Minerva Jane Wright, Widow of Wright H. Wright, decd & others, Defendants.

This day this cause came on again to be heard upon the papers formerly read, and upon the report of N. Sale, Commissioner showing collections made by him and the disbursement thereof, together with certificate of deposit No. 383, on the People's Bank of Bedford City Va, for the sum of one hundred and eighty six dollars and fifty five cents, to which report there are no exceptions and was argued by Counsel. Upon consideration whereof the Court doth confirm said report and the disbursements made therein and the credit allowed J. B. H. Wright upon his bonds as shown in said report, and the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that N. Sale, Commissioner, do withdraw from the papers in this cause certificate of deposit No. 383 on the People's Bank of Bedford City Va, for the sum of $186.55, collect the same, pay any unpaid costs of this suit, and out of the balance pay the debts against the estate of Wright H. Wright, deceased, as shown in the report of Commissioner Miller filed in this cause on the 11th day of May, 1901, and if the said fund shall not be sufficient to pay all of said indebtedness, then it is ordered that Daniel J. Sale Commissioner, out of any funds in his hands as such Administrator, enough to pay the balance of said indebtedness, and that hereafter the said D. J. Kessler, Administrator as aforesaid shall settle his administration accounts before the Commissioner of Accounts for the County Court of Bedford County, and that N. Sale shall apply all money so received from said Kessler towards paying off the balance of the said indebtedness and make report to this Court. And it appearing to the Court that J. B. H. Wright, who purchased one of the parcels of land sold in this cause has paid in full his deferred payments on said land, the Court doth adjudge order and decree that N. Sale, who is hereby appointed a Commissioner for that purpose do at the expense of the fund in this cause execute to the said J. B. H. Wright or to whom he may direct, a good and sufficient deed conveying said property with special warranty of title. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that so much of a former decree entered in this cause on the 28th day of May 1901, directing N. Sale, Commissioner to convey by deed to the widow and heirs of Wright H. Wright, deceased, their respective shares in the lands of said Wright H. Wright, be revoked, and that in lieu thereof John M. On about August 20, 1924, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 5441, John R. L. Wright, James B. H. Wright, Eula V. M. Baker, and Laura B. Wright, as heirs of Wright H. Wright, filed their complaint against Sallie A. Settles, William Marcellus Wright, Matthew F. Carner, and James T. Carner, as heirs of Wright H.

Wright, to quiet title to certain real property and to sell the real property and divide the proceeds among the heirs entitled thereto:

"To the Honorable Judge P. H. Dillard, Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County, Virginia:

Your complainants, John R. L. Wright, James B. H. Wright, Eula V. M. Baker and Laura B. Wright respectfully show unto your honor the following facts:

That their father Wright H. Wright, late of the County of Bedford, on or about the __ day of ____, in the year 1899, died seized and possessed of considerable real and personal estate, leaving surviving him a widow, Minerva Jane Wright; six children, your complainants, Sallie A. Settles and Wm. Marcellus Wright; two grand children, children of James S. and Allie Patria Carner, (said James S. and Allie Patria Carner are both deceased), the names of said grand children being Matthew F. and James T. Carner.

That the said Wright H. Wright, in his life time, to-wit, on or about the 15th day of September 1897, duly made his last will and testament according to law, whereby he charged his whole estate with the payment of his debts, and subject thereto bequeathed to the widow Minerva Jane Wright, certain personal property specified in said will, also one-third interest in a tract of land known as the home tract, as long as she remain his widow, also a one-third interest in a tract of land known as the Beaver Dam Tract and the balance of his landed estate he bequeathed to his children and grand children above named, the said Matthew F. and James T. Carner to have one share between them, but said Matthew F. Carner not to receive any thing until he had paid the estate the sum of $200.00, but that no executor was named in the will; that said will was duly admitted to probate in the Clerk's Office of Bedford County on the 26th day of June, 1899, a certified copy of which is hereby filed marked Exhibit "A";

That on the 20th day of August, 1900, Sallie A. Settles filed a bill in the Circuit Court of Bedford County against your complainants and Wm. Marcellus Wright and Matthew F. and James T. Carner, asking for a construction of the will of said Wright H. Wright, and as to what share James T. Carner would get in the estate of the said Wright H. Wright in case he failed to pay the estate $200 as stated in the will, and asking for an account of the transaction of Daniel J. Kessler, administrator of the estate of Wright H. Wright, deceased.

