INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work 1763 Thomas Wright Of Bedford County, His Wife Mary (____) Wright, And His Descendants is Part I of the project.

The material is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second the descendants charts, the third the sources, and the fourth appendices.

The text provides full transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list. I have limited the descendants chart to seven generations to reduce the public disclosure of information about living persons. I will be happy to share the information on later generations with interested researchers.

The source list provides first a chronologically listing of sources as they were found and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices are being published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Bedford and Franklin Counties, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future. The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County" indicates that this was the Thomas Wright who died in 1763 in Bedford County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio." A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "Grief Wright (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 75,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize their contributions by identifying those contributions in the text and source list.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

As will be set forth below, Thomas Wright's son Joseph Wright is believed to have married an Elizabeth Kemp in Maryland. The listing of a John Cemp in the Thomas Right household in the Back River Upper Hundred in Baltimore County Tax List indicates that it was the household of 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County. In addition, as will be set forth below, in the next year 1763 Thomas Wright purchased land known as Turkey Cock Alley, which was located on a branch of Beaver Dam Creek which in turn flowed into Gunpowder River. The location of that land would place it in the Back River Upper Hundred taxable area.

On November 8, 1738, at Baltimore County, Maryland, Deed HWS #1A, folio 130, Thomas Wright purchased 50 acres of land from Charles Harryman:

The patent, resurvey, and two plats clearly indicate that the same land was involved in both documents and the legal description places the land on Beaver Dam Creek, a branch of Gunpowder River.

The location of Beaverdam Creek, which runs into Gunpowder River south of the falls, is given on the map on the following page and is located just north of Baltimore City in Baltimore County and St. Paul's Parish and the Back River Upper Hundred:

On March 22, 1745, at Baltimore County, Maryland, Deed TB #E, folio 80, Thomas Wright's sale of the personal property in 1744 and his land in 1745 was probably in conjunction with his plan to move to the Virginia frontier.

Our Kin stated that 1763 Thomas Wright came to Bedford County from Augusta County in 1748 citing Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish Settlement in Virginia: Extracted from the Original Court Records of Augusta County 1745-1800, by Lyman Chalkley ("Chalkley's Abstracts"). I believe this statement is based on entries at Volume II, pages 413 and 417, which stated that the Sheriff's Tax Delinquency List included a Thomas Wright in 1748 and listed Thomas Wright as in Bedford County in 1755. The Grantor and Grantee Indexes for Deeds for Augusta County, Virginia, have no listings for a Thomas or Mary Wright which show a purchase of land by them in Augusta County. Nevertheless, it seems probable that 1763 Thomas and Mary Wright left Baltimore County, Maryland, in about 1745 for Augusta County, Virginia, and that sometime between 1748 and 1754 they moved on to Bedford County, Virginia.

On October 28, 1754, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 1A/27 Thomas Wright was sued by Matthew Talbot, as administrator of the estate of Nicholas Haile, for a debt:

"Matthew Talbot Gent. Administrator of Nicholas haile Gent. Decd. Plaintiff against Thomas Wright Defendant In Debt."

No Thomas Wright, other than 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County, has been identified in Bedford County at this time. This record is consistent with the move of 1763 Thomas Wright from Augusta County to Bedford County and establishes his presence there by 1754.

Bedford County, Virginia, Order Book 1, 1754-1761 by TLC Genealogy included the following additional material from that court order:

"The Defendant failing to find Special Bail, and the attachment awarded at the last Court against his estate being returned executed on one bowl, on the motion of the Plaintiff by his attorney, it is considered by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the Defendant, 13£ and one penny, the debt in the declaration mentioned, and his costs. But this judgment, except as to the costs, is to be discharged by the payment of 8£ 19 shillings, and 5% interest from January 8, 1745. And it is ordered that the Sheriff sell the attached effects and apply the money arising from such sale towards satisfying this judgment unto the Plaintiff and that he also return an account of the sale to the Court."

Baltimore County Families, 1659-1759 by Robert W. Barnes stated as follows with regard to Nicholas Haile:

"Haile, Nicholas (5), s. of Nicholas (4) and Frances, was b. c. 1700 and d. by 1747; m. Ann Long on 25 Dec. 1723; an Act of the Assembly empowered Haile, William Hamilton, Samuel Owings, and Christopher Randall to purch. land and erect a chapel of ease for the inhabitants of St. Paul's Par., who lived in The Forest; this chapel later became St. Thomas" Church; James Slemaker advert. in the Md. Gaz. of 17 March 1747 that he would sell the land and slaves in Balto. Co. formerly owned by Nicholas Haile; . . . . Nicholas and Ann had iss.: . . . .Ann, b. 20 Dec. 1732, m. Col. William Mead in 1750; . . . ."

The combination of Nicholas Haile of Baltimore County, Maryland, who died by 1747, after the debt of Thomas Wright had been incurred and before the lawsuit by his estate on October 28, 1754, and who was connected with St. Paul's Parish, where two of Thomas Wright's children were baptized, and with a William Mead, who, as will be set forth below, was listed as a witness to Thomas Wright's will, is substantial confirming evidence that the Thomas Wright of Baltimore County, Maryland, was 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County, Virginia.

Bedford County, Virginia, Order Book 1, 1754-1761 by TLC Genealogy stated that on November 26, 1754, at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1-A, page 38, the following court order was recorded:

"Mark Cole, Thomas Morgan, and William Morgan, are appointed to view a way petitioned for, from Nicholas Hails to Thomas Wrights, and make report to the next Court, the convenience or inconvenience thereof."

Bedford County, Virginia, Order Book 1, 1754-1761 by TLC Genealogy stated that on December 2, 1757, at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1-A, page 229, the following court order was recorded:

Bedford County, Virginia, Order Book 1, 1754-1761 by TLC Genealogy stated that on April 27, 1761, at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1-B, page 155, the following court order was recorded:

The will of 1763 Thomas Wright was dated December 15, 1762, probated on November 22, 1763, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 1/9, and provided as follows:

The mark made by Thomas Wright on his will was the same as the mark on the Baltimore County Bill of Sale and Deed, strongly indicating the same person signed all three documents.

Since the law required that a will be filed for probate in the county of residence of the decedent, 1763 Thomas Wright was residing in Bedford County at the time of his death.

The admission of the will of Thomas Wright to probate and the appointment of Mary Wright as executrix was also recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 3/79:

"The Will of Thos. Wright Produced in Court by the Wits Mary Wright Exr & pd. by the Wits. & Exr. of the sd. Granted the sd. Mary she having complied with what the law in that Case required reservg liberty to the Other Exrs. John Wright the Heirs at Law Appd. Consent to the Probat of this Will"

The inventory and appraisement for 1763 Thomas Wright's estate was dated May 21, 1764, and recorded on May 27, 1764, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 1/12:

Prior to 1763 Thomas Wright's death there are no patent deeds issued in Bedford County to a person of the surname Wright. There are, however, two grant deeds, one to Joseph Wright dated September 26, 1762, and recorded in Bedford County, Virginia, Deed Book 2, page 81 ("D.B. 2/81") and one to John Wright dated September 20, 1762, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 2/83. The will of 1763 Thomas Wright listed two sons only, named John and Joseph, who were left one shilling each, an indication that they were either cut off as ungrateful children or previously given their share of their father's estate. The two deeds were part of a tract of 304 acres patented by George Walton on March 25, 1762, and then sold by George Walton to John and Joseph Wright. The legal descriptions of the deeds which will confirm these transactions will be discussed more fully below.

The logical conclusions to be drawn from this evidence are that 1763 Thomas Wright advanced his two sons their shares of his estate so that they could purchase their own plantations, that the sons purchased their land from George Walton, and that their father lived with them from the time of purchase in September 1762 until his death in about November 1763.

This conclusion is supported by the witnesses to the will of 1763 Thomas Wright and the named co-executor. The witnesses were William Mead and Isham Talbot. Both men patented large tracts of land around the Staunton River and Beaver Dam Creek, near where John and Joseph Wright had their land, as well as in other parts of Bedford County. The named co-executor was John Board who also owned land near the Staunton River and Beaver Dam Creek. Board's Mountain is also shown on Buford's map of Bedford County near the Staunton River and Beaver Dam Creek.

The reasons for believing that the Baltimore County Thomas Wright was the same person as 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County are several. First, 1763 Thomas described himself in his will as "an unworthy member of the Church of England", that is, the Anglican Church, and the birth records for Baltimore County Thomas Wright's two daughters were found in the Anglican Church records. Second, 1763 Thomas named his wife as Mary in his will and both the birth and deed records listed the wife of Baltimore County Thomas as Mary. Third, 1763 Thomas named in his will six daughters, two of whom were Elizabeth and "Cathorine," the same names as those listed in the birth records in St. Paul's Parish. Fourth, 1763 Thomas left only one shilling in his will to his daughter Cathorine, suggesting she was being cut off or had been previously provided for and, therefore, that she was at least an adult and the birth date of Katherine of Baltimore County Thomas would make her 26 at the time the will was written. Fifth, the two deeds for 50 acres of Turkey Cock Alley were for the same land, which ties a Thomas Wright with a wife Mary to Baltimore County from 1738 through 1745, which is consistent with the apparent move of Thomas Wright to Augusta County by 1748. Sixth, both sale documents in Baltimore County were signed by a Thomas Wright with a mark "T" and the will of Thomas Wright in 1763 was signed by Thomas with a mark "T". The marks were written identically and strongly suggest the same Thomas Wright signed both. Seventh, the lawsuit by Nicholas Haile's estate connects Thomas Wright of Bedford County with the Thomas Wright of St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore County, Maryland. Eighth, the Baltimore County Tax List for 1737 listed Thomas Right with a John Cemp in his household. Our Kin stated that Joseph Wright, one of the sons of 1763 Thomas Wright, married Elizabeth Kemp of Maryland. No authority or source reference was given for this statement, but it would be consistent with the family having lived in Baltimore County. But there is further support for a Wright/Kemp marital relationship. As will be discussed more fully below, there is a declaration by Little Berry Wright dated June 19, 1873, in which he stated that his great grandfather married a Miss Kemp in Maryland. In addition, 1815 Joseph Wright, the son of 1763 Thomas Wright, had a son Rite Wright and Rite Wright had a son Joseph Kemp Wright, known to his family as "Uncle Kemp".

Mrs. Lois Baird found a remarkable declaration and assignment by Littleberry Wright dated June 19, 1873, and recorded at Deed Book P, page 139, Meade County, Kentucky:

"Meade County State of Kentucky, United States of America the nineteenth day of June A.D. One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventh Three,

I Little Berry Wright of the County State and Country aforesaid was born March the 25th twenty ____ day One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety One in the State of Virginia near Bedford or Franklin County. My father was named Joseph Wright Jr. of Bedford County Virginia. he was a Son of Joseph Wright Sr. of the County of Bedford and State aforesaid who was my grandfather.

To the best of my Knowledge my grandfathers, Father was named Joseph Wright and moved from England to this Country before the Independence of the United States, and married a Miss Kemp, in the Teritory now Known as the State of Maryland and afterwards removed to what is now Known as Bedford County Virginia and lived there until his death.

My Great Grand Father and mother had nine children, two Sons Joseph, and John. Seven daughters Elizabeth who never married and Dorcus are the only names of the daughters that I remember but Know that four of the girls married One married a man by the name of Smoot (?) but had no children by him the three others that were married married men by the names of May, Day & Scott,

My Grand Father had five children by his first wife which was my Grand mother the names of which was Thomas, Mary, Milly, John and Joseph, The names of the children by his Second wife was named Aggie Nancy, Basheba, Judith, Martha, Mathew & Wright-Wright making twelve in all. My own father Joseph Wright Jr. married Mary Cook for his first wife and had three children by her, named David, John & Berry, his first wife Mary Cook was my mother, He married for his second wife Clara Drake and had one child by her named Martin G. Wright, He married for his third wife Martha Poggins by whom he had four children named Elizabeth, Frank, Louise and Mary.

My Grand father raised me from my infancy and I recollect well that my Grand father had in his possession a chest of papers that was sent to his father from England in reference to a large amount of money coming to him from an estate in England and that he employed a man by the name of Joseph Penuell to go to England and get said money for him but he failed to go to England claiming that he was taken sick and could not go, and gave the papers back to my Grand father who put them back in the Chest. I staid with my Grandfather until his death, and his son Mathew Wright and his Son in law James Mays administered on his estate and after the Sale was over James Mays brought the chest of papers out and stated that the whole amount of the Sale was not worth anything compared with this meaning the chest of papers -

I myself married Elizabeth Meadows on the twentieth of December A.D. This document is clearly a reference to 1763 Thomas Wright and his son 1815 Joseph Wright. Although Little Berry Wright referred to his great grandfather as Joseph Wright, that is "To the best of my knowledge." The identification of the sons John and Joseph and the daughters Elizabeth and Dorcas are consistent with 1763 Thomas Wright's will. The names of the children of Joseph Wright are consistent with the will of 1815 Joseph Wright, set forth in the section on 1815 Joseph Wright below.

