He did not have a mustache, as I remember him, but I am satisfied this photograph is a picture of him. He worked for my step-father James Admire, now dead, and I was then eight or ten years old. I may have been a little older, say 11 or 12 years old. I remember he and Levi Meeker were brothers-in-law, I don't know whether they married sisters or how it was they were brothers-in-law. It seems to me I knew Henry Wright's wife, though I don't remember much about her. I do not know her maiden surname, but I recollect her given name was Teresa. I don't know anything of her history, I don't know whether she had been married before she married Henry Wright. No, I don't recollect that her maiden name was Piquet. I don't remember that I knew any of her relatives only Levi Meeker and his wife, they lived on my step-father's farm, I believe Henry Wright and his wife also lived on our farm, I think they and Levi Meeker lived together. As to brothers and sisters of Henry Wright, it seems to me he had a younger brother here, I don't remember his given name, I don't remember that it was Lindsay. He was smaller than Henry Wright. Henry Wright was tall, six feet or more. Dark hair and eyes. I do not remember that he had any marks or scars. If he had a trade I do not remember what it was. I don't know whether he had been married before he married Teresa. I don't know where or when they married. Seems to me I heard they married at the home of Levi Meeker. I know they were recognized as husband and wife while they lived here after [remainder of affidavit missing]"

My age is 75 years. Address - Elsberry, Lincoln Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer and stock dealer. I have lived in this county since I was a few weeks old. I lived near Winfield in this county until eight years ago, in fact I lived in Winfield many years. I have examined a photograph which you handed me without informing me whose picture it is. The picture reminds me of Henry Wright, who lived on my step-father's farm near Winfield, Mo. before the Civil war began. He was there several years, or in that neighborhood, and married while he lived on my step-father's farm I believe. I remember he and Levi Meeker were brothers-in-law, and they all lived together or on that farm. Henry Wright was single when I first knew him, so far as I know he had never been married. He married while I knew him, at any rate it was reported he married, I know he had a woman living with him who was recognized as his wife. I know she had relatives named Genia, or maybe her maiden name was Genia, I have forgotten just how it was, I know there was a young man named Clem Genia who was a relative of the Wright's or Meeker's. I do not remember the given name of Henry Wright's wife. No, I would not say it was Teresa. I don't remember positively, but I believe she had been married before she married Henry Wright. I don't recollect her name before she married Henry Wright. I don't remember that her name was Runnells, Reynolds or Piquet. I don't know where she and Henry Wright married, well now I have an impression they married at the home of Levi Meeker. They left our neighborhood and later I heard they were separated. I do not remember hearing that they were divorced. I know nothing of the history of either of them after they left here, only I heard of him somewhere in Illinois. I know nothing of the history of that wife of Henry Wright prior to her marriage to him. I cannot name any of her relative only the Genia family, only Doug and Clem Genia, and Levi Meeker and wife, both dead, they had a son named Paul Meeker, I don't know his address. I don't know the given name of Henry Wright's father or mother, or of any of his brothers or sisters. he was the only member of that family that I knew. I don't know where he lived before he came to our neighborhood. I knew him as Henry Wright, I don't recollect his full name was William Henry Wright. I never hear of his being divorced from any woman. I a satisfied the photograph you have exhibited to me is a picture of the Henry Wright I knew before the Civil war. "Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 1 day of February, 1919, at Joplin, county of Jasper, State of Missouri, before me, Chas. A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Eli R. Havens, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 55 years old. Post office address and residence 2004 Empire Street, Joplin, Mo. I am in a restaurant at 2002 Empire Street.

the pensioner Maria J. Jennings of Reger, Mo., is my sister, and the only full sister that I have. Our parents were Henry B. and Mary A. Havens, both deceased. I have lived here in Joplin since 1875, with the exception of short intervals, and this has practically been my home all of these years. My sister Maria J. was first married to a soldier by the name of William H. Wright here in Joplin, but I dont remember the year, but I believe in 1877 or 1878. I was not at the wedding, but I knew of it, and knew that they lived together until his death, which occurred some 2 miles East of Reger, Mo. After his death she married a Mr. Jennings and lived with him until they were divorced, but I dont remember the year, and since then she has not remarried. I have kept in touch with her and visit her usually each year and then she has visited me at various times and in this way, I know that she has never been married but the two times.

I had known William H. Wright about one year prior to his marriage to my sister, and during that time he was living here in Joplin, and was a teamster, as I remember. I know that he had a big span of mules, and I believe that he was a teamster. as I understood, he had formerly lived in Indiana, and I did know the place, but I dont remember it now. I am pretty sure that he came to this city from Indiana, as I knew the man who came here with him. That man is Bruce Foreman, and he is living in Galena, Kansas. They came here together, as I remember, and I believe that they came from Indiana, but I dont yet remember the place.

Well, I have the impression that they went out to Kansas, and then came on to this place, and did not stop in Kansas. No sire, I dont understand that they stopped in Kansas. In fact I have recently interviewed Mr. Foreman and he told me that they did not even unpack their wagons. No sir, I dont know what part of Kansas they came through. No, I dont know that they stopped at Elk Falls, and even if they stopped there, they did not stay long, for Mr. Foreman told me that they went to Kansas but did not like it and returned and came right back here. I knew Wright about one year before he married my sister, and he was living here in Joplin all that time. I understood that Wright had been married prior to his marriage to my sister, and that his former wife was a sister to Bruce Foreman, and when I knew him, he had a boy by the name of Ed Wright, and this boy was a son of Wright and the Foreman woman. He is still living, and near Milan, Mo. I dont know when or where she died, but I heard talk of her death among the Foreman family and they will know all about her death. Some of the family live here yet.

Q. Had Wright been married to any one after he and the Foreman woman were married? A. No sir, not to my knowledge. I have never had any knowledge or information of any nature that he had ever been married to any one other than the Foreman Woman and the present pensioner, my sister. Well, now here recently my sister has written me and told me that she had learned that he had been married to another woman, but until this controversy came up, I had no knowledge of any marriage on the part of Wright except to the Foreman woman and my sister.

Q. did you hear that he had been previously married to a woman by the name of Brown - Lockey A. M. Brown? A. Only since this controversy came up, as my sister has written me about it, but at the time the soldier Wright married my sister, I had no knowledge of his having ever been married to a woman by the name of Brown. Never hear her name mentioned until my sister recently wrote me about her. No sir, I didn't know of Wright getting a divorce from any woman while he was living in Joplin, prior to his marriage to my sister. After Wright married my sister, they lived here about two years and then moved to near Reger, Sullivan County Mo., and lived there until his death. The above is absolutely all I know as to Wright's prior marital history, and if he had ever been married to any one else at any time I never heard of it. I now remember that Wright came here from Rockville, Indiana. It is y remembrance that he and Bruce Foreman came here from Rockville, Indiana and went on to Kansas, but did not like it out there and returned to Joplin, without ever unpacking their wagons in Kansas. If I heard the place in Kansas where they went to, I dont remember.

I never hear that Wright was ever married to a woman by the naem of Reynolds - Teresa Reynolds. Never heard of her, and as I tell you, I never heard that Wright had ever been married but the one time prior to his marriage to my sister, until this controversy came up and my sister wrote that she understood from the Pension Bureau that he had been married to Lockey Brown, but until that came up, I had never heard of such a woman. I dont know any of the interested parties except y sister. I have no financial interest in the pending claims.

I have hear the foregoing deposition read and it is correct, including "woman" inserted line 47 sheet 1, and "to" erased line 13 sheet 2 before signing.

On February 1, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Schuyler P. Havens, a brother-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit regarding his knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 1 day of February, 1919, at Joplin, county of Jasper, State of Missouri, before me, Chas. A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Schuyler P. Havens, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 47 years old. Post office address Joplin, Mo., and am a grocer at 2331 Annie Baxter Street. The pensioner Maria J. Jennings, is my half sister and I have known her all my life. I have a faint remembrance of her marriage to the soldier William H. Wright, and while I was small, I remember it as they were married at our home and I was present. They lived here in Joplin a short time - not over two years and then moved to near Reger, Mo., and lived together there until his death. I knew of his death, but was not at the funeral. She later married Mr. Jennings, but they only lived together a short time when they separated and were divorced, but I dont remember the date. I know that my sister has only been married the two times. She is a half sister of mine.

While I was quite small at the time my sister Maria married Mr. Wright and I knew nothing as to his prior marital history, altho I understood that he had been previously married as he had a son with him here in Joplin when he married my sister Maria. I knew this son Ed, and I lived with my sister and Wright for some time after they married.

I dont know the name of Ed Wright's mother, and while I may have heard her name, I dont remember that I ever did.

I did not know that Wright had been married more than one time before he married my sister Maria, and if he had been married more than one time prior, I knew nothing of it. I dont know whether Wright's prior wife was named Foreman or not. I understood that Ed Wright's mother was dead prior to the soldier's marriage to my sister Maria. And I know that Ed thought that his mother was dead, for I have heard him say so.

I dont know that Wright had been married to any woman and divorced from her, or that he had a living and undivorced wife at the time he married my sister. If he had ever been married before he married my sister, except to Ed Wright's mother, I never knew it.

Q. Have you ever heard that he had been previously married to a woman by the name of Lockey Brown? A. No sir, I never have, and it is the understanding among our family that Wright had not been married but the one time before he married my sister, and that to Ed Wright's mother, but if I ever heard her name, I dont remember it now.

No sir, I never hear that Wright had been married to Teresa Reynolds. I dont know how long Wright had lived here in Joplin prior to his marriage to my isster, but I remember that he had been "coming to see" my sister quite awhile before they married. He was working in the mines here at the time he married my siter Maria.

I dont know where he had formerly lived - whether in Kansas, I dont know. Well, I have understood that he had lived in Indiana, but I dont know that as a fact, and if so, I dont know where in the State.

My sister Louisa Belle Crawford, lives in a few miles of Mountain Home, Ark. They formerly lived in Seymour, Mo.

I am not related to any of the interested parties in this controversy except my sister, and I have no financial interest in the matter. I knew soldier's son Ed very well and lived with him for many years, and I know that he never knew of his father being married to any one except to his mother. And it seems that had soldier been married to Lockey Brown after Ed's mother's death, that he would have had some knowledge of it. I knew Mr. Wright very well and he was well liked by all and was a gentleman and straight every way, and I feel satisfied that if he had been previously married, that he was divorced from any former wife that was not dead when he married my sister, for as well as I knew him, I am satisfied that he would not have married my sister without at least fully believing that he was free to contract a legal marriage. I have heard the foregoing depostion read and it is correct.

On February 17, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Mollie B. Scrugs, a cousin-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit regarding her knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family:

On this 17 day of February, 1919, at Joplin, county of Jasper, State of Missouri, before me, Chas. A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Mollie B. Scrugs, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 58 years old. Post office address and residence 1204 Iowa Street Joplin, Mo. I am a cook and work out for my living.

