This record indicates that Thomas Wright was born between 1750 and 1760 and that Susannah (Pasley) Wright was born between 1770 and 1780. The jump in age for the oldest male and the lack of a change for the oldest female between the 1830 and 1840 censuses indicate that each had been born about the turn of a decade, that is, approximately 1760 for Thomas Wright and 1780 for his second wife Susannah (Pasley) Wright.

In addition, the continuous listing of a single Thomas Wright with 140 or 140 plus 340 or 480 acres of land from his purchase in 1785 until his death in 1849 and the listing of that same Thomas Wright as owning the 14 acres allocated from 1815 Joseph Wright's estate confirms that 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County was the son of 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of 1849 Thomas Wright was dated August 21, 1849, was appraised on November 12, 1849, and was filed on January 7, 1850, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 7/101 showing a total value of $3,658.17-1/2, including nine slaves valued at $2,950.00:

After the death of 1849 Thomas Wright litigation was initiated by his son Robert P. Wright regarding the proper interpretation of his will. On October 18, 1849, at Franklin County, Virginia, Chancery Court Order Book A/_ the court entered its order as follows:

"Robert P. Wright Executor of      Pliff
Thomas Wright Decd against
Susannah Wright and others.      Defts.

This day this cause came on to be heard by the consent of the parties by their counsel. On the Bill of the Plaintiff answer of the Defendants Solomon Wright, Mary Wright, Wm Richardson and Nancy his wife, Richard Bandy and Margaret his wife Thomas Wright, Elizabeth Payne and Pheba Wright and exhibit and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof it is the opinion of the Court that upon a fair and proper consideration of the Will of the Testator Thomas Wright in the Bill mentioned. The children in the Bill mentioned of the slave Charlotte born in the life time of the Testator after the publication of the said Will pass to and rightfully belong to the Defendant Susannah Wright. That the wagons Blacksmiths Tools and Cross cut saw in the Bill also mentioned pass under the bequest in the said Will to the Plaintiff and Defendant Susannah Wright. But that the crops of grain that were growing and unsevered at the death of the said Testator fall into the residuum and pass to the said residuary legatees after the payment of the Testator's debts and that the children and heirs of the said Joseph Wright Decd in the Bill mentioned collectively are entitled to one eighth of the said residuum as residuary legatees of the said Testator. Therefore the court doth adjudge order and decree that the plaintiff do deliver over and surrender the two slaves in the Bill mentioned the children of the slave Charlotte born between the time of the publication of the said Will and the death of the Testator to the Defendant Susannah Wright - upon her giving to him a proper refunding bond, and that he and the said Susannah jointly retain and hold the said wagon Blacksmiths tools and cross cut saw unless it should be necessary to resort to the sum for the payment of the Testators debts. And that the Plaintiffs do hold the proceeds of the said crops of grain growing at the time of the said Testator's death and carry the same into the said residuum and at the proper time after first paying the said Testators debts and expenses of Administration pay the same to the Defendants Solomon Wright, Wm. Richardson and wife, Richard Bandy & wife Elizabeth Payne, Phebe Wright, Mary Wright and Thomas Wright and the said children and heirs of Joseph Wright Decd. as the residuary legatees of the said Testator counting the said children and heirs of Joseph Wright Decd as one legatee - Upon their executing to him refunding bonds with security - And the court doth further adjudge order and decree that the Plaintiff pay the costs of this suit out of the Estate of his Testator - And liberty is reserved to the Defendants respectively hereafter to call upon the plaintiffs to account to them as such residuary legatees. And for such and further order or decree as may become necessary to recover their respective legacies from the plaintiff."

In her letter dated August 19, 1987, Mrs. Doris L. Pasley enclosed a poem or ballad written for Susannah Pasley on August 6, 1813, when she was 32 by an unknown author. The poem reads as follows:

"A song Ballad For
Miss Susannah Pasley
August 6th Day 1813

O that I had some secret place
Where I might hide from sorrow
Where I might see my saviour's face
And thus be saved from terror
O had I wings like yonder's dove
I'd leave this world _____
And fly away to _____ above
Where angels sit _____
My heart is often _____ to mourn
Because I'm faint and feeble
But when my Jesus seems to frown
My heart is full of trouble
But then again he doth return
When I Repent by folly
Then I do after glory run
And still my Jesus follow"

In her letter dated April 23, 1997, Betty Morgan Matthews enclosed family group sheets which stated that Susannah Pasley was a daughter of Robert Pasley, Sr., and Sarah "Sally" (Forbes) Pasley, was born on March 18, 1781, at Fluvanna County, Virginia, married Thomas Wright on March 10, 1821, at Franklin County, Virginia, and died on August 2, 1858, at Franklin County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County and Phebe (_____) Wright were the following:

- 1) Joseph F. Wright, born on January 22, 1781,
- 2) Solomon Wright, born about 1784 at Virginia, probably at Franklin County, Virginia,
- 3) Mary Wright, born about 1786 at Virginia, probably at Franklin County, Virginia,

4) Nancy (Wright) Franklin, born about 1787 at Virginia, probably at Franklin County, Virginia,

5) Margaret "Peggy" (Wright) Bandy, born about 1791 at Franklin County, Virginia,

6) Thomas Anthony Wright, born between 1794 and 1804 and about 1795 at Virginia,

7) Elizabeth (Wright) Payne, born about 1793 or 1800, and

8) Phebe (Wright) Wright, born about 1800 at Virginia, and the only child of 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County and Susannah (Pasley) Wright was the following:

1) Robert Penn Wright, born on January 18, 1821, at Franklin County, Virginia.

a. 1829 Joseph F. Wright Of St. Louis County, Missouri, His Wife Cynthia (Belcher) Wright, And His Descendants

1829 Joseph F. Wright of St. Louis County, Missouri, was a son of 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County and Phebe (____) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1849 Thomas<sup>3</sup>)

The 1802 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright T son with the following property:

	Persons Names	White Tithes	Blacks Over 16	Blacks Over 12 &amp; Under 16
March 19	Joseph Wright T son	1	0	-
	Horses &amp;c &amp;c	Stud Horses	Rates p Season	Store License	Dollars Cents
	1	-	-	-	- 12

The reference to "T son" clearly identifies this Joseph Wright as the son of 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County. The absence of Joseph Wright from the 1801 Personal Property Tax List and his first listing in the 1802 Personal Property Tax List indicates that he was probably born after 1780.

The 1803 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wright Jr's, one of whom had the following property:

	Persons Names	White Tithes	Blacks Over 16	Blacks Under 16 &amp; Over 12
Aug 6	Joseph Wright Jnr	1	-	-
	Horses, Mares &amp; Colts	Stud Horses	Rate per Season	Merchant License	Dollar Cents
	1	-	-	-	- 12

This was probably 1829 Joseph F. Wright, since the other Joseph Wright Jr. in 1803 had two white tithes in his household and that would more likely have been 1844 Joseph Wright of Hardin County, Kentucky, who was older than 1829 Joseph F. Wright.

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright Jur with the following property:

In Franklin County, Virginia, Deed 22/302 dated September 11, 1852, one group of the grantors was described as the "heirs of Joseph Wright".

In his letter dated October 26, 1981, Mr. James Wright Robinson enclosed family group sheets which stated that Joseph F. Wright was born on January 22, 1781, married Cynthia Belcher on July 18, 1808, at Franklin County, Virginia, and died on May 8, 1829, at Missouri, and that Cynthia (Belcher) Wright died in August 1831.

The identification is confirmed by an obituary of Wiley S. Wright dated 1873 and copied by Thomas F. Nugent in December 1966, but without identifying the source, although it was probably from a St. Louis newspaper. 1849 Thomas Wright's will listed seven children of his son Joseph Wright: Malinda Breggs, Tyree Wright, Latitia Gerard, James A. Wright, Wiley S. Wright, Virginia P. Wright, and Julia A. Wright. The 1873 obituary identified this same family as children of Joseph Wright and Cynthia A. Wright:

"Mr. Wiley S. Wright, the subject of this sketch, was the son of Joseph and Cynthia A. Wright who emigrated from Virginia to this county, where he was born July 13, 1821. Left an orphan at an early age and having to depend solely on his own exertions he apprenticed himself to learn the "tinning" trade which business he followed until March 1849, when he associated himself with Mr. Charles H. Buck, establishing the firm of Buck & Wright as stove dealers. Their trade steadily increasing they found it adviseable to manufacture in St. Louis and in 1857 erected the Eclipse Stove Works.

The firm of Buck & Wright have for nearly a quarter of a century been noted throughout the land for strict integrity and honorable business dealing, and have by industry and enterprise accumulated considerable wealth becoming identified with the growth and prosperity of St. Louis. It was probably the oldest firm in the City that had experienced no change in members since its organization. I understand that throughout all these years no written contracts or agreements have ever existed between the partners their confidence in each other's honor being deemed fully sufficient, and it being thought adviseable in order to simplify the settleing of Mr. Wright's estate that he should transfer his interest to Mr. Buck, the parties met during his last illness came to an understanding and perfected all necessary arrangements in less than ten minutes. A transaction that exhibets the confidence and highly honorable sentiments existing between them.

Mr. Wright was married in 1863 to a daughter of Captain Malin of the Laclede Hotel who with two children survies him. He has two sisters and two brothers still living, the widow of the late John B. Girard, Mrs. John Knapp and Mr. James A. Wright, of St. Louis, and Mr. Tiery T. Wright of Sacramento, California. St. Louis has lost a citizen and we have all lost a friend that cannot be replaced. Kind and affable, strictly upright in all his business and social relations he was respected and beloved by all who knew him and his loss will be felt and mourned by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His bereaved wife and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their hour of affliction and may He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb and numbers the hairs of our heads watch tenderly over those thus deprived of their earthly support and protector."

Mr. Robinson also provided copies of a biographical sketch of James A. Wright from a printed, but unidentified source, and an obituary of James A. Wright dated 1877

copied by Mr. Thomas Nugent, but with the source not identified. The biographical sketch provided as follows:

"Wright, James Anthony, manufacturer, was born in Virginia, February 18, 1819, son of Joseph and Cynthia Wright. Of English origin, the Wright family came to the United States at an early date and the parents of James A. Wright removed from Virginia to Missouri in the year 1821. Coming to St. Louis, they settled on a farm adjoining the farm of Colonel Frederick Dent, the father-in-law of General U. S. Grant, and on this farm their son lived during the earlier years of his life. He was educated at St. Louis University and then served an apprenticeship to the business of carriage building with the old-time carriage manufacturing firm of Carter & Powers, who occupied a factory located at the corner of Broadway and Locust street, on the site of the present Mercantile Library Building. In 1845 he engaged in the manufacture of carriages on his own account, associating himself at that time with Wesley Fallon in the firm of Fallon & Wright, which established its factory at the corner of Second street and Washington Avenue. Their buildings at that location were destroyed by fire after a time and they re-opened a new factory at the corner of Broadway and St. Charles street. At that location Mr. Fallon and Mr. Wright continued to be associated together in business until the year 1861. Mr. Wright then withdrew from the firm and established a carriage factory of his own at the corner of Broadway and Morgan streets, where he continued to do business until his death, which occurred June 29, 1877, and resulted from injuries received by being thrown from a carriage in a runaway accident. The manufacturing business which he built up was not only one of large proportions, but one which made his name well known throughout the entire Western country by reason of the excellence of the products sent out from his factory and bearing his name. This business it still carried on by his sons under the name of the James A. Wright & Sons Carriage Company, the present location of their factory and salesrooms being at the corner of Washington Avenue and Nineteenth street. As a manufacturer and business man, Mr. Wright was widely known, but in this sense only was he a public man. While he was always a pronounced Democrat in political affiliation, he declined to take any active part in the conduct of political campaigns, to stand as a candidate for or to fill any public office. He had a marked fondness for music, and in early life was for some years a member of the choir of the Methodist church located at the corner of Fourth street and Washington Avenue and had something to do with church work in this connection, although he was not identified with any church organization as a member. The charitable work of church and other organizations, however, appealed to him strongly and found in him a warm friend and liberal donor. He married, in 1851, Miss Louisa H. Potter, who survives her husband. The father of Mrs. Wright was Colonel John C. Potter, who came to St. Louis from Boston during the war of 1812, and in the maternal line, she is descended from Emilien Yosti, who came to this country with the Spanish army of occupation, which took possession of the Province of Louisiana when France ceded it to Spain. Yosti married Theodiste Durand, whose parents, John B. Durand and Josepha Marcheteau, where the tenth couple wedded in St. Louis.

Mr. Wright left three sons and one daughter of whom Joseph P., Frank L. and Cora F. - the last named being now wife of Charles W. Nugent are living; the other son, John B., died in September, 1896."

The James A. Wright obituary provided as follows:

"James A. Wright died on June 29, 1877 at an age of 59. His death was caused by an accident. He was one of the oldest carriage manufacturers of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. James A Wright, whose death we notice above, was born near Lynchburg, Va., in Franklin County, on the 19th of February 1819. In the fall of 1820, when he was about 18 months of age, he, with his parents with household goods and all they possessed of worldly goods removed in one of the old fashioned traveling wagons to the then small but thriving village of St. Louis, where they settled on a farm in the suburbs and where his early years were spent. Having lost both his father and mother at the age of 14 he apprenticed himself to Mr. Samuel Mount at that time the leading carriage builder of St. Louis. His duties in the factory were various and after working in nearly all of the departments he finally settled down in the paint shop where he stayed until he finished his trade training. In those days, the boys boarded with their boss, and after their work was over in the shop they had to do the chores of the house, drive up the cows, split wood and etc. Mr. Mount retiring from the business Mr. Wright, at the age of 16, re-engaged by the new owner Mess'rs Carter & Power from New Haven, Conn., and remained with them until he finished his apprenticeship, or rather, until he became of age making his apprenticeship seven years. After becoming a Journeyman, he worked for several years in the factories of St. Louis meeting with the successes and reverses that still assail the painter. During a dull season he went south to New Orleans and worked there one winter in Denmans (Carriage) Repository. From there he went to Nashville, Winchester and other towns of Tennessee. About the last of the year 1846 he received a letter from Mr. Wesley Fallon asking him to return to St. Louis. He purchased the interest of Mr. George Bailey, at that time a partner of Mr. Fallons and on the first day of January, 1847, the new firm of Fallon and Wright was formed with their factory on Second Street between Washington Avenue and Vine Streets. After two years of fair success their place was burned out and as they had not a dollars worth of insurance they had to commence anew. This they did immediately in a small way by the assistance of friends and re-established themselves on 5th Street between Locust and St. Charles Streets at that time the most fashionable residence portion of the City. By constant attention to business their trade increased until the name of Fallon & Wright became widely known and of itself was a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of any buggy or carriage that bore it. After an existence of exactly 15 years the firm of Fallon & Wright was dissolved, Mr. Wright retiring and remaining out of business for two years when he resumed at 809 & 811 North 5th Street, building up a trade and name of the firm being James A. Wright & Sons, under which name his sons will continue the business.

Mr. Wright met his death by being thrown from a buggy on the evening of June 28th, while trying a horse which his sons contemplated purchasing. He lingered unconscious until early on the morning of the 29th when he expired. He was missed by all who knew him and from his long residence in St. Louis and his extended business he was widely known. The following extract from an editorial in one of the St. Louis newspapers will suffice to show the high estimation in which he was held by his employees and his friends, for his strict integrity and honorable life. Mr. Wright was married Dec. 30, 1851, to Miss Louisa Hanna Potter, a descendant of some of the earliest settlers of St. Louis, who survives him. He also leaves, besides the two sons who were engaged in business with him, a son and daughter aged respectively 12 and 9 years."

It is clear from these records that Joseph F. Wright who married Cynthia Belcher was the son of 1849 Thomas Wright and that he moved from Franklin County, Virginia, to St. Louis, Missouri, in 1820 or 1821.

Mr. Robinson listed nine children of Joseph F. Wright and Cynthia (Belcher) Wright, two of whom died unmarried and without issue in 1834, prior to the date on which 1849 Thomas Wright wrote his will:

- 1) Malinda A. (Wright) Briggs,
- 2) Tiery T. Wright,
- 3) Latitia (Wright) Girard,
- 4) Elizabeth G. Wright,
- 5) James Anthony Wright,
- 6) Wiley S. Wright,
- 7) Virginia P. (Wright) Knapp,
- 8) William Parnell Wright, and
- 9) Julia A. Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1829 Joseph Wright of Missouri and Cynthia (Belcher) Wright were the following:

- 1) Malinda A. (Wright) Briggs, born on June 15, 1809,
- 2) Tyree or Tiery Wright, born on July 19, 1811, at Franklin County, Virginia,
- 3) Latitia or Lactitia (Wright) Girard or Gerard, born on March 6, 1814, probably at Franklin County, Virginia,
- 4) Elizabeth Green Wright, born on October 21, 1816, at Franklin County, Virginia,
- 5) James Anthony Wright, born on February 18, 1819, near Lynchburg, Virginia, or at Franklin County, Virginia,
- 6) Wiley S. Wright, born on July 13, 1821, at St. Louis County, Missouri,
- 7) Virginia P. (Wright) Knapp, born on February 9, 1824,
- 8) William Parnell Wright, born on December 13, 1825, and
- 9) Julia Ann (Wright) Mount, born on January 5, 1828.

In his letters dated October 29, 1981, and October 26, 1981, James W.