Little Berry stated two things which are significant for 1763 Thomas Wright: first, that his son Joseph Wright "moved from England to this Country" and second, that Joseph married a Miss Kemp in Maryland. The latter information is consistent with the Maryland tax records and deeds. The former information suggests that 1763 Thomas Wright also emigrated from England.

A second document found by Mrs. Baird included a further declaration in an assignment dated December 10, 1873, and recorded at _____ County, Kentucky, Deed Book __, page __, which provided as follows:

"This Indenture made and entered into this the 10th day of December 1873 between Marcus T. Wright and Nancy Wright - his wife of Hardin County, State

This document might indicate that the parties now thought that 1815 Joseph Wright's father was not a Joseph Wright but a John Wright. However, the more likely explanation is that they had discovered somehow that 1763 Thomas Wright's father was named John Wright. This is suggested by the reference to "John Wright of England." The parties almost certainly knew that 1763 Thomas Wright had come to America and, therefore, even if they were uncertain of his first name, would not have referred to him as "of England." The conclusion seems fair that they believed that 1763 Thomas Wright's father was named John Wright.

In her letter dated January 10, 1981, Mrs. Baird stated,

"When Riley Wright went to England, he brought back a plate of Leeds Pottery."

There may be a Wright connection in Leeds, England.

Mary (____) Wright survived her husband, since she qualified as executrix of his estate on November 22, 1763.

In her letter dated June 3, 1981, Freddie Spradlin noted two further references to Mary (____) Wright. In Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 8/80 dated October 19, 1787, and in Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 8/85 dated October 19, 1787, William Spradling conveyed property described as "part of a tract of land Surveyed to Mary Wright and sold to John Spradlin . . ." Ms. Spradlin has traced the original survey of that land and its location in Bedford County. The original survey to John Spradlin was dated April 15, 1774, and was recorded in Bedford County, Virginia, Survey Book 2, page 335. The location of Jumping Run is immediately to the east of Beaverdam Creek and on Staunton River. This is extremely close to the land originally purchased by John and Joseph Wright, the sons of 1763 Thomas and Mary Wright on the Stanton River and Beaverdam Creek. Unfortunately, no date was given for the original survey to Mary Wright so we cannot know how long after 1763 Mary Wright survived, but it seems probable it was perhaps as late as 1774.

In his letter dated September 20, 1992, Mr. Robert Barnes stated that on January 9, 1723/24 at Maryland Calendar of Wills 5/202 Anna Mead, relict of Francis Mead, made a will naming her grandchildren John and James Boards, sons Benjamin Mead, John Mead, and William Mead, and daughter Mary Wright. Since John Board was named as an executor of the will of 1763 Thomas Wright and William Mead was a witness to that will, this evidence was suggestive that Mary (____) Wright might have been the daughter of Anna Mead.

In his letter dated October 29, 1992, Mr. Robert Barnes stated that the will of Francis Meed dated January 4, 1716, and probated on August 6, 1717, at Anne Arundel County and listed in Maryland Calendar of Wills 4/122 referred to his sons William, John, and Benjamin and his daughter in law Mary Wright. The term "daughter in law" was with the meaning of step-daughter. This record indicates that Mary (____) Wright was the daughter of Anne (____) (____) Mead by her first marriage.

However, in his letter dated December 31, 1993, Mr. Robert Barnes identified this Mary (____) Wright as the wife of Henry Wright and stated that Mary (____) Wright was probably the daughter of Abraham Dawson and Ann (____) (Dawson) Mead, that they were married before November 10, 1700, when they both witnessed the will of Maurice Baker, and that Mary (____) Wright died on September 6, 1734, at St. Margaret's Parish, Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

The result of the above records and information is to leave undetermined from the Maryland records so far examined the maiden name of Mary (____) Wright and the names of her parents or the date of her marriage to 1763 Thomas Wright.

In his letter dated September 19, 1994, Mr. James Robinson stated that there was a marriage of Thomas Wright and Mary Sowry on April 26, 1726, at Leeds St. Peter, England. The date of marriage is appropriate for 1763 Thomas Wright and the place of marriage is consistent with Riley Wright's pottery, but further research will be required to determine whether this couple is the same as 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County and Mary (____) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County and Mary (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Wright, born on June 28, 1733, at St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore County, Maryland,
- 2) Cathorine or Katherine Wright, born on August 6, 1736, at St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore County, Maryland,
- 3) Mary Wright,
- 4) Abigail Wright,
- 5) Sarah Wright,
- 6) John Wright, born probably before 1745 possibly at Baltimore County, Maryland,
- 7) Joseph Wright, born probably before 1745 possibly at Baltimore County, Maryland, or in England, and
- 8) Dorcas Wright, probably Dorcas (Wright) Scott.

The Birth Register of St. Paul Parish, Baltimore County, Maryland, listed the birth of Elizabeth Wright on June 28, 1733, at Baltimore County, Maryland.

The will of 1763 Thomas Wright dated December 15, 1762, and probated on November 22, 1763, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 1/9 listed Elizabeth Wright as his daughter:

The Little Berry Wright declaration dated June 19, 1873, at Meade County, Kentucky, D.B. Abbigale Wright was a daughter of 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County and Mary (____) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>)

The will of 1763 Thomas Wright dated December 15, 1762, and probated on November 22, 1763, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 1/9 listed Abbigale Wright as one of his children:

F. 1803 John Wright Of Bedford County, His Wife Elizabeth (Pate) Wright, And His Descendants

1803 John Wright of Bedford County was a son of 1763 Thomas Wright of Bedford County and Mary (____) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>)

As will be set forth below, there were three John Wrights in early Bedford County and the identification of 1803 John Wright as the son of 1763 Thomas Wright is based on several pieces of evidence. First, the only land owned by any Wrights in Bedford County at the time of 1763 Thomas Wright's death was that acquired by Joseph Wright by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/81 and by a John Wright by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/83. The Joseph Wright who purchased the land in Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/81 will be clearly identified below as 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County. The John Wright who purchased Deed 2/83 had a wife Betty and the only John Wright in Bedford County who had a wife Elizabeth was 1803 John Wright, the son of 1763 Thomas Wright. Second, the land of 1803 John Wright was closer to Bedford County Deed 2/83 than the land of either of the other two John Wrights who were in Bedford County at that time. Finally, the identification will be further buttressed by a showing of the many interconnections between the families of 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County and 1803 John Wright of Bedford County through the Mays family and the absence of such interconnections between 1815 Joseph Wright's family and the families of 1810 John Wright and 1814 John Wright, the other two John Wrights of this period.

The place of birth of 1803 John Wright was possibly at Baltimore County, Maryland, based on the residence of his parents. As set forth above regarding 1763 Thomas Wright and his wife Mary, they apparently lived in Baltimore, Maryland, from at least 1733 to 1745 and two of their children were born there in 1733 and 1736. If 1803 John Wright was born between 1733 and 1745, it is probable that he was born in Baltimore, Maryland. However, since he might have been born before 1733, and it is not yet known where 1763 Thomas Wright resided before 1733, the place of birth of 1803 John Wright remains at this time only a possibility.

1803 John Wright probably lived with his parents in Baltimore, Maryland, until 1745 and then moved with them possibly to Augusta County, Virginia, and then on to Bedford County, Virginia, possibly in 1754, but in any event by September 20, 1762, when he purchased the land in Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/83.

On September 20, 1762, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 2/83 John Wright purchased 152 acres of land from George Walton:

"This Indenture made this Twentieth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven Hundred and Sixty two Between George Walton of the one part and John Wright of the County of Bedford of the other Part Witnesseth that the said George Walton for and in Consideration of the Sum of Nine Pounds to him in hand paid the Rect. whereof he doth hereby Acknowledge hath Granted Barganed and Sold and by these Presents doth Grant Bargan and Sell unto the Said John Wright and to his Heirs and assigns forever one certain tract or parcel of Land Containing one hundred and fifty two acres being Part of a Tract Containing three hundred and Four acres Granted to George Walton by Pattent Bearing Date the Twenty fifth day of March one Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Two in the Second Year of our Reign, Situate lying and being in the County of Bedford on Stanton River Begining at a White oak on the Said River aforesaid then Down the River to a Spanish Oak opposite to the Mouth of Levils Creek Thence one line a cross so as Equally to Devide the said Tract of Land Thence a long the Pattent Line to the First Station Together with all houses Edifices Buildings Yards Gardings Orchards waterways Profits Commodites Heridtements and appertenances to the same belonging and the Revirtion and Revirtions Rents and Prophets thereof and all the Estate Right and Title of him the said George Walton of in or to the Same to have and to hold the said one hundred and fifty Two acres of Land with all the Appurtenances unto the said John Wright his Heirs and assigns forever and the said George Walton Doth for himself his Heirs hereby Covenant and agree to and with the said John Wright his Heirs and assigns that he the said George Walton and his Heirs shall and will Warrant and forever Defend the Said Bargained Land to the Said John Wright and his Heirs and assigns from all Person or Persons whatsoever In Witness whereof the Said George Walton hath hereunto Set his hand and Seal the Day and Year First above Written.

The legal description in John Wright's deed is insufficient to locate the land on Staunton River. However, George Walton first acquired that 304 acres of land by Patent Deed 34/_ dated May 25, 1762, and that Patent Deed provides a sufficient legal description to locate Bedford County, Virginia, Deeds 2/81 and 2/83:

". . . . One Certain Tract or parcel of Land Containing Three hundred and four Acres Lying and being in the County of Bedford on the North side of Stanton River and Bounded as followeth (to wit) Begining at a black Walnut Tree on the River thence new Lines North one hundred and sixty two poles to a small Hiccory West three hundred and seventy four poles to a White Oak on Staunton River aforesaid thence down the said River as it Meanders to the first Station . . . ."

There is only one place across from Lynville (Levil's or Linvils) Creek where such a description would give a closed boundary for the land and that is shown on the maps on the following pages.

Furthermore, review of the descriptions in Bedford County, Virginia, Deeds 2/81 and 2/83 makes it clear that Joseph Wright owned the right or easterly of the two tracts. The river flows from west to east and Joseph Wright's line ran from a corner black walnut tree up the river to a Spanish oak opposite Lynville Creek; John Wright's line ran from a corner white oak down the river to a Spanish oak opposite Lynville Creek. Thus Joseph Wright's land was down-river or to the east and John Wright's land was up-river or to the west. The exact location of the dividing line cannot be determined from these descriptions, but it should run from the mouth of Linville Creek dividing the 304 acre tract approximately in two and the map shows an approximation of that line.

On December 13, 1762, at Bedford County, Virginia, S.B. 3/198 and S.B. 2/365 John Wright obtained a survey for 67 acres of land:

As in the case of Bedford County Deed 3/390, the legal description is insufficiently precise to draw a plat of the parcel, but by a tracing of conveyances similar to that done for Deed 3/390 it can be determined that Deed 7/112 was the middle portion of Bedford County Deed 1/114 and appears as set forth on the following page. The discussion and evidence for this determination are set forth in Untangling Some of the Wrights of Bedford County, Virginia at pages 224 to 238.

On September 27, 1779, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 6/329 John Wright purchased 270 acres of land from George Walton:

Bedford County, Virginia

D.B. 6/329

On March 27, 1780, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 6/227 there is recorded the following order:

"John Wright proved to the satisfaction of this Court that he served under Col. Byrd as a soldier in the year 1758 and was then discharged and that he never received any satisfaction in lands or transferred his claim which is ord'd to be Cert'd."

Since there were three John Wrights (1803 John Wright of Bedford County, 1810 John Wright of Bedford County, and 1814 John Wright of Bedford County) in Bedford County by 1780, it is not possible to identify with certainty this veteran of the French and Indian War. However, 1810 John Wright of Bedford County first purchased land in Bedford County by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 4/174 dated October 22, 1771. There is no evidence that 1810 John Wright was in Bedford County before that date. Similarly, 1814 John Wright of Bedford County first purchased land in Bedford County by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/642 dated August 27, 1765, and the Douglas Register and Goochland County tithe lists indicate that he was residing in Goochland County until about 1768. His daughter Mary Wright was listed as born on January 13, 1768, at Goochland County. There is no evidence that 1814 John Wright was in Bedford County before 1765. The result is that only 1803 John Wright was possibly residing in Bedford County in 1758 and, therefore, likely to have been part of Colonel Byrd's force. While 1810 John Wright or 1814 John Wright might have served while residing in another county, it seems more probable that 1803 John Wright was the veteran named in the court order.