I formerly knew the late soldier William H. Wright and I was well acquainted with him many years ago. I first met him at Leavenworth Kansas when he was living on a farm near there with his wife Mattie Foreman. he married her in Indiana, but I dont know the date, but I knew of the fact from my childhood as she was my cousin, being my father's brother's child. Mattie Foreman Wright died after I saw them living together at Leavenworth, but I dont know when or where, but I knew of it from hearsay, and knew that she died in childbirth. And then later he lived here in Joplin and married Maria J. Havens, and I also knew of their marriage. They lived here several years and then left, going up in Missouri, and Mr. Wright died there where Maria now lives.

Mattie Foreman Wright had one child by the soldier, and the child was called Edward, and I understand that he lives near Maria. As I remember Wright was living here in Joplin several years before he married Maria, and I saw him during those years and my sister boarded his boy.

After Wright and Mattie lived near Leavenworth they moved back to Illinois or Indiana, but I dont know which State, and then he later came here. No sir, I dont know that he lived in Kansas at any time except when he and Mattie lived near Leavenworth. Well, now since you ask, I think that he did live in Elk County Kansas, but I dont know when or how long. I understood that he was near Elk City, and that the took up a claim. Well, no he did not take up a claim but I understood that his father-in-law, Isaac Foreman did. Isaac Foreman is dead. Isaac Foreman was Mattie's father and I think that Wright was only in Elk County a short time visiting his father-in-law and didn't stay there long.

I dont know who was with Wright when he was in Elk County Kansas, except his son Ed, and they came here together and I understood that they had been out to Kansas visiting Mr. Isaac Foreman. I dont know of any one who will know of him being in Elk County Kansas.

Q. Was William H. Wright married after Mattie Foreman died, and prior to his marriage to Mara J. Havens? A. I understood so. I heard that he married Lockey Brown, and then she was so mean to his baby Ed, that he left her, but I dont know where he married Lockey Brown, or how long he lived with her, but I dont think very long, and I dont know where or when they separated. Q. Were they divorced? A. I dont know. Well, he surely must have been divorced from her, as he could not have remarried, but I really dont know. I just suppose so. Well, I dont know that I ever heard that he and Lockey Brown were divorced, but I suppose that they were, but if so, I dont know where or when.

Q. Had William H. Wright been married before he married Mattie? A. Not to my knowledge. I never heard that he had been and then he was a young man at that time. No sir, I never heard that he had been married to a woman by the name of Reynolds, or Runnels. In fact I have no knowledge that Wright was ever married to any one prior to his marriage to Mattie Foreman.

Bruce Foreman is living in Galena, Kansas, but his mother Eliza Foreman is dead. My sister Jane Grayless is living here in Joplin, but is working in Galena, Kansas. My maiden name was Mollie Foreman, and I a a cousin of Bruce Foreman and Mattie Foreman Wright. I was born in Indiana, and the Foreman family lived in that State years ago.

I had no other acquaintance with Mr. Wright than as set forth herein, and know nothing further as to his marital history or where else he lived. I am the widow of John Scrugs, but he was not a soldier.

I am a cousin of Maria J. Havens Wright, but I have no financial interest in the claim. I understood that she was getting a pension.

I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

On February 17 or 18, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Bruce Foreman, a former brother-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit regarding his knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 17 day of February, 1919, at Galena, county of Cherokee, State of Kansas, before me, Charles A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Bruce Foreman, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 58 years old. Post office address and residence Galena, Kansas. I get mail at Hardwick's Store Corner 17th and Main Streets. I am a boiler-maker by trade. I formerly knew the late soldier William H. Wright and at one time he was married to my sister Mattie Foreman. He married her in Rockville, Indiana, but I dont know the date, but it was in the '70's. They lived together until her death, but I dont know the date, but think 1879. They were living in Rockville, Indiana at the date of her death. She may have died in Danville, Ill.

Q. Who did Wright next marry after Mattie's death? A. A woman by the name of Locky Brown, and I understood that they married in the City of Rockville, but he did not live with her very long - about one year, and came away from there and I came with him. I remember that after he left Locky there in Rockville, he and I came out to Kansas to my father's home in Elk County. We drove through in a wagon. Father lived 6 miles West of Elk Falls, Elk County Kansas. We went to Elk Co. one fall and he stayed there all that winter and then we came to Joplin and there he met and married Maria Havens. He and Maria lived together until his death. I stayed in Kansas all the time Wright remained, and we came to Joplin together.

Q. Did he leave Locky Brown Wright in Rockville, Ind.? A. Yes, he did. He left her in the house where they were living. Just hitched up a team and came to where I was living and we came on to Kansas.

Q. Did he divorce Locky Brown Wright? A. No sir, I dont think he did. I dont think that either ever got a divorce from her, and I dont know that she ever got a divorce from him, or if so I never heard of it.

Q. Then you dont think that he got a divorce while he lived in Elk County Kansas? A. No sir he did not. He didn't get a divorce in Elk County, and did not get one in Joplin either. I was with him more or less all the time after he left Locky Brown Wright until he married Maria; and I am sure that I would have known it had he got a divorce, and I know he did not. I was in position to know and I am certain that he did not apply for a divorce either in Kansas or Mo. I never heard that they were ever divorced at any time.

Q. How did he happen to marry Maria Havens without being divorced from Locky Brown Wright? A. I guess that he thought that he didn't need it. She was a long way off and could not come out to Joplin, and then I suppose that he thought as he had been away from Locky so long that the "time run out". And then they were not so particular then about divorces like they are now.

Q. Was Wright married before he married your sister Mattie? A. No sir, he was not. Well, I never heard of him having been previously married. He had only been out of the army a short time at the time he married Mattie. I did not know him at all until he married my sister Mattie, but I always understood that he had not been previously married. Wright had plenty of money while he was in Elk County and sat around the house all winter. Well after Spring opened up he did some hauling. Well, I dont remember that he did any hauling until he came to Joplin. He had a good team of mules and we drove the team out from Indiana.

The above is all I know as to Wright's marital history.

I am not related to the claimant and have no financial interest in the claim. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

On February 18, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Jane Crandall, a former sister-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit regarding her knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 18 day of February, 1919, at Galena, county of Cherokee, State of Kansas, before me, Charles A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Jane Crandall, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 62 years old. Post office address Galena, Kansas, General Delivery. I am employed at the Banks Hotel as chambermaid. I formerly lived in Joplin, Mo., and my maiden name was Jane Foreman, and I was married to John Grayless in 1871, but he died August 16, 1896 or 7, and for many years I was known as Jane Grayless, as I was the widow of Mr. Grayless for so many years. My mother Mary Foreman is dead.

I am personally acquainted with the claimant Maria J. Jennings, and I knew her from her childhood, and knew of her marriage to the soldier William H. Wright. She and the soldier lived together until his death, but I know nothing of her since the death of Mr. Wright.

I knew Mr. William H. Wright for many years prior to his marriage to the claimant. He was first married to my cousin Mattie Foreman and they were married in Rockville, Indiana, but I dont know the date, but after they married they lived in Indiana some time and then they went to Leavenworth Kansas, and lived there some years, and then she and Mr. Wright went to Elk County Kansas and lived there about one year with her father and mother Isaac and Eliza Foreman, both now deceased. Then they went to Danville Illinois where she died, but I dont know the date, but I heard of her death at the time.

Q. Did William H. Wright marry after the death of his wife Mattie Foreman and prior to his marriage to Mara Havens? A. Yes, sir, he did. He married Lockey Brown in Rockville, Indiana, but I dont know the date. After they married it appears that they did not live together very long, not over one or two years, and then he left her at Rockville, Indiana and came to Elk County Kansas and lived there with us - Mr. Grayless and myself for several months - nearly one year. He and his little boy Ed Wright stayed at our house, and lived with us, and at that time we lived 7 miles West of Elk Falls on what is know as "Wild Cat" creek. We were on a claim and he lived there with us and was a freighter. he freighted from Independence to Elk Falls and to other towns around there, as that was in 1875 and there were no Roads there at that time. He came to our house in Elk County in September 1874, and we all came to Joplin together in April 1875, and after he came to Joplin he and his boy Eddie boarded with us until he married Maria. I dont know of him living at other places after he married Locky Brown, until he married Maria in 1875 in Joplin, Mo.

Q. Was he divorced from Lockey Brown Wright? A. I dont know.

Q. Did he make application for a divorce from Lockey Brown Wright in Elk County while he lived there? A. No sir, he did not. I am sure that he did not, or I would have known something of it. While I dont think that he did, and if he did, it was secretly and I never knew of such from any source. Well I understood that he married Maria without getting a divorce from Locky Brown, but as to that I dont know. But I am sure that I never knew of him getting a divorce from Lockey Brown, and I never heard him talk of such. He made his home with my husband and myself all the time he lived in Elk County, and that was in 1874-5, just as I tell you. Well, he may have obtained a decree of divorce in Jasper County, but I never hear of such. This is all I know of Wrights marital history and if he and Lockey Brown Wright were ever divorced I never knew of such. I dont know whether Maria knew that he had not been divorced from Lockey, at the time he married her, but ifhe was I did not know it.

Q. Was William H. Wright married before he married Mattie? A. I dont know, as he was a stranger to us at the time he married her, and I know nothing as to his prior marital history, but he was older than Mattie and may have been previously married. I understood that he had lived in Rockville Indiana before he married Mattie.

I am not related to the claimant and have no financial interest in the pending claim. "the" inserted line 2, "in" erased line 4, "I" inserted line 5 before signing. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

On March 26, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Clem L. Genie, a former nephew of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit regarding his knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 26 day of March, 1919, at Lawton, county of Comanche, State of Oklahoma before me, N. H. Nicholson, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Clem L. Genie, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 77 years old. Hotel Keeper. P.O. Lawton, Comanche Co Okla.

Teresa Pickett was a sister of my mother. The name is spelled Pickett. Teresa was first married to a man named Ed Reynolds in the county of Calhoun, Ill. Reynolds was a clerk in a store for a man named Bosbeschell in the country. I did not see them married but knew of it, and they kept house in that county for some time. Mother and I visited them after they went to housekeeping. She married Reynolds about 1850 or 1851 but the exact date I do not remember for I was small.

They did not live together long and Reynolds left her and I have never seen or heard of him since. I do not know whether Reynolds was a soldier in the Civil war or not as I never heard of him after he left my aunt. I do not know where Reynolds was from and never knew any of his people. After Teresa and Reynolds separated she moved to Hardin, Calhoun County, Ill. and lived in a cabin belonging to a man named Abe Gui or Frank Gui, and I think it was Frank Gui. While she lived there she had a child by Gui and named the child Frank. I never heard that Teresa ever was divorced from Reynolds and never heard that Reynolds ever got a divorce. I do not know where Reynolds went but after the separation Teresa lived in Calhoun Co. Ill. and then went to Lincoln co. Mo., and was living with my aunt Antoinette Meeker and there she was married to Henry Wright. I had known Henry Wright since he was a little boy and I knew his father. Henry Wright was in Calhoun Co. Ill. when I first knew him. Now, I have a distinct recollection of seeing him when he was a tall raw boned boy and working with his father in the woods.

I know they were married at the home of my uncle and aunt, Meeker, but I am not sure that I was present. This marriage was before the war too but I will not attempt to state the date of the marriage.

