INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter), His Wife Judith (Easley) Wright, And His Descendants is Part II of the project.

The material is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second the descendants charts, the third the sources, and the fourth appendices.

The text provides full transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Six generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list. I have limited the descendants chart to eight generations to reduce the public disclosure of information about living persons. I will be happy to share the information on later generations with interested researchers.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices are being published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Bedford and Franklin Counties, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future. The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1814 John Wright of Bedford County" indicates that this was the John Wright who died in 1814 in Bedford County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio." A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "Grief Wright (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 75,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize their contributions by identifying those contributions in the text and source list.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

II. John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter), His Wife Judith (Easley) Wright, And His Descendants

On April 10, 1739, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 3/213 John Wright purchased 358 acres of land from Robert Mimms:

This Deed with the Livery of Seizin and Receipt was proved by the Oaths of Robert Walton John Mim's and David Mim's to be the Acts and Deeds of Robert Mim's and they were thereupon Admitted to Record.

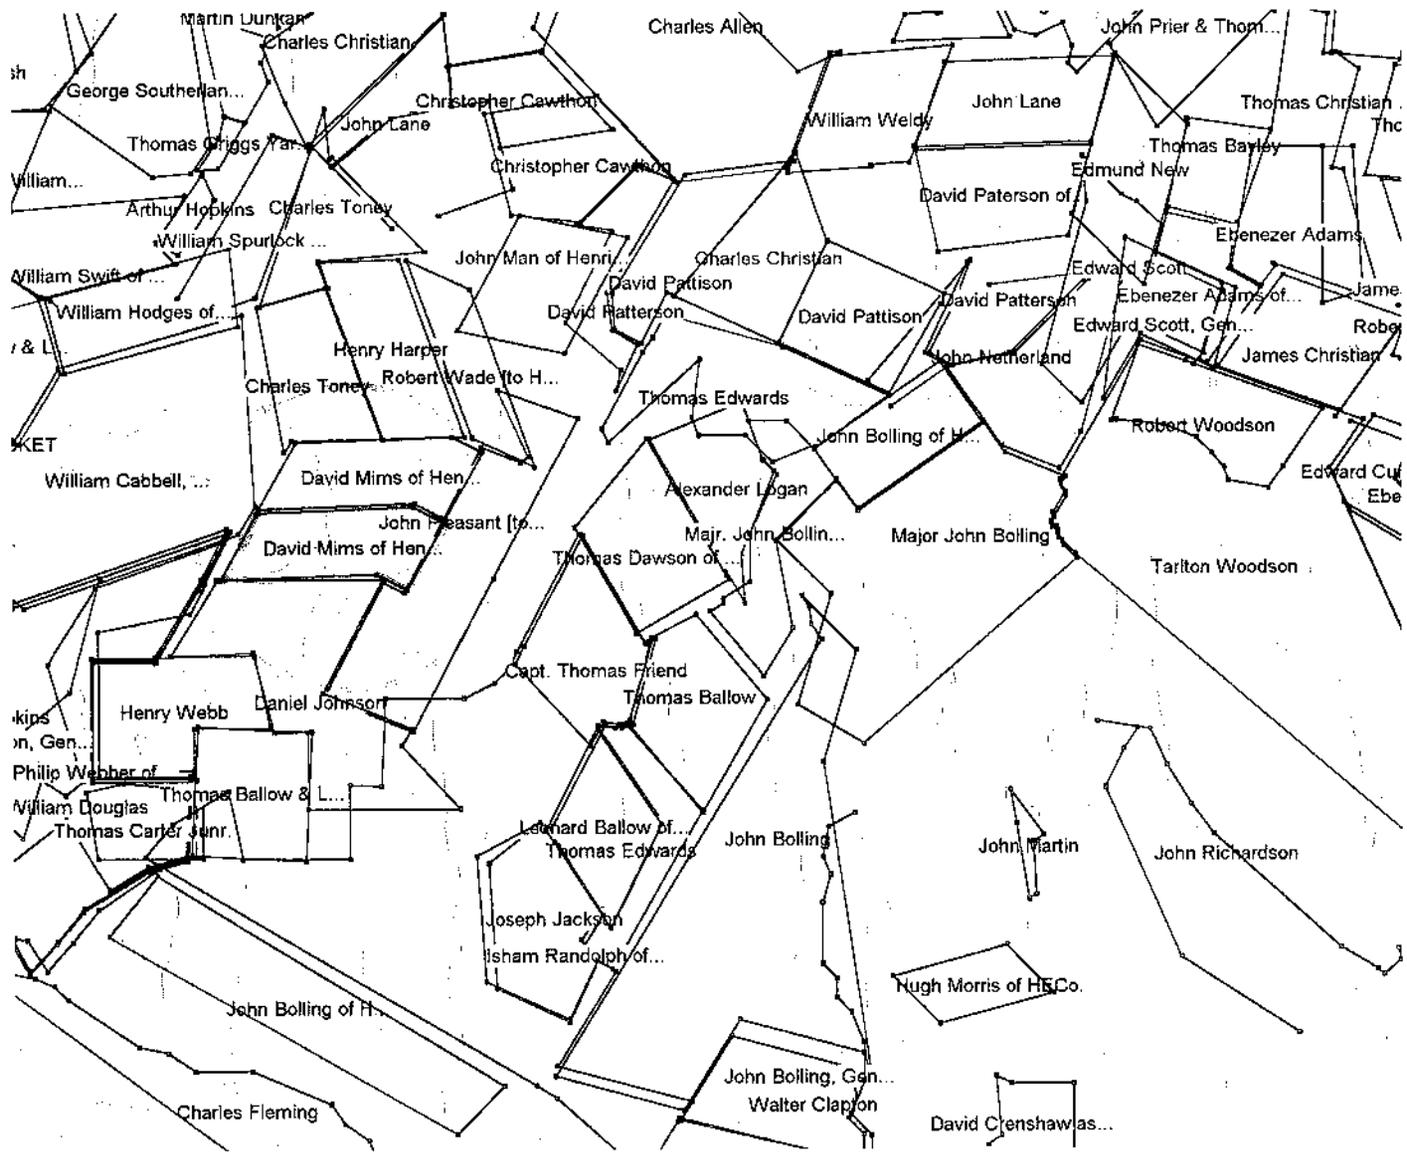

Test. Henry Wood CICur."

As will be set forth below, the identification of a Mimms as the seller of this land, its location on Lickinghole Creek, and the amount of land purchased and ultimately retained after two sales confirm that John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) was the purchaser of this land. If John Wright was at least 18 years of age at the time of this land purchase, then his date of birth would be probably before 1722.

The location of Lickinghole Creek in Goochland County is given on the map on the following page:

In her letter dated July 19, 2000, Marilyn Symonds enclosed a map which locates the original Patent Deed 13/9 dated October 31, 1726, to David Mims which was sold to John Wright by Goochland County Deed 3/213 above. That map appears as follows:

At a Court held for Goochland County Novem. 17th. 1741.

John Wright acknowledged this Deed to be his Act and Deed Then Judith his Wife (She being first privately examined) Relinquished her right of Dower in the Land by this Deed Conveyed all which was ordered to be Recorded."

This record clearly identifies John Wright's wife as Judith (____) Wright. This sale also left John Wright with some 179 acres of land.

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia
listed the following entry for September 23, 1745:

"John Wright for making Benches at the Church"

"On the Motion of John Wright a Witness for John Laine agt. Ashford Hughes it is ordered that the said John pay him for five Days Attendance One hundred and Twenty five pounds of Tobacco."

On September 17, 1747, at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 6/389 Judith Wright also moved the court for payment as a witness in the suit of Laine v. Hughes:

"On the Motion of Judith Wright Wife of John Wright a Witness for John Laine agt. Ashford Hughes it is ordered that the said John pay her for five Days Attendance One hundred and twenty five pounds of Tobacco."

The conjunction of John and Judith Wright moving for witness fees in the same case makes clear that these records relate to John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and his wife Judith (Easley) Wright.

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia

"Lines processioned are . . . Lines between John Plesants and John Wright, Philip Ryan and John Mullins with John Mullins and John Mims present. Line between John Wright and John Mullins, John Mullins and John Mims, William McCormick, John Mullins and Charles Toney with John Mims, John Mullins, Philip Ryan and John Wright present. Line between John Mims and John Wright. . . . The lines between Philip Ryan and John Pleasants and the line between Arthur Hopkins and Philip Ryan with John Wright and John Man present. . . ."

Since the land of John Wright the carpenter was adjacent to Mims, this was clearly a listing for that John Wright.

"List Tithables Taken June 10th 1748 p John Payne
John W[ri]ght Carptr Tithes        ) Jeffry, Jany                        )     3

This record indicates that John Wright was a carpenter and had two slaves Jeffry and Jany.

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia

listed the following entry for January 27, 1748:

"John Wright for taking down a pair of stairs."

On October 27, 1748, at Hening's Statutes At Large Volume 6, page 40, the General Assembly again defined a tithable to include males over the age of 16:

". . . . That all male persons of the age of sixteen years and upwards, and all negroe, mulatto, and Indian women of the same age, except Indians tributary to this government, and all wives of free negroes, mulattos, and Indians, except as before excepted, shall be and are hereby declared to be tithable, and chargeable for defraying the public, county, and parish levies, of this colony and dominion, . . ."

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia

listed the following entry for December 5, 1749:

"Ordered that Tarlton Fleming, Arthur Hopkins and John Payne to view the Work done by John Wright on the Glebe House and the additional Building done by Wade Netherland."

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia

listed the following entry for March 6, 1749/50:

"John Wright for Horseblocks and putting putty on the windows at St. Johns Church."

On November 19, 1751, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 6/178 John Wright sold 60 acres of land to Robert Pleasants:

"This Indenture made this Nineteenth of November in the Year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred Fifty & one Between John Wright of Goochland County and Robert Pleasants of Henrico County. Witnesseth that the aforesaid John Wright in Consideration of twenty Pounds Curr. Money to him in hand paid by the said Robert Pleasants, Hath given granted bargain'd Sold aliened Enfeoffed & Confirm'd & in & by these presents doth bargain sell alien enfeoff & confirm unto the aforesaid Robert Pleasants his heirs & Assigns forever one tract or parcell of Land lying on the North side of James River in the County of Goochland containing by estimation Sixty Acres more or less and is bounded on the East by the Land of John Pleasants, on the South by the South branch of Lickinghole Creek, on the West by the Whittle Creek & on the north by the Land of Phil. Ryan, being all the Land the aforesaid Wright hath on that side Lickinghole Creek To have & to Hold the said Sixty Acres of Land as aforesaid be it more or less to the aforesaid Robt. Pleasants his Heirs and Assigns forever,

"John Wright Acknowledges a Deed with Livery of Seizen Endorsed, to be his Acts & Deeds, to Robert Pleasants, which are admitted to Record."

The 1752 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"Goochland County, a List of Tithables for the year of one Thousand seven hundred & fifty two taken by Thos. Starke

[ ]hn Wright	)

This record indicates that John Wright, the carpenter, who had slave Jany in 1748, had slave [J]enne in 1752 and a son John Wright as tithes in his household. The absence of John Wright, the son of John Wright the carpenter, from the 1748 tithe list and the first appearance in 1752 of that John Wright, Jr., indicates that the date of birth of John Wright, Jr., was before June 11, 1736, and probably between June 10, 1732, and June 11, 1736. If John Wright the carpenter was at least 18 years of age when John Wright, Jr., was born, then John Wright the carpenter was probably born before 1719.

The 1754 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"A List of Tithables taken for the year 1754 by Thos. Stark (?) Goochland

John Wright	)
John Wright Jur.	)	3

This is clearly the same household as that of the 1752 Tithe List and again includes a son John Wright, Jr., and the slave Jenny or Jany.

The 1755 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"A List of Tithables taken by Thos Starke in Goochland County for the year of 1755

Jno Wright	)
Jno Wright Jr.	)	3
Negroe Jane	)

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Betty Wright, daughter of John Wright and Judah Easley, in February 1756:

"John Wright & Judah Easley on Lickinhole, a Daugh: born feb: . . . . 1756 named Betty. Baptized 1756 Mar. 21"

There are two separate entries in The Douglas Register for a birth to a John Wright and his wife Judith. One was the listing above for Judah Easley and the second was for John Wright and Judith Barns:

"John Wright and Judith Barns a son named Benjamin born Mar: 22, 1759. Baptized 1759 Ap: 29."

Since John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) had a wife Judith, either of these birth records could be for John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter), but there are two reasons for identifying the first record for Judith Easley as the record for John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter). First and most importantly, the birth record indicates that John Wright and Judah were "on Lickinhole" and the land of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) was located on Lickinghole Creek. This would seem to be a clear identification of the relevant family. Second, as will be set forth below, John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) named one of his children Roderick Wright. The name Roderick is also found in the Easley family. The will of Warham Easley dated on September 24, 1747, and probated in November 1747 at Henrico County, Virginia, W. & D.B. 1744-1748/30 also named one of his sons Rodrick. Although the relationship of Judith (Easley) Wright and Warham Easley is not yet known, the name Roderick is sufficiently rare to add support to the identification of Judith (Easley) Wright as the wife of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter).

The 1756 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"List of Tythables Taken by John Smith for the year 1756

John Wright List	)
John Wright jur	)	3
...."

The 1757 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jun. as separate households with the following tithes:

"A List of Tithables taken by John Smith for the year 1757

John Wright list	1
...."

This record indicates that John Wright, Jr., had established his separate household in 1757. As will be set forth below, this is consistent with the marriage of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County to Mary Pace in 1756.

The 1759 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"List of Tythables Taken by John Smith for the year 1759. . . .

The 1760 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Junr with the following tithes:

...."

John Wright Junr

The absence of James Wright from the 1759 tithe list and the first appearance in the 1760 tithe list of James Wright in the John Wright household indicates that James Wright was born before June 11, 1744, and probably between June 10, 1743, and June 11, 1744.

St. James Northam Parish Vestry Book 1744-1850 Goochland County, Virginia

listed the following entry for September 25, 1760:

"John Wright for Work done at Upper Church."

The 1761 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

A 1762 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

Name	Tithes

-------------	---

The 1763 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

"Goochland County June 10, 1763 List of Tythes Land, and wheel Carrages, taken by William Mitchell

.....	John Wright Junr	Tythes	1	-
.....	John Wright, William Wright Jr.	Tythes	2	Land 120
....."

The absence of William Wright, Jr., from the 1761 tithe list and the first appearance in the 1763 tithe list of William Wright, Jr., indicates that William Wright was born before June 11, 1747, and probably between June 10, 1745, and June 11, 1747. The appellation "Jr." reflects a younger William Wright than a second William Wright who was also listed in this Tithe List. This record also indicates that John Wright, the carpenter, owned 120 acres of land in 1763 and that his son John Wright, Jr., owned none. As set forth above, the ownership of 120 acres of land is consistent with the purchase of 358 acres of land by Goochland County Deed 3/213, the sale of 179 acres of land by Goochland County Deed 3/491, and the sale of 60 acres of land by Goochland County Deed 6/178 and identifies the John Wright of those three deeds as John Wright the carpenter of the tithe lists.

The 1764 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

"Goochland County, June 10th 1764. the List of Tythes, Land, & wheal Carages, taken by Wil Michell

		Tythe	Land	Carages
.....	John Wright, William Wright Junr		2	120
.....
....."

"Goochland County June 10th 1765
List Tythes, Land, Wheal Carrages &c

	Tythes	Land	Carrages
..... John Wright .....	1	120
John Wright Junr William Wright Junr ....."	2	-

This record reflects a change of residence for William Wright, the son of John Wright, the carpenter, from his father's residence to his brother John Wright, Jr.'s residence.

The 1766 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

"Goochland County June 10th 1766
List Tythes Land, wheel Carrages &c

	Tithes	Land	Carrages
..... John Wright Junr. James .....	2	-
John Wright, William Wright, Francis Wright ....."	3	120

This record reflects the return of William Wright to his father's household. The absence of Francis Wright from the 1765 tithe list and the initial appearance of Francis Wright in the 1766 tithe list indicates that Francis Wright was born before June 11, 1750, and probably between June 10, 1749, and June 11, 1750.

On May 7, 1767, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 9/116 John Wright executed a mortgage on his remaining 119 acres of land to George Kippen & Company Merchants in Glasgow to secure a debt of 106 pounds, 9 shillings, 8 pence, and 3 farthings:

"This Indenture Made the Seventh Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & Sixty Seven between John Wright of Goochland

Archibald Bryce proved this deed of Mortgage to be the Act & Deed of John Wright, wch was continued for further proof.

William Michell Gent. further proved this deed of Mortgage to be the act & deed of John Wright wch was now ordered to be Recorded.

The description of the land confirms that the same John Wright purchased the land in Goochland County Deed 3/213 from Robert Mims and sold the land in Goochland County Deeds 3/491 and 6/178, leaving him with 119 acres of land on Lickinghole Creek.

The 1767 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Junr with the following tithes:

"A List of Tythables Taken In Goochland County for The year one thousand Seven hundred and Sixty Seven By John Smith

John Wrights list	)

This record reflects the transfer of the slave James from John Wright, Jr.'s household to the household of his father John Wright the carpenter.

On May 19, 1767, at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 11/18 the mortgage from John Wright to George Kippen & Co. was proved by Archibald Bryce:

"Archibald Bryce proves a deed of Mortgage from John Wright to George Kippen & Co to be the act & deed of the said John wch is cont'd. for further proof."

On September 15, 1767, at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 11/119 the mortgage from John Wright to George Kippen & Co. was proved by Robert Birkmyre:

"Robert Birkinyre further proves a Deed of Mortgage from John Wright to Kippen & Compy to be the act & deed of the said John, wch is contd. for further proof."

In November 1767 or on December 15, 1767, at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 11/137 the mortgage from John Wright to George Kippen & Co. was proved by William Michell:

"William Michell Gent. further proves a deed of Mortgage from John Wright to George Kippen & Compy to be the act & deed of the said John, wch is thereupon orderd. to be Recorded."

The 1768 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Senr and John Wright with the following tithes:

"List Tithes Taken by Wm Harrison June 10 1768

Persons Names who are Chargeable	Names of the Tithables	No. of Tithes	No. of Cariage	Quant of Land

The 1769 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes and did not list a John Wright Jur.:

"1769 List Tithes June 10 1769 Goochd County
William Harrison List of Tithables
....."

John Wright List            )
 William Wright            )     3 Rodrick Wright            )

The absence of Roderick Wright from the 1768 tithe list and the first appearance of Rodrick Wright in the 1769 tithe list indicates that he was born before June 11, 1753, and probably between June 10, 1752, and June 11, 1753. The absence of John Wright, Jr., from the 1769 tithe list is consistent with his move from Goochland County to Bedford County in 1768, as will be more fully set forth below in connection with 1814 John Wright of Bedford County.

Goochland County Historical Society Magazine, Volume 34, 2002, included a list of Goochland County Voters on September 12, 1769, in the election for two members of the House of Burgesses from the Goochland County Court Loose Papers, Library of Virginia, which listed only one Wright among the voters and that was Jno. Wright:

 Jno. Wright
 Poll Taken for the Election of Bergesses, Sept. 12, 1769.

Goochland County to wit:

In pursuance of a Writ directed to the Sheriff of the County afoursaid for the Election of Burgesses the List here to annexed is a True & Just poll taken for Thomas Mann Randolph, John Woodson & Josias Payne, Junr. the candidates for . . . . Shad. Vaughan, D. Shrf.
 for John Bowles, Shrf."

The only John Wright still in Goochland County in 1769 was John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and, therefore, this listing had to be for him.

The 1770 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"Memo. of List's of Tithes for the year 1770 Recd. by me Stephen Sampson

John Wright )

On about August 23, 1770, at Goochland County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers, George Kippen and Company filed suit to enforce the mortgage executed by John Wright and to sell his land in payment of his debt:

"To the worshipfull court of Goochland county sitting in Chancery. On August 23, 1770, at Goochland County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers, a summons was issued against John Wright to answer the suit of George Kippen and Company:

The 1771 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and Rodrick Wright with the following tithes:

The 1772 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

On April 25, 1772, at Goochland County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers, the court ordered the publication of a summons ordering John Wright to answer the complaint of George Kippen and Company:

"George the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King Defender of the Faith, &c. To the Sheriff of Goochland County Greeting. We command you that in all and singular places in your Bailiwc, where to you shall seem most expedient you cause it publicly on our part to be proclaimed that John Wright, under the penalty of his Allegiance before our Justices of our Court in Chancery of our said County, at the Court-house of the said County, on the third Monday in May next personally do appear, and nevertheless the said John, in the meantime if you can find, you Attach so that you have his Body before our Justices of our said Court at the day aforesaid, to answer Us, as well of a certain contempt by him to Us offered as it is said, as upon those things which to him shall then and there be objected, and further to do and receive what our said Court, shall in this part consider and this he shall in no wise omit. And have then there this Writ. Witness Valentine Wood Clerk of our said Court, at the Court-house aforesaid, the XXVth day of April in the Xiith Year of our Reign.

The 1773 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed Francis Wright with a tithe which might be John Wright, Roderick Wright in the Major Josias Payne list, and William Wright Junr with the following tithes:

"A List of Tythes, Carrages &c for 1773
 . . . .
 Majr Josias Payne List. ) Roderick Wright York, )
 peter, Tom, Tom, Tom, Sam ) 12 Squire, Diner, Jane, Mole )
 Francis Wright List. Crease,
 _ (Jno ?) Wright 3
 . . . ."

This record indicates that Roderick Wright was probably acting as an overseer for Major Josias Payne and that Francis Wright had probably become the head of the household for John Wright, the carpenter, or that John Wright, the carpenter, had died.

The 1775 through 1779 Tithe Lists for Goochland County, Virginia, did not list any Wrights, but these lists were probably incomplete.

In his letter dated December 18, 1997, Lee Shinn stated that Stephen & Mary Easley In Sullivan County, Tennessee stated that Judith Easley was a daughter of John Easley and Mary (Benskin) Easley and was born between 1711 and 1715 at Virginia. However, that identification was apparently based on A Tentative Outline Of U.S. Easley Lines Primarily To The Year 1800 by Virginia Easley DeMarce.

In A Tentative Outline Of U.S. Easley Lines Primarily To The Year 1800 dated January 1970 Virginia Easley DeMarce stated that the Judith Easley who married John Wright was a daughter of John Easley and Joyce (Allen) Easley who were married about 1732 to 1735. However, in her draft revision of A Tentative Outline and in her email dated October 10, 1998, Mrs. DeMarce stated that she had concluded that that identification was not correct, based on the incompatibility between the date of marriage of John and Joyce of 1732 to 1735 and the joinder by Judith (Easley) Wright in Goochland County Deed 3/491 in 1741. In her email dated October 17, 1998, Mrs.

DeMarce speculated that Judith (Easley) Wright might be a child of William Easley, son of Robert Easley, and Mary (Pyrant) Easley, but that little is known of that Easley family.

The Easley Family by Johnye Harben also stated that Judith Easley was a daughter of John Easley and Joyce (Allen) Easley and married John Wright in 1756, but no source for this identification was given.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright were the following:

- 1) John Wright, born before June 11, 1736, and probably between June 10, 1732, and June 11, 1736,
  - 2) Probably Mary (Wright) Mims, born probably before 1741,
  - 3) James Wright, born before June 11, 1744, and probably between June 10, 1743, and June 11, 1744, probably at Goochland County, Virginia,
  - 4) William Wright, born before June 11, 1747, and probably between June 10, 1745, and June 11, 1747, probably at Goochland County, Virginia,
  - 5) Francis Wright, born before June 11, 1750, and probably between June 10, 1749, and June 11, 1750, probably at Goochland County, Virginia,
  - 6) Roderick Wright, born before June 11, 1753, and probably between June 10, 1752, and June 11, 1753, probably at Goochland County, Virginia,
  - 7) Possibly Judith (Wright) Hylton, and
  - 8) Betty Wright, born February 1756 at Goochland County, Virginia.
- A. 1814 John Wright Of Bedford County, His Wife Mary (Pace) Wright, And His Descendants

1814 John Wright of Bedford County was a son of John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) and Judith (Easley) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>)

The 1752 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

"Goochland County, a List of Tithables for the year of one Thousand seven hundred & fifty two taken by Thos. Starke

[ ]hn Wright	)

This record identifies John Wright as the son of John Wright, the carpenter. The absence of John Wright, Jr., the son of John Wright the carpenter, from the 1748 tithe list and the first appearance of John Wright, Jr., in the 1752 tithe list indicates that the date of birth of John Wright, Jr., was before June 11, 1736, and probably between June 10, 1732, and June 11, 1736.

The 1754 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

John Wright	)
John Wright Jur.	)	3

This is clearly the same household as that of the 1752 Tithe List and again includes a son John Wright, Jr., and the slave Jenny or Jany.

The 1755 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

Jno Wright	)
Jno Wright Jr.	)	3

"Wright, John, & Mary Pierce, both in this parish 1756, Jan: 14, p. 2"

There was a second listing for a marriage as follows:

"Marriages Not Recorded By Rev. Wm. Douglas But Indicated By The Birth Registry. Date here given, unless otherwise specified, is birth date of first child shown in this register.

Wright, John, & Mary Pace 14 Nov. 1765."

This second entry seems clearly to be based on the variant spelling of Mary Pace/Pierce's last name and the earlier 1756 date is the actual marriage date of 1814 John Wright and Mary Pace. If John Wright and Mary Pace were at least 16 years of age at the time of their marriage, their dates of birth would be probably before 1741.

The 1756 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following tithes:

John Wright List	)
John Wright jur	)	3

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Joseph Wright on March 17, 1757, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"John Wright & Mary Pierce a son named Joseph born Mar: 17. 1757. Baptized 1757 Ap: 17. p. 50."

The 1757 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jun. as separate households with the following tithes:

John Wright list	1
...."

This record indicates that John Wright, Jr., had established his separate household in 1757. This is consistent with the marriage of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County to Mary Pace in 1756.

The Douglas Register listed the birth of John Wright on August 1, 1759, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"John Wright & Mary Pace* a son named John born Aug: 1, 1759. Baptized 1759 Sep: 2. p. 55.

The 1760 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Junr with one tithe:

John Wright Junr                    1

The Douglas Register listed the birth of James Wright on March 5, 1761, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"John Wright & Mary Pierce a Son named James born Mar: 5, 1761. Baptized 1761 Ap: 12. p. 59."

The 1761 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Jur with one tithe:

John Wright Jur List                    1

A 1762 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Junr. with the following tithes:

Name	Tithes
John Wright Junr.	2

The 1763 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Jur with one tithe and no land:

"Goochland County June 10, 1763 List of Tythes Land, and wheel Carrages, taken by William Mitchell

The 1764 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

		Tythe Land	Carages

John Wright Junr.

The 1765 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

"Goochland County June 10th 1765
List Tythes, Land, Wheal Carrages &c

		Tythes	Land	Carrages

John Wright Junr

This record reflects a change of residence for William Wright, the son of John Wright, the carpenter, from his father's residence to his brother John Wright, Jr.'s residence.

On August 27, 1765, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 2/642 John Wright of Goochland County purchased 330 acres of land in Bedford County from John Eckhols:

"This Indenture made this 27th day of August one Thousand Seven Hundred & Sixty five Between John Eckhols of Bedford County and John Right of the County of Goochlan of the other part Witnesseth that the said John Eckhols for and in Consideration of the some of fifty pounds Corrant money of Virginia to him in hand paid by the said John Right the Receipt whereof doth hereby Acknowledge hath Granted Bargained and Sold and by these presence Doth Grant Bargain Sell aline and Confirm unto the said John Wright his Heirs & assigns forever one Certain Tract or parcel of Lande Containing Three Hundred and Thirty Acres be the same more or less it being part of a Tract of Land Granted to said John Eckhols by Patent and part by Deed from Richard Stith situated in Bedford County and on the forks of Eckhols is Creek Bounded as followeth (to wit) Beginning a Spanish Oak on the south fork of Eckholeses Creek thence Dividing Line Crossing the south fork S 56. The legal description for this land does not close and a plat of the land cannot be drawn. The legal description is also confused, listing lines in an unusual form with East listed first and South second, the reverse of the normal order.

In August 1765 at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 10/64 the court ordered the payment of 525 pounds of tobacco to John Wright, Jr., for being a witness for Moses Going:

"On the Motion of John Wright jr Witness for Moses Going at the suit of Wm. Hudnall, it is ordered that the said Moses pay him for twenty one days Attendance five hundred & twenty five pounds of Tobacco."

The listing of John Wright as "Jr." identifies this John Wright as 1814 John Wright of Bedford County.

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Ann Wright on November 14, 1765, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"John Wright & Mary Pace a Daughter named Ann born Nov: 14, 1765. Baptized Dec: 22 1765.. p. 72."

The 1766 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright and John Wright Jur with the following tithes:

This record reflects the acquisition by John Wright, Jr., of the slave James.

The 1767 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright Junr with one tithe:

On June 23, 1767, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 3/111, John Wright of Goochland County purchased a tract of 300 acres of land from John and Mary Eckhols:

The legal description of this deed also does not appear to close and so no map of the parcel can be drawn. However, a comparison of the legal descriptions indicates the same land was involved in Bedford County Deed 3/111 as in Bedford County Deed 2/642:

Except for differences between the two deeds at the places with the unusual style of description in Bedford County Deed 2/642, the legal descriptions clearly describe the same land.

Given the inability to draw a plat of either deed, the location of the land in Bedford County cannot be determined from these deeds alone, other than generally on Eckhols Creek and Little Otter River. However, other documents set forth below will identify the location of the land exactly.

The Douglas Register listed the birth of Mary Wright on January 13, 1768, at Goochland County, Virginia:

"John Wright & Mary Pace a Daughter named Mary born Jan: 13 1768. Baptized Ap: 1 1768. p. 80."

There were no entries in The Douglas Register for births for John Wright and Mary (Pace/Pierce) Wright after 1768.

On March 15, 1768, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 9/132 Ann Pace, widow, appointed John Wright, Jr., the husband of her daughter Mary, as her attorney in fact to act for her in connection with a suit in the General Court against Richard Stark to recover certain slaves:

The reference to John Wright as "junr" may indicate that he was the son of a John Wright or that he was a John Wright who was younger than another possibly unrelated John Wright in Goochland County at that time. Both usages are found in the records of this period. In this case, the Goochland County Tithe Lists make clear that the usage was as a son of John Wright. This record also identifies John Wright's wife as Mary (Pace) Wright.

On March 15, 1768, at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 11/161 Anne Pace acknowledged the power of attorney from her to John Wright:

"Anne Pace acknowledges a power of Atty to John Wright junr. to be her act and deed wch is admitted to Record."

"List Tithes Taken by Wm Harrison June 10 1768

Persons Names who are Chargeable	Names of the Tithables	No. of Tithes	No Cariage	Quant of Land

The 1769 Tithe List for Goochland County, Virginia, listed John Wright, but did not list a John Wright, Jr., in that year or later years.

The absence of further birth records in The Douglas Register for children of John Wright and his wife Mary (Pace) Wright and the absence of John Wright from the Goochland County Tithes Lists in 1769 and thereafter indicate that 1814 John Wright and his family moved from Goochland County to Bedford County sometime in 1768 after the second clarified purchase of their land on Eckhols Creek.

In October 1769 at Goochland County, Virginia, Ct.O.B. 11/377 John Wright, Jr. through his attorney dismissed his petition against John Lee:

"John Wright junior Plt.     )

The Sumons and copyt petition being returned Executed on the petrs. motion by his Atty it is consd. by the Court that the said petition be dismissed & that he recover agst the Deft his costs by him in this behalf expended & half a Lawyers Fee."

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed four John Wrights and it is not possible to identify with certainty which one was 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, but the one most probably that was him, based on the number of cattle owned, had the following household:

Name	Free Males		Slaves	Horses	Cattle	White	Blk Tithes
John Wright	1		1	5	15	2

The 1782 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright Little Otter with the following property:

Name	Acres	Value Pounds, Shillings
John Wright Little Otter	5/6	330 90.

Since Bedford County Deed 2/642 was for 330 acres of land and that deed and Bedford County Deed 3/111 both described land on Eckhols' Creek, a branch of Little Otter River, the identification of the John Wright who purchased 330/300 acres of land as the same person as "John Wright Little Otter" of the Land Tax List is clear. It is also clear that only one parcel of land was involved in the purchase, not two.

The 1783 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following property:

Name	No White &amp; Blk Tithes	Tax on Covering Horses	Whites Over 21	Blacks Over 16	Blacks under 16	Total Blacks
John Wright	2		1

No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels R Carriages	Ordinary License
4	14

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed a John Wright who was probably 1814 John Wright with the following household in April:

Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg. Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16
John Wright	2		2

Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Weals Ridg Carriages	Ordinary Licenses
	6	14

The listing of two white tithes indicates that one of the sons of 1814 John Wright was born before April 1763.

The 1784 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright L Otter with the following property:

Name	[Quantity of Acres]	[Average price pr Acre]	[Amount Valuation]	Tax at 1½ pr Cent]
John Wright L Otter	330	15.	247.10	3.14.3

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright, Sr., and son Thomas with the following household:

Person Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16
John Wright, Sr. & son Thomas	2		2

	6	15

The listing of Thomas Wright in the John Wright household as a tithable indicates that Thomas Wright was probably the tithable listed in the 1784 Personal Property Tax List and, therefore, was the son born before April 1763 and probably between March 1762 and March 1763. This would fit appropriately between the births of James Wright on March 5, 1761, and Ann (Wright) Watts on November 14, 1765.

This deed was probably from 1814 John Wright of Bedford County to his son 1845 Thomas Wright of Pittsylvania County. There were only two John Wrights in Bedford County in 1794 with sons Thomas Wright old enough to own land and those were 1814 John Wright and 1803 John Wright of Bedford County. However, since 1803 John Wright's son's name was Tommey Wright and not Thomas Wright, it follows that this deed was from 1814 John Wright and not 1803 John Wright.

This record reflects the sale of 230 acres of land by Pittsylvania County Deed 10/120 and the "W & M" after Thomas Wright's name probably stands for Wright and Meade, the grantors in Deed 10/120.

On February 23, 1796, at Bedford County, Virginia, Proccessioner's Book 1796-1812/22 John Wright and William Trigg filed their record of lands processioned, which provided in part as follows:

This is the only 230 acre parcel listing for a Wright in 1796 and the "T. W." listed after the name probably stands for Thomas Wright, as the one occupying the land on behalf of John Wright who, as will be seen below, repurchased the land from Thomas Wright.

On September 19, 1796, at Pittsylvania County, Virginia, D.B. 10/426 John Wright repurchased the 230 acres of land sold to Thomas Wright by Pittsylvania County Deed 10/120:

"This Indenture made this 19th day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety six Between Thomas Wright of the County Bedford of the one part and John Wright of the aforesaid County of the other part Witnesseth that the said Thomas Wright for and in Consideration of the sum of One hundred pounds to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge have bargained and Sold and by these presents doth bargain and Sell to the sd John Wright a certain quantity or parcel of Land lying in Pittsylvania County and bounded as follows Begining at a Spanish Oak upon the river Banister thence South eighty five West One hundred and forty Chains to a post oak in William Clark's line formerly Parks's, thence sd lines to Joseph Wright's lines, thence the sd Joseph Wright's lines, thence the sd Joseph Wright's lines to the sd William Clarks line, thence the sd Clarks line to Banister river, thence up the river to the begining containing Two hundred and thirty Acres To have and to hold the Land aforesaid with all and singular the right and Appurtanances to him the sd John Wright and his heirs forever And the sd Thomas Wright for himself his Heirs &c will for ever warrant and defend the title to the tract afforesaid with all its rights and Appurtenances to the sd John Wright and his heirs against the right, title, claim or demand of any person whatsoever In Witness whereof the sd Thomas Wright hath hereto affixed his hand & Seal the day and year aforesaid

From that will the following children and grandchildren can be identified:

- 1) Benjamin Wright,
- 2) Joseph Wright,
- 3) Ann Watts, deceased, wife of William Watts, and her children:
  - a) Mary Watts,
  - b) Benjamin Watts, and
  - c) John Watts,
- 4) John Wright,
- 5) Thomas Wright,
- 6) Mary Watts,
- 7) Elizabeth Wright, and
- 8) William Wright.

As set forth above and more fully below, independent evidence will establish the following:

- (1) the birth date of Benjamin Wright was between 1776 and 1780;
- (2) the marriage of 1831 Joseph Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright, was in approximately 1778, making his birth date probably sometime before 1763;
- (3) Ann (Wright) Watts married William Watts in 1792, making her birth date probably before 1777;
- (4) 1826 John Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright, was born before 1768 and resided in Goochland County before 1768; and

(5) Thomas Wright was born before April 1763 and probably between March 1762 and March 1763; and

(6) Mary (Wright) Watts married Benjamin Watts in 1786, making her birth date probably before 1771.

A comparison of the birth dates and the identity of the children's names confirms that the family of John Wright and Mary (Pace/Pierce) Wright of Goochland County in 1768 was the same family as that of 1814 John Wright:

Name	Independent Evidence	Douglas Register

At a Court held for Bedford County at the Courthouse the 28th day of March 1816. This List of Sales of the Estate of John Wright Decd was returned to Court and Ordored to be recorded

Teste
J Steptoe C.B.C."

As set forth in that return, the purchasers included Thomas Wright, William Wright son of James, Lilburn Wright, William Wright, and Benjamin Wright. The Thomas Wright, William Wright, and Benjamin Wright listed were probably the sons of 1814 John Wright. William Wright, son of James, and Lilburn Wright were both sons of James Wright and grandsons of 1779 John Wright of Prince Edward County, who was a shoemaker residing in Goochland County, Virginia, from 1746 to 1757 when John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter) was residing in Goochland County. There may be a connection between these two families.

On January 10, 1815, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers James Eckhols and Thomas Pullen executed their promissory note for $11 payable to Benjamin Wright, as executor of the will of John Wright:

"We James Eckholes & Thomas Pullin for Vallue Recd do promis to pay to Benjamin Wright Executor of John Wright decd the Sum of $11-1 Virginia Currancy on or Before the 10th day of January 1816 which payment well & truly to Be made We Bind our Selves our heirs Executors & administrators in the penal Sum of Seventeen pounds two Shilling two pence like money as Witness Witness our hands & Seals this 10th day of January one thousand Eight Hundred & fifteen

The 1815 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a John Wright on Little Otter, but did list the 330 acres of land formerly owned by him under the name of his son and executor Benjamin Wright. This is consistent with the death of John Wright in 1814.

In January 1816 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 17/111 commissioners were appointed to settle the account for the estate of John Wright:

"Ordered that William J Walker John Hopkins Price Hopkins & Samuel Mitchell or any three do state & settle the a/c Current of the Estate of John Wright Dec with his Exor & report to Court"

On May 27, 1816, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/234 Benjamin Wright filed his accounting for the estate of John Wright:

1814 John Wright's will dated December 28, 1804, referred to his wife as living at that time, but no mention was made of her in any of the probate documents relating to his estate. The implication is clear that Mary (Pace) Wright died between December 28, 1804, and December 20, 1814.

The will of 1814 John Wright gave his 300 acres of land to his son Benjamin. The Division and Allotment of the land of 1835 Benjamin Wright was dated on December 9, 1836, and filed on March 27, 1837, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 9/295.