On September 1, 1780, by Patent Deed E/612 John Wright patented 40 acres of land in Bedford County:

"Thomas Jefferson Esquire: Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia to all to whom these presents shall come greeting: Know ye that in consideration of the Ancient Composition of Five Shillings Sterling paid by John Wright into the Treasury of this Commonwealth there is granted by the said Commonwealth unto the said John Wright a certain Tract or parcel of Land Containing Forty Acres by Survey bearing date the fifteenth day of November One Thousand Seven hundred and Sixty six Lying and being in the County of Bedford on both sides of Beaverdam Creek and bounded as followeth, to wit, Beginning at his own Corner red Oak on beaverdam Creek Aforesaid thence on his own Line

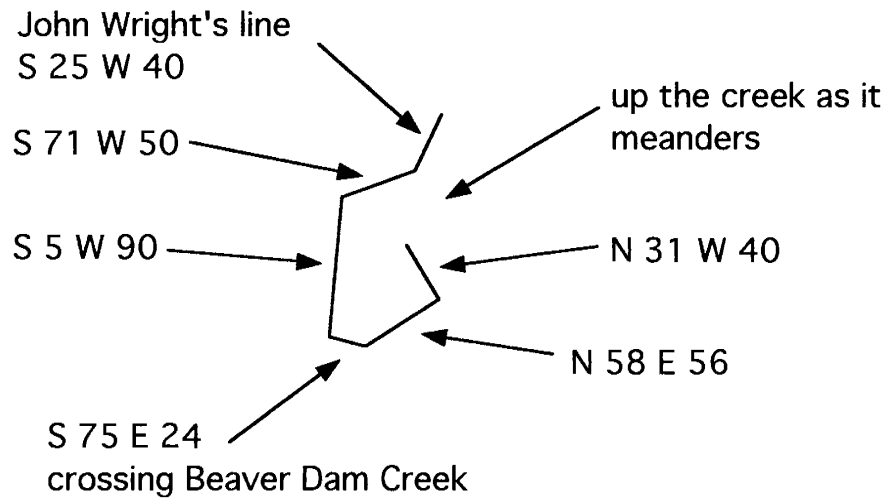

South twenty five Degrees West forty Poles to a White Oak in the said Line, off South Seventy one Degrees West fifty poles to a pine South five degrees West ninety poles to a white Oak South seventy five degrees East twenty four poles Crossing the Creek aforesaid to a pine north fifty eight degrees East fifty six poles to a red Oak North thirty one degrees West forty poles to a white Oak on the Creek aforesaid and thence up the same as it Meanders to the first Station, with its appurtenances to have and to hold the said Tract or parcel of Land, with its Appurtenances, to the said John Wright and his Heirs forever In witness whereof the said Thomas Jefferson Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, hath hereunto set his hand and Caused the seal of the said Commonwealth to be Affixed at Richmond on the first day of September in the year of our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and eighty and of the Commonwealth the fifth

Thomas Jefferson"

Patent Deed

The location of the land purchased by 1803 John Wright in Bedford County Deeds 3/390, 7/112, and 6/329 and in Patent Deed E/612 can be determined by tracing the disposition of the George Walton Patent dated April 11, 1767, for 3,928 acres of land and that has been done in Untangling Some of the Wrights of Bedford County, Virginia at pages 237 to 260. That tracing establishes that 1803 John Wright's land was located as shown on the following page:

Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 6/347A listed the following entry for payment to John Wright for provisions furnished the Army during the Revolutionary War:

"John Wright pr'd that he furnished the sd Com with 475 lb Beef for which he is all'd 16/8 _____(?)"

Similar entries are listed in Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Books 6/353 and 6/359, but since 1803 John Wright, 1810 John Wright, and 1814 John Wright were all residing in Bedford County during the Revolution, it is impossible to identify which John Wright furnished beef.

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed four John Wrights and it is not yet possible to identify which was 1803 John Wright, although one was 1803 John Wright, one was 1810 John Wright of Bedford County, one was 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, and one was 1826 John Wright of Bedford County.

The 1782 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright Pates Settlement with the following property:

Name	Acres	Value Pounds, Shillings
John Wright Pates Settlement	4/4	354 75.
ditto Joining Shrewsbury	1/8	235 20.

This record reflects a purchase of 235 acres of land rather than the 270 acres described in Bedford Deed 6/329. As will be set forth below, John Wright later in 1802 sold 135 acres of that land to his son-in-law Henry Hurt by Bedford Deed 11/543. The Land Tax List was then adjusted from 235 acres to 100 acres, clearly confirming that the 235 acres in the 1782 Land Tax List referred to the 270 acres of Bedford Deed 6/329.

The 354 acres in Pate's Settlement appears to be an error and, as will be set forth below, was corrected in 1784, but with further confusion as to the amount of land owned.

The 152 acres of land purchased on Staunton River by Bedford Deed 2/183 was not reflected in this record because the land was sold by John Wright that same spring by Bedford Deed 7/202 and was probably not considered his for tax purposes.

The 1783 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed five John Wrights and it is not possible yet to identify which of them was 1803 John Wright.

The 1783 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, has not been located.

On April 22, 1783, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 7/202 1803 John Wright sold the original parcel of 152 acres on the Staunton River to Randolph Martin:

On July 26, 1784, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 8/30 the following entry was recorded:

"Betty Wright came into Court and acknowledged her right of Dower to one Hundred Fifty two acres of Land in Bedford - sold by her husband John Wright to Henry Martin - & convey'd to Randolph Martin."

This acknowledgement clearly establishes that the John Wright who purchased Bedford County Deed 2/83 in 1762 had a wife named Betty when he sold that same land in 1782.

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed four John Wrights and one John Wright, Jr., and the John Wright who was probably 1803 John Wright had the following household:

Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg. Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16

The 1784 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following property:

John Wright	164	10	82.0	1.4.7

This record appears to reflect the 333 acres of land purchased by Bedford County Deeds 3/390 and 7/112 and the 40 acres of land patented by Patent Deed E/612 as 164 acres. As will be set forth below, 150 acres of that 373 acres was shortly given by John Wright to his son Tommey Wright, which would give a total of 223 acres. This inconsistency is somewhat explained because Tommey Wright was charged with 190 acres of land in 1784, but only received 150 acres. Apparently, the 40 acres of land purchased by Patent Deed E/612 and taken by Tommey Wright as part of Bedford County Deed 7/421 was counted twice and added to Tommey Wright's tax.

On October 25, 1784, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 7/421 1803 John Wright gave 150 acres of his land on Beaverdam Creek to his son Tommey Wright:

"This Indenture made this 25 day of Oct. 1784 Between John Wright of Bedford County of the One Part, and Tommey Wright of the same County of the other part Witnesseth, that the said John Wright hath this Day given granted and Delivered and by these presents doth give, grant, Deliver Enfeoff and confirm unto the sd. Tommey Wright and to his Heirs forever, One certain Track of Land containing One Hundred and Fifty Acres be the same more or less lying and being on both sides of Beaverdam Creek, Including One Hundred and ten Acres of the Land whereon the said John Wright now lives and bounded as followeth Viz. At a Court held for Bedford County the 25th day of October 1784.

Teste,
Ja: Steptoe Cl.B.C."

The legal description erroneously described one line as "North twenty five Degrees West forty poles" when it should have read "South twenty five Degrees West." When this error is corrected, a plat of the land appears as follows and clearly identifies this land as that purchased by Bedford County Deed 3/390 and Patent Deed E/612:

Bedford County, Virginia

D.B. 7/421

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed three John Wrights who were not otherwise identified and the one who was probably 1803 John Wright had the following household:

Person Names	Total Tithes	Tax on Covg Horses	Whites over 21 Years	Blacks over 16 Years	Blacks under 16
John Wright	1		1		1

Total Blacks	Horses	Nett Cattle	No Wheals Ridg Carriages	Ordinary Licenses

The 1785 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following property:

Landholder	Quantity of Acres	Average price pr Acre	Amount Valuation	Tax at 1__ pr__
John Wright	200	10.	100.	1.10.-
Ditto	235	4.7	53.17.1	16.3¼

This record reflects an increase of the land of John Wright after his sale of 150 acres of land to Tommey Wright. What evidently happened is that the total acreage actually acquired of 373 acres less the 150 acres sold to Tommey Wright and less the 40 acres of the Patent Deed was finally more accurately reported as approximately 200 acres (373 less 150 less 40 equals 183 acres).

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two John Wrights, one 1810 John Wright and the other 1803 John Wright with the following household:

Persons Names	Total Tythes	Taxes on Covg Horses	Whites Over 21 Years	Blacks Over 16 Years

Blacks under 16 Years	Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels riding Carriages	Ordinary Licenses

The 1786 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following property:

Land Holders	Quantity of Acres	Average price pr Acre	Amount Valuation	Tax at 1¼ pr Cent
ditto	235	4.7	53.17.1	16.3¼

The 1787 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one John Wright in List A with the following household:

Date of Recg List from Individuals	Persons Names Chargeable With Tax	Number of White Male Tithables above 21
	John Wright	John Wright

No white Males above 16 Under 21	Blacks above 16	blacks under 16	horses Mares, Colts &amp; Mules	Cattle	Carriage Wheels

Ordinary Licenses	Billiard Tables	No Stud Horses	rates

This record is clearly for 1803 John Wright who resided in the southern part of the county from which List A was taken. A comparison of the number of tithes, horses, and cattle in this list with those in the 1786, 1785, and 1784 lists for each of the John Wrights listed leads me to the identifications of 1803 John Wright and each of the other John Wrights in the county for each of those prior years.

The 1787 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wright with the following property:

Persons Names Owning Land	Number of Lots	Yearly rent of lots	Quantity of Land	Rate of Land Per Acre

On August 8, 1787, by Patent Deed 12/424 John Wright patented 67 acres of land in Bedford County:

"Beverley Randolph Esquire Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia to all to whom these presents shall come Greeting Know ye that in consideration of the ancient composition of Ten Shillings Sterling paid by John Wright into the Treasury of this Commonwealth, there is granted by the said Commonwealth unto the said John Wright a certain tract or parcel of Land containing Sixty Seven Acres by Survey bearing date the thirteenth day of December One thousand Seven hundred and Sixty two lying and being in the County of Bedford on the north branch of Stanton River And bounded as followeth To wit Beginning at Joseph Wrights corner pointers in his own line thence on Joseph Wrights line North fifteen degrees East Sixty four poles to his corner White oak Off North Seventy five degrees West Ninety eight poles to a spanish oak South Twenty five degrees West one hundred and Twenty Six poles to a pine in his own line and thence On his own line South eighty six degrees East One hundred and forty four poles to the Beginning with its Appurtenances to have and to hold the said Tract or parcel of Land with its Appurtenances to the said John Wright and his Heirs forever In Witness whereof the said Beverley Randolph Esquire Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia hath hereunto set his hand and caused the lesser Seal of the said Commonwealth to be affixed at Richmond on the eight day of August the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty Seven and of the Commonwealth the Twelfth

B. Randolph"

This is the same land as that described in Bedford County S.B. 2/365. A plat of that

Since the legal description refers to its line running along "his own line S 86 E 144 poles", the same John Wright who owned Deed 2/83 must also have owned Patent Deed 12/424. The only location in 1762 which could satisfy the legal description in that patent deed is north of Deeds 2/81 and 2/83 and west of Joseph Wright's 1780 Patent Deed E/592. The placement of the John Wright's 1787 Patent Deed 12/424 is shown on the map on the following page. Although the plats of the deeds do not exactly coincide, I have included the surrounding deeds granted to 1815 Joseph Wright the shape of which seem to clearly indicate that the deeds should fit together. The consistent underestimation of distances in the surveys and deeds was probably due to the rugged nature of the terrain which is even today heavily wooded and undeveloped.

This record reflects the acquisition of 67 acres of land by Patent Deed 12/424 and thereby identifies the John Wright listed in the Bedford County Land Tax Lists as owning 235 acres of land from 1782 through 1789 as the same John Wright who purchased the 152 acres of land by Bedford County Deed 1/83 in 1762.

On or about December 18, 1789, John Wright consented to the marriage of his son Anthony Wright to Elizabeth Mayse:

This record clearly identifies the John Wright who owned 200 and 235 acres of land in the Land Tax Lists from 1782 and after as 1803 John Wright of Bedford County.

