This record indicates that Thomas Chapel Wright was born in November 1855, that Lelia A. (Legard) (Wallace) Wright was born in May 1863, and that Lelia A. (Legard) (Wallace) Wright had two children by her first marriage.

In September 1905 at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 4572, Harry B. Wright, as an heir of Thomas C. Wright, filed a complaint for the sale of his father's land:

"To The Honorable Frank P. Christian,
Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County:

Your Orator, Harry B. Wright, respectfully represents that his father, Thomas C. Wright, died about four months ago, in Bedford County, intestate, leaving as his only heirs and distributees his widow Lelia Wright, and the following children, towit: your Orator, the said Harry B. Wright, Arthur Smith Wright, Ernest Thomas Wright, Kathleen Wright, Minnie Wright, Aileen Wright and Sam'l Chapel Wright, the last six of whom are infants under twenty-one years of age; that the said Thomas C. Wright, deceased, died seized and possessed of small personal estate, which has been committed to the sheriff of Bedford County for administration; that the said Thomas C. Wright, at the time of his death, was also seized of a tract of land lying on the waters of Echols Creek, about five miles Southeast of Bedford City, containing 93-3/4 acres, assessed at $588.

Your Orator further represents that the said tract of land is incapable of division in kind, and that the value of said land would be practically destroyed by cutting off dower to the widow of decedent; that by so doing, the land which could be cut off as dower would be insufficient for a support for said widow, and that remaining could not be divided or sold to any advantage. Your Orator is further advised that the widow prefers that the tract of land be sold as a whole, and that dower be commuted to her.

Your Orator further represents that his father, the said Thomas C. Wright, at the time of his death was not indebted, and that there is but little, if anything, due the said estate.

Your Orator charges that, after dower is commuted to the widow, he is entitled to one-seventh part of the personal and real estate of said decedent, and he further charges that the real estate cannot be divided in kind.

Forasmuch, Therefore, as he is without remedy save in a court of equity, where such matters are properly cognizable, he prays that that sd Lelia Wright & said infant children of T. C. Wright decd may be made a defendants to this suit & required to answer this bill but answer under oath is waived may an order be granted by this court directing the sale of the said tract of land and the division of the proceeds thereof as provided by statute; that the administrator may be required to settle his account in this suit; that William Eubank be appointed guardian ad litem for said infant defendants Arthur Wright, Zornesh Wright, Kathleen Wright, Mannie Wright Alain Wright & _____ Wright: and that a reasonable attorney's fee be allowed for the conduct of this suit: may such other, further and general relief be granted unto your Orator as the nature of his case may require, and to equity may seem right. And as in duty bound, he will ever pray, &c.

This record indicates that Thomas Chapel Wright died in about April 1905 at Bedford County, Virginia, and identifies the family of Thomas Chapel Wright as follows:

Wife: Lelia (_____) Wright

In September 1905 at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 4572,

"Wright
V.
Wright &c

The Answer of Lelia A. Wright, widow of Thomas C. Wright, deceased, to a bill of complaint filed against her and others in the Circuit Court of Bedford County, by Harry B. Wright.

This Respondent, reserving unto herself all just right of exception to Complainant's bill, for answer to such parts thereof as she is advised that it is necessary she should answer, says that the charges in the bill of the Complainant are true; that the tract of land is not susceptible of division in kind, and that to cut off the dower in kind to Respondent would give her such a small quantity of land that she would be unable to derive a support therefrom for herself and her infant children, and she is of the opinion that it would be best for her to take commuted dower from the proceeds of the sale of said land.

And how having fully answered, she prays to be hence dismissed, with her proper costs.

Lelia A Wright

In September 1905 at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 4572,
William Eubank, as guardian ad litem for the minor heirs of Thomas C. Wright, filed his answer to the complaint and submitted the matter to the court for decision:

On motion of Harry B. Wright, by counsel, leave is granted him to file his bill in this suit, whereupon he filed the same; and on like motion, leave is granted Lelia Wright, widow of Thomas C. leave of court the depositions of George P. Parker and J. K. Walker, this day filed, and was argued by counsel.

Upon consideration whereof, and it appearing to the Court from the bill of the complainant, the answer of the defendant Lelia Wright and the depositions filed, that the tract of land is not susceptible of division in kind without material injury to the parties interested; and it further appearing that the dower of the widow cannot be cut off in kind without like injury to the parties in interest, and that the widow desires her dower commuted, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that O. The complaint dated on or about September 1, 1880, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1963 listed Sally Wright as a child of William Wright, the son of Sally Wright:

"To the Hon G A Wingfield Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County Humbly complaining shew unto your Honor your orators and oratrices Price Wright Thomas Witt and Martha his wife, Elisabeth Turner (widow of Samuel Turner deceased Nancy Wright, Ric____ Joseph F Wright Tilghman C Wright and Lewis Wright that sometime in the year 18_ Sally Wright widow of Price Wright deceased departed this life; that at the time of her death she was seised in fee of a tract of land lying in the County of Bedford Va Containing 141 acres That she left Surviving her the following children and grand children to wit Your orator Price Wright who was a son John Wright, also a son Sally who intermarried with one James Weeks, Martha who intermarried with one Thomas Witt and Elisabeth Turner widow of Samuel Turner deceased daughters of the said Sally Price and Richard Wright Joseph F Wright Tilghman C Wright Lewis Wright Nancy Wright, William Wright and Sally Wright the last two of whom are infants under the age of twenty years, children of Wm Wright deceased ____ son of the said Sally Wright. . . ."

On September 25, 1883, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 57/224 Sallie E. Wright and the other heirs of Sarah S. Wright confirmed the sale to Joseph F. Wright of their interest in the land conveyed to them by Bedford County Deed 48/98:

E. Skinnell in execution of said power, did on the 18th day of August 1880, make sale of said land to one Joseph F. Wright for the sum of $2291.25 and whereas two of the above named parties to wit: Wm. Wright & Sally Wright were at the time of signing said power and at the date of said sale infants under the age of 21 years, it became necessary to institute a suit in the name of above named parties as plaintiffs and defend [missing line] which was accordingly done, and on the 8th Sept. 1880 a decree was entered in said suit by the Circuit Court of Bedford County confirming the sale aforesaid to the said Joseph F Wright, and whereas the said suit was afterwards dismissed without directing a conveyance of said land to said Wright, who paid the whole of the purchase money therefor and the said infants now having attained their majority, all the heirs are desirous of conveying the legal title to said land to said Joseph F. This record indicates that William Henry Wright was born in October 1861 that Cammie S. (Burroughs) Wright was born in December 1869.

The Bedford City/County Museum stated that the tombstone of Cammie Burroughs Wright is located at the Hickory Grove Church Cemetery, Bedford County, Virginia, and listed the following information:

"Cammie Burroughs Wright
December 3, 1869
January 31, 1938"

The Bedford City/County Museum stated that the tombstone of William H. Wright is located at the Hickory Grove Church Cemetery, Bedford County, Virginia, and listed the following information:

"William H. Wright
October 2, 1861
July 24, 1934"

In her letter dated November 1, 1986, Mrs. Doris Hardwick enclosed family group sheets which stated that William Henry Wright was a son of 1841 Price Wright of Bedford County and had the following child:

- 1) William Henry Wright, Jr., born in 1907.

In her email dated January 26, 2003, Viola Trent Skinnell stated that William Henry Wright and Cammie S. (Burroughs) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Ethel Roberta (Wright) Skinnell, born on December 13, 1900,
- 2) Carter Lois Wright, born on February 4, 1903,

- 4) William Henry Wright, Jr., born on October 4, 1907, and
- 5) Christine Wright, born on July 18, 1911.

ii. John H. Wright, His Wife Camilla Susan (Franklin) Wright, And His Descendants

The Personal Property Tax Lists for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Price Wright with two white tithes on March 12, 1841, and three white tithes on March 10, 1841. These records indicate that Price Wright's second son John H. Wright was born between March 12, 1824, and March 10, 1825, and probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a John Wright in the Sally Right household, but did list separately a John Wright, age 25 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1825.