In obedience to our Order Issued from the County Court of Bedford We the undersigned Commissioner appointed by Said Court to Divide the lands of Benjn Wright Desc Among those intllers thereto We caused the same to be Surveyed And assigned to the Widow of said Decsdant Our third part In right of his Dower Amounting to One hundred and twenty one Acres two roods and twenty One poles Including Mantion House &c &c So delineated on the within Plat calld Lot No 1. Your Commissioners being of Opinion that the residue of the lands (after allotment of the dower portion) was not worth three hundred Dollars to each Distributee and of course not such lands in their opinion as the Court under the laws contemplated should be divided, they therefore submit that part of the subject for the further consideration of the Court. However They would further respectfully remark that the legatees are all of age and a Majority of them present and they caused the remainder of the lands to be divided into two Lots No. 2 and 3 as delineated on the within plat and made arrangements to suit themselves in affecting divisions Given under Our hands this 9th day of Decr 1836

A copy of the plat of that land included at W.B. 9/295 appears as shown on the ollowing page:

The map and legal description of W.B. 9/295 make clear that the same land was involved as that purchased by 1814 John Wright at Bedford County, Virginia, Deeds 2/642 and 3/111 and devised by him in his will at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/146 to his son Benjamin Wright. The legal descriptions cannot be drawn as maps because of the incomplete descriptions, but a line by line comparison shows their similarity. The legal descriptions of Deed 2/642 and 3/111 begin at the most easterly corner of Eckholds' Creek; Deed 2/642 follows a line S 56 W 188 and Deed 3/111 follows a dividing line. W.B. 9/295 misdescribes this line as S 42 E 140, but the map makes clear that the line should be S 42 W 140. Deeds 2/642 and 3/111 next follow or cross Richard Turner's road; W.B. 9/295 follows a road along Saunders' line as it meanders. The description in Deed 2/642 becomes confused at this point and begins a form of description unusual for deeds, that is, using East as the start of the description rather than North or South. This is almost certainly the reason a new deed was drawn and recorded. Using the legal description from that second deed, Deed 3/111, the confusion disappears and the lines become similar to those in W.B. 9/295:

Deed 3/111	W.B. 9/295
N 73 E 86 poles	N 75 W 96 poles
N 59 E 32 poles	N 53 W 27 poles
N 94 poles	N 1 E 95 poles
N 32 E 27 poles	N 31 E 29 poles

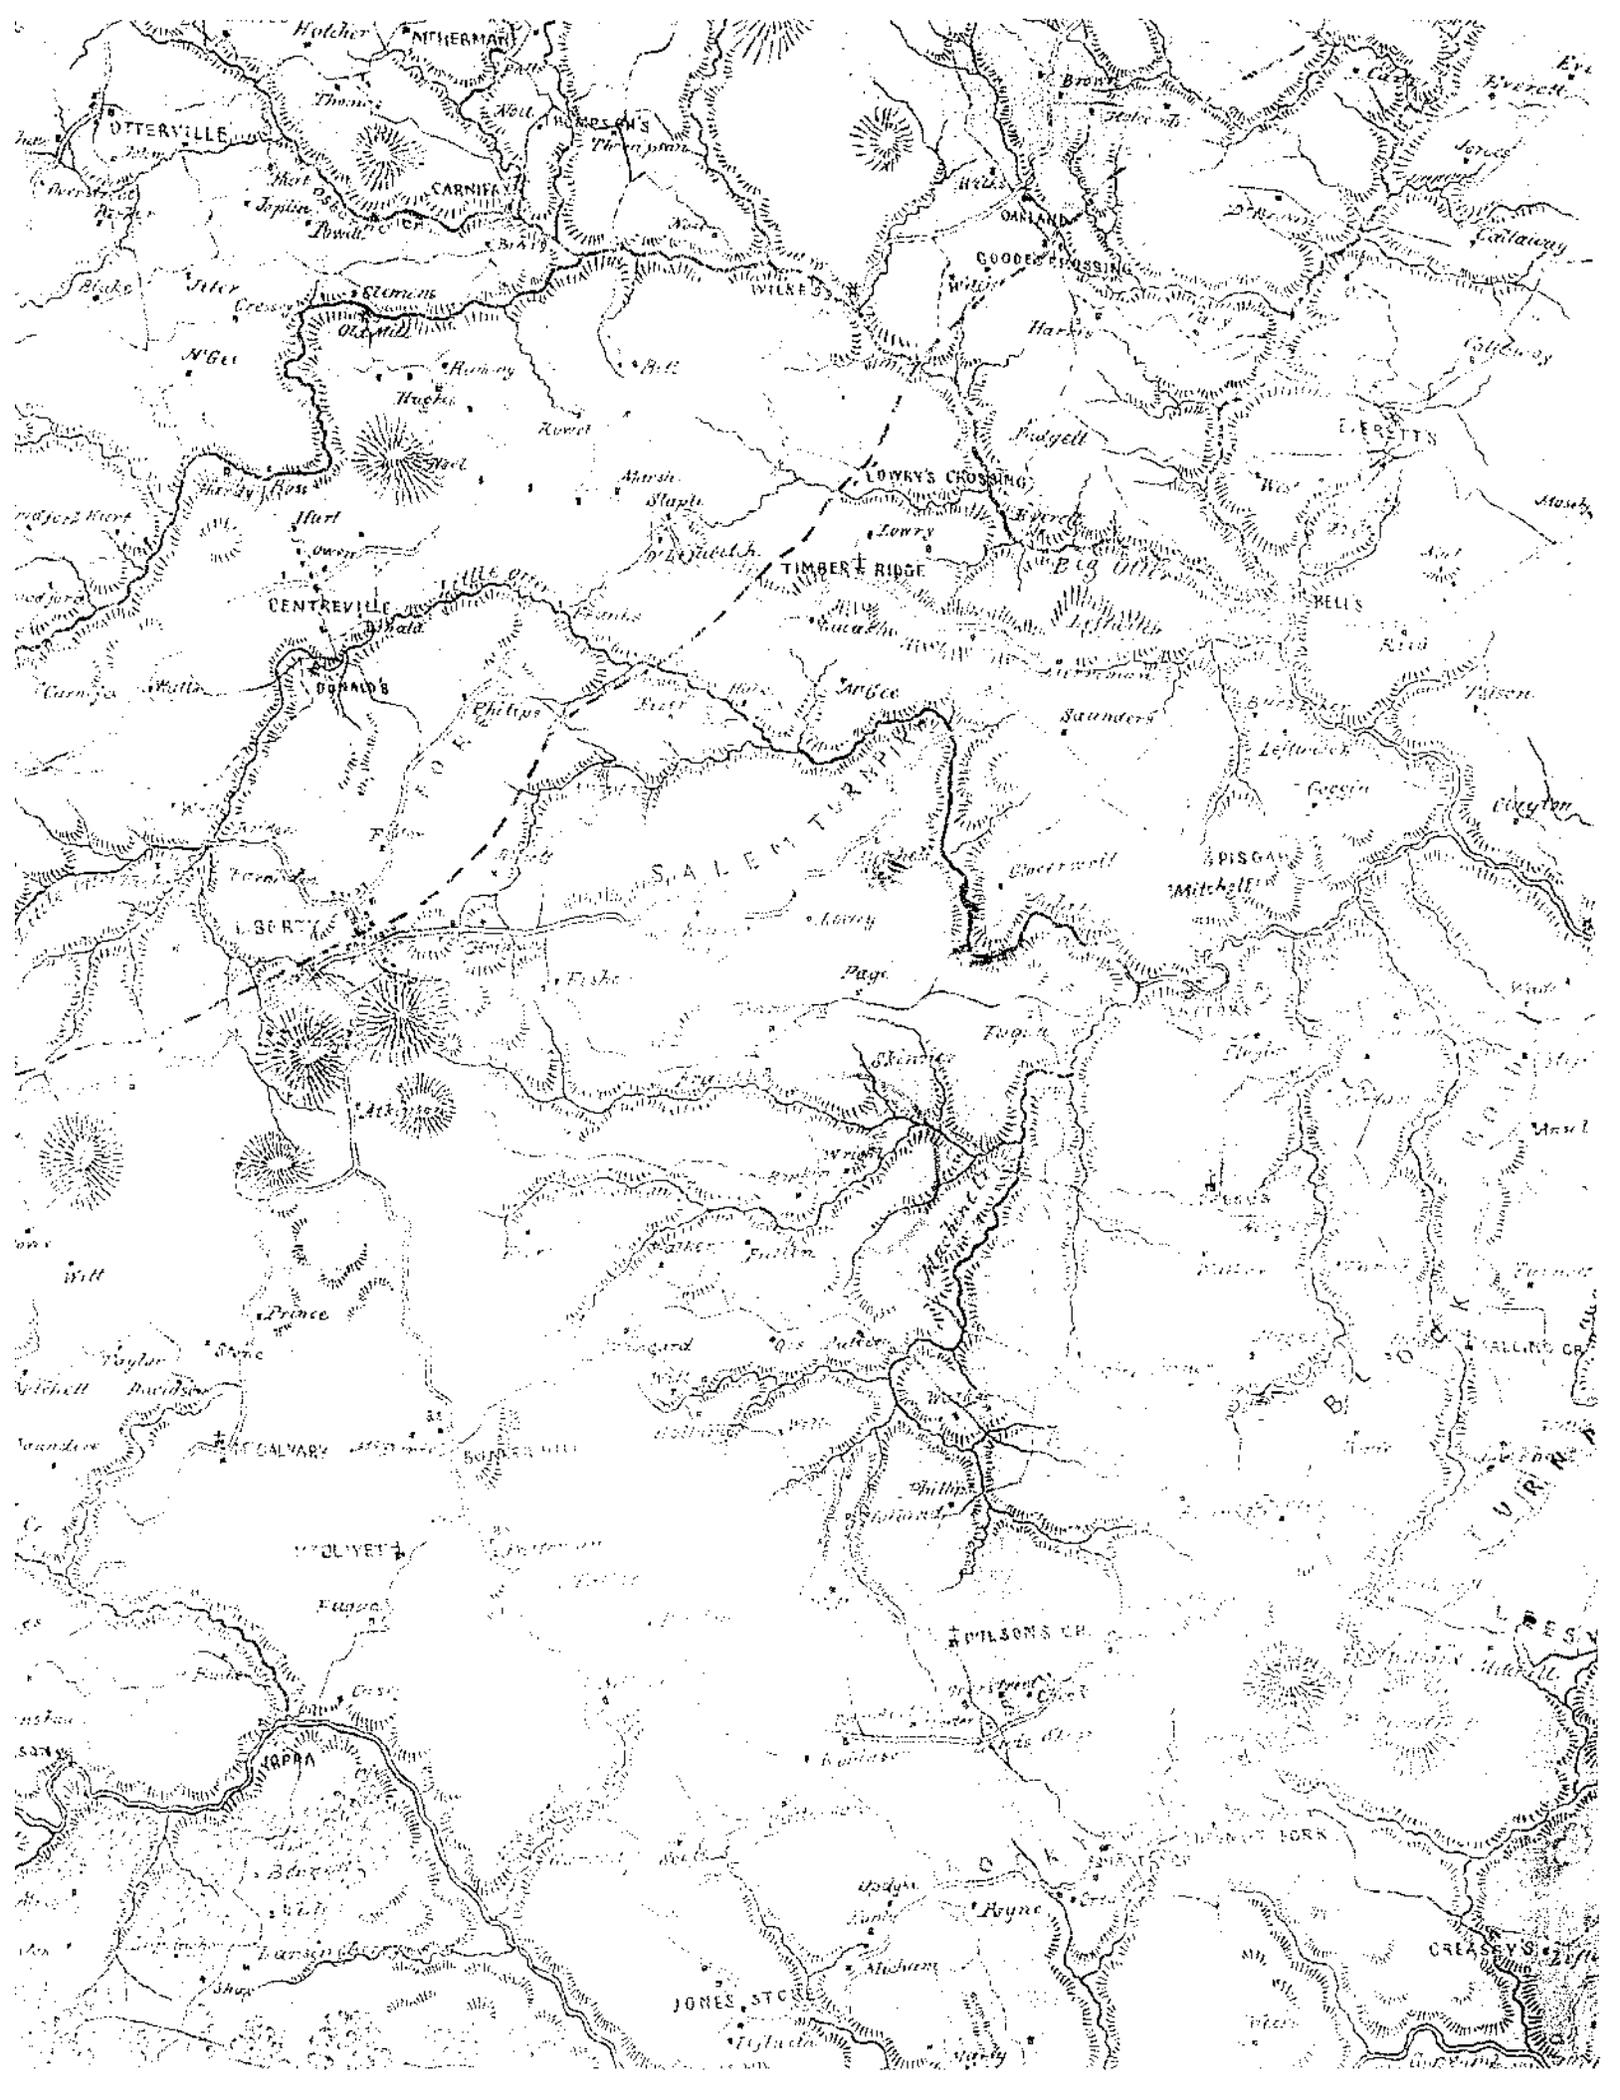

Except for the misdescription of the line as northeast in the first two lines of Deed 3/111, the descriptions are substantially identical. The next three lines are similar for all three documents:

Deed 2/642	Deed 3/111	W.B. 9/295
N 66 E 238 poles N 45 E 30 to Edkhoses Crk down the creek as it meanders to first	N 66 E 238 poles N 44 E 27 poles to Eckols's Crk down the creek as it meanders to ye Beginning	N 64 E 243 poles N 44 E 32 to various lines following the creek to the beginning

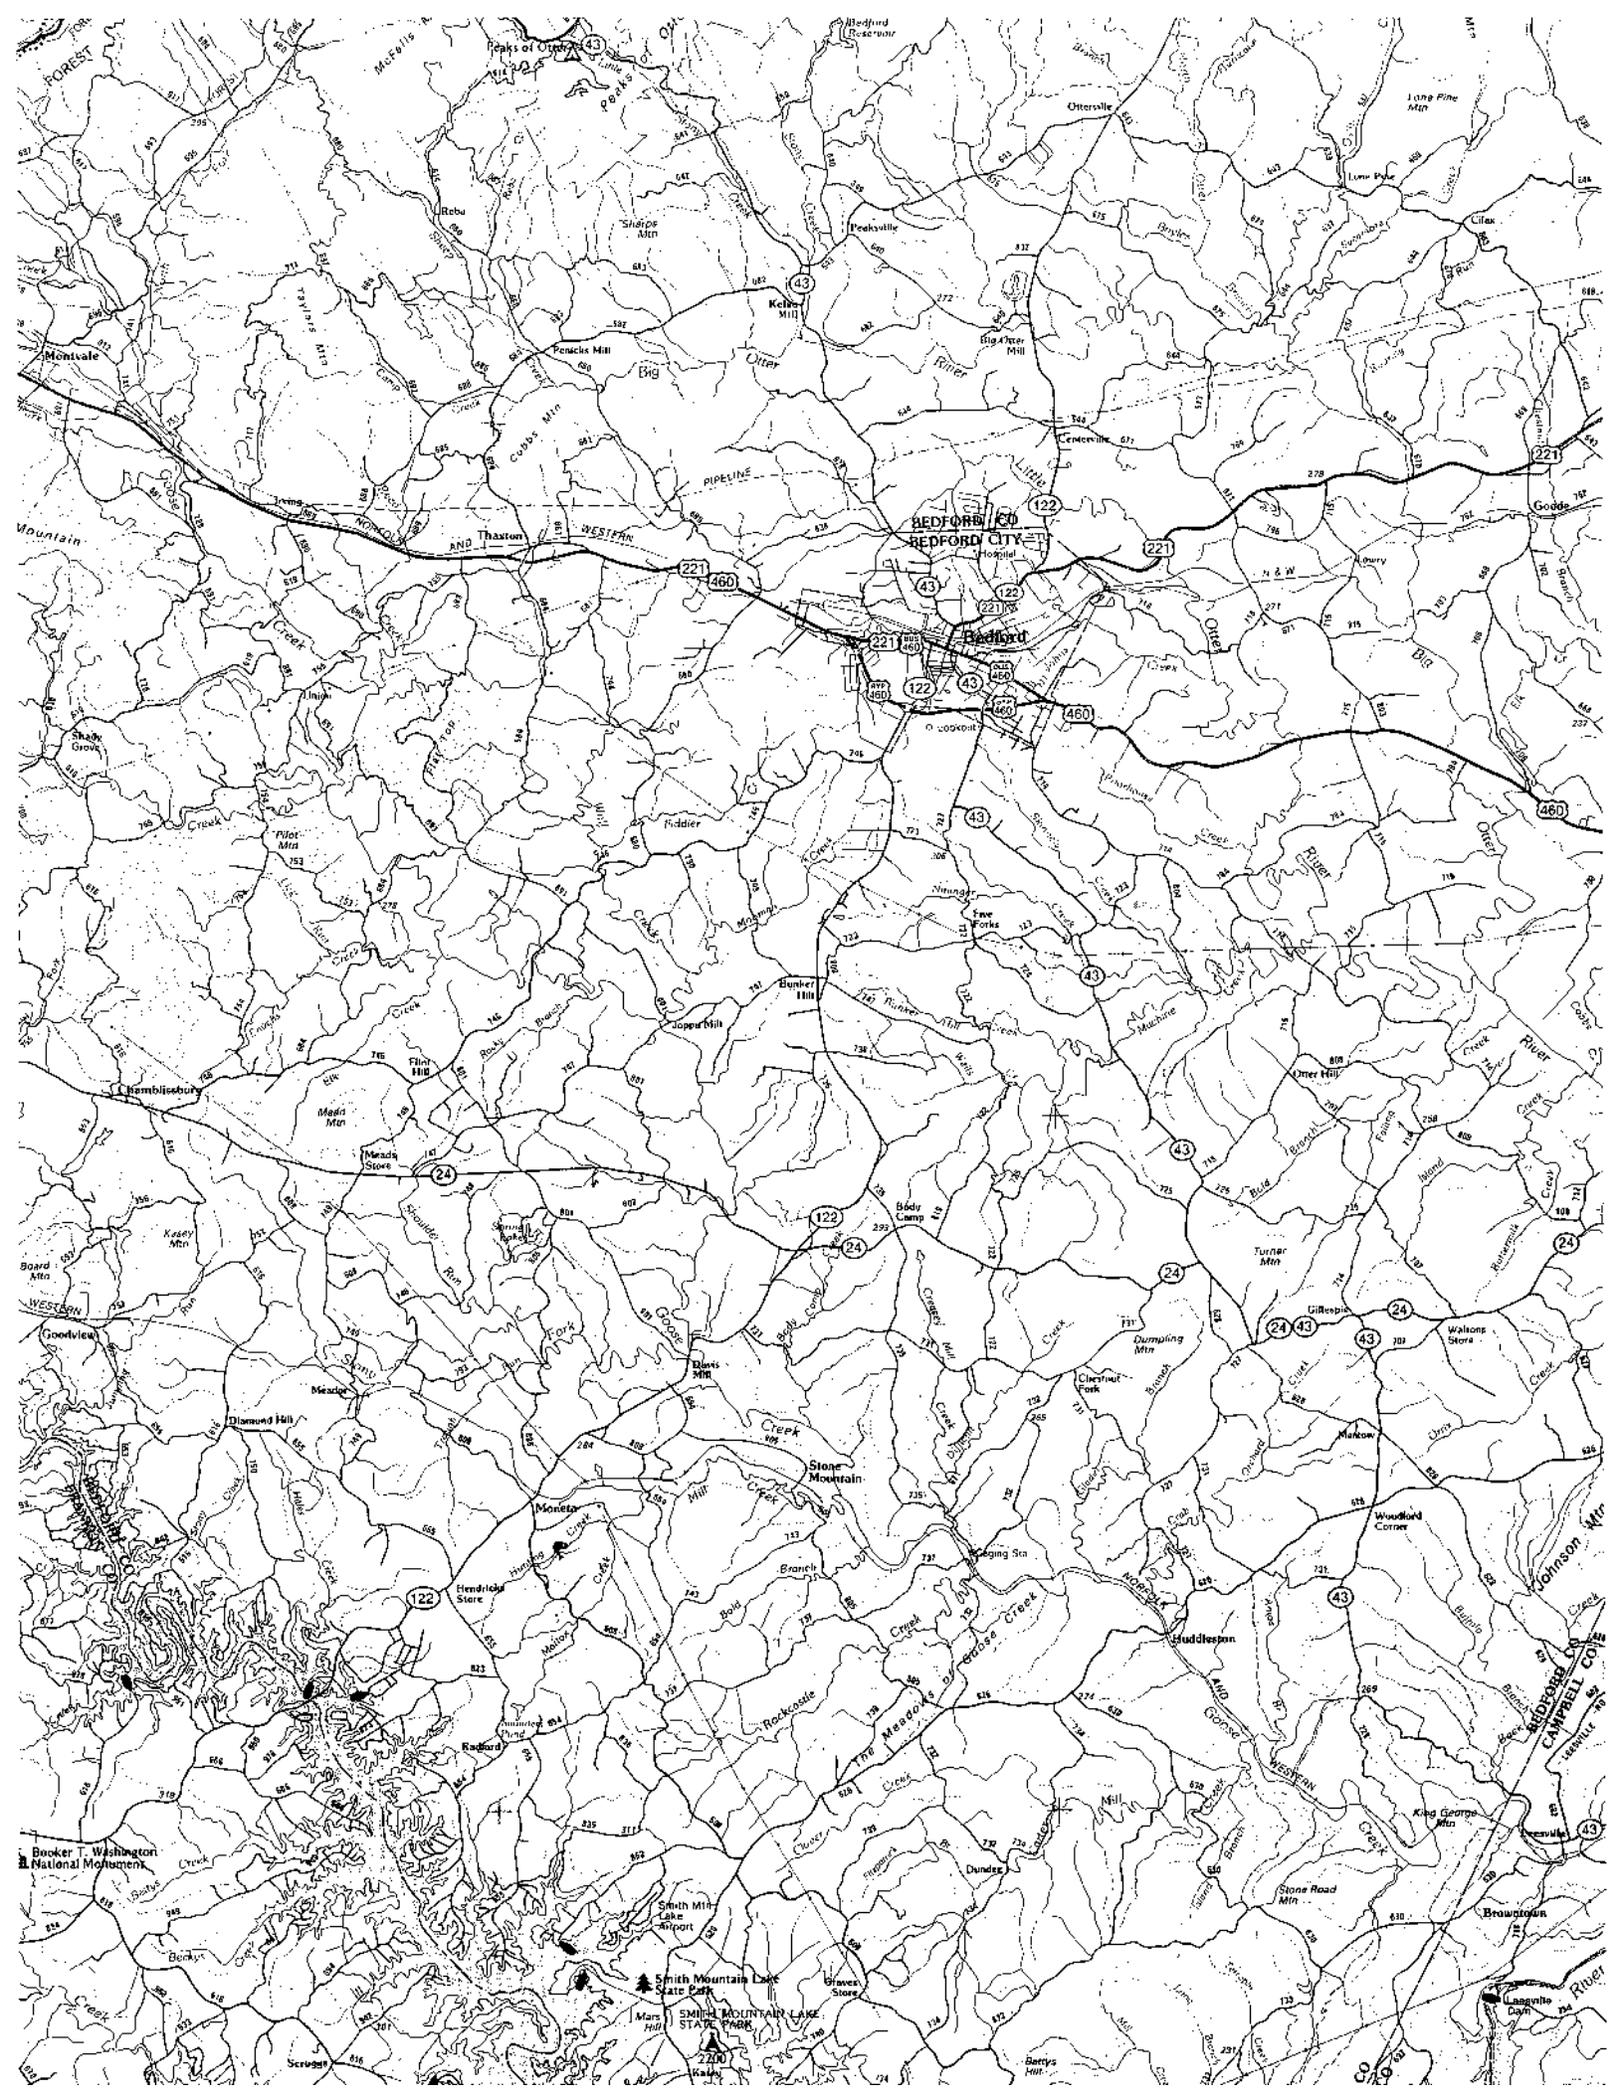

The legal descriptions are so close that the same land must be involved in all three documents, even though W.B. 9/295 recites that it is conveying a total of 365 acres whereas Deed 2/642 contained 330 acres and Deed 3/111 contained 300 acres.

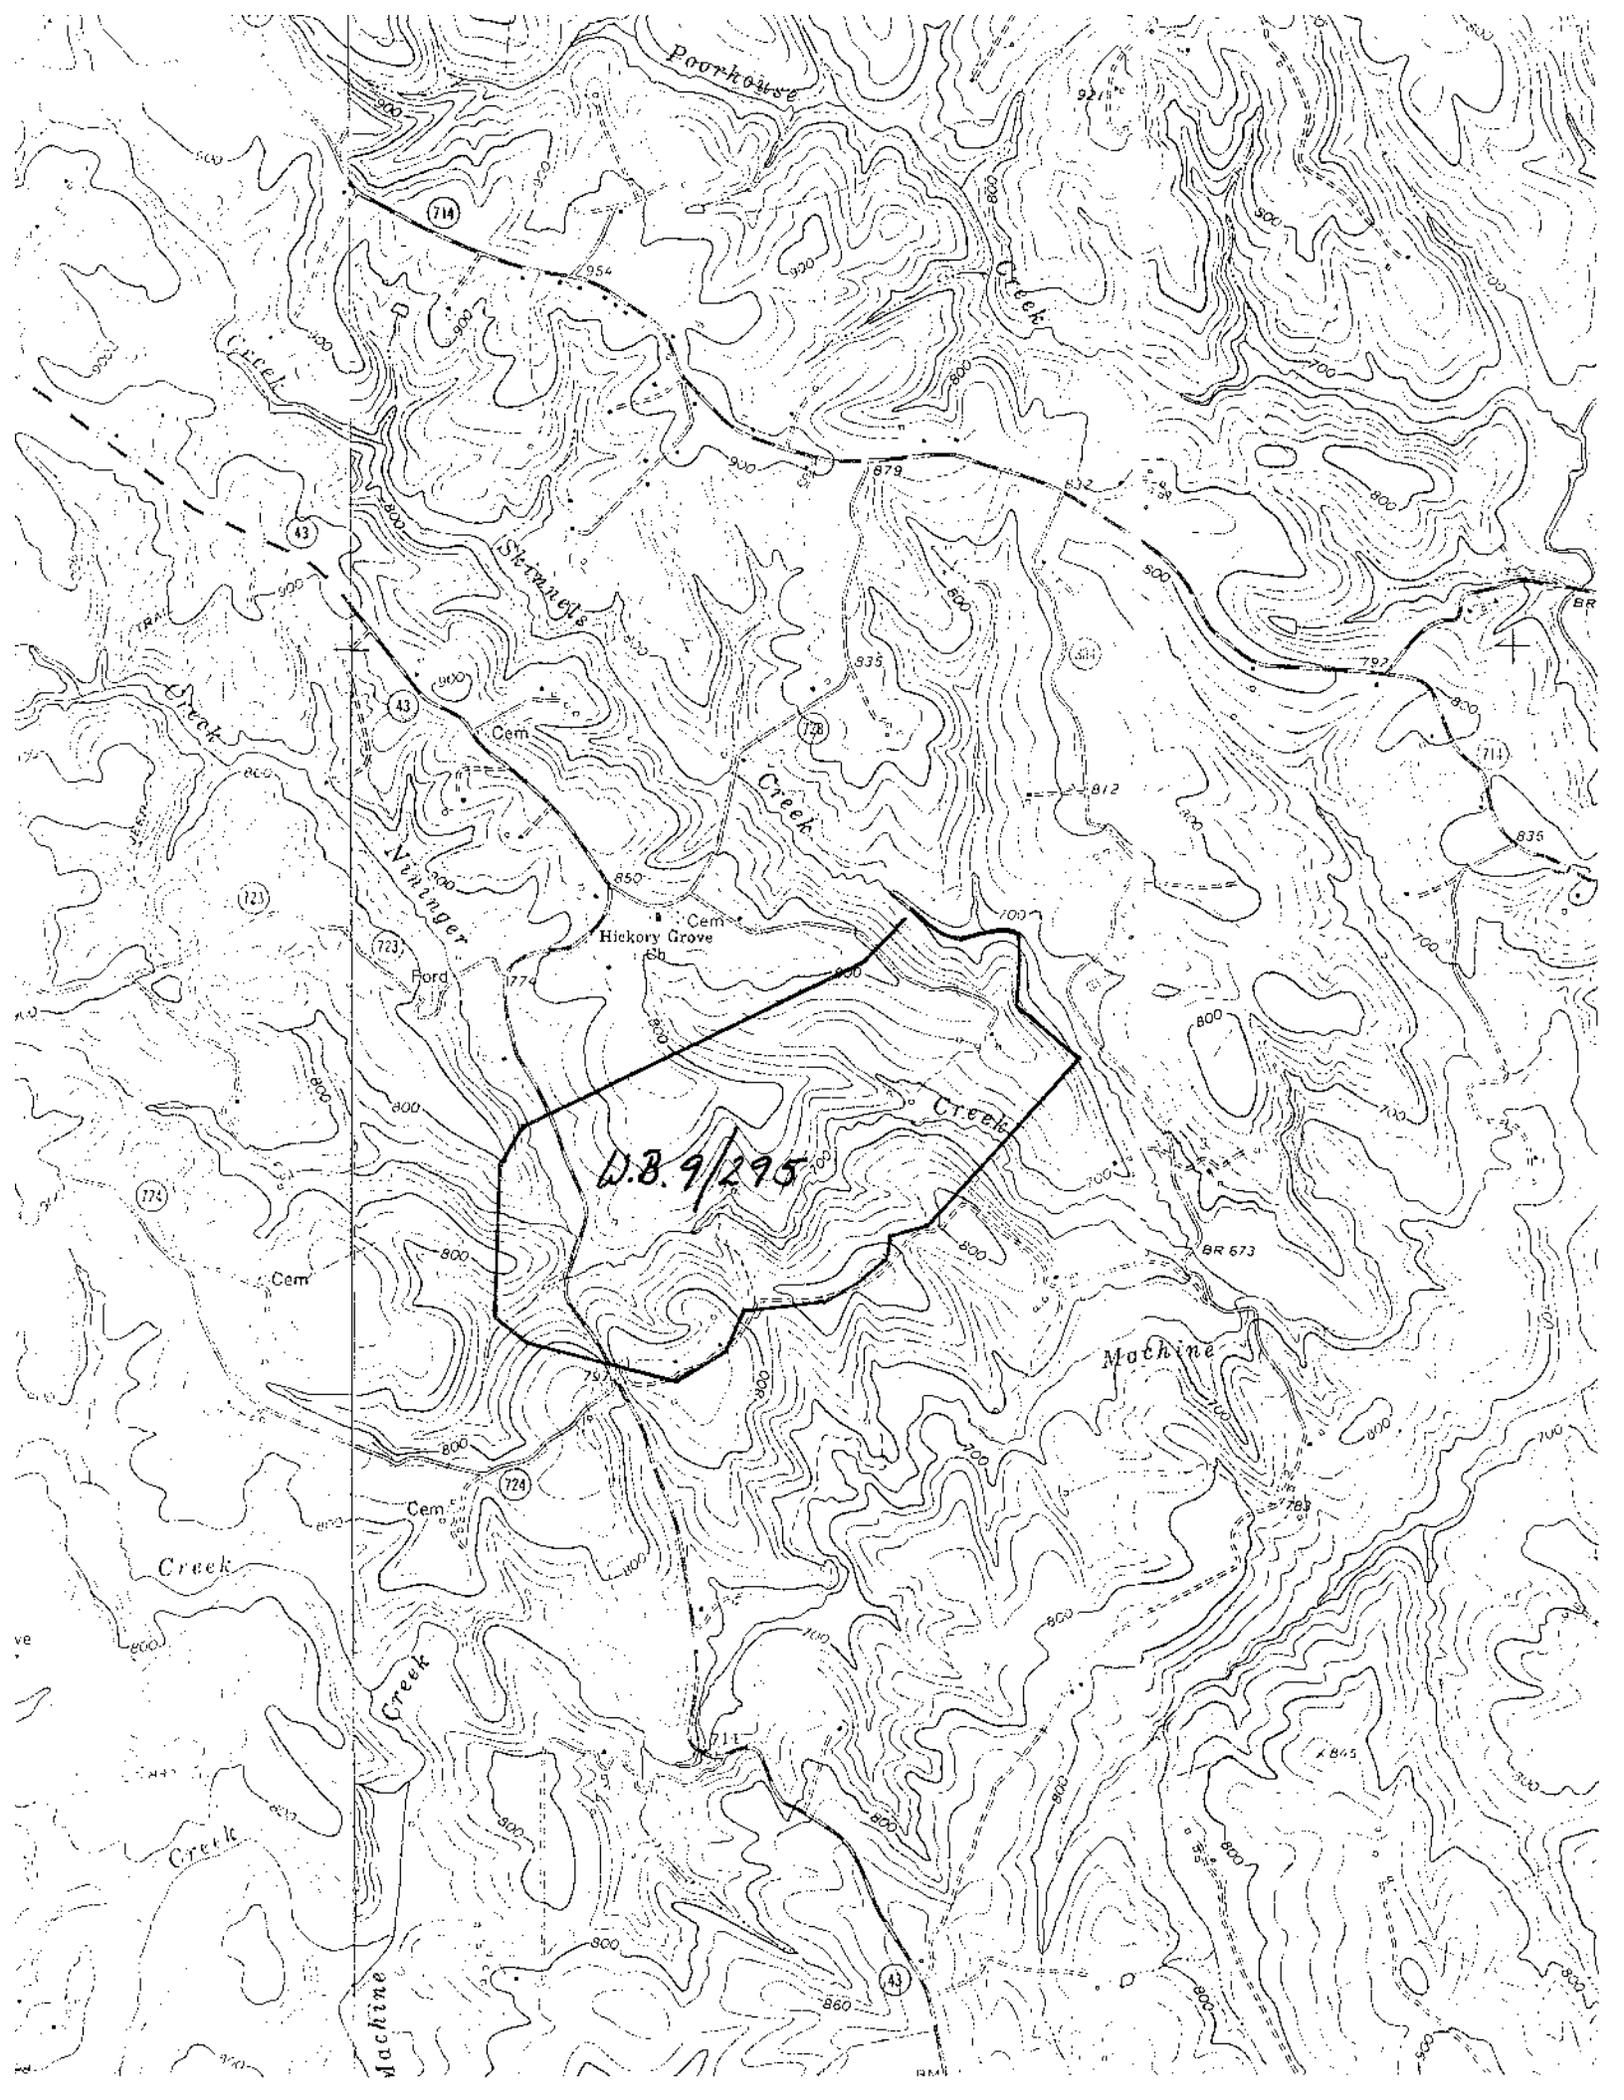

There is one additional piece of evidence which supports this conclusion. The legal description of W.B. 9/295 refers to the northwesterly boundary as the line of Price Hopkins. Price Hopkins was also named as a witness to 1814 John Wright's will.

The conclusions to be drawn from this evidence are that 1814 John Wright lived on Eckholds Creek and that 1835 Benjamin Wright was his son and lived on the same land as that owned by his father. The location of the land owned by these two men can be ascertained from the Iazard/Campbell map which lists a Wright residence adjacent to the Hopkins residence south of the Little Otter River. A copy of that portion of the map appears on the following page.

The land of 1814 John Wright as described in the survey and plat of the estate of Benjamin Wright at Bedford County Virginia, W.B. 9/295 can be presently located on Skinnels and Nininger Creeks, as set forth in the two following maps:

Pace Society of America Bulletin #10 dated December 1969 stated that Mary Pace was the daughter of Joseph Pace and Ann (Basford) Pace, was born in 1739, and married John Wright on January 14, 1755. The article further stated that Joseph Pace moved to Goochland County in 1739, indicating that Mary (Pace) Wright was probably born in either Middlesex County or Goochland County.

Shelton, Wininger And Pace Families stated that Mary Pace was the daughter of Joseph Pace and Ann (Basford) Pace, was born in 1739, and married John Wright on January 14, 1755, citing the "Pace Society of America Bulletin", December 1969, article by Marion Pace Mehrkens.

In his letter dated January 12, 1992, Jay B. Wright enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary (Pace) Wright was the daughter of Joseph Pace and Anne (Basford) Wright and was born in 1739 probably at Goochland County, Virginia.

In his book Joseph Wright, Quaker, January 1992 Draft, Jay B. Wright stated that Mary (Pace) Wright was a daughter of Joseph Pace who was born in 1698 and who died on April 18, 1765, at Goochland County, Virginia, and of Ann(e) (Basford) Wright.

In his E-mail dated November 18, 1996, Jack Pace stated that on February 11, 1735, at Goochland County, Virginia, D.B. 1728-36/75 from Charles and Mary Bond to William Johnson, Joseph Pace acted as a witness. This indicates that Joseph and Ann (Basford) Pace, the parents of Mary (Pace) Wright, probably resided in Goochland County by 1735 and, therefore, that Mary (Pace) Wright's place of birth was probably at Goochland County.

In his WorldConnect posting dated August 25, 2001, at <http://worldconnect.genealogy.rootsweb.com>, William Smith stated that Mary Pace was a daughter of Joseph Pace and Ann (Basford) Pace, was born in 1739 at Goochland County, Virginia, married John Wright on January 14, 1755, at Goochland County, Virginia, and died about 1814 at Bedford County, Virginia.

From the above information and evidence more fully set forth below, the children of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County and Mary (Pace) Wright were the following:

- 1) Joseph Wright, born on March 17, 1757, at Goochland County, Virginia,

- 2) John Wright, born on August 1, 1759, at Goochland County, Virginia,
- 3) James Wright, born on March 5, 1761, at Goochland County, Virginia
- 4) Thomas Wright, born between approximately March 1762 and March 1763 probably at Goochland County, Virginia,
- 5) Ann (Wright) Watts, born on November 14, 1765, at Goochland County, Virginia,
- 6) Mary (Wright) Watts, born on January 13, 1768, at Goochland County, Virginia,
- 7) William Wright, born about 1770 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 8) Elizabeth Wright, born probably between 1770 and 1774 probably at Bedford County, Virginia, and
- 9) Benjamin Wright, born between 1776 and 1780 probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

1. 1831 Joseph Wright Of Columbiana County, Ohio, His Wives Elizabeth ( ) Wright And Esther (Morgan) Wright, And His Descendants

1831 Joseph Wright of Columbia County, Ohio, was a son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County and Mary (Pace) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>)

The evidence for this relationship was first developed by Mr. Jay B. Wright in an excellent analysis entitled Joseph and Elizabeth Wright of Bedford County, Virginia, and Columbiana County, Ohio.

The Douglas Register listed the date of birth of Joseph Wright, the son of John Wright and Mary (Pace) Wright, on March 17, 1757:

"Births & Baptisms

John Wright & Mary Pierce a son named Joseph Born Mar: 17. 1757. Baptized 1757 Ap: 17. p.50.

Since 1814 John Wright lived in Goochland County at that time, the place of birth was probably in that county.

No marriage record for Joseph Wright and his first wife Elizabeth (____) Wright has as yet been found, but based on the date of birth of their son Thomas on September 7, 1779, as set forth below, their marriage was probably in 1778 or before.

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County and the other of whom had the following household:

Joseph Wright	1		1	7	1

This was probably 1831 Joseph Wright, since he was the only known Joseph Wright old enough to have a household at this time.

The 1783 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County and the other of whom was Joseph Wright, Jr., with the following household:

Name	No White &amp; Blk Tithes	Tax on Covering Horses	Whites Over 21	Blacks Over 16	Blacks under 16
Joseph Wright, Jr	1		1

Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels R Carriages	Ordinary License

The listing of this Joseph Wright as junior identifies him as younger than the other Joseph Wright listed in the 1783 Personal Property Tax List and thus the son of 1814 John Wright.

On December 2, 1783, at Bedford County, Virginia, S.B. 2/475 Joseph Wright obtained a survey for 270 acres of land:

"Decr. 2nd 1783, Survey.d for Joseph Wright 270 Acres of Land Situate in Bedford County, Beg. at Gabriel Keiths Co Chesnut on the S. fork of Beaverdam Creek, Thence off along the County hill, S 47 W 134 poles to a Chesnut S 85 W 28 poles to a Hicory S 65 W 48 poles to a Hicory S 52 W 80 poles to a Hicory, S 31 W. 40 poles to a Hicory S 36 E 128 poles to a wh.o N. 71 E 166 poles to Jarrots line Thence along his line N 6 E 20 poles to a Red Oak N 42 E Crossing a Br. 78 poles to Pointers N 15 W 160 poles to the first Station

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County and the other of whom was Joseph Wright (mountain) with the following household:

The 1784 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed three Joseph Wrights, two of whom were 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County, and the other of whom had the following property:

Name	[Quantity of Acres]	[Average price pr Acre]	[Amount Valuation]	Tax at 1½ pr Cent]
Joseph Wright	270	2.9	37.2.6	11.2

As will be set forth below, this was 1831 Joseph Wright and represented the land patented by him in 1786 by Patent Deed S/711.

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County and the other of whom had the following household:

Person Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16

The 1785 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed three Joseph Wrights, two of whom were 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County, and the other of whom had the following property:

On January 4, 1786, by Patent Deed S/711 Joseph Wright acquired 270 acres on Beaverdam Creek:

"Patrick Henry Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia To all To whom these presents shall come Greeting Know Ye that in consideration of the ancient Composition of one Pound Ten Shillings Sterling paid by Joseph Wright into the Treasury of this Commonwealth there is Granted by the said Commonwealth unto the said Joseph Wright a Certain Tract or Parcel of Land Containing Two Hundred & Seventy Acres by survey bearing date the Second day of December one Thousand seven Hundred & Eighty three, lying and being in the County fo Bedford on the Head Branches of Bever Dam Creek and Bounded as followeth To wit Beginning at Gabriel Keeths Corner Corner Chesnut on the South fork of said Creek. The legal description confirms that this is the same land as that surveyed in S.B. 2/475 dated December 2, 1783.

On January 5, 1786, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 7/595 1831 Joseph Wright purchased 225 acres of land on Elk Creek from Ellis Adkisson:

"This Indenture made this fifth day of January in the year of our Lord One thousand seven Hundred and eighty Six between Ellis Adkinson of the County of Bedford & Joseph Wright of the same County of the other part Witnesseth that the said Ellis Adkinson for and in Consideration of the just and full sum of Seventy five pounds currt. A plat of that legal description appears as follows:

Deed 7/595

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright (M) with the following household:

Persons Names	Total Tythes	Taxes on Covg Horses	Whites Over 21 Years	Blacks Over 16 Years
Joseph Wright (M)	1		1

Blacks under 16 Years	Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels riding Carriages	Ordinary Licenses

The 1786 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright son of John Wright L otter with the following property:

Land Holders	Quantity of Acres	Average price pr Acre	Amount Valuation	Tax at 1¼ pr Cent
Joseph Wright son of John Wright L otter	225	7.6	84.7.6	1.5.33

This record clearly identifies Joseph Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright, as the purchaser of the 225 acre parcel in Bedford County Deed 7/595. As will be set forth below, the absence of the 270 acre parcel in the 1786 Land Tax List reflects the sale of the land by Joseph and Elizabeth Wright in 1789 by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 8/227.

The 1786 Land Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, also listed Alias Adkinson to Jo. Wright with the following property:

Persons Names	Acres	Average Price	Amount	Tax
Alias Adkinson to Jo. Wright	225	7.6	84.7.6	1.5.3-3/4

However, this was clearly a misrecording of the land as in Franklin County upon the creation of the county and should properly have not been recorded in Franklin County.

Hinshaw at Volume 6, page 345, recorded that on October 21, 1786, Joseph Wright and his wife Elizabeth joined the South River Monthly Meeting of the Quakers:

The 1787 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright Qar with the following household on April 12:

April 12	Joseph Wright Qar	Joseph Wright
No white Males above 16 Under 21	Blacks above 16	blacks under 16
	horses Mares, Colts & Mules	Cattle
		Carriage Wheels

The reference "Qar" seems clearly to be shorthand for "Quaker", thus identifying this Joseph Wright as 1831 Joseph Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright.

Although the prior Personal Property Tax Lists had listed 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County without any further identification, the 1787 Personal Property Tax List had him identified as "Mon", probably for mountain, and identified 1831 Joseph Wright as "Quar", for Quaker. The number of horses and cattle in the two households makes clear that "Joseph Wright (M)" in 1786 had become "Joseph Wright Qar" in 1787 and that "Joseph Wright" in 1786 had become "Joseph Wright, Mon" in 1787. The identification of these Joseph Wrights is further confused because 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County had been described as "on ye mountain" in the 1782 Land Tax List, but this was an isolated identification and not repeated in later Land Tax Lists.

The 1787 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright (Q) with the following property:

Persons Names Owning Land	Number of Lots	Yearly rent of lots	Quantity of Land	Rate of Land Per Acre
Joseph Wright (Q)			225	7.6
Total Amount of Value of Land Exclusive of Lots	Amount of Tax at one &amp; a half Per Cent
84.7.6	1.5.3¾

The reference "(Q)" again appears to be shorthand for "Quaker" and since this land was owned by Joseph Wright, son of 1814 John Wright, the identification is confirmed.

The 1788 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed "Joseph Wright (Q)" with the following household on April 20:

Date of receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons Names Chargeable With the Tax	Number of tithes white &amp; black	Num- ber of blacks over 12	horses Mares Colts &amp; Mules
April 20	John Wright (Q)	1		2

Carriage wheels	Ordinary license	Billiard Tables	Number of Stud Horses	Rates of Covering	Practising Physicians Apothecaries &amp; Surgeons
------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	------------------------------	--------------------------	--

The absence of blacks in the household in 1788 as compared with 1787 may represent a freeing of his slaves by the Quaker Joseph Wright and 1831 Joseph Wright was not again listed with any slaves in the personal property tax lists.