Elizabeth (____) Wright has been identified above as the wife of 1803 John Wright based on the statements made in the proof of his will at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 3/13, Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 9/473, and the acknowledgement recorded in Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 8/30. No marriage bond has as yet been found for John Wright and Elizabeth (____) Wright.

The parents of Elizabeth (____) Wright were probably Anthony Pate and Sarah (English) Pate. The DAR Patriot Index listed the wife of 1803 John Wright as Elizabeth Pate Wright, but I have been unable to ascertain the source of this statement. It was probably derived from a document submitted by Lula Eastman Jeter Parker who had the same notation inserted in a copy of her book Our Kin, but without a source reference, other than the one discussed in the next paragraph.

One piece of evidence strongly supporting the assertion that 1803 John's wife was a Pate is Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 3/390 in which Anthony Pate and his wife Sarah granted land to 1803 John Wright, but only after their deaths. That is the sort of arrangement one would expect to find among members of a family and not among unrelated parties. There was no will in Bedford County for an Anthony Pate and the probate documents for the surname Pate do not include a reference to Elizabeth Wright.

Although no marriage bond has yet been found, the date of marriage can be estimated as probably before 1764 and probably at Bedford County, Virginia. The date of marriage is based on the date of birth of their oldest child Tommey. As set forth below, Tommey Wright was born probably between 1760 and 1764, possibly about 1763.

The place of marriage is based on the residence of 1803 John Wright and of Elizabeth (Pate) Wright's parents. 1803 John had purchased his land in Bedford County in 1762. Elizabeth's parents Anthony and Sarah Pate had purchased land in Bedford County by Deed 1/114 dated September 5, 1756, and sold land to 1803 John Wright by Deed 3/390 dated February 27, 1770. They were clearly resident in Bedford County during the early 1760's when their daughter Elizabeth Pate married 1803 John Wright. Since both 1803 John Wright and Elizabeth Pate were resident in Bedford County at the probable time of marriage, it probably occurred there.

As set forth above, Elizabeth Wright was appointed one of three executors of her husband's estate on September 26, 1803, in Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 3/13. 1803 John Wright left her a life estate in his slaves Tye, Peter, Jude, Sam, Milly, and Isaac as well as in certain tangible and intangible property not otherwise disposed of. Her interest in these slaves resulted in a number of recorded documents set forth below.

This record reflects the sale or distribution of the 163 acre parcel of land in 1808 or 1809, but I have not as yet located the document for that transfer. This land was given by 1803 John Wright's will to his son Joseph Wright. On September 19, 1806, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 12/102 that same land was sold by Joseph Wright and his wife Aga to his brother Anthony Wright. The land was apparently deemed distributed to Joseph Wright by recording the will and no further document of transfer from the estate of 1803 John Wright to Joseph Wright was filed.

In 1809, and probably September 1809, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 13/477 Elizabeth Wright registered a list of the slaves given to her by 1803 John Wright's will:

"A Register of Slaves held by Elizabeth Wright agreeable to the Will of John Wright Dec'd -- Tye a fellow supposed to be 24 years old - Peter a fellow supposed to be 23. Jude a girl about Fifteen years old - Milley a woman about 32 years old - Sam a boy about eleven years old - Jesse a boy about 5 years old - Nicholas a boy about 3 years old - Moly a boy about one year old. Children of Milley.

Elizabeth Wright"

The 1810 Personal Property Tax List and the 1810 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list an Elizabeth Wright, but the 1810 Census did list a woman over 45 years of age in the John Wright household. This was the household of Elizabeth (Pate) Wright's son 1840 John Wright and indicates that they were then residing together. This conclusion is confirmed from the lawsuit between them discussed more fully below.

The 1810 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wrights Est with the following property:

This record reflects the sale or distribution of the 100 acre parcel of land in 1810 or 1811, but I have not as yet located the document for that transfer. This land was given by 1803 John Wright's will to his daughter Ruth (Wright) McGeorge. Although no record of a sale of that land by Ruth (Wright) McGeorge or her husband William McGeorge has yet been located, the land was apparently deemed distributed to Ruth Wright by recording the will and no further document of transfer from the estate of 1803 John Wright to Ruth Wright was filed.

The 1812 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wrights Est with the following property:

This record reflects an adjustment of the acreage of the remaining parcel in the estate and perhaps a correction of the understatement of acreage commencing in 1782.

The 1813 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed John Wrights (estate) with the following property:

Persons Names Owning Lots &amp; Land	Quan- tity Of Land	Rate of Land Per Acre	Total Amount Of Land	Tax on Lots &amp; Land	_____

After this date the 220 acres of land of 1803 John Wright's estate was listed in the Land Tax Lists under the name of his son 1840 John Wright of Bedford County.

On September 25, 1820, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 5/220 a list of slaves born to Jude and part of the dower estate of John Wright was filed:

"List of Slaves belonging to the dower Estate of John Wright deceased

At a Court held for Bedford County at the Courthouse the 25th day of September 1820 This List of Slaves belonging to the dower Estate of John Wright deceased was Returned to Court and ordered to be Recorded"

Elizabeth (Pate) Wright lived with her son John Wright at the family residence from the death of 1803 John Wright until March 3, 1821, when she moved away to live with her daughter Ruth (Wright) McGeorge and her son-in-law William McGeorge. On April 3, 1821, she filed suit against her son John Wright for an accounting for the use of the slaves left to her by her husband 1803 John Wright. The records of that case are in File 1373 of the Superior Court of Law and Chancery, Lynchburg, Virginia. The complaint provided as follows:

"To the Honourable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg District Humbly Complaining Sheweth unto your Honour your Oratrix Elizabeth Wright widow and relict of John Wright deceased that the said John Wright departed this life in the month of August 1803 having on the 11th Day of that month made and published his will in due form of Law, wherein he disposed of a considerable Estate in manner and form as will more fully appear reference being thereunto had

That immediately after his death your oratrix together with John Wright and Tommy Wright herein after called Defendants, qualified as Executrix and Executors of the said last will. That the Debts have all been paid, and the Legacies, bequeathed subject to the pleasure of your oratrix delivered to the Legatees respectively entitled: That your oratrix and John Wright the younger, then a single man, resided together in the Dwelling house of her late Husband; And received possession of the property bequeathed to her, according to a schedule now exhibited as a part of this Bill; That the said John Wright being as was supposed, entitled to the Land whereon they resided; Superintended the

That she has compelled, to abandon her home, where she bore and raised him, and is now dependant upon the charity of her other children for a home and subsistence: In Tender consideration whereof in as much as your oratrix is remediless at Law. May It please the court to cause the said John Wright & Tommy Wright in their own right and as Executors of the said John Wright deceased to be made Defendents to this Bill. And full true and perfect answer to make to the allegations therein contained as if the same were again set forth and recapitulated by way of interrogatories: That the said John may be compelled to deliver up to your oratrix possession of the slaves Stock and all other things in his possession to which she is Entitled under the will of her late husband: upon such reasonable Terms & conditions as the court may prescribe: and be compelled to account for the hire & profits of the same during the time he has had the possession and use thereof; and in the mean time that some provision suitable to the age and condition of your Oratrix may be made for her support: and such other and further relief as her case may require and is consistent with the principles of Equity & rules of the court. To this End to grant her the commonwealths rit of subpona.

And as in duty &c

In May 1821 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 18/94 John Wright and Tommey Wright, as executors of the will of John Wright, moved for the settlement of their accounting for the estate:

"On the motion of John Wright & Tommy Wright the Exors of John Wright Dec It is ordered that John Pate Wilkins J Hunt Mattw Pate Lawr McGeorge & Thomas Davis or any three do settle the account current of sd Decs Estate with sd Exors & report to Court" of the will of John Wright, to post additional security for their administration of the John askd why, or whether he offered to deprive her of her preasant home; she answered that he had not. But it was not will'd to her. John told her that it was his fathers intention for her to live at that place and in that house her lifetime and that he had forgotten to mention it or it was neglected by the writer. I therefore assure you before Mr Jeter that I never will take it from you nor suffer any other person to take it, or interrupt you at it so long as you and I live;; And it would be a satisfaction to me for you to stay, and be satisfy'd, you shall keep Jude and her Children as you have done, And when you want any other of the Boys you shall have them, to do any thing you want them to do. if you will let me know when you do want them; And I will (as I have done) keep you in all of the necessaries of life that you stand in need off About this time came people with a carriage and in the course of the day mov'd her household and kitching furniture to Capt. John said well mother if you will gow I will lock the door and take care of your house for you and you are welcome to come to it at any time if you git dissatisfyd, and I expect it will not be long before you are. and further saith not"

In May 1821 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 18/94

The answer of Tommey Wright to the Complaint in File 1373 was filed on October 10, 1821, and provided as follows:

"The Seperate Answer of Tommy Wright to a Bill of Complaint exhibited against him & John Wright in the Superior Court of Chancery holden at Lynchburg by Elizabeth Wright

This respondent for answer to the said bill or such part thereof as he is advised is material for him to answer, he answereth & saith - that he admits that his father John Wright departed this life in the month of August 1803 - having previously made & published his last will & testament, where in he disposed of his Estate in the manner & form as will appear by referring to the said will, that the debts which were but few (if any) have all been paid. This respondent together with John Wright & the complt. did shortly after the death of his father Qualify as Executrix & Executors of the said will - altho this respondent qualifdy as one of the Executors he never reserved or had in his possession any part of the Estate of any kind whatever. Nor has he ever received the legacy bequeathed him by the Testator. the bequest being a negroe man named Scya (?) to be the property of this respondent at the death of Complt. which said negro Scye(?) is Dead - This respondent has lived very near to his mother the complainant & his brother John Wright since the death of his father in the year 1803. their plantation joining, and his Brother John Wright being then quite young. the tender regard this respondent had for his mother, induced him frequently to call & see her & acquire some knowledge of the treatment she recd. from her Son John, this respondt. always understood her to be well Satisfyd with her treatment until of late, her home was a comfortable one, and ample provision was always made for her comfortable support, and had she have continued with her son John. This respondent is confident the same ample & comfortable provision would have been still made for her support. This respondt. has every reason to believe that his brother John always treated her with motherly tenderness they lived together in peace & Harmony from the year 1803 till within a year or two: the Complt. is about 74 or 75 years of age & at times is a goodeal pevish & childish, and This respondt. is Strongly Impressd with the belief that the complainant has been prompt by some of her other children to abandon a comfortable home. and an ample Genteel maintainance, and to institute this

Suit. Who expects and probably has the assurance of the complt. that they shall in case she recovers enjoy the use & profits of the Estate, for bearly maintaining her. This respondt. has no hesitation in Saying that the Complt. had no Just cause of complaint against her Son John. that she had every Comfort of that her age & condition required & a sufficiency of servants to attend her.

Tommey Wright"

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Pate) Wright was born in about 1746 or 1747.

The Answer of John Wright to the Bill of Complaint in File 1373 was filed on October 11, 1821, and provided as follows:

"To the honble Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery holden at Lynchburg

The Answer of John Wright to the Bill of Complaint exhibited against this respondent & others by Elizabeth Wright

This respondent saving the benefit of all exceptions for answer to the said Bill saith that true it is that his father John Wright departed this life in the year 1803 having first duly made & published his last will & testament a copy whereof is exhibited with the plaintiffs Bill.

At the death of this respondent father this respondent was about 18 years of age. The plantation on which his father died being devised to this respondent this respondent continued to reside with his mother on the place in the character of manager of the business and got only but a portion of the crop as is normally given for like services. In this situation this respondent continued for several years. then by the consent of the complainant this respondent took the whole concern into his own hand and has in consideration of using the property in which the complainant had a life estate to support her & her youngest daughter in a comfortable manner & to furnish them with such articles as their necessities required This stipulation this respondent performed only in the spirit of justice but ____ (?) Independent of his engagement he reserved one horse & kept two for his sister during her continuance which terminated in 1811. The complainant sold during her residence with this respondent some horses belonging to the estate & appropriated the money to her own use and acted on the gratification of her wishes without any restraint from this respondent. Thus things continued with the same understanding between the parties untill about the year 1819 during all which time the complainant never to this respondents knowledge alleged that he was indebted to her for the enjoyment of her property. He some times said that this respondent ought to give her more than her mere support but these dictations were the effects of occasional ill humour & not of any settled design. In 1819 she manifested her dissatisfaction more steadily & this respondent then agreed to pay her for that year one hundred dollars over & above the maintenance before the year has expired this respondent informed her he could not give it any longer. She remained with this respondent until March 1821 and then left his house & removed to the house of William McGeorge who is married to her youngest daughter.