The marriage bond of John H. Wright and Camilla Susan Franklin, daughter of Benjamin H., was dated on August 1, 1850, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Tillman A. Wright as surety and married by Thomas C. Goggin on August 8, 1850:

"Mr John R Steptoe Clerk of Bedford County

Sir you will please grant the marriage licence for Mr John H Wright and my daughter Camillia Susan by so doing you will oblige &C

this July 29th 1850                      Benj H Franklin
Benj H Shepherd

Know all men by these presents, That we, John H. Wright and Benjamin H. Shepherd are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, current money of Virginia, to which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors, &c. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 1st day of August 1850

The condition of the above Obligation is such, That whereas a Marriage is shortly intended to be had and solemnized between the above bound John H. Wright and Camilla Susan Franklin daughter of Benjamin H. Franklin Now, if there be no lawful cause to obstruct said marriage, then the above obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed, sealed, &c.                      John H Wright in presence of                              Tillman A wright"

Since Tilghman C. Wright was a grandson of 1841 Price Wright and Tilghman A. Wright acted as surety on the marriage bond, the identification of this John H. Wright as the son of 1841 Price Wright seems fair.

On April 1, 1875, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 48/98 Sarah S. Wright gifted a remainder interest in 141 acres of land to her son B. P. Wright that had been purchased by B. P. Wright from her son John H. Wright:

"Whereas = Sarah S. Wright is seized & possessed of a certain tract of land lying & being in the County of Bedford about five miles south east of the town of

Liberty, on the waters of the south fork of Little Otter adjoining the lands of John F Teass, George E. Skinnell and a tract of land recently purchased by John R Thurman, and the land of Catherine Wright, containing 141 acres it being the same land purchased by Sarah S. Wright of the estate of Benjamin Wright, and is desirous of conveying the remainder in said land after her death to her nine children or their representatives jointly in equal proportion except that the shares of John H. Wright and Sarah Weeks have been purchased by B. P. Wright and are to be conveyed to him making with his own share 3/9 as his interest = Now therefore this deed made this the 1st day of April 1875 between Sarah S. Wright of the first part and B. P. Wright, Martha J. Witt (wife of Thomas Witt) Joseph F. Wright, Richard H. Wright, Nannie C. Wright, Bettie F. Turner, (wife of Samuel H. Turner) Thomas C Wright Lewis P. Wright, Sallie B. Wright, and William H. Wright, of the second part, witnesses, that for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged the party of the first part hath given granted bargained & sold and by these presents doth give, grant, bargain, sell, & convey, unto the parties of the second part jointly the tract of land aforesaid, subject to the life estate of the party of the first part therein, which is hereby expressly reserved, in the following proportions to wit: to B P Wright 3/9 or 1/3; to Martha J. Witt (wife of Thomas Witt) 1/9; to Joseph F Wright 1/9; to Richard H. Wright 1/9; to Nannie C Wright 1/9; to Bettie F. Turner (wife of Samuel Turner) 1/9; to Thomas C. Wright Lewis P. Wright Sallie B. Wright, and William H Wright (children of William B. Wright a deceased son of the grantor), jointly 1/9; it being the intention to give to the four children of William B. Wright the 1/9 which would have been given under the arrangement to their father had he been living

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Mary Wright in the household of Sally Wright and her age as 22 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1828.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed M. Wright in the P. S. [Sally] Wright household and her age as 21[31?] and born in Virginia. This was probably Mary Wright, since she did not marry until 1866.

The marriage record of Mary Wright and David O. Witt was dated October 24, 1866, at Bedford County, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

"Bedford Co Va

The complaint dated about September 1, 1880, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1963 listed Martha who married Thomas Witt as one of the children of Sally Wright:

". . . . sometime in the year 18__ Sally Wright widow of Price Wright deceased departed this life; that at the time of her death she was seised in fee of a tract of land lying in the County of Bedford Va Containing 141 acres That she left Surviving her the following children and grand children to wit Your orator Price Wright who was a son John Wright, also a son Sally who intermarried with one James Weeks, Martha who intermarried with one Thomas Witt . . . ."

On September 25, 1883, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 57/224 Thomas Witt and Martha Witt and the other heirs of Sarah S. Wright confirmed the sale to Joseph F. Wright of their interest in the land conveyed to them by Bedford County Deed 48/98:

"Whereas B. P. Wright, John Wright, James Weeks and Sally his wife, Thomas Witt and Martha his wife, Elizabeth Turner, Richard Wright, Joseph F. Wright, Thomas C. Wright, Lewis Wright, Nancy Wright, Wm Wright and Sally Wright empowered one George E Skinnell Agent to sell a certain tract of land hereinafter named, for and on behalf of the above named parties, heirs of Sally Wright deceased, and whereas the said Geo. E. Skinnell in execution of said power, did on the 18th day of August 1880, make sale of said land to one Joseph F. Wright for the sum of $2291.25 and whereas two of the above named parties to wit: Wm. Wright & Sally Wright were at the time of signing said power and at the date of said sale infants under the age of 21 years, it became necessary to institute a suit in the name of above named parties as plaintiffs and defend [missing line] which was accordingly done, and on the 8th Sept. 1880 a decree was entered in said suit by the Circuit Court of Bedford County confirming the sale aforesaid to the said Joseph F Wright, and whereas the said suit was afterwards dismissed without directing a conveyance of said land to said Wright, who paid the whole of the purchase money therefor and the said infants now having attained their majority, all the heirs are desirous of conveying the legal title to said land to said Joseph F. Wright except the interest or shares of the said John H Wright and James Weeks & Sarah his wife, which have been conveyed to one B. P Wright.

The Confederate Veteran, Volume XVI, No. 6, June 1908, listed the following obituary for Joseph Fulton Wright:

"Capt. J. F. Wright.

Joseph Fulton Wright died at his home, in Chattanooga, on March 4, 1908, after a long illness. Captain Wright was born in Bedford County, Va., January 8, 1833. In 1868 he was married to Miss Fannie Wells, of that place, to which union six children were born. Only two daughters survive, Mrs. John C. Twinam and Miss Frances Wright. The death of his wife, on April 11, 1906, was a shock from which Captain Wright never recovered, and his health had steadily failed to the end. Captain Wright served with distinction throughout the four years of the Civil War as captain in a Virginia regiment, and at the close of the war settled in Knoxville, Tenn. In 1871 he went to Chattanooga and established the first brickyard ever in the city.

Captain Wright was a gentleman of the old school, with the courtly manner and genial personality that characterize the Virginian. His uprightness of character and splendid qualities won for him the love and respect of a large circle of friends. He had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, from boyhood. He was also a member of N. B. Forrest Camp and a prominent Mason."

The 1870 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Nanny Wright in the Sally Wright household and her age as 28 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1842.

On April 1, 1875, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 48/98 Sarah S. Wright gifted a remainder interest in 141 acres of land to her daughter Nannie C. Wright:

In April 1891 at Campbell County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 35/196 the filing of the accounting for the estate of Elijah Wright was also recorded:

"An account of the Estate of Elijah Wright decd with Adam Clement Sheriff and as such as his administrator filed at the March term last and continued one month for exceptions was this day again presented and no exceptions having been taken thereto the same is confirmed and ordered to be recorded."

This record identifies C. H. Wright as a child of 1880 Elijah Wright of Campbell County. The court proceeding allotting that land to C. H. Wright has not as yet been located.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1880 Elijah Wright of Campbell County and Charlotte (Weeks) Wright were the following:

- 1) C. H. Wright, a son, born between 1820 and 1825,
- 2) Elizabeth Wright, born about 1823 at Virginia, and
- 3) ____ Wright, a son, born between 1825 and 1830.

I. C. H. Wright

C. H. Wright was a son of 1880 Elijah Wright of Campbell County and Charlotte (Weeks) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1835 Benjamin<sup>3</sup>, 1880 Elijah<sup>4</sup>)

The 1830 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Elijah Wright with a male aged 5 to 10 years in his household, indicating a son born between 1820 and 1825.