Robinson enclosed family group sheets which stated that James Anthony Wright was a son of 1829 Joseph F. Wright and Cynthia (Belcher) Wright, was born on February 18, 1819, at Franklin County, Virginia, married Louisa Potter on December 30, 1851, at St. Louis, Missouri, and died on June 29, 1877, at St. Louis, Missouri, that Louisa Hanna (Potter) Wright was born on December 10, 1829, at St. Charles, Missouri, and that they had the following children:

- 1) Joseph Potter Wright, born on October 28, 1852, at St. Louis, Missouri,
- 2) Frank Louis Wright, born on July 18, 1854, at St. Louis Missouri,
- 3) Tiery James Wright, born on May 10, 1856, at St. Louis, Missouri,
- 4) James Henry Wright, born on February 5, 1858 at St. Louis, Missouri,
- 5) Louisa "Lulu" Lillian Wright, born on February 26, 1862, at St. Louis, Missouri,
- 6) John Belcher Wright, born on August 14, 1864, at St. Louis, Missouri, and

7) Corine Elizabeth (Wright) Nugent, born on November 13, 1867, at St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. Robinson also provided copies of a biographical sketch of James A. Wright from a printed, but unidentified source, and an obituary of James A. Wright dated 1877 copied by Mr. Thomas Nugent, but with the source not identified. The biographical sketch provided as follows:

"Wright, James Anthony, manufacturer, was born in Virginia, February 18, 1819, son of Joseph and Cynthia Wright. Of English origin, the Wright family came to the United States at an early date and the parents of James A. Wright removed from Virginia to Missouri in the year 1821. Coming to St. Louis, they settled on a farm adjoining the farm of Colonel Frederick Dent, the father-in-law of General U. S. Grant, and on this farm their son lived during the earlier years of his life. He was educated at St. Louis University and then served an apprenticeship to the business of carriage building with the old-time carriage manufacturing firm of Carter & Powers, who occupied a factory located at the corner of Broadway and Locust street, on the site of the present Mercantile Library Building. In 1845 he engaged in the manufacture of carriages on his own account, associating himself at that time with Wesley Fallon in the firm of Fallon & Wright, which established its factory at the corner of Second street and Washington Avenue. Their buildings at that location were destroyed by fire after a time and they re-opened a new factory at the corner of Broadway and St. Charles street. At that location Mr. Fallon and Mr. Wright continued to be associated together in business until the year 1861. Mr. Wright then withdrew from the firm and established a carriage factory of his own at the corner of Broadway and Morgan streets, where he continued to do business until his death, which occurred June 29, 1877, and resulted from injuries received by being thrown from a carriage in a runaway accident. The manufacturing business which he built up was not only one of large proportions, but one which made his name well known throughout the entire Western country by reason of the excellence of the products sent out from his factory and bearing his name. This business it still carried on by his sons under the name of the James A. Wright & Sons Carriage Company, the present location of their factory and salesrooms being at the corner of Washington Avenue and Nineteenth street. As a manufacturer and business man, Mr. Wright was widely known, but in this sense only was he a public man. While he was always a pronounced Democrat in political affiliation, he declined to take any active part in the conduct of political campaigns, to stand as a candidate for or to fill any public office. He had a marked fondness for music, and in early life was for some years a member of the choir of the Methodist church located at the corner of Fourth street and Washington Avenue and had something to do with church work in this connection, although he was not identified with any church organization as a member. The charitable work of church and other organizations, however, appealed to him strongly and found in him a warm friend and liberal donor. He married, in 1851, Miss Louisa H. Potter, who survives her husband. The father of Mrs. Wright was Colonel John C. Potter, who came to St. Louis from Boston during the war of 1812, and in the maternal line, she is descended from Emilien Yosti, who came to this country with the Spanish army of occupation, which took possession of the Province of Louisiana when France ceded it to Spain. Yosti married Theodiste Durand, whose parents, John B. Durand and Josepha Marcheteau, where the tenth couple wedded in St. Louis.

Mr. Wright left three sons and one daughter of whom Joseph P., Frank L. and Cora F. - the last named being now wife of Charles W. Nugent are living; the other son, John B., died in September, 1896."

The James A. Wright obituary provided as follows:

"James A. Wright died on June 29, 1877 at an age of 59. His death was caused by an accident. He was one of the oldest carriage manufacturers of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. James A Wright, whose death we notice above, was born near Lynchburg, Va., in Franklin County, on the 19th of February 1819. In the fall of 1820, when he was about 18 months of age, he, with his parents with household goods and all they possessed of worldly goods removed in one of the old fashioned traveling wagons to the then small but thriving village of St. Louis, where they settled on a farm in the suburbs and where his early years were spent. Having lost both his father and mother at the age of 14 he apprenticed himself to Mr. Samuel Mount at that time the leading carriage builder of St. Louis. His duties in the factory were various and after working in nearly all of the departments he finally settled down in the paint shop where he stayed until he finished his trade training. In those days, the boys boarded with their boss, and after their work was over in the shop they had to do the chores of the house, drive up the cows, split wood and etc. Mr. Mount retiring from the business Mr. Wright, at the age of 16, re-engaged by the new owner Mess'rs Carter & Power from New Haven, Conn., and remained with them until he finished his apprenticeship, or rather, until he became of age making his apprenticeship seven years. After becoming a Journeyman, he worked for several years in the factories of St. Louis meeting with the successes and reverses that still assail the painter. During a dull season he went south to New Orleans and worked there one winter in Denmans (Carriage) Repository. From there he went to Nashville, Winchester and other towns of Tennessee. About the last of the year 1846 he received a letter from Mr. Wesley Fallon asking him to return to St. Louis. He purchased the interest of Mr. George Bailey, at that time a partner of Mr. Fallons and on the first day of January, 1847, the new firm of Fallon and Wright was formed with their factory on Second Street between Washington Avenue and Vine Streets. After two years of fair success their place was burned out and as they had not a dollars worth of insurance they had to commence anew. This they did immediately in a small way by the assistance of friends and re-established themselves on 5th Street between Locust and St. Charles Streets at that time the most fashionable residence portion of the City. By constant attention to business their trade increased until the name of Fallon & Wright became widely known and of itself was a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of any buggy or carriage that bore it. After an exsistance of exactly 15 years the firm of Fallon & Wright was dissolved, Mr. Wright retiring and remaining out of business for two years when he resumed at 809 & 811 North 5th Street, building up a trade and name of the firm being James A. Wright & Sons, under which name his sons will continue the business.

Mr. Wright met his death by being thrown from a buggy on the evening of June 28th, while trying a horse which his sons contemplated purchasing. He lingered unconscious until early on the morning of the 29th when he expired. He was missed by all who knew him and from his long residence in St. Louis and his extended business he was widely known. The following extract from an editorial in one of the St. Louis newspapers will suffice to show the high estimation in which he was held by his employees and his friends, for his strict integrity and honorable life. Mr. Wright was married Dec. 30, 1851, to Miss Louisa Hanna Potter, a decendant of some of the earliest settlers of St. Louis, who survives him. He also leaves, besides the two sons who were engaged in business with him, a son and daughter aged respectively 12 and 9 years."

In his letters dated October 29, 1981, and October 26, 1981, James W. Robinson enclosed family group sheets which stated that Wiley S. Wright was a son of 1829 Joseph F. Wright and Cynthia (Belcher) Wright, was born on July 13, 1821, at Virginia, and married "Nannie" Malin in 1863, at the Laclede Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri, and died on November 5, 1873, that "Nannie" (Malin) Wright was born between 1850 and 1855, and died on February 10, 1924, and that they had the following children:

- 1) Anna (Wright) Hazeltine, and
- 2) _____ Wright.

Mr. Robinson also enclosed an obituary of Wiley S. Wright dated 1873 and copied by Thomas F. Nugent in December 1966, but without identifying the source, although it is probably from a St. Louis newspaper:

"Mr. Wiley S. Wright, the subject of this sketch, was the son of Joseph and Cynthia A. Wright who emigrated from Virginia to this county, where he was born July 13, 1821. Left an orphan at an early age and having to depend solely on his own exertions he apprenticed himself to learn the "tinning" trade which business he followed until March 1849, when he associated himself with Mr. Charles H. Buck, establishing the firm of Buck & Wright as stove dealers. Their trade steadily increasing they found it advisable to manufacture in St. Louis and in 1857 erected the Eclipse Stove Works.

The firm of Buck & Wright have for nearly a quarter of a century been noted throughout the land for strict integrity and honorable business dealing, and have by industry and enterprise accumulated considerable wealth becoming identified with the growth and prosperity of St. Louis. It was probably the oldest firm in the City that had experienced no change in members since its organization. I understand that throughout all these years no written contracts or agreements have ever existed between the partners their confidence in each other's honor being deemed fully sufficient, and it being thought adviseable in order to simplify the settleing of Mr. Wright's estate that he should transfer his interest to Mr. Buck, the parties met during his last illness came to an understanding and perfected all necessary arrangements in less than ten minutes. A transaction that exhibets the confidence and highly honorable sentiments existing between them.

Mr. Wright was married in 1863 to a daughter of Captain Malin of the Laclede Hotel who with two children survies him. He has two sisters and two brothers still living, the widow of the late John B. Girard, Mrs. John Knapp and Mr. James A. Wright, of St. Louis, and Mr. Tiery T. Wright of Sacramento, California. St. Louis has lost a citizen and we have all lost a friend that cannot be replaced. Kind and affable, strictly upright in all his business and social relations he was respected and beloved by all who knew him and his loss will be felt and mourned by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance. His bereaved wife and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their hour of affliction and may He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb and numbers the hairs of our heads watch tenderly over those thus deprived of their earthly support and protector."

The marriage bond of William Richeson and Nancy Wright was dated on March 24, 1806, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Joseph Wright as surety:

"Know all men by these Presents that We William Richeson and Joseph Wright are held and firmly bound unto William H Cabell Esquire Governor of the Com Wealth of Virginia in the Sum of one hundred and fifty Dollars current money to the Payment whereof Well & truly to be made to the said Governor & his Successors, we bind ourselves and each of us, our & each of our heirs, Executors & Administrators, jointly & severally firmly by these Presents sealed with our seals, and dated the 24th day of March 1806

The will of 1849 Thomas Wright dated October 20, 1843, and probated on August 6, 1849, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 7/79 listed William Richardson as his son-in-law:

". . . Item 6" I have heretofore paid my son in law Wm Richardson & wife five hundred dollars in a negroe woman & child which I intended as their portion of my estate . . . ."

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed William Richardson with the following household:

Name	Age	Occupation	Born
Richardson, William	68	Farmer	Virginia
Nancy	63		Virginia
Greenberry	40	Farmer	Virginia
Lewis	31	Farmer	Virginia
Nancy	22		Virginia
Sarah	15		Virginia

This record places Nancy (Wright) Richardson's birth date in approximately 1787 and William Richardson's in approximately 1782. Since 1849 Thomas Wright was residing in Franklin County, Nancy's place of birth was probably at Franklin County, Virginia.

Immediately adjacent to the William Richardson family in the 1850 Census was Joel Richardon, aged 25, a farmer and born in Virginia, and his wife Margaret, age 22 and born in Virginia, and their one month old infant. This was probably the son of William and Nancy, but further research will be required to confirm the identification.

On January 27, 1851, in Bounty Land Warrant File 53079 Nancy (Wright) Richardson applied for Bounty land by reason of William Richardson's service in the War of 1812 and stated that her husband had died on July 5, 1850, at Roanoke County, Virginia:

"State of Virginia )

On this Twenty Seventh day of January A.D., one thousand eight hundred and fifty one personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace within and for the county and State aforesaid, Nancy Richardson aged Sixty three years, a resident of Roanoke County in the State of Virginia, who being duly sworn according to law, declares, that she is the widow of William Richardson, deceased, who was a private in he company commanded by Captain Andrew Lewis in the ____ Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by Col. as will appear by his original discharge hereunto sent having procured John Wysong as a substitute for the remainder of his term. She further states that she was married to the said William Richardson in Franklin County on the Twentieth day of March A.D., 1806 by one John Sanders a Minister of the Gospel and that her name before her said marriage was Nancy Wright, that her said husband died at his house in Roanoke County on the 5th day of July A.D., 1850 and that she is still a widow.

She makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land to which she may be entitled under the act passed September 28th, 1850.

iii. John H. Richardson, His Wife Mary Frances (Greenwood) Richardson, And His Descendants

John H. Richardson was a son of Nancy (Wright) Richardson and William Richardson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1849 Thomas<sup>3</sup>, Nancy<sup>4</sup>)

In his letter dated May 14, 1997, Andy Asberry enclosed family group sheets which stated that John H. Richardson was a son of Nancy (Wright) Richardson and William Richardson, was born about 1815 at Virginia and married Mary Frances Greenwood at Virginia, that Mary Frances (Greenwood) Richardson was born about 1822 at Roanoke, Roanoke County, Virginia, and that John H. Richardson and Mary Frances (Greenwood) Richardson had the following children:

1) Joseph Richardson, born in 1847 At Roanoke, Roanoke County, Virginia,

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Nancy Richardson in the William Richardson household and her age as 12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1838.

v. Sarah Richardson

Sarah Richardson was a daughter of Nancy (Wright) Richardson and William Richardson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1849 Thomas<sup>3</sup>, Nancy<sup>4</sup>)

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Sarah Richardson in the William Richardson household and her age as 5 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1845.

e. Margaret "Peggy" (Wright) Bandy, Her Husband Richard Bandy, And Her Descendants

The marriage bond of Richard Bandy and Peggy Wright was dated on January 13, 1823, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Solomon Wright as surety:

"Know all men by these presents that We Richard Bandy and Solomon Wright are held and firmly bount unto James Pleasants Jr esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of one hundred and fifty Dollars current money of the United States to the payment whereof well and truly to be made to

This record indicates a date of birth for Margaret (Wright) Bandy in approximately 1791 and for Richard Bandy in approximately 1781. Since 1849 Thomas Wright was residing in Franklin County, the place of birth of Margaret was probably at Franklin County, Virginia.

John C. Bandy in the census record was probably a son of Richard and Nancy and Sarah F. was probably his wife and Joseph C. was probably their son, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

On September 11, 1852, at Franklin County, Virginia, D.B. 22/302 Richard Bandy and his wife Margaret and other heirs of 1849 Thomas Wright sold 62 acres of land to Joseph Ridgeway:

In her letter dated January 7, 1988, Mrs. L. St. Clair Blackford stated that the death certificate for Margaret Bandy listed her date of death on July 25, 1866, at Roanoke County, Virginia, her parents as Thomas and Phoebe Wright, her age as 75, and her birth place as Franklin County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Margaret "Peggy" (Wright) Bandy and Richard Bandy were the following:

- 1) Joseph R. or W. Bandy, born about 1825 at Virginia, and
- 2) John C. Bandy, born about 1826 at Virginia.

- i. Joseph R. Or W. Bandy

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Joseph R. Bandy in the Richard Bandy household and his age as 25 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1825.

On July 15, 1872, in Pension File WC 3402 for Nancy (Wright) Richardson, Joseph W. Bandy filed an affidavit in support of her pension claim:

ii. John C. Bandy, His Probable Wife Sarah F. (____) Bandy, And His Descendants

John C. Bandy was a son of Margaret "Peggy" (Wright) Bandy and Richard Bandy. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1849 Thomas<sup>3</sup>, Margaret<sup>4</sup>)

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed John C. Bandy in the Richard Bandy household and his age as 24 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1826. That Census also listed a Sarah F. Bandy, age 24, and Joseph C. Bandy, age 4, in the same household after John C. Bandy's name. These last two were probably the wife and child of John C. Bandy, but further research will be required to confirm this.

f. Thomas Anthony Wright Of Arkansas, His Wife Celia (Wright) Wright, And His Descendants

Thomas Anthony Wright and his wife Celia (Wright) Wright have been discussed above in connection with the family of 1850 Anthony Wright of Bedford County and his daughter Celia (Wright) Wright and the reader is referred to that section for the information on this family.

Elizabeth (Wright) Payne was a daughter of 1849 Thomas Wright of Franklin County and Phebe (____) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1849 Thomas<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Robert Payne and Elizabeth Wright on October 4, 1813, at Franklin County, Virginia:

The will of 1849 Thomas Wright dated October 20, 1843, and probated on August 6, 1849, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 7/79 listed Elizabeth Payne as one of his children:

". . . . Item 9" I have heretofore paid my daughter Elizabeth Payne five hundred dollars for which I have her receipt and which is intended as her portion of my Estate . . . ."

The 1850 Census for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Elizabeth Paine with the following household:

It is therefor Considered and ordered by the court that said report be and the same is hereby confirmed and in all things approved by the Court and ordered to be made a part of the record in this cause and that deed be made in accordance with said sale &c."

In that same letter Mrs. Garner enclosed a copy of Reminiscences Of Early Days In Washington County by Ben F. Greer which stated as follows:

". . . My grandmother Greer's maiden name was Michael Elizabeth Brown. Her ancestors were of Dutch descent and her father's family came to Penn's Colony which became Pennsylvania. After the Revolutionary War her father emigrated from Pennsylvania to Williamson County, Tennessee, about the same time that great-grandfather Greer settled in Davidson County. My grandmother Greer was born in 1803. In 1821 she and my grandfather married and emigrated to Missouri, settling east of Kansas City in LaFayette County, Mo., near Lexington and Warrensburg. One of grandfather's brothers, Joseph Greer, emigrated to Ray County, Mo., near the town of Dover. This was at that time sparsely settled. Grandfather Greer's nearest neighbor was three miles; the next was five miles. This is a very rich blue-grass country and grandfather entered a thousand acres of this fine land. There was an abundance of wild game and at one time grandfather shipped several hundred pounds of deer hams, commonly called Venison, and at the same time several hundred pounds of honey made by wild bees. He and a neighbor made a flat boat on the Missouri River and took their produce by boat to New Orleans where they trans-shipped their meat and honey to New York, sold it, and invested the proceeds in farm implements and other necessities and shipped back to Missouri.

I remember some stories my father used to tell about grandfather's hunting exploits. One time he was out hunting deer and shot and wounded a large buck deer. The deer fell at the crack of his rifle and he ran up to cut its throat so it would bleed good. When he took hold of the deer's horns to turn its throat, the deer struggled to its feet and knocked his hunting knife out of his hand. He knew he had to hold to the deer's horns so it could not stamp him to death. His clothing was buckskin but in the struggles it fairly cut his hunting clothes to ribbons. He struggled till finally he got hold of his rifle and got behind a large hawthorn bush. The deer chased him around and around. Reloading his gun and shooting it again and again he fired 24 balls into it before it was finally killed. He said he never ran in to cut another deer's throat till he knew it was safe to do so.

Another time he and a neighbor were out on a hunt and had for some reason been unable to kill anything except some coons and all the meat they had in camp was coon meat. So this day they had better luck and grandfather shot and wounded a large deer. The neighbor ran in to cut its throat and had dropped his knife and was hollering "Run, Greer, run; we haven't anything but coon meat in camp." Grandfather got so tickled that he couldn't hurry as fast as the neighbor kept yelling, "Run, Greer, run; we've nothing but coon meat in camp", but he finally got in and between them they finished their game with his hunting knife.