After this respondent took the management of the plantation into his own hands he clothed all of the slaves & paid all the taxes ____ (?) they been charged to the complainant and until 1809. This respondent raised the children of Milly & of Jude born after the Testator's death and of his own means. Sam bequeathed to this respondent was but 5 years old at the death of the Testator.

In December 1820 the complainant having manifested such displeasure toward this respondent to which she was as this respondent believes by some of her other children who hoped to profit by rupture between her & this respondent she gave notice that this respondent should not for the ensuing crop put the five following slaves under his overseer Viz Peter Jesse, Nick, Moley Sam: She then explicitly stated that he had given up, or that did give up Sam & Milley & her other children to this respondent for him to do with them as he thought proper.

This respondent has no objection to deliver Peter. he belongs to this respondent after the complainant's death. He having purchased the interest in him. He conceives it herein proper to demand proper surety to have him whenever when the life estate shall have terminated. This respondent is also entitled to Jude & her children having also acquired the remaining interest in her by purchase.

This respondent will beg leave to state more explicitly the reason why he has refused to deliver the slaves. Sam Milley & her children & Jude & her children Sam he considers under a fair construction of the Testator's will to have been his property absolutely at his death. The Testator had no other slaves than Rose expressly mentioned in the will and in the latter clause of his will he clearly shews that the life estate of his wife was only to extend to those slaves who were then grown which Sam was not being only of the age before mentioned. Milley & her children this respondent claims by express relinquishment of his mother & by having raised the children out of his own means. Jude & her children this respondent claims on the same ground.

This respondent denies that he refused to deliver to the complainant any part of the stock. He was willing & did offer to deliver her two thirds of it. The other third at her death is the property of This respondent. This respondent apprehended that if he did deliver it, that the complainant would give it to her now favorite children being lately made a present of a cow & calf to one of her daughters & having a few years ago divided 405 dollars among eight of her children (then living ten in all). This respondent therefore refused to deliver more than two-thirds. The stock comprehended six cows four calves eight young cattle fifteen sheep five grown hogs sixteen shoats & sixteen pigs. The other small articles this respondent is billing the complainant shall have whenever she chooses to send for them.

The pecuniary legacies mentioned in the bill have been paid by the complainant in a horse & cattle left by the Testator. Your respondent made no objection

This respondent does not admit that the complainant is destitute of the means of support. She had when she left this respondent about three hundred & fifty dollars due to her from responsible persons mostly for money loaned She had also some money and household & kitchen furniture

This respondent regrets as much as any person can do that his mother at the very advanced age of 74 years should have deserted a home which he had during many years made as comfortable & cheerful as was in his power, and which he should have endeavored to render more so as her years & his means increased. He endeavored to avoid the ____ (?) and much more any ill will or hostility toward him. He was however unable to avert either. The discontent attendant on old age was kept alive by those whose sole object was to profit by its existence.

This respondent was anxious to avoid any litigation. He proposed various ways by which the outstanding difference might be adjusted by respectable neighbours so as to avoid bringing it before a court of Justice but all the expedients proposed was entirely unavailing.

This respondent utterly denies that he treated the complainant unkindly. He endeavored on all occasions to make her comfortable and satisfy her reasonable desires. In this he believes he should have succeeded had others not found it their interest to interfere

This respondent has always been willing to account with the complainant for the sum of one hundred dollars which he contracted to pay her in 1819 as also to pay any amount to which she may be entitled to for the preceding year. This respondent however deeming himself unjustly brought before this honbl court objects to its Jurisdiction as to that matter alone, observing that as the other subjects he has done the complainant ample justice.

This respondent since his mother left him has frequently informed her that if she was in want of thing which it was in his power to furnish if she would send for it she should have it. When she went away this respondent furnished about 150# of Bacon. he has always been willing to provide her the means of subsistence if she would make her wants known.

This respondent prays to be hence dismissed with his costs and &c"

In November 1822 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 18/311 the court ordered John Wright and Tommey Wright, as executors of the will of John Wright, to show cause why they should not post additional security for their administration of the estate:

"John Wright Dec by Tommey Wright & John Wright as executor on __ It is ordered that they be summoned to the next court to give their sd Secys countersecy &c"

Pursuant to the court order dated May 23, 1822, directing that a commissioner determine the amount of support properly payable to Elizabeth Wright, James Berragh notified the parties on April 10, 1823, that he had set Friday May 16, 1823, as the date for the hearing on that matter.

The next deposition in File 1373 was of Elizabeth Maddry on May 8, 1823, at the house of Tommy Wright in Bedford County and provided as follows:

"This deponant saith that she lived in the house with Elizabeth Wright and John Wright nearly two years as one of there family some where about the years of 1811, 1812 or 1813 that during that time she often heard Mrs Elizabeth Wright say that her son John was to maintain the family, and was to have any thing above that he could make, the said John always during that time defrayed the expences of the family as I understood from both of them, and I often heard Elizabeth Wright say that if her son John would continue to live with her or lett her live with him that he should have all he could make, if he could make any thing during her or his lifetime, and further saith that Elizabeth Wright the plaintiff appeared to be perfectly satisfied with that agreement betwixt the two herself and her son John during the time I lived with them and further this deponent saith not Elizabeth M. Madder_?"

On May 17, 1823, James Beragh filed his report in File 1373 on the request for support pending the resolution of the lawsuit. That report provided as follows:

"Your commissioner in pursuance of the foregoing order on the 10th day of April 1823 issued his notice to the parties that he had appointed Friday the sixteenth day of May following to carry the said order of court into effect (a copy of which notice is herewith filed marked A) on which day the defendant John Wright attend at your commissioners office where he proceeded to examine the papers filed in this cause and begs leave to submit to the court following report

It appears from the answer of Tommy Wright that the plaintiff was seventy four or seventy five years of age in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty one and by the evidence of Lucy Lancaster that she is old and infirm and incapable of supporting herself, her condition in life does not appear from the evidence, she may have lived in ease and affluence or she may have been restricted in the necessaries of life the only mode of Judging of her condition in life as the evidence now is, is the property left by her husband for her support which agreeable to the inventory and

appraisement	£953.13.5
Deduct amount of slaves	£450. 0.0
4 legacies of £10 each	40. 0.0
3 horses (supposed value)	60. 0.0
3 beds and furniture (supposed value)	£ 18. 0.0
	568: 0:0
	£385:13:5

Add to this the slaves with their increase if the court should be of opinion that the plaintiff has a life estate in them the slaves divided are as follows

To Tommy Wright a Slave named Tye after the death of the plaintiff

Sarah Wright a slave named Rachal to be delivered to the donee when the plaintiff should think proper

Anthony Wright a slave named Peter after the death of the plaintiff

Nancy Asbury a slave named Let to be delivered the donee whence the plaintiff should think proper

Betsy Wright a slave named Jude after the death of the plaintiff

Polly Wright a slave named Hannah to be delivered to the donee when the plaintiff should think proper

Rhoda Wright a slave named Jane in the donees possession

John Wright two slaves named Sam and Milly to be his at the plaintiffs death

Joseph Wright a negro named Isaac to be his property at the plts death

Ruth Wright a slave named Margaret

It appears from the foregoing abstract that the plaintiff by the will of her deceased husband is entitled to the services of the following slaves Viz, Tye, Peter, Jude, Milly, Sam, and Isaac with the increase of the females of them during her life unless that is restricted by the devise in the will of John Wright deceased giving to the plaintiff the use for life of the grown negroes which appears by the evidence of Elizabeth Holladay to have been but three and that Tye one of them is since dead the remaining two the commissioner supposes to be Milly and Peter, as a register of the ages of the slaves recorded in Bedford Court in December 1809 states the age of Milly to be about 32 and Peter about 23 years

If the whole of the slaves with their increase belongs to the plaintiff during life then by hiring them she would receive the following sums as appears by the evidence of Pascal Butler and the evidence of Millener Haynes so far as the latter testimony speaks of the hire of the slaves

Milly (hire supposed)	20:00
Jude (hire supposed)	40.00
Peter	65:00
Sam	65.00
Jesse	60.00
Nicholus	65.00
Moley	22:50
Ben	22.50
	$340.00

If the slaves Peter and Milly are considered only to be devised to the plaintiff during her life then the negroes Jude and Sam should be deducted from the foregoing sum the others appear by the evidence of Elizabeth Halloway to be the children of Milly

Amount above	$340.00
Deduct Jude, hire $40 and Sam $65	$105.00
	$235.00

Add to either of these sums the use of the property as given by the defendant John Wright in his answer and it would make a comfortable support for the plaintiff. The commissioner thinks that the defendants who are in the enjoyment of the property could not be injured by paying Two Hundred Dollars to the plaintiff during the pendency of this suit and he thinks that, that sum would be a reasonable allowance to the plaintiff on which she could in all probability support herself without difficulty

All of which is respectfully submitted to your honour

James Beragh C."

On the back of the report was the order of the court in File 1373 which provided as follows:

"On the mo. of the plff, by counsel, for an increase of her alld pendente lite, the court, on considn of the bill, answers, _____(?) as well as the _____(?) of &c made the with ansr: thereto by the def. John Wright, and after hearg.(?) counsel in opp. to the mo. doth order &c $150 annual from the dnts hereof"

On May 17, 1823, John Wright objected to the order as follows:

"The defendant John Wright excepts to the report of Master Commissioner Beragh. Because the sum reported as a proper allowance per annum to the plaintiff is far beyond the profits of any property belonging to her in the possession of the defendant, and the said defendant contends that he is not liable for any sum beyond those profits"

On July 14, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 19/15 Anthony Wright filed a motion for John Wright and Tommey Wright, as executors of the will of John Wright, to post additional security for their administration of the estate:

"On the mo. of Anthony Wright one of the secys to the Exors & legatee of John Wright Dec suggesting his fear & It is ordered that John & Tommy Wright his Exors be summoned to the next Court to give their sd Security &c counter security"

On July 30, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 19/28 Tommey Wright gave additional security for acting as executor of the will of John Wright, but the other executor, John Wright, refused and was removed as executor:

"On the mo of Anthony Wright one of the Securiteys for the Exors of John Wright Dec, and one of the distributees of sd Decedent & for reasons appearing to the Court It is ordered that Tommy Wright one of the Executors of sd John Decd give sufficient counter Security during this term & that thereupon he continue as an Executor of sd Decedent & John Wright the other Exor having refused to give further Security - It is ordered that he be removed from his office of Executor of sd John Decd"

On September 22, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 19/45 on the complaint of Anthony Wright, both Tommey Wright and John Wright were removed as executors of the will of John Wright:

"On the complaint of Anthony Wright one of the Securitys of John & Tommy Wright Exors of John Wright Decd & one of the distributees of sd John Dec It is ordered that the sd John & Tommy Wright be removed from the sd office of Executors & further that they surrender all goods chattles & effects in their hands belonging to the Estate of the sd John Dec to Elizabeth Wright formerly their Co. executrix"

A summary of the case in File 1373 was filed on October 27, 1823, setting forth the history of the documents on file and the motions and actions of the parties.

In October 1823 the court in File 1373 rendered the following opinion:

"This cause came on &c.