I am satisfied Teresa never applied for a divorce and I do not believe she did but I cannot say she did not. I do not think she ever knew where Reynolds went to after he left her. No, she had no children by Reynolds. Her first child was by Gui and is the boy Frank. Now, I will say that Frank is the first child I ever knew of her having and if she had any before that I know nothing of them. Henry Wright was never married before he married Teresa. I knew him well and know he was not married before he married her. Henry Wright and Teresa lived together until after the war and he left her and I never knew what became of him but from some source I heard that he went to Kansas and was married again but at what place I never heard. I never heard of any divorce between Teresa and Wright and do not think there ever was on the part of Teresa. If Teresa ever married again I never heard of it.

I do not know just when Wright and Teresa separated but they were living together in 1866. I know they were living together then for in that year I came back from California and shipped a box to them and intended to go to where they were living near Cobden, Union Co. Ill. and I sent the box and on my way there I got work and did not go on and wrote to him and he sent the box back to me. I never saw him then and it was not long after that until I heard they had separated.

Teresa had two or more children by Wright. There was Julie and Henrietta. Yes, I think Julie was her first child by Wright.

All of the family of my mother are dead unless it be her youngest sister Annie, of whom I have heard nothing since before Teresa and Wright were married. She disappeared in St. Louis before she was of age and I believe she is dead. Now since thinking it over the family name of Teresa was spelled Piquette. Paul Meeker was my cousin and he is dead many years. Doug. Genie is my half brother but is too young to know anything about this matter. I always knew Wright as Henry Wright and do not know if he had a double name or not. I do not know his father's first name. I have no interest in this case and have heard the foregoing read and it is correct.

The 1920 Census for Fountain County, Indiana, listed Lockie Bailey in the Alva M. Ellis household on February 3, 1920, her relationship as mother in law, her age as 72 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1848, and her marital status as widowed.

On May 4, 1920, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Susannah (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman, a former sister-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit setting forth her memory of William Henry Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215405

On this 4 day of May, 1920, at Dongola county of Union, State of Illinois before me, C. M. Lane, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Susannah Coleman, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 72 years of age, am not able to work and my P.O. address is Dongola, Ill. I am now the wife of Thomas Coleman. I was once the wife of Lindsey Harper Wright. Henry Wright and his father, Harrison Wright, came into this county just before or about the time the war broke out and Lindsey came a little later. The war was going on when I was married to Lindsey. His father had married my mother, Mrs. Smiddy. Lindsey was in the war as a member of Co. A 11th Ill. Inf. and Henry was with him and Lindsey was wounded and died as a result thereof. I was once pensioned as his widow.

When he came in here Henry Wright had a wife Teresa. I used to stay with her at Cobden, Ill. That was when Lindsey was in the army. Her oldest child, Julia, stole everything she could get her hands on and I left.

Old man Wright lived until after the war and died at his Son's, Henry's, at Cobden, Ill. He and mother lived together until he died however; mother was just away temporarily hunting a place to move to.

All of these Wrights came here from Indiana some place and I never knew any of their folks if they had any. I just knew the ones I have named.

Teresa had three little children by Wright one of whom was named Henrietta. I do not remember the youngeer ones' names. Then Teresa had two children older, the said Julia and Frank, and she told me that they were by her husband, Reynolds. Do not think I ever heard Reynold's given name. I asked no particular questions and learned nothing about Reynolds, did not learn where he was or what became of him. She said she and he had separated. She did not say that she and Reynolds had been divorced and I do not believe they were or she would have said something about it as she was saying that he was disagreeable to get along with. I do not think she knew where he was.

I do not think that Teresa had ever lived down in this country here or about Cairo, Ill. before she came here with Henry Wright. I do not know where she and Reynolds separated.

I did not pay much attention to the Wrights after my husband died.

No, I never learned what became of the girl Julia. No, I never learned that she left her mother. She never married that I know of. I just supposed that she left the country with her mother Teresa. Julia was older than Frank and they were both called Reynolds.

Julia was getting to be a good sized girl when I last saw her.

Teresa and Wright separated, I heard in some way, but I do not know where, whether at Cobden or elsewhere I don't know. Anyway Teresa left Cobden and I never kept in touch with her and never knew a single place where she was after she left there and I never knew any places where Henry Wright was after he left this country.

I never heard whether Teresa and Henry were divorced.

From the way Teresa talked to me, I am pretty certain that she never divorced Reynolds. I think from what she said that he just stepped off and left her.

I am not related to the claimant in this case that I know of, and have no financial interest in this case.

I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

Special Examiner"

On March 25, 1921, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Maria J. Jennings filed a further affidavit in support of her claim for a pension in right of the service of her first husband William Henry Wright:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215405

On this 25 day of March, 1921, at Reger county of Sullivan, State of Missouri, before me, Elmer E. Helman, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Maria J. Jennings, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during the special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My P.O. address is Reger, Sullivan Co., Mo., Age 62 last July, and I am the widow of Andrew J. Jennings, who was not a pensioner, though I think he was in the Militia of Missouri. he has been dead about three years. I had two children of my marriage to Jennings: Claude S. Jennings, who went west, and I have not heard from him for seven years, dont know whether living or not - Lova L. Jennings, now the wife of Garrel Hoffman, near Jamesport, Mo. She is nearly 32 years old.

By my first husband, William H. Wright, I had three children: William B. Wright, St. Francis Hotel, St. Louis, Mo., about 38 years old, married, and he is manager of the St. Francis Hotel, and also proprietor, does not own the building, just hired, works on a salary. He was in the World War, and was a Captain, and was in France - Mollie A. wife of Thomas L. Ford, farmer, near Reger, Mo., and she is 42 years old - Nellie May, wife William A. Kelley St. Joseph, Mo., and he is a butcher in Swifts Packing House. Nellie must be about 40. These are all my children. William H. Wright had a son by a former marriage, Eddie I. Wright, farmer, near Green City, Mo.

William H. Wright had just bought a little farm when he died, and it was not paid for. He died in 1883. My daughter, Mollie, now lives there. They bought it of a man named George McKinstry. My son, William B. Wright, was in the Philippine army too, and after he came back from the Philippines, he sold the little farm. The guardian of my children had bought the land in for my son, William B. Wright, paying each one of the heirs one hundred dollars, and I think I received one hundred dollars. There were 80 acres. Land was cheap then. I do not know what we agreed to pay. We gave back a mortgage, or there was a mortgage on the place. My husband paid only a wagon and team on the place as first payment. William H. Wright, my first husband, left no will. All the estate that he left was that 80 acres of land, unpaid for, a team and a couple of cows.

My husband, Andrew J. Jennings, had a house and lot in Browning. I do not know what became of it, as we had been divorced. he had two children by a former marriage: Lou and Ella. Lou is now the wife of Charles Richmond, and she lives at Browning, Mo. Ella is married, do not know present name, and lives somewhere in Iowa.

When I was divorced from Andrew J. Jennings, about 20 years ago, I received in settlement, $300.00 cash, no real estate.

After my divorce from Jennings, I lived in Reger, Mo. I bought this piece of property where I live, trading like. I bought property in Reger about 12 years ago, the property next door to where I live, buying from William Rogers. I paid $41.00. Then I traded that for another property in Reger, east of the church. I got $100.00 cash in the trade. I got that property near the church from a man named McCard. Then I sold that property for $325.00 to Peter Ford, and he lives there now. Then I bought another property in the east part of town from Mrs. Jacobs, and was to pay $600.00 for it. I paid a part of it, then about that time, I got my pension, and I traded the Jacobs property for the place where I now live. I bought this place from Henry Ford in the trade. I gave him the Jacobs property, which was encumbered, and he gave me this place clear. This place where I now live has never been mortgaged since I have it, and it is now clear, and the title is in my name. I do not own a thing in the world now but this little house and lot. It is my recollection that this place stood at about $500 when I bought it. I do not believe, I could get more than $500 for it now. I own no other real estate, and I have no right title or interest in any real estate anywhere. I have no investments of any kind. I hold no notes against any person. I have no mortgage investments. I have no money in the bank, do not have one dollar, except as given to me by my children.

This record indicates that Henrietta C. (Wright) (Baker) (Spore) Styers was born in February 1862 and that Washington Spore was born in November 1839. Although this record listed them as married for 13 years, this was probably referencing Henrietta' first marriage to Daniel G. Baker; the listing for Washington Spore initially listed 34 years, which would be for his first marriage, and that was crossed out and 13 years inserted, presumably to match the listing for Henrietta.

On November 26, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Henrietta C. Styers, a daughter of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit setting forth her memory of his family and identifying herself as the second child of William Henry Wright and

Teresa Augusta (Piquet) (Runnells or Reynolds) Wright:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215,405.