Another story was about someone stealing corn from his crib, which was built of logs. He suspected a neighbor, so one evening the neighbor was there and grandfather got the neighbor to help him set a steel trap inside at the crack they had been taking corn out of. But when the neighbor had gone he moved the trap to another place they could reach into and get corn. Next morning the neighbor was standing at the corn crib with his hand in the crack. Grandfather never let on that he had seen him and began feeding his stock. Finally the man hollered and asked grandfather to let him loose, which he did. He made the man go to the house where he dressed his hand and made him stay for breakfast and filled a sack with corn and told him that he would let him have all the corn he needed and let him work to pay for it and told his neighbor if he would never do that again he would never tell of the incident to his neighbors. The man agreed, so they both lived up to the agreement and the man was never again known to steal.

Another time grandfather started to the county seat on some business. As he was passing a house he heard a woman screaming and calling for help, so he jumped off his horse and dropped the bridle rein over a post and ran into the house. A man had a woman down and was choking and beating her, so Granddad took hold of him and pulled him off the woman. The fellow turned on him and he had to fight him off. The woman jumped up and got the stove shovel and began to hit Granddad with it and between the two he saw he was in for it, so he made a break, got out of the house and escaped. So he said he never tried to pull another man off when he was beating his wife. He just didn't butt in.

In 1849 when gold was discovered in California, Grandfather's oldest son and the two boys next to him went to California with Bullard's wagon train. Bullard took a stock of goods from Kansas City, hauled with wagons pulled by four and six-mule teams. Uncle George, my father's oldest brother, was married. He took his own wagon and team and wife and children. The other two boys hired to Bullard as teamsters.

In 1854 grandfather sold his land, 1,000 acres of as fine land as I ever saw, for $8 per acre. He intended to go to California when he sold out. But about this time some of those who went out in the Gold Rush began to return. Some had done well and saved a lot of money while some came back poorer than when they went. But all agreed that crossing the desert was an awful hardship and many had died, not able to stand the hardships. Then they had some fearful stories about having to fight the Indians, so my grandmother Greer began to beg grandfather not to go to California and suggested that they go to Texas instead. So they started to Texas.

They got down to what is now Evansville Valley in Washington County (Arkansas) and camped for a day or two to rest themselves and their teams. Grandfather liked the valley, so they bought several hundred acres of land and a store and stock of goods north of Evansville at what was then called Wilsonville.

George Greer, my father's oldest brother, died in California and was buried at a place called Santa Rosa. So the other boys brought his widow and children (two boys and two girls) back to Missouri near grandfather's old home in Lafayette County.

Grandfather and his boys prospered and did well until the Civil War broke out. Grandfather's land was scattered up and down the Arkansas and Indian Territory line and you could stand in front of his store and throw a rock across the line into what was then the Indian Territory. The Cherokee Indians were divided, most of the full-bloods and practically all the mixed-bloods went with the Confederacy and enlisted under Gen. Stand Watie. The full-bloods, called the Pin Indians, robbed, murdered and pillaged the Southern sympathizers and often robbed and sometimes killed those who were on the Northern side.

The Pin Indians accompanied by some renegades raided up and down the line every few weeks. On one of these raids they murdered my grandfather Greer and scalped him. He was barely able to ride a horse, as he was just recovering from a spell of typhoid fever. My father, a 16-year-old boy, was with his father, who told him to get away if he could, and he escaped, as he had a very fleet running horse. The women of the community went and got his body away in the night. There was no one to go but the women, as all the men and boys old enough to help were either in the army or had to refugee to Texas. The women had to bury their dead. There were nine boys in grandpa Greer's family and one girl. One of the boys and the daughter died in their infancy.

Five of father's brothers were in the Confederate army, besides himself. Four of them died of disease and exposure, so at the close of the war only he and one brother and my grandmother were left of their large family. My father was only 14 years old when the war began, and after grandfather's death there were just two alternatives left him -- either join the army or refugee to Texas, so when a little past 16 years of age he enlisted in Gen. Stand Watie's command. He never participated in any battles but was in several skirmishes. Once his company came to Fayetteville in an attempt to oust the Federal forces here.

He was in the cavalry and in the detail to guard their battery of artillery. He said he was scared and that it was all he could do to keep from running when the Federal forces attacked the Confederate battery of artillery. His company was lying on the ground in front of the battery and he said he could hardly keep from running. But after the fight started, he wasn't scared any more and they repulsed the attack on their battery. The battery then withdrew and marched south.

My father married Grandfather's youngest daughter in September 1866 and to them were born two sons, Benjamin Finis, named for one of father's brothers and one of mother's brothers, born July 30, 1867; Walter A, born February 29, 1872; Ida Lee, born September 8, 1869; Clara M., born November 27, 1875; Edna E., August 22, 1877; Mary Leona born March 21, 1879; Florence J., born April 3, 1885. My sister Ida married Robert B. Worsham August 21, 1887; died without issue May 25, 1888. I married Lulu B. Flinn on March 10, 1889. To us were born five boys and two daughters. Sister May and James H. Neff were married November 30, 1893; to them were born three daughters and five sons. Of the girls, Irene, the oldest, married Hooper who died and she remarried. Clara married a Mr. Jones. They live near Fort Smith. Betty, the youngest, who lives at Houston, married and has two children.

Joe, the oldest son, lives near Stilwell, Okla. George and Greer, the next two sons, live in Colorado. Wendle lives in New Jersey. The single son lives with his mother and sister Irene in California at Los Angeles. Sister Leona married twice. Her first husband was named A. C. Baird. They had one daughter, Fannie J., living at Seville, Florida, married to W. B. McBride. A. C. Baird was killed in an auto accident in 1924. Later, Leona married a Mr. Joe McLenan. She and her last husband are both dead. My sister Edna married Ben C. Barham in 1899. They have two sons, William K. and Gordon, both married and each has two daughters. Ben, who was a railroad man, is retired, and they and their sons and grandchildren all live near each other. Kenneth is on the police force and Gordon a mail handler at Union Station.

Sister Florence first married a man named McGuire by whom she had a son named William J. She and McGuire were divorced and Florence was given custody of Billie who took the name of her second husband, Joe London. Billie is married, has a fine girl and boy, and lives in Kansas City where he has a position with the Southwest Bell Telephone Company.

Back to earlier days. As a boy I was the oldest child in our family. My father was born in 1846. Slavery was in vogue. When he was 15, the Civil War broke out. He was the youngest of eight brothers and had never been trained to do any kind of work. He worked when he wanted to and played when he wished. So when his father was killed during the war and all his brothers but one died. When the Civil War ended he was 19 years old and when he came home from the army he had one horse.

The farm which had not been worked much for five years had grown up and it was almost starting all over again. He was greatly handicapped for he had little or no training. He had never learned to do many of the simple jobs of work done on the farm. He couldn't use a grain scythe, the implement used to harvest most of their grain. He had never learned to sow grain broadcast by hand. So he told me he wanted me to learn to do every job there was to do on the farm. So early he had a single stock plow built for me. At that time even a double shovel was unknown. When I learned to plow with a single stock we ran five furrows to each middle, so five or ten acres was a pretty big corn field. The wheat and oats were harvested by hand with a scything cradle. He couldn't cradle, so he had me learn to use one. Then the double shovel came into use. He bought one and had one cut down to fit my size. Then when cultivators came in, he bought one and I learned to use it too. Then he bought a mower to cut our meadow, then a reaper. They called it a dropper -- gave four men plenty to do to bind the grain as fast as he could cut it. Then the next was a binder. He didn't milk but always said that milking was a man's job. So as soon as I got large enough to tie and pull the calves off, it was my job to go with my mother to care for the cows and calves.

He was a progressive man and as a farmer he always held to the idea of building up the soil, by rotation of crops, growing legumes, and plowing all the residues he could into the soil. So when he died in December 1887, he left our land in better shape than it was when he took charge of it after the Civil War. He farmed from necessity. It was all he had had experience in doing. The war deprived him of an education. He was 14 when the war closed the schools and 19 when it ended and left them impoverished and without education or helpful experience. He wanted me to have an education so I would not have to slave (as he called it) on the farm.

When he was so suddenly taken from us in 1887, I was 20 years of age and poorly equipped to step out into the lead. My father and mother were both very liberal spenders and poor savers, so I had not learned the necessity for saving, as I had already passed the formative period of life. I have always felt that handicap and passed my failure on to my children, failing to impress upon them the value of time and money.

But my parents were Godly-minded and early they began to instill a love of the Master and service to Him and to my fellowman. My parents, since my earliest recollection, by both precept and example trained us to regard our duty to God and to our fellowman, so I owe much to them. For years after the Civil War we had poor school facilities. The average school term was three months. My father was an inveterate reader and instilled in me a love for reading good books and magazines, so by persevering habits of reading I have acquired a reasonably fair education which has helped me to be a better citizen and able to be of service to my country.

My father was always in the front in service to the community. In Sunday School, church, singing schools and regular day schools, he was always a leader in everything for the betterment of the community. His service was always given freely, without reservation and without any thought of remuneration. Many times in addition to his personal services he gave of his means without any thought on his part of over receiving any personal benefits. Many times his service rendered to the community meant considerable loss to him but I never heard him complain and he never failed or refused a service asked of him, no matter how much it inconvenienced him. It is with no little degree of pride that I look back to these services and sacrifices he made for the community good.

William A. Or H. or Henry Greer was a son of Mary (Wright) Greer and Martin Greer. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Mary<sup>3</sup>)

The will of Martin Greer dated March 11, 1822, and probated in July 1822 at Davidson County, Tennessee, W.B. 8/123 listed William H. Greer as his son:

". . . . I give and bequeath unto my beloved son William H. Greer one horse _____: one feather bed and furniture, one cow and calf, two ewes and lambs . . . ."

In her letter dated February 11, 1989, Mrs. Iris N. Garner enclosed two newspaper extracts regarding William A. Greer:

"The Daily Silver Age
Carson City, Nevada
2 October 1862

On Saturday evening, William A. Grear and his wife Anna, with three grown daughters, arrived and located permanently in this place. They are from Richardson county, Nebraska, which place they left on the 12th of May. A young man named Stephen Hillburn came through with Mr. Grear. Also, his two sons-in-law, Isreal Aroman(?), wife and two children, and Samuel H. Pugh, wife and five children. One of his sons-in-law, Mr. Pugh, we believe, proceeded on to California, but the old gentleman and lady, with the children and their other son-in-law, will remain and try their fortunes in Nevada this winter. Mr. Grear will start a couple of teams to hauling in a few days, with success, we hope. While on the plains, and at Sage Creek, some half-way between this place and the Missouri River, Mr. Grear came upon the grave of an emigrant who had been murdered by the Sioux Indians. The grave was being guarded by a beautiful black spaniel dog, who had remained on the ground where his master was buried for twelve days, endeavoring to dig down to him. In some places he had dug holes nearly two feet deep, and was unwilling that any one should approach the grave. With much difficulty, Mr. Grear secured the faithful little fellow and brought him in.

i. Maryann Marcella (Greer) Pugh, Her Husband Samuel Houston Pugh, And Her Descendants

In her letter dated March 12, 1989, Mrs. Iris Ash Garner enclosed the following extract from History Of Sacramento County by Win J. Davis published in 1890:

"Samuel Houston Pugh of Brighton Township was born in Owen County Indiana 21 August 1832, the son of James Pugh and Nancy Sikes, natives of Virginia. The father (James) Pugh was born in Charlotte County, Virginia and the mother in Halifax County, Virginia. His paternal grandfather, a native of France, came to America with Lafayette; was a corporal in the Revolution and remained throughout the struggle being present at the siege and battle of Yorktown. His maternal grandfather also served in the same war. Samuel's mothers first husband was named Scott who was of the same lineage as General Winfield Scott. He wintered at Valley Forge and died there after the war of the Revolution had closed. On his mothers side, Mr. Pugh's ancestry were Scotch and English.

James Pugh was born in 1790 and in the war of 1812. He was in the first Regiment that volunteered from Virginia. He marched to Norfolk under Capt. Carter and Colonel Henderson. At Fort Norfolk he served first in heavy artillery and was afterward transferred to different points where the fighting was in progress. After the close of the war, he continued to live in Virginia, married there, moved to Tennessee and then to Indiana settling on White River 7 miles below Spencer in 1827 or 1828 being one of the first settlers in Owen County. There were ten times as many Indians as white inhabitants. Wild game was so plentiful that a feast of fresh meat could be obtained at any hour of any day. When Samuel was 8 years old, the family located 3-1/2 miles SE of Neosho, Missouri. As they passed thru Neosho, the first log store was in process of erection there. The first clerk employed in Anthony's store there was "Jim" Raines, afterward General, who was killed in the Rebel Army at Murfreesboro.

Mr. Pugh was reared in Newton County, Missouri from 1839 to 1854 learning the carpenters trade from his father who was about the first contractor and builder in that locality. They built the first courthouse for that county, a log structure with one door and one or two windows for $143. They also built the Masonic Hall. Young Pugh also worked on the new courthouse under Martin Garrison. He followed carpentering until he was 17 years of age and then learned blacksmithing under Hendrick & McKee at Neosho and afterward he remained a year with his father building houses. November 4, 1854, Mr. Pugh started with another man to Texas with a small stock of dry goods and notions and 2000 apple trees which they took to Austin. They traveled thru 37 different counties of Texas that winter and 47 towns. In January, Mr. Pugh returned to Austin and accepted the superintendency of Judge Sneed's ranch, remained with him until June 17 and returned to Missouri where he wound up his affairs and on 24 Sept moved with his family to Texas locating 4 miles south of Austin where he had 100 acres of land. There he followed blacksmithing for 5 years. In 1859 he started for Pike's Peak with a team passing thru Indian Territory, Kansas and Nebraska to find a train going there, and failing he abandoned the trip. He then settled in Salem, Richardson County, Nebraska and worked there at blacksmithing and gunsmithing. While there, he held the offices of City Marshall, Deputy Sheriff and Deputy U.S. Marshall and was holding all these offices when he left. He raised the first military company that volunteered in that county and was elected it's Captain. The company was raised to garrison Western forts. He also served in the Home Guards 1-1/2 years and was in a fight with the Jayhawkers at Falls City. Between 30 and 50 shots were fired, 2 men killed and several wounded. Mr. Pugh lost some blood and a small piece of his ear. May 11, 1862 a train was made up, of which he was Captain, and each started with 4 oxen and a number of cows for California. Mr. Pugh came by mail and stage route up the Platte by way of the Big Blue, Fort Kearney and Fort Laramie crossing the S Platte at Julesburg, the N Platte at Louis Bernard's bridge, camped at Independence Rock on the night of July 3 and celebrated the 4th the next day. Onward he came by way of Fort Bridger to Salt Lake and the overland Stage route to Reese River and the sink of the Carson River to Carson City (Nevada) and by way of Placerville (Calif.) to Sacramento passing directly by his present place of residence. When he reached Placerville, he was out of money and he sold a $100 rifle at the Kingsley House for $10, paid $7.50 for expenses and $2.50 for crossing the bridge at Sacramento! He then worked for Mr. Crocker, Super. of the Steam Navigation Co. in their yard until he could earn enough money to go to his brother's in Sonoma County. There he remained until March 1863. Returning to Sacramento, he worked in the shipyard there until the middle of May. Next, he followed blacksmithing at Carson City, Nevada for about 2 years and then bought a ranch upon Carson River 55 miles from Carson. He built a hotel and blacksmith shop upon that place, moulding the brick, laying them and doing all the carpenter work himself. When the Central Pacific Railroad was built to Wadsworth, it drew the travel from his place and he had to leave it, losing all. Then, November 1, 1866, he located on the McCarthy ranch in this county (Sacramento) until 1869, following farming and blacksmithing also hauling some for building the levee. During the year just mentioned, he bought a piece of land in San Joaquin Township, 2 miles east of Florin and continued farming and blacksmithing for 5 years and finally purchased 1/2 acre which he now occupies (1890) as a residence. Here he built a blacksmith and wagon shop, the Washington Hotel, house, barn, stage coach stop, ect. all with his own hands. In his political views Mr. Pugh is a Democrat. He has served many years as inspector of elections, and one term as school trustee. He was admitted into Sacramento Lodge #40, F&AM in 1868 and is still a member of that Lodge and he, as well as his family, are members of the Grange. He was married in McDonald County Missouri 19 February 1852 to Miss Mary Ann Greer, a native of Clarksville, Pike County, Missouri and daughter of William and Ann (Jones) Greer. Her father was of Scotch descent and mother of French. She was a child when her parents moved to Jasper County, Missouri and subsequently they moved to McDonald, 2-1/2 miles from Pierceville. Her mother died in Carson

City and her father in Sonoma County, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Pugh have 9 children as follows:

1. Louis M. b 15 Dec 1852 in Missouri 3 miles from Neosho, and now living near Battle Mt. He was made a Mason at Elk Grove (Calif.) on the night he was 21, at the youngest age known in the U.S.

The 1850 Census for Scott County, Missouri, listed Berry Greer with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Born
Greer, Berry	42	M	Va.
Elizabeth	27	F	Ill.

Amanda	5	F	Mo.
Delilah	4	F	Mo.
Albert	3	M	Mo.
Susan	2	F	Mo.
Lilburn	6/12	M	Mo.

The age for (Green) Berry Greer in the census is consistent with a birth in 1808, as is the place of birth.

There are a number of records regarding the estate of Green B. Greer recorded in the records of the Circuit Court, Scott County, Missouri. The order for probate was dated April 26, 1852, and recorded at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/202, and appointed Benjamin Benefield administrator. On August 21, 1852, at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/254, Elizabeth Greer, the widow of Green B. Greer, and Harrison Greer, a son of Green B. Greer, moved for a sale of the decedent's slaves. In October 1852 at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/285, the administrator was authorized to rent the Horse Mill for twelve months and on January 28, 1853, at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/307 the administrator was authorized to sell the Horse Mill. An accounting on August 9, 1853, at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/355 charged the administrator with an estate of $2,385.49, which was reduced at a later accounting on July 7, 1854, at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. G/451 to $1,745.44.

Although the exact date is not indicated on my copy of the order, nor is the book and page number, some time after April 1858 and probably at Scott County, Missouri, W.B. A/335 Calvin Greer petitioned to be appointed guardian of Amanda, Albert, Lilburn, Mary L., and Nancy Greer, all of whom were under fourteen years of age. In three more orders, one for the year 1859, the court directed Isaac Hunter, curator for the wards, to pay various sums to Calvin Greer for the maintenance and schooling of his wards.