Your complainants aver and charge that in this suit all of the land of the said Wright H. Wright, deceased, was sold or divided, except two parcels assigned widow as dower, and out of the proceeds thereof all unpaid debts against the estate were paid, and the remainder divided among those entitled thereto, and that there are now no debts against the estate.

Your complainants aver and charge that the said Wright H. Wright died seized and possessed of a certain tract of land in the county of Bedford, Virginia, containing 91 acres; that out of said tract, two parcels, one containing 23 acres and 1 pole, and the other containing 5 acres, 1 rood, and 37 poles, were assigned to Minerva Jane Wright, the widow of Wright H. Wright; that the said Minerva Jane Wright died on the __ day of November, 1923. The said tract containing 23 acres and 1 pole is bounded and described as follows: All that certain tract or parcel of land situate in the county of Bedford, Virginia, beginning at a gum on a branch represented on a plat filed in the suit of Settles against Wright and others as beginning at point A; thence with J. R. L. Wright's line, N 26-1/2, W, crossing a road 35 poles to a stone at B, N 86-1/2, W, 22 poles to a stone at C, N 70 W 37 poles, 4 links to the upper edge of a big rock, as at D, S 35-1/2, W 33 poles, 20 links to a new corner locust at F; thence a new line S 56-3/4, E 50 poles 17 links to a small pine at G, S 36-3/4, E 21 poles 19 links to a new corner white oak pointers at H; thence N 16 E 2 poles 10 links to a stone pile and N 52-1/2, E, (original bearing,) 47 poles to beginning.

The second lot assigned as dower, containing 5 acres, 1 rood, and 37 poles is bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at an old corner poplar on the branch represented above at figure 1; thence up the brance as it meanders, 50.8 poles to Howells old line as at 2; thence with his line S 9-1/4 E 12 po 9 links to a planted stone in a field at 3; corner to Bandy, with his line as heretofore fixed by Mr. Wright and Howell, (former owners,) N 80-1/2 E x branch 15 poles 7 links to a planted stone on a road at 4 S 54 E 8 poles to a stake on the road at 5; thence a new line N 25 E 37 po 18 links to the beginning.

Your complainants further represent that since the death of the said Wright H. Wright the title to the said real estate hereinabove described has now descended to your complainants and Wm. Marcellus Wright, Sallie A. Settles, James T. Carner, and Matthew F. Carner.

Your complainants further represent that the said tract or parcel of land can not be conveniently partitioned in kind among the devisees of the said Wright H. Wright, deceased, and that the entire tract can not be allotted to any party who will accept it and pay therefor to the other parties such sum of money as their interest therein will entitle them to; and that the interest of all parties will be promoted by a sale of the entire tract; they further represent that an allotment of part and a sale of the residue can not be had among said parties.

In tender consideration whereof and forasmuch as your complainants are without remedy, save in a court of equity, where such matters are properly cognizable and relievable, they pray that the said Wm. Marcellus Wright, Sallie A. Settles,

Matthew F. Carner, and James T. Carner may by proper process be made parties defendant to this bill, and required to answer same, though answer under oath by them and each of them is hereby expressly waived; to determine what interest, if any, the said Matthew F. Carner has in the two above described tracts or parcels of land; direct that said tracts or parcels of land hereinabove described may be sold, and the proceeds of said sale be distributed among the parties entitled thereto; direct that all proper accounts may be ordered and taken; grant unto your complainant's attorney a reasonable attorney's fee for instituting and conducting this suit; grant unto your complainants all such other and further relief, both general and special, as the nature of their case may require and to equity and good conscience may seem meet and proper, and is in duty bound, they will ever pray, etc.