On this 26 day of November, 1918, at near St. Charles, county of St. Charles, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Henrietta C. Styers, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 55 years. I was born February 24, 1863, near "Capaugris" Lincoln Co. Mo., near "Old Monroe", Lincoln Co. Mo. My occupation is doing my own housework. I am separated and divorced from my last husband George Styers. I was formerly the wife of Daniel G. Baker, now dead. I am a daughter of William Henry Wright and Teresa Wright. Mother's maiden name was Teresa Augusta Piquett. She was first married to Edward Randall, I believe they married in Calhoun Co. Ill. I know she told me she lived in Calhoun Co. Ill. I don't know just where in Calhoun Co., I think about Russell, no Brussells, or near Hardin. Now I remember she told me that when she married Edward Randall they came across the Miss. River to within about two miles from this place where I now live, and that they were married by a Justice of the Peace named Judge, given name unknown. They were married in this county. I don't know the exact date of their marriage but I think it was shortly before the Civil war began. They returned to Calhoun Co. Ill. I think mother got the divorce and I suppose she got it in Calhoun Co. I know I heard her say that after she got the divorce she went to stay with her sister, Antoinette Meeker, wife of Levi Meeker, both now dead. They have no child living. While mother was there she became acquainted with my father, William H. Wright and she married him in Lincoln Co. Mo. I don't know the date of their marriage, but I was their second child, their first child died when about two weeks old. I think the child was named Mary Alice. I was their next child, The next child was named Henry Wright and died an infant. I don't remember that child. Then the next child was Charles Wright, now dead. The next and last child was John Harvey Wright, now living in St. Louis, Mo. I don't know his city address, he is a carpenter. He was born in 1869 in March. I don't believe he remembers his father, because father left mother when John was about two years old, or in 1871. He had a habit of leaving us and staying several months and then coming home again. We were living near Cobden Union Co. Ill. when he left us, he had bought a little place there and wanted to sell it and mother would not sign the deed. One day mother took me and my brother John with her to Cobden and father claimed he was going to a log rolling in the neighborhood. When mother got home she found that father had taken his best clothing and a satchel and gone. She never afterwards saw him. Sometime later one of her near neighbors, John Carr, got a letter from him asking information as to what mother had done with the children. The letter was from Rockville, Indiana. Carr brought the letter to mother and neither he or mother answered the letter. Later, I don't know how long, he visited his aunt Elizabeth Daniels, near what is now Winfield, Lincoln Co. Mo. and he had a woman with him. He said she was his wife and also said that his former wife, my mother, was dead. I don't know what her given name was. His aunt told me of that visit when I visited her when I was about seventeen years old. I don't know just what year it was my father left mother, it may have been as early as 1870, I had been under the impression my brother John was about two years old when father left us, but maybe he was not that old. I understood that my mother was his first wife and she told me he was her second husband. He has a cousin named Clem L. Genie now living in Lawton, Okla. who told me he knew my father when he was a boy, and he knows my father's history from his childhood. Father claimed he was born in Kentucky, or his parents came from Ky. He had brothers named Frank, he was a cripple, I have been told he fell down stair and broke his back. There was a brother named Lindsey who was also in the Union Army during the war. was killed while a soldier. They are the only brothers I remember hearing of. He had one sister, I don't know her name. I can't name any other cousin or other relative. I understood he and his parents lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. when he, my father was a boy, somewhere about Troy, someplace about there. After marrying my mother they moved over into Ill. near Cobden, Union Co. and lived there until he left her. My aunt Elizabeth Daniels and her husband are dead. They had no children. She also told me that some years after father brought that woman to her home he wrote her that he was in trouble; that he had married a preacher's daughter and had one child, given name of the child unknown, and that his wife had died in Kansas and he was left with the child and did not know what to do with that child. I don't know what became of that child, but his last wife, the one that is pensioned as his widow, wrote me that he had a son when she married him, named William I believe, I mean the child's name was William, I really cannot be sure as to his name. I don't believe I ever heard the name of that wife of my father. There is a man named Winfield Scott Kellum, he has a brother named Dave Kellum. they knew my mother and also my father. They lived in Winfield. Mo. In Cobden, Ill. our neighbors were John Carr, a man named Tweedy, given name unknown, he had a son John Tweedy, E. N. Clark, raised fruit and vegetables, given name unknown. Father worked for him and we lived in his, E. N. Clark's, houses. I cannot name any others. I think we remained there only two or three months after father left us. Then we moved to Grafton, Jersey Co. Ill. we came therein the fall of 1871, it may have been in 1870. We lived there one year or year and a half. I remember there Mrs. Minta Wright, given name of her husband unknown. Mrs. Barlow, she was called "Aunt Dicey Barlow", I believe her husband was James Barlow, Mrs. Wright was his sister, and Mrs. Wright's husband has a harness shop in Grafton, Ill. I can't name others now living. From Grafton, Ill. we moved to St. Charles, Mo. and mother lived in St. Charles, Mo. most of the time until she died. I believe we came to St. Charles in 1873, in the fall. We lived in St. Louis, Mo. in 1894 and 1895, then back to St. Charles, Mo. Then in 1909 we moved to Idaho, Boise City, and mother died there October 23, 1909, about one week after we arrived there. I was present when she died. I have no record of the date of her death. I have forgotten the undertakers name. She was treated by Dr. Beck, given name unknown. I am positive my mother never applied for a divorce from my father. I never heard that he obtained a divorce from my mother. In St. Charles, Mo. all the folks that we knew when we first came there are dead. I will name Capt. James Hill. Bridget Enright, 4th St. near Olive. Joe Strathman's wife Kate. 1133 Vine St. I heard mother name cousins of my father living in Ind. but I have forgotten their names. I heard mother say he had an uncle living at or near Rockville, Ind. Father had a cousin named Kittie Parker, wife of William Laborn Parker, both are dead, they lived near Winfield, Mo. I don't know the names of the wives of the cousins in Ind. I do remember cousins Harvey, Tom and Eugene, they were children of his own cousin. Tom's wife was Lou Overall, or Dorsey, She had a step-father named Dorsey or Overall, I don't know which name was her own name. Father's father died at our home while father was living with us, his name was William Henry Harrison Wright, so I was told. Father's mother was named Mary and her maiden name was Irvin. He had a cousin named Mary Irvin who married Griffin Jenkins, both are dead. That cousin has other sisters Susan and Nan, both dead. Susan married Richard McCormick. Nan married Grif Jenkins after his wife Mary died. I heard mother mention an aunt of father's named Polly Wright. I don't remember hearing he had a cousin or relative who was deaf and dumb. Father was tall, six feet and two or three inches tall, His eyes were brown, I think his hair was black or dark brown. His skin was dark. He had no marks or scars that I remember. He had not lost any finger or thumb that I remember. He had no trade that I remember, he was a common laborer. I heard mother say he was discharged from the army because he had inflammatory rheumatism. I can remember when I was a child he had inflammatory rheumatism and would be in bed weeks at a time. I had his certificate of discharge from the army, had it a good many years. I think I may still have it but don't know just where it is. I have a picture of my father that is a copy of a tin-type I had, which father had taken while he lived with mother. I had an enlarged picture taken from that tintype, but left it with other things in Boise City, Idaho. The tintype was what was called a "daguerreotype". (Deponent exhibits photograph which appears to be a copy from another picture. A comparison of this picture with the picture of soldier furnished by claimant Maria, I should have said by Lockey A. Bailey, shows without doubt that both pictures are pictures of the same man. H. L. E., Spl. Exr.) I think father's skin was rather dark, not real dark, his whiskers were light brown. I don't remember that he had lost a part of either thumb. I have forgotten what his service was. I wrote to the Pension Office intending to apply for a pension for mother if I found that father was dead. I had been told to write to the Pension Office and that if he had ever drawn a pension they would be able to tell me where he was if living or whether he was dead. I received an answer stating he was dead and that a woman had married him and had children by him and that a guardian had been appointed, or maybe it was that child by the wife who died in Kansas, at any rate there were children pensioned as his children. I was told the name of the guardian of the children and I wrote him several letters and sent him the picture I have shown you, which he returned to me. Later I heard a man was here to see me and said he had business with me. I did not see him and never knew his business. A neighbor told me a man was hunting me and said he wanted to see me about some of my folks that was dead. That might have been the man you have mentioned who claimed he came to see me as to my claim that I was a daughter of William H. Wright. If any man came to my home to ascertain whether William H. Wright was my mother's husband and my father I did not suspicion what his business was. I did not file a claim for pension for my mother because the Pension Office wrote me that he left children by a lawful wife and I did not see what I could do in the matter. I knew nothing about the pension business. I wrote several letters to the Pension Office and I was unable to get any satisfaction, so I let the matter drop. I am not related to this claimant I have no interest in this pension matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct. I will add that my father's cousins Tom, Harvey and Eugene Parker lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. Harvey is dead. Tom lives near Winfield or Argentville, Lincoln Co. Mo. Eugene did live near Desoto, Mo., I don't know whether he still lives there. Mother's first husband, Edward Randall, had never been married before he married my mother, at any rate not that I ever heard of. I am sure mother got a divorce from him. Either in Lincoln Co. Mo. or in Calhoun Co. Ill. The word "Grafton" on line 31, first sheet of this deposition was crossed out and the words "Cobden, Union Co." on line 31, first sheet of this deposition, "him" on line 7 of this sheet were interlined before signing.

The marriage record of Blanche A. Baker and Oliver Duquette dated on July 22, 1922, in Santa Anna, Orange County, California, listed her parents as Daniel Baker and Henrietta Wright.

On February 23, 1934, in Civil War Pension File 762685 Blanch Baker Duquette wrote to the Commissioner of Pensions regarding the claim made by her mother in 1902:

"Los Angeles Cal.

Comm Pensions
Was, D.C.

Dear Sir:

In 1903 my mother Mrs. Henrietta Spore made application to the pension office for my Fathers pension for my sister and Myself, then miner children. Our fathers name was Daniel Gilbert Baker. He served in a New York Infantry in the Civil War, he died in 98 or 99. at Linderman Mo. My mother never completed the claim so we, my sister and I did not get the allowance we hoped for to help us through school.

I would like to know just what my mother failed to prove in making the claim, for I feel that I can finish it now.

Yours Truley

The claim for the unpaid portion of the pension was denied.

My age is 55 years. I was born February 24, 1863, near "Capaugris" Lincoln Co. Mo., near "Old Monroe", Lincoln Co. Mo.

I am a daughter of William Henry Wright and Teresa Wright. Mother's maiden name was Teresa Augusta Piquett. She was first married to Edward Randall, I believe they married in Calhoun Co. Ill.

.....

While mother was there she became acquainted with my father, William H. Wright and she married him in Lincoln Co. Mo. I don't know the date of their marriage, but I was their second child, their first child died when about two weeks old. I think the child was named Mary Alice. I was their next child, The next child was named Henry Wright and died an infant. I don't remember that child. Then the next child was Charles Wright, now dead. The next and last child was John Harvey Wright, now living in St. Louis, Mo. I don't know his city address, he is a carpenter. He was born in 1869 in March. I don't believe he remembers his father, because father left mother when John was about two years old, or in 1871. He had a habit of leaving us and staying several months and then coming home again. We were living near Cobden Union Co. Ill. when he left us, he had bought a little place there and wanted to sell it and mother would not sign the deed. One day mother took me and my brother John with her to Cobden and father claimed he was going to a log rolling in the neighborhood. When mother got home she found that father had taken his best clothing and a satchel and gone. She never afterwards saw him.

On November 27, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, John Harvey Wright, a son of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit setting forth his memory of his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215,405.

On this 27 day of November, 1918, at St. Louis, county of St. Louis, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared John Harvey Wright, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age is 52 years. I believe I was born near Cobden, Union Co. Ill. February 28, 1864. Occupation - Carpenter. I am a son of William Henry Wright and Thresa Wright, her maiden name something like Pickett or Picquett, it is a french name and I don't know how it is spelled. She died in Boise City, Idaho. I do not remember the month or year. I was not there when she died. I do not remember seeing my father only once. I was very small and mother had made me a pair of pants and I remember father coming home and I had my new pants on for the first time. That is the only recollection I have of having seen my father. My sister Henrietta knows the history of my parents much better than I do. She and our mother talked about him and also mother's history, I paid no attention to the matter and then too I have been away from mother, at work, since I was big enough to work. I have lived in this city since about 1890. My first recollection of living anywhere was at Grafton, Ill. I think we lived there three or four years. Then mother moved, with her children, to St. Charles, Mo. She lived there most all the time after that time until she went to Boise City, Idaho, well, she died within a very short time after arriving in Boise City, Idaho. We lived about two years in Lincoln Co. Mol, between Winfield and Foley. I don't remember the years we were there, I guess I was about 12 when we left there and returned to St. Charles. Mo. We all came to this city in 1890 and I was married Jany. 2, 1891, so I know we came here during the fall of 1890. Mother lived here then about two years, I know she returned to St. Charles in 1892. I don't know just where mother was raised. She had been married once before she married my father. Her first husband was named Reynolds, I don't know his given name or where he and mother were married or when they married. I believe I have been told they separated. I don't know when or where they separated. I do not know whether mother got a divorce from him or whether he got a divorce from her. I have understood my father left my mother when I was small and that she never saw him after he left her. I have never heard anything of his whereabouts that I now remember. I heard my sister Henrietta say she had corresponded with some woman in north Mo. who claimed she was his wife. I knew very little of the matter. Mother used to talk about trying to get a pension as father's widow and I think Henrietta wrote some letters about it but it never came to any thing. I believe the story I was told of my father leaving mother was that he ran away with a red-headed woman, eloped with her. I never hear her name, or if I did I do not remember what it was. I don't know whether she was a married or a single woman. I was too small too have understood anything about it. One of my relatives that was a relative of my mother's is Doug Genia, living here in St. Louis. I cannot name any other relative of mother's only Doug Genia's brother Clem Genia, I don't know his address. They are children of mother's sister Julia Genia, now dead, her husband is dead. I cannot name one of my father's relatives now living. I think my sister Henrietta can name some of father's relatives. So far as I ever knew or heard, my mother was married only twice, first to Reynolds and then to my father. She has a son by Reynolds named Frank, he is usually called Frank Wright, she had a girl by Reynolds, she is dead. If my sister gave the name of mother's first husband as Randall I believe she was mistaken in the name, I think it was Reynolds. I have no idea what became of him. I am sure mother never remarried after my father left her. I have never heard that my father had been married before he married my mother. Sister Henrietta could not have given her age correctly, there was one or two children between her and I, and I believe I was born in 1864. She has argued the matter with me and has claimed I was not as old as I believe I am, she does not want to have folks know how old she is. I never met any of the claimants in this pension matter. I have no interest or prejudice in the matter. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