DAR Application #457446 stated that Martin and Mary Greer had a son named Greenberry Greer who was born on August 16, 1808, at Virginia and who died on March 29, 1852, at Sikeston, Missouri. The sources for this information were listed as the 1850 Census for Scott County, Missouri, an affidavit regarding tombstone records at Sikeston, Missouri, and a marriage record at Book 1/21 for Scott County, Missouri.

There was no John Wright who is known to have had a son John Wright in Franklin County at this time. There was one Joseph Wright (1844 Joseph Wright of Hardin County, Kentucky) who is known to have had a son John Wright in Franklin County at this time, but that John Wright would probably have been only 10 to 12 years of age at this time. The result is that this John Wright was the son of 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The second parcel was Lot number 8 in the Division and Allotment at Bedford County W.B. 4/262 dated August 22, 1816, consisting of 15 acres in Franklin County, the legal description of which is was follows:

On November 5, 1816, at Franklin County, Virginia, Deed 7/559, John Wright of Montgomery County sold Lot number 8 to James Mays:

Although the parcel is described as fifty rather than fifteen acres, it is clearly Lot number 8 that is being sold.

On November 5, 1816, at Franklin County, Virginia, D.B. 7/560 John Wright of Montgomery County sold Lot Number 11 to James Mays of Bedford County:

"This Indenture made this the 5th day of November 1816 between John Wright of the County of Montgomery and State of Virginia of the one part, & James Mays of the County of Bedford and State aforesaid of the other part, Witnesses,

The significant fact in these sales is that John Wright was described in each deed as of Montgomery County, Virginia.

On December 29, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Peter Dent filed an affidavit for issuance of a subpoena against John Wright, the son of Joseph Wright, in connection with his suit for land with the county of residence of John Wright left blank:

"Dent                                 )

Give Mr Dent a Subpena in this case for John Wright with a blank for the county to which it is to go

Take an order of publication as to the Defendant named in the affidavit at the next sales(?) say monday next see the affidavit now returned to the office by Mr Dent for their names

P. R Gilmer

This record indicates that the family did not know the residence of John Wright at that time and that he may not have then resided in Montgomery County.

On September 2, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers a summons was issued against the heirs of Joseph Wright to answer the complaint of Peter Dent for land with a notation in February 1828 that the case was ready as to all except John Wright:

"The Common Wealth of Virginia to the Sheriff of Bedford County greeting: We Command you that you summon Thomas Wright Joseph Wright William McCormack Judith McCormack James Mayse Patsy Mayse Joseph Meador

Jubal Meador Matthew Wright Wright Wright Samuel Mayse & Agness his wife Joel Simmonds & Bersheba his wife Martin Greer & Mary Greer his wife to appear before the Justices of our court of our said County at the courthouse thereof on the fourth monday in November to answer a bill in chancery exhibited against them by Peter Dent - And this they shall in no wise omit under the penalty of £100 - And have then there this Writ Witness James Steptoe Clerk of our said Court the 2d day of September 1824. In the 49th Year of our Independence

Ready as to all but John Wright. P.RG: __ Feby 1828."

A tentative identification of this John Wright as 1839 John A. Wright of Franklin County was made by Mr. William Pullen in his pamphlet Virginians and Hoosiers: Abshires, Hustons, and Wrights, Bedford, Franklin, Virginia and Union, Hamilton Counties, Indiana, 1977. However, that identification was incorrect and that 1839 John A. Wright of Franklin County, Virginia, was the son of 1830 William Wright of Franklin County and the grandson of 1809 William Wright of Franklin County. This conclusion is based on a clear identification of 1839 John A. Wright as a son of William Wright in the Franklin County, Virginia, Land Tax Lists.

The only Joseph Wright old enough to be listed in the Personal Property Tax List was 1844 Joseph Wright and this record indicates that he had moved to Bedford County, probably to his father's land there.

The 1793 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright Jr. with the following household on March 20:

This represented a consolidation of the two listings for Joseph Wright, Sr., and Joseph Wright, Jr., and confirms that 1815 Joseph Wright was the purchaser of Franklin County Deed 3/248 from Sith Mead.

The 1799 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright with the following property:

Horses, Mares &amp; Colts	Stud Horses	Rate per Season	Merchant License	Dollar Cents

This was probably 1844 Joseph Wright, since he would be old enough to have an additional white tithe in his household and as son of 1815 Joseph Wright could be known as "Jur".

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was Joseph Wright S with the following property:

The designation "S" probably stood for "senior" or "Staunton" and that would identify this Joseph Wright as 1844 Joseph Wright.

The 1805 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright with the following property:

This record reflects the purchase of 130 acres of land by 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County by Franklin County Deed 5/58. Although the land was owned by 1815 Joseph Wright and he left it to his children in his will, 1844 Joseph Wright apparently lived on the land and was separately taxed on it by Franklin County.

The 1807 Land Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Wright Joseph with the following property:

The listing of two white tithes indicates that this was 1844 Joseph Wright rather than 1829 Joseph F. Wright.

The 1809 Land Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright Jur with the following property:

Since 1844 Joseph Wright, the son of 1815 Joseph Wright, was born before 1829 Joseph F. Wright, the son of 1849 Thomas Wright and a grandson of 1815 Joseph Wright, the Joseph Wright listed as "Sr." in the 1810 Census would be 1844 Joseph Wright of Hardin County, Kentucky. Either record would place Joseph Wright Jr.'s birth date between 1765 and 1784 and if 1844 Joseph Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of his marriage, his date of birth would be between 1765 and 1776.

The 1811 Personal Property Tax List for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright with the following property:

Although this record indicates an additional 380 acres of land taxed to 1844 Joseph Wright, no document for such an acquisition has yet been found and the record was changed back to 130 acres the next year and I suspect that this was just a copying error in the records. However, after the death of his father, 1844 Joseph Wright was taxed on 380 acres of land and described as Joseph Wright, Sr. This was probably land considered as his by 1844 Joseph Wright, but actually owned by his father, and the correction of the records was not completed until the death of 1815 Joseph Wright. As will be set forth below, the will of 1815 Joseph Wright referred to land on which his son Joseph Wright then lived.

On October 3, 1814, at Franklin County, Virginia, D.B. 7/205 Joseph Wright, Sr., of Bedford County, that is 1815 Joseph Wright, gave the 130 acres of land on Lynville Creek which had been taxed to 1844 Joseph Wright, to 1844 Joseph's sons David Wright and Littleberry Wright:

"This Indenture made & entered into this third day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & fourteen between Joseph Wright Sr of the

The will of 1815 Joseph Wright dated February 21, 1815, and probated on September 11, 1815, at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court Book A/15 listed Joseph Wright as one of his children:

". . . 5thly I give and bequeath to my three eldest sons, Thomas, John & Joseph Wright and to my five daughters, Mary Greer, Agness Mayse, Judith McCormack, Patsy Mayse & Barsheba Simmons, and to the Heirs of my Daughter Nancy Meadors, decd. one hundred and fifty acres of Land in Franklin County, whereon my son Joseph Wright now lives. Also one hundred and thirty acres adjoining the same called Balls place to be equally divided between them . . . ."

1815 Joseph Wright's son Joseph was allotted Lot number 7 in Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/255 dated June 22, 1816, consisting of 310 acres in Bedford County, the legal description of which was as follows:

"Lot No. 7. 310 acres in Bedford County Begining at a Beach on the Creek off north 75 West 60 poles north 30 West 37 poles to a Chesnut oak on Doe Hill north 60 West 86 poles to a white oak off Dividing Lines South 5 East 92 poles to a red oak at the head of a Branch thence Down the Same 164 poles thence to a Chesnut tree thence South 28 poles to the river thence Down to Morgans Corner thence with his Line to pointers South 78 East 70 poles to a White oak North 25 East 140 poles to a white oak north 37 west 40 poles to a poplar on the Creek thence up the Same to the Begining."

A plat of that lot is part of the Division and Allotment in W.B. 4/255 and appears above in connection with 1815 Joseph Wright. Using that plat it is possible to estimate the last line of "to a poplar on the Creek thence up the Same to the Beginning" as a distance of approximately 40 to 50 poles. Also, the line reading "to a red oak at the head of a Branch thence Down the Same 164 poles" can be estimated to have an angle of approximately S 14 W.

A comparison of the legal description of Deed 17/206 to that of Lot number 7 from the Division and Allotment at W.B. 4/255 indicates that they relate to the same land:

The legal description of Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 17/206 is taken out of order because it follows a reverse course from that of Lot number 7, but the similarity of the legal descriptions is obvious. At only two points do the descriptions differ, marked by "****" above. The first is where in lieu of "S 28 to the river" in Lot number 7, Deed 17/206 follows the line "Stauntoun river thence up the same as it meanders to Barnett Paynes corner Red oak thence with his line N 4 3/4 W 311 poles to a Chestnut thence N 24-1/2 E 43 poles to the fork of a Branch." This change in the description may account for the difference in acreage between the two parcels. The second change is where the line described in Lot number 7 as merely Morgans line is given metes and bounds in Deed 17/206 which are very close to the approximations made from the plat in Bedford County W.B. 4/255 and shown on the plat above.

In any event the conclusion seems fair that the same parcel of land was involved in the sale in Bedford County Deed 17/206 as is described in Lot number 7 of Bedford County W.B. 4/255. And that means that the Joseph Wright who married Clarissa _____ was the son of 1815 Joseph Wright.

The declaration and assignment by Little Berry Wright, a son of Joseph Wright, Jr., dated June 19, 1873, and recorded at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. P/137 has already been quoted above in connection with 1763 Thomas Wright. That declaration sets forth Littleberry's recollections of his family:

My Great Grand Father and mother had nine children, two Sons Joseph, and John. Seven daughters Elizabeth who never married and Dorcus are the only names of the daughters that I remember but Know that four of the girls married One married a man by the name of Smoot (?) but had no children by him the three others that were married married men by the names of May, Day & Scott,

My Grand Father had five children by his first wife which was my Grand mother the names of which was Thomas, Mary, Milly, John and Joseph, The names of the children by his Second wife was named Aggie Nancy, Basheba, Judith, Martha, Mathew & Wright-Wright making twelve in all. I staid with my Grandfather until his death, and his son Mathew Wright and his Son in law James Mays administered on his estate and after the Sale was over James Mays brought the chest of papers out and stated that the whole amount of the Sale was not worth anything compared with this meaning the chest of papers -

The will of Joseph Wright dated June 16, 1840, and probated on October 21, 1844, at Hardin County, Kentucky, W.B. E/_ listed David Wright as one of his children:

". . . . Item as for my chilren To wit David Wright Littlebury Wright and Martin G Wright has already received there full portion of my estate and my will and desire is that they shall receive one Dollar each and no more . . . ."

In her email dated May 14, 2001, Barbara Meger stated that the 1850 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed David Wright with the following household on October 26 to 28, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Real Estate	Born

Rhoda Wright	58	F			VA

George W. Wright	19	M			KY
Druzilla Wright	17	F			KY

This record indicates that David Wright was born in about 1790 and that Rhoda (Yates) Wright was born in about 1792.

The Declaration and Assignment of Little Berry Wright dated June 19, 1873, and recorded at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. P/137 listed David Wright as a child of Joseph Wright, Jr.:

". . . . My own father Joseph Wright Jr. married Mary Cook for his first wife and had three children by her, named David, John & Berry, his first wife Mary Cook was my mother, He married for his second wife Clara Drake and had one child by her named Martin G. Wright, He married for his third wife Martha Poggins by whom he had four children named Elizabeth, Frank, Louise and Mary. . . ."

In her letter dated February 26, 2001, Maebeth Guyton enclosed an excerpt from Biographical Souvenir Of The State Of Texas, F. A. Battey & Company, Chicago, 1889, which stated: as follows:

"Greenberry F. Wright was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, February 13, 1823. His father, David C. Wright, was a native of Virginia, who removed to Kentucky in October, 1822, and died in that State in 1872. The wife of David C. bore the maiden name of Rhoda A. Yates, a daughter of John C. Yates, and bore her husband the following children - Otis G., Mary A., John C., Silas T., Josephus, Harrison T. Greenberry F., Martin D., Thomas C., David L. and George W. . . . ."

In her letter dated October 17, 1979, Mrs. Jennie Deardorff enclosed family group sheets which stated that David Wright married Rhoda Yates, that the 1850 Census of Hardin County, Kentucky, listed David Wright as 60 years old, placing his birth in about 1790, and that David Wright and Rhoda (Yates) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Otis or Oaty Wright, born about 1810 in Virginia;
- 2) John Wright;
- 3) Silas T. Wright, born on February 14, 1818, at Bedford County, Virginia;
- 4) David L. Wright, born about 1829;
- 5) George W. Wright, born about 1831; and
- 6) Druzilla Wright, born about 1833.

In his email dated October 11, 2000, John Miller enclosed an email from Maebeth Guyton which stated that David C. Wright was born in 1790 at Virginia, married Rhoda (Yates) Wright on August 12, 1810, moved in October 1822 to Kentucky, resided in 1850 at Hardin County, Kentucky, and died in 1872 at Hardin County, Kentucky, that Rhoda (Yates) Wright was born in 1792, and that David C. Wright and Rhoda (Yates) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Otis G. Wright,
- 2) Mary A. Wright,
- 3) John C. Wright,
- 4) Silas T. Wright, born on February 14, 1818,
- 5) Josephus Wright,
- 6) Harrison T. Wright,
- 7) Greenbury Franklin Wright, born on February 13, 1823, at Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 8) Martin D. Wright,
- 9) Thomas C. Wright,
- 10) David L. Wright, born in about 1829,
- 11) George W. Wright, born in about 1831, and
- 12) Druzilla Wright, born in about 1833.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of David Wright and Rhoda (Yates) Wright were the following:

- 1) Otis or Oaty Wright, born about 1810,
- 2) Mary A. Wright,
- 3) John C. Wright,
- 4) Silas T. Wright, born on February 14, 1818, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) Josephus Wright,
- 6) Harrison T. Wright,
- 7) Greenbury Franklin Wright, born on February 13, 1823, at Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 8) Martin D. Wright,
- 9) Thomas C. Wright,
- 10) David L. Wright, born about 1829,

- 11) George W. Wright, born about 1831, and
- 12) Druzilla Wright, born about 1833.

I. Otis Or Oaty G. Wright, His Wife Mary Perlina (Wright) Wright, And His Descendants

In her email dated May 14, 2001, Barbara Meger stated that the 1850 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed Ode Wright with the following household on October 26 to 28, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Real Estate	Born

Columbus Wright	14	M			KY
Harrison Wright	12	M			KY
Simeon Wright	8	M			KY
John M. Wright	6	M			KY
Rhoda A. Wright	2	F			KY

This record indicates that Otis or Otey Wright was born in about 1810 and that Mary (Wright) Wright was born in about 1820, but incorrectly lists Otis Wright's place of birth as Kentucky rather than Virginia.

The declaration of Littleberry Wright dated June 19, 1873, at Meade County, Kentucky, D. B. P/139 stated that his half-brother Martin G. Wright had eleven children, including Poling(?) Wright:

". . . . Martin G. Wright son of the said Joseph Wright by his Second wife Clara Drake married Delila McCormick by whom he had eleven children named Poling (?) - Riley - Elvira - Polisty - Lucretia Minerva - Clarinda - Joseph Henry - Gilbert - Sanford - Delila - . . . ."

- 3) Simeon Wright, born about 1842,
- 4) John M. Wright, born about 1844, and
- 5) Rhoda A. Wright, born about 1848.

In her letters dated September 15, 1979, and October 17, 1979, Mrs. Jennie Deardorff enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary Perlina Wright was a daughter of Martin G. Wright and Delilah (McCormack) Wright, was born in 1816 and married Otis "Oatey" Wright on August 1, 1831, at Hardin County, Kentucky.

In his email dated October 11, 2000, John Miller enclosed an email from Maebeth Guyton which stated that Otis Wright was a son of David Wright and Rhoda (Yates) Wright.

he was taken sick and could not go, and gave the papers back to my Grand father who put them back in the Chest. I staid with my Grandfather until his death, and his son Mathew Wright and his Son in law James Mays administered on his estate and after the Sale was over James Mays brought the chest of papers out and stated that the whole amount of the Sale was not worth anything compared with this meaning the chest of papers -

The 1830 Census for Franklin County, Virginia, did not list a Martin Wright.

In her letter dated September 15, 1979, Mrs. Jennie Deardorff stated that the 1830 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed Martin Wright with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	30-40	1	30-40
1	5-10

The History Of Union Baptist Church, Hardin County, Kentucky 1808-1867 stated that Martin G. Wright was received into the church in June 1830. A dispute with his father was recorded in the Church minutes:

"1833

April - Joseph Wright brings a charge against Martin G. Wright for refusing to pay a just debt. Committee appointed to try to bring about a reconciliation and report.

May - The charge against Martin G. Wright for refusing to pay a debt to Joseph Wright taken up; after consideration, the church says Martin G. Wright shall pay his father the debt. Likewise, Martin G. Wright brings a claim against his father Joseph Wright for a loan mare which died in his hands; agreed by the church that Martin G. Wright shall have some compensation for the mare. Committee appointed to attempt to compromise, but the Wrights made a settlement which satisfied the church.

June - Letter received from Joseph Wright expressing dissatisfaction with the decision made in his case; committee appointed to cite him to attend next meeting to answer for his conduct in charging the church with injustice."

In her letters dated September 15, 1979, Mrs. Deardorff stated that the 1840 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed Martin Wright with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	40-50	1	40-50
2	10-16	1	15-20
1	0-5	2	10-15

On March 4, 1843, Martin G. Wright acted as surety on the marriage bond for his daughter Lucratia Wright and John Morris filed in Hardin County, Kentucky, Marriage Book B, Entry 1149.

The marriage bond of Martin G. Wright and Elizabeth Cecil was dated on June 22, 1844, at Hardin County, Kentucky, Marriage Book B, Entry 1234:

"No.	Date	Parties Names	Authority
1234	June 22	Martin G. Wright & Miss Elizabeth Cecil	Wright of lawful age  Susan Cecil of Elizabeth Cecil gave consent in writing proven by the oath of Joseph Cecil"

However, in her email dated November 29, 2000, Barbara Meger stated that Hardin County, Kentucky, Marriage Records 1813-1850 by F. T. Ingmire, 1983, listed the marriage record of Martin G. Wright and Elizabeth Cecil, daughter of Susan, on August 1, 1831, at Hardin County, Kentucky, but this appears to be an incorrect listing.