On consideration whereof, the court being of opinion, that the plaintiff under the will of her husband John Wright deceased, is entitled to an estate for life, first in the money on hand at the testators death, secondly in his credits whether by bond note or open account, thirdly in his stock of every kind, fourthly in his household and kitchen furniture, and lastly in all his slaves whether young or old, not absolutely given away by his will, that among the slaves, to which the plaintiff is so entitled for life, are those in controversy to wit, Peter, Sam, Milly and her children Jude and her children, to none of whom hath this defendant John Wright shewn any such title by gift or relinquishment, as he hath alledged in his answer; - the court being also of the opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to an decree for the immediate possession of the aforesaid stock furniture and slaves except Peter who hath been given up to her pending the suit - upon her giving bond, with sufficient security to the defendants John & Tommy Wright, in a penalty equal to double the value of said property to be ascertained by a commissioner of this court, conditioned, for the forth coming and _____(?) to the said defendants or the survivor of them, his exeors and administrators, for the purposes of their testator's will -of so much of the said stock and furniture and so money of the said slaves and their increase as may be in existence at the death of the plaintiff, and for making just compensation to said defendants, for any loss or injury which may happen to said furniture stock or slaves or their increase, by the misconduct or negligence of the plaintiff; and being moreover of the opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to an account of the money and credits of the testator which may have been received by the defendants, and to an account of the annual hire and profits of the slaves and other personal estate aforesaid from the commencement of the year 1820 -with which the defendant John Wright is chargeable - which account of hire and profits may be carried back to the death of the testator, if the said John Wright shall choose it - excluding therefrom the year 1819 - which is covered by the contract alledged in the bill and admitted in the answer whereby the sd. John was to pay the plaintiff one hundred dollars, besides her maintenance for the use of her property aforesaid which said sum of one hundred dollars has been paid by the order of this court pending this suit; doth therefore adjudge order and decree that, upon the plaintiffs executing bond and security as aforesaid, and filing the same in this court or with the clerk thereof in ____ (?) the defendant John Wright do deliver to her the furniture stock and slaves aforesaid with their increase to be held and enjoyed by her, under the will of her husband for and during her natural life; - and that one of the commissioners of this court do ascertain the penalty of the bond aforesaid and take an account of the money and credits aforesaid. and if the hires and profits of aforesaid pursuant to the foregoing principles, allowing to the said John Wright, all just and proper charges for the maintenance of the plaintiff, and for raising of the young negroes, during the period for which the account of aforesaid shall be taken - Commr to proceed & report in the usual form"

On November 28, 1823, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 19/82 Anthony Wright filed a motion for Elizabeth Wright to post additional security for her administration of the estate of John Wright:

"On the Motion of Anthony Wright one of the distributees of John Wright decd. and one of the secureitys of Elizabeth Wright Executrix of sd. Decedent Itis ordered that the sd Elizabeth Wright Executrix &c be summoned to shew cause if any she can Why she should Not be ruled to give Counter security to the sd. Anthony Wright for her administration upon the sd. estate"

John Wright appealed from the court decision in File 1373 and then on August 18, 1824, John Wright withdrew his appeal and stated that he did not intend to prosecute it further and Elizabeth Wright consented to the dismissal of the appeal on August 23, 1824.

On October 13, 1824, the following affidavit was filed in File 1373 by John Wright:

"The affidavitte of John Wright -

This affiant saith that shortly after the Decree of Elizabeth Wright against the afiant and Tommy Wright which Decree was made October term in 1823, this afiant Received a message from the pltf that she wished to compound the suit amicably out of Court and wisht to see me on that subject. I called on her shortly after receiving the message and there were several propositions made. Ultimately I offered her what she offered to take she then stated that she must have some time to consider on the subject and that I must come and see her again, twas not verry long before I calld on her again and she then changed the terms from the fomer proposition but I at length told her that I would accede to that proposition when she stated that she must have some time to counsel with her friends but observed there was no doubt but that we should make it up I calld on her several times and the occurrences was about the same she allways at these times manifesting a disposition to settle the matter but still would put it of under some pretext or other, a short time however before six months had expired, which I thought I had to carry up the papers, after taking the apeal I called on her and told her that the time was nearly out and that I must know whether I had to carry up the copy of the Records or not she then insinuated there was no doubt but what we should settle the matter out of Court, but not long afterwards I Received a message by Anthony Wright whom she then lived with that she did not wish to see me on that subject any more but six months had now expired sence the apeal was granted thus things stood tell Bedford June court last when I called on Thomas Davis whom I had frequently understood was her agent and asked him if there was any chance to compound the matter he said he did nott know I then told him what I would give her and he Replied that ought to satisfy her or any other person and observing at the same time that he was not authorized to make it up but not very long after that I understood that they had ordered a copy of the Records at this time I wisht to dismiss the apeal and went to the party and by consent of the parties wee dismisst the apeal and sent it on to the clerk's office

To have and to hold the aforesaid negroe slaves Peter, Nick, Judah & Ben unto the said Thomas Davis heirs, executors, admrs and assigns forever. And the said Elizabeth Wright for herself and her heirs, doth covenant and agree to forever warrant and defend the aforesaid negroe slaves Peter, Nick, Judah & Ben unto the said Thomas Davis heirs, executors, administrators & assigns forever against the claims and demands all persons whatsoever. Upon trust nevertheless that the said Thomas Davis shall when any recovery's may be had against the said Anthony Wright, Joel Shrewsbury and the heirs of Thomas Logwood Decd. or either of them and being requested by the person against whom such recovery may be had proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder all the aforesaid slaves (after having advertised thirty days notice of the time & place of sale in some newspaper published in Lynchburg or so many thereof as will satisfy and pay all such recoverys and the legal charges of carrying this trust into full and complete effect and out of the money arising from such sale in the first place satisfy and pay all such recovery as may be had against the said Anthony Wright, Joel Shrewsbury and the heirs of Thomas Logwood Decd. together with the legal charges attending this deed. On December 17, 1834, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 24/480 Elizabeth Wright executed a deed of gift of two slaves to her son John Wright in consideration of compromising the lawsuit she had instituted against him over the two slaves and a promise that John would share in her support with Joel Wright for the remainder of her life:

On July 28, 1837, the following dismissal was filed by Elizabeth Wright in the case of Wright v. Wright, File 1373:

Test Joel Wright July 28th 1837"

The obligation of Elizabeth Wright's son John to support his mother was referred to in the will of 1840 John Wright dated August 24, 1839, and probated on March 23, 1840, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 10/204:

". . . . 10th Whereas I am under obligations to pay a certain proportion towards the support of my mother from the first day of next January, now it is my will and desire that my proportion be regularly paid by my Executors, the amount of which I wish to be made up by taking an equal portion from the hire of my three boys, Ben, Frank & Andy . . . ."

In the 1840 Census for Bedford County a woman aged 80-90 appeared for the first time in the household of Joel Wright. As will be suggested below, Tommey Wright and his wife Synthia were also living with Joel Wright. It would be natural for Elizabeth Wright to live with her son Tommey Wright and her grandson Joel Wright. If the 80 to 90 year old woman was in fact 1803 John Wright's widow Elizabeth, it would make her birth date between 1750 and 1760. As will be indicated below, the birth date of her son Tommey is estimated at 1764. The two dates are inconsistent, and this probably represents the failure of Elizabeth to be certain about her own age nearly 90 years after her birth or an error in the census. The documents in File 1373 of the Superior Court of Law and Chancery, Lynchburg, Virginia, that Elizabeth was 74 or 75 years of age in 1821 is a more accurate indication of her date of birth.

In the account for the estate of John Wright filed January 23, 1843, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 11/238 by Joel Wright, executor, the following entries were listed:

"Sep 23, 1841 - Jno Wrights portion of Elizabeth Wrights board for 1840 - $45.83 . . .

Dec 31, 1841 - Jno Wright's portion of Elizabeth Wright's board for 1841 - $45.83 . . .

In obedience to an order of the County Court of Bedford I have proceeded to settle account current of the estate of John Wright deceased with Joel Wright, executor as above stated, there are two charges for boarding Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, the testator's mother to whose support it appears by the testator's will he was bound to contribute the amount is respected by the executor to be the same for which he was bound."

The above document makes clear that Elizabeth Wright, the widow of 1803 John Wright, survived until at least 1841.

In July 1841 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 27/221 Elizabeth Wright was ordered to provide hands for the building of a road:

"Bandy's petition for a road. This day came the petitioner and the Summons awarded against the proprietors of the lands through which said road is proposed to be conducted, having been duly Summoned and not appearing, on the motion of the petitioner, and all the Circumstances being weighed, the Court doth order that the said road be established agreeably to the report of the viewers, and the Court doth order that the said Thomas Bandy with his own hands, and the hands of Anthony Wright, Elizabeth Wright, James Payne, Matthew Pate and Edmund Pate, open the said road and put it in condition for use."

In November 1842 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/63 James Corley was appointed to survey the road that intersected at Betsey Wright's:

"Ordered that James Corley be appointed Surveyor of the road from Hardy's road passing Bandy's Saw mill to a new road applied for by Edmund Pate intersecting at Betsey Wrights with the following hands Viz Samuel Bandy, Fleming Neighbours, Anderson Neighbours, Beverly Corley, Matthew Bandy, Thomas Bandy & hands, John Armstrong & William Armstrong."

In January 1844 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/233 the court ordered that the estate of Elizabeth Wright be committed to the sheriff:

"Ordered that the estate of Elizabeth Wright Deceased be committed to the Sheriff of this County to be by him administered according to law it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that she has been dead more than three months and no person having applied for administration on her estate."

This record indicates that Elizabeth Wright had died prior to November 1843.

In January 1844 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 28/233 the court appointed appraisers for the estate of Elizabeth Wright:

"Ordered that Stephen C. Hurt, Thomas Melson, William Hollady, and Isaac Gilpin or any three of them being first sworn, appraise the estate of Elizabeth Wright Deceased and report to Court."

The inventory and appraisal for the estate of Elizabeth Wright was recorded on March 25, 1844, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 11/450. The appraisers were appointed at the January 1844 Court, suggesting her death in December 1843 or January 1844. The total value of the three items listed in the inventory was $16.00:

On or about January 25, 1844, William McGeorge and Ruth (Wright) McGeorge filed a further complaint in the Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 413, regarding the estate of 1803 John Wright:

"To The Honourable Daniel A. Wilson Judge of The Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery holden for the County of Bedford

The Bill of Complaint of William McGeorge and Ruth his wife formerly Ruth Wright Respectfully represents unto your Honour, That John Wright the father of your Oratrix departed this life on the ____ day of ____ 1803 having first made and published his last will and Testament which was found and admitted to record in the County Court of Bedford in the __ day of September 1803 and Elizabeth Wright (the widow of the said John) and Tommy Wright & John Wright the Executrix and Executors named in said will (having first entered into bond in the penalty of $10.000. with Anthony Wright Joel Shrewsbury & Thomas Logwood as their securities conditioned according to law) qualified as such Executrix & Executors according to law (as will more fully appear by office copies of the said will & probat & of the executorial bond aforesaid herewith exhibited marked ____ ) and took upon themselves the burden of the execution of the said will.

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent that shortly after the death of the Testator the executrix & executors took into their possession the whole of the estate of their Testator and caused an appraisement of the personal property of said estate to be made which amounted to the sum of £953.13.5 including slaves and to the sum of £503.13.5 exclusive of the slaves as will more fully appear by an office copy of the same herewith exhibited as part of this bill marked

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent that by the will aforesaid the said Testator gave to your Oratrix a negro Girl named Margaret a Tract of Land & Horse & Bed, To Tommy Wright a negro called Tye to be his own property at the death of Testator's wife To his son Anthony Wright a negro boy Peter upon the same condition & terms To his son the said John Wright a negro boy named Sam & a negro woman named Milly to be his property at the death of his (testator's) wife To his son Joseph Wright a negro boy named Isaac to be his own property at the death of Testators wife to his daughter Betsy a negro Girl named Jude upon the same terms and after various other devises and bequests he devised & bequeathed to his wife Elizabeth Wright as follows viz. "I do will to my well beloved wife all my money in hand or owing to me by notes bonds or accompts Together with all my stock of every kind Household & Kitchen furniture with all my negroes that is grown &c her life time then to be divided as above, Whatever stock should be in hand at my wife's death I do will shall be equally divided between John Joseph & Ruth being my three youngest children "as will more fully and at large appear by the said will herein before referred to

Your Orator & Oratrix are advised that by a fair & proper construction of the said Will That the Testators daughters Nancy Asbury, Rhoda & your Oratrix took a present interest & right in the property specifically devised & bequeathed to them immediately upon the death of the testator, and that the other devises and legatees took no right or interest in the property specifically devised & bequeathed to them until the termination of the life estate of the Testator's wife (except such of them as to the delivery of whose legacies was discretionary with the Testators said wife whose right & property commenced whenever she chose to deliver over the legacies bequeathed at her discretion) and that those legatees are only entitled to the property specifically bequeathed to them at the time when their right of possession to the same accrued and no more and that as to the increase of the slaves Rachael, Jude Hannah & Milly in the will mentioned from the death of the said Testator to the times when the several specific legatees of the said slaves would under the provisions of the said Will be entitled to the same whatever that increase may have been belonged to and was part of the estate of the Testator and was & is subject to be divided among his heirs at law according to the statute of descents. And as to all the other personal chattels of the said Testator not otherwise disposed of by the said Will, that the said John Wright Joseph Wright & your oratrix became entitled to the same as the residuary legatees of said Testator