On September 13, 1918, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Eddie I. Wright, son of William Henry Wright, filed his affidavit regarding his knowledge of his father:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings,

No. 215,405

On this 13 day of September, 1918, at near Boynton, county of Sullivan, State of Mo., before me, H. L. Elliott, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Eddie I. Wright, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My age unknown to me, I think I must be about 47 years old. Address - RFD 1, Boynton, Sullivan Co. Mo. Occupation - Farmer. I believe I was born October 8, 1871 [1871]. William H. Wright was my father. My mother was Mattie Foreman, I have always understood that she was his first wife and that she was never married until she married my father. I was very young when my mother died, it seems to me I remember something of her funeral, the crowd and everybody being so solemn impressed my mind and I have remembered it. I don't know what year she died. I think she died in Indiana. I don't know just where. I think she died at the home of some of her relatives or my father's relatives, I do not know which it was, and I don't remember the names of those relatives. I remember father had a wife called Lockey Brown, and I remember his living with her and that I was with them. That was also in Indiana, but I don't know where in Indiana. I do not know how long father lived with Lockey, I know nothing of their marriage, I only know they lived together awhile and that father went away and left me with her, then an uncle of mine, my mother's brother, whose surname was Foreman, took me to my father. I don't know where he took me, when he took me to father we found father in a covered wagon and we traveled in that wagon to Kansas, to the home of my grandmother, my mother's mother, Eliza Foreman. A distant relative of father's named John Grayless was also in that neighborhood. I think we were near Elk Falls, Kansas. I don't know how long we stayed in Kansas, I am sure we were there one winter. I understood that my father and mother had been out there and took up a land claim; that mother became ill and father took her back to their relatives in Ind. and soon after she died. Then he married Lockey Brown and right after he left her he took me and went back to his old claim. I don't know how old I was when we went to Kansas, I was small. We next moved to Joplin, Mo. I do not know what year it was we went to Joplin, Mo. I don't remember how long we had been there when father married Maria Havens. I know he lived as the husband of his wife Maria from the time they married until he died. I am sure they were not separated or divorced. I am positive his widow Maria did not remarry only to Andrew J. Jennings and she obtained a divorce from him and has never remarried since then.

Q. Did your father ever have a wife other than your mother and the woman Lockey and this pensioner Mariah J. Jennings? A. Not that I ever had any knowledge of. If he did it must have been before he was married to my mother. Quite a number of years ago I heard of some woman who lived in St. Charles, Mo. having written to my mother and claimed her mother was my father's widow also that he was the father of said woman, I mean the woman who wrote the letter to my mother. I was told that mother had Mr. Calfee, a lawyer living in Milan, Mo. go to St. Charles and investigate the claims of that woman. I don't now remember what he learned, I suppose I was told, but I have since forgotten. I know it was not considered there was anything to the claims of that woman. That was the only time I had ever heard of that alleged other wife of my father's and if she was ever his wife I know nothing of it. In calling this pensioner my mother I should have said my step-mother. I refer to Maria J. Jennings. I have never heard that my father had ever lived in Missouri prior to the time I went with him to live in Joplin, Mo. I have never heard he ever lived in Lincoln Co. Mo. I don't know whether he was usually called William Wright or Henry Wright. I think his full name was William Henry Wright. He has no relative living that I know of. My mother has relatives living in or near Joplin, Mo. They are Bruce Foreman, I don't know his city address. I don't believe I can name any other of my mother's relatives. Eli Havens, in Joplin, Mo. will be able to give the address of Bruce Foreman. I cannot name one postoffice where my father lived before he took me with him to Kansas. I cannot name any father's relatives now living. John Grayless is dead, his widow Jane Grayless lives in the northeast corner of Okla. Eli Havens will know her address. I think her mother is still living, I believe her name is Mrs. Eliza Foreman. I don't know where my father lived before he enlisted, I suppose he lived somewhere in Ill. As to how many children father's wife Lockey had, I remember only one and that child was a baby when I left her, I think the child was a girl. I never before heard that Lockey had two children. I never before heard of Mrs. Mary Wright of Waynetown, Ind., Mrs. Margaret Wright of Rose Hill, Iowa or Reuben Lough of Danville, Ill. I have no pecuniary interest in this claim for pension. I have heard this deposition read and it is correct, excepting that Jane Grayless and her mother Eliza Foreman must have been related to my mother.

My age is 40 years.

My father was William H. Wright and I have always understood he was mother's first husband. I just do remember him, as I was about five years old when he died.

Of course I know he had a son Eddie Wright, who was a son by a former wife and I have heard that that wife died before he, William H. Wright, married my mother.

On February 18, 1919, at Civil War Pension File No. 215,405, Jane Crandall, a former sister-in-law of William Henry Wright, filed her affidavit regarding her knowledge of William Henry Wright and his family and which identified Eddie Wright as a son of William Henry Wright:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings, No. 215,405.

On this 18 day of February, 1919, at Galena, county of Cherokee, State of Kansas, before me, Charles A. Hughes, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Jane Crandall, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 62 years old.

Q. Did William H. Wright marry after the death of his wife Mattie Foreman and prior to his marriage to Mara Havens? A. Yes, sir, he did. He married Lockey Brown in Rockville, Indiana, but I dont know the date. After they married it appears that they did not live together very long, not over one or two years, and then he left her at Rockville, Indiana and came to Elk County Kansas and lived there with us - Mr. Grayless and myself for several months - nearly one year. He and his little boy Ed Wright stayed at our house, and lived with us, and at that time we lived 7 miles West of Elk Falls on what is know as "Wild Cat" creek. We were on a claim and he lived there with us and was a freighter. he freighted from Independence to Elk Falls and to other towns around there, as that was in 1875 and there were no Roads there at that time. He came to our house in Elk County in September 1874, and we all came to Joplin together in April 1875, and after he came to Joplin he and his boy Eddie boarded with us until he married Maria. I dont know of him living at other places after he married Locky Brown, until he married Maria in 1875 in Joplin, Mo.

On February 11, 1918, in Civil War Pension File 19,465, Alma Ellis filed her affidavit regarding her father William Henry Wright:

"Case of Lockey A. M. Bailey No. 19,465

On this 11th day of February, 1918, at Hillsboro, county of Fountain, State of Indiana, before me, F. L. Churchill, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Alma Ellis, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 42 years of age. P.O. Hillsboro, Indiana.

I am the wife of Alva Ellis, a farmer. The claimant is my mother. I am her only living child. I do not remember ever seeing my father. I know by hearsay that his name was William Henry Wright. I have heard the statement my mother has made in her case, and it is the same as I have always heard about my father. I can not add anything that would help to locate him or assist in determining what his army service was. I know that I have never heard anything as to what became of my father, except that I have heard about the letter that came to Mr.

Hungerford of Rockville, and from which it was supposed that my father was dead.

The picture of my father that was sent to the Pension Bureau came to me from a Mrs. Nannie Holmes, who was a daughter of a cousin of my father. It was her mother who was a cousin of my father. She was a Mrs. Lowe, but he has been dead for years. Mrs. Holmes was visiting here, and she told me that she thought that she had a picture of my father. When she went home she sent it to me. That was about eight years ago. I remember that the name was written on the back of the picture, but I do not know who wrote the name or whether it was William H. or William W. Wright. Mrs. Holmes lives someplace in Minn. but I do not know her address. She has a sister Mrs. Edith Gephart, Danville, Ill. wife of Eddie Gephart. My husband's mother's uncle was the husband of a cousin of my father, and that cousin was the mother of Mrs. Holmes, but she has been dead for years. I do not know any other relatives of my father but that one family.

I know that my mother did not remarry after my father disappeared until she married Thomas Bailey. She lived with Mr. Bailey from the date of their marriage until his death, and was never divorced from him. I know that she was not remarried since the death of Thomas Bailey. She has lived with me for the last six years.

I have no financial interest in the case. I have heard the above read, understand the questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

Alma Ellis

"Case of Maria J. Jennings No. 215405

On this 25 day of March, 1921, at Reger county of Sullivan, State of Missouri, before me, Elmer E. Helman, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Maria J. Jennings, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during the special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My P.O. address is Reger, Sullivan Co., Mo., Age 62 last July, and I am the widow of Andrew J. Jennings,

By my first husband, William H. Wright, I had three children:

. . . .

William B. Wright, St. Francis Hotel, St. Louis, Mo., about 38 years old, married, and he is manager of the St. Francis Hotel, and also proprietor, does not own the building, just hired, works on a salary. He was in the World War, and was a Captain, and was in France - Mollie A. wife of Thomas L. Ford, farmer, near Reger, Mo., and she is 42 years old - Nellie May, wife William A. Kelley St. Joseph, Mo., and he is a butcher in Swifts Packing House. Nellie must be about 40. These are all my children. William H. Wright had a son by a former marriage, Eddie I. Wright, farmer, near Green City, Mo.

William H. Wright had just bought a little farm when he died, and it was not paid for. He died in 1883. My daughter, Mollie, now lives there. They bought it of a man named George McKistry. My son, William B. Wright, was in the Philippine army too, and after he came back from the Philippines, he sold the little farm.

The guardian of my children had bought the land in for my son, William B. Wright, paying each one of the heirs one hundred dollars, and I think I received one hundred dollars. There were 80 acres. Land was cheap then. I do not know what we agreed to pay. We gave back a mortgage, or there was a mortgage on the place. My husband paid only a wagon and team on the place as first payment. William H. Wright, my first husband, left no will. All the estate that he left was that 80 acres of land, unpaid for, a team and a couple of cows.

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215405

On this 25 day of March, 1921, at Reger county of Sullivan, State of Missouri, before me, Elmer E. Helman, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Maria J. Jennings, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during the special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

My P.O. address is Reger, Sullivan Co., Mo., Age 62 last July, and I am the widow of Andrew J. Jennings,

By my first husband, William H. Wright, I had three children:

.....