The Minutes of the Union Baptist Church, Hardin County, Kentucky, also stated that in June 1846 a committee was appointed to cite Martin G. Wright for non-attendance and in July 1846 the committee made its report and the church was satisfied with the reasons for non-attendance. Then are no further church records of Martin G. Wright and the church finally dissolved in 1867.

The will of Joseph Wright dated June 16, 1840, and probated on October 21, 1844, at Hardin County, Kentucky, W.B. E/_ listed Martin G. Wright as one of his children:

". . . . Item as for my chilren To wit David Wright Littlebury Wright and Martin G Wright has already received there full portion of my estate and my will and desire is that they shall receive one Dollar each and no more . . . ."

In her email dated May 14, 2001, Barbara Meger stated that the 1850 Census for Hardin County, Kentucky, listed Martin G. Wright with the following household on September 13, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Real Estate	Born
Martin G. Wright	35?	M	Farmer		VA
Delilah Wright	15	F			KY
Sandford P. Wright	12	M			KY
Edna Wright	5	F			KY
Josephine Wright	4	F			KY
Amanda Wright	8/12	F			KY

This record indicates that Martin G. Wright was born in about 1815, but this is probably a misreading of age 55.

In her email dated November 29, 2000, Barbara Meger stated that Kentucky Vital Statistics 1852-1859, Hardin County Deaths of Persons over Fifteen, DARGRCReport v., 145, listed the following death record for Martin Wright:

"Wright, Martin - aged 60, d. Jan 31, 1856, born in VA; d. Hardin Col; d. of gravel(?); parents Joseph & Clarinda Wright."

The Declaration and Assignment of Little Berry Wright dated June 19, 1873, and recorded at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. P/137 listed Martin G. Wright as a child of Joseph Wright, Jr.:

". . . . My own father Joseph Wright Jr. married Mary Cook for his first wife and had three children by her, named David, John & Berry, his first wife Mary Cook was my mother, He married for his second wife Clara Drake and had one child by her named Martin G. Wright, He married for his third wife Martha Poggins by whom he had four children named Elizabeth, Frank, Louise and Mary. . . ."

In her letters dated September 15, 1979, and October 17, 1979, Mrs. Jennie Deardorff enclosed family group sheets which stated that Martin G. Wright was born in 1795, married first Delilah McCormack on September 28, 1812, at Bedford County, Virginia.

The marriage bond of Agness Wright, daughter of Joseph, and Samuel Mays was dated on October 22, 1792, at Bedford County, Virginia, with John Pate as surety:

If Agness Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, then her date of birth would be probably before 1777. Since Joseph Wright had land in both Bedford and Franklin Counties, the place of birth was probably at Bedford or Franklin County, Virginia.

On February 15, 1805, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. F/291 Samuel Mays purchased 320 acres of land on the Harpeth River from Joseph Erwin.

Pioneers Of Davidson County, Tennessee stated that the Davidson County, Tennessee, Minute Book 1809-1812, page 826, Records of Davidson County Court of July Session 1812, listed an enumeration of the free male inhabitants of Davidson County in 1812 and listed Samuel Mays in Captain Henry's Militia Company.

The will of 1815 Joseph Wright dated February 21, 1815, and probated on September 11, 1815, at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court Book A/15 listed Agness Mays as one of his children:

". . . . 5thly I give and bequeath to my three eldest sons, Thomas, John & Joseph Wright and to my five daughters, Mary Greer, Agness Mayse, Judith McCormack, Patsy Mayse & Barsheba Simmons, and to the Heirs of my Daughter Nancy Meadors, decd. one hundred and fifty acres of Land in Franklin County, whereon my son Joseph Wright now lives. Also one hundred and thirty acres adjoining the same called Balls place to be equally divided between them . . . ."

On August 21, 1816, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. M/358 Samuel Mays purchased 230 acres of land on the Harpeth River from Levi McCallum.

On August 21, 1816, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. M/359 Samuel Mays also purchased 100 acres of land on the Harpeth River from Levi McCallum.

The 1820 Census for Davidson County, Tennessee, listed Samuel Mays with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	45+	1	45+
1	16-26	1	16-26
1	16-18	4	0-10
4	10-16
2	0-10

This record indicates that Samuel Mays and Agness (Wright) Mays were born before 1775.

On January 23, 1822, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. Q/59 Samuel Mays sold 151 acres of land on the Harpeth River to William W. Wright.

On August 26, 1822, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. Q/70 Samuel Mays purchased 8-3/4 acres of land on the Harpeth River from the heirs of James Robertson.

On December 29, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Peter Dent filed an affidavit that Samuel Mays and Agnes Mays were not then residents of Virginia:

"Bedford county Sct

A. Otey JP"

The 1830 Census for Davidson County, Tennessee, listed Samuel Maze with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	60-70	1	60-70
2	20-30

This record indicates that Samuel Mays and Agness (Wright) Mays were born between 1760 and 1770. Since her father was residing in Bedford County at that time, Agness (Wright) Mays' place of birth was probably Bedford County, Virginia.

On January 25, 1836, at Davidson County, Tennessee, D.B. Y/417 Samuel Mays sold 63 acres of land on the Harpeth River to Thomas L. Fowler.

The will of Samuel Mays was dated on October 10, 1837, probated on September 29, 1838, at Davidson County, Tennessee, W.B. 11/398, and provided as follows:

i. Agness (Mays) (Pegram) Kingston And Her Husbands
William Pegram And Samuel Kingston

Agness (Mays) (Pegram) Kingston was a daughter of Agness (Wright) Mays and Samuel Mays. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Agness<sup>3</sup>)

Marriages Of Davidson County, Tennessee 1789-1847 listed the issuance of a marriage bond for Agnis Mays and Wm. Pegram on January 19, 1831, at Davidson County, Tennessee.

The will of Samuel Mays dated October 10, 1837, and probated on September 29, 1838, at Davidson County, Tennessee, W.B. 11/398 listed Agness as one of his children:

"Samuel Mays decd. will - Recorded Sept. 29th 1838.

In his letter dated February 15, 2001, James Mays enclosed an excerpt from West Nashville: Its People And Environs by Sarah Foster Kelley, 1967, which stated that:

"A family who lived downriver to the Linton plantation was that of the Reverend Samuel Mays. He and his wife, the former Agnes Wright, came to Davidson County around 1805 from Bedford County, Virginia. . . . The Mays couple raised a large family who intermarried with many of the early households who settled Middle Tennessee. Their children were:<sup>244</sup> . . . In his letter dated February 15, 2001, James Mays also enclosed family group sheets which stated that AGness Mays was a son of Agness (Wright) Mays and Samuel Mays, married first William Pegram on January 19, 1831, at Davidson County, Tennessee, and married second Samuel Kingston.

7. Nancy (Wright) Meador, Her Husband John Or Jehu Meador, And Her Descendants

If they were both at least 16 years of age at the time of their marriage, their dates of birth would be probably before 1777.

This record indicates that Nancy (Wright) Meador resided some time between October 2, 1805, and August 18, 1806, at Breckenridge County, Kentucky.

The will of 1815 Joseph Wright dated February 21, 1815, and probated on September 11, 1815, at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court Book A/15 listed Nancy McCormick as one of his children:

". . . 2ndly I give and bequeath to my grand children Jane Meador, Jubal Meador, Joseph Meador, Judith Meador, & John Meador, children of my Daughter Nancy Meador, deceased one negro Girl named Juggy to be equally divided between them, with her future increase . . . ."

This record identifies Nancy (Wright) Meador's heirs as follows:

- 1) Jane Meador,
- 2) Jubal Meador,
- 3) Joseph Meador,
- 4) Judith Meador, and
- 5) John Meador.

The will of 1815 Joseph Wright devised land to the heirs of Nancy Meador, deceased, indicating her death sometime prior to the date of the will. The Division and Allotment of 1815 Joseph Wright's estate at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/255 assigned Lot number 3 in Bedford County consisting of 105 acres to Nancy Meador's heirs. The Division and Allotment of 1815 Joseph Wright's estate at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 4/262 assigned her heirs Lot number 7 in Franklin County consisting of 24 acres.

The marriage bond of Jane Meador and John Meador was dated on September 14, 1818, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the consent of John Turner and with Francis G. Harwood as surety. It is unclear from that entry alone whether it was the son John or the daughter Jane of John and Nancy Meador who was being married. It is also unclear whether the consent of John Turner was required for Jane or John or both. If the one for whom the consent was required were also the child of John and Nancy, it would indicate that John was also dead by September 14, 1818. The solution is found in two later powers of attorney.

On June 30, 1829, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 21/481 John H. Meador of Allen County, Kentucky, executed a Power of Attorney in favor of John Turner of Bedford County "to sell for him two tracts of land in Virginia, one in Bedford County and the other in Franklin County, in which he holds an undivided interest in right of his late grandfather Joseph Wright."

On November 19, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 21/481 John Meador and Jinny, his wife, Joseph Meador and Nancy, his wife, Jubal W. Meador, and Bennett Meador and Judith, his wife, of Sumner County, Tennessee, executed a Power of Attorney in favor of John Turner of Bedford County to sell two tracts of land in Virginia in the counties of Bedford and Franklin in which they each held an undivided interest.

These two powers of attorney not only trace the migration of this family and their marriages, but identify the daughter Jane as the person who married a second John Meador. Since John Turner gave his consent and later acted as their attorney in fact with regard to the sale of their inherited land, it suggests that the consent he gave in 1818 was for Jane to be married and that Jehu Meador was dead by that time along with his wife Nancy.

The Declaration of Littleberry Wright dated June 19, 1873, and recorded at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. 9/139 identified Nancy Wright as a child of 1815 Joseph Wright:

"Meade County State of Kentucky, United States of America the nineteenth day of June A.D. One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventh Three,

I Little Berry Wright of the County State and Country aforesaid was born March the 25th twenty ____ day One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety One in the State of Virginia near Bedford or Franklin County. My father was named Joseph Wright Jr. of Bedford County Virginia. he was a Son of Joseph Wright Sr. of the County of Bedford and State aforesaid who was my grandfather.

My Grand Father had five children by his first wife which was my Grand mother the names of which was Thomas, Mary, Milly, John and Joseph, The names of the children by his Second wife was named Aggie Nancy, Basheba, Judith, Martha, Mathew & Wright-Wright making twelve in all. . . ."

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador included family group sheets for Jehu Meador and Nancy (Wright) Meador and listed their children as follows:

- 1) Elizabeth Jane "Jenny" Meador, born 1796 at Virginia,
- 2) Jubal W. Meador, born late 1790's at Virginia,
- 3) Joseph Meador, born 1802 at Virginia,
- 4) Judith "Judah" Meador, born 1800 to 1805 at Virginia, and
- 5) John H. Meador, born 1800 to 1810 at Virginia.

Mr. Victor P. Meador stated that Jehu Meador may also have been known as Jehu John Meador and that there were two Jehu John Meadors in Bedford County, Virginia, at this time.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Nancy (Wright) Meador and Jehu or John Meador were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Jane "Jinny" (Meador) Meador, born probably after 1797 and before 1803 or in 1796,
- 2) Jubal W. Meador, born probably before 1807 and in late 1790's at Virginia,
- 3) Joseph Meador, born in 1802 at Virginia,
- 4) Judith "Judah" (Meador) Meador, born between 1800 and 1805 at Virginia, and
- 5) John H. Meador, born probably before 1809 and between 1800 and 1810 at Virginia.

a. Elizabeth Jane "Jenny" (Meador) Meador And Her Husband John Meador

Jane (Meador) Meador was a daughter of Nancy (Wright) Meador and Jehu Meador. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Nancy<sup>3</sup>)

The will of 1815 Joseph Wright dated February 21, 1815, and probated on September 11, 1815 at Bedford County, Virginia, Superior Court Book A/15 listed Jane Meador as an heir of Nancy (Wright) Meador:

". . . 2ndly I give and bequeath to my grand children Jane Meador, Jubal Meador, Joseph Meador, Judith Meador, & John Meador, children of my Daughter Nancy Meador, deceased one negro Girl named Juggy to be equally divided between them, with her future increase . . . ."

On November 27, 1815, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 17/96 the court appointed John Turner as guardian for Jenny Meador and John Meador:

"The court doth appoint John Turner as guard: to John Meador & Jenny Meador being of full age for the purpose made choice of the sd. John Turner as her guard. who gave bond & Secy accrdg to Law"

The marriage bond of Jane Meador and John Meador was dated on September 14, 1818, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the consent of John Turner and with Francis G. Harwood as surety. If Jane Meador was at least sixteen years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be probably before 1803. The consent of her guardian John Turner to the marriage suggests that she was under the age of 21, indicating a birth date after 1797.

On December 29, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Peter Dent filed an affidavit that Jane Meador was not then a resident of Virginia:

"Bedford county Sct

On November 19, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 21/481, John Meador and his wife Jinny Meador of Sumner County, Tennessee, executed a Power of Attorney in favor of John Turner to sell the land inherited by them from 1815 Joseph Wright:

"Know all men by these presents, that whereas we John Meador & Ginney Meador the wife of John Meador, & Joseph Meador & Nancy the wife of Joseph, & Jubal Meador & Bennett Meador & Judith the wife of Bennett all of the County

Since the eldest male is younger than one in the 1810 Census for Franklin County, this is probably not the William McCormack who married Judith Wright, but may be his son.

On about February 7, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers William McCormick and Judy McCormick joined other heirs of Joseph Wright to answer the complaint of Peter Dent for land due to him from the estate:

"The joint answers of Joseph Wright Wright Wright Thomas Wright William McCormick & Judy his wife & Mary Greer by her agent and attorney in fact Green B. On September 16, 1830, Matthew Wright and James Mayse, as executors of the will of Joseph Wright, obtained a summons from the Superior Court of Chancery at Lynchburg against the heirs of William McCormack with regard to enforcement of a judgment obtained against William McCormack. Copies of the records of this case are in File 320 of the Bedford County, Virginia, Court of Chancery. The summons indicated that William McCormack died before September 16, 1830. The heirs were listed as follows:

Wife: Judith McCormack

Children: 1) John McCormack,
2) Anderson McCormack,
3) Frances (McCormack) Showalters, wife of Abraham

5) Right McCormack,
6) William McCormack,
7) Abraham McCormack,

9) Polly McCormack.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that the 1830 Census for Smith County, Tennessee, listed a female aged 40 to 50 in the William McCormack household and from other evidence set forth below this was probably Judith (Wright) McCormack.

On June 30, 1831, in the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg District, File 320, Matthew Wright and James Mayse filed their complaint for recovery as follows:

"To the Honourable Judge of the superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg district. On January 26, 1835, in File 320 Matthew Wright testified that all of the defendants of the case, except for Anderson McCormack, resided outside of the state of Virginia.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that in September 1839 at Smith County, Tennessee, D.B. P/231 William McCormack and John N. Rhodes deeded 68 1/2 acres of land in Smith County, Tennessee, to Judy McCormack and that on January 1, 1840, at Smith County, Tennessee, D.B. 1/169 Judith McCormack purchased land on Buffalo Creek from Samuel McClellin.

A summons in File 320 through the Sheriff of Franklin County, Virginia, was acknowledged as served by Anderson McCormack on April 4, 1840, indicating his residence in that county at that time.

On June 28, 1841, in File 320 Moses G. Carper gave his deposition regarding the records of Franklin County, Virginia, relating to land owned and taxed to William McCormack:

"The deposition of Moses G. Carper taken in Franklin Court house in the State of Virginia, on Monday the 28th day of June 1841, to be read as evidence in a suit now depending in the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Bedford in which Matthew Wright and James Mays executors of Joseph Wright decd. are plaintiffs and John S. Burwell admr. of William McComack decd. and Anderson McComack & others are defendants - The deponent being duly sworn, deposeth and saith,

That it appears from the records of the County Court of Franklin, (of which Court, deponent is Clerk) that Armstrong Hale on the 6th of April 1795, conveyed to William McComack by deed, a tract of Land containing 220 acres, be the same, more or less, which will more fully appear by reference to a copy of the said deed, hereto annexed - that the said tract of Land was thereupon in the year 1796, transfered and charged to said Wm McComack on the Commissioners Books of the said county, that there appears no description of the said tract of land on the Commissioners Books, as to what waters it lies on &c until the year 1812, in which said year it is described as lying on Gills Creek, and is variously described thereafter on said Books, until the year 1822 as lying on "Gills Creek" - "waters of Gills Creek" and "B. of Gills Creek," meaning a Branch of Gills Creek, as deponent supposes- In the year 1821 William McComack conveyed 108 acres of land to one Michael Hutts Jr, and in the year 1822 it appears that the Commissioner of the revenue has deducted that number of acres from the 220 acres aforesaid, as said McComack is charged in that year and also in 1823, with a tract of 112 acres, described as lying on a "branch of Gills Creek." In the year 1824 the said McComack is again charged on the Commissioners Books with a tract of 220 acres, described as lying on a "Branch of Gills Creek, and agreeing in the distance and bearing from the Court house, the price per acre, and total value with the tract of 220 acres charged to said McComack in the year 1821.

The said William McComack continued so to be charged with the same 220 acres until his death, and also so charged after his death until the present year with the same, being described until the year 1841 as lying on the waters of Gills creek, but described in the year last named as lying on "Linville C". deponent further states that said McComack at the time the tract of 108 acres was conveyed to Hutts, was charged with between 8 and 900 acres of land, in four different tracts, two of which were described as lying on the waters of Gills creek, one on Linville, and one on Indian run.

This deponent is satisfied from an examination of the Commissioners Books at the time the transfer was made to Hutts as aforesaid, that the Commissioner erred in taking the 108 acres from the 220 acre tract, and gives the following reasons therefor. In the year 1821 McComack is charged with two tracts on Gills Creek, one of 220 acres and the other of 154 acres, in 1822 and 1823 he is charged with 112 acres and the 154 acres as before. In 1824 he is charged with the 220 acres and a Branch of Gills creek, and a tract of 46 acres "joining"- the tract of 220 acres in the year 1821 is charged at $3. per acre, and the tract of 154 acres at $2. pr. The tract of 108 acres transfered to Hutts is charged at $2. per acre, and the 112 acres at $3. per acre, in 1824, the 220 acres again charged to McComack is $3 per acre, and the 46 acres $2. per acre.