The 1788 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright (Q) with the following property:

Persons Names Owning Land	Number of Lots	Yearly rent of lots	Quantity of land per acre	rates of land per acre
Joseph Wright (Q)			225	7.6

Total amount of Value of land exclusive of lots	Amount of Tax at one and half per Cent

The 1788 Land Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright with the following property:

Persons Names	Acres of Land	Price p.Acre	Amount	Taxes
Joseph Wright

This record reflects the correction of the Franklin County records to remove Joseph Wright's 225 acres from that county's land tax list where it had erroneously been listed in 1786.

Quaker Records Of South River Monthly Meeting listed Joseph Wright as one of the witnesses to the marriage of John Tillass and Sarah Morelan on May 14, 1788:

"Marriage of John Tillass of Bedford Co. and Sarah Morelan of said co. 14th of 5th month 1788. Wit: Joseph Right, William Ballard, Amos Harris, Mary Ballard, Elizabeth Harris, Elizabeth Ballard, Esther Richards, Eleanor Ballard, Mourning

Quaker Friends Of Ye Olden Time also stated that on May 14, 1788, Joseph Wright was listed as a witness to the marriage certificate of John Tillas and Sarah Moorlan of Bedford County, Virginia.

On May 28, 1789, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 8/227 Joseph Wright and Elizabeth Wright sold the 270 acres of land acquired by Patent Deed 5/711 to Laurence Brannon:

The identification of this Joseph Wright's wife as Elizabeth confirms him as 1831 Joseph Wright. The only other Joseph Wright in Bedford County near this time with a wife Elizabeth was 1815 Joseph Wright, whose first wife was Elizabeth Kemp, but 1815 Joseph Wright had married his second wife Judith Pate before 1789 and, therefore, 1815 Joseph Wright could not have been the grantor of Bedford County Deed 8/227.

Whether the discovery of the Vacant land has not been made since the death of his testator Wheter he has not refused to make any compensation for the land lost as aforesaid.

The will of 1814 John Wright dated December 28, 1804, and probated on December 26, 1814, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/146 listed one of his sons as Joseph Wright:

On December 22, 1840, the case in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 6076 was revived for obtaining a final decree against John L. Cobbs, as administrator of Joseph Wright's estate:

"The Commonwealth of Virginia to the Sheriff of Bedford County greeting. And have then there this Writ Witness Joseph Wilson Clerk of our said Court the 22d day of December 1840 in the 65th year of the Commonwealth.

A tradition in Jay B. Wright's family is that the father of 1831 Joseph Wright was a large slave owner in either Virginia or North Carolina, that 1831 Joseph moved to Ohio and joined the Quakers, and that he was opposed to slavery and either was disinherited by his father or refused his inheritance because of his opposition to slavery. The sources for this tradition are set forth in his pamphlet Joseph And Elizabeth Wright Of Bedford County, Virginia, And Columbia County, Ohio:

"(1) Joseph Wright (1812-1907), a grandson of 1831 Joseph, told his daughter this story in 1891:1

The father of [1831] Joseph was a large slaveholder, who, when he came to distribute his property among his children said that Joseph had moved to Ohio and joined the Quakers and being opposed to slavery would not want any of his property, so the family was poor.

(2) Ellen C. Wright (1846-1937), who had recorded her father's story (above), was the subject of a biographical sketch in a county history which said:2

The father of [1831] Joseph Wright, Sr., was a large slave owner, but remarked that Joseph had gone to Ohio and joined the Quakers and 'would not want my property,' so Joseph, Sr., got none from his will.

(3) Jonathan C. Wright (1852-1912), a great-great-grandson of 1831 Joseph, wrote a four paragraph account of the family history in which he said:3

Soon after the Revolutionary War two brothers named Wright came from England to America. One of these Wright brothers settled in North Carolina and became a plantation owner with broad acres and many slaves. One of the sons of this Southern gentleman emigrated to Ohio and joined The Society of Friends (Quakers). The Wrights have usually gone into things with both feet so this ancestor of ours, along with most of the Quakers of his day, became an ardent Abolitionist. This pioneer had the courage of his convictions and was steadfast in the Quaker doctrine for he refused his inheritance because most of the family wealth was in slaves. This is the man who was the founder of the Wright family in Ohio.

1 "Joseph Wright's Recollections As Taken Down by His Daughter, Ellen C. Wright, New Vienna, [Ohio], 11, 29, 1891," typewritten manuscript obtained from Mrs. Rebecca Foor [deceased] of Ohio, 1964.

2 Albert J. Brown, History of Clinton County, Ohio, (1915), p.480.

3 Typewritten, undated sheet obtained from descendants of J. C. Wright in Indiana, 1964. Jonathan must have gotten some or all of his information from Ellen C. Wright . . . ."

This family tradition is consistent with Joseph Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, for several reasons. First, 1814 John Wright's treatment of his son Joseph in his will can be interpreted as a form of disinheritance consistent with the family tradition. Second, the Bedford County and Quaker records overwhelmingly identify 1831 Joseph Wright as the son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County. Third, there is at least one miscellaneous document suggesting a family relationship between 1831 Joseph Wright and 1814 John Wright. These arguments are set forth more fully below.

The will of 1814 John Wright gave each of his children either a Negro slave or the benefit of the labor of a Negro slave, except for Joseph and William. William was given the substantial present benefit of 237 pounds to buy land. Joseph on the other hand received only a one-half or one-fourth interest, depending upon how the will is read, in the proceeds from the sale of the household and kitchen furniture and livestock after the death of his mother. This seems to be a substantially smaller benefit than that given to any other of the children of 1814 John Wright. The result is that Joseph Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright, received no slaves or any interest in a slave and a relatively small share of his father's estate in comparison to the benefits received by the other children of 1814 John Wright. Such a division of the estate is consistent with and could produce a family tradition similar to the one in Jay B. Wright's family.

The second argument depends upon identifying the Joseph and Elizabeth Wright who owned land on Elk and Enoch's Creeks with 1831 Joseph Wright who died in Columbiana County, Ohio.

First, the Joseph Wright who purchased 225 acres of land by Bedford Deed 7/595 was identified in the 1786 Land Tax List as the "son of John Wright L otter."

Second, Volume 6 of Hinshaw at page 289 et seq. listed as members of the South River Monthly Meeting of the Quakers a Joseph and Elizabeth Wright and their children who joined the meeting on October 21, 1786:

Children: Thomas, born September 7, 1779;
Joseph, born April 18, 1781;
Nancy, born February 1, 1783;
Mary, born October 6, 1784;
John, born October 27, 1786;
Elizabeth, born October 27, 1788; and Benjamin, born September 21, 1791.

In the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting records were listed further births to the family of Joseph and Elizabeth Wright:

Children: Benjamin, born September 21, 1791;
Martha, born October 26, 1793;
Charity, born February 22, 1796; and Judith, born December 5, 1798.

The records of the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting also listed the marriages of some of those children.

Third, the 1787 Bedford County Land Tax List identified the Joseph Wright who purchased Bedford County Deed 7/595 as "Q", which seems clearly to stand for Quaker.

Fourth, the Joseph Wright who owned the land in Bedford County Deed 7/595 had a wife Elizabeth and they sold that land in late 1802 by Bedford County Deed 11/635 and do not appear as owning land or residing in Bedford County after 1803.

Fifth, the Westland Monthly Meeting records reflect the departure of Joseph and Elizabeth Wright from Goose Creek Monthly Meeting for Middleton Monthly Meeting.

Westland Monthly Meeting was the place where all Quakers emigrating to the Northwest Territory left their certificates until a new monthly meeting could be established in the territory. In effect, Westland was the "port of entry for Quakers for the Ohio country." See, Hinshaw, Vol. 6, page 356. The conclusion seems fair that the Joseph and Elizabeth Wright who owned land on Elk and Enoch's Creeks near Goose Creek were the same Joseph and Elizabeth Wright who were members of the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting and left for Ohio in 1802.

Sixth, this Wright family next showed up at the Salem Monthly Meeting in Columbiana County, Ohio. The records of that monthly meeting had the following marriages:

- (1) February 13, 1810 John (Wright) disowned, married out of unity;
- (2) January 19, 1814 Martha (Wright) married Isaac Morlan;
- (3) March 27, 1818 Charity Mankin (form Wright) disowned;
- (4) April 23, 1818 Judith (Wright) married Zimri Whinery.

The New Garden Monthly Meeting of Columbiana County, Ohio, listed the following entries:

- (1) April 13, 1815 Joseph (Wright) reported married to Esther Morgan (widow with children); and
- (2) June 15, 1815 Esther (Wright) & four children granted certificate to Salem MM.

Salem Monthly Meeting records showed the transfer of Joseph and Esther and her four children to the New Garden Monthly Meeting in 1815/1816. New Garden Monthly Meeting records showed the death of Esther (Morgan) Wright on February 24, 1829, and that on October 22, 1829, Joseph Wright was granted a certificate back to the Salem Monthly Meeting.

The death of 1831 Joseph Wright was recorded in the Salem Monthly Meeting records on April 16, 1831. The will of 1831 Joseph Wright dated February 11, 1830, with a codicil dated April 2, 1831, and filed in Columbiana County, Ohio, listed the following beneficiaries:

Step children:        Maria Paxon;
                              Matilda Tolbert;
                              Sarah Maines; and Benjamin & Elisa Morgan;
Son:                     Joseph Wright;
Son-in-law:            Zimri Whinery; Daughter:             Charity Mankin; and Trustees:              Isaac Morlan and Thomas Wright.

Given the listed children of Joseph and Elizabeth Wright in Bedford County as including Thomas, Joseph, Mary, Martha, Charity and Judith, the marriage of Mary to a Jonah Morlan in Bedford County, Virginia, and the marriages of Martha to Isaac Morlan, Charity to a Mankin, and Judith to Zimri Whinery in Columbiana County, Ohio, following the move by the Bedford County Joseph Wright family to Ohio by way of Westland, and finally, given the identification of a Joseph Wright of Salem Monthly Meeting as marrying Esther Morgan and bequests in 1831 Joseph Wright's will to step-children named Morgan and to children by his first marriage, there would seem to be little doubt that only one family is involved here, that 1831 Joseph Wright was the father, and that it was 1831 Joseph's son Joseph who married Sarah Edgar in Bedford County in 1802.

However, two contrary conclusions should be mentioned. In Our Kin the Joseph Wright who married Sally Edgar was listed as the son of 1803 John Wright. This is wrong. 1803 John Wright's son Joseph married Aga or Aggie Brown. Lula Parker, the author of Our Kin, had discovered this error prior to her death and made a marginal correction of this entry in her own copy of the book. However, she identified the Joseph Wright who married Sally Edgar as the son of 1814 John Wright. Based on the evidence given above, I do not believe that is correct; he was 1814 John Wright's grandson.

In The Wright Book Pauline Wright relied on Mrs. Parker's correction of Our Kin and identified the Joseph Wright who married Sally Edgar as the son of 1814 John Wright. In addition, Mrs. Wright gave the date of birth of this Joseph Wright as January 18, 1781, based on a tombstone inscription in Alliance City Cemetery, Alliance, Ohio, described by Mrs. Wright as "very dim with the passage of time" which read as follows:

Joseph Wright, d. May 27, 1860, age 79-4-9

Saly Wright, wife of J. Wright, d. Oct. 30, 1856,

Hinshaw listed the date of birth of Joseph Wright, the son of 1831 Joseph and Elizabeth Wright, as April 18, 1781, written 4/18/1781. If the age on the tombstone were read as 79-1-9, then the Joseph Wright who died in 1860 would have a birth date of April 18, 1781. Or alternatively, if the Hinshaw record were read as 1/18/1781, the son of 1831 Joseph Wright and 1860 Joseph Wright would have the same birth date of January 18, 1781. The dates of birth are so very close and the difference between a 1 and a 4 is so small, that the implication becomes clear that one or the other date was miscopied and that the son of 1831 Joseph Wright was the man who married Sarah or Sally Edgar and thereafter died in 1860.

The third argument relies upon a connection between 1860 Joseph Wright, the son of 1831 Joseph Wright, and 1835 Benjamin Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright. In Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 14/79 there was recorded a Power of Attorney from Joseph Wright, Jr., dated November 22, 1813, authorizing Benjamin Wright of Bedford County, Virginia, to act for him to obtain the property he was entitled to by reason of his marriage with his wife Sally Wright, daughter of James Edgar. The only Benjamin Wright at that time in Bedford County who was old enough to act as an attorney-in-fact was 1835 Benjamin Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright. The other powers of attorney on record in Bedford County which have been examined to date were all given by one relative to another. While it is possible that 1860 Joseph Wright gave his power of attorney to a stranger, it seems more likely that he gave it to a relative, and if 1831 Joseph Wright had been the son of 1814 John Wright, then 1835 Benjamin Wright would have been the uncle of 1860 Joseph Wright.

The result of all of this is that 1831 Joseph Wright of Columbiana County, Ohio, was the son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County.

The wife named Elizabeth (____) Wright of 1831 Joseph remains unidentified. Given the birth date of their youngest child Thomas in 1779, their marriage probably occurred in 1777 or 1778. The second wife of 1831 Joseph Wright as mentioned above was Esther Morgan. This second marriage was listed in Hinshaw as in 1815 and her death as on February 24, 1829, in Columbiana County, Ohio.

From the evidence above and evidence more fully set forth below, the children of 1831 Joseph Wright of Columbiana County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (____) Wright were as follows:

- 1) Thomas Wright, born on September 7, 1779, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Joseph Wright, born on January or April 18, 1781, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 3) Nancy (Wright) Johnson, born on February 1, 1783, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) Mary (Wright) Moreland or Morlan, born on October 6, 1784, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) John Wright, born on October 27, 1786, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 6) Elizabeth Wright, born on October 27, 1788, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 7) Benjamin Wright, born on September 21, 1791, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 8) Martha (Wright) Moreland or Morlan, born on October 26, 1793, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 9) Charity (Wright) Mankin, born on February 22, 1796, at Bedford County, Virginia, and
- 10) Judith (Wright) Whinery, born on December 5, 1798, at Bedford County, Virginia.

i. 1839 Thomas Wright Of Highland County, Ohio, His Wife Latitia (Sinkler) Wright, And His Descendants

Hinshaw listed the birth date of Thomas Wright as on September 7, 1779:

Since 1831 Joseph Wright resided in Bedford County at that time, the place of birth of Thomas Wright was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

Quaker Records Of South River Monthly Meeting also listed the birth of Thomas Wright on September 7, 1779:

"Thomas Wright son of Joseph and Elizabeth b. 7th of 9th month 1779."

The marriage bond of Thomas Wright and Latitia Sinkler was dated on March 23, 1801, at Bedford County, Virginia, with George Sinkler as surety:

"Know all men by these presents that we Thos Wright & George Sinkler are held & firmly bound unto James Monroe Governor or Chief magistrate of this Common Wealth in the sum of one hundred & fifty Dollars to which payment well & truly to be made to the Said James Monroe or to his Successors we bind ourselves and each of us our & each of our heirs Exors and admrs Jointly & severally firmly by these Presents sealed with our seals and Dated this 23d day of March 1801

Hinshaw stated that the Middleton Monthly Meeting in Columbiana County, Ohio, recorded that Latitia Wright joined the meeting on May 10, 1806, and removed to Clear Creek Monthly Meeting on April 14, 1817:

The will of Joseph Wright dated February 11, 1830, and probated on _____, 1831, at Columbiana County, Ohio, W.B. ___/___ listed Thomas Wright as a trustee:

". . . . 1st. On January 31, 1839, at Highland County, Ohio, D.B. 7/44 Thomas Wright and Leticia Wright sold 75 acres of land to Joseph Wright and John Wright:

The 1850 Census for Highland County, Ohio, listed Joseph Wright in Union Township with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Property	Born
Joseph Wright	40	M	Farmer	1600	Ohio
Margaret Wright	34	F			Ohio
Amanda Wright	9	F			Ohio
Samantha Wright	7	F			Ohio
Liewrenna Wright	6	F			Ohio
Josephine Wright	5	F			Ohio
Melvina Wright	2	F			Ohio
Margaret Wright	1/12	F			Ohio

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born in about 1810 and that Margaret (Smith) Wright was born in about 1816.

In his book Joseph Wright, Quaker, January 1992 Draft, Jay B. Wright stated that Joseph Wright was a son of 1839 Thomas Wright and Latitia (Sinclair) Wright, was born on January 14, 1812, married Margaret Smith on December 10, 1840, at Highland County, Ohio, and resided in 1850 at Union Township, Highland County, Ohio.

In her letter dated February 2, 1992, Ms. Alice Adkins Wright enclosed family group sheets which stated that Joseph Wright was born on January 14, 1812, married on December 10, 1840, and died on August 9, 1885, at Auburn, Highland County, Ohio.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Joseph Wright and Margaret (Smith) Wright were the following:

- 1) Amanda Wright, born about 1841 at Ohio,
- 2) Samantha Wright, born about 1843 at Ohio, probably at Highland County,
- 3) Liewrenna Wright, born about 1844 at Ohio, probably at Highland County,
- 4) Josephine Wright, born about 1845 at Ohio, probably at Highland County,

- 5) Melvina Wright, born about 1848 at Ohio, probably at Highland County, and
- 6) Margaret Wright, born about 1850 at Ohio, probably at Highland County.

ii. 1860 Thomas Wright Of Trinity County, Texas, His Wife Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright, And His Descendants

Columbiana County, Ohio, Marriages 1800-1870 listed the marriage of Thomas Wright and Anne Jane Schooley on June 2, 1831, at Columbiana County, Ohio, by Mathias L. Swem, J.P., and that Anne J. (Schooley) Wright was dismissed from the Salem Monthly Meeting on August 24, 1831, for marrying contrary to discipline.

The Wright Book included the following information about 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas:

"Thomas Wright, second son of Joseph and Sarah Edgar Wright, was born and reared to manhood in Perry Township, near the present town of Salem in Columbiana County, Ohio. His family lived across the road from the family of John Schooley.

Without doubt Thomas and his brothers and sisters came under the influence of the schoolteacher whose educational philosophy is recorded in several early history books of Columbiana County:

"James Tolerton came from Ireland to Philadelphia in 1809 and to Salem in 1811 where he taught school and was a thorough believer in 'switch suasion' . . . he purchased 130 acres of land from Joseph Wright . . ."
[Horace Mack, History of Columbiana County, Ohio (Philadelphia: Ensign, 1879) p.205.]

Because the Wrights and the Schooleys were among the very first settlers in the area which is now Salem, several of the early histories of the county made mention of them. These, along with public records, give interesting insights into the lives of the people at that time.

Thomas Wright chose as his wife the only daughter of John and Phebe Beeson Schooley, near neighbors of the Wrights. The only problem was that the Schooleys were devout Quakers and the Wrights were members of the Baptist church.

Columbiana County Marriage Book 2, p. 442: T. Wright and A. J. Schooley

I do hereby certify that by virtue of a license issued by the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, and State of Ohio, the marriage contract between Thomas Wright and Anne Jane Schooley was solemnized on the 2 day of June 1831 by me.

Mattias N. Swem, J. P.

Returned 9th Aug. 1831; recorded by Coffin.

In the next Monthly Meeting at the Salem Meeting House, the following entry was made:

"Wright. 24 Aug. 1831. Anne Jane (formerly Schholey) disowned, married contrary to discipline." [William Wade Hinshaw, Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy (Ann Arbor: Edwards Brothers, Inc., 1946), Vol. IV, D.791.]

Shortly after their marriage, Thomas and Anne Jane moved a few miles west, to Lexington Township. According to historians, when Lexington Township was founded in 1807, it was the first settlement in Stark County. By 1830 there were some 869 inhabitants in the village. [William Henry Perrin, History of Stark County (Chicago: Baskin & Battey, 1881) pp. 430-431.] The Township and surrounding area, including the settlements of Williamsport, Freedom and Mt. Union, became Alliance, Ohio, in 1850 when Matthias Hester laid out and recorded the village at the junction of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh and the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroads.

For many years Alliance was a railroad center, where locomotives were changed and needed repairs were made. Thomas Wright became a railroad mechanic.

Outstanding features of the scene in young Alliance were machine shops, factories and mills. The Mahoning River was then a navigable stream, capable of supplying energy for the several mills for sawing lumber and grinding grain into flour and meal.

An 1834 list of Lexington Township Lands shows that Thomas Wright owned in Range 6, Township 19, section 24, one-half acre of land valued at $200; one sawmill with hardware valued at $50. [1834 Lexington Township Lands, p.36.] It is believed that the mill as at the present site of the Alliance City Waterworks.

Perrin's history lists the Justices of the Peace who served Lexington Township, stating that Thomas Wright was commissioned as a Justice on 19 April 1836. [Perrin, op. cit., p.430.]

Such records indicate that Thomas and Anne Jane lived in Lexington Township, Stark County, during the early 1830's; the U.S. Census of 1840 located them in Deerfield Township, just over the line in Portage County. They were still living there in 1850, and his parents Joseph and Sally Wright were living nearby. The 1860 Census found them in faraway Trinity County, Texas.

A newspaper article concerning the history of Lexington Township contained the following paragraph:

"Thomas Wright built the flouring mills yet known in Smith Township as Wright's mills, from which locality he came to this township and was elected the fourteenth Justice. He owned the Salady Addition to Alliance and from the first house north of the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. he and his family moved to the state of Texas where he died; and also several members of his family deceased there. His widow returned and now resides in the township." [Alliance Weekly Local, May 24, 1873. (This article was provided by Mr. Franklin Slack of Limaville, Ohio.)]

The Stark County records in Canton, Ohio, give record of some of Thomas and Anne Jane Wright's transactions from 1832 to 1859. The first such document is the following one:

"William Teeters of the County of Stark and State of Ohio, and Martha his wife, of the one part, and Thomas Wright of the County of Columbiana and State aforesaid, of the other part, whereas deed was granted unto the said William Teeters for the south west quarter of Section 24 Township 19 of Range 6 through which runs the Mahoning Creek, across which is mill dam built and race dug together with other mill works. Personally appeared before me, Ellis N. Johnson a Justice of the Peace of said County, the above named William Teeters and Martha his wife and acknowledged the foregoing indenture to be their act and deed for the purpose therein expressed. She, the said Martha, being examined separate and apart from her said husband, did declare that she did sign the same of her own free will and accord and without fear or compulsion from her said husband. I further certify from my own personal knowledge that I am satisfied that the said William Teeters and Martha his wife, making the above acknowledgement, are the persons they represent themselves to be. In testimony whereof I have herewith set my hand and seal this 30th day of May, A.D. 1832.

 Recorded 13th December 1832 [Stark County Deed

A deed dated 28 January 1833 and signed by both Thomas and Anne Jane Wright, indicates they purchased 17.43 acres of land for $200. On 4 June 1834, Thomas purchased from the Jacob Beeson heirs, for $625, property which had belonged to the brother of his Grandmother, Phebe Beeson Schooley. [See Henry Hart Beeson, A Genealogy of the Beeson - Beason Family (Houston, Texas: privately printed, 1968)]

On 3 March 1835, Thomas Wright signed a document, allowing mill privileges to Thomas Bevington at a cost of $400.

When, on 31 March 1838, he sold 48-1/2 acres to Clayton Kille and 78-1/2 acres to Samuel Gaskill, Thomas Wright's family was living in Deerfield Township, Portage County, Ohio, a few miles north of Alliance.

Sixteen years later, Thomas Wright purchased two tracts of land in Alliance, one from William Teeters and one from Matthias Hester. Both deeds were dated 1 May 1854. Then, on 20 June 1855, Thomas and Matthias Hester evidently traded some property. Thomas traded two acres and paid $100 for the four and three-quarters acres he received from Matthias Hester. Adaline Wright was witness to the transaction.

In March 1856 Thomas and Anne Jane Wright sold nine-tenths acre of land to the Alliance City Board of Education.

History books record two notable events in Alliance, Ohio, in 1856. One was a tornado which hit the downtown section, causing much property damage and killing farmer Isaac Johnson. The other was a collision on 8 December 1856, of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh train and the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago train at the Main Street crossing. Eight persons were killed and several others injured. [Edward Thornton Heald, The Stark County Story (Canton: Stark County Historical Society, 1949) p.382]

The accompanying picture of the latter event, taken shortly after the Cleveland & Pittsburg train had been removed from the scene, was secured from Mr. Edwin P. Alexander, noted expert on railroad history and founder of the Alexander Railroad Museum. According to him, the station at Alliance was destroyed by fire in 1863. [Edwin P. Alexander, Down at the Depot; American Railroad Stations from 1831 to 1920 (New York: Bramhall House, 1970) p.149.]

Shortly before the Thomas Wright family left Alliance for Texas, on 12 February 1859, Thomas sold five tracts of land to Eliza A. Saladee for $8,000. On 9

March 1859, he sold to Abraham Reeder two city lots for $300. (Phebe Wright witnessed the first transaction and Edmund Wright the second.) He possibly still had property in Portage County, which he sold also, for family tradition says that he sold property for fifteen thousand dollars when he left Ohio to go to Texas.

A story passed among family members to the present generation concerns Thomas Wright's rock barn in Ohio, which had doors on three levels through which a wagon could be driven. Anyone who has seen the terrain of the area around Alliance and viewed such two- and three-story barns still standing will have no difficulty in believing this tradition. (Paul Smith, of Glenwood, Arkansas, has the trowel which is said to have been used in building his great great grandfather Thomas Wright's barn.)

Family members have heard that Thomas Wright had purchased several sections of land in Texas but arrived to find that the land deed was not "good." A search of the records in the Texas Land office in Austin, Texas, failed to turn up any deed of land in Trinity County, in the name of Thomas Wright in 1859 or 1860.

Thomas Wright died soon after reaching Texas and was buried in Sumpter Cemetery, which is now located on a ranch east of Groveton, Texas. (An individual who was supposed to know which was Thomas Wright's grave said there was a sandstone slab which covered the entire grave. In recent years both the author and John H. Walker of Beaumont, Texas, have visited the Sumpter Cemetery and concluded that the grave pictured here is most likely that of Thomas Wright. None of the people now living in the vicinity could tell anything about the graves in the cemetery.)

The estate of Thomas Wright was settled 13 October 1860, in Stark County, Ohio, with his brother Hugh Wright acting as administrator. Bond was set at $1,000 and Lawrance Alexander and Nathan S. Broomall were sureties. [Stark County Will Book D, p.249.]

Anne Jane Wright outlived her husband by some thirty years. It is known that her daughters married in Jefferson County, Texas, during the 1860's; one might conclude that she lived there, too. Her son Edmund Wright married in Simsboro, Louisiana in 1865. Her youngest son Justus Wright died a year after his father died and probably was buried in Texas.

The older son James E. Wright, was said to have sustained an injury from being kicked by a horse, which caused him to have seizures similar to those experienced by a person with epilepsy. He never married, and he died in 1869, according to a family Bible record.

The 1870 U.S. Census found Anne Jane Wright living with the family of her daughter Orpha Annette ("Nettie") Wright Peightal in Alliance, Ohio.

By the time the 1880 U.S. Census was taken she was living in Montgomery County, Arkansas, in the home of her son Edmund Wright, who had been twice widowed and left with five young children. It is not known whether Anne Jane moved with Edmund's family back to Simsboro, Louisiana, around 1881. But she was back in Montgomery County, Arkansas at the time of her death about 1891. The sturdy little lady was buried in Mt. Tabor Cemetery in Montgomery County, near her son Edmund and his second wife, Mary Ann Tallant Wright."

The Wright Book also stated that 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Henry Wright, born on August 13, 1835, at Stark County, Ohio;
- 2) James E. Wright, born on August 28, 1837, at Stark (?) County, Ohio;
- 3) Edmund Wright, born on September 5, 1839, at Portage County, Ohio;
- 4) Adeline (Wright) Pivoto, born on December 31, 1840, at Portage County, Ohio;
- 5) Phebe (Wright) Landrum, born on October 4, 1842, at Portage County, Ohio;
- 6) Orpha Annette "Nettie" (Wright) Peightal, born on May 17, 1844, at Portage County, Ohio, and
- 7) Justus Wright, born on May 8, 1846, at Portage County, Ohio.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright were the following:

- 1) Henry Wright, born on August 13, 1835, at Stark County, Ohio,
- 2) James E. Wright, born on August 28, 1837, at Stark (?) County, Ohio,
- 3) Edmund Wright, born on September 5, 1839, at Portage County, Ohio,
- 4) Adeline (Wright) Pivoto, born on December 31, 1840, at Portage County, Ohio,

(I) 1838 Henry Wright Of Portage County, Ohio

was a son of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1831 Joseph<sup>3</sup>, 1860 Joseph<sup>4</sup>, 1860 Thomas<sup>5</sup>)

The Wright Book stated that Henry Wright was a son of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright, was born on August 13, 1835, at Stark County, Ohio, and died on September 4, 1838, at Portage County, Ohio.

The Wright Book stated that James E. Wright was a son of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright, was born on August 28, 1837, at Stark County (?), Ohio, and died on June 8, 1869.

(III) 1899 Edmund Wright Of Montgomery County, Arkansas. His Wives Narcissa (Summerlin) Wright, Mary Ann (Tallant) Wright, Mary Jane (Vance) Wright, And Leah Elvira (Short) (Pettyjohn) Wright. And His Descendants

The Wright Book stated the following regarding 1899 Edmund Wright of Montgomery County, Arkansas:

"Born on 5 September 1839, Edmund Wright was the third son of Thomas and Anne Jane Schooley Wright. The first son, Henry, had died a year before Edmund was born. Though little is known of their life in Ohio, some stories have been passed down in the family . . . of how Edmund as a youngster swam in the millpond near his father's mill . . . and when his Uncle James sent the young Edmund to fetch home-brewed whiskey for the field hands, his father Thomas made him take it back to the house . . . and of the closeness of Edmund to his cousin Lott, son of James Wright, and of their friendship with Edgar Wright. (Indeed, it was thought that Edgar was another son of James, but research has shown that Edgar was the son of Alfred Wright, a merchant in Alliance, whose family had come from New Jersey. At this point, there seems to be no kinship between Edmund and Edgar.)

Edmund and his sisters had apparently been well-educated, for he and sisters Adaline and Phebe are known to have taught school in later years. Edmund had finished college - - probably the Alliance College which was in existence in the 1850's but no longer exists [Edward Thornton Heald, The Stark County Story (Canton: Stark County Historical Society, 1949) p.391]-- before the family moved to Trinity County, Texas, in time to be counted in the U.S. Census of that county.

After Thomas Wright died in June 1860, the family apparently separated. The three daughters of Thomas married in Jefferson County, Texas, and Edmund moved to the area near Simsboro, Louisiana.

On 21 June 1865, Edmund Wright married Narcissa Summerlin. They had three children, Mary Cornillia, Martha Edna and Thomas Justus, before they moved to Pike County, Arkansas, around 1870.

While in Simsboro, Edmund and Narcissa were members of the Walnut Creek Baptist Church, for in the minutes of the Bethel Missionary Church, Pike County, Arkansas, is this notation:

"Saturday before the first Sabbath in March 1871 . . . received by letter Bro. Edmund Wright, a licentiate from Walnut Creek Church, Louisiana." [The minutes of the Bethel Missionary Baptist Church have been preserved on microfilm at the Arkansas History Commission by Russell Baker, archivist.]

The membership list for the early years of Bethel Missionary Baptist Church showed both Edmund and Narcissus, she having joined in May 1871. Edmund's name appears often in the business sessions of that church, as he helped lead services and served in other capacities, until October 1871 when he called for letters for himself and his wife. Then, at the meeting in December 1871, there was the following entry:

"It was made known to the church by Bro. E. Wright that himself and wife who had called for letters of dismissal in October last with the view of leaving the county had concluded not to leave and desired to return their letters, which request was on motion granted and the letters to be handed to the clerk."

Narcissa Wright died 29 November 1872 and was buried the next day on the homestead grant for which Edmund had filed on 25 March 1872, located in Pike County about three miles west of the present town of Glenwood. Land records show this grant was cancelled, presumably by him, on 24 October 1877.

In 1873 Edmund Wright was ordained and became pastor of the Antioch Missionary Baptist Church in Pike County, Arkansas. (The Antioch Church later became the Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church.) A copy of his ordination papers was furnished by Rosie Wright Jordan, of Porterville, California. It was recorded in Pike County, where the courthouse burned in 1896, destroying all records.

On January 8, 1874, Edmund Wright married Mary Ann Tallant at the home of her aunt, "Jennie" Fisher. [John and Jane Tallant Fisher apparently had no children, and Mary Ann Tallant had lived with Jane after the death of John Fisher. (This information comes from the research of Azalee Duke.)] Born to this union were James Labon and John Edgar Wright. Mary Ann Wright died in 1878 and was buried on property then belonging to Edmund Wright, which later became the site of the Mt. Tabor Cemetery, in Montgomery County.

Edmund's mother came from Ohio and was living with Edmund's family in the 1880 U.S. Census of Montgomery County. John Wright later told of his father Edmund going in a home-made ox-drawn cart to Little Rock to bring Grandma Anne Jane Wright from the train.

Soon after 1880, Edmund took his family back to Simsboro, Louisiana. Joel Schooley Wright says this was to prevent the marriage of one of his daughters to a man Edmund considered unsuitable. At any rate, both daughters married in Louisiana.

On 23 June 1881, Mary Cornillia Wright married John P. ("Snip") Smith; on the same day, likely in a double wedding, Martha Edna Wright was married to Thomas Jefferson Smith, brother of John P. Smith. Mary and "Snip" lived in Louisiana for a number of years before moving to Arkansas; Edna and Tom were in Arkansas by 1883.

In December of 1881, Edmund Wright married Mary Jane Vance, a redheaded schoolteacher, [According to Gilham Wright, who had heard it from his father John Edgar Wright.] the daughter of Jephtha and Nancy A. Vance. Sometime later Mary Jane Wright died in childbirth and was buried at Antioch Cemetery, north of Simsboro, Louisiana.

Edmund was back in Montgomery County, Arkansas, in 1886, when the following document was filed:

State of Arkansas            ) County of Montgomery    )

I, J. G. Goodner, clerk of the Circuit Court and exofficio clerk of the County of Montgomery do hereby certify that Dr. Edmund Wright has this day filed in my office the (affidavit) of Henry Sigman and P. M. Whisenhunt, that they have been acquainted with the said Dr. Wright for a period of five years next before the 9th day of March 1881 and that during that period the said Dr. Edmund Wright has been continuously engaged in a reputable practice of medicine in his state and has been, upon the Authority of said Affidavit duly registered as a Physician on page 4 of Book A, Register of Physicians and Surgeons.

Wherefore the said Dr. Edmund Wright is hereby authorized to practice as a Physician in any County in this state.

Witness my hand and official seal this 22nd of February A.D. 1886.

On 8 December 1887, Edmund Wright married Leah ("Leer") Elvira Short, widow of John G. Pettyjohn, in Montgomery County, Arkansas; he was 48 and she was 36.

On 14 November 1891 Edmund Wright purchased several parcels of land from F. W. and C. L. Shorts for the sum of $1200. [Montgomery County Land Record Book I, p.531] A year later he and wife Leah Elvira were deeded 160 acres of land by Mary Ann Mize ". . . in consideration of a sustenance during my lifetime." [Montgomery County Land Record Book K, p.149]

The town of Lucky, Arkansas, grew up in the area where the Wrights lived, near present U.S. Highway 70, east of Glenwood. This town is no more, except in the memories of some of the older people who live in that vicinity today.

In her column in the Glenwood Herald, 25 May 1972, Eunice Newcomb wrote of her memories of early Lucky and recalled the families living there -- families intertwined with the Wright family now -- the Jesters, Shorts, Longs, Montgomerys, Connors, Vaughns, Bridges, Whisenhunts, Woodalls, Colemans, Penningtons, Sorrells, Howtons, Paytes, Keiths, Grants, Forgas, Pettijohns, Dollars, Reppos and Martins.

The Lucky remembered by Mrs. Newcomb was prosperous with a sawmill, cotton gin, blacksmith shop and a nice mercantile store. An early, if not the first, school in the area was a "subscription school" Edmund Wright held at his home. It has been said that a number of his pupils later became prominent in the affairs of the community.

In May 1899, Edmund Wright died, leaving Leah Elvira to rear their four sons, Joel Schooley, Henry Wilburn, George William Bunyan Edmond ("Bun"), and Joseph Samuel Floyd Anglin ("Floyd"). He was buried in Mt. Tabor Cemetery, near Mary Ann Wright and his mother Anne Jane Schooley Wright, (marked by a tombstone that spells his name as he had never spelled it, and which added 21 days to his span of life).

Leah Elvira Wright lived until 14 December 1924. She is buried in the Short plot in Mt. Tabor Cemetery, of her own choice it is said, because she could not be buried by both her husbands.

(IV) Adeline (Wright) Pivoto, Her Husband Joseph Pivoto, Jr., And Her Descendants

The Wright Book included the following information about Adeline (Wright) Pivoto:

"Information concerning Adeline Wright Pivoto has been compiled by her great grandson, John H. Walker, of Beaumont, Texas.

Following is an excerpt from a letter written by Mr. Walker to the author on 1 April 1969:

"I suppose Texas was a formidable place about the time genteel Adeline Wright married very French Joseph Pivoto and settled in the frontier prairie country of East Texas. If this ever bothered her we never knew it for she reared her family in all happiness. I knew 'Grandma Pivoto' and believe she was the sweetest person I ever knew.

The story has been strong in our family that Thomas and Anna Wright came to Texas to take over a farm that they had bought. When they got here they discovered that the land title was not good and they then returned to Alliance. In the meantime Adeline met and married Joe Pivoto and never returned.

It is sad that several years ago the old homeplace was entered and all the old papers, etc. were destroyed. The total knowledge that the present generation has is no more than that Grandma Adeline's father was named Thomas Wright and her mother was named Anna Schooley and they came from Alliance, Ohio."

According to an article in the Beaumont Enterprise, by Edgar Guilbeau, on 4 November 1965, the town of Nome, Texas - known first as "Wolf Point" - was settled in 1848 by the Pivoto and DuBois families from Abbeville, Louisiana. John Walker says the Pivoto [The name was ____ originally spelled "Peveauteau".] family came directly from France to Louisiana in the early 1700's, while the DuBois family came to that area from Nova Scotia.

The following obituary was found among the papers of Olive Emma Pivoto French; there is no date given, or name of the newspaper.

Nome Pioneer Woman Dies at Age of 90

Mrs. Adeline Pivoto, 90, pioneer resident of Nome died at her home at 1:15 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mrs. Pivoto came to Texas from Alliance, Ohio, when she was 18 years of age. She went as a schoolteacher to Nome, where she held the first classes in that section of the country. She has lived at practically the same place at Nome since she came to Texas 72 years ago. She was married at her home to Joe Pevoto, a farmer at that place. Mr. Pevoto died at the old home in April 1927.

Mrs. Pevoto was a distant relative of Orville Wright who with his brother, made the first airplane. [The author of this book has found no proof of this relationship.]

Surviving are two sons, R. J. Pivoto of Arelia and D. D. Pivoto of Beaumont; three daughters, Mrs. Emma French of Rosedale; Mrs. Annie Laidacker of China and Miss Rosa Pivoto of Nome, and one sister, Mrs. Nettie Peightal of Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Funeral services will be held at the late residence at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. L. D. White, pastor of the Magnolia Avenue Baptist Church will officiate. Burial under the direction of Pipkin and Brulin, funeral directors, will be in the family cemetery at Nome.

Active pallbearers will be grandsons of the deceased and are H. F. Walker, C. K. McDonald, Homer French, Lonnie E. French, Lloyd Shell, Clifford Cummings and Benton M. French.

All friends of the family have been designated as honorary pallbearers."

The Wright Book also stated that Adeline Wright was a daughter of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright, was born on December 31, 1840, at Portage County, Ohio, married Joseph Pivoto, Jr., on March 5, 1867, at Jefferson County, Texas, and died on February 18, 1931, at Nome, Texas.

(V) Phebe (Wright) Landrum, Her Husband

The Wright Book included the following information about Phebe (Wright) Landrum:

Author's note: It was John Walker of Beaumont, Texas, who discovered the family of Phebe Wright Landrum, after learning that they had at one time lived in Newton County, Texas. Here are excerpts from letters written by him during the search:

"I got a clue on Phebe Wright and pursued it all over East Texas . . . I found her descendants . . . I found some of them that knew and had visited Grandmother Emma P. French, yet none of my living relatives knew anything about them . . . According to H. E. Landrum - his Grandma Phebe died when he was about one year old - she had long hair that swept the floor when she sat in a rocking chair . . ."

In searching Newton County records, John Walker found the following document:

The State of Texas ) County of Jasper )

Know all men by these presents that we W. H. Landrum and wife Landrum (sic) of said county and state above written for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars to us in hand paid by the Reliance Lumber Company have this day granted, sold and conveyed and by these presents do sell and convey unto said The Reliance Lumber Company, a corporation chartered under the laws of _____ Texas and domiciled at Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas, all that certain tract piece and parcel of land to wit two hundred acres out of the Jase Mac Madrona (?) league of land situated in Jasper and Newton Counties, Texas, the tract hereby conveyed being the same two hundred (200) acres that Sam Allen agreed to convey unto W. Opal Landrum Strawther has told us that, while serving in the Union Army, William Horn Landrum lost one arm. This may account for the fact that he did not sign his name on the above document."

The Wright Book also stated that Phebe (Wright) Landrum was born on October 4, 1842, at Portage County, Ohio, married William Horn Landrum on April 12, 1866, at Jefferson County, Texas, and died in 1894 at Call, Texas.

(VI) Orpha Annette "Nettie" (Wright) Peightal, Her

Orpha Annette "Nettie" (Wright) Peightal was a daughter of 1860 Thomas Wright of Trinity County, Texas, and Anne Jane (Schooley) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1831 Joseph<sup>3</sup>, 1860 Joseph<sup>4</sup>, 1860 Thomas<sup>5</sup>)

The Wright Book included the following information about Orpha Annette "Nettie" (Wright) Peightal:

"Nettie" Wright, born in Deerfield Township, Portage County, Ohio, was barely sixteen years old when her father died in Trinity County, Texas. Four years later, in Jefferson County, Texas, she married James Brison Peightal, a man twelve years her senior.