On November 5, 1892, at Campbell County, Virginia, D.B. 57/447 C. H. Wright sold to E. W. Williams his interest in 32 acres of land allotted to him as an heir of Elijah Wright:

"This Deed made this 5th day of November 1892 between C. H. Wright of Bedford County Virginia of the first part and E. W. Williams of the City of Lynchburg Virginia of the second part, Witnesseth that for and in Consideration of the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, the said C. H. Wright hath granted bargained and sold and by these presents doth grant bargain sell and Convey with general Warranty of title unto the said E. W. Williams the following real estate to wit: a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Campbell and State of Virginia adjoining the lands of Bowling Hayth Samuel Woodall and Others, Containing thirty two acres be the same more or less and being the same land allotted to the said C H. Wright as one of the heirs of Elijah Wright deceased: And the said C. H. Wright doth covenant with the said E. W. Williams that he hath good right and lawful title to covey the said land that he hath done no act to encumber the same that the said E. W. Williams shall have quiet and peaceable possession of the same, and that he the said C. H. Wright will execute such Other and further assurances of the title thereto as may be requisite or necessary

The 1830 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Elijah Wright with a male aged 0 to 5 years in his household, indicating a son born between 1825 and 1830.

d. 1838 John Wright Of Bedford County, His Wives Probably Margaret (Franklin) Wright And Louisa Ann (Powell) Wright, And His Descendants

1838 John Wright of Bedford County was a son of 1835 Benjamin Wright of Bedford County and Mary (Weeks) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1835 Benjamin<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of John Wright and Margaret Franklin was dated on May 18, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia:

Signed Sealed & acknd ) John Franklin in the pressence of ) John Wright"

This was probably the marriage of 1838 John Wright of Bedford County. As will be set forth below, 1838 John Wright is known to have been married twice and that his first wife died before about 1833. The only John Wright marriage in Bedford County remaining unidentified is this marriage to Margaret Franklin. As will also be set forth below, the child of that first marriage was Tilghman A. Wright who was born in about 1828. The date of this marriage in 1827 is appropriate to that birth date for Tilghman A. Wright. And other members of 1838 John Wright's family married into the Franklin family. His sister Nancy Wright married Joel Franklin, his nephew John H. Wright married Camilla Susan Franklin, and his granddaughter Oswe L. Wright married William A. Franklin. Finally, as will be set forth below, on January 5, 1849, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 34/317 Tilghman A. Wright sold his interest in the estate of Powell Franklin. Although the relationship of Tilghman A. Wright to Powell Franklin is not yet determined, it was probably grandson and grandfather and in any event Deed 34/317 indicates a family relation to the Powell family for Tilghman A. Wright and that relationship would have been through his mother. On the basis of this evidence it is probable that this was the marriage of 1838 John Wright.

In March 1839 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 26/272 the case of Wright v. Moore was dismissed by reason of the death of the plaintiff:

"Wright v Moore. Injn: On the motion of the defendant by Counsel, and it appearing to the Court that the death of the plaintiff was suggested on the record at the March term 1838, and that no steps have been taken to review the same, it is ordered that the same be discontinued."

Since John Wright died in 1838, the plaintiff was probably 1838 John Wright of Bedford County.

In November 1842 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/67 the court entered an order allocating 1/6 of the estate of Benjamin Wright to the widow and heirs of John Wright deceased:

"Wright &c vs Wright &c Chy. The death of the plaintiff Price Wright is suggested on record, and by consent of parties the adults by counsel and the infants by their guardian ad litem this cause is revived in the name of Sarah Wright the administratrix of the said Price Wright deceased, and thereupon by like consent, this cause came on this day to be further heard upon the papers formerly read, and the report of Price Wright the commissioner appointed by a decretal order of this court of the 25th day of June 1838 to make sale of the land in the bill mentioned to which report there is no exception and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court approving said report doth confirm it, and doth further adjudge order and decree that Reaves S. Scruggs who is hereby appointed a commissioner for the purpose do withdraw the bonds filed among the papers in this cause taken by the said Price Wright for the purchase money of the land aforesaid, and that he do proceed to collect the same, and that out of the money when collected he do first pay the costs of this suit, and out of the remainder he do pay one equal sixth part thereof to the plaintiff Benjamin Wright, one other equal sixth part thereof to the plaintiff Elijah Wright, one other equal sixth part thereof to the plaintiffs Joel Franklin & Nancy his wife, one other equal sixth part thereof to the plaintiff Sarah Wright administratrix of Price Wright deceased and one other equal sixth part thereof to the widow and the legally authorised guardian of the heirs at law of John Wright deceased (all of whom are infants under the age of twenty one years) according to their respective rights and that said commissioner have regard in such distribution to any payments which may have been made to the said Price Wright in his life time on account of the sale of said land and also to such payments as any or either of the parties may have received from the said Price Wright or otherwise on account of the sale of the said land. And the said commissioner is hereby required to report his proceedings to this Court in order to a final decree. And liberty is reserved to the infant defendants to show cause against this decree at any time within six months after they shall have attained the age of twenty one years."

This record clearly identifies John Wright as a son of 1835 Benjamin Wright of Bedford County and indicates that he had died before November 1842.

In January 1843 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/95 commissioners were appointed to settle the account of the estate of John Wright:

"Ordered that Thomas R. Claytor and Samuel G. Claytor, being first sworn, state & settle the account current of the estate of John Wright Deceased with Abraham Powell his administrator, and make report to Court."

In November 1843 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/206 the court appointed guardians for the children of John Wright, deceased:

"Tilghman A. Wright orphan of John Wright Deceased being of full age for the purpose came into Court and made choice of Benjamin Wright as his guardian, and thereupon said Benjamin Wright together with Isaac Wright his security, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $400. conditioned according to law.

Ordered that Benjamin Wright be appointed guardian of Mildred Wright, James Wright and Charles Wright orphans of John Wright Deceased who are under the age of fourteen years, and thereupon said Benjamin Wright together with Isaac Wright his security, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of four hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs."

For Tilghman A. Wright to have been of full age in 1843 he would have been born before about 1829, which indicates that he was the child of a marriage of John Wright prior to his marriage to Louisa Ann Powell in 1833.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Louisa A. Right with the following household:

This record indicates that Louisa Ann (Powell) Wright was born in about 1815.

On May 9, 1856, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 38/305 Louisa Ann Wright executed a deed of trust to Washington Franks to secure a debt due to Mildred Wright:

"This Deed made the 9th day of May in the year 1856 between Louisa Ann Wright of the one part and Washington Franks of the other part Witnesseth. Wright orphan of John Wright Deceased being of full age for the purpose came into Court and made choice of Benjamin Wright as his guardian, and thereupon said Benjamin Wright together with Isaac Wright his security, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $400. conditioned according to law."

This record identifies Tilghman A. Wright as a son of John Wright and grandson of 1835 Benjamin Wright of Bedford County.

On January 5, 1849, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 34/317 Tilghman A. Wright and Abel B. Nichols entered into an agreement for the sale of his interest in the estate of Powell Franklin:

This record indicates that Benjamin P. Wright was born in about 1809 and that Catherine (Leftwich) Wright was born in about 1811.

On or before November 25, 1867, Benjamin Wright of Bedford County and his wife Catharine (Leftwich) Wright filed their complaint in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1482, for a division and distribution of the estate of Catharine's father James Leftwich (Redhead):

"To the Worshipful the County Court of Bedford in Chancery sitting - The Bill of your orators &c Benjamin Wright and Catharine his wife, Robert Skinnall and Mary A. his wife, George Hubbard and Sarah his wife, Etcherson G. Leftwich, Hairston A. Leftwich, Lockey Claytor, Joseph Hubbard and Juliet his wife and Augustine S. Thurman respectfully showeth that James Leftwich (Redhead)