Deponent further states that the 220 acres aforesaid, now charged to Wm. McComack decd. was assessed under the late assessment of Land at $1.50 cents per acre, and further sayeth not.

The death of plaintiff Matthew Wright required the filing of an amended bill of complaint and the revival of the case in the name of the surviving executor.

On October 5, 1841, in File 320 the court ordered John S. Burwell, the sheriff of Franklin County and the administrator of the estate of William McCormack, to render his account of the estate in his hands.

On May 4, 1842, in File 320 the court further ordered the payment of the judgment from the assets of the estate of William McCormack and, since that would not satisfy the judgment, also ordered the sale of the land of William McCormack remaining in Franklin County to satisfy the judgment:

The land was finally sold to John A. Edwards and the case concluded.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that William McCormack and Judith (Wright) McCormack had the following children;

- 1) Judith (McCormack) Hutts, born about 1796 at Virginia,
- 2) Wright McCormack, born about 1796,
- 3) Abraham McCormack, born about 1798 at Virginia,
- 4) Frances (McCormack) Showalters, born about 1798,

- 7) Nancy (McCormack) Rhodes, born about 1802, and

In her letter dated November 5, 1997, Eleanor Bassett enclosed family group sheets which stated that Judith McCormack was a daughter of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack, was born in 1799 at Virginia, and married Michael Hutts on August 25, 1817, at Franklin County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack were the following:

- 1) Anderson McCormack, born probably before 1792,
- 2) Judith (McCormack) Hutts, born about 1796 or 1799 at Virginia,

- 3) Wright or Rite McCormack, born about 1796,
- 4) Abraham McCormack, born about 1798 at Virginia,

a. Anderson McCormack, His Wife Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack, And His Descendants

Anderson McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth Armstrong was dated on June 15, 1807, at Franklin County, Virginia, with William McCormack and William Bowles as sureties. If Anderson McCormack was at least 16 years of age at the time of his marriage, his date of birth would be probably before 1792.

The complaint dated June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed Anderson McCormack as an heir of William McCormack:

". . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. McCormack departed this life intestate leaving little or no personal property that your orators could ever ascertain but seized & possessed of a tract of land of ___ acres more or less situated lying & being on Gills Creek or [unreadable] in Franklin County bought of one Armstrong Hale some 40 years ago which land is probably worth some five six or eight hundred dollars and also leaving a widow by name Judith McComack and the following children to wit. John McComack Anderson McComack Right McComack William McComack Abraham McComack Nancy McComack Polly McComack and two daughters to wit Frances who intermarried with Abraham ___ with Michael Hutts . . . ."

The acknowledgement of service by the Franklin County sheriff dated April 4, 1840, and filed in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 indicated that Anderson McCormack was residing in Franklin County, Virginia, at that time.

In her email dated September 10, 1999, Sam Murphy enclosed family group sheets which stated that Anderson McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack, was born before 1792, and married Elizabeth Armstrong and that Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack had the following children:

- 1) Ann (McCormick) Slone,
- 2) Charlotte (McCormick) Slone, and
- 3) Rhoda (McCormick) Pate.

i. Ann (McCormack) Slone And Her Husband
Commodore Slone

Ann (McCormack) Slone was a daughter of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>, Anderson<sup>4</sup>)

Marriage Bonds Of Franklin County, Virginia 1786-1858 by Marshall Wingfield listed the marriage of Ann McCormack, daughter of Anderson, and Commodore Slone on February 22, 1831, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Anthony Pate as surety.

In her email dated September 10, 1999, Sam Murphy enclosed family group sheets which stated that Ann McCormick was a daughter of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack and married Commodore Slone on February 22, 1831, at Franklin County, Virginia.

ii. Charlotte (McCormack) Slone And Her Husband
Samuel Slone

Charlotte (McCormack) Slone was a daughter of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>, Anderson<sup>4</sup>)

Marriage Bonds Of Franklin County, Virginia 1786-1858 by Marshall Wingfield listed the marriage of Charlotte McCormack, daughter of Anderson, and Samuel Slone on January 12, 1838, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Anthony Pate as surety.

In her email dated September 10, 1999, Sam Murphy enclosed family group sheets which stated that Charlotte McCormick was a daughter of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack and married Samuel Slone on January 12, 1838, at Franklin County, Virginia.

iii. Rhoda (McCormack) Pate And Her Husband John Pate

Marriage Bonds Of Franklin County, Virginia 1786-1858 by Marshall Wingfield listed the marriage of Rhoda McCormack, daughter of Anderson, and John Pate on September 5, 1832, at Franklin County, Virginia.

In her email dated September 10, 1999, Sam Murphy enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rhoda McCormick was a daughter of Anderson McCormack and Elizabeth (Armstrong) McCormack and married John Pate on September 5, 1832, at Franklin County, Virginia.

Judith (McCormack) Hutts was a daughter of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Michael Hutts, Jr., and Judith McCormack was dated on August 25, 1817, at Franklin County, Virginia, with William McCormack as surety. If Judith McCormack was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be probably before 1802.

The complaint dated June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed Judith (Wright) Hutts, the wife of Michael Hutts, as an heir of William McCormack:

". . . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. On January 26, 1835, Matthew Wright in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 testified that Michael Hutts, Jr., and Judith (McCormack) Hutts were then residing outside of Virginia.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt and Eleanor Bassett in her letter dated November 5, 1997, included the following obituary dated January 23, 1873, from the Crawfordsville Journal, Crawfordsville, Indiana:

"Michael Hutts, an old man living a few miles west of here in Fountain County was found dead a few rods from his house on Wednesday night last. He was the owner of 700 acres of land and several thousand dollars in cash, yet from the old dilapidated cabin he lived in and his personal appearance one would suppose he wasn't worth a dollar. Mr. Hutts lived alone. he was emphatically a first-class miser."

In her letter dated November 5, 1997, Eleanor Bassett included family group sheets which contained the following biography and appears to be from a county history:

"Michael Hutts (deceased) was a native of Virginia, and there married Judith McCormick. They emigrated on 1829 with a blind horse, a cart, $7, and four children: Mahala, Mark, Lewis, and Giles, and settled in Jackson township, Fountain county, Indiana, where Mr Hutts took a lease on eighty acres of Sec. 16 for nine years. With the first $50 he accumulated he entered forty acres of land in Jackson township. He settled on his little farm and rented his leased tract. By toil and energy he began to increase his possessions. At the time of his death he was worth $25,000. He died in 1874, in his seventy-seventh year. His wife died in 1875, aged seventy-six years. Both belonged to the Baptist church. He was a lifelong democrat."

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that Judith McCormack was a daughter of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack, was born in about 1796 at Virginia, married

Michael Hutts, Jr., on August 25, 1817, at Franklin County, Virginia, on April 29, 1846, at Smith County, Tennessee, Circuit Court joined several of her siblings as plaintiff in a lawsuit naming her brother William McCormack as defendant, and resided in 1850 at Jackson Township, Fountain County, Indiana, that Michael Hutts, Jr., was born about 1796 at Virginia, resided in 1850 at Jackson Township, Fountain County, Indiana, was a farmer in 1850, and that Judith (McCormack) Hutts and Michael Hutts, Jr., had the following children:

- 1) Mark O. Hutts, born about 1821 at Virginia, and
- 2) Giles W. Hutts, born about 1828 at Virginia.

In her letter dated November 5, 1997, Eleanor Bassett enclosed family group sheets which stated that Judith McCormack was a daughter of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack, was born in 1799 @ Virginia, married Michael Hutts on August 25, 1817, at Franklin County, Virginia, died on August 10, 1874, at Indiana, and was buried at Gray's Cemetery, Montgomery County, Indiana, that Michael Hutts was born in 1796 at Virginia and died on January 15, 1873, at Jackson Township, Fountain County, Indiana, and that Judith (McCormack) Hutts and Michael Hutts had the following children:

In her letter dated November 5, 1997, Eleanor Bassett enclosed family group sheets which contained a transcription of the will of Mahala Ann (Hutts) Palmer dated January 13, 1886, and probated on June 24, 1886, at Allen County, Kansas:

ii. Mark Oty Hutts, His Wives Elizabeth (Livingston) Hutts, Magdaline (Glines) Hutts And Elizabeth P. (Hicks) Hutts, And His Descendants

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt included the following newspaper article dated April 12, 1874, from the Crawfordsville Journal, Crawfordsville, Indiana:

"A rather remarkable case was tried before Judge Thomas, of this city, in the Fountain Circuit Court at Covington this week. It was a suit for slander brought by Giles Hutts against his brother, Mark Hutts. The suit had its origin in January 1873, when the father of these brothers was one morning found dead in a fence corner. There was some mystery about the old man's death, which Mark, according to the complaint, turned to account against his brother, Giles, charging him with buying poison and procuring their mother to administer it to their father, and thus causing his death. Giles brought suit against Mark, as already stated, for circulating this charge. The trial occupied the court all of Monday, and half of the day Tuesday, going to the jury at noon. After being out a short time the jury returned a verdict for Giles, the plaintiff, fixing his damages at $2700. There was a large array of legal talent engaged in the cause, headed by Hon. D. W. Voorhees for the plaintiff and Judge Ristine for the defendant. Another suit is pending between the same parties, but with their positions reversed, Mark now is suing Giles. This latter suit grows out of another matter."

The ball grazed his side cutting through his clothing. Hutts called out "well d--m you, you didn't shoot me." This was a signal for another shot which took efgfect in Hutts cuff sleeve. No arrest has been made."

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family also stated that Giles W. Hutts was a son of Judith (McCormack) Hutts and Michael Hutts, Jr., was born about 1828 at Virginia, resided in 1850 at Jackson Township, Fountain County, Indiana, married Harriet N. _____, that Harriet N. Wright McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Wright McCormack and Charlotte Payne was dated on May 18, 1819, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Joseph Payne as surety. If Wright McCormack was at least 16 years of age at the time of his marriage, his date of birth would be probably before 1804.

The complaint dated June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed Wright McCormack as an heir of Witham McCormack:

". . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. McCormack departed this life intestate leaving little or no personal property that your orators could ever ascertain but seized & possessed of a tract of land of ___ acres more or less situated lying & being on Gills Creek or [unreadable] in Franklin County bought of one Armstrong Hale some 40 years ago which land is probably worth some five six or eight hundred dollars and also leaving a widow by name Judith McComack and the following children to wit. In that same letter John LaNoue Redmond enclosed an obituary for Vincent L. McCormack which stated that his parents moved in 1826 to Tennessee, in early 1828 to White River Bluffs, Johnson County, Indiana, and in late 1828 to Liberty Township, Hendricks County, Indiana, where Wright McCormack purchased 80 acres of land for $125.

"A. G. McCormack

Albert Green McCormack was born in Franklin County Virginia February 7, 1822. He with his parents moved to Indiana when he was about ten years of age. He departed this life Nov. 5, 1907, age eighty five years eight months and twenty nine days.

He was married to Millie Coble Aug. 27, 1842. To this union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters, all of whom survive him. In 1873 his wife was called home. On Sept. 7, 1872 he was married to Martha Borders, who survives him. He also leaves two brothers and one sister.

Early in life he became a christian and united with the M. E. church and was a member for many years of Cherry Grove church, and was ever a faithful member, attending service until his health failed him and he was compelled to remain at home.

During his late sickness he would speak of his church but his work is ended and he has gone to be with his Lord and the loved ones who have gone before, leaving many friends and relatives here to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held Nov. 7 at Cherry Grove church and were conducted by Rev. J. B. Likery of Mooresville whose friendship with the deceased dates back fortyone years and began during his first pastorate of the Belleville circuit in 1866. He preached a very comforting discourse from the words "All is yours, and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's", to the large audience of relatives and friends of the aged one, who had assembled in the church he had helped to build, and where he has so faithfully worshipped until compelled by the infirmities of age to remain at home. The pall bearers were the four sons George W. of Hadley, Levi of Logan Kansas Milo and Wm. A. of Clayton, and two nephews of Mrs. McCormack Smith Harlan of Coatesville, and Lewis Borders of Stilesville. Interment in the Clayton Cemetery south of Clayton.

He was a good man, very hospitable to all who visited him, a kind friend, a good citizen, an honest man, a pillar in the church and a man of God.

The above photograph was taken about two years ago and contains also the pictures of the surviving members of the McCormack family. They are from left to right, W. L. McCormack, V. L. McCormack, A. G. McCormack and Minerva Harkrider."

ii. Vincent Lee McCormack, His Wives Susannah E. (Osborn) McCormack, Sarah (Wishard) McCormack, And Jennie (Hardin) McCormack, And His Descendants

In his letter dated July 27, 1999, John LaNoue Redmond enclosed an undated obituary for Vincent Lee McCormack which stated as follows:

"The harvest has ripened, the grim reaper has put in his sickle and the grain is garnered. Vincent Lee, the third of the four children of Wright and Charlotte Payne McCormack, was born in Franklin county, Va., Jan. 21, 1824. He moved by wagon with his parents to Tennessee in 1826. This place not proving to their liking, the team was again brought into play and they stopped at the White River Bluffs in Johnson county, Ind., early in 1828, where they remained until fall and continued their journey until Liberty township Hendricks county was reached, and just south of the Summit and west of Clayton the father entered an 80 acre tract, giving $125 for the same. Here and on adjoining land was to be the scene of Vincent's boyhood and manhood days. His education was that of his times. He was united in marriage to Susannah E. Osborn on Dec. 5, 1847, and this union was blessed with eight children - four sons and four daughters - all of whom, with their mother, have gone hence. In September, 1882, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Sarah Wishard, who died July 9, 1894. Again he was married to Miss Jennie Hardin, May 6, 1896, and she departed this life in October, 1904. The Clayton Baptist church was organized March 11, 1854, and he was the fourth to unite with it afterwards, possibly under the preached word of a Rev. Mr. Roberts. When able he was noted for the regularity of his attendance, the interest he took in Sunday school and church work, and his liberality in providing for their needs. For many years he was the church treasurer and was ever faithful to his trust. He was received as a full member in Clayton lodge F. and A.M., April 22, 1873 and a few years later was made a Royal Arch Mason in Danville Chapter, to both of which he remained a member until death. By occupation he was a farmer; a man acquainted with hard work, of an economical turn and gathered this world's goods until he had attained 450 acres. In his earlier days he had known what it was to raise and harvest his wheat crop, haul it to Madison, Ind., for sale at forty cents per bushel. His home was always open and ready for the entertainment of neighbors and friends. Coming to this county at a time when only three log cabins marked the present location of Indianapolis and when this was almost an unbroken wilderness he has seen the mighty forests laid low and the soil blossom as a rose and bear the golden grain; also the march and advance of civilization of the last three quarters of a century. But the pioneers like the monarchs of the forest must fall at last - their end needs must come. After journeying upon earth 84 years, 4 months and 2 days he has gone to that home not made with hands. He is survived by one brother, one sister, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Monday afternoon by the Rev. J. E. Sherrill after which the remains were laid at rest in the private family lot on the home farm."

In his letter dated July 27, 1999, John LaNoue Redmond also enclosed family group sheets which stated that Vincent Lee McCormack was a son of Wright McCormack and Charlotte (Payne) McCormack, was born on January 21, 1824, at Franklin County, Virginia, married first Susannah E. Abraham Showalters

The marriage bond of Abraham Showalters and Frances McCormack was dated on February 11, 1802, at Franklin County, Virginia, with William McCormack as surety. If Frances Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be probably before 1787, which is before the date of the marriage bond of William McCormack and Judith (Wright) McCormack. The date of the Showalters' marriage bond may be in error.

The complaint dated June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed Frances (McCormack) Showalters, the wife of Abraham Showalters, as an heir of William McCormack:

". . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. McCormack departed this life intestate leaving little or no personal property that your orators could ever ascertain but seized & possessed of a tract of land of ___ acres more or less situated lying & being on Gills Creek or [unreadable] in Franklin County bought of one Armstrong Hale some 40 years ago which land is probably worth some five six or eight hundred dollars and also leaving a widow by name Judith McComack and the following children to wit. John McComack Anderson McComack Right McComack William McComack Abraham McComack Nancy McComack Polly McComack and two daughters to wit Frances who intermarried with Abraham ___ with Michael Hutts . . . ."

On January 26, 1835, Matthew Wright in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 testified that Abraham Showalters and Frances (McCormack) Showalters were then residing outside of Virginia.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that Frances McCormack was a daughter of Judith (Wright)

McCormack and William McCormack, was born in about 1798 at Virginia, married Abraham Showalter on January 12, 1802, at Franklin County, Virginia, but that such a marriage date seemed too early for a daughter whose parents married in 1791.

f. William McCormack

William McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright)

McCormack and William McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>)

1	10-15	1	20-30
1	0-5	2	15-20

The complaint date June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed Abraham McCormack as an heir of William McCormack:

". . . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. McCormack departed this life intestate leaving little or no personal property that your orators could ever ascertain but seized & possessed of a tract of land of ___ acres more or less situated lying & being on Gills Creek or [unreadable] in Franklin County bought of one Armstrong Hale some 40 years ago which land is probably worth some five six or eight hundred dollars and also leaving a widow by name Judith McComack and the following children to wit. John McComack Anderson McComack Right McComack William McComack Abraham McComack Nancy McComack Polly McComack and two daughters to wit Frances who intermarried with Abraham ___ with Michael Hutts . . . ."

On January 26, 1835, Matthew Wright in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 testified that William McCormack was then residing outside of Virginia.

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family by Betty Butler Ravenholt stated that William McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack, was born about 1800, that in September 1839 at Smith County, Tennessee, D.B. P/231 William McCormack and John N.

Rhodes deeded 68-1/2 acres of land in Smith County, Tennessee, to Judy McCormack, that on January 1, 1840, at Smith County, Tennessee, D.B. P/263 William McCormack sold 5 acres of land to Andrew McClellan, and that on April 16, 1841, at Smith County, Tennessee, D.B. Q/122 William McCormack sold 271 acres of land to Israel McClellin, and that History of the McCormacks by Lucy Dee Evetts stated that:

"I cannot tell you how many children they had but during the Civil War, William McCormack wrote his sister, Polly . . . . a letter telling her that he was well, he had three sons and had real good crops . . . . I read the above mention letter over at [Mettye] Owen's house . . . . William McCormack had gone west to St. Louis, Missouri."