William B. Wright, St. Francis Hotel, St. Louis, Mo., about 38 years old, married, and he is manager of the St. Francis Hotel, and also proprietor, does not own the building, just hired, works on a salary. He was in the World War, and was a Captain, and was in France - Mollie A. wife of Thomas L. Ford, farmer, near Reger, Mo., and she is 42 years old - Nellie May, wife William A. Kelley St. Joseph, Mo., and he is a butcher in Swifts Packing House. Nellie must be about 40. These are all my children. William H. Wright had a son by a former marriage, Eddie I. Wright, farmer, near Green City, Mo.

William H. Wright had just bought a little farm when he died, and it was not paid for. He died in 1883. My daughter, Mollie, now lives there. They bought it of a man named George McKinstry. My son, William B. Wright, was in the Philippine army too, and after he came back from the Philippines, he sold the little farm. The guardian of my children had bought the land in for my son, William B. Wright, paying each one of the heirs one hundred dollars, and I think I received one hundred dollars. There were 80 acres. Land was cheap then. I do not know what we agreed to pay. We gave back a mortgage, or there was a mortgage on the place. My husband paid only a wagon and team on the place as first payment. William H. Wright, my first husband, left no will. All the estate that he left was that 80 acres of land, unpaid for, a team and a couple of cows.

The death record of William Harold Wright dated on October 18, 1952, in Fulton, Callaway County, Missouri, listed his parents as William B. (Wayne) Wright and Signe

T. Johnson and his birth on November 15, 1939, in St. Louis, Missouri.

c. Thomas Wright

Thomas Wright was a son of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Harrison M.³)

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Thomas Wright in the Harrison Wright household and his age as 10 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1840.

The 1860 Census for Union County, Illinois, listed Thomas Wright in the William Wright household on June 12, 1860, and his age as 21 and born in Virginia. While this might have been the household of William Wright and Thomas Wright, the sons of Harrison M. Wright, the listing of their place of birth in Virginia is inconsistent with the known residence of Harrison M. Wright's residence in Kentucky and so further research will be required to confirm or deny the identification of this Thomas Wright.

d. 1865 Lindsey Harper Wright Of Union County, Illinois, His Wife Susannah Lucrecia (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman, And His Descendants

1865 Lindsey Harper Wright of Union County, Illinois, was a son of Harrison M. Wright and Mary Ann (Erwin) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Harrison M.³)

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey H. Wright in the Harrison Wright household and his age as 6 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1844.

Lindsey Harper Wright has not as yet been found in the 1860 Census.

In her letter dated January 31, 2008, Karen Wright enclosed a copy of the marriage record of Lindsey H. Wright and Susan Smidy dated September 18, 1862, at Union County, Illinois:

"State of Illinois)

D. 1862 by Thomas Hilman a County Judge duly authorized to solemnize marriages by the Statute of the State of Illinois, as

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and attached the seal of said County Court, at my office in Jonesboro this 31st day of July A.D. 1865

Alex J Nimmo

Illinois, Marriage Index, 1860-1920, available from Ancestry.com. also listed the marriage of Lindsey H. Wright and Susan Smiddy on September 18, 1862, in Union County, Illinois:

"Name: Lindsey H Wright

In her letter dated January 31, 2008, Karen Wright enclosed copies of the muster rolls for Lindsey Wright in the 109th Illinois Infantry Regiment:

In her letter dated January 31, 2008, Karen Wright enclosed excerpts from Patriotism of Illinois, by T. W. Eddy, published in 1865, which discussed the 109th Illinois Infantry Regiment:

"ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH ILLINOIS INFANTRY

Of one Illinois regiment we have an inglorious record to make. We would gladly omit it, but the trust of history compels it, and it will at least serve to illustrate the wonderful strength of treason in our midst, and by its contrast aid to illumine the record of the men who did their duty. The 109th regiment was organized at Anna, Union County, and mustered into the service on the 17th of September, 1862. It was freely charged and generally believed, that he regiment was composed almost exclusively of the knights of the Golden Circle. The following special order from the War Department tells as much of its history as it is necessary for us to follow:

'Lake Providence, Louisiana
April 10, 1863

Special Order No. 6

The officers of the 109th regiment Illinois Volunteers, except those of Company K, having been reported as utterly incompetent to perform the duties of their respective commissions, and evincing no disposition to improve themselves, are hereby discharged from the service of the United States.

This is the regiment which was within a few miles of Holly Springs when attacked by the rebels, failed to march to the support of their comrades, but drew in their pickets, and stood ready to surrender. From nine companies 347 men deserted, principally at Memphis, and but one from Company K. To render the men efficient, it is necessary to transfer them to a disciplined regiment, and they are accordingly transferred to the 11th regiment Illinois Volunteers, Company K to make the tenth company.

By order of the Secretary of War
S. Thomas, Adjutant General

Adjutant General's office.
Washington, April 24, 1863.'

In her letter dated January 31, 2008, Karen Wright enclosed numerous documents relating to Lindsey Harper Wright and his service in the Civil War, which documents are set forth in more detail below.

The muster roll of Company A, 11th Illinois Infantry, dated April 1863 and probably April 24, listed Linzy Wright:

Patriotism of Illinois, by T. W. Eddy, published in 1865, discussed the 11th Illinois Infantry Regiment:

"ELEVENTH ILLINOIS INFANTRY

The 11th regiment was organized at Springfield and was mustered into the three months' service on the 30th of April, 1861 On the 30th of July it was re-mustered for the three years' service

till February 11th, when it moved to Lake Providence. It made headquarters here till April 20th. On the 23d the 389 "faithful men" of the 109th Illinois Infantry were transferred to the 11th. April 26th the 11th marched to the rear of Vicksburg, arriving May 18th. On the 19th and 22d, it participated in assaults upon the enemy's works, and then in the advance siege works till the rebel surrender. During the assaults and siege it lost one field officer (Colonel Garrett Nevins) killed and three line officers and forty men killed and wounded. on the 17th of July it moved with an expedition to Natchez, participating in another to Woodville, Mississippi, returning to Vicksburg, October 12th, making its headquarters there till July 29, 1864. In the meantime it took part in various expeditions, skirmishing at Liverpool Heights, February 5th, Yazoo City, March 5th, and at several other places. July 29th it moved to Morganzia, and remainder there till September 3d, thence by water, to the mouth of the White River, Arkansas. On the 18th of October it moved to Memphis, Tennessee, returning to White River on the 27th. From this time it was engaged in "general campaigning", till February 4, 1865, when it moved to Dauphin Island, and from the 17th of March till April 12th, was engaged in operations against Mobile, on the latter date marching into and taking possession of the city. It had a part in the investment and siege of Spanish Fort and Fort Blakely, and in the assault on the latter. On the 27th of May it left Mobile for New Orleans, from thence to Alexandria La., where it remained till June 22d, when it was sent to Baton Rouge, where it was mustered out of service on the 14th day of July, 1865, and was sent thence to Springfield, where it was paid off and finally discharged."

This record indicates that Susannah Lucrecia (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman was born in May 1846 and that Thomas L. Coleman was born in August 1835.

Thomas L. Coleman and Susannah (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman have not as yet been found in the 1910 Census.

The 1920 Census for Dongola Village, Union County, Illinois, listed Susan A. Coleman in the Elmer Coleman household on January 5, 1920, her relationship as mother, her age as 71 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1849, and her marital status as married.

The 1920 Census for Johnson County, Illinois, listed Thomas Coleman in the Joseph F. Thomas household on February 5, 1920, his relationship as father in law, his age as 84 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1836, and his marital status as widowed.

These last two records taken together indicate that Susannah Lucrecia (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman and Thomas L. Coleman had probably separated before January 5, 1920.

In her letter dated January 26, 2007, Karen Wright enclosed a copy of the affidavit of Susannah (Smiddy) (Wright) Coleman dated May 4, 1920, formerly the wife of Lindsey Harper Wright, setting forth her memory of her former husband Lindsey Harper Wright and his family:

"Case of Maria J. Jennings

No. 215405

On this 4 day of May, 1920, at Dongola, county of Union, State of Illinois before me, C. M. Lane, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Susannah Coleman, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 72 years of age, am not able to work and my P.O. address is Dongola, Ill. I am now the wife of Thomas Coleman. I was once the wife of Lindsey Harper Wright. Henry Wright and his father, Harrison Wright, came into this county just before or about the time the war broke out and Lindsey came a little later. The war was going on when I was married to Lindsey. His father had married my mother, Mrs. Smiddy. Lindsey was in the war as a member of Co. A 11th Ill. Inf. and Henry was with him and Lindsey was wounded and died as a result thereof. I was once pensioned as his widow.

When he came in here Henry Wright had a wife Teresa. I used to stay with her at Cobden, Ill. That was when Lindsey was in the army. Her oldest child, Julia, stole everything she could get her hands on and I left.

Old man Wright lived until after the war and died at his Son's, Henry's, at Cobden, Ill. He and mother lived together until he died however; mother was just away temporarily hunting a place to move to.

All of these Wrights came here from Indiana some place and I never knew any of their folks if they had any. I just knew the ones I have named.

Teresa had three little children by Wright one of whom was named Henrietta. I do not remember the younger ones' names. Then Teresa had two children older, the said Julia and Frank, and she told me that they were by her husband, Reynolds. Do not think I ever heard Reynold's given name. I asked no particular questions and learned nothing about Reynolds, did not learn where he was or what became of him. She said she and he had separated. She did not say that she and Reynolds had been divorced and I do not believe they were or she would have said something about it as she was saying that he was disagreeable to get along with. I do not think she knew where he was.

I do not think that Teresa had ever lived down in this country here or about Cairo, Ill. before she came here with Henry Wright. I do not know where she and Reynolds separated.

I did not pay much attention to the Wrights after my husband died.

No, I never learned what became of the girl Julia. No, I never learned that she left her mother. She never married that I know of. I just supposed that she left the country with her mother Teresa. Julia was older than Frank and they were both called Reynolds.

Julia was getting to be a good sized girl when I last saw her.

Teresa and Wright separated, I heard in some way, but I do not know where, whether at Cobden or elsewhere I don't know. Anyway Teresa left Cobden and I never kept in touch with her and never knew a single place where she was after she left there and I never knew any places where Henry Wright was after he left this country.

I never heard whether Teresa and Henry were divorced.

From the way Teresa talked to me, I am pretty certain that she never divorced Reynolds. I think from what she said that he just stepped off and left her.

I am not related to the claimant in this case that I know of, and have no financial interest in this case.

I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.

8. Probably Bennett Wright, His Wife Zelpha (Mead) Wright, And His Descendants

Bennett Wright was probably a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Bennett Wright as a son of Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. But there is circumstantial evidence that makes that identification probable.

First, as set forth above and below, the 1840 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, listed only three Wrights, Lindsey Wright, Washington Wright, and Bennett Wright and both Washington Wright's age and Bennett Wright's age were appropriate to be sons of Lindsey C. Wright.

Second, as set forth below, Bennett Wright resided in 1850 in Clark County, Indiana, where Augustin Wright resided with Elizabeth Wright, his probably widowed mother. The move from Henry County, Kentucky, to Clark County, Indiana, and the proximity of residences suggest a family connection.