James Brison Peightal was born in Pennsylvania; he came to Dallas, Texas (with the railroad?) in 1860. On 20 September 1861, at Sabine Pass, Texas, he was enrolled by Captain J. M. Blair in Company A, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion, Texas Infantry, where he served as a Private. From July 23 to the last of December in 1864, he was on furlough from his company; the last entry in his service record was for March 1865.

The 1870 U.S. Census of Stark County, Ohio, listed James B. and Nettie Peightal, with children Turice and H. W., and her mother Anne Jane Wright living in Alliance. He was listed as a railroad Clerk.

The 1880 U.S. Census of the same county lists J. Brison Peightal, railroad conductor, Orpha A., Turie A., Hugh W., Brison E. and Irving V. (Anne Jane Wright was then living with Edmund and his children in Montgomery County, Arkansas, following the death of his second wife.)

In 1891 the Peightals had settled in Ennis, Ellis County, Texas. Records show that J. B. Peightal died in the Confederate Home in Austin, Texas, in 1910.

Nettie Peightal at least visited in Denver, Colorado in 1903, and for a time she was in Tarrant County, Texas. In 1919 she was living back in Alliance, Ohio. In the early 1920's she was living on Hobson Street in Hot Springs, Arkansas, and visited sometimes in the homes of her brother Edmund's older children. Charlie Wright visited her in Hot Springs when he went there to secure a marriage license. Sterlin Wright received letters from her. Though she was known to some persons of the family who are still living, it is not known what happened to her children, though it appears that none of them lived to have descendants.

Finally, it was learned that Nettie spent her last two years, nine months and twenty-one days in the State Hospital at Little Rock, Arkansas, probably a little old lady who, after an eventful life, had essentially lost touch with the reality of life around her. Her death certificate gives her occupation as "Temperance worker." Within a month of her 89th birthday she died and was buried at Oakland Cemetery in Little Rock, Arkansas, on 15 April 1932.

The following items are included because they give some insight into the personality who was Nettie Wright Peightal.

A letter from Nettie Peightal to her niece Mary Wright Smith, the original of which belongs to Mary's great grandson, Travis Smith of Amity, Arkansas, was undoubtedly the most valuable one source in the preparation of this book. Numerous were the times a new clue was held up to her letter and proven or discarded. The original letter was typewritten -- an indication that Nettie was one who liked to be "up to date", since typewriters were not so widely used at that time -- on one sheet of paper. The year the letter was mailed was discovered on the postal cancellation on the envelope.

Mrs. Mary C. Smith Dear Niece                      March 4

Now I will answer your interesting letter dated February 18 and tell you all I can. I was all the time thinking that your son's wife was Aunt Cassy's daughter. But I can't remember Aunt Cassy's last name, but I love them both and can't forget how kind Aunt Cassy can be. I am sure you enjoy the new house. Glad to hear they are getting along so nicely. Your daughter's photo shows the Wright favor plain.

Well, our relatives here are rather serious with problems of life with the long winters always in view and sickness and doctor's bills, etc. It makes them more prosey than cheerful.

My cousin Rachel Matchel now but use(d) to be Wright has her back hurt, her spine right between her shoulders and a great lump on it; yet she has to wait on him, Mr. Matchel he is crippled in one leg, had about six inches of bone cut out. It was decayed and nothing but a grissle grewed back. He is on cru(t)ches and whether Rachel is able or not she has everything heavy to do. Her daughter, Mrs. Etta Card is getting along very well. She lives in Alliance; her address is 115 Ely Street. Cousin Rachel's address is Limaville, Ohio. She is about my age.

The Schooleys are always sick, either one or the other. Their address is Mt. Union, Ohio. Anne Schooley don't get downstairs anymore, hasn't been down for one year. Her mother was an invalid all her life with rheumatism. Cousin Hetty Alter, their sister lived with their daughter Flory Schultz and had to get a divorce from her husband who had got him another woman. Flory clerks in a large grocery store; she had four children and she did take in washing for two or three years.

I had a letter from Uncle Benjamin Wright's daughter, Rebecca Wood of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, and she makes her home with her son - and tht his son - her grandson was sick with T.B. They live on a farm and nearly all of Uncle Ben's folks has passed on. Cousin Rebecca Wood and Cousin Phebe and Anne Schooley are some eight or ten years older than me. The Schooleys have an apartment house that they rent. It brings them some twenty dollars per month; is all they have. But the Watsons, her husband's children see to all their needs. Phebe herself never had any children.

Now, whether I have a living sister I don't know. Their address was Nome, Texas, but I have written several times in the last six years and cannot get any word from them.

Kinney Landrum, my sister Phoebe's son is living, I suppose in Newton County yet, but I do not know his address.

So you see how it is and you know I do love to be with my relatives whenever it is possible and I do think Jona Wright is the nice bright boy and Martha, indeed I love them all. Them children and dear Celia so accommodating and (af)fectionate.

Oh, well, if I was located right and had a mill or some something of a business going on that would bring us an income is what I want.

Your loving aunt, Mrs. Nettie Peightal Alliance, Ohio, Mt. Union Post Office General Delivery.

"Joseph Wright's Recollections as taken down by his daughter, Ellen C. Wright, New Vienna, [Ohio,] 11, 29, 1891.

Joseph Wright was born 11th mo. 24th, 1812. He was the son of John and Hannah Gilbert Wright, and was born in Columbiana Co. Ohio. The father, John Wright was born in Virginia, Bedford Co. He was the son of Joseph and Elizabeth (____), who moved to Ohio when John was just entering manhood. The father of Joseph was a large slaveholder, who when he came to distribute his property among his children said that Joseph had moved to Ohio and joined the Quakers and being opposed to slavery would not want any of his property, so the family was poor.

Joseph's children were Nancy Johnson (Wright), Elizabeth Moreland, Martha Moreland, Charity Manker, Judith Whinery, Thomas, Joseph, John, and Benjamin.

Hannah Gilbert was the daughter of Joseph and Ann Gilbert. They came from Loudoun Co., Va., after Hannah was grown and settled in Columbiana Co. Their children were Lydia Davis and Polly Sinclair, Sallie and Betsy, Hannah Wright Coffin, Priscilla Milner, afterwards Sinclair, Ann Marsh, Robert and Rebecca. (Sallie and Betsy married the same man. Joseph married Ann Marsh.)

The children of Thomas Wright, who married Polly Sinclair were: Abbie, Charity, Reason, Jesse, Joseph, Mahala, and Nathan who married Amy McDavid.

My father's earliest recollections [are?] of living in Columbiana Co., Ohio where he was born. He remembers but one event in his own life. His little cousin died, whose home was just across the fields from his own. He was left at home by his parents when they went to attend the funeral. He remembers of following them, of going into the house and of seeing the white sheet over the chairs on which the dead child lay.

In the spring of 1816 they removed to Highland County. Uncle David was a year and a half old, just beginning to talk plainly. Father was three and a half, but does not remember of moving. They first lived a few months in the Elijah Johnson place, (now the James Roads place), then moved to a house north of the stone house so long occupied by Gilbert Holmes.

The first memory of this home is the birth of his little brother Jonathan. The older children were sent to a neighbor, Uncle Thomas Rayborn, and when Mrs. Rayborn came home she told them there was a baby at their house. "Where did they get it?" was the first question. "Oh, in the meadow," was the answer. Afterwards the children found a scratch on the baby's hand and decided it came from the briars in the meadow.

He remembers of seeing a herd of wild deer run past their cabin, and of gathering peaches from the trees southeast of the home.

He was told of his parents that once when he was a little fellow out with his father at work he was told to go into the house and ask his mother to send m=by him to his father the sharpest case knife she had. He went and told her that he wanted the sharpest casest knife she had. Once when he wanted more milk his father told him that milk was scarce. "I like scarce milk," was his reply.

A school house stood on the road near Clousers. His father taught one quarter here and he went to school to him. Here he knew the Hussey girls and was petted by them.

When nine years old his father died after a few days of painful illness, perhaps a pleurisy fever.

The mother was left with five small children and nothing ahead. She was not a member of Friends when she married John Wright, but she afterwards became one requesting for her older children.

On the death of her husband the church members rallied around her and built her a cabin on the John Lewis Place, just sough of the house and east of our old home. She kept her oldest child, Ann, and the two youngest--Jonathan and Rebecca, and early and late she and Ann spun and wove and sewed for the neighbors and thus eked out a living by hard toil. When the seven stars were visible they would begin to work at night.

The two boys, Joseph and David, were taken by a Friend, Samuel Coffin, and given a home.

After the boys had been at Coffin's for a week or so, Samuel went to town and brought each of them home a knife, white handled. Father's knife had a bird and tree on it. When they had been away from home about two weeks they were permitted to go and see their mother. When they reached the house they ran in and each threw his knife in his mother's lap. The tears ran down her cheeks at sight of her fatherless boys and Joseph wondered what his mother should cry because they had white-handled knives.

Father was quick-tempered but serious and sedate and was always regarded as a good boy. When in his sixteenth year he heard people talk of what a good boy Samuel Coffin had. This led him to feel he was not good and that he was appearing to be something he was not. This was a source of anxiety to him and for three or four weeks he was under conviction for his sins.

At the end of this time as he was coming home from his work, on passing the sheds between the barn and the house there came over him a joy and peace that filled his soul and marked the hour of his conversion. Ever after this he led a Christian life, only occasionally yielding to discouragement. At the time of the separation of Hixsite and Orthodox Jehu Lewis went with the former but Hannah Wright being orthodox, the Friends who held that faith once more came to her aid and built her a house on Samuel Coffin's place. There she lived until in later years she became the wife of Samuel Coffin.

When father was about three years old he climbed upon a big spinning wheel and put his head out of a window to see a horse and her little colt. The wovles had been disturbing the colt and the mother horse was ready to defend her young. She caught the child on the side of his face with her teeth and drew him out upon the ground from which he was rescued with a wound that left a scar which we could trace to the end of his life."

Highland Pioneer Sketches & Family Genealogies stated that:

"The Wright family were all very learned scholars and several were ministers of the Friends Denomination. John Wright was the father of a large family that included a son Joseph. He married Lydia, youngest child of Henry and Eleanor (Barrett) Cowgill of Paint Twp. They became the parents of seven children after their marriage in 1841. They lived to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

In 1855, Joseph Wright was recorded as minister of the Clear Creek Friends' Church. Hundreds were converted under his influence. he was called upon to preach many funerals and to marry numerous couples.

Joseph and Lydia (Cowgill) Wright, mentioned previously, were the parents of the following children: Lyndley Murray, who died at the age of five years; Henry C., who sold vehicles in Hillsboro; Eleanor C., who attended school in Highland Co. before entering Wilmington College. She was a member of the first graduating class of that institution. During 1887-1888, she attended Bryn Mawr College. After her return, "Miss Ellen" as she became familiarly known, became a teacher in the Wilmington College, later became professor of Latin. For the next 40 years Miss Wright continued her duties. After her retirement, she became librarian, beloved by all.

David S., fourth child of Joseph Wright, was a teacher in the Iowa State Teacher's College for many years. Jonothan B., next in age, taught in Wilmington College for over 20 years. Elwood Wright owned a saw mill and the youngest, Emma Wright, became the wife of Alfred Hale."

Harry Wright further stated that:

"Joseph Wright was a Quaker preacher. he was one of the founders of Wilmington College and a trustee of it for many years. He lived in Wilmington, New Vienna and northern Highland County most of his life. He is buried with his wife, Lydia, and Daughter, Ellen in the old section of the New Vienna cemetery. His brother, David, who was also a minister, is buried in the Highland Cemetery.

Joseph was a big man. My mother told me when aunt Ellen took her in to Joseph for his approval of her as Dad's wife, he was then 96 years old and lying on his death bed. After Mom was presented to him as "Harry's Wife", Joseph cracked in his high, squeaky voice, "if she suits thee she suits me." Mom said that she remembered that his feet pushed against the footboard and his head seemed to be against the headboard, and that he nearly covered the bed's entire surface. He was then better than six feet tall and weighed well over 200 pounds.

John Ridgeway told me when Joseph was a minister of the Samantha Quaker Church he was called upon to preach the funeral of a local resident with a somewhat questionable reputation. It seemed to be the custom in those days that some ministers preached the dead into Heaven or Hell according to that individual's earthly behavior. Everyone knew this man and his shady moral life and the church was full of people expecting to hear Joseph lambast the old boy right through the gates of Hell. They were completely fooled. Joseph got up and read a few verses from the bible, shut the book, prayed a little for the family, then, thoughtfully looking the congregation over, he said 'I expect thee all know this man better than I do.' and then sat down."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1907 Joseph Wright of Columbiana County, Ohio, and Lydia (Cowgill) Wright were the following:

"523 Eleanor C.<sup>169</sup> "Ellen" Wright, b. 19 Nov. 1845; d. 8 Jan. 1937; better known as Ellen, attended public schools of Highland Co., Ohio, and Earlham College at Richmond, Ind.; graduated with the first class from Wilmington College, Clinton Co., Ohio; during 1887 and 1888 was a student at Bryn Mawr College; after Graduation from Wilmington College began teaching there and taught there 40 years or more, first as a Latin teacher and later as librarian of the college; known as "Teacher Ellen"; member of the Friends church; subject of biographical sketch (pp. 480-481, in History of County, Ohio, 1915, by Albert J. Brown); d. 8 Jan. 1937; bur. New Vienna IOOF Cemetery, East Side<sup>170</sup>.

"She was one of four students of the first graduating class of Wilmington College, and subsequently taught english and latin and was librarian there for almost 50 years. She was known to all as 'Miss Ellen' or 'Teacher Ellen'.

After Elwood's death aunt Ellen had several of his children in her home. She had Hugh and Bert for their education at Wilmington College. Daisy stayed a while, and Leanna stayed many years, graduating from College and going into the ministry. Harry and Gurney stayed a while. She was a very unselfish person. Everyone liked her and many loved her.

While Dad was staying with aunt Ellen when he was a young man, one day after some searching, I presume, he found the cookie jar. Aunt Ellen, at the kitchen door, suprised him with 'Harry, what are thee into?' Of course he couldn't answer her with a mouth full of dry cookies. Aunt Ellen gave him a right hefty slug in the chest and dad blew cookie crumbs all over her.

Aunt Ellen, the spinster, and aunt Emma, a widow, spent their twilight years living together at aunt Ellen's home in Wilmington, Ohio.

One evening their quaint, Quaker chatter somehow got entangled in the pro and con of marital bliss versus single blessedness. A hot topic two dignified, elderly Quaker ladies had no business engaging in, let alone bringing to such a point in argument, for soon the situation became loud and embarrassing, then, much more noticable, complete silence. As Dad related it to me, Aunt Emma took a thorough drubbing in the debate. However, she broke the silence with a long, loud sigh and cackled, 'Ellen, Thee do not know what thee have missed.'"

"Cedar Falls, Ia. Dec 7, 1925. Founders day, which was celebrated today by Iowa State Teachers college, afforded its 8,000 alumni throughout the nation, 100,000 former students, educators everywhere, the faculty and student body of the college, an opportunity to facilitate Pro. D. Sands Wright, professor of religious education, on his seventy-eighth birthday anniversary and his extraordinary record of 50 years of continuous service at the college.

Eulogy of Dr. Wright was radio-cast by remote control from Iowa City, beginning at 9 and continuing until 10 p.m. The speaker was Claude E. Porter, a member of the State Board of Education.

Dr. Wright taught the first class on opening day of the Iowa State Normal school on Sept. 6, 1876, and now in its jubilee year, physically and mentally vigorous, he rounded out his fiftieth year of service on its campus.

The father, grandfather and great-grandfather of Dr. Wright were Quaker preachers of repute and devoutness and Dr. Wright himself has a reputation as preacher and religious leader, which throughout the years has brought him many calls to fill pulpits in this section of the state.

It so happens that the Times-Globe writer was born and reared in the same town in Ohio where Dr. Wright's ancestors lived, and we remember his father quite well. He was an old-time Quaker preacher, one of the old school, and we heard him many times. It was before the time of paid preachers in the Quaker church, and silent meetings were sometimes held. We recall that as a boy, in visualizing the prophets of old, as studied in the Sunday-school lessons, we always thought of Joseph Wright, father of D. Sands Wright, as being the one whom Elijah resembled. He was tall with white hair and with a face that was saintly in its looks. He was kind, gentle and his religion beamed forth from his every feature. We doubt if he ever had an enemy or harbored an ill feeling toward anyone. He was beloved by all.

D. Sands Wright's sister, Miss Ellen, has been a teacher in Wilmington, Ohio College, a Quaker institution, for many years and is graciously and lovingly remember by many students.

Note--This article was written by G. W. Shockley, brother of Mrs. J. W. Penn of this town."

In his book The Wright Family Harry Wright further stated that:

"Elwood was a Machinist and one of the few Wrights who did not go into teaching. He was six feet tall and weighed around 185 lbs. He was a life-long Quaker, a republican and a third degree Mason.

The same year that Elwood lost his wife, Rebecca, a spring flash flood on the Tennessee river washed away a pile of newly cut lumber he had cut in a saw-mill there. The value of the cut lumber was estimated at 50,000 dollars.

This, his year of calamity, saw one of his steam engines fall through a county bridge that resulted in great expense and labor to remove the engine and pay for the bridge damage.

Elwood, next to the youngest of the children of Joseph and Lydia, was born Aug. 28, 1852 and died Aug. 24, 1903, of tuberculosis, then often referred to as consumption. Elwood owned and operated threshing machines the most of his adult life, and, because of the dust they created, was no doubt a major factor in his untimely death. Dad told me that he and uncle Frank were the only ones present at the post-mortum following Elwood's death. He said they had his chest opened up and that one lung was completely gone and the other was no bigger than a silver half dollar.

Elwood was average in height and weight, being around five feet eleven inches tall and 175 pounds. He was not athletically inclined but loved to hunt and was a good marksman with the shotgun. He wore a handlebar mustache most of his life. He was a kind father but strict. Dad said Elwood and Elizabeth went to town shopping one time and the boys asked if they could go fishing in Rocky Fork creek. Elwood said no. The boys went anyhow and caught some pretty nice fish, a little too nice to throw back in so they brought them home and dumped them in the rain barrel. Of course it wasn't long before Elwood found out. The boys got a real old-fashioned larraping which Dad said he remembered the rest of his life.

Elwood bought and installed in his threshing machine the first blower in his part of the country. Up until then all the threshers were equipped with loaders which was nothing more than a chain conveyor. The threshed straw was shuffled out of the machine onto the conveyor and carried up or down, which ever the height of the stack called for, to the men who were ricking the stack. One thing for sure, it put some men out of work.

Wherever Elwood threshed that summer and fall he had a big audience. Men, gathered from all the counties around, would be sitting on board fences, shed roofs and the tops of barns, anywhere to get a contrived view of the magical blower. Many times there would be a man there with his steam engine waiting for an opportunity to hook up to Elwood's thresher to see if he could pull it. They were skeptical as people are of any new system.

Grandmother Nannie Wright died of a miscarriage in the old log cabin now known as the Smithson Place in north west Penn Township. It is nothing but a storage shack now. Nannie's baby, Leanna, was less than two years old at the time. They said the neighbors kept vigilant watch of the house and when Nannie died aunt Ellen came out of the house and waved her apron as a signal that it was all over. Nannie is buried in her father's plot in the old section of Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Leesburg, Ohio.

Elwood was left with eight small children. After a while he got Ellen Whalen, a colored lady from the Gist Settlement, to stay in the evenings and at night to cook, wash and keep the peace. At day-break she would go home to take care of her own brood, a husband and five children. Dad said he had been rocked to sleep many times by that black Saint, his head lying on her breast and to the tune of a lulabye. The black aunt Ellen helped Elwood a year or so.

A few years after Nannie died Elwood bought a farm a couple of miles south of Marshall, Ohio, on what is now known as the South Beach Road. They moved there from Penn Township in 1895. Dad was an 11 year old boy at the time and clearly remembered of part of a load of millet on their wagon with the farm sled turned upsidedown on the millet. Old rugs and sacks were placed in the over-turned sled and the kids and dogs, which numbered many of each, climbed up onto the sled, and that's the way they traveled to Marshall and their new home.

Dad remembered when they arrived there their dog, Trixie, right away treed something in the woodpile and Trixie had his first Marshall groundhog.

Elwood had married Elizabeth Gustin before they moved to Marshall. She took over the large motherless family and did magnificently with them until Elwood's death. Daisy and Leanna came to live with aunt Ellen. Aunt Daisy said she couldn't get along with her then, but looking back now she realizes, Elizabeth, being just a young woman, did better with those eight children than anyone could rightly expect her to do. Dad promised Elwood he'd look out for Ben, who was a pretty wild one. After Dad married, Ben came to live with them for a while.

Elwood died in 1903. He is buried in Hightop Cemetery, Samantha, Ohio. Dad said the funeral Coach was horse drawn, and they headed for Samantha across Rocky Fork creek at what is now the South Shore and North Shore swimming beaches. They came out on the Hillsboro-Rainsboro road, now U.S. route 50. Before they crossed the road they passed on their left a new house under construction. Dad said every man at that house stopped work, stood up and took off his hat in respect to Elwood while his funeral coach passed by.

Elwood chewed tobacco for years until his doctor talked him into quitting. He'd been off the weed about three years when one day he was talking to his hired man who had pulled out his plug of chewing tobacco and cut off himself a chew. Elwood said, let me see that. He took the plug and cut himself a chew. Dad said he got so sick he thought he'd die. After that he never used tobacco again."

"Obituary.

John Samuel Wright, son of David and Jane Ann Wright, was born at Highland, Ohio, March 28, 1848, and was suddenly taken home March 24, 1925, age 76 years, 11 months and 24 days. He was the eldest son in a family of nine children, three of whom died in childhood. His boyhood and young manhood were spent quietly at home, until on Sept. 7, 1871, he was united in marriage to Mary Hansell, and with his bride took up his residence near his parents' home.

No children were born to this union, but in 1896 they took into their home his sister's youngest child, John, and truly gave him that wealth of love and tenderness which parents give to an only child. Largely as a result of this care and early Christian training, this boy is now a minister of the gospel.

When about thirty years of age he moved to Indiana, living first in Burlington and then in Middlefork, where he worked at his early trade of blacksmithing.

While at Middlefork he answered a call to the ministry in the Methodist Episcopal church, a call which he had felt since his conversion in young manhood. He entered the Northwest Indiana conference on trial in 1884, and was admitted to full connection in 1886. He served charges at Kirclin, Burnettsville, Logansport Ct., Romney, North Liberty, Francesville, Chesterton, Ambia and Rosedale. As a minister, he was earnest and zealous, a good student, and yet a good financier, and made an exceptional record as a builder of churches and parsonages. While at Rosedale his health became so poor that he was forced to ask for the retired relation, which was granted in 1901.

After retiring he moved at once to a farm near Russiaville where he lived until 1912 and then moved to town.

Three years later his life was saddened by the illness of his wife, for whom he tenderly cared through two years of suffering until her death in 1917. After her death he made his home with Rush Wright, his only living brother.

Besides this brother and the foster-son John Borders, there remain to mourn heir loss eight nephews; Charles, James, Harry, Rhea and Lawrence Wright, and Charles, Harry and George Borders; and three nieces, Nellie Wright McInach, and Bertha and Florence Wright, and a large number of other relatives and friends.

Fraternally, Mr. Wright was for more than a third of a century a member of the Masonic lodge and also held membership in the Eastern Star.

A long and useful life, has come to an end, a life of busy toil for the Master in years of strength, a life of devotion to family and friends, and a life of cheerful resignation in the hours of loss and sorrow. His passing seems almost a divine answer to his own prayers. Since the death of his wife he has been lonely and restless. The death of father and mother and wife and all save one of his brothers and sisters, made his ties strong on the other shore, and though never complaining, yet he longed to go home. He had often expressed the hope that when his time came to go, he might slip out of life quickly without prolonged suffering. God answered both his longing and his hope, when almost in the twinkling of an eye he was called from earth to glory.

The shock of our loss is great but he who has gone would not have us mourn with much weeping. So with a determination to emulate his virtues, and a faith in the God whom he trusted in his hours of need, we bid him Godspeed upon his journey.

'Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious war-fare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is won
And Thou art crowned at last.'

In his book Joseph Wright, Quaker, January 1992 Draft, Jay B. Wright also stated as follows regarding John Samuel Wright:

"534 John Samuel Wright, b. 28 Mar. 1848, New Lexington (later Highland), Highland Co., Ohio; m. 7 Sept. 1871, Highland Co., Ohio, to Mary A. In his book Joseph Wright, Quaker, January 1992 Draft, Jay B. Wright enclosed the following obituary for Joseph Edwin Wright:

"Russiaville News.
Russiaville, Aug. 7, 1902.

We only know what genuine sorrow it is when it comes in touch with kindred ties. Death's cold hands grasp our hearts and we shudder at its touch even when neighbors and friends are taken from us; but when it enters the family realm our whole nature responds and grief supreme reigns. Joseph Edwin Wright was born in the village of New Lexington, Highland county, Ohio, July 19, 1849, and passed into the beyond at his late home in Russiaville, July 31, 1902, aged [the clipping says thirty-three, but actually he was fifty-three] years and twelve days. He was the second son of David and Jane A. Wright and grew to manhood under the parental roof in Highland county. He was united in marriage to Elsie D. Achor March 14, 1872, near New Lexington, Ohio. Four children came to bless this union and to brighten the home, Charles E., Nellie E., Harry Edgar and Archie E. all of whom are living except the last named. The deceased learned the wagon and carriage trade in his youth and moved to Burlington, Indiana, in 1879, where he pursued this avocation for several months, when he moved to Russiaville for a few months and went to Middlefork, where he worked at his trade for five years, after which he came to Russiaville. He served as Justice of the Peace for several years for Honey Creek township and then took up the profession of the law, which he pursued until his last illness. The last few years of his life he served as attorney for the W. H. Eikenberry carriage firm and won an enviable reputation as a collector. In all his business relations he was strictly honest and upright, and was chosen as attorney and executor in the settlement of several estates. He also had a large patronage in insurance and real estate business. When but a lad he united with the M. E. Church and lived a conscientious life for many years and was steward of the Russiaville church for several years. He became estranged and wandered away from the fold and had many grievous faults, but we pass over his foibles the beautiful wand of charity and cherish in our hearts his many noble traits of character and deeds of kindness. No man ever possessed a bigger heart nor one more easily touched by suffering or need.

When he was stricken down with his last illness he felt the need of his forgotten Savior and earnestly prayed for forgiveness and called Revs. Talbert, Knight, and Reeves to his bedside, and after several days of earnest prayer he found great peace and told the sorrowing friends who surrounded his dying couch that they need have no fears for his future; that God accepted his atonement; that the blood of Christ had cleansed him from sin. Funeral services were held at the late residence on Saturday at ten o'clock, conducted by Rev. S. P. Talbert, assisted by Revs. Knight, Reeves and Foster. Beautiful floral tributes were sent by the Eikenberry Bros., Goldthwaite & sons, of Marion and others. The pall bearers were W. H. Eikenberry, C. C. Eikenberry, Warren Eikenberry, A. C. Schilling, C. E. Carter, and E. J. Carter. The Eikenberry works were closed during the funeral and the entire force attended in a body as an escort. The body was interred in the Russiaville cemetery.

[The obituary, in the form of a yellowed newspaper clipping, was found among papers belonging to the late Florence Wright shortly after her death on 11 Sept. 1963. It was probably written by Joseph's brother, Jonathan C. Wright, and it was probably from the Kokomo Tribune or the Kokomo Dispatch.]"

In his book Joseph Wright, Quaker, January 1992 Draft, Jay B. Wright included the following obituary for Jonathan C. Wright:

"Impressive Tribute Paid to the Late Dr. J. C. Wright

(Biographical sketch of Dr. J. C. Wright as read in the funeral service conducted by E. Richard Edwards in the Main street Christian church Wednesday, April 3, 1912.)

We are assembled to pay a tribute of highest esteem to one whose life's record bequeaths to us a memory of lasting impressiveness.

Dr. Jonathan C. Wright was born in Highland, Highland county, Ohio, September 17, 1852, and was summoned to his reward on Monday April 1, 1912.

Attracted to the study of medicine our friend entered Miami Medical college in Cincinnati, Ohio, and completing the period of preparation there, engaged in the labors of a practicing physician for five years.

The practice of dentistry offering stronger inducements, the deceased followed that pursuit for thirty years and was thus actively employed up to the time of his departure.

On the 9th day of October, 1873, Dr. Wright led Miss Emma Ratcliff to the altar and was united in marriage to the lass he loved with constant devotion through the years of that sweet and tender and sacred relationship.

To this union five children were born, three of whom with the mother survive, Bertha, James and Elizabeth. That happy family circle enjoyed the comforts of home life in an unbroken fellowship and devotion up to the time of the husband and father's final summons.

Dr. Wright was a Master-Mason for many years, and in addition was also highly esteemed in the order of the Knights of Pythias, joining the latter lodge as a charter member in Russiaville, Indiana.

Dr. Wright united with the Christian church in Russiaville under the ministry of Rev. J. N. Pyle, and was from that date, November 30, 1890, until his departure a loyal, faithful, devoted servant of Christ.

For a number of years Dr. Wright was superintendent of the Sunday school in Russiaville. On moving to Kokomo eight years ago, our brother became deeply interested in the work of the Main-street Christian church of this city and added his strength and influence to the forces of righteousness in Kokomo.

Recognizing his excellent qualifications and steadfast interest in the Kingdom of God, this church elected our brother to the board of elders and found him well deserving of the honor thus conferred.

Dr. Wright loved the good, the beautiful and the true. He was especially fond of music and was the efficient director of that department in our Sunday school, a most valuable addition to the church choir, and for years had charge of the song service of our annual county meetings. In addition he taught an adult class in the Sunday school. The recital of these activities will give the friends present some conception of the important part our brother took in the success and progress of the Lord's work; and how sorely we will miss his services. Thus it will be seen that in the home and church our brother will leave behind him a memory rich in the legacy of a soul that loved truly and wrought stedfastly for the highest and best things. During the last illness of Dr. Wright one of the touching and pathetic features of interest in his welfare was shown on the part of the children of his neighborhood as the little tots would ask for him and bring to the door of his home a little flower to express their affection and interest for they came to learn that our brother was the good friend of the little ones. The meek and lowly, the humble and obscure always found our brother Wright ready to give them the friendly hand and word of cheer. Naught that was of interest to God and man escaped the attention and sympathy of the departed.

In addition to the four members of his immediate family Dr. Wright is survived by two brothers and a sister the sole survivors of ten children in his father's family.

We can in a measure account for the marked interest of our friend in things religious when we recall that his father and uncle and other of his ancestors were ministers of the gospel. In his illness Dr. Wright was constantly quoting, "O, Lord our God, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth," and also, "I beseech you brethren by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice; holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service."

The best and chiefest thing that measures the standard of excellence our brother attained is that, "he was a man" in the very highest conception of that term."

In his letter dated November 15, 1976, Jay B. Wright enclosed family group sheets which stated that Jonathan C. Wright was a son of 1883 David Wright of Highland County, Ohio, and Jane Ann (Bowers) Wright, was born on September 17, 1852, at New Lexington, Highland County, Ohio, married Emma Caroline Ratcliff on October 9, 1873, at Russiaville, Howard County, Indiana, and died on April 1, 1912, at Kokomo, Howard County, Indiana, that Emma Caroline (Ratcliff) Wright was born on January 16, 1855, at Highland County, Ohio, and died on December 19, 1940, at Kokomo, Howard County, Indiana, and that they had the following children:

As set forth above, 1826 John Wright's father 1814 John Wright of Bedford County moved his family from Goochland County, Virginia, to Bedford County, Virginia, sometime after June 10, 1768, and before June 10, 1769.

As will be more fully set forth below, on March 15, 1781, 1826 John Wright of Bedford County fought at the battle of Guilford Court House in North Carolina. A Battlefield Atlas Of The American Revolution by Craig L. Symonds provided a map of that battle and a description of the battle:

"Guilford Court House
March 15, 1781

Despite his victory at Cowpens, Morgan knew that his command remained in a dangerous position. Cornwallis' army lay between Morgan's force and the rest of the American army under Greene. Moreover, the news of Cowpens so infuriated Cornwallis that he immediately started out after Morgan determined to crush the brash Americans and obtain the release of the 525 British prisoners. Following the battle, therefore, Morgan continued his northward retreat. Throughout a rainy, miserable February Cornwallis's men chased Morgan's small army across North Carolina. So eager was Cornwallis to catch Morgan that he burned his own supply wagons to gain speed, but Morgan stayed always a day's march ahead of him.

The two halves of the American army were reunited at Guilford Courthouse on February 8 and Greene asked his officers if they thought the army should turn and fight. To a man they were opposed. Reluctantly Greene continued the northward retreat. The Americans won a race to the Dan River just over the Virginia border and, lacking boats to follow them across the rain-swollen stream, Cornwallis turned back in disgust to Hillsboro. Greene followed cautiously.

In early March reinforcements of a thousand militia and 550 Continentals raised Greene's total to 4,400 and he decided to seek battle. The American army took a position near Guilford Court House on ground that Greene had reconnoitered earlier, and awaited the British approach. Morgan's ill health had forced his retirement from active service, but Greene borrowed Morgan's tactic of establishing three successive defensive lines. In the first line, behind a rail fence with the woods to their back, Greene placed the untested North Carolina militia(1). From this position the militiamen could fire at the British while they crossed the open fields, now bereft of crops in late-winter. A quarter-mile further east, Greene placed the Virginia militia in heavy woods (2) where the trees would provide cover for the defenders and break up the tight British formations. Another 500 yards further on, Greene placed his 1,400 Continentals atop a slight rise and behind another cleared field(3).

At about one in the afternoon, the British splashed across Little Horsepen Creek and deployed for an attack. The British veterans were already tired when the battle began, having marched twelve miles that morning to reach the battlefield. Nevertheless they made a splendid sight as they advanced across the open corn field in their tight regimental formations. At 150 yards the rail fence in front of them exploded in an uneven volley. Dozens of redcoats fell, but the rest came steadily on and at fifty yards they fired a volley of their own and charged. The North Carolina militia fled into the woods.

The British attackers then entered the thick woods and soon encountered the line of Virginia militia. Here the fighting was fragmented and often hand-to-hand as small groups clashed with one another. The regiment of Hessians pursued the Legion of Light Horse Harry Lee and the riflemen of Colonel William Campbell off to the right and virtually out of the battle(4). The other British regiments encountered fierce resistance especially from Brigadier General Edward Stevens' brigade, but after a half hour they broke through and plunged ahead.

Having fought two battles, the British emerged from the woods to encounter yet another open field and beyond it the 1,400 regulars of the Continental line: Huger's two Virginia regiments on the American right and Williams' two Maryland regiments on the left. Webster's infantry on the British left were the first to emerge from the woods and they charged across the open field and up the slope toward the Continentals(5). A disciplined volley hurled them back into the woods with heavy losses, including Webster, who was mortally wounded. An American victory seemed imminent. But on the other side of the field near the New Garden Road, the British Second Battalion Guards broke the reconstituted Second Maryland Regiment and turned the American left(6). The First Maryland staved off disaster by attacking the Guards in the flank at about the same time that William Washington's cavalry struck them in the rear. To extricate his men, Cornwallis ordered his artillery to fire rounds of grapeshot into the melee. This desperate move killed as many British as Americans but it halted the American counterattack. The outcome of the battle was still in doubt, but the gap in the American line convinced Greene to order a retreat and the Americans gave up the field, abandoning their guns and marching northward up the Reedy Creek Road.

The British attempted a half-hearted pursuit, but they had suffered heavily in the battle and soon gave it up. The Americans had lost 79 killed and 185 wounded, but over 500 British soldiers lay dead or wounded on the field, more than a quarter of Cornwallis' entire command. Cornwallis reported a victory to Germain in enthusiastic terms, but when the Colonial Secretary announced it to Parliament, Opposition leaders scoffed. Charles James Fox remarked dryly that "Another such victory would ruin the British army."

As will be set forth below, 1826 John Wright was a member of Colonel Lynch's company of militia and The Road To Guilford Courthouse by John Buchanan stated that Colonel Lynch's Virginia militia was on the far right of the first line of General Greene's army:

"On the day of Guilford Courthouse Nathanael Greene had about 4,400 troops.<sup>1</sup> Of these some 1,762 were Continentals. Although the terrain was radically different from the field at Cowpens, Greene's deployment and tactics were largely based on Morgan's, and he also followed subsequent advice given by the Old Waggoner. He deployed in three lines. In the first line were his least reliable troops, about 1,000 North Carolina militia: two regiments commanded by Brigadier General John Butler and Brigadier General Thomas Eaton. . . . In his letter of 20 February Morgan had advised Greene to post riflemen "on the flanks under enterprising officers who is acquainted with that kind of fighting." Greene did this but reinforced the riflemen with regular cavalry and infantry. On the right, next to Butler's regiment, were Colonel Charles Lynch's 200 Virginia riflemen supported by William Washington's ninety dragoons and Captain Robert Kirkwood's eighty-man company of the Delaware Line. . . . Cornwallis deployed. He had on the field about 1,950 men to oppose Greene's 4,440, . . . . To the left of the road he [Cornwallis] placed the Royal Welsh Fusiliers and to their left the 33rd Foot. This wing was led by Lieutenant Colonel James Webster. Behind them in support were the 2nd Guards Battalion, the Grenadier and light infantry companies of the Guards, and the Jagers, all commanded by Brigadier General Charles O'Hara. . . . The British, however, could not take immediate advantage of their rout of the North Carolinians. The riflemen and Continental infantry on their flanks stood firm and delivered galling enfilading fire that had to be dealt with. On the left Webster wheeled the 33rd and the Jagers and went after Lynch's Virginians and Kirkwood's company of the Delaware Line, . . . . The Jagers and the light infantry of the Guards and the 33rd Foot were now on the extreme left of the British line facing Lynch, Kirkwood, and Washington's dragoons. . . . Kirkwood's flanking force slowly withdrew through the woods to its next assigned position, on the right flank of the second line. . . . When the British moved into the woods the fighting became confused. Steven's Virginia brigade on the second line behaved very well, . . . . amid the trees and tangled forest floor the British could not maintain their well ordered lines or use the bayonet with maximum effectiveness. In many places the action became firefights between small parties. . . . The firefights at the second line should have ended forever the myth that British regulars could not adapt to woods fighting. The dogged Britons kept slugging away and gradually forced the Virginians to the right of the road to swing back to the road like a door, and many took this opportunity to use the New Garden road to escape. . . . the stubborn redcoats never let up and their final assault, led by Cornwallis himself, cleared the woods. They had paid dearly for it. The forest floor was littered with their comrades, some still forever, others moving feebly. Despite St. George Tucker's disgust with those who ran, many Virginians had fought very well and done their jobs. . . . When the tired and bloodied British battalions began to emerge from the woods they were on the lip of a natural amphitheater that farmers had cleared of trees and undergrowth. Opposite them, a few hundred yards across the intervening space, they could see the buff and blue of the Continentals, including Kirkwood's Delaware Company, which had withdrawn in good order to the third line. . . . Greene had only to avoid serious defeat while making Cornwallis pay too dearly for victory. He decided that he had accomplished both and at 3:30 p.m. ordered a withdrawal from the battlefield. . . . Greene's army had suffered seventy-nine killed and 184 wounded, about a mere six percent casualty rate. Of the 1, 046 missing, 885 were militia - gone home."

The map from A Battlefield Atlas Of The American Revolution in conjunction with this description makes clear that Colonel Lynch's Virginia militia and 1826 John Wright were the rectangle at the top of the first line between the North Carolina militia and Washington's cavalry. As will be set forth below, 1826 John Wright was wounded by a musket ball under the right ear and this probably occurred in the woods when the British turned on Lynch's militia after routing the North Carolina militia.

A plat of that legal description appears as follows:

Bedford County, Virginia

Deed 11/307

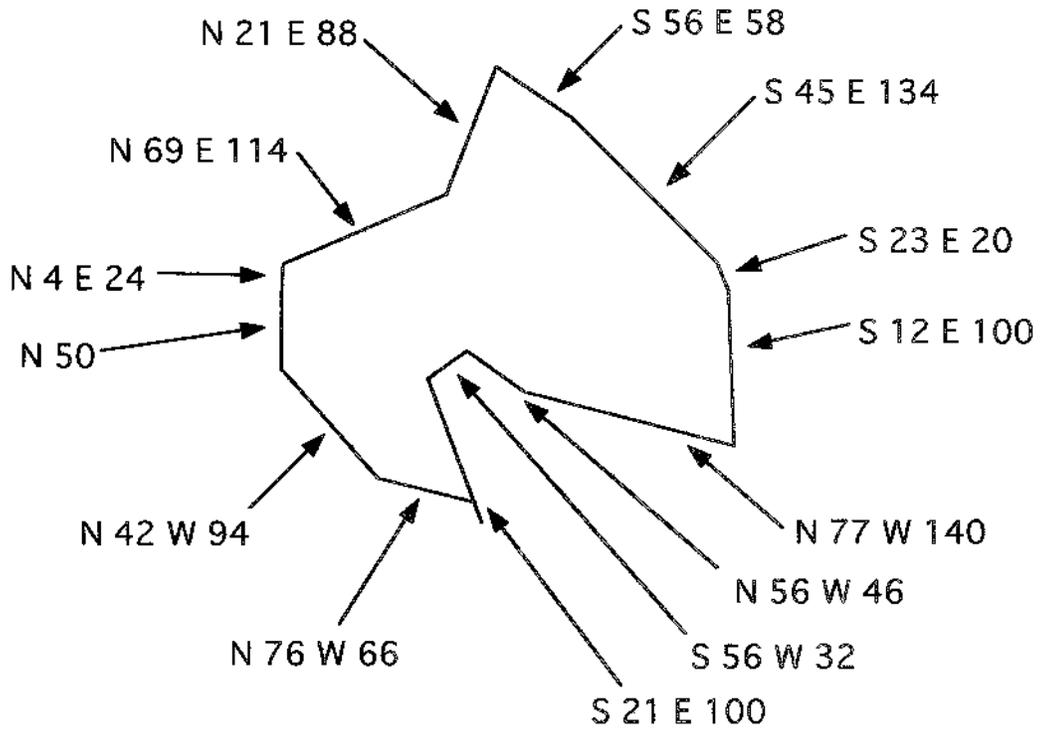

As the plat shows, the legal description does not quite close. Thomas Pate, the grantor of Deed 11/307, obtained this land from Nathaniel Shrewsbury and his wife Nancy by Bedford County Deed 10/352 dated September 25, 1797. The legal description of that deed is virtually identical to that of Deed 11/307 except at two points which cause the lines of the plat to come very close to closing:

". . . a Certain Tract or parcel of Land in Bedford on the heads of Beaver Dam Creek Containing Two Hundred & Sixty Six Acres be the same more or less and bounded as followeth to wit. Begining at a red Oak on Shrewsburys line and thence off, North Seventy Six Degrees west Sixty Six poles to a pine North Forty two degrees west Ninety four poles to a Chesnut Oak North fifty poles to a Chesnut Oak North four Degrees East Twenty four poles to Blufords Corner Hickory and thence along his line North Sixty nine Degrees East one hundred & fourteen poles to a Hickory North Twenty one degrees East Eighty Eight poles to a Hickory South fifty Six Degrees East fifty Eight poles to Pointers South forty five degrees East one hundred and thirty four poles to pointers South Twenty degrees East Twenty poles to pointers thence a new Line South twelve degrees East one hundred poles to pointers on Shrewsburys line and thence along his lines North Seventy Seven Degrees west one hundred & forty poles to a Small Red Oak North Fifty Six Degrees west forty Six poles to a Chesnut Oak South fifty Six degrees West Thirty two poles to a Small Hickory South Twenty one degrees East One hundred poles to the first Station . . ."