some years since died in said County possessed in his own right of about 126 acres of land lying also in said County and had purchased, was possessed of and had paid for another small tract of 14 acres or thereabouts of one Thomas W. Lynch who has they believe never conveyed the same either to the said James Leftwich or to his wife Mildred hereinafter referred to or to his heirs though directed by a decree of the Circuit Court of said County so to do the records of which decree and all the proceedings preceeding the same as well as the decree itself is now on file in the said Circuit Court and are now on file in the said Circuit Court and are made a part of this Bill to be made a part of the same a copy of which will be filed herewith if the same shall be deemed necessary hereafter. That the same James Leftwich (R. H) before his death made his last will and Testament by which he devised the whole of his said lands to his wife Mildred for her life time as well as certain personal Estate of which he also died possessed, an office copy of which will the plaintiffs in this cause will also file with this Bill hereafter if the same shall be deemed necessary as a part thereof. That the said Mildred Leftwich became administratrix of said will and with the will annexed the Executor named in the will having declined to qualify as such and took possession of all the estate real and personal and continued to hold it to the period of her death some short time since, but how much of the said personal estate if any in fact remains they are wholly unable at this time to say, but supposing there might be some your orator Benjamin Wright qualified as Administrator de bonis non of the said James Leftwich R. H. and in order to save a further accumulation of costs proposes to collect any monies due to or of _____ property belonging if any to the said Mildred's estate after her death without any formal qualification as her admr or the qualification of any one as such she having died intestate leaving your orators and oratrices as her heirs at law together with the children of Walter Leftwich herein after mentioned, your orators and oratrices and the said Walter being entitled in remainder, under the will aforesaid to the whole of the estate of the said James Leftwich (RH) after the death of the said Mildred. They further represent that the said Benjamin Wright has purchased and paid for the shares of Robert Skinnall and wife, George Hubbard and wife and Grigsby Leftwich in the said real estate, Augustine L. Thurman purchased and has paid for the share of Hairston A. Leftwich in the same as well as in the personal Estate of James Leftwich and that Locky Claytor her husband Alvin Claytor having died also, is as they suppose now entitled to the full share referred to in the will of James Leftwich R. H. in her own right. They also say that the land aforesaid is wholly incapable of divison among those entitled thereto, that lying in two separate small tracts with little if any wood on the largest which is seperated from the small tract by a distance of several miles while the one cannot be reached except by a rugged road over steep hills from the other and one of which the smaller one has no water though it has wood upon it. The two tracts cannot be devided without greatly impairing the value of the whole and in no event if divided would the share of each legatee be worth the sum of $300. They therefore pray that the said lands be sold by a decree of this Court and that the proceeds after paying expenses be divided among those fairly entitled thereto. To this end they ask that the heirs of Jas. Leftwich son of Walter Leftwich to Wit. John O. Leftwich, William P. Leftwich, Sallie B. Leftwich and Mary E. Leftwich all of whom are infants under 21 years of age be made parties defendant to this Bill and that they answer the same by their Guardian ad litem to be assigned them by the Court and that John H. Adkins & wife E. M. Adkins his wife who was a daughter of Walter Leftwich be also made parties any other heirs of the said James Leftwich if hereafter ascertained may have the privilege of filing his, her or their answers and if entitled so to do may participate in the objects and benefits of this suit as their object is to do fair and full justice to all

They further say that in respect to any personal estate which may come or has come into the hands of Benjamin Wright in his character as Administrator or otherwise belonging to the estates of either James Leftwich (RH) or Mildred his wife - after paying any debts of either or funeral expenses of the said Mildred be also fairly distributed among those entitled, and that the said Benjamin Wright in his character as admr aforesaid be made a defendant also to this Bill. And as proof of the willingness of the adult (?) parties to this Bill to make sale of the said land they refer to the paper herewith filed prepared in the life time of the said Mildred but not dated, as part of the same and from which it will appear that it was in contemplation to make suitable provisions for her some portion of which may be fairly due to some one or as expenses incurred by her, and grant such other aid and relief as is proper Your orators being without remedy at law and as in duty they will ever pray &c

On February 28, 1873, in File 1482 James T. Leftwich wrote a letter to Commissioner Burks identifying the family of James Leftwich (Redhead):

"Greensburg, Green Co Ky Feby 28/73
E. C. Burks Esq
Atto at Law

Dear Sir

Your letter of 10th ult duly received. I will try and answer your questions as nearly as I can. The interest I wish you to take in this matter is for myself & my sister Julia Hubbard. You are mistaken however about her being a widow, and also as to her being the wife of George Hubbard. Her husband is still living with her in this county and his name is Joseph Hubbard

The widow of Walter Leftwich went to Missouri and has married again - as I understand Etchison G Leftwich is a son of the decedent James Leftwich (RH) and is the Grigsby Leftwich, one & the same that you refer to. He was still living in Bedford Co when I last heard from him.

Myself and sisster Julia Hubbard are children of decedent Leftwich (RH).

I had no sister by the name of Frances A Leftwich: If there be such an heir, she must be the daughter of Walter Leftwich my brother. Walter Leftwich married one Frances Turner. George Hubbard married my sister Sally Leftwich. They were both living in Bedford Co Va 6 months ago when I last heard from them.

The names of the children of decedent James Leftwich (RH) are as follows

Locky, who married a Franklin (Claytor)

Harston A. Leftwich

Julia, who married Joseph Hubbard

Sally, who " George Hubbard

Walter T

Catherine, who married a Wright

Mary, who married a Skinnell

Etchison Grigsby Leftwich

James T Leftwich (myself)

Martha who married after I left Va.

Franklin, the receiver, has paid myself & sister Julia Hubbard $20 each. We received the money May 21st 1872.

If you think it necessary, my sister Julia & myself will send you a full & complete Power of Atty, and if you need any further information, please write immediately and direct your letter to the care of Charles D Allen Atto at Law Greensburg Ky, which will insure a speedier answer.

Very truly & Respy &c

On March 12, 1873, in File 1482 Commissioner Burks filed a memorandum again setting forth the family of James Leftwich:

"Wright & Exor &c ) vs ) Memo for Comr Burn Leftwich Jr. )

1st Account. Franklin Comr & Receiver since exceptions filed, Franklin filed vouchers for his disbursements. His vouchers seem to be correct except for taxes. He is entitled to credit for taxes on land for year 1870 only $10.80. For other years, purchasers of land were bound & he must therefore look to them for reimbursement. According to my summing up he has over-paid $5.71, unless the payt to Henry Skinnell $5., is improperly credited. It does not appear what interest Henry Skinnell has in the estate. (Inquire as to this) He improperly pd. to Ballard. The exor is not entitled (See below)

2d Account. I file letter of James T Leftwich Ky, one of the heirs, giving names (see it). I have also conversed with plaintiff Catharine Wright another of the heirs, & from these sources, it appears the heirs are as follows.

1. Locky Claytor, daughter of James Leftwich (RH), widow of Alvin Claytor deceased.

It appears by decree of Acts 1869 that Locky Claytor is dead. Her heirs are entitled. Don't know their names Mrs. Wright probably could give them.

2. Hairston A Leftwich. (share claimed by A. L. Thurman)
3. Julia Hubbard, wife of Joseph Hubbard, Kentucky.
4. Sally Hubbard, wife of George Hubbard, claimed by Ben Wright deceased
5. Walter D Leftwich dead. Left two children, Elizabeth M Atkins wife of John H Atkins, and James Leftwich jr. deceased leaving 4 infant children named defendants in the bill. (see it) Ben Wright claims Atkins's share which is one half of full share. (See decd filed)
6. Catharine Wright widow of Ben Wright deceased, entitled in her own right, as survivor of her husband, to one full share.
7. Mary Skinnell wife of Robert Skinnell. Ben Wright claims this by purchase.
8. Etcherson Grigsby Leftwich called in bill Grigsby Leftwich - claimed by Ben Wright
9. James T Leftwich (Kentucky)

Thus it seems, there are 9 full shares.

Of these Ben Wright deceased is entitled to shares by purchase	3½

All in interest seem to be before the Court except James T Leftwich & heirs of Locky Claytor deceased. I represent James T Leftwich, Julia Hubbard and Catharine Wright. Ben. Wright deceased left a will. A copy will be filed. By this it will appear that Catharine (his widow) is entitled to his whole estate during her life. Franklin therefore improperly paid $64 to Ballard Exor. of Wright. It should have been paid to Catharine Wright the widow, to hold for her life. Ben. Wright died 15 June 1869, before the land was sold, & the Exor. his no interest in or control of the land or the proceeds of sale. Mr. Bower will please make special statement, apportioning the money in Bank (less cost) owing to Franklin amongst the parties entitled, taking into account the money disbursed by Franklin to Legatees, so as to equalize the stores.

Frances A Leftwich mentioned in papers in the cover & in James T Leftwich's letter filed is widow of James Leftwich jr a son of Walter Leftwich, who died in lifetime of testator. So says Catharine Wright. F. A. therefore has no interest in the estate of James Leftwich (R. H.)

On March 13, 1877, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court Order Book 8/329 the court authorized Catharine Wright to withdraw a certificate of deposit and ended the case:

The census and death records indicate a birth date for Catherine (Leftwich) Wright of either 1807 or 1810.