Nevertheless, further research will be required to confirm this identification. The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation that has been found regarding Bennett Wright.

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey Wright with nine males in his household in addition to himself, three of whom were born between 1810

Wright household on August 3, 1870, his age as 27 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1843, and his occupation as blacksmith. This may have been the brother of William J. Wright, but more probably was his cousin Silas M. Wright, the son of Bennett Wright, for two reasons. First, Silas Wright, the brother, was born in about 1847 or 1848 while Silas Wright, the cousin, was born in about 1840 or 1843 or 1844 or 1846 and those earlier dates of birth fit the Silas in this record. And second, Silas Wright, the cousin, was also known as Silas M. Wright and no record of Silas Wright, the brother, has as yet been found which listed him with a middle initial M.

The marriage record of Silas M. Wright and Nannie J. Jones was dated on January 16, 1872, in Henry County, Kentucky:

Newspapers.com listed the following news article of the death of Bessie Mae Whitman dated April 15, 1952, in The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Kentucky:

"Woman Clearing Throat With Wire Kills Herself

A 45-year old woman, who used a straightened wire coat-hanger to clear her throat of a piece of chicken gizzard, died at 10:30 a.m. yesterday in General Hospital, Dr. George Dwyer, coroner, reported.

Dwyer said Mrs. Bessie Mae Whitman, 672 S. Fifth, punctured her esophagus three times with the wire. Death resulted when the punctures permitted blood and fluid to enter her lungs and air to get into body tissues, Dwyer said.

Mrs. Whitman's husband, Robert Whitman, gave this account to Chief Deputy Coroner William T. Kammerer:

The two were eating a noon dinner in their apartment Sunday when Mrs. Whitman became choked. Whitman gave his wife the 15-inch long wire, the end of which was wrapped in gauze. He had used the wire several times to relieve himself of choking spells.

The housewife stuck an end of the wire in her throat and her choking ended. But later in the afternoon she started spitting blood. She walked with her husband to General Hospital.

Kammerer said Mrs. Whitman was operated on at the hospital and a tube placed in her throat. After her heart apparently stopped beating Sunday night another operation was performed and physicians massaged her heart.

Her pulse was restored and she lived until 10:30 a.m. The body is at Manning Funeral Home."

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding the death of Thomas Wright dated November 21, 1917, from The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Kentucky:

"Tanner Avoiding Train Killed By Switch Engine

Thomas Wright Is Struck By Locomotive On Way Home From Work.

Thomas Wright, a tanner employed at the plant of the George Moser Leather Company, Silver street and the Pennsylvania railroad, New Albany, who lived at 1524 East Market street, was killed almost instantly by a Pennsylvania switch engine while on his way home from work about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. In company with Edward Doherty, a fellow-workman, he was walking down the railroad track when a freight train approached. As he stepped out of the way he was struck in the back by a switch engine going in the opposite direction. His body was cut almost in two just above the hips and his right arm was severed at the elbow. He was dead when Doherty reached him within a minute after the accident.

Dr. C. E. Briscoe, County Coroner, was called shortly after the accident and after he had viewed the body it was taken to the undertaking establishment of Frank A. Kraft to be prepared for burial. Dr. Briscoe will return a verdict of accidental death.

The switch engine was in charge of J. J. Reich, engineer, and D. M. Ploutner, fireman. Reich stated that in attempting to avoid the approaching train Wright stepped in front of his engine so near that he could not stop in time to avoid the accident.

Wright was 58 years old. Besides his widow he is survived by a daughter, Miss Mamie Wright, and four sons, Ward Wright, of New Albany; Thomas and Grover Wright, of Joliet, Ill., and Charles Wright, who is in the service at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss. He was a member of Central Christian church. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed."

This record indicates that Thomas Simpson Wright was born in about 1889 and that Nellie Ellen (Wilkinson) (Blackwell) Wright was born in about 1891. The presence of Doris L. (Blackwell) Fuller the household in this record in conjunction with her marriage record, the 1920 Census, and the British Army enlistment record set forth above identify Nellie Ellen (Wilkinson) (Blackwell) Wright as the second wife of Thomas Simpson Wright. The original listing of Doris Fuller's father's birthplace as England was correct, but the census reviewer apparently changed the location to Kentucky to conform to the listing of Doris as the daughter of Thomas, but this was a compound mistake, since Doris should have been listed as the step daughter of Thomas.

U.S. City Directories, 1821-1989, available from Ancestry.com, listed Thomas S. Wright and Ellen Wright in Joliet, Illinois, in 1932, 1933, 1937, and 1938 and his

"Name: Thomas S Wright

Residence Year: 1956
Street address: 1007 Kelly av

The listing of his wife as Millie rather than Nell was probably a mistaken listing.

U.S., Social Security Death Index, 1935-2014, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Thomas Wright in October 1969:

"Name: Thomas Wright
SSN: 327-09-6370

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Thomas Wright and Ellen Wright in the Oakwood Cemetery, Joliet, Will County, Illinois:

"Wright
Thomas Ellen
1888 - 1969 1891 - 1974"

Findagrave.com also listed the joint gravestone of Thomas Simpson Wright and Christian C. Wright in Fairview Cemetery, New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana, but without a year of death and with the notation that "There is no record of his burial in this lot." The stone was apparently prepared for both Thomas Simpson Wright and his first wife Christina Caroline (Michel) Wright, but then only used for Christina.

- iii. Mary Or Mayme Elizabeth (Wright) (Cullen) Evans,
Her Husbands Barton Cullen And William Joseph
Evans, And Her Descendants

Mary or Mayme Elizabeth. (Wright) (Cullen) Evans was a daughter of 1917 Benjamin Thomas Wright of Floyd County, Indiana, and Roxie Ann (Louden) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Bennett³, 1917 Benjamin Thomas⁴)

The 1900 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, listed Mary Wright in the Thomas Wright household on June 1, 1900, her relationship as daughter, and her birth in April 1890 in Kentucky.

The marriage record of Mayme Wright and Borton Culleon was dated on September 9, 1905, in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky:

"Marriage License.
The Commonwealth Of Kentucky.

To any Minister of the Gospel, or other person Legally Authorized to Solemnize Matrimony:

Your are permitted to solemnize the Rites of Matrimony between Borton Cullion and Mayme Wright the requirements of the law having been complied with.

U.S. City Directories, 1821-1989, available from Ancestry.com, listed Mary E. or

Mamie Cullens, widow of Barton Cullens, in New Albany, Indiana, in 1909 and 1915:

"Name:	Mary E Cullens in 1909 Mamie Cullens in 1915
Gender:	Female
Residence Year:	1909 & 1915
Street address:	526 E 4th in 1909 1903 E Mkt in 1915
Residence Place:	New Albany, Indiana, USA
Spouse:	wid Barton Cullens
Publication Title:	New Albany, Indiana, City Directory, 1909 & 1915"

As set forth below, the 1920 Census indicated that Mayme Elizabeth. (Wright) Cullen was divorced and so the term widow in this record may have been used as a euphemism for divorce.

The 1920 Census for Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, listed Mamie Cullen in the Charles Simpson household on January 8, 1920, her relationship as boarder, her age as 30 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1890, her marital status as divorced, and her occupation as telephone operator.

U.S. City Directories, 1821-1989, available from Ancestry.com, listed Mamie E. Cullens in New Albany, Indiana, in 1921 and her occupation as phone operator:

"Name:	Mamie E Cullens

Street address:	2137 Willow
Residence Place:	New Albany; Jeffersonville, Indiana, USA

The Helming-Larrimore Family Tree, compiled by Patricia Larrimore and available from Ancestry.com, listed the following obituary for Grover Wright, undated and no newspaper listed, but probably from a newspaper published in February 1937 in New Albany, Indiana, and which listed Mrs. J. H. Evans as his sister and residing in Detroit, Michigan:

"Grover Wright, 46, Dies In Illinois

Grover Wright, 46, Joliet, Ill., formerly of New Albany, died at 7 o'clock Sunday night in a hospital in the former city, following a two days' illness from pneumonia, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Thomas Wright, 92 Galt street. Surviving also are the widow; three daughters and one son; a sister, Mrs. J. H. Evans, Detroit, Mich., and three brothers, Thomas Wright, Joliet, and Wardie Wright and Charles Wright, New Albany. Funeral services and burial will take place in Joliet."

The 1940 Census for Oakland County, Michigan, listed Joe Evans with the following household on May 3, 1940:

This record indicates that Mary or Mayme Elizabeth. (Wright) (Cullen) Evans was born in about 1891 and that William Joseph Evans was born in about 1897 and also indicates that they were residing in Detroit, Michigan, in 1935, which is consistent with the newspaper obituary of Grover Wright.

Michigan, Marriage Records, 1867-1952, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Mayne E. Cullen and William J. Evans on June 3, 1949, in Monroe, Monroe County, Michigan:

"Name:	Mayne E Cullen [Mayne E Wright]
Gender:	Female
Race:	White
Age:	57

License County:	Monroe
Marriage Date:	3 Jun 1949
Marriage Place:	Monroe, Monroe, Michigan, USA
County File Number:	286

It is unclear why the 1940 Census listed this couple as married and the marriage record listed them as married in 1949, unless they had not yet married in 1940, but were living together and held themselves out as married before their legal marriage.

U.S., Social Security Applications and Claims Index, 1936-2007, available from Ancestry.com, listed the following for Mayme Evans in a claim dated July 12, 1962:

j. Charles L. Wright, Probably Charles L. Wright, His Wife
Lorena E. (Sturdivant) Wright, And His Descendants

Charles L. Wright was a son of Bennett Wright and Zelpha (Mead) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.², Bennett³)

The 1870 Census for Clark County, Indiana, listed Chas. L. Wright in the Bennett Wright household on August 4, 1870, and his age as 8 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

No further documentary evidence has been found which can be firmly identified as relating to Charles L. Wright, the son of Bennett Wright and Zelpha (Mead) Wright. However, as more fully set forth below, circumstantial evidence indicates that he was probably the same Charles Wright who resided in New Albany, Indiana, in 1880, married and divorced Lorena E. Sturdivant, and had three children with Lorena.

The remainder of this section sets forth the documentation regarding the Charles L. Wright who married Lorena E. (Sturdivant) Wright and their descendants.

In her email dated October 23, 2018, Karen A. Wright enclosed a copy of a Claim For Minor's Pension for Lorena Sturdevant which listed her parents as James Sturdevant and Eliza (Richey) Sturdevant and her birth on April 7, 1861:

The 1870 Census for Charlestown, Clark County, Indiana, listed Laurena Sturdevant in the Laura Sturdevant household on June 30, 1870, and her age as 9 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1861.