The Virginia Origins Of A Smith County, Tennessee, McCormack Family also stated that on November 29, 1849, at Smith County, Tennessee, Circuit Court the following decree was entered:

"Whereas heretofore on the 29th April 1846 a decree was rendered in the Circuit Court of Smith County in favor of Mary Woodcock, Abraham McCormack, Norris Rodes and wife, Michael Hutts & wife, Right McCormack against William McCormack, Alfred Cauld & William Craighead for three hundred and seven dollars 0/100 after which decree applies & motion upon & from said Court on 15 January 1847 which on the same day came to hand of John Bailey, Sheriff of Smith County and was there livered in all the right title & interest of said William McCormack in and to a tract of land lying in Smith County on the waters of Buffalo Creek containing one hundred & fifty one acres more or less and being the same on which Mary Woodcock then lived Bounded by the lands of Nathan Kent, John Haywood Franklin, Henry Franklin, Joseph Meadow, Israel McClelelin, and Samuel McClelelin, land lived upon as the property of said William McCormack and whereas also said Sheriff duly returned said writ endorsed stating that after giving 40 days notice by advertising at the Court House in Carthage, at Dixon Springs, West Springs, and at Richardsonville and also after giving the parties in papers 20 days notice in writing said sheriff sold said tract of land at the Court House door at Carthage. It being William McCormack's undivided interest on 22nd day of March 1847 when and where Mary Woodcock by her agent, Israel McClelin became the purchaser at the price of forty dollars and it appearing that no deed was made by John Bailey for said land during his continuance in said office of sheriff therefore thus and made this 29th day of November, eighteen hundred and forty nine between John Bridges sheriff of Smith County and successor in office to said John Bailey after one part and said Mary Woocock of the other part whereupon that in consideration of the promised and said sum of forty dollars to be paid for said land by law transfer

g. John W. McCormack, His Wife Susannah (Dowdy)
McCormack, And His Descendants

John McCormack was a son of Judith (Wright) McCormack and William McCormack. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Judith<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of John W. McCormack and Susannah Dowdy, daughter of Ezekiel and Jane, was dated on November 19, 1823, at Franklin County, Virginia, with James Dowdy as surety. If John W. McCormack was at least 16 years of age at the time of his marriage, then his date of birth would be probably before 1808.

The complaint dated June 30, 1831, in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 320 listed John McCormack as one of the children of William McCormack:

". . . . Shortly after which sd. Wm. McCormack departed this life intestate leaving little or no personal property that your orators could ever ascertain but seized & possessed of a tract of land of ____ acres more or less situated lying & being on Gills Creek or [unreadable] in Franklin County bought of one Armstrong Hale some 40 years ago which land is probably worth some five six or eight hundred dollars and also leaving a widow by name Judith McComack and the following children to wit. #### "The Eagle's Nest

"The Eagle's Nest," now only the ruins of the old home of James Mayse, Jr., is on the south side of Board's Mountain, in the southwestern part of the county. Cate's Creek flows along the base of the mountain and empties into Staunton River farther down.

James Mayse, Jr., was the son of James Mayse, Sr., who with his brother, John, came from Amherst County and bought land here during the Revolution.

James Mayse, Jr., was born in Bedford County about 1780, and died in 1847. He married January 3, 1802, Patsy Wright, daughter of Thomas Wright, a neighbor, who had come from Augusta County even before the arrival of the Mayses. He became a prosperous planter and increased the acreage inherited from his father until he owned more than one thousand acres in this vicinity. He also had holdings in the town of Liberty. The site of the present Baptist Church in Bedford was purchased from his estate. Of his four sons, Samuel C. married Agnes Wright and went to Davidson County, Tennessee; William S. married Susan R. Claytor, daughter of Dr. John Claytor, and went to McCracken County, Kentucky; James D. K. married Sarah Lloyd and inherited "The Eagle's Nest." He died while in prison in Richmond during the War Between the States.

Sarah Lloyd Mayse continued to live at "The Eagle's Nest" after the death of her husband, and some years later married Albert L. Harris. She had no children, and after her death Mr. Harris sold the home to William C. Wright, who lived there for several years. He sold it to the late J. J. Saunders, of whose estate it is still a part."

Our Kin included the following information about James Mayse, Jr.:

(The present Baptist Church in Bedford is built upon one of these lots, purchased from his estate for this purpose.)

Patsey (Wright) Mayse died June 28, 1850.

"King, William Montgomery. January 7, 1833 - born about 1755; enlisted in Bedford County, Va., 1778. . . .

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Martha "Patsey" (Wright) Mayse and James Mayse were the following:

County, Virginia.

a. Charlotte (Mayse) Dowdy, Her Husband Elijah Dowdy, And Her Descendants

Charlotte (Mayse) Dowdy was a daughter of Martha "Patsy"
(Wright) Mayse and James Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Charlotte Mayse and Elijah Dowdy, son of Zekill and Jaine of Franklin County, was dated on April 14, 1821, at Bedford County, Virginia, with James Mayse as surety. If Charlotte was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, then her birth date would be probably before 1806. Since James Mayse was residing in Bedford County, the place of birth of Charlotte was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Charlotte Dowdy as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper opinion equals the just proportion of each of them in my estate taking into consideration the burthen that myself and wife may be to secure of my other children.

. . . ."

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Elijah Dowdy with the following household:

- 1) Joseph Henry Dowdey, born on May 7, 1861, at Franklin County, Virginia.

iv. William H. Dowdy

b. Judith Mays

Judith Mays was a daughter of Martha "Patsey" (Wright) Mayse and James Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Judith Mays as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

. . . ."

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed a Judy Mays, age 45 and born in Virginia, as a member of the household of James D. K. Mays. This was almost certainly the daughter of James and Patsey Mays and indicates that her birth was in 1805. Since James Mayse was residing in Bedford County, the place of birth of Judith Mays was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

On April 24, 1854, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 15/174 a plat and survey was filed allocating 108-1/2 acres of the land of James Mays to his daughter Judith Mays:

Jas. D. K. Mays	40	Farmer	Virginia

This record places her date of birth in about 1808.

Our Kin stated that Judith Mays never married.

c. Mary "Polly" (Mays) Worley, Her Husband William Worley,
And Her Descendants

Mary "Polly" (Mays) Worley was a daughter of Martha

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Polly Mays as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of my Two Daughters Judith Mays and Polly Mays the other half say to each of my daughters one equal fourth of said estate To have and to hold to them and their heirs forever.

. . . ."

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed William Worley with the following household:

Name	Age	Occupation	Born
William Worley	59	mechanic	Virginia
Mary Worley	45		Virginia

Eliza J. Worley	26		Virginia
Caroline D. Worley	19		Virginia
Henry Worley	17	laborer	Virginia
James N. (?) Worley	2		Virginia
Joseph Worley	27		Virginia

This record places Mary (Wright) Worley's date of birth in about 1805 and William Worley's date of birth in about 1791. Since James Mays was residing in Bedford County, the place of birth of Mary was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

On April 24, 1854, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 15/176 a plat and survey was filed allocating 168-1/2 acres of the land of James Mays to his daughter Polly Worley:

In the Clerks office of Bedford County Court the 24th day of April 1854 this plat & survey of land allotted to Polly Worley was produced in the office & at the request of James D K Mays recorded"

This record confirms the marriage of Polly Mays to ____ Worley.

The 1880 Census for Bedford County listed Polly Worley, a member of the household of Joseph W. Mays, as his sister. She was listed in that census as aged 73 and born in Virginia, making her birth date in about 1807.

Our Kin stated that Polly Mays married William Worley and had one son killed in the Civil War. The fact that Polly was living with her brother in 1880 suggests that her husband had died prior to that date.

Bedford County Genealogical Records, citing the Bible record of Joseph Wright Mays, listed the death of Polly Worley on October 14, 1893.

From the evidence set forth above the only child of Mary "Polly" (Mayse) Worley and William Worley was the following:

1) James N.(?) Worley.

i. James N.(?) Worley

James N.(?) Worley was a son of Mary "Polly" (Mayse) Worley and William Worley. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>, Mary<sup>4</sup>)

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James N.(?) Worley in the William Worley household and his age as 2 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1848.

Our Kin stated that Polly Mays and William Worley had one son who was killed in the Civil War.

d. Martha "Patsey" (Mayse) Carter, Her Husband William Price Carter, And Her Descendants

The marriage bond of Martha Mayse, daughter of James, and William P. Carter was dated on January 23, 1836, at Bedford County, Virginia, with James M. Carter as surety. If Martha was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, then her date of birth would be probably before 1821. The 1810 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James Mayse with no sons and four daughters aged 0 to 10 years. James Mayse had six daughters that are known, one of whom, Agness, was born in 1817 and one of whom, Parmelia, was married in 1846. This information suggests strongly that Martha was one of the four daughters born between 1800 and 1810 and that her date of birth was, therefore, probably before 1810. Since James Mayse was residing in Bedford County, the place of birth of Martha was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Martha Carter as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

Our Kin stated that William P. Carter and Martha (Mays) Carter lived and died in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and had a son Judge Joseph N. Carter who resided at Quincey, Illinois.

In her emails dated September 15, 1997, and November 4, 1997, Jean Couthran stated that Martha "Patsy" Mayse was born in about 1810 at Bedford County, Virginia, married William Price Carter on January 23, 1836, at Bedford County, Virginia, resided from 1836 to about 1840 or 1843 at Lynchburg, Virginia, resided from about 1840 or 1843 to about 1856 at Hardin County, Kentucky, resided after 1856 at Illinois, resided at Missouri, resided at Santa Fe, New Mexico, died in the early 1900's at Santa Fe, New Mexico, and was buried at Independence, Missouri, that William Price Carter was born about 1810 at Bedford County, Virginia, died at Santa Fe, New Mexico, and was buried at Independence, Missouri, and that Martha (Mayse) Carter and William Price Carter had the following children:

- 1) James M. Carter, born in 1837 at Lynchburg, Virginia,
- 2) Price Carter, born in 1838 at Lynchburg, Virginia,
- 3) Ellen J. Carter, born in 1840 at Lynchburg, Virginia,
- 4) Joseph Newton Carter, born on March 12, 1843, at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 5) Eliza Ann Carter, born in 1845 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 6) Malinda Carter, born in 1847 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 7) Walter S. Carter, born in 1849 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 8) Elizabeth Carter, born in about 1850 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 9) Emma Permelia (Carter) Carr, born on November 16, 1852, and
- 10) Sam Carter, born about 1854 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky.

From the evidence set forth above the following was a child of Martha (Mayse) Carter and William P. Carter:

- 1) James M. Carter, born in 1837 at Lynchburg, Virginia,
- 2) Price Carter, born in 1838 at Lynchburg, Virginia,
- 3) Ellen J. Carter, born in 1840 at Lynchburg, Virginia,

- 4) Joseph Newton Carter, born on March 12, 1843, at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 5) Eliza Ann Carter, born in 1845 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 6) Malinda Carter, born in 1847 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 7) Walter S. Carter, born in 1849 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 8) Elizabeth (Carter) Carr, born in about 1850 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky,
- 9) Emma Permelia Carter, born on November 16, 1852, and
- 10) Sam Carter, born about 1854 at Big Springs, Hardin County, Kentucky.

- i. James M. Carter

James M. Carter was a son of Martha "Patsey" (Mayse) Carter and William Price Carter. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

In her emails dated September 15, 1997, and November 4, 1997, Jean Couthran stated that James M. Carter was a son of Martha "Patsey" (Mayse) Carter and William Price Carter and was born in 1837 at Lynchburg, Virginia.

e. Joseph Wright Mays, His Wife Malinda (Wright) Mays, And His Descendants

Joseph Wright Mays was a son of Martha "Patsey" (Wright) Mayse and James Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

This family has been discussed above in connection with the family of 1850 Anthony Wright of Bedford County, son of 1803 John Wright of Bedford County, and the reader is referred to that section for information on this family.

f. Samuel K. Or C. Mayse

Samuel K. or C. Mayse was a son of Martha "Patsey" (Wright) Mayse and James Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Samuel K. Mays as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

" 2nd I give and bequeath to my son Samuel K Mays One Dollar

said sums to be paid to them or to such persons as shall be legally authorised on the several behalves to receive the same by my executors in full of their several interests in my estate the said Joseph M Mays Samuel K Mays Charlotte Dowdy and Martha Cater having heretofore received such advancements as in my opinion equals the just proportion of each of them in my estate taking into consideration the burthen that myself and wife may be to secure of my other children.

The original edition of Our Kin listed Samuel C. Mayse as "went West and was lost sight of". Mrs. Parker's corrections to Our Kin included a statement that Samuel C. Mayse married Annis Linton at Davidson County, Tennessee. However, I believe that the Samuel Mays who married Annis Linton was probably Samuel J. Mays, the son of Samuel Mays and Agness (Wright) Mays, discussed above.

The 1810 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James Mayse with no sons and four daughters aged 0 to 10 years. This evidence suggests that Samuel Mayse was born after 1809. Since James Mayse resided at Bedford County, the place of birth of Samuel was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

g. Agness (Mays) Anderson, Her Husband Jubal A. Or L. Or B. Or K. Anderson, And Her Descendants

Agness (Mays) Anderson was a daughter of Martha "Patey" (Wright) Mayse and James Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Agness Anderson as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

5th I give and bequeath to my executor herein after named all my lots lying and being in the town of Liberty Bedford County together with all the improvements & appertainances to the same upon trust Nevertheless that he shall immediately after the death of myself and wife Patey Mays proceed to sell the said lots together with their improvements upon such terms as he shall think will most promote the interest of my estate and shall after the legal expenses attending the same shall have been paid proceed to divide the money arising from the sale of said town Lots between William L Mays and Agness Anderson taking into Consideration the several advancements which I may have charged against each of them at the time of my Death and then give to each of them such portion of the money arising from sade sale as will make each of them equal taking into consideration the advances as aforesaid.

September 8" 1847

This is to Cirtify that after the tow lots is sold by my executor in Liberty & make William Mays and Agness Anderson 500 Dollars a pease with what they have had advanced to them both the ballance of the said of the two lots if any to go to James D K Mays in trust for Permiley Dilini whenever he think proper to hand the same to her - As I have left Permely Dilai nothing in my will it is my earnest request that William L Mays & Agness Anderson will consent to the above request

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Jubal Anderson with the following household:

Virginia W.	3		Virginia
Martha A. E.	2		Virginia
Wm. H.	32	Laborer	Virginia

This record indicates a birth date for Agnes of approximately 1817 and for Jubal of approximately 1821. Since James Mays was residing in Bedford County, the place of birth of Agnes was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Jubal L. B. or K. Anderson with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Born

This record places Agness (Mays) Anderson's date of birth in about 1818 and Jubal Anderson's in about 1822.

Our Kin stated that Agness (Mays) Anderson lived and died in Floyd County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above the children of Agness (Mays) Anderson and Jubal Anderson were the following:

- 1) Henry C. Anderson, born about 1844 or 1845 at Virginia,
- 2) Virginia W. Anderson, born about 1847 or 1848 at Virginia,

ii. Virginia W. Anderson

Virginia W. Anderson was a daughter of Agnes (Mayse) Anderson and Jubal Anderson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>, Agness<sup>4</sup>)

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Virginia W. Anderson in the Jubal Anderson household and her age as 3 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1847.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Virginia W. Anderson in the Jubal L. B. or K. Anderson household and her age as 12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1848.

iii. Martha A. E. Anderson

Martha A. E. Anderson was a daughter of Agnes (Mayse) Anderson and Jubal Anderson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>, Agness<sup>4</sup>)

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Martha A. E. Anderson in the Jubal Anderson household and her age as 2 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1848.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed M. A. Anderson in the Jubal L. B. or K. Anderson household and her age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1850.

iv. S. (?) J. M. Anderson

S. (?) J. M. Anderson was a daughter of Agnes (Mayse) Anderson and Jubal Anderson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>, Agness<sup>4</sup>)

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed S. (?) J. M. Anderson in the Jubal L. B. or K. Anderson household and her age as 8 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1852.

v. J. E. Anderson

J. E. Anderson was a daughter of Agnes (Mayse) Anderson and Jubal Anderson. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>, Agness<sup>4</sup>)

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed J. E. Anderson in the Jubal L. B. or K. Anderson household and her age as 6 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1854.

vi. C. K. Anderson

h. William S. Or L. Mays And His Wife Susan R. (Claytor) Mays

William S. or L. Mayse was a son of Martha "Patsy" (Wright) Mayse. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, Martha<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of William L. Mays or Mayse and Susan R. Claytor, daughter of Dr. John, was dated February 10, 1843, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Samuel Claytor as surety and the marriage on February 15, 1843. If William Mayse and Susan R. Claytor were at least 16 years of age at the time of their marriage, their dates of birth would be probably before 1828. Since James Mayse was residing in Bedford County, William's place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed William S. Mays as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

The 1830 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one William Mays with the following members of his household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	30-40	1	30-40
1	20-30	3	5-10
1	0-5	2	0-5

Since William S. or L. Mayse did not marry until 1843, as set forth below, this was probably not his household.

Our Kin stated that William Mays went to Kentucky and Mrs. Parker's corrections stated that William L. Mayse married Susan R. Claytor on February 10, 1843, and went to McCracken County, Kentucky.

i. James David Kyle Mays And His Wife Sarah E. (Waugh) Mays

Our Kin stated James David Kyle Mays was a son of James Mays and Martha "Patsy" (Wright) Mays and that he married Sarah Lloyd.

j. Permelia (Mays) Deyerle And Her Husband John Deyerle

The marriage bond of Permelia Mayse, daughter of James, and John Deyerle was dated on October 14, 1846, at Bedford County, Virginia, with James D. K. Mayse as surety. The will of 1847 James Mayse lists her married name as Diarlia, which is obviously a close phonetic spelling Deyerle. If Permelia and John were at least 16 years of age at the time of their marriage, then their dates of birth would be probably before 1831. Since James Mayse resided in Bedford County, Permelia's place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The will of James Mayse dated March 25, 1847, and probated on September 8, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 12/494 listed Permelia Diarla as one of his children:

"In the name of God, Amen; I James Mays of the County of Bedford and State of Virginia, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory thanks be to God for his mercies and noing that it is appointed unto man once to die think proper to make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following Viz, . . . .