Leftwich-Turner Families Of Virginia And Their Connections, by Walter Lee Hopkins, C. J. Carrier Company, Harrisonburg, Virginia 1980, at pages 96 and 97, identified Catherine (Leftwich) Wright as the daughter of James "Red Head" Leftwich and his wife Mildred Turner.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1869 Benjamin P. Wright of Bedford County and Catherine (Leftwich) Wright were the following:

- 1) Martha Ann M. (Wright) Ballard, born about 1835 or 1836 at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Terrisa Jane (Wright) Turner, born about 1840 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia, and
- 3) M. B. Wright, a daughter, born about 1849 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Martha A. Wright in the household of Benjamin P. Wright and her age as 15 and born in Virginia, indicating her date of birth in about 1835.

The marriage license of Ann M. Wright and William E. Ballard was dated on May 20, 1855, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the marriage on May 21, and listed the following information for the parties:

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Terrisa J. (Wright) Turner and Admire Turner were the following:

- 1) Walter Turner, born about 1868 at Virginia, and
- 2) Wilbert Turner, born about 1879 at Virginia.

(I) Walter Turner

The 1880 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Walter Turner in the Carey Wright household and his age as 12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1868.

(II) Wilbert Turner

The 1880 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Wilbert Turner in the Carey Wright household and his age as 1 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1879.

iii. M. B. Wright

M. B. Wright was a daughter of 1869 Benjamin P. Wright of Bedford County and Catherine (Leftwich) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1835 Benjamin<sup>3</sup>, 1869 Benjamin P.<sup>4</sup>)

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed a daughter M. B. Wright in the household of Benjamin P. Wright and her age as 11 and born in Virginia, indicating her date of birth in about 1849.

The failure to mention her in the will of 1869 Benjamin P. Wright suggests that she might have died prior to October 13, 1868.

B. Probably Mary (Wright) Mims, Her Husband Thomas Mims, And Her Descendants

Mary (Wright) Mims was probably a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) And Judith (Easley) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>)

There is no direct evidence that Mary (Wright) Mims was a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright, but as will be set forth below, there is substantial circumstantial evidence that indicates that such a relationship was very probable.

On April 10, 1739, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 3/213 John Wright purchased 358 acres of land from Robert Mimms and the witnesses included John Mimms and David Mimms.

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia listed the following entry for April 12, 1748:

"Lines processioned are . . . . Lines between John Plesants and John Wright, Philip Ryan and John Mullins with John Mullins and John Mims present. Line between John Wright and John Mullins, John Mullins and John Mims, William McCormick, John Mullins and Charles Toney with John Mims, John Mullins, Philip Ryan and John Wright present. Line between John Mims and John Wright. . . . The lines between Philip Ryan and John Plesants and the line between Arthur Hopkins and Philip Ryan with John Wright and John Man present. . . ."

These records indicate that John Mims was a neighbor of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter).

The Douglas Register listed the marriage of Mary Wright and Thomas Mims on December 23, 1756, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Mims, Thomas, & Mary Wright, both in this prish 1756, Dec. 23 p.3."

If Mary Wright and Thomas Mims were at least 16 years of age at the time of their marriage, then their dates of birth would be probably before 1741.

In her letter dated May 11, 1997, Marilyn Symonds enclosed family group sheets which stated that Thomas Mims was a son of John Mims and a nephew of David Mims, the same persons as those listed as witnesses on Goochland County Deed 3/213. In addition, Robert Mims, the grantor of Deed 3/213, was a cousin of John Mims and David Mims and married Sarah Pace. 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, a son of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter), married Mary Pace. The combination of family relationships suggest strongly that the Mary Wright who married Thomas Mims was related to John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter).

The Douglas Register listed the birth of David Mims, the son of Thomas Mims and Mary Wright, on November 15, 1760, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Thomas Mims & Mary Wright a son named David born Nov: 15 1760. Baptized 1761 Jan:24. p. 58."

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Judith Mims, the daughter of Thomas Mims and Mary Wright, on January 12, 1765, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Thomas Mims & Mary Wright a Daughter named Judith born Jan: 12 1765. Baptized Mar: 3 1765. p. 70."

The naming of their first daughter as Judith, the same name as the wife of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter), also indicates a family relationship and strongly suggests that Mary (Wright) Mims was a daughter of John Wright and Judith (Easley) Wright.

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Drury Mims, the son of Thomas Mims and Mary Wright, on March 18, 1767, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Thomas Mims & Mary Wright a son named Drury born Mar: 18 1767. Baptized Ap: 19 1767. p. 77."

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Frankie Mims, the daughter of Thomas Mims and Mary Wright, on Ju__, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Thomas Mims & Mary Wright a Daughter named Frankie born Ju__. Baptized Aug 6, 1769. p. 85."

The Douglas Register listed the birth of John Wright Mims, the son of Thomas Mims and Mary Wright, on November 29, 1773, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"Thomas Mims & Mary Wright a son named John: Wright born Nov. 29, 1773. Baptized Mar. 13, 1774. p. 96."

The naming of a son as John Wright Mims would seem to be the conclusive piece of circumstantial evidence that Mary (Wright) Mims was a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright.

In her letter dated May 11, 1997, Marilyn Symonds enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary (Wright) Mims was probably a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright, was born about 1735 at Goochland County, Virginia, and married Thomas Mims on December 23, 1756, at Goochland County, Virginia, that Thomas Mims was a son of John Mims, was born about 1733 at Goochland County, Virginia, and that his will dated February 16, 1793, was probated on September 2, 1793, at Charlotte County, Virginia, and that Mary (Wright) Mims and Thomas Mims had the following children:

The absence of James Wright from the 1759 tithe list and the first appearance of James Wright in the John Wright household in the 1760 tithe list indicates that James Wright was born before June 11, 1744, and probably between June 10, 1743, and June 11, 1744.

The absence of William Wright, Jr., from the 1761 tithe list and the first appearance of William Wright, Jr., in the John Wright household in the 1763 tithe list indicates that William Wright, Jr., was born before June 11, 1747, and probably between June 10, 1745, and June 11, 1747. The appellation "Jr." reflects a younger William Wright than the other William Wright in this Tithe List.

The Douglas Register listed the marriage of William Wright and Martha Cawley on October 5, 1769, at Goochland County, Virginia. As set forth below, Roderick Wright married Hannah Cawley and brothers marrying sisters was a common occurrence. Since there was only one other William Wright in the Tithe Lists and his indicated date of birth was before 1726, this marriage would much more probably be that of William Wright, the son of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) than that of the other older William Wright then living in Goochland County.

The Douglas Register also recorded the birth on June 5, 1773, at Goochland County, Virginia, of William Wright and Martha (Cawley) Wright's daughter Chicely Wright.

The absence of Francis Wright from the 1765 tithe list and the first appearance of Francis Wright in the John Wright household in the 1766 tithe list indicates that he was born before June 11, 1750, and probably between June 10, 1749, and June 11, 1750.

- 7) Jesse Hylton, born about 1800.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving stated that the death record of Roderick Helton dated November 10, 1860, at Carter County, Kentucky, listed his parents as Jesse and Juda Helton and his age as 83, indicating a date of birth in about 1777. However, Sue Elfving noted that the year of death should probably be 1859, since Roderick Hylton was not listed in the 1860 Census for Carter County. This would make his date of birth in about 1776.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving stated that the death record of Benjamin Hylton dated on July 28, 1856, at Johnson County, Kentucky, listed his parents as Jesse and Juda Hylton and his age as 61, indicating a date of birth in about 1785.

There is no direct evidence that Juda (Wright) Hilton or Hylton was a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright, but there are several pieces of circumstantial evidence that indicate such a relationship.

First, there is a similarity of family names. Juda is a contraction of Judith and would be the same name as her mother Judith (Easley) Wright. Roderick is an unusual name and the first child's name would be the same as Juda (Wright) Hilton's brother Roderick Wright. The second child's name Thomas also appears in the family of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, a son of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter); 1814 John's son was 1845 Thomas Wright of Pittsylvania County. And the third child's name Benjamin also appears in the family of 1814 John Wright with his son 1835 Benjamin Wright of Bedford County.