The plats of both Deeds 11/307 and 10/352 clearly show on their southerly edge the outline of the northerly edge of Deed 8/247 and in addition provide the easterly border of Deed 8/247. Further detail of that deed will be filled in by other deeds discussed below.

This Division and Allotment is clearly the most easterly portion of the land of 1826 John remaining after the sale of Deed 14/57, as shown on the map on the following page:

Bedford County, Virginia

W.B. 6/348 & D.B. 11/307 & D.B. 14/57

The division and allotment confirms that the John Wright, Jr., of Little Otter who purchased the land in Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 8/247 in 1789 was the same person as 1826 John Wright and further confirms the identification of 1826 John Wright of Bedford County as the son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County.

On December 11, 1826, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers a summons was issued against John Wright and Archibald Wright to answer the complaint of Ammon Hancock and Henry Brown, Jr., for payment of a debt of $134.34. The notes on the summons indicated that both John Wright and Archibald Wright were then deceased:

On about September 26, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Ammon Hancock and Henry Brown, Jr., filed their complaint against Benjamin Wright, as administrator of the estate of John Wright for payment of a debt of $134.34:

"Bedford County to wit,

Ammon Hancock, and Henry Brown jr merchants, and partners trading under the style, and firm of Hancock & Brown, who are assignees of Littlebury C. Williamson, who was assignee of John St. Clair, complain of Benjamin Wright administrator of John Wright deceased in custody &c of a plea that he render unto them the sum of One Hundred, and thirty four dollars, and Ninety four Cents, which from them he unjustly detains. For that a Certain Archibald Wright, and the said John Wright, in the life time of the said John Wright, to wit, on the 3d day of June 1822 at the County aforesaid, by their certain bill penal sealed with their seals, and no where to this Court shewn, the Date whereof is the same day, and year aforesaid, on demand promised to pay to the said John St. Clair (by the name, and style of "John Sinclair") the just sum of Sixty Seven dollars, and seventeen Cents for value received; and for the true payment thereof, they, the said Archibald Wright, and John Wright, thereby bound themselves, their Heirs &c. in the penal sum of One Hundred and thirty four dollars, and thirty four Cents - which said bill penal the said John St. Clair (by the name and style of "John Sinclair") afterwards, in the life time of the said John Wright, and before the payment of the said sums of money in the Said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof, to wit, on the 17th day of april 1826 at the County aforesaid, by an endorsement thereon in writing, his own proper hand being thereto subscribed, assigned to the said Littlebury C. Williamson (by the name, and style of "L. B. C. Wmsson"); who afterwards in the life time of the said John Wright, and before the payment of the said Sums of money in the Said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof, to wit, on the 21st day of September 1826 at the County aforesaid, by an indorsement thereon in writing, his own proper hand being thereto subscribed, assigned the said bill penal to the said plaintiffs - of which said several assignments the said John Wright and the said Archibald Wright in the life time of the said John Wright, at the said several times, and places of the making of the said assignments as aforesaid had notice respectively and the plaintiffs aver, that the said Archibald Wright, and John Wright did not, nor did either of them in the life time of the said John Wright (altho' often thereto requested) pay to the plaintiffs the said sums of money in the said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof, nor have the said Archibald Wright, and the said defendant, nor hath either of them since the death of the said John Wright (altho' often thereto requested) paid to the plaintiffs the said sums of money in the said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof - By means whereof an action hath accrued to the plaintiffs to demand and have of the said defendant the said penal sum of One Hundred, and thirty four dollars, and thirty four Cents - Yet the said defendant (altho' often thereto requested) the said sum of money last-named or any part thereof to the plaintiffs hath not paid, but the same to pay, hath hitherto refused, and still doth refuse to the damage of the plaintiffs $20. and therefore they sue.

This record indicates that John Wright had died after September 26, 1826.

On September 26, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers a summons was issued against Benjamin Wright, as administrator of the estate of John Wright to answer the complaint of Ammon Hancock and Henry Brown, Jr., for payment of a debt of $134.34:

On December 5, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers another summons was issued against Benjamin Wright, as administrator of the estate of John Wright to answer the complaint of Ammon Hancock and Henry Brown, Jr., for payment of a debt of $134.34:

On February 25, 1828, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 20/496 Benjamin Wright, acting as court appointed commissioner, sold 370 acres of land, subject to the widow's dower, to William Wright:

"This Indenture made & entered into this 25th day of Febry 1828 between Benjamin Wright of the County of Bedford Commissioner acting in conformity to a decree of the County Court of Bedford at term held and continued to the ___ day of ____ 1826 of the one part and William Wright of the county aforesaid of the other part witnesseth that for and in consideration of the sum of two Hundred & three dollars & fifty five 1/2 cents current money of Virginia to him in hand paid & secured to be paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged hath given granted bargained and sold & by these presents doth give grant bargain sell & confirm unto him the said William Wright his heirs & assigns forever one certain tract or parcel of land, subject to the widows dower situate in the county of Bedford & lying on the head branches of the northeast fork of Beaverdam Creek & bounded as follows Viz. beginning at a post oak corner to Newsom thence along his line N 15 W 93 poles to a small dead chestnut & sprouts N 76 3/4 W 66 poles to a pine stump thence along Bufords lines N 43 W 97 poles to chestnut oak stump on Lick mountain N 2 W 54 poles to a chestnut near the top of sd Mountain thence along Bowles lines N 4 3/4 E 27-1/2 poles to a Hickory stump on the north side of the said Mountain N 69-1/2 E 120 poles to a hickory near the foot of that mountain N 21-1/4 E 96 poles to pointers thence along Sinclairs lines S 56 E 61 poles to a double chestnut and red oak S 46-1/2 E 67 poles to Wm Wrights own corner post oak thence along his lines S 8 3/4 W 132 poles to a Spanish oak S 4 3/4 E 25-1/2 poles to a small Spanish oak S 60 E 14-1/2 poles to a gum on a branch S 29 3/4 E 104 poles to a white oak on Hughs's line thence along his lines S 46 3/4 poles to pointers thence along Cowells (Lowells ?) line, S 69 W Xing two branches 115 poles to the first Station containing 370 acres be the same more or less . . ."

A plat of that legal description appears as follows:

Bedford County, Virginia

Deed 20/496

While the lines of this legal description do not close, it is clear that this is the land from Deeds 8/247 and 11/307 less the land sold by Deed 14/57, that is, all of the land held by 1826 John Wright at his death. The dower land is included in the sale because the deed was "subject to the widows dower". The description error is probably in the line reading S 46 3/4, which should probably be S 46 3/4 W ___. In any event the description locates the land adjacent to Lick Mountain which is between the north and northeast branches of Beaver Dam Creek.

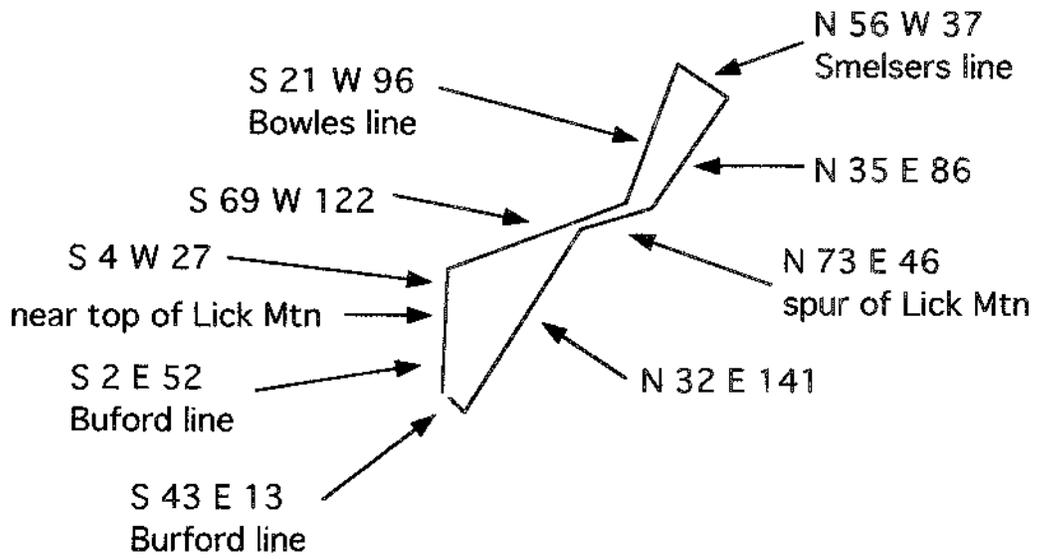

The land can be even more precisely located by reference to Deed 21/263 dated December 20, 1828, by which William S. Wright and Rhoda, his wife, sold 48 acres of the land to James E. Bowles. The legal description is as follows:

". . . one certain Tract or parcel of Land containing forty eight acres be the same more or less lying & being in the County of Bedford & on the East Branch of Beaverdam Creek beginning at a Chestnut oak Stump on the lick mountain S 43 E 13-1/2 poles to a pine in Bufords lines off new lines N 32-1/2 E 141 poles to a Chestnut oak on a spurr of the said Mountain thence down the spurr N 73-1/4 E 46 poles to a red oak N 35 E 86 poles to a red oak in Smelsers line thence along his line N 56 W 37-1/2 poles to Bowles's corner pointers thence along his line S 21- 1/4 W 96 poles to a hickory on a spurr of the said lick Mountain thence up the mountain S 69-1/2 W 122 poles to a dead hickory S 4 3/4 W 27-1/2 poles to a chesnut near the Top of the mountain thence along Bufords lines S 2 E 54 poles to the first station . . ."

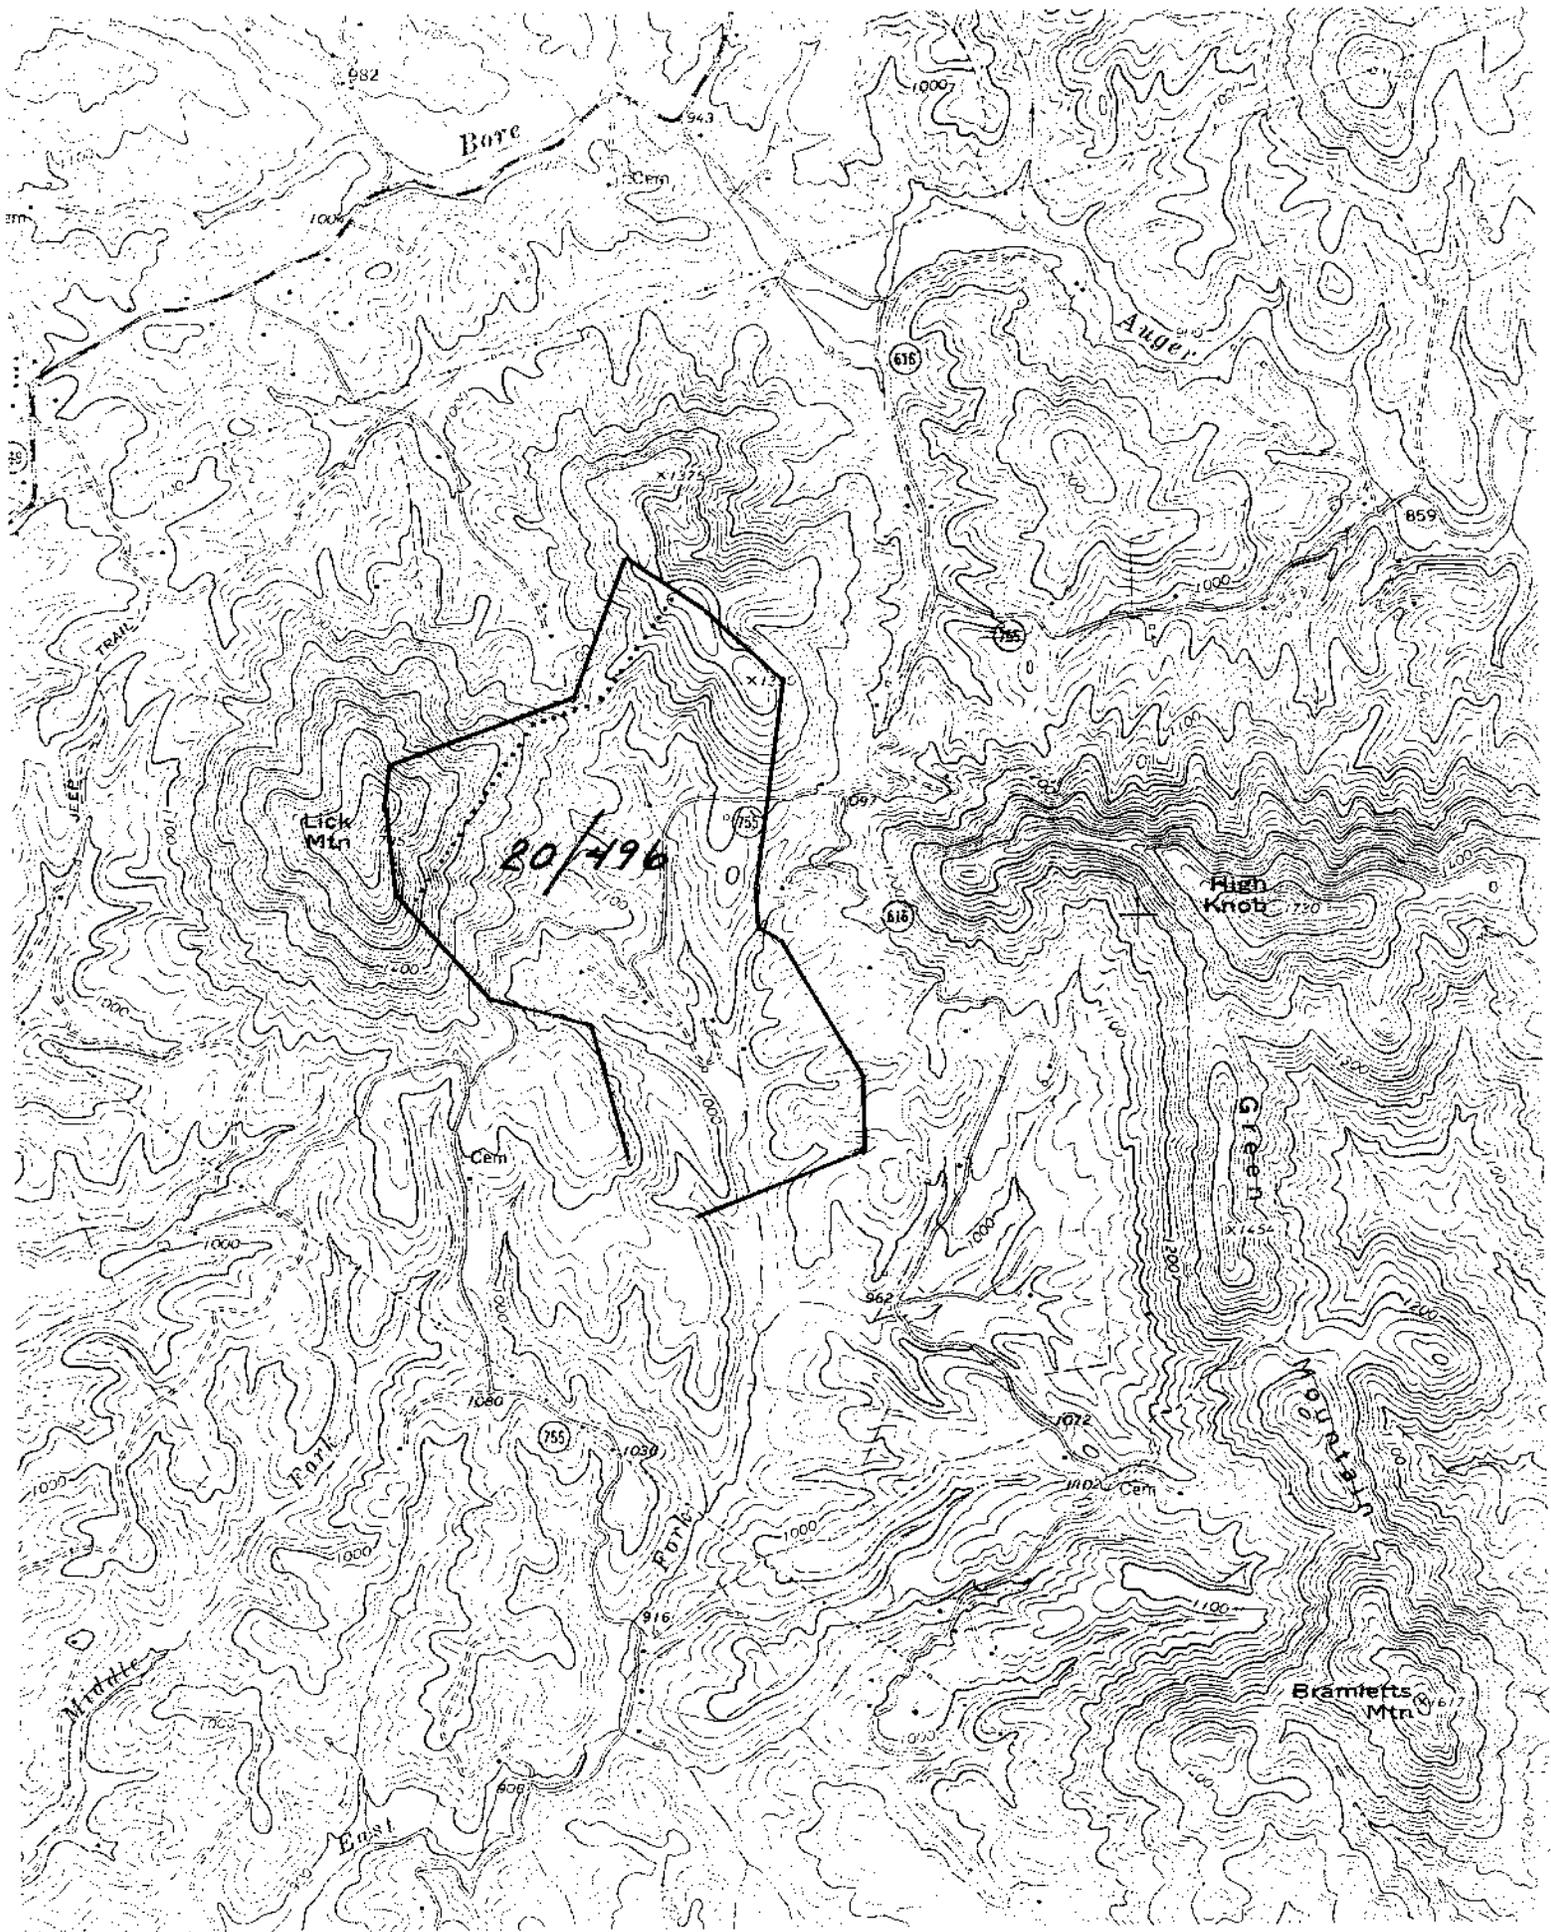

A plat of that legal description appears as follows:

Bedford County, Virginia

This parcel is clearly the northwesterly edge of Deed 20/496. Comparing this plat to a U.S. Geological Survey map of Lick Mountain, the location of the "spurr" can be easily identified and in conjunction with the point that is "near the Top of the mountain" the location of the land of 1826 John Wright is determined as shown on the map on the following page.

As an additional check on the location of the land of 1826 John Wright, it is possible to locate the land along the northern edge of the 1767 George Walton Patent. While the details of that check will not be gone into here, the outline of how it can be done will be given. George Walton conveyed a tract of 200 acres to Patrick Evans by Bedford County Deed 5/215 dated March 28, 1774. Patrick Evans then sold the 200 acres to Benjamin Wheeler by Bedford County Deed 7/431 dated February 23, 1782. The land on the western border of Bedford County Deed 7/431 described as belonging to John Wright is Bedford County Deed 6/329 taken by 1803 John Wright. Benjamin Wheeler then sold the 200 acre parcel of Bedford County Deed 7/431 in two lots: the first was Bedford County Deed 8/173 dated April 27, 1789, for 120 acres to Joseph Wooldridge and the second was Bedford County Deed 8/175 dated April 27, 1789, to Haiden Trigg. Haiden Trigg thereafter sold his 80 acre parcel to Henry James by Bedford County Deed 9/421 dated September 23, 1794. Joseph Wooldridge sold his 120 acre parcel to Jacob Burton by Bedford County Deed 10/256 dated February 27, 1797. And Henry James sold his 80 acre parcel to Jacob Burton by Bedford County Deed 10/501 dated September __, 1798, thereby reuniting the original 200-acre parcel into one piece. The northern edge of Bedford County Deed 10/501 is described as along John Wright's line. That boundary is the southern edge of Bedford County Deed 8/247 originally purchased by 1826 John Wright in 1789 from George Scott. The map on the following page locates the land of 1826 John Wright in relation to the land on 1803 John Wright:

This record identifies the children of 1826 John Wright as follows:

- 1) Franky Wright,
- 2) Kitty St. Clair,
- 3) Sophia Wheeler,
- 4) Archibald Wright's heirs,
- 5) Polly Franklin,
- 6) Nancy Nichols, and
- 7) Jack Wright.

As set forth above, the 1814 Bedford County, Virginia, Land Tax List identified William S. Wright who bought 100 acres of land from 1826 John Wright in 1813 as 1826 John's son, but the Division and Allotment did not identify William S. Wright as 1826 John Wright's son. It is unclear why this was so, unless the sale of 100 acres to William S. Wright in 1813 was more in the nature of a gift and, therefore, William considered himself already provided for and not entitled to a further share in the estate. Alternatively, the purchase of the remaining land of 1826 John Wright by William S. Wright from the estate in Bedford County Deed 20/496 may have been at a bargain price which satisfied his share of the estate.

In March 1830 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 23/64 the account for the estate of John Wright was continued for exceptions and the commissioners allowed their fee:

"An account current of the estate of John Wright Deceased returned and Continued for exceptions, and it is ordered that the Commissioners be allowed one dollar each for their services."

Sometime about August 23, 1833, at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court of Law and Chancery, File 60, William Glover and Frances (Wright) Glover filed suit against Benjamin Wright, as administrator of the estate of John Wright, for funds due to her as a distributee of the estate:

"To the honorable the Judge of the circuit Superior court of Law and chancery for the County of Bedford.

The bill of complaint of William Glover and Frances his wife late Frances Wright of the county of Bedford respectfully represents -

That John Wright late of said county the Father of your oratrix departed this life some time in the year 1826 intestate leaving a considerable personal estate amounting in value to near two thousand dollars. Shortly after his death his son Benjamin Wright qualified as his executor in the court of said county, possessed himself of the estate, and sold it. Your orator and oratrix are entitled to the 1/7 part of said estate. They have only received $10. They pray that the said Benjamin Wright, Jeremiah Wade, Archibald Wade, & John St. Clair the securities in his administration bond be made parties defendant to this bill and compelled to answer all its allegation upon oath. That the said Benjamin Wright be compelled to Settle his administration accounts before the commissioner of this court: that he be also compelled to settle his accounts with the distributees so far as it may be necessary to ascertain the distributive proportion of your orator & oratrix, and that the defendants be compelled by the decree of this honbl. court to pay them whatever balances may be found to be in their hands of the said admr and grant your orator & oratrix such other & further relief as may be just & right & as in duty bound they will ever pray.

William Glover
Frances Glover"

A summons in File 60 was issued on August 23, 1833.

On March 4, 1834, in File 60 Benjamin Wright answered the complaint denying that he had failed to give Frances what was due to her and asserting that she was incapable of taking care of herself and that he had paid her funds out for board and care:

"The answer of Benjamin Wright to a bill in Chancery exhibited against him as Admr. of John Wright decd, and his securities (as such) by William Glover and Fanny his wife in Bedford Circuit Supr. Court of Law & Chancery. This deft saveing & reserveing to himself all benefit to all manner of Exception reservation &c & to the errors misstatements, insufficiencies &c for answer thereto or to so much thereof as materially concerns him. Sayeth he became admr of his decd brother at the request of some of the distributees & by appointment from the Court. He sold the personal estate after same was appraised the list of sales & the appraisement are both referred to the county Court Clerks office copies of which when procured shall be filed herewith as part of this answer. The _____ Plaintiff Fanny (late Fanny Wright from imbecility of mind has always been considered & was utterly incapable of taking prudent care of herself and manageing even the little effects she was entitled to in a proper & prudent manner and this respondent could not get any person to support & keep her in diet & clothes for her personal services and had always to pay whoever boarded her. He files herewith an account of what he has paid the plaintiffs and other persons for supporting boarding &c of the Female pltf Fanny marked A amounting to over $105.47 he also files herewith on part of this her acct rects for the Sums of $21.25 of $25 of $18.45 & the $10 of said account & expects to be able to prove all the other Sums in said a/c A. This respondent has twice settled his administration a/c of sd decedents estate before comrs copies of which are here filed as part of this ansr. He paid to the best of his recollection debts in said estate to over $900.00 as will appear by the a/c settled as aforesaid. He also sold the land of said decedent as comr. under a decree of the court & has paid out the proceeds to the distributees as same he well knows he has overpaid and he doubts not the Plfs have been overpaid by him & if so he asks a purse for such ex_ of the items in the a/c A they were all paid before the marriage of the two pltf's except the $10 paid the male Pltf for which his rect is filed. This debt is confident he withholds not one cent from sd Pltf's to which they are entitled nor had he ever any wish to withhold one cent. On the contrary he would much rather have given the female Pltf his unfortunate niece something than to have withheld or taken from her one cent. & he is much astonished at the charge in Pltf's bill that they have recd but $10 & that their rights amounted to so large a sum. he avers he has ____ them justice & has always been particular in endeavouring to keep sd female Pltf among her own relatives or with some good family & on the cheapest ____ he could Did not know until he is now so advised he ought to have had a committee appointed by the court to take care of & manage her present pecuniary affairs & denying all fraud or any attempt of the kind he prays to be dismissed & to recover his costs expended &c

This day Benjamin Wright personally appeared before me a justice of the peace in & for the county aforesaid & made oath that the above answer in Chancery contains the truth to the best of his knowledge & belief given under my hand this 4th day of March 1834

Fred E. Annspaugh J.P."

The gist of the dispute related to whether Frances was weak minded or not and whether Benjamin Wright could have arranged for her board in return for her labor. That issue generated a number of depositions.

The first deposition in File 60 was of Edward Sinclair on March 31, 1834, who said that Frances was able bodied, but of a contrary disposition:

"The deposition of Edward Sinclair of lawful age taken by consent of parties both being present in the Eagle Tavern in Liberty this 31 day of March 1834 to be read as evidence on the trial of William Glover & wife suit against Benjamin Wright & others (& also before the Commissioner of same court) depending in the circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery (on its Chancery side of Bedford County said deponent being duly sworn sayeth.

I have been acquainted with Frances Glover, the wife of William Glover (late Frances Wright), for about thirty years past. I always thought if she had her fortune in her own hands, it could have been got from her very lightly - but I cannot say certainly.

Ques - by defendant Benj. Wright - From your knowledge of said Frances Wright, do you, or not, suppose she was of such a contrary disposition, that it would have been difficult to get a home for her in a neighborhood in which she was known ans - I cannot say whether it would have been difficult or not - do not know that it was ever tried.

ques. by same - What would you have taken her in to your family & kept her one year, for. anr.

anr - If I had _____ for such a woman, I would have taken her for something like $20 year.

Ques. by William Glover - was she an able bodied woman? - could she work? - if so, what kind of work could she do?

ans - She was an able bodied woman - as common I have seen her working, spinning cotton, working in the cornfield with hoe - she was a tolerably good hand, when in a good humor - but when in an ill humor, she was of no account - she was young, when I saw her working in the cornfield.

And further the deponent says not.

William Lawhorne Deposition:

"The deposition of William Lawhorne a witness on the part of the plaintiffs of lawful age taken at the office of the commissioner of the circuit superior court of Law Chancery for Bedford County on Monday the 15th day of December 1834, to be read as evidence in a suit depending in said court, wherein William Glover & wife are pltfs. and Benjamin Wright adm. of John Wright decd. in deft. Ans. I have lived within two or three miles of Frances Glover for the last twenty years. and have been acquainted with her for more than that time.

Ques. by same. Could a situation have been procured for the said Frances Glover in a decent family, where she might have been clothed & boarded for her labor?

_____ I should have been willing to take her on those terms & I should consider that since the death of her father, her labor has been always worth her victuals & clothes.

Ques. by Deft. Were you well acquainted with the said Frances Glover's situation at the time she lived with Francis Franklin & Achilles Nichols and do you know that she was sickly at that time?

Ans. I never heard she ever was.

William Lawhorne"

John Smelsor Deposition:

"The deposition of John Smelsor a witness on behalf of the plaintiffs of lawful age, taken at the same time & place as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne, & to be read as evidence in the same suit. being sworn deposeseth & saith:

Ques. by pltf. Were you at the sale of the perishable property of the late John Wright?

Ans. I was.

Ques by same. State who bought the tobacco. and how it was sold?

Ans. The tobacco was sold before it was stripped - hanging in the house - and was purchased by a man named Nichols for $50 - and not being able to give security as it was said, it was sold again, and I became the purchaser for $36.

Ques. by same. State the quantity and quality of the tobacco - and the price you got for it?

___ think there was about 2000 weight in all. I put some of it with some other tobacco ___ and I got $8 in crops(?) for the hogshead. I suppose I put in this hogshead about 1000 weight of the tobacco, I bought at Wright's sale. The balance I sold, for about 16/ pr cwt - as well as I can recollect. This last however had been moulded in the house after I purchased & before I took it way. It was all tolerable good tobacco when I stripped. all about equally good but some of it, as stated above, was injured before I prized it.

Ans. I do

Ques. by same. Did you see any thing else, which was not sold upon fair terms?

John Smelsor"

Ques. by pltf. Are you acquainted with Frances Glover, the female plaintiff in this case? if so, state how long you have been acquainted with her?

Ans. I have been acquainted with her, I suppose, 30 or 40 years past.

Ques same. Could a situation have been procured for her since the death of her father in a decent family, where she might have been clothed & boarded, for her labor.

Ans. I cannot say - but I consider that since the death of her father her own labor has always been worth her victuals & clothes.

Ques. by Deft. Were you acquainted with said Frances Glover at the time she lived with her mother, Francis Franklin, and Achillis Nichols? and did you not understand that at that time she was sickly?

Ans. I was - but never heard she was sickly. I lived within a mile of her. I thought she was as healthy as any of the family or more so.

Ques. by deft. Do you know, or have you any reason to believe that in making contracts for board, Benjn Wright ever consulted her:- or that she ever authorised him to do so:-

Ans. I do not know that he did consult her - or that she authorised him to do so-

Ques. by deft. Was it not the family of John Wright at the time of his death for a long time afterwards - very sickly-

Ans. I believe the fever was in the family - a negro woman & a negro man were said to be sick at the sale-

Robert Lancaster"

Nathaniel Newsom Deposition:

"The deposition of Nathaniel Newsom - a witness called on by the plaintiffs of lawful age, taken at the same time & place and to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith

Ques. by plff. are you acquainted with Francis Glover, the female deft in the suit-

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for 10 or 12 years-

Ans. I do not think that such a situation could have been procured for her, on those terms, in the neighborhood - I think that since her father's death, if she would have done as she ought to do her own ___ always been worth her victuals & clothes - but she has been represented to me - and I believe it to be true - a woman of a dreadful temper - and will do only what she pleases - & when she pleases-

Ques. by deft. Would you have taken her in your family for $50 pr year?

Ans. I would not have taken her on any terms - tho' as I said she was able to work, if she would.

Ques. by same. Do you think she was capable of transacting her own business:-

Ans. I should hardly think she was capable of taking care of property as it ought to be taken care of. She was over 21 years of age at the death of her father - as I suppose-

Ques. by same. was not the family of John Wright, at the time of his death, & for a long time afterward, in a very sickly situation?

Ans. They were sickly after his death. I don't recollect that the female plaintiff was sick at that time. I have lived in a half or three quarters mile of them & never heard that she was sickly-

Nath. Newsom"

William Jordan Deposition:

"The deposition of William Jordon - a witness called on by the plaintiffs - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place - & to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing depositions of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith-

Ques. by Pltf. How long have you been acquainted with Francis Glover the Female pltf? Do you know, or not that a situation in a decent family, could have been procured for her since her father's death - where she could be clothed & boarded for her labor?

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for four years. I think that since her father's death, her own labor has always been worth her victuals & clothes. I do not know whether a situation could have been procured for in a decent family, for her victuals & clothes, or not. Frances Glover frequently told me, before her marriage, that she thought hard of Benjamin Wright, for paying for her board, when she was able to get her living by her labor. I have been in her house since her marriage, and found her a decent housekeeper - much better than I expected.

Ques. by deft. Do you not think that if she had property in her hands, she might be very easily cheated out of it?-

Ans. Not very easily, I think-

William Jordon"

William Durrett Deposition:

"The deposition of William Durrett - a witness called on by the plaintiffs - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place, & to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith-

Ques by plff How long have you been acquainted with Frances Glover, the female pltf?- if so state, whether a situation might not have been procured for her since her father's death, in a decent family where she might have been clothed & boarded for her labor?-

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for five years. It hink her labor was worth her victuals & clothes. She complained to me that Francis Franklin $30 a year for board. I told her I would keep her for $18. She came to my house afterwards, and staid one year & five months. Mr. Wright paid me $18 for the one year of the time - & the five months, I kept her for her labor, which I think was worth her support.

Ques. by deft. Did she not consent to come to your house, and that I should pay her board-?

Ans. She said her uncle Benj: Wright was to pay her board -and I knew I was to get pay from Mr. Wright.

Ques. by same. Did I not send to Frances Glover, a calico dress by you about four years ago?-

Ans. You did - I think it was worth $2:10.

Wm Durrett"

William St. Clair Deposition:

"The deposition of William St. Clair - a witness called on by the plaintiff - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place _____ the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn deposed & saith:

How long have you been acquainted with Frances Glover, the female pltf?- if so state, whether since the death of her father, a situation in a decent family might not have been procured for her, where she might have been boarded & clothed for her labor:-

Ans. I have been acquainted with her more or less since the year 1812,- I lived at her father's in that year, nine months - she was then, a hearty, healthy young woman, and able, by her labor to maintain herself - since her father's death I have not known much about her - until she went to Mr. Durrett's to live. I saw her several times, while she was at Mr. Durrett's - and she looked as though she was able to make her support

Ques. by deft. When you lived at John Wrights, did you consider Frances Glover capable of transacting her own business?-

Ans. I did not think she had as much sense as common. I do not know that she would have wasted property, if left to her management.

Ques. by plff. Did you think that Frances performed as much service for the family as the other girls:-

Ans. I do not know that there was any difference. Some of the rest might have been more handy at some things than she was - and she might have been more handy at some others than they-

William St Clair"

Elias James Deposition:

"The deposition of Elias James - a witness called on by the defendant - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place, & to be read as evidence in the same cause, as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith-

A report of the commissioner in File 60 was filed sometime after March 1, 1835, indicating an amount due from Benjamin Wright to the plaintiffs, but a further notation at the end of the report indicated that the suit was compromised for $50:

"The Commissioner at the request of the plff. reports that this case has been compromised and that the defendant is to pay the plaintiff fifty dollars & the costs of the suit."

The Division and Allotment of the land of 1826 John Wright dated November 8, 1826, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 6/348 and set forth above provided the name of his wife, Susannah. Mrs. Doris Hardwick was the first to identify 1826 John Wright's wife as Susannah Hudnall.

Although there is a listing in Amherst County Marriage Bonds of the issuance of a marriage bond to John Wright and Susanna Bibb on October 9, 1789, at Amherst County with William Bibb as surety, the Revolutionary War pension information set forth above means that this was not the marriage of 1826 John Wright. The Journal of the House of Delegates dated November 28, 1793, stated that 1826 John Wright had "a wife and five small infants" at that time. It is highly improbable that John Wright and his wife could have produced five small children in four years, unless there were children from a prior marriage. The John Wright who married Susanna Bibb was the son of 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County. Mrs. Hardwick's evidence for Susannah Hudnall is as follows.

First, although no marriage bond has yet been found for John Wright and Susannah Hudnall, the Will of William Hudnall dated January 31, 1813, and probated on February 22, 1813, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/81 referred to his daughter Susannah Wright.

Second, the Douglas Register listed the birth of Susannah Hudnall, daughter of William Hudnall and Frances Smith, on September 13, 1758, at Goochland County.

1826 John Wright was born on August 1, 1759, at Goochland County. The ages are appropriate for a marriage and the families obviously lived in the same area.

Third, Susannah (Hudnall) Wright had a sister named Franky and 1826 John Wright named one of his daughters Franky.

Fourth, there are several other inter-family connections. 1826 John's daughter Catherine married John St. Clair. Their son Joseph St. Clair married Lucinda McGhee, whose stepmother was Susannah (Hudnall) McGhee, the daughter of John Hudnall. John Hudnall's second wife was Frances Miles McGhee, sister of Lucinda (McGhee) St. Clair's father James McGhee. James McGhee's mother was Frances Saunders, a sister of David Saunders. A David Saunders signed as an attorney in fact in one of the powers of attorney signed by 1826 John Wright for his pension. All of these connections suggest relationships between the Hudnall and Wright families.

Fifth and conclusively, there is a family identification in the case of Glover v. Wright, File 60, Bedford County Superior Court of Law and Chancery. In the deposition of John Hudnall dated January 8, 1835, set forth above, he stated that Frances (Wright) Glover, the daughter of 1826 John Wright, was his niece. John Hudnall was a son of William Hudnall and the executor of his will. This evidence seems to clearly establish Susannah Hudnall as the wife of 1826 John Wright.

Since 1826 John Wright and Susannah (Hudnall) Wright had five infants in November 1793 and 1826 John Wright first appeared in the Bedford County Personal Property Tax List in 1788, their marriage probably occurred sometime before 1788. Since 1826 John was born in 1759 and if he were at least 18 years of age when married, the date of marriage would also be probably after 1777.

DAR Application 557504 for Doris (Campbell) Hardwick dated March 17, 1986, stated that John Wright was a son of John Wright and Mary (Pierce/Pace) Wright, was born on August 1, 1759, at Goochland County, Virginia, married Susannah Hudnall before 1790 at Virginia, and died before November 8, 1826, at Bedford County, Virginia, that Susannah (Hudnall) Wright was born on September 13, 1758, at Goochland County, Virginia, and died after 1828 at Bedford County, Virginia, and that John Wright and Susannah (Hudnall) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Franky (Wright) Glover,
- 2) Catherine "Kitty" (Wright) (St. Clair) Wright, born about 1790 at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 3) Sophia (Wright) Wheeler,
- 4) Archibald Wright,
- 5) Polly M. (Wright) Franklin,
- 6) Nancy (Wright) Nichols, and
- 7) John or Jack Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1826 John Wright of Bedford County and Susannah (Hudnall) Wright were the following:

- 1) Franky (Glover) Wright, born probably before November 28, 1793, and before 1804 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Catherine "Kitty" (Wright) (St. Clair) Wright, born about 1787 or 1790 at Virginia,
- 3) William S. Wright, born on March 10, 1789, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) Sophia (Wright) Wheeler, born probably before 1795,
- 5) Archibald Wright, born between 1795 and 1804 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 6) Mary "Polly" (Wright) Franklin, born about 1800 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 7) Jack Wright, and
- 8) Nancy (Wright) Nichols.

a. Franky (Wright) Glover And Her Husband William Glover

Franky (Wright) Glover was a daughter of 1826 John Wright of Bedford County and Susannah (Hudnall) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>, 1826 John<sup>3</sup>)

The Journal of the House of Delegates dated November 28, 1793, stated that John Wright then had "a wife and five small infants" indicating that Franky Wright was probably born before November 28, 1793. Since 1826 John right resided in Bedford County all of his life, the place of birth of Franky Wright was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The Division and Allotment of the estate of 1826 John Wright dated February 15, 1830, and filed at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 7/297 listed Franky Wright as one of his children:

"Dr. To Blnd due Estate

Decr. 1829 $474.11

To amt. of Franky Wrights property, given by her

Sometime about August 23, 1833, at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court of Law and Chancery File 60, William Glover and Frances (Wright) Glover filed suit against Benjamin Wright, as administrator of the estate of John Wright, for funds due to her as a distributee of the estate. This case has been set forth above in connection with 1826 John Wright of Bedford County and is given here again for convenience of references:

"To the honorable the Judge of the circuit Superior court of Law and chancery for the County of Bedford.

The bill of complaint of William Glover and Frances his wife late Frances Wright of the county of Bedford respectfully represents -

That John Wright late of said county the Father of your oratrix departed this life some time in the year 1826 intestate leaving a considerable personal estate amounting in value to near two thousand dollars. Shortly after his death his son Benjamin Wright qualified as his executor in the court of said county, possessed himself of the estate, and sold it. Your orator and oratrix are entitled to the 1/7 part of said estate. They have only received $10. They pray that the said Benjamin Wright, Jeremiah Wade, Archibald Wade, & John St. Clair the securities in his administration bond be made parties defendant to this bill and compelled to answer all its allegation upon oath. That the said Benjamin Wright be compelled to Settle his administration accounts before the commissioner of this court: that he be also compelled to settle his accounts with the distributees so far as it may be necessary to ascertain the distributive proportion of your orator & oratrix, and that the defendants be compelled by the decree of this honbl. court to pay them whatever balances may be found to be in their hands of the said admr and grant your orator & oratrix such other & further relief as may be just & right & as in duty bound they will ever pray.