Your orator & oratrix further represent that for a few years (some two or three) after the death of the Testator the said John Wright resided with the said Elizabeth in the capacity of manager after which the said John Wright took possession of all of the estate of the said Testator and took the management of the whole matter into his own hand only allowing his mother the said Elizabeth a support from the profits of the same and applied all the residue of the annual profits of said Estate to his own use. They further represent that this state of things continued for several years between the said John & his mother when she became dissatisfied with the compensation paid to her by the said John for the use of the estate bequeathed & devised to her for life as aforesaid and the said John being unwilling to pay her what she deemed a fair compensation for the use & profits of the said estate or to restore the possession of the same to her She finally in the year 1821 instituted a suit in the late Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg District against the said John Wright & his Co-Executor Tommy Wright to recover the possession of the Estate so devised & bequeathed to her for life as aforesaid and of the profits thereof whilst the same had remained in the possession of the said John Wright upon which such proceedings were had that on the 27 day of October 1823 a decree was pronounced in said cause requiring the said John Wright to deliver to the said Elizabeth all the estate of the said John Wright Decd upon her executing bond & security

Conditioned for the forthcoming of said property at her death and for making just compensation to the defendants for any loss or injury which might happen to the said furniture stock or slaves or their increase which might happen by the misconduct or negligence of the said Elizabeth as will more fully and at large appear by the copies of the bill of the said Elizabeth answers of said John &

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent that after the decree aforesaid was made the said John Tommy & Elizabeth Wright entered into a compromise whereby it was agreed that the said Elizabeth should not give the bond required of her by the decree of the chancellor and that the said John should not be required to surrender said estate or to account for its profits. In consideration of which it was agreed that the said John & Tommy Wright should convey or cause to be conveyed to the said Elizabeth an absolute title to the slaves Peter & Ben and Jude & her children, and to support her during her life and accordingly the said slaves were conveyed to her, the said Peter & Ben by the said John Wright & the said Jude & her children by Joel Wright the son of said Tommy & in behalf of the said Tommy (the said Tommy having before that made over his property to said Joel by deed of gift). The said Tommy & John claimed the slaves Peter & Jude as having purchased the same from the persons entitled to them as remainder under the will of the said John Wright Decd after the death of said Elizabeth and pretended to claim the said Ben & the children of Jude because they were the children of Negro women slaves to which they would be entitled either as specific legatees or as purchasers of specific legatees after the death of said Elizabeth (notwithstanding they were born before they became entitled to their mothers and notwithstanding the will had made no bequest of the issue of the slaves born during the life estate and had expressly limited the life estate as to such slaves as were grown & directed those particular slaves to be given to the specific legatees at the death of the said Elizabeth showing clearly that the Testator did not intend to dispose of the issue of the female slaves born pending the life estate of his wife to the persons who would be entitled to their masters at the termination of the life estate). And the said John was to hold the residue of the said Estate during the life time of the said Elizabeth and at her death was to account to the residuary legatees for the stock & perishable estate of the said Testator

Your Orator & Oratrix are advised that the said Elizabeth Wright the widow of the Testator was entitled under the will aforesaid to nothing more than the use of the property devised & bequeathed to him during her natural life and was bound to keep up the stocks of Hogs Cattle Sheep Brood Mares &c so as to render the same at her death to the remaindermen in the same condition she received them from the Testator's estate and that for the crop on hand at the Testator's death over & above a sufficiency for the family and for all the stock & perishable property sold by her and principal of all money collected by her her Estate at her death was liable to the residuary legatees before named and that in as much as it was the duty of the said John & Tommy Wright to have required bond & security of the said Elizabeth for the forthcoming of said property at her death (and more especially as they were required to take such bond by the decree aforesaid) If they had the said property themselves or delivered it over to said Elizabeth without such bond They are bound to account for the same to those entitled in remainder

Your orator & oratrix further charge that the said Elizabeth & the said John & Tommy Wright sold & disposed in one way & another of a large portion of the stock & other property devised & bequeathed to said Elizabeth for life (without any manner of necessity for so doing so far as the estate of their Testator was concerned) and applied the proceeds thereof to their own use - and they are advised that the said Elizabeth Wright's Estate & the said John Wright's Estate & Tommy Wright are now accountable to the legatees of the said John Wright the Elder for the value of the same. They further charge that the said Anthony Wright by some agreement between him & the said Elizabeth & John & Tommy Wright or some of those became possessed of two or three valuable Horses belonging to the estate of the said Testator & used & disposed thereof to his own use well knowing that they belonged to the said Testator's estate & That the said Elizabeth had only a life estate therein and they are advised that the said Anthony as well as the said Executors is liable to account to the legatees of the said Testator for the value of the same

Your Orator & Oratrix further charge that the said Exectrix & Executors have never at any time rendered an account of their administration of the estate of the said Testator and that upon a fair settlement of their accounts a large amount would be found due from them to the estate of their Testator

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent That about twelve months after the death of the said John Wright the elder Joseph Wright one of the legatees of the Testator took into his possession against the consent of the said Elizabeth the slave given to him at the death of the said Elizabeth and without the consent & contrary to the wishes of the said Elizabeth carried him to the state of Kentucky and had the use & profits of the said slave ever after. Your Orator & Oratrix are advised that the said Joseph in his life time & his estate since his death is liable and ought to be herd to account for the hires of the said slaves from the time the said Joseph got possession of him until the death of the said Elizabeth.

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent that the said Elizabeth Wright departed this life on the __ day of ____ 1842 intestate and that administration on her estate has in due form of law been committed to Nicholas Robertson high Sheriff of this County. That the said John Wright the younger also departed this life on the __ day of ____ having first made & published his last will & testament whereof the said Joel Wright and one James Wright were appointed executors who have duly proved the same in the County Court of Bedford & taken upon themselves the burthen of the execution of the same

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent That after the compromise of the Chancery suit is herein before stated and after the said Elizabeth had become liable to make good to the legatees of the said John Wright the elder the value of the legacies given to them as aforesaid at her death and after she had become responsible for a large amount which would be due to the Estate of her husband at her death and after she had attained to near ninety years of age and her mind had become greatly impaired & enfeebled so as to render her incapable of making contracts or doing business the said John Wright in his life Time & the said Tommy Wright & Joel Wright procured her in the year 1834 to make to them deeds of gift whereby they promised to themselves a conveyance of all the slaves which she had acquired under the contract of compromise herein before mentioned when she was of sound understanding as will more fully appear by copies of the said deeds of conveyance from the said Elizabeth to the said John & Joel Wright herewith exhibited as parts of this bill marked _____ whereby she would be effectively deprived of the means of meeting the liabilities which she had incurred to the legatees under the will of her husband

Your Orator & Oratrix are advised that these deeds if they should be deemed good & effectual to pass a Title to the donees of any of the said slaves (which they deny) would not be efficient to pass any Title at all to the said donees of the slaves Ben & the five children of Jude namely Jim Susan Peter Dicey & Mary (all of whom were born after the death of the Testator & during the life time of the said Elizabeth) _____ them for the life time of the said Elizabeth, But that they and the other slaves the increase of the female slave specifically bequeathed as aforesaid born under similar circumstances belong to and are liable and ought to be divided among the heirs of the said John Wright Sr Decd and that their right to the same accrued immediately upon the death of the said Elizabeth But if they are mistaken in this they are advised that the said deeds are void and inoperative as to all the creditors of the said Elizabeth Wrights estate and that the said slaves ought to and will be held liable in the hands of said donees for all the demands for which the said Elizabeth was responsible as Executrix on as tenant for life under the will aforesaid. They charge that at the time of the execution of the deeds of gift aforesaid the said Elizabeth had incurred all the liabilities for which her estate would be responsible & liable to pay at her death. And that the property so conveyed by the said deeds was all that she possessed of any value. And they are advised that she could not rightfully give away her property and have those who would have just demands against her estate at the time of her death unpaid, and that the said donees will not be countenanced in this court in holding the same against those who have just demands against the said Elizabeth Wright's estate.

Your Orator & Oratrix further represent that the said Sarah Wright intermarried with William Wheeler both of whom now reside out of this state That the said Betsy Wright intermarried with Wm Corley & the said Polly Wright intermarried with Joseph Hopper all of whom likewise reside out of this state. That the said Rhody Wright intermarried with Henry Hurt & survived her husband and has departed this life intestate since the death of her said husband and the said Joseph Wright has likewise departed this life intestate and administration on both of their estates has likewise been committed to the said Nicholas Robertson High Sheriff as aforesaid and the said Thos Dogwood has also departed this life & one Thos Sale is his Executor Your Oratrix and Orator charge that the actings and doings of the said Elizabeth John Tommy Anthony Joel & Joseph Wright and their confederates in the premises are oppression contrary to equity & good conscious and tend greatly to this injury & oppression of your Orator & Oratrix who are without remedy at law & only relevalbe in equity where matters of this sort are properly cognizable. To the end therefore that they may obtain that relief to which they are entitled they pray that the said Tommy Wright Anthony Wright Joel Wright & James Wright as well in their own right as executors of the said John Wright the younger Nicholas Robertson as administrator of the said Elizabeth Wright Decd as administrator of the said Joseph Wright Decd and as administrator of the said Rhody Hurt Decd William Wheeler & Sarah his wife Nancy Asbury William Corley & Betsy his wife Joseph Hopper & Polly his wife and Joel Shrewsbury & Thomas Sale Executor of Thomas Logwood Decd may by the proper process be made Defendants to this bill and compelled on their several corporal oath full true & perfect answers to make to all the allegations herein contained. That the said Tommy Wright & Joel Wright & James Wright may especially answer and say whether the slaves Milly & Jude in the will of the said John Wright the elder mentioned did not have children after the death of the said John the elder & before the death of the said Elizabeth let them say how many children each of the said negro women Milly & Jude bore after the death of the said John & during the life time of the said Elizabeth Wright let them set forth & discover the names ages & sex of those negro children and the names of the person or persons who may have any of them in possession ? ____ let them also set forth & discover how the said negroes have been disposed of if any of them have been sold let them set forth by whom and at what price or prices?

That the said Tommy Wright & Joel & James Wright Executors of the said John Wright the younger Decd & Nicholas Robertson admrs of the said Elizabeth Wright Decd & the said William Wheeler & Sarah his wife and the said Joseph Hopper & Polly his wife may expressly answer and severally say whether the slaves Rachel (given to the said Sarah when the said Elizabeth Wright might think proper to deliver the same) & the slave Hannah given to the said Polly when the said Elizabeth Wright might think proper to deliver the same, did not have children born after the death of the said John Wright the elder & before the said Rachel & Hannah were respectively delivered to the said Sarah & Polly by the said Elizabeth and if so how many did each of them have what are the names of the children so born of each of the said negro women? how they were disposed of and who has them now in possession? and if they do not know who has the possession of them now let them state who last had the possession of them or any of them within their knowledge

And finally the premises considered may it please your Honor to compel the said Tommy Wright & the said Joel Wright & James Wright as Executors of the said John Wright the younger & the said Nicholas Robertson admrs of the said Elizabeth Wright Decd to render an account of the administration of the estate of the said John Wright the elder before one of the Commissioners of this Court. That an account may also be taken of the issue of the slaves Milly & Jude born after the death of the said John Wright the elder and during the life time of the said Elizabeth and also of the issue of the slaves Rachel and Hannah born after the death of the said John Wright and before they were delivered over to the said Sarah Wheeler & Polly Hopper & of the profits & hires of the same since the death of said Elizabeth. that such of the issue of said slaves so born as aforesaid as may be had or may be delivered up and divided in just proportions among the heirs & distributees of the said John Wright the elder & that the said Tommy Wright & Joel & James Wright Executors of the said John Wright the younger & Nicholas Robertson admr of the said Elizabeth Wright Decd and their securities in the executorial bond aforesaid be compelled to account for & pay over the value of such of them as may not now be forthcoming. That the same parties be compelled to pay over to your orator & oratrix one third of the value of the perishable estate of the said John Wright the elder Decd at the time of his death with interest thereon from the time of the death of the said Elizabeth also items just proportion of whatever balance may be found and upon the settlement of the executorial account aforesaid. That the Deeds of Gift aforesaid to the said John Wright the Younger & Joel Wright may be set aside & decreed to be delivered up to be cancelled and the slaves Jude and Peter be decreed to be sold and their proceeds applied to the payment of such liabilities as shall appear against the estate of the said Elizabeth and the residue distributed among his heirs at laws. That the said Nicholas Robertson as administrator of the said Joseph Wright Decd be compelled to account for the heirs of the slaves Issue from the time the said Joseph got him into his possession to the time of the death of the said Elizabeth That an account of the value of the Horses & other property obtained by the said Anthony Wright from the said Elizabeth or either of said Executors as aforesaid which belonged to the estate of the said John the elder be taken before said Commissioners and the said Anthony be compelled to pay the value of the sum with interest thereon from the death of the said Elizabeth to your orator & oratrix & the other residuary legatees of the said John Wright the elder. That it may please your Honor to award the ____ order of publication against the said absent Defendants and grant to your orator & oratrix the Commonwealth's writ of subponina commanding &c and all such other & further relief as the nature of this case may require and the principles of equity and good conscience dictate and as in duty bound they will ever pray &c