Second, the estimated date of birth of Juda (Wright) Hilton fits in the known family births between Roderick Wright, born between June 10, 1752, and June 11, 1753, and Betty Wright, born in February 1756.

Third, there is a later family connection between the Hilton family and the family of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter). 1845 Thomas Wright of Pittsylvania County, the son of 1814 John Wright and grandson of John Wright the carpenter, married first Charity Ballenger Hilton. She is believed to have died without children and 1845 Thomas then married Sarah Elizabeth Pullen.

Fourth, Juda (Wright) Hilton and Jesse Hilton were apparently in Bedford County about 1755, which is approximately the same time at which 1814 John Wright of Bedford County moved to Bedford County. Families often moved in groups together and this would explain a connection of 1814 John's son 1845 Thomas to the Hilton family.

Given the circumstantial evidence, it seems fair to assert that Juda (Wright) Hilton was possibly a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

1. Roderick B. Hilton Or Hylton, His Wife Frances (Robinson) Hilton Or Hylton, And His Descendants

This record indicates a date of birth in about 1777. However, Sue Elfving noted that the year of death should probably be 1859, since Roderick Hylton was not listed in the 1860 Census for Carter County. This would make his date of birth in about 1776.

- 1) Elizabeth (Hylton) Ward, born in about 1802, at either Green or Adair County, Kentucky, depending upon the date of birth,
- 2) Nancy (Hylton) Lester, born in about 1804,
- 3) Jesse B. Hylton, born in about 1805,
- 4) William W. Hylton, born on May 8, 1808, at Floyd County, Kentucky,

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving identified Nancy (Hylton) Lester as possibly a daughter of Roderick B. Hylton and Frances (Robertson) Hylton, rather than of Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton, for the following reasons. First, there was no female listed in the 1810 Census for Floyd County, Kentucky, for Jesse Hylton other than Lovina Hylton, who did not marry until November 11, 1810. Second, the census records for Roderick Hylton indicate that he had daughters in his household who would fit the appropriate age for Nancy Hylton's marriage in 1820. And third, Frances (Robertson) Hylton, the wife of Roderick Hylton, had a sister named Nancy and it would be likely they had named one of their daughters Nancy. For these reasons, Sue Elfving concluded that Nancy (Hylton) Lester was probably a daughter of Roderick Hylton and Frances (Robertson) Hylton and not Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving stated that the marriage of Nancy Hylton and John Lester was dated on January 24, 1820, at Floyd County, Kentucky, citing Annals of Floyd County, Kentucky, 1800-1826 by Charles C. Wells.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving identified Jesse B. Hylton as a son of Roderick Hylton and Frances (Robertson) Hilton, rather than Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton, for the following reasons. First, the marriage date of November 10, 1831, for Jesse Hylton suggests a birth date in about 1810, which would be too late for a child of Juda (Wright) Hylton, born before 1760, and 15 or more years after the birth of the last known daughter Lovina in 1793 or 1794. Further research will be required to confirm or deny this identification. Second, Jesse B. Hylton named one of his sons William Roderick Hylton, which suggests a connection to Roderick Hylton. And third, the Ball family lived near to Roderick Hylton based on court orders for road repairs.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving stated that the 1825 Tax List for Lawrence County, Kentucky, listed Jesse B. Hylton for the first time, indicating a date of birth in about 1804.

"According to family lore, there is a story about one of Jeff's uncles on the Davis side predicting the day he was going to die, one year in advance. He died one year later on that day. He was said to be very wealthy but no money was ever found. The popular story is, of course, that he buried it before he died. People searched and dug everywhere but never found it. This occurred right around the time of the Civil War. The uncle was also said to have heard voices.

Jeff was said to be named after his "second cousin" Jefferson Davis, the President of the Confederacy. To date, a link between this branch of the Davis family and Jefferson Davis' family have not been found. Jeff told his great granddaughter, Norma "Susie" Preston that he remembers going to Biloxi, Mississippi and seeing Jefferson Davis before he died. Young Jeff was about 10 years old. This was also told to numerous of Jeff's grandsons.

Jeff told Susie that his full name was William Jefferson Davis. It appears more than likely that he was named after his mother's brother, William Jefferson Ward."

In her letter dated June 23, 200, Libby Preston enclosed a copy of "The Story of William Jefferson Ward The Hidden Progenitor of the J. B. Wells Family," from the Highland Echo, Volume 13, Number 49, June 1995, which provided as follows:

"The Story of
William Jefferson Ward
The Hidden Progenitor of the J. B. Wells Family

William Jefferson Ward was born in Floyd (now Johnson) County, Kentucky, in February 1828, the youngest son of Shadrach and Louvina (Hylton) Ward. He was named in honor of William Ward, Shadrach's grandfather who immigrated to American about 1730 from the Inishowen Peninsula of County Donegal in the Ulster Province of northern Ireland . . . .

William Jefferson Ward, Shadrach's son, grew up on the family farm at the mouth of Greasy Creek. Called "Jeff" or "Jeffrey", he was the youngest son and assumed the role of caretaker for his aged parents. In 1853, just prior to his death, his father deeded him the 125 acre family farm, provided that he continued to take care of his widowed mother Louvina. It looked as though most of his adult life would be spent as caretaker for his parents. Probably because of his family responsibilities, William Jefferson Ward did not marry until November 29, 1860, when he finally married a 16 year old Sarah Hicks, the daughter of Isaac and Jennie (Baldrige) Hicks. Isaac was the grandson of Claiborne Hicks whose family also came to the America to escape the turmoil in northern Ireland. Sarah Hicks was born in Perry (now Knott) County, Kentucky, in July 1844. Although both William Jefferson and Sarah were United Baptists, they were married by Zephaniah Meek, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and as a result their children split their allegiances between the United Baptist and Methodist churches.

The Ward farm was ideally located at the mouth of Greasy Creek at the point where it entered the Big Sandy River. Since passable roads were almost nonexistent, Greasy Creek provided the only viable transportation for most of the residents of the eastern half of Johnson County. In 1855, seeing an opportunity to profit from the farm's location, William Jefferson opened Ward General Merchandise at the mouth of the creek, and by 1857 his brother John H. Ward joined him in the business. The brothers thrived on the busy little creek. In just two years the value of the inventory rose from $100 to $600 and "the Ward Store" quickly became the business and social center from the entire area! Jeff travelled often to Cincinnati to purchase merchandise and rafted it back up the Ohio and Big Sandy rivers. Because of his notoriety as the owner of Ward's Store, Jeff became something of a local political leader, serving his county as Constable for District Four.

Since the Ward family strongly supported the Democratic Party, most of the family backed the efforts of Kentucky to join the Confederacy during the War Between the States. The political philosophy of states rights appealed to this old Scots-Irish family. However, when the war started Jeff Ward chose to remain a non-combatant, that is until 1863. His brother in law, Isaac Hicks, also a Southern Democrat had been the victim of severe harrassment by local Unionists which finally forced him to join the Confederate Army. It appears that a similar scenerio also caused William Jefferson Ward to enlist. One story persists that while William "Jeff" was away on a buying trip during the winter of 1862-63, some Unionists led by Burgess Preston broke into his home and forced his wife and infant daughter Julia to wait outside in the yard while they searched the house for arms and any other evidence of Ward's pro-Southern political beliefs. Nothing was found, but little Julia caught pneumonia during the affair and died some weeks later. Johnson County tax records confirm that Julia, who was born on December 1, 1861, died before the summer of 1863. Not surprisingly, when Jeff returned from Cincinnati, he was ready to take up his rifle.