The 1880 Census for New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana, listed a Charles Wright in the Emil Hartman household on June 14, 1880, his relationship as brother, his age as 18 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1862, and his occupation as mill worker. The name, place of residence, year of birth, and place of birth are all consistent with Charles L. Wright, the son of Bennett Wright listed in the 1870 Census. However, the relationship of brother in this record would indicate that he was a brother of Francis Hartman and no documentation has as yet been found that identifies Francis (Wright) Hartman as a daughter of Bennett Wright and Zelpha (Mead) Wright. Nevertheless, this Francis Hartman, who was listed in the 1880 Census as age 38 and born in Kentucky, might be the same person as the Francis Wright listed in the 1850 Census in the Bennett Wright household as a son and age 11 and born in Kentucky. An examination of the original image indicates that the sex of Francis in the 1850 Census may have been written over with an M in place of an F and there is a check mark next to that listing. In addition, as noted by Karen A. Wright, this conclusion is supported by the 1840 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, set forth above which listed Bennett Wright with no sons and two daughters age 0 to 5 years, which would be consistent with Francis of the 1850 Census being a daughter. Neither a marriage record of Francis Wright and Emil Hartman nor any other record indicating that Francis Hartman was Francis (Wright) Hartman has as yet been found and so further research will be required to confirm that the Charles Wright in this 1880 Census record was the same person as Charles L. Wright, the son of Bennett Wright.

The 1880 Census for Otisco, Clark County, Indiana, listed L. Sturdevant in the Lafayette Baker household on June 15, 1880, her relationship as niece, and her age as 18 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

The marriage record of Charles L. Wright and Lorena E. Sturdevant was dated on May 15, 1884, in Floyd County, Indiana:

"State Of Indiana, Floyd County, Sct.

Albany, Floyd County, Indiana, listed his parents as William L. Wright and Margaret Daily and his birth on August 3, 1922, in New Albany, Floyd County, Indiana.

9. Wright

 Wright was a son of 1849/50 Lindsey C. Wright and Elizabeth (Wilcher) Wright. (Jesse¹, 1849/50 Lindsey C.²)

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey Wright with nine males in his household in addition to himself, three of whom were born between 1810 and 1820.

The 1830 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed Lindsay C. Wright with four males in his household in addition to himself, two of whom were born between 1815 and 1820 and the last of whom was born between 1820 and 1825.

The 1840 Census for Henry County, Kentucky, listed Lindsey Wright with one male in his household in addition to himself, born between 1820 & 1825.

The three census records taken together indicate that this son of Lindsey C. Wright was probably born in about 1820.

C. Milly (Wright) Stratton And Her Husband William Stratton

Milly (Wright) Stratton was a daughter of Jesse Wright, Sr., (Amherst County) and Susannah (Harper) Wright. (Jesse¹)

The Deeds Of Amherst County, Virginia, 1761-1807, And Albemarle County, 1748-1763, by The Rev. Bailey Fulton Davis, stated that on March 12, 1796, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. H/87 William Stratton acted as a witness to a deed of trust executed by Jonathan Pugh to Jonathan Stratton.

The marriage record of Milly Wright and William Stratton was dated on July 24, 1796, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"I do hereby Certyfy that I consent for My Daughter Milly to Entermarry With William Stratton as Witness My hand & Seal this 21 Day of July 1796

Test
Wm Lavender
Linsey Wright
To Clark of Amherst

Jesse Wright

Amherst to Wit

William Lavender made Oath before me, a Justice of the Peace for sd County, that he saw Jesse Wright Sign & Seal the within Certificate, & that he Subscribed his Name as a Witness thereto. Given under my hand this 23rd Day July 1796.

Saml. Meredith

Know all men by these presents that we William Stratton & William Lavender are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Robert Brooke Esquire Governor of Virginia and to his Successors in Office in the Just and full sum of one hundred and fifty Dollars to the Payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs &c firmly by these presents as Witness my hand and Seals the 24 day of July 1796

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that whereas there is a Marriage Shortly intended to be had and Solemnized between William Stratton Bachelor & Milly Wright Spinster each of Amherst County and parish aforesaid if therefore there should be no lawful cause to obstruct the said Marriage then the above Obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force and virtue

William Stratton"

Since Jesse Wright was married on January 6, 1773, and his two sons were born in 1773 and 1774, Milly (Wright) Stratton was probably born after 1774 and if she was at least 16 years of age when she married, she was probably born before 1780.

The Deeds Of Amherst County, Virginia, 1761-1807, And Albemarle County, 1748-1763, by The Rev. Bailey Fulton Davis, stated that on January 1, 1801, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. 1/185 William Stratton acted as a witness to the sale of a slave named George by William Lane to Middleton Lane.

The 1805 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, did not list William Stratton.

The Index of Grantees and Grantors of Land for Gallatin County, Kentucky, available from FamilySearch.org, did not list any person named Stratton as grantee or as grantor.

The 1806 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with the following household on March 31, 1806:

Dates of Receiving Lists	March 31
Persons Names Chargeable
With the Tax	William Stratton

These two tax records indicate that William Stratton had not transferred 50 acres to William H. Stratton and the clerk had mistakenly reduced William Stratton's acreage in the 1822 Tax List. However, that probably reflected the belief of the clerk that the 50 acres of land of William H. Stratton had been acquired from William Stratton, reinforcing the indication that William H. Stratton was probably a son of William Stratton.

V/107 Robert Tinsley, as Clerk of the Court, sold to Jonathan Thompson, Jr., a tract of 40 acres of land on the Blue Ridge 25 miles northwest of the courthouse belonging to William Stratton, residence unknown, by reason of 7 cents due in back taxes.

The Family Garden Family Tree, compiled by Linda Walker, stated that William Stratton was the son of John Stratton and Mary (Shannon) Stratton and was born in 1776. However, no source reference for this information was provided.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton were the following:

- 1) Probably William H. Stratton, born between 1794 and 1804,
- 2) Probably Polly (Stratton) Kenador, born between 1794 and 1810,
- 3) ____ Stratton, a son, born between 1804 and 1810,
- 4) ____ Stratton, a son, born between 1804 and 1810,

- 9) ____ Stratton, a daughter, born between 1810 and 1820.

1. Probably William H. Stratton

William H. Stratton was probably a son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. (Jesse¹, Milly²)

The 1810 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with three males other than himself in his household, one of whom was age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1800.

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with five males other than himself in his household, one of whom was age 16 to 26 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1804, two of whom were age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1804 and 1810, and two of whom were age 0 to 10, indicating a year of birth between 1810 and 1820.

Total Value	175

As set forth above, the 1822 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, also listed William Stratton immediately adjacent to William H. Stratton and the reduction in the amount of his land from 1821 to 1822 matched the acreage in the new listing of William H. Stratton, indicating that William H. Stratton was probably a son of William Stratton.

The 1823 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William H. Stratton immediately adjacent to William Stratton with the following household:

Again as set forth above, the 1823 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, also listed William Stratton with 150 acres of land, similar to what he had been charged with for years prior to 1822 and the correction to the amount of his land indicates that the clerk mistakenly thought William Stratton had transferred 50 acres to William H. Stratton, which reinforces the indication that William H. Stratton was a son of William Stratton.

The 1824 Tax List for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William H. Stratton with the following household:

2. Probably Polly (Stratton) Kenador And Her Husband Mathew Kenador

Polly (Stratton) Kenador was probably a daughter of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. (Jesse¹, Milly²)

The 1810 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with three daughters in his household, one of whom was age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1800, and two of whom were age 0 to 10 years, indicating a date of birth between 1800 and 1810.

The marriage of Polly Stratton and Mathew Kenador was dated on March 18, 1828, in Gallatin County, Kentucky:

"Gallatin County Sct

By Virtue of a license to me directed By the Clerk of said County I did on this day Join in marriage Mathew Kenador and Polly Stratton as the Law directs this 18 day of March 1828.

J.(?) George Strother"

The only Stratton listed in the Gallatin County, Kentucky, Tax Lists for the period 1806 through 1821 was William Stratton and in conjunction with this marriage record indicates that Polly (Stratton) Kenador was probably a daughter of William Stratton and Milly (Wright) Stratton.

3. Stratton

The 1810 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with three males other than himself in his household, one of whom was age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1800, and the other two of whom were age 0 to 10 years, indicating a date of birth between 1800 and 1810.

The two census records taken together indicate a date of birth for this daughter in about 1810.

7. Stratton, Possibly Elisha B. Stratton, His Wives Matilda () Stratton, Mary (Antle) Stratton, And Emeline (Briscoe) Stratton, And His Descendants

Stratton, possibly Elisha B. Stratton, was a son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. (Jesse¹, Milly²)

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with five males other than himself in his household, one of whom was age 16 to 26 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1804, two of whom were age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1804 and 1810, and two of whom were age 0 to 10, indicating a year of birth between 1810 and 1820.

The two census records taken together indicate a date of birth for this son between about 1810 and 1820.

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Elisha B. Stratton as a son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. However, circumstantial evidence supports that possible identification. The time of birth and place of birth of Elisha B. Stratton are consistent with his being the fourth son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. In addition, Elisha B. Stratton resided primarily in Henry County, Kentucky, which is situated very near to Gallatin, Oldham, and Trimble Counties where William Stratton lived and no other person who was both surnamed Stratton and old enough to be the father of Elisha B. Stratton has as yet been found in that area. Finally, the oldest son of William Stratton was William H. Stratton and the fourth son of Elisha B. Stratton was named William H. Stratton. While that evidence indicates a possible identification as father and son, further research will be required to confirm it.

The remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found regarding Elisha B. Stratton and his wives, but because of the tentative nature of this identification, the discussion is not extended to his descendants.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Malinda Stratton in the New Castle Masonic Cemetery, New Castle, Henry County, Kentucky, and as part of that listing included a copy of the Family Bible of Joseph W. Stratton posted by Diana Greb, which stated in part as follows:

8. Stratton, Possibly George Stratton, His Wife Mary J. (Teague) Stratton, And His Descendants

Stratton, possibly George Stratton, was a son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. (Jesse¹, Milly²)

The 1820 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed William Stratton with five males other than himself in his household, one of whom was age 16 to 26 years, indicating a date of birth between 1794 and 1804, two of whom were age 10 to 16 years, indicating a date of birth between 1804 and 1810, and two of whom were age 0 to 10, indicating a year of birth between 1810 and 1820.

The two census records taken together indicate a date of birth for this son between about 1810 and 1820.

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies George Stratton as a son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. However, circumstantial evidence supports that possible identification. The time of birth and place of birth of George Stratton are consistent with his being the fifth son of Milly (Wright) Stratton and William Stratton. In addition, George Stratton resided in Trimble County, Kentucky, and William Stratton lived in Gallatin and Oldham Counties, which are very near to Trimble County, and eventually lived in Trimble County and no other person who was both surnamed Stratton and old enough to be the father of George Stratton has as yet been found in that area. Also, George Stratton named his oldest son William Stratton, which follows a common pattern of a son naming his oldest son after his father. And finally, the death record of James S. Stratton listed his father George Stratton as born in Virginia and while that is inconsistent with other records regarding the birthplace of George Stratton, as set forth above, William Stratton did move from Virginia to Kentucky and this listing may reflect a memory of the origins of George Stratton's family. While that evidence indicates a possible identification of father and son, further research will be required to confirm it.

The remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found regarding George Stratton and his wife, but because of the tentative nature of this identification, the discussion is not extended to his descendants.