"Bedford County Virginia

Bedford County to wit - Peter M Wright administrator of Matthew Wright deceased, complains of Fleming Neighbours in custody &c of a plea of trespass on the case For this, that a certain Joseph Feather on the 20th day of August 1838, at the county aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory sealed with his seal the date whereof is the day & year aforesaid, promised to pay the said defendant, on or before the first day of January next after the date of the said writing obligatory in the sum of seventy Five dollars - And the said defendant after the making of the said writing obligatory, to wit on the 21st day of February 1839, at the county aforesaid & during the lifetime of the said Matthew Wright for value received of him to wit the amount of the said writing obligatory assigned the said writing obligatory to the said Matthew Wright and subscribed his name to the said assignment. And the said plaintiff avers, that after the expiration of the time appointed for the payment the sum of money specified in the said writing obligatory the same not having been paid to wit on the __ day of August 1841, a suit was instituted upon the said writing obligatory to recover the sum of money specified therein against the said Joseph Feather in the county court of _____ and on the __ day of November 1841 a Judgment was rendered in said suit against the said Joseph Feather for the said sum of $75- with interest the 1st day of January 1839 till payment _____ costs of suit amounting to $__ as by a transcript of the record & proceedings in that suit will appear and the said plaintiff avers, that upon said Judgment the said Matthew Wright during his lifetime, to wit on the 23rd day of November 1841, caused to be issued from the office of said court a writ of fieri facias directed to the Sheriff of said county commanding him that of the goods & chattels of the said Joseph Feather in his bailiwick he should cause to be made the debt interest & costs aforesaid on which writ the said Sheriff, by Thomas F Taylor his deputy made the following return "No effects found". This record indicates that Nancy (Holland) Wright was born in about 1790, but such a date seems too late, given the birth dates of her children.

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed a Nancy Wright with the following household adjacent to the Wright H. Wright household:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates a date of birth of Nancy (Holland) Wright of about 1780, which is more consistent with the birth dates of her children.

The Declaration of Littleberry Wright dated June 19, 1873, at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. P/139 listed Mathew Wright as a child of 1815 Joseph Wright:

"Meade County State of Kentucky, United States of America the nineteenth day of June A.D. One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventh Three,

I Little Berry Wright of the County State and Country aforesaid was born March the 25th twenty ____ day One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety One in the State of Virginia near Bedford or Franklin County. My father was named Joseph Wright Jr. of Bedford County Virginia. he was a Son of Joseph Wright Sr. of the County of Bedford and State aforesaid who was my grandfather.

My Grand Father had five children by his first wife which was my Grand mother the names of which was Thomas, Mary, Milly, John and Joseph, The names of the children by his Second wife was named Aggie Nancy, Basheba, Judith, Martha, Mathew & Wright-Wright making twelve in all. . . ."

Mrs. Parker's corrections to Our Kin listed Matthew Wright's wife as Nancy Holland, but no source was given for this information.

In her letter dated September 11, 1984, Mrs. Paulette Wilson enclosed a copy of a statement prepared by Mrs. N. A. McManaway, a daughter of Peter Meador Wright, Sr:

"Our Great-Grandmother Holland's maiden name was Meador. Her daughter Nancy Holland married Matthew Wright. From this union Sprang Jane, Peter Meador, Mary, and Joseph Pate, Millie, Nancy, John Asher, Lydia, Julia and Wright Holland.

Jane married Valentine Campor, Peter Meador married Susan James. Mary married Wilson Meador. Joseph P. wed Eliza Adams. Nancy wed Francis Johnson. John A. wed Libby Craft. Lydia wed John Compton. Julia wed Isiah Compton. Wright H. wed June Burford, (she bore him five children and died). Later he married Minerva Foutz. Aunt Millie died a maid. The others each raised a family.

The foregoing was written by Mrs. N. A. McManaway for Mrs. S. J. Basham"

A copy of a second statement was also enclosed with Mrs. Wilson's letter, this one a statement by Susan J. Basham dated June 1897:

"My father's name was Peter Meador Wright. His father's name was Matthew Wright. Matthew Wright's father was Joseph Wright.

My Grandmother Wright's maiden name was Nancy Holland. I think her father was Peter Holland.

My mother's maiden name was Susan James. Her father was Isaac James. His father was Elias James, his wife's given name was Anna.

My mother's mother's maiden name was Polly James. Her father was Daniel James. His wife's given name was susanna.

I think the above is a correct statement.

Signed: Susan J. Basham
June 1897"

From these two documents it seems clear that Matthew Wright's wife was Nancy (Holland) Wright.

In her letter dated November 30, 1992, Mrs. Katharine Williams enclosed a copy of D.A.R. Application No. 287409 for Mabel Wright Ballard dated October 10, 1934, which stated that Matthew Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (Kemp) Wright, was born on January 10 or October 19, 1776, married Nancy Holland in 1799, and died in 1842, that Nancy (Holland) Wright was born in 1783 and died in 1863, and that Matthew Wright and Nancy (Holland) Wright had the following child:

- 1) John A. Wright, born on February 18, 1809.

Our Kin listed another child:

- (11) Alie Wright.

NSSAR Application #79314 for Alfred Bunyan Lemon dated November 13, 1956, stated that Matthew Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (Kemp) Wright, was born on October 19, 1776, married Nancy Holland in about 1799, and died in 1841, and that Nancy (Holland) Wright was born on December 1, 1783, and died in 1863.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1841 Matthew Wright of Bedford County and Nancy (Holland) Wright were the following:

1) Jane (Wright) Camper or Kemper, born on September 7, 1800, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

2) Peter Meador Wright, born on May 15, 1802, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

3) Mary Louise "Polley" (Wright) Meador, born on March 16, 1805, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

4) Joseph Pate Wright, born on March 10 or 30, 1807, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

5) John Ashwith or Asher Wright, born on February 18, 1809, at Bedford County, Virginia,

6) Nancy (Wright) Johnson, born on July 17, 1812, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

7) Lydia (Wright) Compton, born on February 2, 1814, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

8) Julia (Wright) Compton, born on February 12, 1816, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

9) Alie Wright, born on July 18, 1818, probably at Bedford County, Virginia, and

10) Wright Holland Wright, born on July 30, 1820, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

a. Jane (Wright) Camper And Her Husband Valentine Camper

Jane (Wright) Camper was a daughter of 1841 Matthew Wright of Bedford County and Nancy (Holland) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1815 Joseph<sup>2</sup>, 1841 Matthew<sup>3</sup>)

The marriage bond of Jane Wright and Valentine Camper was dated on October 28, 1828, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Matthew Wright as surety:

"Know all men by these presents that we Valentine Camper and Mathew Wright are hed and Firmly bound unto William B Giles esq Govenor or chief Magistrate of Virginia in the sum of one hundred & fifty dollars current Money of Virginia to which payment well & Truly to be made to the said Govenor or his Successors for the use of the Commonwealth we bind ourselves & each of us our & each of our heirs Executors & Administrators Jointly & severally firmly by these presents sealed & dated this 28th day of Oct. 1828 The Condition of the above obligation is such that whereas a Marriage is shortly intended to be had & solemnized between the above bound Valentine Camper and Jane Wright

Now if there shall be no lawful cause to obstruct the Said Marriage then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force & virtue

Teste

Matthew Wright"

If Jane was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, then her date of birth would be probably before 1813. Since Matthew Wright resided in Bedford County, her place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The Division and Allotment of Matthew Wright's land dated May 7, 1842, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 11/138 listed Jane Camper as one of his children:

". . . . Lot No 5

We allot to Jane Camper containing 58 acres Laid off as follows Beginning at a rock on Pates road thence along the line of Lot No 4 N 61 W 102 poles to a maple on branch corner to Lots No 4 & 7 thence along the lines of Lot No 7 N 9 W 70 poles to a red oak corner to Lot No 6 & and along the lines of the Same S 86 E 124 poles to Peter M Wrights corner red oak along his line S 44 E 6 poles to a post oak corner to the dower thence along the lines of the same S 8 E 20 poles to pointers S 20 W 87 poles to the Beginning

On October 2, 1843, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 30/494 Valentine G. and Jane Camper of Putnam County, Indiana, sold 58 acres of land to Wright H. Wright:

"This Indenture made and entered into this October 2nd day 1843 between Valentine G. Camper and his wife Jane of the County of Putnam and state of Indiana of the first part and Wright H. On about September 23, 1847, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Peter M. Wright filed a complaint against James T. Grigsby for payment of a debt of $50 for rent:

"In the County Court of Bedford County
Bedford County, to wit;

Peter M Wright (plaintiff) complains of James T Grigsby (defendant) in custody &c. of a plea of trespass on the case for trespass of premises. And thereupon the said plaintiff saith, that heretofore, to wit, on the __ day of _____ in the year __ in the county aforesaid, the said defendant was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of $50. for the use and occupation of a certain parcel of land, of the said plaintiff, by the said defendant, and at his special instance and request, and by the sufferance and permission of the said plaintiff, for a long time before then elapsed, had, held, used, occupied, possessed, and enjoyed; and being so indebted, he the said defendant in consideration thereof, afterwards, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said sum of money above-mentioned whenever he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. And the said plaintiff further saith, that afterwards, to wit, on the __ day of _____ in the year __ in the county aforesaid, the said defendant was indebted to him in the further sum of $60. for the use and occupation of a certain other parcel of land with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, of the said plaintiff, by the said defendant, and at his special instance and request, and by the sufferance and permission of the said plaintiff, for a long time before then elapsed, had, held, used, occupied, possessed, and enjoyed; and being so indebted, he the said defendant in consideration thereof afterwards to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money whenever he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. And the said plaintiff further saith, that afterwards, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, the said plaintiff accounted with the said defendant of and concerning divers other sums of money from the said defendant to the said plaintiff before that time due and owing & then in arrear and unpaid, and upon such accounting the said defendant was then and there found in arrear and indebted to the said plaintiff in the further sum of $50, and being so found in arrear and indebted, he the said defendant in consideration thereof, afterwards, to wit on the day and year last aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money whenever he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. Nevertheless, the said defendant, (although often requested,) hath never as yet paid to the said plaintiff the said several sums of money above-mentioned, or any, or either of them, or any part thereof, but the same to pay the said defendant hath hitherto wholly failed and refused, and he doth still fail and refuse so to do. To the damage of the said plaintiff $50. & therefore he brings his suit &c.

Explanation of alterations during the preceding year

In March 1848 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 30/36 Peter M. Wright was authorized to contract for the blowing up of a rock in the road of which he was surveyor:

"Ordered that Peter M. Wright be allowed to contract for having the rock blown out of the road of which he is surveyor, provided the cost thereof does not exceed the sum of six dollars."

In March 1848 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 30/36 Peter M. Wright was appointed a commissioner to supervise the election of delegates to the House of Burgesses at Chamblissburg or Peatown:

"Ordered that the following persons be appointed commissioners to superintend the Election of Delegates to the next Virginia Legislature from this County Viz.

At Chamblessburg or Pea town. William Mead, George Johnson, Thomas Kasey Peter M. Wright and Nathaniel Newsom.

On March 28, 1848, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers
Peter M. Wright filed interrogatories addressed to Henry W. Mosely in connection with Mosely's suit for payment for medical services:

"Mosely vs Wright. In assumpsit

The defendant wishing a discovery from the plaintiff propounds to him the following interrogatories which he requires him to answer in solemn form upon his oath or affirmation

1st When you first made your demand upon me for the services charged in the account filed with your declaration, Did you not then charge only fifty dollars?
And if you demanded more than fifty dollars how much more did you demand?

2. When you demanded of me fifty dollars for the services charged in your account filed in this Cause, did I not refuse to pay you more than $20. And did you not then say to me that if I would not pay you the $50 demanded that you would sue me and would make out your account large enough so that if it was docked by the jury you will still be sure to get the $50. or words to that effect?
And did I not pay you $20. and in order that you might be amply compensated for your services afterwards pay you $10 more?

3d. At the time you rendered the services for me charged in the account filed in this suit were you not attending upon Matthew Wright's family, and were you not called in from there to see my family?

4th Were not your visits to my family call visits in your going to or returning from attending on the family of Matthew Wright? And was it more than 300 yards out of your way in going to & returning from Matthew Wrights? And if so how much more?

5th When you were first employed to attend upon my family, was it not with an understanding & agreement that you were to attend to them whilst visiting Matthew Wrights family and that you were not to charge as if you had been called or sent for as a physician from your own home? And did you not cease visiting my family at the same time you ceased visiting Matthew Wright's family?
If not when did you ever visit them afterwards? And were not all your visits to my family call visits, and were you ever sent for specially at your residence to see my family? if so when?

6th Was not Matthew Wright's family very sick & many of them dangerously ill and was not my family so much less dangerous or ill that I was enabled to leave them and stay with & attend upon Matthew Wright's family during the time of your services in my family a much greater part of my time than I staid with my own family? And were you not paid for your visits to & attendance upon Matthew Wrights family as follows - by myself as heir of Matthew Wright the sum of $150. for John A Wright who was sick in same house $120. or $130. Wright H. Wright sick in same house $70. & Milly Wright sick in the same House $30 - If not how much were you paid for your services to each of the above named persons

This day Peter M. Wright came before me a justice of the peace for said County & made oath that he verily believes the answers of the plaintiff to the foregoing interrogatories will be material evidence for him on the trial of a suit depending in the County Court of Bedford in which Henry W. Mosely is plaintiff & the said affiant is Defendant. Given under my hand this 28th day of March 1848

D W Quarles J.P."

This record indicates that there may have been some general sickness that included many members of both the Matthew Wright and Peter M. Wright families and may have been the cause of Matthew Wright's death.

In June 1848 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 30/81 John A. Wharton was ordered to settle the account of Peter M. Wright as administrator of the estate of Jonathan James:

"Ordered that John A. Wharton Commissioner of this Court state and settle the account current of the estate of Jonathan James deceased with Peter M. Wright his administrator & make report to Court."

On August 19, 1848, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Henry W. Mosely answered interrogatories posed by Peter M. Wright to him in connection with Mosely's suit for payment for medical services:

"In the County Court of Bedford

Henny W. Moseley )		Answer of Plaintiff to vs )	In case )	interrogatories filed by the Peter M. Wright )		Defendant.

Answer to 1st Inty - I had several patients at the house of Matthew Wright near the house of the defendant; as these patients were all in the same house when I visited them I did not charge each patient with a visit but charged the visit as if to one family and apportioned it among them all - the defendant became paymaster for some of the patients at the house of Matthew Wright and on conversing with him about my charges, as his house was near there I told him I would put him on the same footing as to my account against him and that the sum of $50 would be about what his proportion would be - In this way I agreed to take of him $50 - intending if the debt had acceded to the proposition, to take that sum as a matter of favor to him, but at the same time considering myself entitled to demand the full amount of the account filed with my declaration in this Court

Answer to 2nd Inty - When you paid me the $20. you did not refuse to pay more - I received the $20 in part of my demand against you - nothing was said at that time about your refusing or agreeing to pay more - afterwards I was informed by Wright Wright that the $20. was all you intended to pay me for my services, who complained that I was charging him more than you - that was the first intimation I had received that you intended to pay me only $20 - when I saw you afterward I told you that I had offered to take $50 of you because of my having other patients near you, that if you did not accept that offer and pay the $50 - and I should be compelled to bring suit against you that I would make off a full and proper account against you, and the jury should determine between us, the above is the substance of what I said to you - I did not say to you "that if you would not pay me the $50, I would sue you and make out my account large enough, so that if it was docketed by the jury that I would still be sure to get the $50" or words to that effect" but I used words to this effect - "that if you did not pay the $50 and I was compelled to sue you, I would make out a full and regular account and let the jury decide how much I was entitled to, and that I believed the jury would allow me more than $50" - my object was to give you to understand that if you did not pay the $50 which I offered to receive as a matter of favor and in a spirit of compromise that I then withdrew the proposition and would sue you for the whole account.

You paid me $10 in addition to the $20 not as I believe that I might be amply compensated for my services, but in order I suppose that you might obtain my services for as little as you possibly could, hoping that I would be satisfied with that and would remit the balance

Answer to 3rd Inty - when I was first called in to your house, I believe I was then attending upon Matthew Wrights family - and I suppose I was called in from there in the first place to see your family - but in all my other visits I left home for the purpose of visiting your house as well as the rest of my patients

Answer to 4 Inty - Your house was not I suppose more than the 300 yards out of my way in going to or returning from Matthew Wrights - but the visits paid by me at your house were not strictly call visits except the first one - as the condition of your son would have required my visits from home if I had had no other patient

Answer to 5th Inty - In reference to the services rendered your daughter there was such an understanding, she only needed occasional attention and prescription, but there was no such understanding in reference to your son - I was employed by you to attend him in the regular way without any special agreement or understanding - I did not visit your family after I ceased visiting Matthew Wrights family - but do not recollect that I ceased visiting your son and Matthew Wrights family at the same time - during the time in which I paid the visits charged in my account in this cause I was not sent for specially at my residence to visit - your family - there being no necessity for it - as the condition of your son was such as to require my visits and attention after I had been first called in until he was convalescent without waiting to be specially sent for at my residence - all my visits to your family were not call visits as will be seen from my answer to the 4th interrogatory

Answer to 6th Inty - Some of Matthew Wrights family were very sick - some dangerously ill - some of them were more dangerously ill than your son - though your son had a long and very severe spell - I cannot say what proportion of your time you spent in Matthew Wrights family - but your son had a mother and sister to nurse him during your absence - the several amounts mentioned in this interrogatory for services rendered the different patients there mentioned, were paid to me - but they were paid me for constant and unremitting attention from the 1st August till the last of October a space of three months, and during the great part of the time seeing them every day

Bedford County to Wit - Henry W. Mosely this day personally appeared before a magistrate in & for the County aforesaid and made oath that the foregoing answers to interrogatories filed by Peter M. Wright in the case of Mosely against Wright - depending in the County Court of Bedford are true to the best of his knowledge and recollection Given under my hand this 19th day of August 1848