William Glover
Frances Glover"

A summons in File 60 was issued on August 23, 1833.

On March 4, 1834, Benjamin Wright answered the complaint in File 60 denying that he had failed to give Frances what was due to her and asserting that she was incapable of taking care of herself and that he had paid her funds out for board and care:

"The answer of Benjamin Wright to a bill in Chancery exhibited against him as Admr. of John Wright decd, and his securities (as such) by William Glover and Fanny his wife in Bedford Circuit Supr. Court of Law & Chancery. This deft saveing & reserveing to himself all benefit to all manner of Exception reservation &c & to the errors misstatements, insufficiencies &c for answer thereto or to so much thereof as materially concerns him. Sayeth he became admr of his decd brother at the request of some of the distributees & by appointment from the Court. He sold the personal estate after same was appraised the list of sales & the appraisement are both referred to the county Court Clerks office copies of which when procured shall be filed herewith as part of this answer. The _____ Plaintiff Fanny (late Fanny Wright from imbecility of mind has always been considered & was utterly incapable of taking prudent care of herself and manageing even the little effects she was entitled to in a proper & prudent manner and this respondent could not get any person to support & keep her in diet & clothes for her personal services and had always to pay whoever boarded her. He files herewith an account of what he has paid the plaintiffs and other persons for supporting boarding &c of the Female pltf Fanny marked A amounting to over $105.47 he also files herewith on part of this her acct rects for the Sums of $21.25 of $25 of $18.45 & the $10 of said account & expects to be able to prove all the other Sums in said a/c A. This respondent has twice settled his administration a/c of sd decedents estate before comrs copies of which are here filed as part of this ansr. He paid to the best of his recollection debts in said estate to over $900.00 as will appear by the a/c settled as aforesaid. He also sold the land of said decedent as comr. under a decree of the court & has paid out the proceeds to the distributees as same he well knows he has overpaid and he doubts not the Plfs have been overpaid by him & if so he asks a purse for such ex__ of the items in the a/c A they were all paid before the marriage of the two pltf's except the $10 paid the male Pltf for which his rect is filed. This deft is confident he withholds not one cent from sd Pltf's to which they are entitled nor had he ever any wish to withhold one cent. On the contrary he would much rather have given the female Pltf his unfortunate niece something than to have withheld or taken from her one cent. & he is much astonished at the charge in Pltf's bill that they have recd but $10 & that their rights amounted to so large a sum. he avers he has _____ them justice & has always been particular in endeavouring to keep sd female Pltf among her own relatives or with some good family & on the cheapest _____ he could Did not know untill he is now so advised he ought to have had a committee appointed by the court to take care of & manage her present pecuniary affairs & denying all fraud or any attempt of the kind he prays to be dismissed & to recover his costs expended &c

This day Benjamin Wright personally appeared before me a justice of the peace in & for the county aforesaid & made oath that the above answer in Chancery contains the truth to the best of his knowledge & belief given under my hand this 4th day of March 1834

The gist of the dispute related to whether Frances was weak minded or not and whether Benjamin Wright could have arranged for her board in return for her labor. That issue generated a number of depositions.

The first deposition in File 60 was of Edward Sinclair on March 31, 1834, who said that Frances was able bodied, but of a contrary disposition:

"The deposition of Edward Sinclair of lawful age taken by consent of parties both being present in the Eagle Tavern in Liberty this 31 day of March 1834 to be read as evidence on the trial of William Glover & wife suit against Benjamin Wright & others (& also before the Commissioner of same court) depending in the circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery (on its Chancery side of Bedford County said deponent being duly sworn sayeth.

I have been acquainted with Frances Glover, the wife of William Glover (late Frances Wright), for about thirty years past. I always thought if she had her fortune in her own hands, it could have been got from her very lightly - but I cannot say certainly.

Ques - by defendant Benj. Wright - From your knowledge of said Frances Wright, do you, or not, suppose she was of such a contrary disposition, that it would have been difficult to get a home for her in a neighborhood in which she was known ans - I cannot say whether it would have been difficult or not - do not know that it was ever tried.

ques. by same - What would you have taken her in to your family & kept her one year, for. anr.

anr - If I had _____ for such a woman, I would have taken her for something like $20 year.

Ques. by William Glover - was she an able bodied woman? - could she work? - if so, what kind of work could she do?

ans - She was an able bodied woman - as common I have seen her working, spinning cotton, working in the cornfield with hoe - she was a tolerably good hand, when in a good humor - but when in an ill humor, she was of no account - she was young, when I saw her working in the cornfield.

And further the deponent says not.

"The Deposition of Polly Franklin or Mary Franklin of lawful age taken in the House of Francis Franklin in the County Bedford agreeably to notice on the fifth day of Dec. 1834 to be read as evidence in the trial of a suit depending in Chancery in the Circuit Superior Court of law & Chancery for Bedford County. On December 15, 1834, in File 60 the deposition of William Lawhorne, John Smelsor, Robert Lancaster, Nathaniel Newsom, William Jordon, William Durrett, William St. Clair, and Elias James were taken:

William Lawhorne Deposition:

"The deposition of William Lawhorne a witness on the part of the plaintiffs of lawful age taken at the office of the commissioner of the circuit superior court of Law Chancery for Bedford County on Monday the 15th day of December 1834, to be read as evidence in a suit depending in said court, wherein William Glover & wife are plffs. and Benjamin Wright adm. of John Wright decd. in deft. Ans. I have lived within two or three miles of Frances Glover for the last twenty years. and have been acquainted with her for more than that time.

Ques. by same. Could a situation have been procured for the said Frances Glover in a decent family, where she might have been clothed & boarded for her labor?

____ I should have been willing to take her on those terms & I should consider that since the death of her father, her labor has been always worth her victuals & clothes.

Ques. by Deft. Were you well acquainted with the said Frances Glover's situation at the time she lived with Francis Franklin & Achilles Nichols and do you know that she was sickly at that time?

Ans. I saw her about at meeting during the time she lived with Franklin & Nichols but was not at the places where she lived. I saw no difference in her. I never heard she was sickly.

Quest by same. Do you think she was at any time capable of transacting her own business.

Ans. I cannot say. I always thought she had sense enough to do what she was told to do. And I believe she considered by the family to be weak minded.

Ans. I never heard she ever was.

William Lawhorne"

John Smelsor Deposition:

"The deposition of John Smelsor a witness on behalf of the plaintiffs of lawful age, taken at the same time & place as the foregoing deposition of William

Lawhorne, & to be read as evidence in the same suit. being sworn deposed & saith:

Ques. by pltf. Were you at the sale of the perishable property of the late John Wright?

Ans. I was.

Ques by same. State who bought the tobacco. and how it was sold?

Ans. The tobacco was sold before it was stripped - hanging in the house - and was purchased by a man named Nichols for $50 - and not being able to give security as it was said, it was sold again, and I became the purchaser for $36.

Ques. by same. State the quantity and quality of the tobacco - and the price you got for it?

___ think there was about 2000 weight in all. I put some of it with some other tobacco ___ and I got $8 in crops(?) for the hogshead. I suppose I put in this hogshead about 1000 weight of the tobacco, I bought at Wright's sale. The balance I sold, for about 16/ pr cwt - as well as I can recollect. This last however had been moulded in the house after I purchased & before I took it way. It was all tolerable good tobacco when I stripped. all about equally good but some of it, as stated above, was injured before I prized it.

Ques. by Deft. Don't you think the tobacco was sold fairly - and upon fair terms?

Ans. I do

Ques. by same. Did you see any thing else, which was not sold upon fair terms?

Ques. by plff. Are you acquainted with Frances Glover, the female plaintiff in this case? if so, state how long you have been acquainted with her?

Ans. I have been acquainted with her, I suppose, 30 or 40 years past.

Ques same. Could a situation have been procured for her since the death of her father in a decent family, where she might have been clothed & boarded, for her labor.

Ans. I cannot say - but I consider that since the death of her father her own labor has always been worth her victuals & clothes.

Ques. by Deft. Were you acquainted with said Frances Glover at the time she lived with her mother, Francis Franklin, and Achillis Nichols? and did you not understand that at that time she was sickly?

Ans. I was - but never heard she was sickly. I lived within a mile of her. I thought she was as healthy as any of the family or more so.

Ques. by deft. Do you know, or have you any reason to believe that in making contracts for board, Benjn Wright ever consulted her:- or that she ever authorised him to do so:-

Ans. I do not know that he did consult her - or that she authorised him to do so-

Ques. by deft. Was it not the family of John Wright at the time of his death for a long time afterwards - very sickly-

Ans. I believe the fever was in the family - a negro woman & a negro man were said to be sick at the sale-

Robert Lancaster"

Nathaniel Newsom Deposition:

"The deposition of Nathaniel Newsom - a witness called on by the plaintiffs of lawful age, taken at the same time & place and to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith

Ques. by plff. are you acquainted with Francis Glover, the female deft in the suit- : if so state how long:

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for 10 or 12 years-

Ans. I do not think that such a situation could have been procured for her, on those terms, in the neighborhood - I think that since her father's death, if she would have done as she ought to do her own ___ always been worth her victuals & clothes - but she has been represented to me - and I believe it to be true - a woman of a dreadful temper - and will do only what she pleases - & when she pleases-

Ques. by deft. Would you have taken her in your family for $50 pr year?

Ans. I would not have taken her on any terms - tho' as I said she was able to work, if she would.

Ques. by same. Do you think she was capable of transacting her own business:-

Ans. I should hardly think she was capable of taking care of property as it ought to be taken care of. She was over 21 years of age at the death of her father - as I suppose-

Ques. by same. was not the family of John Wright, at the time of his death, & for a long time afterward, in a very sickly situation?

Ans. They were sickly after his death. I don't recollect that the female plaintiff was sick at that time. I have lived in a half or three quarters mile of them & never heard that she was sickly-

Nath. Newsom"

William Jordan Deposition:

"The deposition of William Jordon - a witness called on by the plaintiffs - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place - & to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing depositions of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith-

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for four years. I think that since her father's death, her own labor has always been worth her victuals & clothes. I do not know whether a situation could have been procured for in a decent family, for her victuals & clothes, or not. Frances Glover frequently told me, before her marriage, that she thought hard of Benjamin Wright, for paying for her board, when she was able to get her living by her labor. I have been in her house since her marriage, and found her a decent housekeeper - much better than I expected.

Ques. by deft. Do you not think that if she had property in her hands, she might be very easily cheated out of it?-

Ans. Not very easily, I think-

William Jordon"

William Durrett Deposition:

"The deposition of William Durrett - a witness called on by the plaintiffs - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place, & to be read as evidence in the same cause as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeth & saith-

Ans. I have been acquainted with her for five years. It hink her labor was worth her victuals & clothes. She complained to me that Francis Franklin $30 a year for board. I told her I would keep her for $18. She came to my house afterwards, and staid one year & five months. Mr. Wright paid me $18 for the one year of the time - & the five months, I kept her for her labor, which I think was worth her support.

Ques. by deft. Did she not consent to come to your house, and that I should pay her board-?

Ans. She said her uncle Benj: Wright was to pay her board -and I knew I was to get pay from Mr. Wright.

Ques. by same. Did I not send to Frances Glover, a calico dress by you about four years ago?-

Ans. You did - I think it was worth $2:10.

Ans. I have been acquainted with her more or less since the year 1812,- I lived at her father's in that year, nine months - she was then, a hearty, healthy young woman, and able, by her labor to maintain herself - since her father's death I have not known much about her - until she went to Mr. Durrett's to live. I saw her several times, while she was at Mr. Durrett's - and she looked as though she was able to make her support

Ques. by deft. When you lived at John Wrights, did you consider Frances Glover capable of transacting her own business?-

Ans. I did not think she had as much sense as common. I do not know that she would have wasted property, if left to her management.

Ques. by plff. Did you think that Frances performed as much service for the family as the other girls:-

Ans. I do not know that there was any difference. Some of the rest might have been more handy at some things than she was - and she might have been more handy at some others than they-

Elias James Deposition:

"The deposition of Elias James - a witness called on by the defendant - of lawful age, taken at the same time & place, & to be read as evidence in the same cause, as the foregoing deposition of William Lawhorne - being sworn, deposeseth & saith-

Ques. by Deft. Were you at the sale of John Wright's property?- if so state whether a negro boy Dow was sold at the sale?

Ans. He was sold to Capt Bowles - and Capt. Bowles made some objection to taking him, and he was taken back by the admr the negro was said to be sick at the time, and had the appearance of being sick-he Became acquainted with Frances Glover shortly after she went to William Durrett's to live - and thinks she was able to get her living by her labor - frequently told Mr. Durrett it was wrong to take her money when she was able to maintain herself. could probably have managed house business - but not capable of collecting money and disposing of it prudently. Does not conceive her to be altogether an idiot, but approaching idiocy - has known her all her life - she being a niece of the witness.

Isaac Wright Deposition:

"The deposition of Isaac Wright of lawful age, taken at the same time & place & to be read as evidence in the same suit as the foregoing deposition of Greensbury Suttle - being sworn, says-

2nd. It is my wish that the present crop shall not be appraised with the balance of my estate as my children now living with me helped me to make it, and I wish the family to all live together and make use of it.

3rd. It is my wish and desire that my wife Catharine St Clair shall have the third of my personal estate and in addition to the above it is my wish that the land shall not be divided but remain in her possession during her natural life or widowhood and then revert back to my estate and be divided among my children- it is furthermore my wish that the money she may have on hand she may be privileged to keep as she made it.

4th. My son Joseph D. St Clair and Rhoda W. 5th. It is my wish and desire that my property shall not be publicly sold but be appraised and divided among my children agreeably to the appraisement

My two oldest daughters now living with and me viz. Nancy and Adline shall take their part and dispose of it as they may think proper

On about November 27, 1846, Anthony Wright and Catharine Wright filed suit in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 516 for an allocation to Catharine of her dower interest in the estate of John St. Clair:

"To the Honorable Norborne M. Taliaferro Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Bedford— Your orator and oratrix Anthony Wright and Catharine his wife of the said county respectfully represent unto your Honor - That some time in the early part of the year 1843 John St Clair, who was then the husband of your Oratrix departed this life after having first made and published his last will and testament; which was admitted to probat by the County Court of Bedford County at the May term of the said Court in the year 1843 a copy of which will Marked A is herewith filed and prayed to be taken and considered as a part of this bill - that the Testator by his said last will and testament appointed your oratrix the executrix and his son Joseph D St Clair Executor of his said last will & testament, and at the May term of the County Court of this County when the said will was admitted to probat your oratrix qualified as the Executrix, and [illegible] reserved to the Executor therein named to join in _____ probat whenever he thought proper, but he has hitherto failed to do so- From an inspection of the said will it will be seen by the 3rd Clause, that the Testator bequeaths to your Oratrix, the third of his personal estate, "and in addition directs that his land shall not be divided, but remain in the possession of your Oratrix during her natural life or widowhood, and then to revert back to his estate and be divided among his children". Since the death of the Testator your Oratrix has intermarried with her CoPlaintiff Anthony Wright. She avers that she never accepted or agreed to accept the land aforesaid during her life or widowhood in lieu of dower therein, and he is advised that her qualification of as Executrix was not an acceptance of the provision made for her in the said will, so as to deprive her of her right of dower and that it was not in the power of the said Testator to deprive her of her said rights and as the widow and relict of the said John St Clair she claims to be endowed of one third part of all the lands of which he did seized & possessed which he was seized during their coverture to which she has not relinquished her right of dower in the mode prescribed by law and to her thirds in the personal estate

Your Orator further represents that since his intermarriage with the female Plaintiff, he has purchased of Joseph. D. St Clair and Adaline St Clair two of the children and legatees of the Testator their entire interest in the lands belonging to the estate of the said Testator, as will be shown by the exhibits herewith filed marked B & C and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill, and that by virtue of said purchase he is entitled to two equal distributive shares in the land belonging to the estate of the said Testator. That the said Testator left the following children who by his last will & testament are entitled to distribution in his estate to wit: Joseph D St Clair, Adaline St Clair (whose [illegible] your Orator has purchased) Nancy St Clair, [illegible] Sally St Clair now Sally Patteson wife of James Patteson, Henry T. St Clair and Catharine St Clair the last two of whom are infants under the age of 21 years, also the following children all of whom are infants under 21 years of age who are entitled to one distributive share in right of their deceased Mother Rhoda St Clair who was a daughter of the Testator to wit. John H. Joseph - Mary E. Abram B. Susan F and Nancy C. St Clair - that the land cannot be divided without manifest injustice to the parties interested, each distributive share being worth greatly less than $300 - and according to the terms and provisions of the will it must be sold in order to carry out the intention of the Testator in equalizing the children, and indeed from the words of the will it is manifest that a sale of the land is contemplated upon the happening of either the marriage or death of your oratrix, your oratrix further states that although she has held the land since the death of the Testator yet she held it in her character of Executrix and the children of the Testator participated in the benefits and profits of the land - and she is advised that she had a right under the law to hold possession of the mansion house and the lands attached thereto until the heirs proceeded to have her dower assigned to her, which they altogether failed to do.

To the end therefore that Justice may be done in the premises and in as much as your orator and oratrix are remediless at law and only releivable in a Court of equity where matters of this kind are properly cognizable they pray that the said Joseph D St Clair Adaline St Clair, Nancy St Clair James Patteson & Sally his wife, Henry T. St Clair, Catharine St Clair, John H. St Clair, Joseph St Clair Mary E. St Clair, Abram B. St Clair Susan F. St Clair and Nancy C St Clair the last 8 of whom are infants under the age of twenty one years, may be made parties defendant to this suit and compelled to answer the allegations of this bill on oath - the adults [illegible] to be assigned them to defend their rights. May dower in the lands aforesaid & thirds in the personal estate aforesaid be assigned to your oratrix, and the premises considered may it please your Honor to decree that the land be sold and the proceeds distributed according to the rights of the parties interested, May Guardians ad litem be appointed for the infant defendants above named. Grant to your orator & oratrix the commonwealth writ of Subpoena Commanding &c, and Complete and general relief in the premises and as in duty bound they will ever pray.

And the said defendant saving and reserving to himself the benefit of all proper exceptions to the Complainants bill, for answer thereunto or unto such parts thereof as he is advised it is material for him to make answer unto answers and says - That he is one of the heirs and distributees of John St Clair deceased, and as such is entitled to one equal distributive share of the land in the bill of the Complainant mentioned - he admits that the land is not worth the sum of $300 to each distributive share, and he is willing and thinks it would be manifestly to the interest of all the parties interested that a sale of the same should take place - he is also willing that his mother the wife of the complainant should have her dower assigned her therein - and having answered such parts of the bill as he is advised it is material for him to answer he prays to be hence dismissed &c

In her letter dated July 6, 1998, Janette Williamson enclosed a copy of an article titled "War Record of T. R. Williamson" which stated the following:

"I volunteered July 22, 1861, in the Twenty-eighth Virginia Regiment, Company G., under Captain A. L. Minter. Colonel Robert Preston was my Colonel. I was mustered in at Manassas, Virginia, July 22, 1861. I was in that Regiment until the close of the war. I went out to make a soldier, to stand hardships and to do my duty. I never was excused by the doctor during the war. I never was on extra duty. The first fight I was in was Williamsburg. We went on our retreat from Norfolk. At the rear guard the enemy overtook us. At Williamsburg our troops lay in a hollow. The Yankees reinforced along a fence on the hillside. The fight lasted quite a while, but they overshot us and we shooting up the hill, it seemed we killed all of them for they lay along the fence piled upon each other. They all seemed to be shot in the head. That day they captured our Colonel three times but we got him back every time. When dark came we moved out very easily. I might tell you something of our march. Before the fight we went down in the valley of Virginia several times. One time we thought the Yankees were coming in by the way of Alexandria, and we went there to meet them. Then taking our stand on Mason and Munson hills we all seemed eager for a fight. At midnight orders came around that we were surrounded by 10,000 Yankees and would have to cut our way out by daylight. I can't tell just how all of us felt, though I thank God I never was scared by numbers or never excited. We stood in line till daylight but no Yankees came. We then moved back to Annadale. I was in the Wilderness when we captured a Colonel. When we were bringing him out we asked him if he would whip us; he said: "No. Men who fight like you can't be whipped, but we will wear you out." I was at Seven Pines. My brother was wounded there. A ball passed through my hair and made my head sore for several days, was wounded at the second battle of Manssas. The ball passed through my right arm lodging under my shoulder blade. I was also in the battle of Gettysburg. Charged in General Pickett's Division. General Garnett was our commander. I will tell you something hard to believe, not seeing it for yourself. We waded the Potmoac river as we went to Gettysburg. There we lay all night in a church. The next day we marched out to Seminary Ridge and were face to face with the Yankees. They were on the other hill called Cemetery Ridge. The next day we marched out to the battlefield with a peach orchard on our left and two mountains on our right. They were called Little Round Top and Big Round Top, with our brigade stretching from the peach orchard to Little Round Top, some three fourths of a mile in front of us. There was a fine rock fence in front of us much in the shape of a new moon. Between us and the fence was a public road. The enemy had placed their artillery as thick as they dare in the fence. Our artillery was just in line before us. Their cannonading lasted two hours. I must say that the earth was shaking. General Garnett was in command of our brigade when he gave the command and said: "Get ready for a charge in the rear." I never saw men more calm than on that day. I was nearest the left wing. We had four regiments in line on the field. I could cast my eye down the line and it was dressed as nice as a dress parade. The enemy shelled us from the time we started until we reached the road. I would look down the line and see at any time from four to six men up in the air where the cannon balls would knock them. General Garnett was killed outright. When near the rock fence while the enemy was slaying us, Sargent Wilson passed up the line saying: "Men, put your trust in the Lord. He is all that can do you any good." Just at that time he was struck in the side with a grape shot. My brother and some one took him to the hospital. I could feel the heat from their guns in my face all the time. When we reached the fence I looked down the fence and saw only two men left. One of them fell as I looked around. Captain Specard was fighting the Yankees across the fence and killing them like snakes. I threw down my gun and started to run to the rear. They began halting me and shooting at me. I fell as though I were dead until all got still. Then I got up and started again, and they began halting and shooting. I made no stop, just kept going. They then opened fire upon me with grape shot, which threw dirt all over me. I fell again. After all was still I arose and started to find our regiment. I traveled until dark and stoooped with a man and his wife. The woman was the best Christian I have seen in all my life. I think she talked all night long. She had the right kind of religion. She gave my brother and myself our supper and breakfast and all the clothes we could carry. God bless all good ladies such as she was. Our regiment numbered four hundred and fifty men for duty when we overtook them the next day. On the next day there were only seventy-four of us, the rest having been killed or captured. I felt just like we were a family of children that had lost all their friends. We had no one to give us a word of cheer or advice. They sent a one armed Major to take charge of us. We then came to the Potomac, which we had waded as we went over. It seemed to me that all the ponds above had been turned loose, the river was so full of water. Our men had stretched ropes across the river. We had flat boats to cross over in. When across we marched some miles till we came to a swift stream of water that came up to our waists. We had to hold to each other to break the current. There came a man riding through and I caught his horse's tail and went over safely. Then taking our guns and cartridge boxes we put them in a boat and got them across safely. When across we formed a skirmish line in the valley. There lay a heavy line of cavalry in front of us on the mountains. We started to them. Between us and them was a fine open field and I never saw in all my life such a field of dewberries. While it might seem strange that men would think of stopping and eating berries, we just ate as though the war was over. At length orders came down the line, "Rally on the left." At that order we moved to the left in double quick. The Yankees were coming down a hollow to get in our rear. We met them and gave them a happy time until dark. Then we fell back to the Wilderness where we lay all night. But those dewberries were fine. We had no more trouble until we got to Richmond. After we had been there some time and had recruited up, the Yankees had come near on the northeast of town. They had six pieces of artillery and were shelling us every day. The Captain sent our regiment to drive them away. We went out on a hill and had to go down a long slant and across a hollow, then climb another steep hill. It was so steep we had to hold to bushes and shrubs to get up. When up there wagon tracks were found which had been washed out enough so men could hide in them. The battery was just across that field. When in line we started to charge that battery. On our left in the woods their cavalry were in line ready for us and also those wagon routes full of men. We just jumped them and on we went. When halfway across the field there came the cavalry, but we were well drilled for them. We formed a hollow square and waited for them. When we fired upon them their horses turned back. We captured their guns and went back and took the men in the wagon routes. Then we had some peace around the city.

I must tell you something of our retreat from Petersburg. We lay all night at Hatcher's Run. At daylight we ran into the enemy's skirmish lines. They had cut all the timber and made a clear way for their cannons. My gun got so it wouldn't shoot. I was standing by a large tree trying to get it in order and the Yankees shelled me heavily. A shell loaded with cast balls burst behind me and one of them struck me in the leg. I started out but soon got so I couldn't walk. I was taken to our field hospital. Just then orders came for all who could walk to leave there. I got me two boards and used them for crutches. We got a flat boat and started across the river. There was a rock dam across the river to ferry over wood. When half way across the boat turned down the river and over the dam it went and struck an island. The men all got out and pulled the boat to the other side and left me alone. I made my way to the top of a hill and found a road leading to Petersburg. I lay down under a large cedar tree. Along in the night our wagons came along and I got into one of them. Along toward daylight I found my brother and his wagon. Soon orders came to take out our horses and escape. For a mile our wagon trains were on fire. My brother got me on one horse and himself on the other and we went to Farmersville, where he put me in the hospital and returned to his command. That was three days before the surrender. The ball lay in my leg two or three weeks.

You say, "How did you stand it? How did you live?" Simply by the help and mercy of God. I learned to fear not Him that kills the body, that hath no more that He can do; but to fear Him that after He has killed hath power to cast into hell. Yes trust in Him."

The 1812 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Wm. Wright with the following household:

Persons Names Owing Taxable Property last day of February 1812	Whites over 16 yrs old	Blacks over 16	Blacks over 12 &amp; under 16	Horses Mares Colts &amp;c	Other Taxable Property
Wm. Wright	1			1

The similarity of the property owned in 1811 indicates that this was probably 1876 William S. Wright.

The 1813 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed William S. Wright with the following household:

Date When Lists	Persons Names owning property 1813	White males over 16	Blacks over 16 years	Blacks 12 & Under 16	Horses colts mares & Mules

The listing of the middle initial "S" for this William Wright clearly identifies him as 1876 William S. Wright. The first certain appearance of William S. Wright in the 1813 Personal Property Tax List indicates that he was probably born before 1797.

On November 20, 1813, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 14/57 William S. Wright purchased a parcel of approximately 100 acres of land from 1826 John Wright of Bedford County and his wife Susannah:

As will be set forth below, the later sale of that same land was by William S. Wright and, therefore, identifies 1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio, as a son of 1826 John Wright of Bedford County and Susanna (Hudnall) Wright.

Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio, 1954, listed the gravestone of Rhoda Wright in the Auburn Cemetery with the date of death as June 3, 1880, age 88 years.

In her letter dated May 20, 1996, Mrs. Karen Piojda enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Rhoda R. Wright located in the Auburn Cemetery, near Samantha, Highland County, Ohio.

The 1880 Census for Allen County, Ohio, Marion Township listed W. G. Wright, a son of William S. Wright, and stated that W. G. Wright's father was born in Virginia.

The obituary of William S. Wright dated July 6, 1876, for his death on June 26, 1876, and more fully set forth above, stated that he was survived by a widow "in the 84th year of Rhoda's age". This would place Rhoda's date of birth between June 27, 1791, and July 7, 1792. The 1830 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed her age as between 30 and 40. The 1850 Census for Highland County, Ohio, listed her age as 58 and born in Virginia. The 1870 Census for Highland County, Ohio listed her age as 77 and born in Virginia. From this data it seems fair to conclude that Rhoda (Wright) Wright has born between December 20, 1791, and June 3, 1792, and in any event in 1791 or 1792.

The censuses clearly place her birth in Virginia, and since her father Anthony Wright was residing on a farm in Bedford County, Virginia, at that time, it seems fair to conclude that she was born in Bedford County.

On August 19, 1880, at Highland County, Ohio, Probate File 3392 Anthony G. Wright filed an Application for Letters Testamentary for the estate of William S. Wright:

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio, and Rhoda (Wright) Wright were the following:

- 1) Lucinda (Wright) Hansel or Hensel or Hansell, born on February 14, 1813, at Bedford County, Virginia,

A Portrait And Biographical Record Of Mercer And Van Wert Counties, Ohio, published in 1896, provided the following biography of William Greenberry Wright:

"W. G. Wright, an experienced farmer of Ridge township, Van Wert county, Ohio, and an ex-soldier, is a native of Virginia, and was born May 3, 1827. His parents, William S. and Rhoda R. Wright, had a family of eight children, who were named as follows: Lucinda, a resident of Missouri, and a widow of John Hensel; Winfield Scott and John H., deceased; Priscilla, wife of Elisha Johnson, of Clinton county, Ohio; William Greenberry, the subject of this sketch; Elizabeth, who resides in Missouri; James L., a physician, residing in the Argentine Republic, and Anthony G., of Highland county, Ohio. The parents of these children came to Ohio in 1835 and settled in Highland county, where the father followed farming. He had served in the war of 1812, and died in tranquility in the land which he had fought to preserve, in the eighty- eighth year, his life-partner having died in her eighty- fifth - both members of the Baptist church.

William Greenberry Wright passed the earliest part of his life on his father's farm in Highland county, Ohio, he having been about eight years of age when his parents came to this state. He was married, January 2, 1850, to Miss Louisa Manker, to which marriage were born the following children: Wesley T., who resides in Delphos, Ohio, and who is an active member of the republican party; V.H., a farmer of Van Wert county; Luella Belle, deceased; Eugenie, wife of Oliver Poland, mail agent on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Drayton railroad, with his residence near Delphos; Novada E., wife of Dr. William Roush, of Spencerville, Ohio; Lena, and two who died in infancy without being named. The mother of this family was also called to her final rest October 4, 1871.

February 10, 1863, W.G. Wright, our subject, enlisted for three years in the Thirteenth Ohio cavalry. He was wounded in the side by a rifle-ball at Petersburg, Va., and shortly thereafter was wounded in the knee; he was then detailed as recruiting officer at Cincinnati, his regiment having suffered severe losses, and was finally discharged at Amelia C.H., Va., by reason of the close of the war. On returning home he re-engaged in farming and June 13, 1872, married Miss Martha R. Judkins, daughter of Franklin and Caroline A. Judkins, early settlers of Highland County, Ohio, who died, respectively, in 1863 and March 10, 1885. To this second marriage of Mr. Wright have been born the following named children: Birdie Delle, Loutellis, Mabel Rosaline, Cletus Orlin, Lillie A., Rhoda D., and Goldie - the last named meeting a sad death by being drowned in a cistern. Beside the children here named, there were four who died unchristened.

In 1882 Mr. Wright came to Van Wert county and purchased a farm of 100 acres on the Ridge road, about three and one-half miles east of the city of Van Wert, and this farm is one of the best improved in the township. In politics Mr. Wright is a democrat, and in 1893 was elected trustee of his township, in which there have been graded sixteen miles of gravel roads under his management. It may here be recorded that Mr. Wright is a man of note as a deer hunter, and many trophies of his skill and prowess, and marksmanship adorn his dwelling. The apiary has also claimed his attention for more than forty-five years, and a card attached to the gable end of his dwelling house bears the inscription, "Hunters' Home - Home of the Bee." Mr. Wright is a Mason in good standing and Mrs. Wright is a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and socially the family mingle with the best of Ridge township's citizens."

The service of the 13th Ohio Cavalry can be traced through the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies.

On May 30, 1864, the regiment was at Port Royal on its way to the Army of the Potomac with only 400 of its men mounted and those without sabres or revolvers. On June 4, 1864, they were ordered to report to General Gregg of the Second Cavalry Division to be dismounted and their horses given to veterans. On June 7, 1864, the regiment had 630 officers and men present for duty and was ordered to White House depot. On June 10, 1864, Inspector-General Ed. Schriver reported as follows:

"Besides the above commands, I looked at the One hundred and thirty-second Ohio National Guard, 100 days' men, and the Thirteenth Ohio, dismounted cavalry. Troops more unfit for the field I never saw."

By June 9 the regimental strength was down to 479 officers and men and by June 25 it was down to 405.

On June 26, 1864, the regiment was ordered to join General Ambrose E.
Burnsides of the Ninth Army Corps and on June 29 the regiment was assigned to the Third Division of General Orlando Wilcox, First Brigade of Brig. Gen John F. Hartranft, with Lt. Col. Noah H. Hixon commanding the Regiment. The regiment was then moved into the trenches in front of Petersburg.

On July 30, 1864, the 13th Ohio Cavalry (Dismounted) was part of the Battle of the Crater at Petersburg, Virginia. A tunnel had been dug from the Union entrenchments to the Confederate entrenchments and filled at the end with explosives. The plan was to explode a hole in the Confederate lines and then march through to force a battle in the open. The Official Records give a detailed report of the First Brigade:

"Hdqrs. First Brig., Third Div., Ninth Army Corps,
Before Petersburg, Va., August 5, 1864.

Captain: In obedience to orders received from the general commanding the division, I moved forward at about 5 a.m. on the morning of the 30th of July - the Twenty-seventh Michigan, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, One hundred and ninth New York, Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, and Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted), of my brigade, closely following the First Division - to the crater caused by the explosion of the mine. After passing into the crater, which was filled with the troops of the advance division, I pushed my troops to the left as far as possible, occupying that part of the enemy's work not blown up. The length of this part was about ninety feet, and contained two guns, which were partially covered with dirt by the explosion. I immediately ordered the dirt to be removed from the guns, which were afterward served by men from the Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery and men of my command, under the direction of Sergt. W. Stanley, of the Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery. The regimental organizations were more or less broken up by reason of the irregularity of the surface of the crater, the mass of troops, and the enfilading fire of the enemy from the right and left by artillery and infantry. Repeated and most determined efforts were made by the commanding officers and officers of my staff to form the troops for farther advance, but without success. The captured gun on the left was fired to the left along the line of the enemy's pits with some effect. The colored troops now advanced through the crater, passing to the right, and formed line for advance, when the enemy charged the colored troops as well as the pits previously occupied by the white troops, and our troops on the right gave way. The enemy soon reoccupied his pits to the right of the crater. In this attack of the enemy he suffered severely from the right captured gun by Stanley, who gave them canister. Soon after the enemy made another assault in one line of about 500 strong, heading for the crater, and coming direct from the front. My men gallantly mounted the works and poured their shot into their line, which, together with the canister given them by Sergeant Stanley, almost annihilated the column, so that but few of the enemy came up, and they only for protection.

The ammunition was now about expended, but the want was soon supplied upon reporting to the general commanding the division. The men were now fast becoming exhausted, and the wounded were suffering for want of water; but little was procured, the enemy's sharpshooters having full command of the ground between the crater and our first line of works. At about 12.30 p.m. an order was received from General Burnside to retire as soon as practicable and prudent, the commanding officers on the line to counsel and determine as to the time of evacuation. The order was indorsed by Brigadier-Generals Bartlett, Griffin, and myself, and sent back to Major-General Burnside. It was thought impossible to withdraw the troops without great slaughter, the enemy enfilading the ground across which the troops would have to pass with artillery and infantry.

While we were awaiting further instructions the enemy made another attack, bearing immediately upon the work occupied by my men. As soon as I discovered this I passed the word to retire, but the men did not all have time to make their escape. Lieutenant Bean, one of my staff officers, communicated with General Bartlett in the crater, that the order was to retire, and that the left was then falling back.

It is with deep regret that I have to announce the death of Sergt. W. Stanley, Company D, Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery, who volunteered to work the captured guns, and performed his duty well to the last. I deem it my duty to make honorable mention of the Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers, Lieutenant-Colonel Wright commanding; One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, Colonel Catlin commanding; Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Volunteers, Colonel Harriman commanding; Thirty-eighth Wisconsin Volunteers, Captain Ferris commanding; Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted), Lieutenant-Colonel Hixon commanding; Eighth Michigan Veteran Volunteers, Major Belcher commanding, and the Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers, Colonel Bolton commanding. My loss in regimental commanders was severe - Colonel Catlin, Colonel Bolton, Lieutenant-Colonel Stilson, One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, and Lieutenant-Colonel Wright were severely, and Captain Ferris mortally, wounded.

I cannot refrain from noticing especially the conduct of the officers of my staff - Captain Bertolette, assistant adjutant-general; Captain Shorkley, acting assistant inspector general; Captain Doyle, provost marshal; Lieutenants Bean and Watts, aides-de-camp - for their promptness and valor in pushing forward the troops as well as in holding the enemy's work to the last moment. Captain Shorkley was severely wounded, and lost his right hand.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J.F. Hartranft,

Brigadier-General, U.S. Volunteers, Commanding.
Capt. Robert A. Hutchins,

Asst. Adjt. Gen., Third Division, Ninth Army Corps."(16)

The loss in the 13th Ohio Cavalry was severe with 83 men killed, wounded, or missing.

From August 18 through 21, 1864, the battle of the Weldon Railroad was fought and the regiment was lightly engaged and suffered one killed and 6 wounded.

On September 30, 1864, the regiment was again engaged in attacks on the Confederate lines and this time, at the battle of Poplar Springs Church with the brigade under the command of Colonel Samuel Harrison, the regiment did less well. The official division report stated that:

"The left wing did not behave so well; the Thirteenth Ohio (dismounted) Cavalry were thrown into panic and part of them fled ingloriously from the field, breaking the Thirty- eighth Wisconsin, which latter, however, were soon reformed in the woods in rear."

Thereafter, from October 27 to 28, 1864, the regiment was again lightly engaged at the battle of Boydton Plank Road, suffering 3 wounded.

On November 9, 1864, the regiment was reported to have voted 133 for Lincoln and 65 for McClellan.

On December 13, 1864, the regiment was finally remounted and joined the Second Cavalry Division under Major General Gregg.

In April 1865 the regiment joined in the pursuit of General Lee's army, marching parallel and south of that army and attacking part of its supply train. On April 8, 1865, the regiment marched to Appomattox Court House and blocked the Confederate escape route to Lynchburg. On April 9, 1865, the regiment was attacked by the enemy, but held its position until the infantry arrived and forced General Lee and the Confederate Army to surrender.

The Official Records for the Division gave an overview of the Regiment's service as part of the First Brigade in July:

"The Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted) assigned to division
June 29, First Brigade.

July 1 - The division was in the trenches in front of Petersburg and remained there, defending the line and fortifying the position, until July 25, when one brigade (Humphrey's) was taken to the rear, on being relieved by a brigade of the Fourth Division, Ninth Army Corps (colored), Colonel Sigfried commanding.

July 26 - Humphrey's brigade (Second) was moved to the left of the army, on the Suffolk road, and occupied works held by the Second Corps.

July 29 - Humphrey's brigade (Second) withdrawn from the left and moved to the rear of the First Brigade.

July 30 - The division was engaged in the assault on the enemy's lines at the crater, supporting the First Division of the corps; carried a portion of the enemy's breast-works on the left of crater by a front attack and captured 100 prisoners; First Brigade dug up two pieces of artillery from the crater produced by the blowing up of the enemy's fort and turned them on the enemy. The division helped to repulse two attacks, losing quite heavily in killed and wounded. At 3 p.m. returned from works captured into our original lines by orders.

July 31 - One brigade (Second) is on the front line repairing damage done to our works by charging over them; First Brigade (Hartranft's) in camp in the rear."

The report of the brigade commander described the fighting at Weldon Railroad:

"Report of Brig. Gen. John F. Hartranft, U.S. Army, commanding First Brigade, of operations August 19-21.

Hdqrs. First Brig., Third Div., Ninth Army Corps,

August 30, 1864.

Captain: In obedience to orders from division headquarters my brigade left camp before Petersburg, Va., at 3:30 a.m. on the 19 instant and marched to Blick's house, on the Weldon railroad, arriving there at 8 a.m. I formed line in front of the Blick house, my left resting about 400 yards from the railroad, where I remained in support until 4 p.m., when an attack was made upon the line of the Fifth Army Corps, penetrating the right of General Crawford's division and some 700 or 800 yards to the front and right. My brigade was immediately formed, and advanced in the direction of this attack, until I met the enemy in line 150 yards distant in the corn-field at the edge of the woods, from which position the enemy had full view of the open space in front of and around the Blick house. My brigade was formed from right to left in the following order: Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Colonel Harriman commanding; Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, Lieutenant Colonel Pier commanding; Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, Captain Clark commanding; Twenty-seventh Michigan, Captain Cash commanding; One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, Captain Evans commanding, Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers, Major Hart commanding, and the Eighth Michigan Veteran Volunteers, Major Belcher commanding. The four left regiments were in the open field, and the three right regiments were under cover of the woods on the right of the corn-field. After the four regiments on the left were engaged, the right of the brigade kept advancing through the woods and soon met the enemy also advancing, and captured from them between 50 and 60 prisoners. The enemy in the open space were soon repulsed and fell back under a terrific musketry fire to the cover of the woods. The left of my brigade immediately advanced from 75 to 100 yards, and while they were still advancing the enemy rallied in the woods and made a second attack upon my line, coming within about seventy-five yards, but he was again successfully repulsed and retired to the cover of the woods. After the second repulse of the enemy the Second Brigade of this division came up in support, but was immediately ordered to the left. The troops of the First Division also came up about the same time from right and rear, and one brigade moved to my left. I now received orders to move to the left, along the edge of the woods, and connect with the right of the Second Brigade, which I did, the brigade of the First Division on my left moving to the right. Colonel Humphrey had advanced his brigade, and I was about to advance into the woods on his right, when the First Division was attacked by the enemy upon the same ground upon which he had been twice repulsed by my brigade, and I was ordered to the right in support. I moved along the edge of the woods until my right was within seventy-five yards of the left of the First Division, with my left resting about 100 yards from Crawford's right. I saw that the First Division was not heavily pressed, and soon afterward the firing from First Division ceased. When General Crawford advanced I advanced skirmishers and connected with him. It was now getting dark, and I received orders to advance my brigade into the woods and occupy the rifle-pits, which were about 200 yards from edge of the woods, and which had been occupied by General Crawford's division during the day. I immediately advanced, occupied the line designated, connecting with Crawford's division on the left. The First Division did not advance at this time, and a gap was left between the right of my line and left of First Division, which was closed up, however, during the night. During the night the pits were strengthened and the troops supplied with ammunition.