This record indicates that Joseph Kemp Wright had died after the taking of this census on June 3, 1880, and probably before the execution of the deed on November 24, 1880. While it is possible that the remainder beneficiaries of this interest in land sold their interest prior to the death of Joseph Kemp Wright, the 1900 Census set forth below indicates that Sarah (Jordan) Wright was then a widow, confirming the death of Joseph Kemp Wright before 1900. Since Joseph Kemp Wright was residing in Franklin County in 1880, the place of death was probably at Franklin County, Virginia.

The 1900 Census for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Sally Wright with the following household:

In her letter dated February 10, 1978, Mrs. Sandy Mealoy included notes prepared by her grandmother Mary Rachel (Childress) Newbill, a daughter of Jane (Wright) (Turner) Childress, for a Newbill family genealogy which identified one of Jane (Wright) (Turner) Childress' brothers as "Kemp". Mrs. Mealoy also stated that Joseph K. Wright was known by her family as "Uncle Kemp".

Genealogy Of John J. Wright Of Virginia, Indiana and Kansas by John Calvin Wright stated that:

"Joseph<sup>8</sup> K. son of Right<sup>7</sup> Wright was born in 1809-10 in Franklin County, Virginia. He married Sarah R. _____. Sarah was born in Franklin County in 1810-11. Joseph K. and Sarah are listed in the U. S. Census of 1850 on page 202 as family No. 609. They had no children. They are also listed in the census of 1860 as aged 50 and 49, and without children. According to the Will of "Rite" Wright, Joseph K. was his eldest son and to him was bequeathed the plantation on which Joseph was then residing. This land lay on Indian Run in the North east part of the County. At the time the U. S. Census of 1860 was taken Joseph and Sarah were living alone and their ages were given as 50 and 49 years respectfully."

The 1850 Census for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Jane Wright in the Right Wright household and her age as 40 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1810.

Marriage Bonds Of Franklin County, Virginia, 1786-1858 by Marshall Wingfield stated that the marriage bond of Abram Childress and Jane Turner was dated on July 11, 1851, at Franklin County, Virginia, with Pleasant Brown as surety.

The 1850 Census for Franklin County, Virginia, listed Fleming J. T. Wright in the Right Wright household and his age as 28 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1822.

The will of Rite Wright dated December 28, 1852, and probated on February 4, 1856, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 9/337 listed Jane Childress as one of his children:

". . . . Thirdly. I Will and bequeath unto my oldest Son Joseph K. Wright the plantation on which he now lives lying East of the cross fence running from Indian Run Creek a North course to John Ozler's line to dispose of as he may think best during his life and if at his death he shall have no lawful children I desire the said lands to be sold at publick auction to the highest bidder and the proceeds thereof to be equally divided between the four legatees Judith P. Wright, Fleming J. T. Wright, Henry S. Wright and Jane Childress, two oldest children Angelina and James W. Turner Eighthly. I Will and bequeathe to my Daghter Jane Childress five Dollars to be paid by my Executors after the Death of her Mother."

The will of Wright Wright made a specific bequest to his daughter Jane Childress of five dollars to be paid after the death of her mother. The will also made a bequest "to be equally divided between the four legatees Judith P. Wright, Fleming J. T. Wright, Henry S. Wright and Jane Childress, two oldest children Angelina and James W. Turner". The will referred to Angelina F. E. T. W. Turner and John W. J. N. T. K. Turner as Wright Wright's grandchildren in the next line. The confusing reference in the will is resolved if the comma after the name of Jane Childress was actually an apostrophe which had been miscopied and the two grandchildren were Jane Childress' children by a prior marriage to a Turner. As will be set forth below, this solution is confirmed by the will of Jane Childress.

The will of Abram Childress was dated December 17, 1866, and probated on July 1, 1867, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 15/28 and listed his wife Jane and daughter Mary R., thereby identifying him as her second husband. The will of Abram Childress provided as follows:

"In the name of God Amen I Abram Childress of the County of Franklin in the State of Virginia being of sound mind and disposing memory but feeble in body do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament hereby revoking any made on a prior date and

First - I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second - I desire that my daughter Mary R shall have two good beds and furniture.