During the early days of 1863, Captain Western W. Cox of Morgan County was active in Johnson County, recruiting men for a new Confederate cavalry company which eventually became Company "B" of Col. Andrew Jackson May's 10th Kentucky Cavalry. Angered by the death of his daughter at the hands of local Unionists and driven by his political beliefs, William Jefferson Ward enlisted in the Confederate Army and began immediately to procure provisions for the Cox's company rather than for his store. One receipt survives, dated February 1, 1863, which indicates that "William J. Ward 'recruit'" was allocated $59.70 to purchase 338 lbs of bacon (at 15 cents per lb.) and 9 bushels of meal (at $1.00 per bushel). The birth of Jeff's first son on October 29, 1863, left no doubt about his political affiliation. He was named "John C. Breckinridge" Ward in honor of the Kentucky Confederate General and member of the Confederate Cabinet. Few records regarding Ward's service to the Confederacy have survived, but one postwar lawsuit indicates that he served as a scout for the 34th Battalion of Virginia Cavalry during the last months of the war. William Jefferson Ward was sued by James Nibert in Johnson County Circuit Court on June 2, 1865, accusing him of criminal activities while acting as a scout for Confederate forces under Col. Vincent Witcher in Johnson County in the fall 1864. He was charged with "leading a Confederate force or military body of men ... under the command of Witcher alias Claw Hammer" to the homes of area Unionists who were promptly "relieved" of several horses. Nibert claimed that Ward "abeted, advised, and counseled and did encourage said armed band to take from the pliff three head of horses of the value of $375.00". He was also identified as being in the "rebel camp" some three days prior to the raid.

Another story demonstrates the partisan nature of the war in the mountains. A man named Trimble led a company of Union troops on a foraging raid to Ward City. Trimble was a local resident and well-known to the Ward family as a "bad actor". While Jeff was away with his Confederate company, Trimble's men stopped at Louvina Ward's home and robbed the elderly widow of two hogs and other foodstuffs. Responding to her pleas not to take the food, Trimble replied that it was not for him, but was to be eaten by none other than "ole General Grant hisself". Late in the war, the same Trimble fellow died, it was said, of food poisoning and afterwards Ward enjoyed asking any member of the Trimble family he chanced to encounter if they were "any kin to that poor old boy who died eatin' at General Grant's mess".

Afer the war ended, William Jefferson Ward returned [missing words] farm and to local politics, being appointed Magistrate for Johnson County's District #2 on May 30, 1867. He did not reopen the Ward Store until after the death of his mother Louvina in 1872. The 1873 tax list, valued the store at $300, but in the next two years the value doubled. An economic boom had arrived on Greasy Creek. Outside investors had purchased large tracts of forestland on the waters of Greasy and developed a major logging operation. One of the principal staging areas for floating the logs down river to market was Ward City. The increased business traffic was supplemented by regularly scheduled steamboat trips which used Ward's Store as a ticket office.

Jeff Ward was known as a determined and strong-willed man, over six feet tall. He sported a long beard and had fiery blue eyes and was very much an individualist. However, it is through the many wonderful stories told about this man that we gain a picture of what he was truly like. One story told that he regularly wore a nightshirt while working in his store. On one particularly dark and foggy night, he was walking home from the store and took a shortcut over the hill through the Ward Cemetery. A young couple was "sparking" in the cemetery and when Ward walked up in his nightshirt and long white beard, they thought they'd seen a ghost and screamed mightily as they fled down the hill. When told about their reaction Ward grumbled that the young folks had no business being there in the first place.

Jeff's unusual bookkeeping system in his store was the subject of another tale. In the 19th century in the mountains most young boys saw limited "action" in the available schoolhouses. Jeff was no exception, so when he opened his store he developed a rather unique bookkeeping system that caused him trouble at times. In the early days he kept his accounts on the wall of his store, writing out the accounts, especially the past due accounts, for all to see. To be written up on Jeff's wall was considered a social disgrace. However, there were hazards with this system. Sometimes a customer would alter the accounts with a pencil while Jeff was occupied somewhere else, but the worst came during one Christmas season. One Sunday morning, just before Christmas, Jeff suddenly stood up during the middle of the church service and announced aht all of his past due accounts were forgiven in the spirit of the season. Everyone was both appreciative, but also more than a little shocked by this act of kindness. Jeff was a tough man and rarley forgave any sort of indiscretion, especially when it involved money! Later it was discovered that some hogs had broken into the store during the previous night and had rubbed up against the walls, wiping away all the records of the bad accounts. So, Jeff's generosity was not entirely his own doing. Another version has it that his wife Sarah was so embarrassed by the list that she painted it over, sparking a rather heated argument between the the two.

Jeff's limited education caused at least one other incident. It seems that Drewery Castle owed Jeff a rather large account, but finally came into the store to pay it off. Because Jeff was not much of a writer or mathmetician he would draw pictures of the items owed in his account books. After Drewery paid off his account, Jeff said that all was fine except that Drewer had not paid for "that wheel of cheese". Drewery exclaimed that he had most certainly not bought "no wheel of cheese" and he would not pay for it. The argument got heated and almost came to blows before Drewery said "I'll never pay for no wheel of cheese, but I do aim to pay for that grindin' stone you got for me". Jeff stopped dead in his tracks and went back to his account book. After studying the now famous drawing of the wheel of cheese for a moment, Jeff drew an additional small circle in the middle of the wheel, changing it from a cheese wheel to a grinding stone. The argument settled, Drewery paid for the grinding stone and all was fine.

In Ward's General Merchandise Store the typical measure of anything sold by the "thereabouts" method. Ward had no scales so everything was measured "thereabouts". One day, a man by the name of Hale ventured into the store complaining about Jeff's stinginess with a dollar, or a dime for that matter. He ordered four pounds of bacon, so Jeff cut it and handed it to him exclaiming, "Here's your bacon, four pounds or thereabouts". Hale in a distrusting tone said, "No, sir, I want four pounds exactly. You ain't a goin' to cheat me!" Jeff stared at him a moment, then took back the bacon. He calmly cut the piece in half and gave one piece back to Mr. Hale and said, "There's four pounds EXACTLY". Mr. Hale never questioned again Jeff Ward's "thereabouts" measurement!

Jeff Ward was also known for his dry sense of humor and mastery of understatement. Because he was gone on buying trips for long periods of time, his young sons were allowed a great deal of freedom at relatively young ages. During one such buying trip, one of Jeff's youngest sons sneaked off to try his hand at the old mountain method of "snagging" or "snatching" catfish. This involved diving in the Big Sandy River along the river bank and reaching one's hand back into a catfish cave and pulling out the fish barehanded. It was a dangerous practice because catfish could inflict serious damage with their sharp spikes. The process required at least two people because the diver had to have a long rope tied around his waist which was held by his partner on the surface. Once the fish was snagged, the diver jerked on the rope and was pulled up to the surface with his catch. It seems that Jeff's son had been under the water for a very time and had not jerked on the rope. Finally, his buddy became concerned and pulled him up anyway. As the now blue body surfaced, all could see why the Ward boy had not communicated. The boy had latched on to the biggest catfish anyone had ever seen, but the fish also had hold of the boy. Both of the boy's hands and arms were firmly lodged in the huge jaws of the giant fish. After rolling the lifeless boy's body over a log for some five minutes, the young Ward was revived. The fish was measured and was determined to be a foot longer than the boy! As a crowd gathered to get a look at the catfish, Jeff himself finally arrived on the scene having just returned from Cincinnati. After viewing the fish and determining that the boy was alright he walked away murmuring, "That's just like that boy. He'd drown hisself for a minner!"

Jeff's wife, Sarah (Hicks) Ward, also was known as a tough customer, so they the two made a good pair. She wielded a great deal of influence in local social matters. One story tells of new resident in the neighborhood who Sarah did not like. She offered a new pair of britches from the store made out of the finest material to any local man who would "whip him good". William "Coojer" Ward took the offer and after a 30 minutes brawl in front of the Ward Store which included gouging, biting, and "skull fighting", the other man was dispatched, never knowing why he had been whipped so soundly. Coojer was rewarded with a new pair of britches.

Sarah was also a strong, albeit stern Christian and tried very hard to keep her children "in line". After one of her son's first wife died, he "took up with another woman" and invited her to live in his house on Pigeon Roost. Sarah was very upset by this turn of events and waited until her son was away on business. She proceeded to his Pigeon Roost home on horseback, a distance of some four to five miles. Upon arrival she forced the "other woman" to pack up her things and took her back to Ward City where she was dispatched on the next train for parts unknown. Her son later found another lady friend and promptly married her. The subject of the missing girl friend was never mentioned.