On the morning of the 20th I advanced a thin line of skirmishers, supported by a strong line, about 200 yards in the front of the main line, until the enemy's line of skirmishers was discovered. No shots were exchanged. During the day five regiments of the brigade were withdrawn to the original position occupied on the afternoon of the 19th, where we bivouacked for the night, leaving the Fifty-first Pennsylvania on the skirmish line, supported by the Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers.

At 5 o'clock on the morning of the 21st I moved my brigade, with exception of the Fifty-first and Twenty- seventh Michigan, which remained on the skirmish line, to a position on the left and in front of the Blick house, my right resting on the Ninth Massachusetts Battery and my left extending across railroad (two regiments being on left of the railroad) and resting on ____ Battery. Here I threw up a line of intrenchments, which was almost completed at 9.15 a.m., when the enemy attacked on the left of the Fifth Corps. When this attack was made one of General Ayres' brigades, of the Fifth corps, moved up to my line of works. At 10.30 the enemy attacked on my immediate front; the artillery opened upon him with full force. There was no infantry fire from my line except by a few sharpshooters on the right. The enemy was soon compelled to retire, owing to the murderous fire of our artillery, and about 25 or 30 prisoners came in on my front. The regiments on the line of skirmishers were obliged to retire with some loss.

I am pained to mention the loss of Maj. Horatio Belcher, commanding Eighth Michigan Volunteers, who was killed on the 19th. He was at the time suffering from a wound in right arm, received at Bethesda Church, June 3, and would not leave the field until after he received a third bullet wound, which caused his death. A braver, truer, and nobler soldier never lived.

Major Hart, commanding Fifty-first Pennsylvania, received three severe wounds while gallantly leading his regiment.

I am much indebted to Colonel Harriman, Thirty- seventh Wisconsin, for the valuable service rendered by him on the 19th.

The members of my staff - Capt. J.D. Bertolette, assistant adjutant-general; Capt. R. N. Doyle, provost- marshal; Capt. C. H. McCreery, acting assistant inspector- general; Lieutenants Watts and Bean, acting aides-de-camp, and Lieutenant Campbell, acting engineer officer - deserve particular mention for their coolness, bravery, and gallantry in the field, and I am much indebted to them for the valuable and efficient services they rendered me. Lieutenant Bean had his horse killed under him, and was himself severely wounded."

The full division report is as follows:

"Reports of Brig. Gen. Orlando B. Willcox . . . . .

Meantime, pursuant to General Parke's orders, the First Brigade, Col. Samuel Harriman, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, commanding, was formed on the left of the Pegram house and obliquely in rear of both the Second Division and Hartranft's brigade, with orders from me to support either, as the occasion should demand. One regiment (One hundred and ninth New York) of this brigade was posted on a road coming in rear from the southwest.

As soon as Potter's division became engaged I ordered the brigade to extend farther to the right as far as the Pegram house road so as to support General Potter. A moment afterward I received orders from General Parke to advance the reserve to the crest of the field toward the Second Division, and both brigades were ordered forward. Harriman was on the left and in front of the Pegram house, in an open field, and the Third Brigade, Col. N.B. McLaughlen, Fifty-seventh Massachusetts Volunteers, commanding, was in rear and in the woods. The orders were scarcely given before the Second Division troops had fallen back as far as Harriman's line, which now became engaged on its own ground.

The field sloping up toward the enemy gave them the advantage of ground, and Harriman's brigade soon began to give way. The right wing, consisting of the Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Eighth and Twenty-seventh Michigan, retired in good order to a fence on the left of the Pegram House, where these regiments halted, faced about, checked the farther advance of the enemy, and threw up hasty breast-works of rails, where they remained. The left wing did not behave so well; the Thirteenth Ohio (dismounted) Cavalry were thrown into panic and part of them fled ingloriously from the field, breaking the Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, which latter, however, were soon reformed in the woods in rear. McLaughlen's brigade was moving forward under my orders toward Harriman's line and rallying fugitives when Captain Wright, assistant adjutant general Second Division, rode up and requested me to send some troops to the right of the Pegram house. Here McLaughlen was put in position, connecting on the right with the Fifth Corps troops and on the left with Harriman's brigade, and opened fire on the enemy, checking his farther advance in this quarter of the field. Hartranft's brigade, in retiring on the left, had considerable skirmishing with the enemy, who drove his skirmishers across the swamp on his left and threatened his rear. But this brigade withdrew in excellent order and took position to the left and rear of Harriman's line. The division now occupied the front on the left of the Fifth Corps. Before dusk the enemy fell back. In the evening there was some firing on our right, but mostly from our own men. Pickets were thrown out and the rest of the troops withdrawn to a position in front of the Peebles house, the right about half a mile from the Pegram house and the left at the Clements house, and defenses thrown up. While leading the troops Lieut. Otis Fisher, Eighth U.S. Infantry, assistant commissary of musters of the division, fell mortally wounded near the Pegram house. He was ever brave and ready in action, high-toned and chivalrous, and his loss is sincerely mourned. Lieut. George Goodsell, Seventeenth Michigan Volunteers, assistant provost-marshal on my staff, also received a serious wound while zealously and gallantly engaged in carrying orders. My casualties for the day, already sent in, were as follows:

On the morning of October 1 the picket-line left out near the Pegram house was attacked in force, and withdrew to our immediate front, and the day was spent in digging rifle pits and slashing.

On the morning of the 2d, under orders from corps headquarters, I moved the division through the woods in line of battle, with the skirmishers, past the Pegram house to the Boisseau house, near which Hartranft's brigade on the right connected with Potter's division. McLaughlen occupied the center and Harriman the left connecting with Mott's division, Second Corps. A forward movement was first ordered from this point, and my skirmishers drove the enemy's pickets some distance. McLaughlen's brigade was advanced about 300 yards up the Boisseau house road, but the movement was countermanded, and the enemy advanced their skirmishers to the foot of the field of the Boisseau house. Their works were in plain sight and they used some artillery. During the demonstration on the enemy's works made by General Mott, a part of Harriman's brigade was moved to the left and occupied the ground vacated by a portion of Mott's troops, but no other assistance was called for. At 6 p.m. the division was withdrawn to a new line running toward the Peebles house, bearing westwardly, the right resting in rear of the Pegram house and connecting with the Second Division. Here intrenchments were thrown up. Casualties for the day were as follows: Third Brigade, enlisted men, killed, 1; wounded, 8; total 9.

On the morning of October 8, under orders from General Parke, two brigades, Hartranft's and McLaughlen's, moved out on the road from the Clements house toward the Hawks house, and the picket-line, under Colonel Harriman, covering the front between the Pegram house and the Clements house, was at the same time moved out, with supports, toward the enemy. The object was twofold, viz, to make a demonstration upon the enemy's skirmishers, and to reconnoiter toward the Boydton plank road. The head of Hartranft's brigade was at the Clements house at 7 a.m. His brigade was soon deployed on the left of the road, McLaughlen's on the right, connecting with Harriman, who connected with the Second Division. We came upon the enemy's vedettes at an abandoned line of the enemy's works half a mile from the Clements house. McLaughlen's brigade was thrown across the line and moved out at an angle with Hartranft until the enemy's skirmishers were encountered. Hartranft came into the Smith house field and discovered a working party of the enemy in a redoubt near the Hawks house. Skirmishers were thrown forward by General Hartranft, before whom the working party retired. A position was now taken across Smith's field to the redoubt, and from there along and across the line of works, and the whole line of skirmishers advanced, driving back the enemy's line about half a mile to the left and front. Their cavalry were in front of Hartranft and hovered around his extreme left with some annoyance. Infantry appeared to be on McLaughlen's front. Meantime Harriman encountered no force, but his scouting parties reported a column of the enemy moving toward our left. A report to the same effect was received from General Potter also. The enemy's skirmishers halted on a ridge covered with brush, and I ordered General Hartranft to push a reconnaissance down the road as far as possible toward the plank road, and reported the situation of affairs to the major-general commanding. His orders were to keep up the connection with Harriman, make a drive at the enemy's skirmishers, but avoid bringing on a general engagement. I then ordered Hartranft to swing up his left, and as soon as he got into line with McLaughlen to attack with his skirmishers simultaneously with those of McLaughlen. During the execution of these orders the enemy's skirmishers advanced. The reconnoitering party were attacked at a cross-road about half a mile from the line by a small party of cavalry, which was repulsed, and considerable skirmishing ensued in front of both brigades. At two points our pickets were driven in. I had some reason to expect an attack in force, and I ordered the troops to close in, and my action now being left discretionary with me by General Parke, I determined to resist with my whole force. Hartranft drew in his left, and McLaughlen re-established his picket line where it had been assailed. The firing along the front of the two brigades rather increased, but no attack was made. I remained on the ground till 6 p.m., when, in obedience to orders, I established a new and advanced picket line in front of the intrenchments between the Pegram and Clements houses, and withdrew the troops to their camps. Casualties for the day as follows:

The report of the brigade commander expanded on the battle and the role of the 13th Ohio:

"Report of Col. Samuel Harriman, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Infantry, commanding First Brigade, of operations September 30 - October 9.

Hdqrs. First Brig., First Div., Ninth Army Corps, Near Peebles' House, Va., October 16, 1861.

Captain: I have the honor to make the following report of the operations of my command from September 30 to October 9, 1864:

I assumed command of the brigade on the morning of the 30th of September, as it lay near the Gurley house, relieving Col. B. C. Christ, mustered out of service by reason of expiration of term. My command consisted of six regiments, the Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers and Seventy-ninth New York Volunteers having been left as a garrison to Fort Hays. We moved from camp at 11 o'clock, following the Third Brigade; passed by Poplar Grove Church and formed line of battle in the woods near the road to the left of the Peebles house, to protect the left flank of the army, at the same time throwing out pickets. I advanced a scouting party to beyond the forks of the road, which reported nothing not before discovered. Subsequently I moved my command across the little ravine near by and formed it in line of battle across the road at right angles, leaving two regiments in reserve. I sent out twenty additional men with a lieutenant, conducted by a staff officer, who returned late in the afternoon and reported they had advanced a distance of one mile and a half; found one line of works vacated by the enemy, which were taken possession of. The cavalry pickets were discovered, and through information given a force of cavalry was sent out and occupied the ground. At near 3 o'clock my command was moved to the right and formed in line of battle to the left of the Pegram house. Thus far we had scarcely received a shot from the enemy. The One hundred and ninth New York was posted on picket on a road running west of south. The troops to our left, about 4.30 o'clock, were attacked and compelled to fall back. This emboldened the enemy and they rushed into the field and poured a deadly fire into our ranks. The men held their position for a while, but were finally compelled to fall back. This the right regiments - Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Eighth Michigan, and Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers - did in good order, and sought what shelter they could behind a rail fence from which they hastily constructed rude breast-works. These regiments did good service in keeping the enemy at bay and held the ground till relieved. The Thirteenth Ohio were thrown into a panic by a few shots and fled, the greater part of them, from the field. A part of them, under Captains Wheeler and Gore, were afterward collected and placed on the line. The Thirty-eighth Wisconsin were thrown into confusion by the Thirteenth Ohio, but were formed and placed in line in General Hartranft's brigade. At 11 o'clock my command was relieved and marched farther up the road, where it had lain in the early part of the afternoon, on the hill where a line works were constructed during the night. The works were perfected on Saturday as much as we could in the drenching rain, and our picket-line in front and along the road well established.

Orders were received to be in readiness to advance at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, 2d instant. Just 500 men from the Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, who had joined the brigade the day before, were left in command of Colonel Bintliff to hold the works. We commenced advancing after 8 o'clock, my skirmish line connecting with Colonel McLaughlen on the right and the Second Corps on the left. In passing through the woods no enemy was discovered. In advancing I endeavored to keep my troops near Colonel McLaughlen. The Twenty-seventh Michigan were detailed as skirmishers and the Eighth Michigan as support. I advanced my connections perfect to the cleared field, near where my command lay on the 30th ultimo. The skirmishers were sent forward with support, and soon exchanged shots with the enemy. The brigade was moved forward into the open field, connecting on the right and left; afterward were posted in echelon fifty paces to the rear of Colonel McLaughlen's brigade. At 1 o'clock moved upon a line with him. The brigade was formed into two lines, One hundred and ninth New York and Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Volunteers in front line, Thirty-eighth Wisconsin and Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry in support. Orders were received to keep a sharp lookout on the left, and in case the brigade on the left moved to keep connected with them. Staff officers made frequent visits and an orderly was sent over to report any movements on the left. It was reported that three regiments of General Pierce's brigade had moved to the front a short distance, which fact having been reported to General Willcox, moved my command to the left in his lines and filled up the space vacated. It is understood that the failure to carry the works of the enemy, and which resulted in the repulse of the three regiments making the assault, is attributed in part to the failure of my brigade to properly support the advancing column. I acted in strict obedience to orders, having at no time received instructions to do more than hold the line I then occupied, unless called upon by General Pierce for support. Near sunset I was ordered to withdraw my command, which I did, and moved to the right, where my troops were placed on line, connecting with the line of works captured by the Fifth Corps. Breast-works were constructed and occupied by all my command present, except the Eighth and Twenty-seventh Michigan. Subsequently a new line was laid out and built, which the Eighth Michigan, Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, Twenty-seventh Michigan, One hundred and ninth New York, and Thirty-seventh Wisconsin occupied.

On the 8th instant my command picketed in front of the First and Third Divisions. Orders having been received the night previous that the First Division should make a reconnaissance, the picket line advanced as a line of skirmishers, connecting with General Potter on the right and Colonel McLaughlen on the left. The skirmish line was strengthened from time to time, as gaps were occasioned on my left, until the One hundred and ninth New York, 140 strong, were all placed on the line. The Eighth Michigan, Lieut. Col. Ralph Ely commanding, were in reserve as support. My skirmish line advanced through the woods, beyond the forks of the road, and held a position till night in the edge of the field and in the woods to the left of the field. The remainder of my brigade held the line of works to the rear. I received positive orders at one time from a staff officer on General Willcox's staff to move out my whole command and form it in line of battle 300 or 400 paces to the rear of the skirmish line and connect with Colonel McLaughlen's line, reserve on the left, by scouts. This I did, but afterward received instructions only to keep a sufficient force to support my picket line. I then withdrew these troops to the line of works; subsequently moved out the Twenty-seventh Michigan, Captain Waite commanding, to strengthen the reserve. The enemy was not found in any force. The cavalry outposts of the enemy were driven in, a few shots exchanged, and several of their horsemen unhorsed. A new picket line was established, and after dark the skirmish line and supports were withdrawn to the new line.

I am, captain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

Sam. Harriman,
Colonel, Commanding Brigade.
Capt. John D. Bertolette, Assistant Adjutant-General."

History Of Allen County included the following information about William Greenberry Wright in a biographical sketch of S. W. Wright:

"S. W. Wright was not only a farmer but was regarded as one of the ablest men of affairs in Allen County. He has to his credit two terms of capable service as county commissioner, and discharged other obligations in the common welfare. The Wright farm and home are a mile east of Delphos in Marion Township.

He was born in Highland County, Ohio, November 19, 1850, son of William G. and Louisa (Manker) Wright. His father, who was born in Virginia, May 3, 1827, a son of William and Rhoda R. Wright, came with his parents to Highland County, Ohio, at the age of eight years. William G. Wright married Louisa Manker January 2, 1850. She died October 4, 1871, mother of the following children: Sylvenius W., V. H., Luella B., deceased, Eugenia, Nevada E. and Lena. William G. Wright enlisted in the Thirteenth Ohio Cavalry early in the Civil war, was wounded in the knee at Perryville, and for the rest of the war performed duties as a recruiting officer at Cincinnati. He then resumed farming, and on June 13, 1872, married Martha R. Judkins, daughter of Franklin and Caroline Judkins. The children born to that union were Birdie D., Lulellis, Mabel, Rosaline, Cleotus, Lillie A., Rhoda D. and Goldie., four of whom died in infancy. In 1882 William G. Wright moved to Van Wert County, buying a 100-acre farm east of the county seat. He was a democrat in politics and in 1893 was elected trustee of his township. Besides being a practical farmer he gained a great reputation in early life as a hunter and killed many deer in Ohio and other states. For a number of years he conducted an apiary in connection with his general farming. He was a member of the Masonic order and his wife was a Methodist. . . . ."

In various undated notes, but written in about 1968, Cletus Orlen Wright stated that William Greenberry Wright was a son of William S. Wright and Rhoda (Wright) Wright, was born on May 3, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, moved to Highland County, Ohio, when he was eight years old, married first Louisa Manker on January 2, 1850,, moved to Allen County, Ohio, served in the 13th Ohio Cavalry in the Civil War, married second Martha Rebecca Judkins on June 13, 1872, at her home, moved to Van Wert County, Ohio, on October 3, 1882, and died on December 23, 1907, at Hudson, Michigan, that Louisa (Manker) Wright was born on June 29, 1832, and died on October 5, 1871, that Martha Rebecca (Judkins) Wright was the daughter of Franklin B. Judkins and Antice Caroline (Drake) Judkins, was born on May 5, 1851, near Lima, Ohio, and died on October 4, 1904, near Van Wert, Ohio, and that William Greenberry Wright and Louisa (Manker) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Sylvanus Wesley Wright, born on November 2, 1850,
- 2) Vinson Howard Wright, born on July 3, 1853,
- 3) Luella Bell Wright, born on October 25, 1855,
- 4) Eugenie Ellen Wright, born on January 1, 1860,
- 5) Novada Emma Wright, born on May 5, 1862, and
- 6) Lena May Wright, born on August 9, 1871, and that William Greenberry Wright and Martha Rebecca (Judkins) Wright had the following children:

- 1) _____ Wright, an unnamed daughter born on December 14, 1874, who died in infancy,
- 2) Bertie Dell (Wright) Mohler, born on June 20, 1876, near Delphos, Ohio,
- 3) Lutellis Wells Wright, born on February 13, 1878, near Delphos, Ohio,
- 4) Mable Rosaline (Wright) Knittle, born on March 27, 1880, near Delphos, Ohio,
- 5) Cletus Orlen Wright, born on September 3, 1882, near Delphos, Ohio,
- 6) Lillie Antice Wright, born on March 29, 1885, near Van Wert, Ohio,
- 7) Dulcena Rhoda Wright, born on February 15, 1888, near Van Wert, Ohio, and
- 8) Golda Gertrude Wright, born on May 31, 1891, near Van Wert, Ohio.

In her letter dated October 6, 1994, Karen Piojda stated that Lutellis Wells Wright "told how his Dad would go to the same stump year after year, sit on it, place a blanket over his legs with a lantern under it for heat. He said all he had to do is sit and wait. Claimed he would have his deer within three days."

In her letter dated July 26, 1995, Mrs. Karen Piojda enclosed the following statement:

"On April 23, 1995 while visiting with T. E. Judkins (Great-grandson of Emily J. Judkins) of Critersville, Ohio I was shown old papers. One of which was a paper where the names of Hiram and Phoeba (Swadley) Manker along with the names of the members of their immediate family. It was written [most likely by Emily J. (Manker) Judkins] in pencil on lined paper as follows:

History Of Allen County included the following biographical sketch of S. W.

Wright:

"S. W. Wright was not only a farmer but was regarded as one of the ablest men of affairs in Allen County. He has to his credit two terms of capable service as county commissioner, and disharged other obligations in the common welfare. The Wright farm and home are a mile east of Delphos in Marion Township.

He was born in Highland County, Ohio, November 19, 1850, son of William G. and Louisa (Manker) Wright. His father, who was born in Virginia, May 3, 1827, a son of William and Rhoda R. Wright, came with his parents to Highland County, Ohio, at the age of eight years. William G. Wright married Louisa Manker January 2, 1850. She died October 4, 1871, mother of the following children: Sylvenius W., V. H., Luella B., deceased, Eugenia, Nevada E. and Lena. William G. Wright enlisted in the Thirteenth Ohio Cavalry early in the Civil war, was wounded in the knee at Perryville, and for the rest of the war performed duties as a recruiting officer at Cincinnati. He then resumed farming, and on June 13, 1872, married Martha R. Judkins, daughter of Franklin and Caroline

Judkins. The children born to that union were Birdie D., Lulellis, Mabel, Rosaline, Cleotus, Lillie A., Rhoda D. and Goldie., four of whom died in infancy. In 1882 William G. Wright moved to Van Wert County, buying a 100-acre farm east of the county seat. He was a democrat in politics and in 1893 was elected trustee of his township. Besides being a practical farmer he gained a great reputation in early life as a hunter and killed many deer in Ohio and other states. For a number of years he conducted an apiary in connection with his general farming. He was a member of the Masonic order and his wife was a Methodist.

S. W. Wright spent part of his early life in Allen County, acquired an education in the district schools and the schools of Delphos, and for nine terms was a teacher, his work being done in seven different schools.

November 5, 1872, Mr. Wright married Minerva Long, who was born in Marion Township April 9, 1852, daughter of Jacob and Rebecca Long. Her father was a native of Clermont County, Ohio, and after his marriage settled in Allen County in 1850 and lived out his active career in Marion Township. The Longs were active members of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Wright's father was also a Civil war soldier. To Mr. and Mrs. Wright were born two children: Alvin Otto, born April 6, 1874, and died August 31, 1875, and Grace E., born December 20, 1884. The daughter is the wife of Jesse A. Cochran and the mother of one child Byron W., born July 9, 1908. Mrs. Wright died February 27, 1921, and Mr. Wright passed away the following month, March 7, 1921.

Mr. Wright and his wife were members of the Methodist Church. He was affiliated with Delphos Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, and Lima Lodge No. 54 of the Elks. Politically he was a staunch republican, and was elected on the republican ticket to the office of county commissioner for two terms, at a time when the county was normally 1,600 democratic.

Mr. Wright served for fourteen years as a director on the County Fair Board, was a director of the Allen County Children's Home, a stockholder in the Equity Exchange at Delphos, and was always ready to respond to demands upon him for aid in civic and patriotic movements. As a farmer he gave much attention to stock breeding, and for twenty years was a breeder of Percheron horses, Polled Durham cattle and Poland China, Chester White and Duroc hogs. His fellow citizens gave him repeated proof of their confidence in his judgment and once he came within fourteen votes of being elected a member of the Legislature."

In various undated notes, but written in about 1968, Cletus Orlen Wright stated that Sylvanius Wesley Wright was a son of William Greenberry Wright and Louisa (Manker) Wright, was born on November 19, 1850, near Delphos, Ohio, married

His obituary states that he "Went west, returned to Ohio in 1879 & married Clara Johnson of Martinsville, Clinton County, Ohio on January 27, 1880." I believe her to be the daughter of Jephtha and Sarah (Lehman) Johnson. If so when she was seven years she and a brother were orphaned. This however has not been confirmed. Wayne Mohr told me that while on a trip to Highland County Granddad (Vincent) Saw this young woman on a train, took an immediate liking to her and married her three days later. The above license reflects that it was applied for one day prior to their marriage January 25, 181. All of their children were born in Tully Twp., Van Wert County, Ohio near Convoy where he made his living as a farmer. In 1904 they moved to Hillsdale County, Michigan to a farm located on Lickley Road in Wright Twp.. There currently stands a row of pine trees that had surrounded two sides of a barn that once stood. According to Wayne these were planted by Vincent soon after they moved to Michigan. . . . Vincent and Clara had moved into nearby Hudson sometime after 1910. Vincent died January 26, 1920 at the age of 66. Two years later in 1922 Clara aged 62, died while living with their youngest daughter Maude Mohr and her family. Her will was probated in Lenawee County, Michigan January 21, 1925."

Who's Who to Me stated that Cletus Orlen Wright married his second wife Wilma Carmen (Singleton) Langsdorf on January 20, 1962, at St. Louis, Missouri, and that Wilma Carmen (Singleton) (Langsdorf) Wright was born on January 21, 1902, at Campti, Louisiana.

Black Swamp Farm, by Howard E. Good, Ohio State University Press, 1967, at page 217, as quoted in a letter dated September 1, 1981, from Alice Wright provides a glimpse of Cletus Orlen Wright as a young man:

"With a single exception, all of our games were intramural. That exception was a football game played in the snow one December day against a neighboring school's team. The only remembered feature of this contest is that it provided the setting for my first meeting with Cletus Wright, who through all the succeeding years has been among my cherished friends. A keen lover of sports and possessor of an extraordinary sense of the dramatic, he came that day from a district several miles away to see the game. He arrived with a wild-West flourish, his snow-white horse running at top speed, drawing a fantastic homemade sleigh that slithered and careened crazily in a white cloud of snow. A few years later he and I became classmates and roommates in college, living, working, and playing together through several years."

"June 20, 1968

'In the beginning'

This I hope will give my children and grandchildren some idea of the many happenings all thru my life.

According to the family records I was born Sept. 3rd 1882 2:00 am. in a farm house located on the then know Lima-Delphos road. The house was still standing in 1963 when I photographed it and the picture is in my collection.

As the story follows my mother was confined for a few days as there were older children to care for and household cares as a necessity. We moved to Van Wert Co. just thirty days after my birth to a ninety-five acre farm with only sixty acres cleared of heavy timbers.

The house was still in good repair when I visited it in 1963 - construction of the house might be interesting.

The sills or foundation frame was made from twelve inch square hand hewen timbers resting on rock foundation made from field rocks gathered in the area and held in place with lime and sand mortar. The studding were mortised into the sills and had dowel pins to hold them in place - the studdings were made from small trees grown in the area they were quite uniform in size with two hand hewn faces to form nailing surface for siding & lath and plaster. The lath were made of rough sawed oak strips, some split from straight grane tree sections. The siding of black walnut and the second floor was not full eight feet as the walls were made from wide poplar boards with the joints covered with black walnut strips or patten strips one half inch thick and six inches wide - some of the poplar boards wer 24" wide - see not #1 There is quite an interesting future to the poplar walls the boards were twenty four inches wide and eight feet long. The walnut strips were finished natural color and the poplar boards painted some white some a battleship grey!

The roofing was made from oak shingles all hand made from splits four to eight inches wide and twenty-four inches long shaved to a taper thickness by hand in a "shaving house" that held the slabs while being tapered with a draw knife.

There is much more to the structure of this home like the huge fire place in the east gable - it served for many purposes cooking, heating and ventilation as most of the heat went up the huge 'chimley' chimney

I hope this gives a little idea of the house that my parents moved into in October 3rd 1882 when I was just a month old - mother often told how I squalled the entire twelve mile trip from Allen to Van Wert Counties.

The farm is on what was know as the ridge road because at that time the land sloped both north and south that had been cleared of the heavy timber by the early settlers or pioneers

Van Wert county was covered with fine timber consisting of poplar, black walnut, wild cherry, oak, hickory, sugar, beech, elm, maple black gum, ash and box elder.

While I was growing up on this farm I will try to recall as much of the hardships that came to my father and mother while they rebuilt and cleared the farm of the stumps left by taking of the timber and removing enough of the stumps to get a start to farming and getting food for the long winters

Many sticks of dynamite were used to blast out the large stumps and of course the land had to be drained of its surface water. Open ditches were first dug leading to existing natural creaks and small rivers

Once a drainage ditch was made, the farm was under drained with various sized of tile from three to twelve inces in diameter. They were made in twelve inch lengths and laid about twenty four inches below the surface and this allowed the water to seap away at a slow rate to avoid wasting erosion which depreciated a lot of farms.

After fifteen years of hard work and keeping at the job our farm was a real good place to live.

While growing up there were a number of interesting things that linger in my memory.

Some of those in my own development stand out. I just remember slightly the cutting and hauling the large trees after they had been felled and squared in timbers for building wooden ships in Philadelphia

Usually the largest trees were taken and I recall my parents telling about the squaring of these huge trees was mostly done by frenchmen from Canada. It seems the people that delt in such as buying timber would purchase the trees and then bring their own crews and prepare them for market. Just a little idea how accurate these hewers were with a large broad-ax they would square a large tree to an exact dimension with all four faces at right angles to each other.

While writing about the preparing of the timber I must not overlook the delivery to market. The french seemed to take to that sort of work and they came into an area with men, horses, bob sleds, wagons and all the equipment. They loved their work and to say the least their horses were the finest of the draft class. My folks gave them shelter, board and feed for their horses one entire season from Dec. to March.

I recall my father did quite a lot of work for them in the way hauling timbers to Van Wert for shipment to Phila. Also the largest shiptimber in Van Wert Co. was ninety feet long and was two feet square at the top end the stump was six feet across. (I stood on the stump many times - it was on a farm near my old District No. 1 school on the ridge road seven eights of a mile from my home.)

He hauled it to Van Wert on March 10th with a six-horse team I can't recall the exact date - I think in the late eighties.

Many things took place during the period I grew up.

I recall my start to the Ridge Dist. No 1 school - one room school where all ages of pupils attended six to eighteen years of age.

It took much persusaion to get me to go to school. My older brother and two older sisters were attending school when I was started - I just didn't like the idea

I went to school in the a.m. with my sisters Bertil, Mabel and brother Tellie (Loutellis Wells) well come recess I would hike for home run all the way. My mother was an X-school teacher so she informed me with aid of a peach sprout and sent me back to shool. O.K. come recess home I went and by that time it was too late to send me back but not too late for the "peach oil" I don't recall just how long that went on altho I think the tree died from the loss of sprouts and branches.

One other thing I recall was my older brother & sisters would tell me if I sent alone "tangle Hair" would get me but I was fleet of feet and that did not help.

Strange thing the man we called "tangle hair" was later identified as "Johnny Apple Seed" - and he was a real person that traveled the Ridge-Road for many years - he often stopped at my home and "as always" my mother never turned a hungry person away so she would spread two of "acre" size slices of bread spread thick with honey (of which we had plenty) my how he loved it and would always bow and thank her with a smile

The man we called "tangle-hair" wasn't a tramp at all for many years he would pass our house walking with a slow stride carrying a long stick or staff, he was quite tall (perhaps 6-0') had long red hair down to his shoulders and long sandy beard six or eight inches long.

He would stop often and look in all directions -

He made the trip west in the spring and back east in the fall.

A man by the name of Mox operated a tree and shrub nursery about eight miles east of home and Johnney often stopped over night or longer with the Mox family.

Some reports to the effect he was a native of Penn. State. He planted apple seed along the roadside and I have eaten apples of of these trees some grew to large size

There were so many things that took place while I was growing up on the home farm.

It will not be possible to recall all the good things.

Learning to ride horses, milk cows, feed hogs and so many things that took place. Father was a very strict task-master and he being from a large family, knew some of the things that youngsters needed to be taught. I learned to milk early and to ride young horses as well as old.

Come Sunday we often were permitted to ride young horses two to three years old on long distances four or five miles.

No saddles just bare back and not a very fast rate of travel.

It was my task to bring the milk cows from pasture in the P.M. for milking and often had to go early in the morning as the cows were permitted to graze at night.

I also led the calves from the cow lot to the orchard after feeding. One time I was leading a calf thru the yard where there were a number of fruit trees - I got a silly idea to fasten the halter chain around my waist thinking I could hold the calf better - well away we went at a fast clip and the calf decided to run on one side of a tree while I was thinking of the other side; to say the least I almost had a body in two halves - that never happened again.

I made all the toys I ever played with wagons, wheel-barrows, carts and sleds.

The wheels were solid wood made by selecting a tree of the right size and then saw off pieces of the right thickness and bore holes for the spindles of the right size, the small pins were used to keep the wheels on the axle spindles.

Usually the wagons lasted so long as I wanted them. As to sleds I made them from the bow's from buggy tops. These gave real service, some of the first sleds were made by sawing a board off at an angle and then nailing a series of boards on one edge to form a top. The edge that slid on the snow often had strips of hoop iron from discarded barrels nailed on the edge.

My guns were usually bow guns like the famous Wm Tell used to shoot arrow long distances and quite straight to the mark.

Base balls were made by rapping twine string around a piece of hard rubber or small ball.

It was not the custome to buy toys unless one could well afford the cost.

Our home had a cellar where our winter food was stored and it was directly under the first floor bedroom and at Xmas time the china Santa Claus was set up and one of my older brothers would talk thru a pipe from the cellar to the Santa Claus.

While I was growing up there were a number of things we were called upon to do that wouldn't be that of to-day.

My father was a town-ship trustee in the 1890's and he built sixteen miles of crushed stone highways. All the grading and earth moving was done with horses. During the building and grading of what was then the Ridge Road and now the Lincoln Highway I drove a team of horses and my brother Tellie (Loutellis Wells) drove one also. Father supervised six miles of the road east of Van Wert starting at the city limits & running eastward. Many miles of connecting side roads were constructed during his turn of office (two terms of three years)

He served under county authority by the name of Wm Greenbury Wright many called him "W.G."

While he was away on business one cold March day my older sisters were doing the family wash and they had opened a cistern at porch edge and failed to put the lid on and our youngest sister Goldie stepped on the cover and fell in and drowned - she was twenty-two months old. Bertie & Mabel really never got over that tragic event.

In a farm like the one I grew up on there was so many happenings. One year we had the "seven year itch" and another time later five of us had typhoid fever. I had pneumonia along with the fever. My loving mother nursed us all back to good health.

We had a hurricane storm the day my sister Mabel came down with a chill & fever. The old house and barn stood the gales however the wonderful apple orchard was loaded with apples not quite ripe enough for harvest.

There were over seventy five trees that were uprooted and their apples too green for use of anything except vinegar.

One could walk across the orchard step on apples every step without making a single side step.

Much of the farm crop was destroyed & our barn roof partly missing. It was made from hand made "shakes" and could not be repaired.

Our church named Ridge M.E. had half its roof blown off and the front was blown inward. It was re-built and a strange thing happened just six months from the date another storm came and blew the other end of the church in just like the first time. We children all attended the Sunday services and my father was one of the first to donate to the rebuilding of the church even though he was not a member. Quite a story came out later on and my father never quite got over the deal.

As a child I recall so many things that came to pass since we lived on such an important road leading into the county seat Van Wert.

Van Wert county (in which we lived) and Paulding County and Williams County (were joining counties on Indiana borders) were named for the men that captured the traitor Andrew during the war of 1812. One of the interesting things was the truly wilderness country when my folks moved there 1882 and how it has changed of to-day. I watched oxen drawn two wheel carts when a small boy and mud almost to their knees then in 1963 traveled seventy miles an hour over the same distance.

Our home was three and a half miles from the court house. We figured then at least half day to take the butter and eggs to market. Now the same trip in less than an hour.

My what good times we had when we went to barn dances & parties, sleigh rides Strange there are no sleds or sleighs in that area at all - seems as tho the weather and seasons changed along with all the other changes.

I think the greatest of all came in my life. At the turn of the century (1900) I was farming my fathers farm and I just decided I couldn't make a living so the last year I took an account and the last time I hauled my crop of corn to market from fifteen acres - one thousand bushels for one-hundred and fifty dollars. I took my check home and handed it to mother and told her I was quitting the farm for good - which I did.

That farm sold in 1903 or 1904 for ten thousand dollars. The man that bought it refused sixty five thousand in 1963.

A lot to be told to only half complete the story. -

(Will continue when I get some paper June 20th 1968

Note #1

Re the wide poplar board 20" to 24" wide were removed in 1893 when Father re-built the entire east and south gables and up-stairs. The poplar boards were so nice a lumber dealer in Van Wert made a deal with father to trade modern drop siding for the new construction in exchange for the wide poplar boards that became special interiors for homes in Van Wert.

#2 The drainage system was a very important adjunct to a farm in that area as the wet seasons some-times prevented a farmer from getting the ground prepared and a crop in and matured for the fall harvest

The season was from March 1st to Nov. 15th and at times much shorter season Crops consisted of corn, wheat, oats, barley buck-wheat, mellons, pumbkins, grapes, (clover and timothy hay) apples, peaches, onions, potatoes, many varieties of fruits on bushes black, and red raspberries, black berries.

Our apple orchard was an asset to the whole county people came from long distance to buy apples at end of the summer season.

Some of the names were as follows - Starting at the east side or entrance, russet, rambo, early harvest the next white pippin, bellflower, russet, maiden blush, topahocken, winesap, sweet, strawberrie, golden russet, red-asterkin and several more ripe apples from June first until late frost or some times cold came early and apples were frozen on the trees.

Along with tree care as pruning grafting and taking apples to have cider and vinagar made from the surplus.

Keeping the trees pruned was quite a task. Much of that work was done between jobs of ploughing the ground for oats, corn and cutting grass for hay, harvesting oats, wheat, rye, buckwheat there wasnt a single day short of an important task.

It has been well said a farmer is the most universal trades man on earth. He is busy from sun-up to sun-down.

As for me I like or loved the animals and of all; horses were my real joy. I loved to take care of the horses and riding or driving was really a joy.

There are so many memories of those early growing up times it is difficult to mention the most flagrant thing in my memory. When I became of age 21 I took over the farm and had some real nice horses. My buggy horse was a two gaited driving type. I could on a long story telling excipade about the good times sleigh riding in winter and buggy riding in summer evenings with a real close sitting loving girl. ha! ha!

We farmers had an outlet in the long winters - days hunting and trapping mink, coon, muskrats and rabbits were very plentiful. At the present time little in the form of hunting other than some quail and a few phesants.

A long winter was much dreaded by most farmers. I used to love the small sled ride hooked on the rear of a sleigh-horse drawn.

Sure was nice sport to get a few young couples to gather and take a bobsled ride for an hour or two and end up with an oyster supper at some home a few miles out of the immediate community.

Talk about sweet times when the maple syrup season was in we had a few taffy pulling parties along with square dancing and skip to malow and docie-do's.

How is one to get all those things out of ones system?

The ridge school District No 1 where I got all my education till I was eighteen years. When I was ninteen I subscribed or bought a Scranton correspondence course in Electrical Railway Engineering."

In an undated Memoir Cletus Orlen Wright recounted the story of how he met Gertrude May Nickels:

"The year 1909 was great in more than one event, however, to me it was a year I never thought would come to pass. It was graduation year from Ohio Northern University and strange it may seem an event took place a year after that really changed my entire life.

The bachelorette sermon for the class was preached in Frances Willard M.E. Church in north Ada, Ohio. Minister I think was Rev. Wilson and (he could have been a twin to Woodrow W.) His talk had much to the effect how a woman of such poor means had made such a name for herself that many M.E. churches bore her name. Now the story leads to what happened to me. I left Ohio after trying to land a decent job with a classmate Chas. Reis with a plan to travel all over the world by working in any one place long enough to get finances to the next.

We landed in Chicago and the job situation was not too bright so I decided to stay awhile and then go on by myself since Reis changed his mind and returned to Ohio to get married.

I was working at Western Electric Co a Sub of the Telephone Industry. I took a room on Millard Ave. within walking distance of my job. My landlady Mrs. Rumsill asked if I would accept a roommate working at the same place W.E.C. He had graduated at Va Poly. Tech the same year I had from O.N.U.

His name was Arthur LaSturgeon and a native Virginian with a soft accent in his voice.

We really got off to a fine friendship since his parents were dead same as mine and he had one single sister same as I had. Now we attended the same M.E. church on Millard Ave. and usually went for a long walk about the big city after eating dinner served by Mrs. Rumsill (By the way she had a drunken husband and three children (grown) Ethel John and DeJalma). She was like a real mother to us two. So much has to be left out to get to my real romance - One Sunday Arthur and I were on one of our walks on Douglass(?) Blv'd and we came to a huge M.E. church named for Frances E. Willard I told Arthur the story I had heard about the Frances E. Willard and suggested we get up early some Sunday and attend services there.

As usual we both did the things the other liked.

So one beautiful Sunday we took off and went in the church up to the balcony and there wasn't a person on the balcony except Arthur & I.

Rev. Anderson preached a wonderful sermon and a trio was sung a a man & two young women. The trio was a father and two daughters he sang tenor, one daughter (Myrtle) deep alto and the other a real contralto. Gertrude I whispered to Arthur and said do you see that gal with glasses, I am going to marry her some day. He as usual used the expression "awe shucks" she wouldn't look at you."

After the services were over we tried to get out quick but the minister was at the door waiting and remarked "I saw you two fine looking young men sitting in the gallery and now I would like for you to meet some of our young people - and turned around and introduced me to that "gal" I had remarked to Arthur about.

The next Sunday we went back and the same person was selling tickets for a picnic to Patawamina Park, I told her I would buy two if she would go with me - she agreed and from that day on friendship grew to an engagement, marriage, six children and thirteen grandchildren and adopted. We lived forty five years together until a cancer did us seperate."

I, Cletus Orlen Wright, a married man, now residing in the City of St. Louis, Missouri, do make, publish, and declare this instrument to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all former wills and codicils by me at any time made.

First: I direct that all of my just debts, including the expenses of my last illness and funeral, shall be paid out of my estate by my executor.

Second: All articles of household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, silverware, all of my clothing and jewelry, and all similar articles of household use and wearing apparel which I may own at the time of my death, I give and bequeath in equal shares to my son Delmer Cletus Wright, my son Burton Noel Wright, my son Paul Orison Wright, and my grandson Robert Noel Grant, or the then survivors of them, to be divided among them by agreement. Without intending to limit or qualify the aforesaid bequests, it is my wish and I request that my beneficiaries make the division in the manner indicated in a memorandum which I shall hereafter deliver to them.

Third: All of the rest, residue and remainder of the property which I may own at the time of my death, both real and personal, and of every kind and description, shall go as follows:

- D. One fifth to my son Paul Orison Wright or, if he is not living at my death, to his descendants, per stirpes.
- E. One fifth to the descendants, per stirpes, of my deceased daughter Leota Victoria Grant.
- F. If there shall be no beneficiary living at my death to take any of the aforesaid shares of my residuary estate, said share shall drop out, thereby increasing the shares of my other designated residuary beneficiaries.

Fourth: I nominate and appoint my son Paul Orison Wright executor. If he shall fail to serve or cease to act as such, my son Burton Noel Wright shall serve in his place. I direct that neither of them be required to give bond.

Fifth: I authorize and empower my executor, at his discretion, and without order of court, to sell all or any part of my estate not specifically bequeathed under paragraph Second hereof, whether real or personal, at either public or private sale, for cash or credit, and upon such other terms as to the executor may seem advisable.

Sixth: If any beneficiary under my will shall be a minor at the time of distribution hereunder, any property to be distributed to such minor may be delivered to the parents or parent of said minor for the use and benefit of said minor, and a receipt of the parent or parents for such property shall be deemed a sufficient satisfaction of the gift to such beneficiary.