Third - I desire and direct that my wife Jane shall have such of my household and kitchen furniture as she may select to be taken by her at valuation and held by her during her lifetime or widowhood but in case of her death or marriage to be given to my daughter Mary R.

Fourth - Of the remainder of my perishable property not herein above mentioned I desire and direct that my wife Jane shall take one third at valuation or at such price as she may be able to purchase when exposed to sale.

Fifth - I desire and direct that my daughter Mary R shall have all the remainder of my perishable property.

Sixth - I desire and request that James H. Turner be appointed guardian for my daughter Mary and that he superintend and direct her education.

Seventh - I do hereby constitute and appoint James H Turner my Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal this 17th day of December 1866.

The will of Jane Childress was dated on May 28, 1880, and probated on September 6, 1880 at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. __/__, and which referred to the decedent's three children, James A. Turner, Mollie Newbill, and Angeline Ferguson, wife of Thomas B. Ferguson, and appointed Jane' brother F. J. T. Wright as executor. The children's names of Angeline and James and the identification of F. J. T. Wright as the decedent's brother clearly identify this Jane Childress as the daughter of Rite Wright. The will provided as follows:

"In the name of God Amen:

The death certificate of Mary C. Newbill dated November 25, 1941, at Wirtz, Franklin County, Virginia, also identified her parents as Abram Childress and Jane Wright.

A declaration by Mamie Sanders Mealoy dated October 26, 1976, described a tombstone of Jane Childress on a family graveyard on a farm 15 miles north of Rocky Mount, Franklin County, Virginia, which recited that Jane Childress was born May 27, 1811, died May 20, 1890, and was married to John T. B. Turner and Abram Childress. The date of death almost certainly should be 1880, not 1890. Cemetery Records Of Franklin County, Virginia, listed the same tombstone with the date of death in 1880.

A gravestone at Dalton Altice's farm (Franklin County, Virginia?) copied by Mrs. Thomas Carroll Newbill listed John T. B. Turner 1818-1843 adjacent to a single stone with the following names:

The will of Rite Wright dated December 28, 1852, and probated on February 4, 1856, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 9/337 listed Angelina F. E. T. W. Turner as her grandchild:

The will of Jane Childress dated May 28, 1880, and probated on September 6, 1880, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. ___/___ identified Angeline Ferguson as her daughter:

The will of Rite Wright dated December 28, 1852, and probated on February 4, 1856, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 9/337 listed Henry S. Wright as one of his children:

". . . . At the death of my wife or when the three youngest children leave her, I desire that my two Sons Fleming J. T. Wright and Henry S. Wright shall be made equal with the first children in Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, beds & furniture and kitchen and table ware.

Thirdly. I Will and bequeath unto my oldest Son Joseph K. Wright the plantation on which he now lives lying East of the cross fence running from Indian Run Creek a North course to John Ozler's line to dispose of as he may think best during his life and if at his death he shall have no lawful children I desire the said lands to be sold at publick auction to the highest bidder and the proceeds thereof to be equally divided between the four legatees Judith P. The will of Rite Wright dated December 28, 1852, and probated on February 4, 1856, at Franklin County, Virginia, W.B. 9/337 listed Mary A. F. S. Wright as one of his children:

H. Dorcas Wright, Probably Dorcas (Wright) Scott, Her Husband Axton Scott, And Her Descendants

Dorcas Wright, probably Dorcas (Wright) Scott, was a daughter of 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County and Mary (____) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>)

The will of 1763 Thomas Wright dated December 15, 1762, and probated on November 22, 1763, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 1/9 listed Dorcas Wright as one of his children:

". . . . and the money Arising after my Debts are paid to be Equally Divided as Also all my Other Estate Between my five Daughters. Elizabeth, Mary, Abbigale Sarah & Dorcas . . . ."

The Little Berry Wright declaration dated June 19, 1873, at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. P/139 stated that Dorcus Wright was a daughter of his great grandfather and that four of 1763 Thomas Wright's daughters married, one to a Smoot and had no children, and the three others to men named May, Day, and Scott:

". . . . My Great Grand Father and mother had nine children, two Sons Joseph, and John. Seven daughters Elizabeth who never married and Dorcus are the only names of the daughters that I remember but Know that four of the girls married One married a man by the name of Smoot (?) but had no children by him the three others that were married married men by the names of May, Day & Scott, . . . ."