Sarah Ward also was more pragmatic about her husband's participation in the War Between the States. During his Confederate service, William Jefferson served as a commissary agent, finding and supplying the 10th Kentucky Cavalry with meal, bacon, and other necessities. But, Sarah blamed both sides for the untimely death of their daughter Julia and wanted nothing to do with either side. Once, late in the war a detachment from the 10th Cavalry was sent by Jeff to the Ward farm. They told Sarah that Jeff had instructed them to take horses "for the army". Sarah told them in no uncertain terms what she thought of both armies and their "unchristian fight" and told them that if "either bunch of you thieves" shows up here again" she'd deal with them. From then on she hid the horses and any extra foodstuffs in the cemetery on the ridge and was never bothered again.

By 1892, it was clear that William Jefferson Ward was prospering. The tax list for that year listed his net worth at $6,613, including his store worth $1,000, 300 acres of farmland, $1,500 invested and $500 in cash in his possession. In addition, he held notes on other area residents for $500. In the entire 8th Precinct of Johnson County there were only two men who showed a higher estimated worth.

William Jefferson Ward's youngest daughter Jennie was born on November 3, 1886, at Ward City, when William Jefferson was 60 years old. Her oldest brother was twenty three years her senior. She was named for her grandmother, Jennie (Baldrige) Hicks, and attended school until, at age 14, she met John Britton Wells. He was an orphan, struggling in the logging business in partnership with his brother Jacob. John first met Jennie at her father's store at Ward City while he was gathering logs to float down to market at Catlettsburg. Their courtship was very turbulent because William Jeff Ward did not approve of the couple. Jennie was only fifteen years old and he was almost twenty-two. John was a poor man and lived in a dirt-floored log cabin on Lick Branch of Greasy Creek, while Jeff Ward had risen to a place of prominence in his community. William Ely in his book The Big Sandy Valley, History of the People and Country, described him as "one of the solid men of business in Johnson County". Nervously, John approached Jeff on the front porch of the store at Ward City to ask for Jennie's hand in marriage. Jeff became so angry that he punched John so hard that it knocked him off the porch into the road. Part of the feelings for John might have come from the fact that Charles Jefferson Wells ran a rival store at the mouth of Greasy Creek and held the coveted position of postmaster of Ward City until his untimely death on July 9, 1884. Jeff was resolute in his opposition, but Jennie was also a Ward and was determined to marry John. Finally, Jeff relented and the couple married on Oct. 15, 1902.

William Jefferson Ward died on January 4, 1904. The "Big Sandy News" of January 8, 1904, reported that "W. J. Ward, Sr. died at his home Monday morning very suddenly. He had been sick a few weeks, but had been going around all the time. Monday morning he was unable to get out of bed without help, and when some of the family attempted to help him out of bed he fell back and died instantly. He was one of the wealthiest men in our county and was a good and influential citizen, and will be greatly missed". Family stories persist that William Jefferson Ward's health was worsened considerably due to some difficulty encountered by one of his sons. The young man had attended a party some nights before at the home of Ben Spradlin where a Negro man named William Wright was hired to provide fiddle music. During the party, Wright was called out to the yard by Jeff's sons and three shots rang out. Later Wright's body was found. Jeff died on the same day that his son was formally charged with the murder. Several divergent stories later surfaced about the circumstances of Jeff's death, but all included one common thread, that Jeff was most distressed over the murder and his son's involvement.

William Jefferson Ward was buried on the top of the ridge at Offutt in the Old Ward Family Cemetery, the final resting place of his parents, Shadrach and Lovina (Hylton) Ward, and of his grandparents, James and Sarah (Osborn) Ward . . . ."

In her email dated June 21, 2000, Libby Preston enclosed family group sheets which stated that William Jefferson Ward was a son of Lavina (Hylton) Ward and Shadrack Ward, was born in February 1828 at Floyd County, Kentucky, married Sarah Hicks on November 29, 1860, at Johnson County, Kentucky, served with Morgan's

"The Story of
William Jefferson Ward
The Hidden Progenitor of the J. B. Wells Family

William Jefferson Ward's youngest daughter Jennie was born on November 3, 1886, at Ward City, when William Jefferson was 60 years old. Her oldest brother was twenty three years her senior. She was named for her grandmother, Jennie (Baldrige) Hicks, and attended school until, at age 14, she met John Britton

Wells. He was an orphan, struggling in the logging business in partnership with his brother Jacob. John first met Jennie at her father's store at Ward City while he was gathering logs to float down to market at Catlettsburg. Their courtship was very turbulent because William Jeff Ward did not approve of the couple. Jennie was only fifteen years old and he was almost twenty-two. John was a poor man and lived in a dirt-floored log cabin on Lick Branch of Greasy Creek, while Jeff Ward had risen to a place of prominence in his community. William Ely in his book The Big Sandy Valley, History of the People and Country, described him as "one of the solid men of business in Johnson County". Nervously, John approached Jeff on the front porch of the store at Ward City to ask for Jennie's hand in marriage. Jeff became so agry that he punched John so hard that it knocked him off the porch into the road. Part of the feelings for John might have come from the fact that Charles Jefferson Wells ran a rival store at the mouth of Greasy Creek and held the coveted position of postmaster of Ward City until his untimely death on July 9, 1884. Jeff was resolute in his opposition, but Jennie was also a Ward and was determined to marry John. Finally, Jeff relented and the couple married on Oct. 15, 1902.

"According to family lore, there is a story about one of Jeff's uncles on the Davis side predicting the day he was going to die, one year in advance. He died one year later on that day. He was said to be very wealthy but no money was ever found. The popular story is, of course, that he buried it before he died. People searched and dug everywhere but never found it. This occurred right around the time of the Civil War. The uncle was also said to have heard voices.

Jeff was said to be named after his "second cousin" Jefferson Davis, the President of the Confederacy. To date, a link between this branch of the Davis family and Jefferson Davis' family have not been found. Jeff told his great granddaughter, Norma "Susie" Preston that he remembers going to Biloxi, Mississippi and seeing Jefferson Davis before he died. Young Jeff was about 10 years old. This was also told to numerous of Jeff's grandsons.

(III) John Walter Davis, His Wife Veneda (Branham) Davis, And His Descendants

7. Possibly Nancy (Hylton) Lester And Her Husband John Lester

Nancy (Hylton) Lester was possibly a daughter of Juda (Wright) Hilton or Hylton and Jesse Hilton or Hylton. (John<sup>1</sup>, Juda<sup>2</sup>)

In her email dated June 21, 2000, Libby Preston enclosed family group sheets which stated that Nancy Hylton was a daughter of Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton and married John Lester on January 24, 1820, at Floyd County, Kentucky.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving questioned the identification of Nancy (Hylton) Lester as a daughter of Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton for the following reasons. First, there was no female listed in the 1810 Census for Floyd County, Kentucky, for Jesse Hylton other than Lovina Hylton, who did not marry until November 11, 1810. Second, the census records for Roderick Hylton indicate that he had daughters in his household who would fit the appropriate age for Nancy Hylton's marriage in 1820. And third, Frances (Robertson) Hylton, the wife of Roderick Hylton, had a sister named Nancy and it would be likely they had named one of their daughters Nancy. For these reasons, Sue Elfving concluded that Nancy (Hylton) Lester was probably a daughter of Roderick Hylton and Frances (Robertson) Hylton and not Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton.

8. Possibly Jesse Hylton, His Wife Elizabeth (Ball) Hylton, And His Descendants

Jesse Hylton was possibly a son of Juda (Wright) Hilton or Hylton and Jesse Hilton or Hylton. (John<sup>1</sup>, Juda<sup>2</sup>)

In her email dated June 21, 2000, Libby Preston enclosed family group sheets which stated that Jesse Hylton was a son of Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton and married Elizabeth Ball on November 10, 1831.

In her email dated June 24, 2001, Sue Elfving questioned the identification of Jesse Hylton as a son of Juda (Wright) Hylton and Jesse Hylton for the reason that the marriage date of November 10, 1831, for Jesse Hylton suggests a birth date in about 1810, which would be too late for a child of Juda (Wright) Hylton, born before 1760, and 15 or more years between the birth of the last known daughter Lovina in 1793 or 1794. Further research will be required to confirm or deny this identification.

H. Betty Wright

Betty Wright was a daughter of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>)

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Betty Wright, daughter of John Wright and Judah Easley, in February 1756:

"John Wright & Judah Easley on Lickinhole, a Daugh: born feb: . . . . 1756 named Betty. Baptized 1756 Mar. 21"