There was a marriage bond for Sophia Wright and Rowland Witt dated September 14, 1822, at Bedford County, Virginia, with John Wright as surety:

"Know all Men by these Presents that We Rowland Witt & Jno. Wright are held & firmly bound Unto Thos. M Randolph governor or Cheif magistrate of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the Just and full Sum of one hundred & fifty dollars Current money of Virginia to Which Payment Well & truly to be made to the Said Governor orhis Successors We bind ourselves & each of us our and each of our heirs Exors &c Jointly & Severally firmly by these Presents Sealed & Dated the 14th day of September 1822

Rowland                      his

This would probably be the marriage of Sophia Wright, the daughter of John Wright, but further research will be required to confirm the identification, especially in light of her identification as a Wheeler in 1830 as set forth below.

This record indicates that Sophia Wright married _____ Wheeler before February 15, 1830, and if she had been married to Rowland Witt in 1822, would indicate his death prior to 1830.

September 1826 at the County aforesaid, by an indorsement thereon in writing, his own proper hand being thereto subscribed, assigned the said bill penal to the said plaintiffs - of which said several assignments the said John Wright and the said Archibald Wright in the life time of the said John Wright, at the said several times, and places of the making of the said assignments as aforesaid had notice respectively and the plaintiffs aver, that the said Archibald Wright, and John Wright did not, nor did either of them in the life time of the said John Wright (altho' often thereto requested) pay to the plaintiffs the said sums of money in the said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof, nor have the said Archibald Wright, and the said defendant, nor hath either of them since the death of the said John Wright (altho' often thereto requested) paid to the plaintiffs the said sums of money in the said bill penal specified, or either of them, or any part thereof - By means whereof an action hath accrued to the plaintiffs to demand and have of the said defendant the said penal sum of One Hundred, and thirty four dollars, and thirty four Cents - Yet the said defendant (altho' often thereto requested) the said sum of money last-named or any part thereof to the plaintiffs hath not paid, but the same to pay, hath hitherto refused, and still doth refuse to the damage of the plaintiffs $20. and therefore they sue.

By the same - Was you acquainted with Archibald Wright, the father of Anthony P. Wright: if so say what were his circumstances at the time of his death -

Ans. - He was very poor - and if his widow had not been helped by her father, or some other person, she must have suffered -

Your Orators and Oratrices further charge, that the whole of the purchase money aforesaid, evidenced by the bonds and judgments aforesaid, is still owing, due, and unpaid, except as to the payments & credits hereinbefore mentioned: that the personal effects of the obligors, so far as they are subject to levy under execution, are believed to be exhausted: that, as shewn by returns aforesaid of the sheriff of Bedford County, writs of fieri facias upon the judgments aforesaid have proved to a large extent unavailing: that the said John H Carnes died intestate, leaving no personal estate of any value & therefore no suit was instituted at law against his personal representative

& none against him in his lifetime, and that he had no personal representative until very recently, when his estate was committed for administration to John G Kasey as Sheriff of Bedford County: And they are advised that they have a right to resort to the aid of a Court of Equity to enforce their vendor's lien reserved as aforesaid upon the tract of land aforesaid sold to the said Anthony P Wright & subject the same to the payment of the residue of the purchase money aforesaid remaining unpaid; and furthermore, if the said land shall prove insufficient for that purpose, as they are apprehensive it will, to enforce the liens of their judgments aforesaid upon the real estate of the judgment debtors respectively & subject the same to the payment of any balances due from them respectively on said judgments.

Your Orators & Oratrices are not fully and accurately informed as to the real estate of the said parties liable to be subjected as aforesaid, the exact location, boundaries, & quantity of the different tracts & parcels of their lands & are therefore compelled to require a full discovery thereof. Upon examination of the land rolls of the Commissioner of the Revenue in the Clerk's Office of Bedford County they find lands charged to said parties as follows to the said Anthony P Wright 188 acres situate on Beaver Dam Creek, but they are informed that said Wright claims that he owns on said tract 297 acres thereabouts & an equitable interest in same lands in Franklin County: to Clemens Dickinson 91-1/4 acres (on which he lives) on Jumping Run": (to John H Carnes one parcel of 40 acres, another of 63 acres, another of 18-1/2 acres, and another of 125 acres, in all 246-1/2 acres, in Goose Creek & to Samuel G Stewart one parcel near X roads of 36-1/2 acres, another near X roads of 21-3/4 acres, and the following parcels in "Falling Creek" 74-1/2 acres, 10 acres, 56 acres & 295-4/10 acres on "Beaver Dam" Creek, in all 494- 3/20 acres. Your Orators & Oratrices are informed, that there are perhaps some judgment liens, other than those hereinbelow mentioned, upon said lands and if your Orators & Oratrices shall be compelled to resort to the said lands for payment of any balances on the judgments aforesaid against said Wright & others, after subjecting the "Mill Tract" of land aforesaid, they are advised, that it is competent for this Court, as a Court of Equity, to settle all conflicts of liens arising amongst the different creditors & order payment according to priorities as they shall be determined. They are also advised that although no judgment may have been received against the said John H Carnes in his life time and none against his personal representative since his death, and as in either case execution thereon would have proved unavailing, his real estate descended to his heirs is liable in their hands to the payment of the bond aforesaid upon which the said John H was bound in his life-time & which upon his death was left wholly unpaid. They are informed that Marinda E Carnes, the wife of the said John H. survived him & is entitled to dower in the lands of her deceased husband, & that he left the following children his only heirs at law, to wit, William A Carnes, Mary J Carnes, James M Carnes, Elijah T Carnes, John C Carnes, Edward E Carnes, Joseph W Carnes, Sarah E Carnes, (the last six of whom are infants under the age of 21 years).

Your Orators & Oratrices, being remediless in the premises at law & relievable only in a Court of Equity, pray, that Anthony P Wright, Clemens Dickinson, John G Kasey Sheriff of Bedford County & as such administrator of John H Carner decd, Marinda E Carner, William A Carner, Mary J Carner, James M Carnes, Elijah T Carner, John C Carner, Edward E Carner, Joseph M. Carner, Sarah E Carner (the last six infants) & Samuel G Stewart, be by proper process made parties defendants to this suit and required, the adults in proper person and the infants by Guardians ad litem, to answer all and singular the charges and allegations of this bill on their several oaths, as fully and particularly as if the same were here repeated and they thereto severally & specially interrogated: that the said defendants (except the said widow, heirs & personal representative of John H Carner deceased) especially answer and discover the real estate owned by them respectively at the dates of the respective judgments aforesaid against them & such real estate so owned by each of them now, setting forth fully and particularly the location, quantity, & boundaries of each tract of land & exhibiting the evidences of their title to the same, and if they or either of them have aliened any of their lands since the date of the said judgments against them, let them answer and say, to whom they have so aliened said lands, how, when and upon what consideration: and let them also answer and say, whether there be any unsatisfied liens or encumbrances, other than those hereinbefore mentioned, upon the said lands so owned by them respectively at the date of said judgments, and if there be any such, let them severally describe the liens upon their respective lands, the character, dates, & amounts thereof with the names & residence of the creditors holding them: let the said widow & heirs of the said John H Carner answer & say, what real estate the said John H died seized of or had an interest in at the time of his death, describing its location, quantity & metes & bounds of each parcel thereof & let the personal representative of said John H discover the personal estate if any, of which the said John H died possessed & the debts, if any, outstanding against the estate of his intestate: and, the premises considered, may it please your Honor by decree to enforce the specific lien of your Orators and Oratrices against the said Anthony P Wright upon the Mill tract of land hereinbefore mentioned & subject the same by sale to the payment of the unpaid balance of the purchase money still owing by the said Anthony P Wright and his said sureties, and if the said land be insufficient for that purpose, may it please your Honor to enforce the judgment liens aforesaid against the real estate of the said Anthony P Wright & of the said sureties so far as may be necessary to discharge fully the purchase money aforesaid for which said sureties are respectively bound, and also subject the lands of the said John H Carner descended to his heirs, first assigning to his widow her dower therein, if entitled to the same: appoint guardians ad litem to the infant defendants, order all proper accounts, Grant to your Orators & Oratrices the Commonwealth's writ of summons commanding &c and all such other & further aid and relief as Equity and good conscience may dictate and the nature of their case may require, and, as in duty bound, they will ever pray &c.

E. C. Burks P. Q."

On October 3, 1868, in File 6082 Anthony P. Wright admitted the amounts due and the default in payment, but asked for a sale of the property in a form to obtain the best price and further alleged that there existed a suit to clear obstructions below the mill, which would enhance its value:

"The Separate answer of Anthony P. Wright to a bill of complaint exhibited against him and others in the circuit Court of Bedford County by William Dickinson jr and others and the Said defendant saving and reserving to himself the benefit of all proper exceptions to said bill for answer thereunto or unto such parts thereof as he is advised it is material for him to make answer unto answers and says that he admits he purchased the mill and land in the bill mentioned at the price therein stated and that he executed the four bonds for $4675 each with the security to each bond as stated in the bill. This first bond with James M. Ramsey as security having been paid off, he admits that judgments have been obtained against him and his securities on the other three bonds on these judgments payments have been made to a considerable amount the exact amount he does not know. He admits that there is balance due on each of said bonds. Further answering he says that he is advised that as the suit is brought to subject the said Mill property to the vendors lien thereon that your Honor will give him a reasonable time within which to pay the balance of the purchase money before a sale thereof is made. He believes if this is done that he will be able to pay the balance of the purchase money or so much of it as that the property will sell for a sum sufficient, with the payments he will be able to pay, as to relieve his securities which he is most anxious to do, from all loss. He further states that the said mill tract purchased by him contains about 180 acres, and that it will sell to much better advantage and the interests of all parties will be promoted if it should be sold in two parts, that is to say to sell the mill property with thirty acres of land attached thereto in one tract and the residue 150 acres in another tract. He further states that the mill property aforesaid if sold until the case of Wright vs Kasey &c pending in this Court is decided would be sold under disadvantageous circumstances and at a great sacrifice. That suit is brought for the purpose of relieving said mill from injuries caused by obstructions below and so long as these obstructions remain the property will be regarded as of much less value and would necessarily be sacrificed. He humbly submits that a court of equity would not decree a sale until this difficulty is removed or at least until the question is settled in regard to it, especially when a sale under such circumstances must result in a great sacrifice of the property

On October 3, 1868, in File 6082 the court ordered the Court Commissioner to take an account of the amount due from Anthony P. Wright on the original purchase price of $18,700 and that report showed one note of $4675 paid in full and a second note of $4675 paid in part and that over $12,000 remained due. That report also stated that Anthony P. Wright then owned two tracts of land, one the Mill Tract for 197 acres and a second for 275 acres:

". . . . At the date of these judgments Anthony P Wright was seized and possessed of the following real estate.

- 1      197 acres in Bedford county, on Goose Creek - called the "Mill tract" for the purchase money of which the bonds to the complainants were executed

- 2      275 acres in the same county, on Beaver dam creek adjoining William Anderson, P. R. Moorreau & others some 80 acres of which are not conveyed to Wright, but have been paid for except about $50

He has also an interest (what is unknown to the commissioner) in lands in Franklin county not paid for, and not more more than sufficient in value to pay the purchase money. Now rented to Reed Barton and David Barton

It does not appear that any of this land has aliened since the rendition of the complainant's judgments

It does not appear that there are any liens or incumbrances on the lands of Anthony P Wright, other than the judgments of the complainants on which there is a balance due as of 1 January 1869 of

On February 5, 1872, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 6643, James C. Kasey and William A. Wingfield filed their complaint against Anthony P. Wright for an accounting and sale of the land of Anthony P. Wright to pay a judgment obtained in January 1866 for $685.14:

"To the Hon. John A. Wharton, Judge of the County Court of Bedford County; sitting as chancellor:

Your orators James C. Kasey & William A. Wingfield, administrators with the will annexed of Thomas Kasey decd on behalf of themselves & such others, the creditors of Anthony P. Wright, who shall come in, & contribute to the costs of this suit, humbly complaining show unto your honor, that their testator in his life time obtained a judgment by confession in the clerk's office of the County Court of Bedford County against the said Anthony P. Wright for the sum of six hundred & eighty five dollars and fourteen cents with interest thereon after the rate of six per centum per annum from the the 4th day of June 1858 until paid, subject to a credit of one hundred & twelve dollors & 70¢ as of the 1st day of January 1859, & for three dollars & 31¢ the costs of said judgment That the said Judgment was duly entered on the Lien docket in said clerk's office on the 9th day of January 1866 - as will appear more fully by an abstract of said judgment & certificate thereto attached herewith filed marked "A".

Your orators charge that the whole of the said judgment, with the exception of the said sum of one hundred & twelve dollars & 70¢, remains due & unpaid, and that the said Anthony P. Wright owns no personal estate, by a sale of which under a writ of fieri facias, the said judgment could be paid off & discharged, but that he was at the date of said judgment, & is now, the owner in fee simple of several tracts of land lying on Beaver dam creek in the county of Bedford, & containing 30, 50 & 108 acres respectively. They are advised that these tracts of land & any other land which he may have owned at the date of the said Judgment, or which he may have since acquired, are subject to the lien of the aforesaid judgment & liable to be sold to discharge the same. Your orators charge that the rents & profits of the aforesaid lands will not pay off the said debt in five years

To the end therefore that justice may be done them, & forasmuch as they are remediless save in a court of Equity where matters of this kind are properly cognizable & relievable, your orators pray that the said Anthony P. Wright may be made a party defendant to this bill, & required on oath to answer the same as fully & particularly as if the allegations thereof were here again repeated & he thereto specially interrogated; that all proper accounts may be directed to be taken by one of the commissioners of this Court; and finally the premises considered may it please your honor to decree a sale of the lands of the said Anthony P. Wright or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay off the aforesaid judgment, & such other debts as shall be properly shown to constitute liens upon the same: Grant unto your orators the commonwealth's writ of summons commanding &c and such other further & general relief as the nature of their case may require & to equity shall seem meet; & your orators, as in duty bound, will ever pray &c

S. Griffin p.q."

On March 1, 1872, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 6643, the court ordered the commissioners to take an account of the land owned by Anthony P. Wright and the liens against that land for debts due:

On November 27, 1875, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 48/349 Anthony P. Wright purchased a tract of land from M. P. Burks, as commissioner:

"This deed made this the 27th day of November, 1875, between M. P. Burks, Commissioner as hereinafter named of the one part, and Anthony P. "Commissioner's Sale of a Valuable Tract of Land And Mill In the County of Bedford

Also a valuable Saw Mill.

This tract of land contains 194 acres, 1 rood, and 23 poles; is in a good neighborhood; is of good quality and has on it an abundance of timber, and is well watered. A portion of the tract is finely adapted to the culture of Tobacco.

Thereafter the commissioners filed their report in File 6082 that part of the land had been sold to A. H. Wright and part had been sold to P. R. Moomaw:

"Dickinson &c        )
v                        ) Report of Commissioners to sell land Wright &c            )

The undersigned who were appointed commissioners by a decree, pronounced in the above named cause, on the 1st day of May, 1869, to sell the tract of land in said decree mentioned respectfully report that after having advertised the time and place of sale for more than three weeks by printed handbills, posted at public places in the county and advertisement in the Bedford Centinel and news and Bedford slot(?) news papers published in the town of Liberty sold by public auction to the highest bidder on the premises on Thursday the 24th day of February, 1876, the said tract of land.

The tract of land was sold _____ request of Jno T. Dickins & A P Wright in two parcels. they deeming best do so and we concurring with them in opinion That portion of the tract lying ___th of the mill described as follows "commencing at the upper corner of the field (Rami field) at the creek thence up the hill in a straight-line across the road and down the hill over the left to the branch and down the branch to the creek again" this part of the tract was supposed to contain 150 acres and was sold as containing that quantity but with the understanding which was produced at the sale that if the quantity upon a survey should be ascertained to be in excess of 150 acres the purchaser was to pay for such excess at the rate per acre at which the land was sold and if there should be less than 150 acres there was to be an abatement for such deficiency at the same rate per acre, under these terms the said tract was knocked out to A. On February 2, 1882, Archibald H. Wright filed a complaint in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 2582, to enjoin the life tenant from committing waste on the property:

"To the Hon. G. A. Wingfield Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County Humbly complaining shew unto your Honor your Orator Archibald H. Wright that in the year 1857 one George Haldren departed this life after first having made and published his last will and testament an office copy of which is herewith filed as a part of this bill marked No. 1. From an inspection of this will it will be seen that the said testator devised the whole of his estate, both real and personal, to his wife Elisabeth Haldren for and during her natural life and after her death to be equally distributed amongst his children and heirs at law. Your Orator further represents that the Said George Haldren left the following children and heirs at law Surviving him to wit, Terry Haldren, Henry Haldren and John W. Haldren, that on the 19th day of July 1859 the said Henry Haldren sold his interest in the said estate to one John Q. Dickinson, and on the 4' day of June 1860, the said Terry Haldren sold his interest in the said estate to the same party. That on the 23rd day of Feby 1875, the said John Q Dickinson Sold to your orator the said two interests, as will appear by a deed herewith filed as a part of this bill marked No 2. Your orator further represents that on the 2nd day of March 1869 the said John W. Haldren conveyed to one M. H. Gray his interest in the said George Haldrens estate, that the said M. H. Gray has sold to your orator his interest in the said estate and that all the purchase money has been paid, but no deed has been made to your orator as yet: Your orator represents that he is the owner of all the interest in the said George Haldrens estate, to be enjoyed after the termination of the life estate of the said Elisabeth Haldren.

Your Orator further represents that the Said Elizabeth Haldren has leased to one Wm. M. Ramsey a portion of the estate of the said George Haldren of which she is life tenant, for the year 1882, that the Said tenant has entered upon the said land, and is cutting down the timber thereon to such an extant that the land is being permanently injured thereby. Your orator further represents that there is ample cleared land in the said tract of land for farming purposes. That there is no necessity for cutting down said timber; that they are not using it for the purpose of benefitting the place; nor are they cutting it for fire wood; but the timber is cutt for the purpose of raising tobacco on the land, that there is pinewood enough already cut without taking ____ consideration that ____ the said Wm M Ramsey, that the life tenant several years; this is the fourth new ground cut within the last four or five years, and there is a large quantity of fire wood that can not be used before it rots. Your Orator further represents that the plantation needs fencing very badly, but no efforts are being made to fence, no rail timber has been cut for this purpose, but the timber is being cut down and destroyed without improving the place in any respect. To the end therefore, that justice may be done in the premises and for as much as your orator is remediless except in a court of equity where such matters are peculiarly cognisable he prays that the said Wm M Ramsey and the said Elisabeth Haldren & M H. Gray may be by proper process, made parties defendants to this bill and required on their several corporate oaths to answer the charges allegations and things hereof as particular as if they were here repeated, and they severally interrogated thereto May your Honor issue an order restraining the said Elisabeth Haldren and Wm M Ramsey from committing any further waste on the said premises May be restrained inhibited and enjoined from cutting any more timber or committing any more waste on ____ orator the Comwths writ commanding &c and such other further and general relief as the nature of his case requires and equity and good conscience may dictate, and in duty bound she will ever pray.

I Robt. S. Quarles a Notary Public in and for said County in the state aforesaid do certify that Archibald H Wright - this day came before me in said County and made oath that the statements contained in the foregoing Bill are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Given under my hands this the 3d day of February 1882

Ro. S. Quarles N.P.

Injunction granted according to the prayer of the Bill to restrain the defendants Elizabeth Hauldron, and William M. Ramsey and all other tenants of the said Elizabeth Hauldron, their agents, servants and all others concerned from clearing cutting or deadening any of the timber or woods on the land in the Bill mentioned, or from destroying, removing or selling any of the timber on the said land already deadened or cut, except such as may be necessary for firewood for the said Elizabeth and her tenants and such as may be necessary for making and repairing the enclosures around the said land, and repairing the buildings thereon, and the tools and implements for the cultivation of said land or constructing (?) any other waste of any kind until the further order of the Court. But this injunction is not to take effect unless and until the complainant shall have entered into bond with good security in the penalty of Two hundred dollars, conditioned for the payment of all such damages and costs as may be incurred or recovered by the defendants or either of them by reason of this injunction, in case the same shall be dissolved

Febry 3d 1882

To the Clerk of the Court
Court of Bedford County"

On February 25, 1882, the court entered its order in File 2582 continuing the injunction prohibiting waste on the property and limiting the clearings:

"In the Clerks Office of the Circuit Court of Bedford County February 25th 1882

Archibald H. Wright	Plaintiff Against
Elizabeth Holdren William M. Ramsey & M. H. Gray	Defendants

In Chancery

An order of the Judge of said Court, made in this cause, in vacation, was this day received by the Clerk of the said Court, in the vacation of the Court, and being now entered of record in the Order Book of the said Court, is in the words and figures following, to wit:

"In vacation of the Circuit Court of Bedford County February 25th 1882.

Wright v Haldren & others
In Chancery

On the motion of the Defendant Elizabeth Holdren upon notice to dissolve the injunction in vacation awarded the plaintiff in this cause on the 3d day of Feby 1882 (which motion was by consent of the parties by Counsel adjourned until this day). The Court upon consideration of the bill, answers of the Defendants Elizabeth Holdren and William M. Ramsey exhibits and examination of witnesses and the arguments of the Counsel of both of the parties, is of opinion that while it was the duty of the life tenant to keep up the farm by proper cultivation in rotation of crops and using grasses and manures so as not to let it become impoverished and go to waste. Yet under the circumstances of this case she and her tenants ought to be allowed to use and cultivate the two parcels of the land in the proceedings mentioned, rented to her tenants Woodford & Ramsey for the present year, using all the wood and timber cut off of it (after building the tobacco house contracted to be built by Ramsey) for fire wood and repairing the enclosures. And hereafter to make such reasonable clearing of the land in the second growth of woods, as her necessities from time to time require so that the same be cut and cleared in relation to the open land on the farm in such form as to do as little injury as possible to the tract (the form and extent of such clearings so designated and prescribed by disinterested persons to be appointed for the purposes) -- Therefore the Court doth adjudge order and decree that the said motion to dissolve the said injunction be overruled except in so far as it inhibits the said Elizabeth Holdren and her said Tenants from clearing up and cultivating that part of the said land rented to the said Woodford & Ramsey mentioned in the proceedings in this cause upon condition that the wood and timber cut off said land and clearings (except that set apart for building the said tobacco house by the said Ramsey) and the other dead wood on the said tract of land is to be first used for fire wood and repairs of the enclosures on the said farm before any live or green wood or timber is cut off of said farm for that purpose. But this decree is without prejudice to the right of the said Elizabeth Holdren hereafter to apply to the Court in term time or in vacation (on notice to the plaintiff) for leave to make such other reasonable and proper clearings of the second growth wood land on the said tract of land, as may be proper to be cleared and cultivated for her use and support and for the appointment of proper commissioners to designate the boundary and form an extent of such clearings -- And also without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to hold the said Elizabeth Holdren and her tenants to account for any damage or waste that has or may be done or committed on the said farm and tract of land by them or any of them.

The marriage bond of Mary Ann Wright, daughter of Elizabeth, and Richard P. Feathers was dated on October 29, 1846, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Anthony P. Wright as surety:

This record identifies Mary Ann (Wright) Feathers as a daughter of Elizabeth Wright and the witnesses Anthony P. Wright and Robert C. Ramsey clearly identify that Elizabeth Wright as the widow of 1826 Archibald Wright of Bedford County.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Richard P. Feathers with the following household:

Name	Age	Occupation	Born
Richard P. Feathers	29	carpenter	Virginia
Mary A. Feathers	26		Virginia
Jane A.(?) Feathers	4		Virginia
Alan or Alexr Feathers	5/12		Virginia
Margaret Lackard or Sackard	18		Virginia
Abram Ridgway	23	laborer

This record indicates that Mary Ann (Wright) Feathers was born in about 1824 and that Richard P. Feathers was born in about 1821.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Richard Feather with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Born
Richard Feather	36(?)		Carpenter	Virginia
M. A. Feather	32	F		Virginia

John Feather	10	M		Virginia
_____ Feather	8	F		Virginia

_____ Feather	2	M		Virginia
Wm Dooley	20	M	Farm Laborer	Virginia

This record indicates that Mary Ann (Wright) Feather was born in about 1828 and that Richard Feather was born in about 1824.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Mary Ann (Wright) Feathers and Richard P. or B. or R. Feathers were the following:

- 1) Jane A. Feathers, born about 1846 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 2) S. Feathers, born about 1848 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 3) Alan or Alexander or John Feathers, born about 1850 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 4) _____ Feather, a daughter, born about 1852 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 5) _____ Feather, a daughter, born about 1855 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, and
- 6) _____ Feather, a son, born about 1858 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County.

(I) Jane A. Feathers

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed S. Feathers in the Richard P. Feathers household and his age as 12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1848.

(III) Alan Or Alexander Or John Feathers

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Alan or Alexander Feathers in the Richard P. Feathers household and his age as 5/12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1850.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Feathers in the Richard P. Feathers household and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1850. This might also have been the Alan or Alexander Feathers of the 1850 Census, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

(IV) _____ Feather

(V) _____ Feather

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed _____ Feathers in the Richard P. Feathers household and her age as 5 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1855.

(VI) _____ Feather

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed _____ Feathers in the Richard P. Feathers household and his age as 2 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1858.

iii. Not Harriet Elizabeth (Wright) Bandy, Her Samuel W. Bandy, And Her Descendants

Harriet Elizabeth (Wright) Bandy was not a daughter of 1826 Archibald Wright of Bedford County and Elizabeth "Betsy" (Wright) (Wright) Ramsey, although she was a daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) Wright.

The marriage bond of Harriet E. Wright, daughter of Elizabeth Wright, and Samuel W. Bandy was dated on November 30, 1846, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Anthony P. Wright as surety:

"Mr John Steptoe Sir let Samuel W Bandy have licens to mary my Daughter Haret E Wright

Elizabeth Wright

Nov 30 1846

Signed, sealed, &c, in presence of Jno M Reese"

Samuel W Bandy
Anthony P Wright

The consent of Elizabeth Wright with Anthony P. Wright as a witness clearly identifies Harriet E. Wright as a daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) Wright.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Samuel W. Bandy with the following household:

Name	Age	Occupation	Born
Samuel W. Bandy	29	farmer	Virginia
Elizabeth Bandy	21		Virginia
Emeline	18		Virginia
Wm. A. C.	1		Virginia
Robert Hogan	29	laborer	Virginia
Sarah Hogan	25		Virginia
William Hogan	6		Virginia
James Hogan	3		Virginia

This record indicates that Harriet Elizabeth (Wright) Bandy was born in about 1829 and that Samuel W. Bandy was born in about 1821.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Samuel W. Bandy with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Property	Born
Samuel W. Bandy	39		Farmer	$100	Virginia
E. Bandy	30	F			Virginia
Wm Bandy	12	M			Virginia
Jacob Bandy	10	M			Virginia
___ Bandy	8	F			Virginia
___ Bandy	6	M			Virginia
___ Bandy	4	F			Virginia

This record indicates that Harriet Elizabeth (Wright) Bandy was born in about 1830 and that Samuel W. Bandy was born in about 1821.

The result of these census records is to make clear that Harriet Elizabeth (Wright) was born in about 1829 or 1830, three or four years after the death of 1826 Archibald Wright of Bedford County, and, therefore, could not be his daughter and was the daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) Wright and another man who remains unidentified. That man was probably not Elizabeth's second husband Robert C. Ramsey, since Harriet did not adopt his surname as hers.

f. Mary "Polly" M. (Wright) Franklin, Her Husband Francis W. Franklin, And Her Descendants

The marriage bond of Polly M. Wright and Francis W. Franklin was dated on February 26, 1821, at Bedford County, Virginia, with John Wright as surety:

"Know all men by these Presents that we Francis W Franklin and John Wright are held & firmly bound unto Thos M Randolph governor or cheif magistrate of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the Just & full Sum of one hundred & fifty dollars Current money of Virginia to which Payment well & truly to be made to the said governor or his Successors we bind ourselves and each of us our and each of our heirs Exors &c. Francis M. Franklin	50	Farmer	Virginia
Mary Franklin	50		Virginia

This record indicates a birth date for both Francis M. Franklin and Mary (Wright) Franklin of about 1800 and the place of birth in Virginia. Since 1826 John Wright was residing in Bedford County at that time, Mary (Wright) Franklin's place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

In Bedford County, Virginia on 11 November 1825 Archilis Nichols married Nancy Wright, John Wright, surety. Nancy was born 11 September 1800 in Bedford County, Virginia and died 1 September 1858 in Breckinridge County, Kentucky from typhoid fever. She was the daughter of John Wright (1 Aug 1759 - 26 Sep/8 Nov 1826) and Susannah (Hudnall) Wright (13 Sep 1758 - 1826/29). John Wright served in the Revolutionary War. On 26 September 1834 Achilles Nichols gave a deposition to Bedford County court concerning the estate of his father-in-law and his sister-in-law Frances "Franky" (Wright) Glover. Achilles and Nancy may have moved to the state of Ohio for one year. They moved to Breckinridge County, Kentucky between 1834 and 1836 according to the births and marriage bonds of their children. They settled near Garfield, Kentucky where the Nichols, Gross and Dowell families of this book lived. In the 1850 Breckinridge County census the following families lived on adjacent farms: Jubal and Tamsey (Smelser) McCoy; Abraham and Nancy (McCoy) Gross; William H. and Catherine (Gross) McCoy; Riley and Julia (McCoy) Dowell; Philpot and Mary (McCoy) Nichols, and Achilles W. and Nancy (Wright) Nichols. The estate was settled 18 March 1861 by son William W. Nichols, but the final settlement was not until 1866. The 1861 settlement named their eight children. A doctor made daily visits to attend to Achilles and Nancy from 28 August until 4 September 1858. They were buried in the Durbin Family Cemetery by Highway 86 southeast of Hensley, Kentucky. (Their tombstones were inscribed Nicholas.) Miles Johnson constructed their two coffins for $18.00. They were the parents of eight children. (1) John E. (2) Mary Elizabeth (3) William W. i. John E. Nichols, His Wife Ruth Elizabeth (Elliott)
(Wilson) Nichols. And His Descendants

"Mrs. Ruth E. Nichols, the beloved wife of John Nichols sr., died at her home in Sigourney Friday Mar. 9, aged 69 years, 7 months and 9 days.

Mrs. Nichols whose maiden name was Wilson was born in Louisville, Ky., and there wedded to her first husband, Mr. Elliott. In less than a year she was a widow with one child. She was again married to John Nichols, and in 1856 they removed to Sigourney where they have since made their home. To them were born seven children, four of whom have passed away, the survivors being Mrs. John Schott of this place, John Nicholls jr., of Keokuk and James Nichols of Sigourney. Mrs. Nichol's daughter by her first husband, Mrs. James Davis of Adams twp., likewise survives her.

The immediate cause of Mrs. Nichol's death was cancer of the stomach, but for many years she had been a sufferer from a complication of diseases that made her tenure of life at all times a frail one. She was perfectly resigned to die, and laid down life's burdens as quietly and uncomplainingly as she had always borne them. For many years Mrs. Nichols had been a member of the Adventist church and under the auspices of that denomination her funeral was conducted Sunday morning."

In his letter dated February 9, 1997, Dean R. Thilgen enclosed a copy of the following obituary for Ruth E. Nichols dated March 15, 1894, from The News, Sigourney, Iowa, Volume 34, Number 4, page 3, column 2:

"Died at her home in Sigourney, March 10, 1894, after an illness of six months, Mrs. Ruth E. Nichols, wife of J. E. Nichols, one of Sigourney's oldest settlers. She leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn her death. The remains were laid to rest in West Hill cemetery. "We mourn not as do those without hope.' The family wishes to extend their most grateful thanks to those who so kindly assisted them during her long illness."

In his letter dated February 9, 1997, Dean R. Thilgen enclosed family group sheets which stated that John E. Nichols was a son of Nancy (Wright) Nichols and Achilis W. Nichols, was born on January 17, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, married

Ruth Elizabeth Wilson on April 5, 1849, at Hardin County, Kentucky, resided in 1856 at Iowa, died on November 26, 1921, at What Cheer, Keokuk County, Iowa, and was buried at West Cemetery, Sigourney, Keokuk County, Iowa, that Ruth Elizabeth (Wilson) Nichols was born on August 11, 1825, and died on March 10, 1894, and that John E. Nichols and Ruth Elizabeth (Wilson) Nichols had the following children:

- 1) Nancy Florence (Nichols) Payton, born on July 9, 1851, at Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 2) Martha Josephine (Nichols) Schott, born on September 15, 1853, near Howe Valley, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 3) Jonathan W. "Nick" Nichols, born on October 24, 1855, at Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 4) Denison Nichols, born on September 9, 1857,
- 5) Greenberry C. Nichols, born on October 16, 1860,
- 6) James R. Nichols, born on January 1, 1867 or 1868, and
- 7) Louisa "Lulu" Nichols, born on September 12, 1864.

In his email dated February 19, 1997, Dean R. Thilgen enclosed an email from Norman Robinson which stated that John Yonge Nichols was a son of Nancy (Wright) Nichols and Achilles Nichols.

In his letter dated March 9, 1997, Norman L. Payne enclosed an extract from his book Payne And Associated Families Of Breckinridge County, Kentucky which stated that:

"1) John E. Nichols, the first child of Achilis W. and Nancy (Wright) Nichols, was born 17 January 1827 in Bedford County, Virginia and died 26 November 1921 in What Cheer, Keokuk County, Iowa. At Elizabethtown, Hardin County, Kentucky on 6 April 1849 he married Ruth Elizabeth (Wilson) Elliott who was born 11 August 1825 at Elizabethtown, Kentucky and died 10 March 1894. They were married by Elder Cread T. Meador. She was the daughter of Johnathan Wilson (5 May 1802 - 8 Apr 1849) and Mary (Cash) Wilson (1802 - 15 Jun 1839). John's sister Mary Elizabeth Nichols married Ruth's brother John Wilson. (See below) Ruth was married first on 25 January 1844 to Richard Elliott who died before their child Mary Elliott was born. John and Ruth left Hardin County, Kentucky in 1856 and left everything behind, including all ties to the rest of the family. They moved to Sigourney, Keokuk County, Iowa where John was a farmer. "At the residence of his parents in Sigourney, Friday, January 11, 1889, G. C.
Nichols.

On the 26th of November "Greene" was injured by falling from a telegraph pole, by which fall his back was dislocated.

The operation of setting it was performed at Keokuk and endured by him with such fortitude that the doctors gave great hopes of his final recover.

A week ago last Thrsday he was brought home to Sigourney and seemed to stand the trip remarkably well. On Sunday, however, he began failing and on Friday he passed away.

The writer has known "Greene" as boy and man, for the last fourteen years, and it is not often we have been called upon to pen a death notice affecting us so nearly. On first recollection of him was an act of moral courage on his part that won him our respect and affection, and from that hour we have never known him guilty of anything dishonorable or deceitful. A straight forward honorable man, and the best of sons. The community sympathizes deeply in the grief of his stricken parents. It is not two years since they laid Lou to rest and the new bereavement comes with double force in their declining years. But the remembbrene of his filial virtues, and his manly worth must console them, and after all the river it is not hard to cross when loved ones are on the other side.
"Greene" has laid down the hard burden of life, but his memory will remain to comfort them, and an example for other sons."

"Died.

At the residence of the parents, in Sigourney, on Friday, July 1st, '87. Miss Lulu Nichols, aged 22 years.

The feeling of sincere sorry with which we pen the above is mixed with a sense of unreality that is almost as painful. Of the many lives that have touched and mingled with our own, none seemed so little likely to be a brief one. Ideas of the agony of sickness or the silence of death were utterly remote from one so filled with the joy of life as she. Wherever she went she brought smiles and sunshine, and her very faults were those which arose from her keen zest of life. She enjoyed the brief summer of her existence, and gladdened the way for others. It is not the still deep river that hides the pearls, they lie under the dancing ocean crest. Thus under the sparkle of wit and gayety in Lulu's nature lay the sterling qualities which made her a dutiful daughter, a devoted sister and a faithful friend. The writer knew her as a child and a woman, helped her somewhat up the "hill of science," and had many proofs of her affectionate, grateful disposition. But death has claimed her, the light has gone from those honest eyes, the seal of silence lies upon the smiling lips and the heart that was always kind and tender is tilled forever. She sleeps in the little peaceful cemetery on the hills in a loneliness, broken only by the song of birds in the trees about, or the hum of solemn voices when some new comrade takes his place in the garden of the slumberers. She sleeps there; our eyes fill at the half realized thought and our heart goes out in tender sympathy with the mourning family."

In his letter dated February 9, 1997, Dean R. Thilgen enclosed family group sheets which stated that Susie Lee Bewley was a daughter of Susan Matilda (Nichols) Bewley and Thomas Duvall Bewley.

In his letter dated March 9, 1997, Norman L. Payne enclosed an extract from his book Payne And Associated Families Of Breckinridge County, Kentucky which stated that:

(VIII) _____ Bewley

In his letter dated February 9, 1997, Dean R. Thilgen enclosed family group sheets which stated that _____ Bewley was a daughter of Susan Matilda (Nichols) Bewley and Thomas Duvall Bewley.

In his letter dated March 9, 1997, Norman L. Payne enclosed an extract from his book Payne And Associated Families Of Breckinridge County, Kentucky which stated that:

"8) daughter Bewley (twin), the eighth child of Thomas Duvall and Susan Mitileka (Nichols) Bewley, was born in 1887 and died as an infant."

3. James Wright

James Wright was a son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County and Mary (Pace) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>)

The Douglas Register listed the birth of James Wright on March 5, 1761:

"Births & Baptisms

John Wright & Mary Pierce a Son named James born Mar: 5, 1761. Baptized 1761 Ap: 12. p.59

...."

On February 26, 1781, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 6/313 James Wright, the son of John Wright, was discharged from paying the county levy:

"James Wright the Son of John Wright discharged from the payment of the County Levy for the future."

Since James Wright was about to attain 21 years of age, this record indicates that James Wright was probably incapacitated in some way.

The fact that James Wright was not mentioned in 1814 John Wright's will indicates that he had probably died before the will was written on December 28, 1804, or had been intentionally disinherited.

4. 1845 Thomas Wright Of Pittsylvania County. His Wives Probably Charity Ballenger (Hilton) Wright And Sarah "Sally" Elizabeth "Betsey" (Pullen) Wright. And His Descendants

1845 Thomas Wright of Pittsylvania County was a son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County and Mary (Pace) Wright. (John<sup>1</sup>, 1814 John<sup>2</sup>)

The Douglas Register did not list the birth date of Thomas Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright.

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed four John Wrights, one of whom was probably 1814 John Wright with the following household in April:

Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg. Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16
John Wright	2		2

Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Weals Ridg Carriages	Ordinary Licenses
	6	14

The listing of two white tithes indicates that one of the sons of 1814 John Wright was born between approximately March 1762 and March 1763.

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright, Sr., and son Thomas with the following household:

Person Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16
John Wright, Sr. & son Thomas	2		2

	6	15

The listing of Thomas Wright in the John Wright household as a tithable indicates that Thomas Wright was probably the tithable listed in the 1784 Personal Property Tax List and, therefore, was the son born between approximately March 1762 and March 1763. This would fit appropriately between the births of James Wright on March 5, 1761, and Ann (Wright) Watts on November 14, 1765.

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright, Sen. with two white tithes in his household:

Persons Names	Total Tythes	Taxes on Covg Horses	Whites Over 21 Years	Blacks Over 16 Years
John Wright, Sen.	2	2

Blacks under 16 Years	Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels riding Carriages	Ordinary Licenses
	5	15

The 1787 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright Little O. with Thomas Wright as a tithable and the following household:

Date of Recg List from Individuals	Persons Names Chargeable With Tax	Number of White Male Tithables above 21
	John Wright Little O	John Wright & Thomas Wright

No white Males above 16 Under 21	Blacks above 16	blacks under 16	horses Mares, Colts &amp; Mules	Cattle	Carriage Wheels
1			5	14

Ordinary Licenses	Billiard Tables	No Stud Horses	rates

The 1788 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright (L.O.) with the following household on April 30:

Date of receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons Names Chargeable With the Tax	Number of tithes white &amp; black	Num-ber of blacks over 12	horses Mares Colts &amp; Mules
April 30	John Wright (L.O.)	4	1	6

Carriage wheels	Ordinary license	Billiard Tables	Number of Stud Horses	Rates of Covering	Practising Physicians Apothecaries &amp; Surgeons
------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	------------------------------	--------------------------	--

The large number of tithes in the household indicates that Thomas Wright was probably still residing in his father's household.

The 1789 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright (Little Otter) with the following household on June 21:

Date of Receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons Names Chargeable with the Tax	No. of Tithes Whites &amp; Blacks	No of Blacks Over 12 years	Horses Mares Colts &amp; Mules
June 21	John Wright (Little Otter)	4	1	8

Carriage Wheels	Ordinary License	Billiard Tables	No of Stud Horses	Rates of Covering	Practising Physicians Apothecaries &amp; Surgeons
------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--

Again, the large number of tithes indicates that Thomas Wright was still residing in his father's household.

The marriage bond of Thomas Wright and Charity Ballenger Hilton was dated on February 24, 1790, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the consent of Lucy Hilton and Benjamin Watts as surety and the marriage on February 25, 1790:

"Sir

mentioned in the subsequent litigation to settle title to certain land sold by James Hilton before his death, but two other married daughters, Kitturah (Hilton) Craig and Mary (Hilton) Scruggs, were mentioned. The implication is clear that Charity Ballenger (Hilton) Wright died shortly after her marriage without children. The result is that Thomas Wright, the son of 1814 John Wright, probably married Charity Ballenger Hilton and she died shortly after the marriage without issue.

The 1790 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thomas Wright (LO) with the following household on April 26:

Dates of Receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons Names Chargable with the Tax	No. of Tithes Black &amp; White	No. of Blacks over 12	Horses Mares Colts &amp; Mules
April 26	Thomas Wright (LO)	1		2

Carriage Wheels	Ordinary License	Billiard Tables	No of Studs	Rates of Covering

The listing of Thomas Wright as "LO" identifies him as of Little Otter and, therefore, the son of 1814 John Wright who lived on Little Otter. The separate listing of Thomas Wright in the Personal Property Tax List is consistent with his marriage to Charity Balinder Hilton and the establishment of his own household.

The 1791 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thomas Wright in the Matthew Pate District with the following household on March 21:

Mar 21	Thomas Wright	1	1	5

carriage Wheels	Ordinary License	Bil-liard Tables	No of Stud Horses	Rates of Covering	Practising Apothecaries Physicians &amp; Surgeons