There is no direct evidence that Dorcas, the wife of Axton Scott, was also the daughter of 1763 Thomas Wright and Mary (____) Wright. However, the circumstantial evidence is substantial and makes this identification highly probable. First, the given name Dorcas is relatively rare at this time in Bedford County. Second, the Littleberry Wright Declaration set forth above stated that one of the daughters of 1763 Thomas Wright married a Scott. Third, Axton Scott's wife was named Dorcas. Fourth, the age of that wife Dorcas is consistent with her being a daughter of 1763 Thomas Wright. She was married probably in 1776 or before and, therefore, would have been born probably before 1759. Fifth, as will be set forth below, Axton Scott owned land adjacent to that of 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County, a son of 1763 Thomas Wright, and sold that land to 1815 Joseph Wright and later purchased land adjacent to 1803 John

On February 28, 1780, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 10/78 Axton Scott purchased 182 acres of land from Anthony Pate:

"This Indenture made this 28th day of February One thousand Seven hundred and eighty Between Anthony Pate of Bedford County of the one part and Axston Scott of the same County of the other part Witnesseth that the said Anthony Pate for and in Consideration of the Sum of Sixty pounds Currant money of Virginia in hand paid to the said Anthony Pate before the insealing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof he doth hereby Acknowledge, Hath given granted bargained Sold delivered Enfeofed and Confirmed and by these presents do give grant bargain Sell Enfeof deliver and confirm unto the said Axston Scott his heirs or assigns forever One certain tract or parcel of land lying & Being in County of Bedford And on the North East fork of Beaverdam Creek and bounded by the lines of John Wright David Holladay Roland Wheeler and Thomas Buford deceased and contains One hundred and eighty two Acres it being the land and premises whereon John Watts now lives. In their letter dated January 5, 1999, W. S. "Buddy" and Linda Grubbs enclosed a copy of Washington County, Virginia, Surveyor's Entry Book 1780-1856 which included the following entry dated possibly February 11, 1794 (?):

"Elder Kemp Scott

This faithful Servant and minister of Jesus Christ died at his residence in Carroll County Missouri on the 13 day of April 1864 he wa born in Wasington County Virginia on the 20 day of June 1790 his Father Axton Scott died when he was about Eighteen months old leaving his Mother Dorcas with Eight children and but little means for their Support or Education his Mother died Shortly after the Father and he was put under the ceare of a Brotherinlaw where he remained until 1810 wen he Emigrated to Barren County Ky. . . ."

And the letter indicates that Dorcas (Wright) Scott and Axton Scott had eight children.

In 1810 they sold the farm where they lived on lower John's Creek and in 1817 bought a farm on Comfort's Creek. Then in 1818 they bought a farm at the mouth of Rockhouse Fork of Big Creek and moved there. By 1829 they had sold there and moved to the Cook farm just above Nolan and were living there.

By this time their children were all married and had homes of their own. Lucretia, Benjamin's wife, died. Peter H. Alley, their grandson, then about seven years old, states in his Articles: 'From what I can remember of grandmother, she was a

Again quoting Peter H. Alley: 'My grandfather was a stout, heavy-built man. He sat for hours, relating to me his adventures in his early life in this then wild country and I was delighted to hear them. He was a farmer and a good law-abiding man, respected by all. I believe he claimed to belong to the Methodist Church and had hope of eternal life in his death.

He died in June 1854, in his eighties, and is buried on the hill back of Williamson Town (Now City) and Thomas Kirk preached his funeral from this text: 'For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.' The text was selected by grandfather before he died and I was at the meeting.'

Freeman married Matilda Scott; Hammond married Caroline Maynard; Eva married Loransy "Ran" Deskins; Julius married Zettie Butcher.

Concerning Benjamin's second wife: Marvin Williamson states: 'It seems that my mother could not get any information in regard to my great grandmother, Susan (Lore or Loar) (Walker) Williamson. I can't find out her father's name, when nor where she died, nor where she is buried.'"