On October 2, 1844, Anthony Wright filed his answer to the complaint in

File 413:

"To the Honorable Daniel A Wilson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Bedford

The Separate Answer of Anthony Wright both in his character as security of the Extrix & Extors & Legatees of Jno Wright to a Bill of Complaint exhibited against him and others in your Honorable Court by William McGeorge and Ruth his Wife. This Respondent Saving & reserving to himself all proper exceptions to the complainants Bill to so much thereof as he is advised it is necessary for him to answer answereth and saith that it is true that John Wright by his last Will and Testament appointed his wife Elizabeth Wright his Executrix and his sons Tommy and John Wright his Executors and that Your Respondent together with Thomas Logwood and Joel Shrewsbury were the security and it is also true that the said Executrix & Executors took upon them the burden of executing the said Will and within a few years after letters Testamentary were granted to them they paid all the debts of their Testator and all the legacies and bequests authorized by the said Will (as he has understood and beleives). It appears from the Bill and answers in the case of Wright vs Wright exhibited by the complainants with their Bill that all the debts & legacies had been paid at that time (in the year 1821) and that the Chancellor by his decree pronounced in that case on the 27th of October 1823 substantially decides that the execution of the said Will in the payment of debts and legacies had been completes because he decrees that the Executrix was entitled to the use and enjoyment of the balance of the estate of John Wright for life and decreed to her the possession of it, during her life, which he could not have done as long as any of the debts or legacies remained unpaid, as the payment of them was charged upon the very property thus decreed to the Executrix for life by the last will & Testament of the said John Wright. The execution of the said will, must therefore be considered completed and the said estate settled up at the date of the said decree (if not long before that time) and more than 20 years having elapsed before the institution of this suit, and no claim having been prefered against the said Executrix & Executors by any creditor or Legatee the presumption is conclusive that they have all been paid off & settled; Indeed if any such claim should now be set up it would be barred both by the lapse of time and the Statute of Limitation of Which Your Respondent claims the benefit as fully and completely as if he were specially to plead the Statute of Limitations in __ to any recovery of him in this case. Your Responent is advised that as one of the security of the said Executrix and Executors he is only bound for their faithful execution of their Testators Will in the payment of his debts & legacies, and the delivery of the balance of his estate to his Executrix, to whom it was bequeathed for life; and if the complainants construction of said Will be true that the said Executrix only took a life estate in the whole of said bequest, and was bound at her death to account to her Testators estate for the whole amount of the principal of the Bequest which came to her hands, and the whole of the increase of the slaves bequeathed to her for life, born after her Testators death. This would be no part of her executorial duty and your Respondent and her other security could in no way be bound for her faithful performance of it, as their responsibility by the conditions of their Bond ceased the moment that the debts and legacies of the said John Wright were paid and the residuary of his estate was turned over to the Tenant for life, your Respondent therefore claims the protection of the statute of Limitations against the claim now set up by the complainants as effectually as if he were to plead it specially

Your Respondent is advised that by a fair & liberal construction of the last Will & Testament of the said John Wright Decd all his money on hand or owing by bonds notes or accounts and house hold & kitchen furnature were absolutely bequeathed to his wife the said Executrix, that she took a life estate in all the negroes with their increase and stock of every other kind not otherwise disposed of by said Will, and at her death the said Negroes with their increase were to go to those Legatees to whom those of them in existence at the date of the said Will were bequeathed. The whole of said Will must be taken together for the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the Testator & from an examination of it, it is manifest that it was the intention of the Testator to divide his slaves as equally as he could in kind among his children giving to each of his sons a slave and a tract of land (& giving John two slaves, an old Woman & a small Boy about five years old, the two together not being worth more than the one he gave to the other sons) and to each of the Girls a slave & some other personal property, and to the Female Plaintiff (the only single daughter at his death) a tract of land in addition. The greatest difference made by the Testator in these bequests, was in giving to some of his children immediate possession (or possession at the discretion of his Executrix) of the slaves bequeathed to them whilst others of his children were not to get possession of the slaves bequeathed to them until the death of his Executrix to whom he bequeathed a life estate in the said slaves, but the Testator no doubt thought that this would not make much difference as the Executrix was at that time an old woman and in the common course of nature would not live many years; but in this he was mistaken for she survived him nearly forty years (living to the great age of near one hundred years) which made a much greater difference in the division of the Testators slaves no doubt than he intended; for whilst some of his children the Female Plaintiff and others, had the possession and use of the slaves bequeathed to them from the death of the Testator, Your Respondent & others did not obtain the possession and use of theirs for nearly forty years and it seems that the complainants are not even satisfied with this great disparity in their favor. As it had turned out, The Female Plaintiff was more liberally provided for by The Testator than any of his other children, she was left by the Will a valuable tract of land and the immediate use & possession of a very valuable negro girl besides a good deal of other personal property, more than their equal share of the estate had all the other children been put in possession of their devises & bequests immediately after the Testators death. The negro Girl has raised for them a large and valuable family of negroes of which & the valuable tract of land devised to the female Plaintiff the complainants have had the use and enjoyment from a period shortly after the death of the Testator, and they are still not satisfied, but are seeking by this suit to take from those legatees who were deprived of the use and enjoyment of their slaves for near forty years after the Testators death, the increase of such slaves during that time, whilst they would kindly turn over to such Legatees the old slaves who will soon be a charge upon them, Your Respondent cannot believe that his Father ever intended to make such an unequal & unjust division of his slaves. If the Complainants construction of the said Will be correct, your Respondent is advised that they will be required by a Chancery Court to bring into hotch pot all that they have received before they can be entitled to participate in the distribution of the money bonds notes & accounts &c on hands & due to Testator at his death, and of the increase of the slaves since, and if it shall appear that they have received their full share of the whole of the Testators estate including the said money bonds, notes & accounts, and the increase of the said slaves, they will not be entitled to any more of the said estate except the one third of the stock which was on hand at the death of the Executrix. Your Respondent has understood and believes, that the Executrix left no stock of any kind at her death, and he believes that if the money, bonds & accounts which she received and the increase of the slaves in which she had a life estate between the death of the Testator & her death, now form a part of Testators estate not finally disposed of by his Will and therefore is subject to distribution according to the statute of descents, and all of the devisees & Legatees of the Testator be required to bring into hotch pot all that they have received of the Testators estate by advancement, or by devise & bequest, that it would appear that the complainants have received more than their full share of the whole of the Testators estate, including the said money, bonds notes & accounts & increase of slaves and therefore will not be entitled to recover any thing by their Bill. This Respondent believes that he would be greatly benefited as a distributee & Heir of John Wright, if the construction of his Will contended for by the complainants should prevale, because, whilst they have received by his Will (& have had the use & enjoyment of it since a short time after his death) a valuable Negro Girl a fine brood mare & colt & some cattle & valuable furniture and two hundred acres of Valuable land, which was afterwards sold (as this Respondent believes) for upwards of three thousand dollars; this Respondent only received from his Father in his life time a small tract of fifty acres of land, for which he paid $200 mostly in property a bed & ____ not a (?) little furniture not worth more than $20 which he received from his Extors; and a horse saddle & bridle & cow & calf given to him by his Father about the time of his marriage some years before his death. He was left a negro man Peter by the Will, at the death of his mother who was hired out or otherwise used by her for her support until her death, hence if the whole of his Fathers estate including the advancements for his life time & his devises & bequests to his children should now be brought into hotchpot together with the money on hands & bonds notes & accounts due at his death received by his Executrix and the increase of the slaves in which his Executrix had a life estate and an equal division should now be made among all his Heirs & distributees, This Respondent believes that he would get as large if not larger share of the undivided property than any of them, but he does not believe that it was the intention of his Father to make such a disposition of his estate & therefore he does not claim it. This Respondent would further represent that some short time after the death of his Father he purchased of his Executors & Executrix a hipshod mare which belonged to his estate for which he paid them fifty dollars and he afterwards swaped a valuable young horse with John Wright for a colt which his mother gave him, the said John giving a boot of sixty dollars and this is all the property which he ever purchased or in any way acquired which belonged to the estate of his Father; for which he gave its full value. The Executors & Executrix, were authorized to dispose of such property to raise money to pay the debts & legacies & the expences of administration & the Executrix had a right to dispose of it for her own use, and is expressly required to account only for such stock as may be on hand at her death, so that this Respondent cannot now be required to pay again for property for which he paid its full value between 30 & 40 years ago, this he is neither legally nor morally bound to do and for his more ample protection he pleads the statute of limitations against this unjust claim of the Complainants.

This Respondent further answering would represent that the said executrix on the 19th day of January 1825 executed a deed of Trust to Thomas Davis by which she conveyed to him in trust to secure and save harmless this Respondent and his co-security four negro slaves Peter, Nick, Judah & Ben for whom she had obtained an absolute right by the compromise of the suit aforesaid of Wright vs Wright with her son John, who, with Joel Wright had sold to her the said slaves. The said deed of Trust was admitted to record in the clerks office of Bedford County on the 24th of January 1825, which is herewith exhibited marked A & prayed to be read as a part of this answer The said Executrix afterwards gave the said slaves Peter, Nick, Judah & Ben to the said John and Joel Wright, with a full knowledge on their part of the deed of Trust aforesaid who some time afterwards executed to this Respondent & his cosecurity the indemnifying bonds marked B & C which are herewith exhibited & prayed to be read as a part of this answer from which it will appear that the said John & Joel Wright have covenanted to indimnify & save harmless this Respondent & his co-securities as the Security of the said Executrix & Executors of John Wright Decd and pay all claims which may come against them as security as aforesaid & this Respondent now refurs to them for the purpose of enabling your honor to decree against the said John & Joel Wright for any amount which he and the other security may be decreed to pay in this suit as the security of the said Executrix & Executors, which contingency he does not believe will happen, but he relies upon the aforesaid indemnities & claims the benefit of them, if contrary to his expectations it should happen. Having answered all that he is advised it is material for him to answer Your Respondent prays that he may be hence dismissed with his costs in this behalf expended & he will ever pray &c

Saml. P. Pitchell J.P.

Filed by leave of Court Octr 2d 1844."

On November 25, 1844, James Wright and Joel Wright filed their answer to the complaint in File 413:

"The separate answer of James Wright and Joel Wright executors of John Wright Junior deceased, to a bill of complaint exhibited against them & others in the honorable the circuit superior court of law & chancery for the county of Bedford by William McGeorge & Ruth his wife.

These defendants saving and reserving to themselves the usual privilege of all just exceptions to the errors &c in the said bill contained for answer thereunto, or unto so much and such parts thereof as they are advised, it in any way concerns them to answer, they answer & say. That it is true the said John Wright Senr. departed this life in the year 1803, having first made and published his last will and testament in writing, which was duly proved and recorded in the county court of Bedford, and that the said Elizabeth Wright the widow of said decedent, and Tommy Wright & the testator of these defendants qualified as the executrix and executors of the said John Wright senior at the time stated in the said bill - & the copy of the said last will and testament filed by the said complainants with their said bill is probably a true copy. They admit that the devises and bequests set out in the said Will are as they believe in accordance with the said will. They further admit that their testator on his part executed the executorial bond in such penalty, at such time, & to the purport mentioned in the said bill. But these defendants do not admit that the construction of the said will assumed by the said complainants is just and legal, on the contrary they insist, and are advised, that the construction contended for by the said complainants is plainly contrary as well to common justice, as to the laws and adjudications having force & authority in this commonwealth. They are advised that in the construction of wills, it is a rule, that they should be most favourably expounded, to produce, if possible, the will of the testator, and that all the words of the will must be considered together to find out the testator's intention, and that intention must take place, unless contrary to the rules of law. Now it is most obvious from a careful consideration of all the provisions of said will, that the testator had two objects mainly in view - first, to make a suitable and comfortable provision for his wife the said Elizabeth Wright during her life - and 2nd. to dispose of his whole personal estate among his children, so as to make them all as nearly equal as he conveniently could, in view of the provision made for his wife, & the circumstances of his estate at the time of the publication of his will. It appears from the will that the testator owned only eleven slaves, & that he had ten children, it was therefore impracticable to give each of his children the immediate possession of one slave, and at the same time make a suitable provision for his wife. he therefore doubtless adopted the only plan of dividing his personal estate by his will, so as to produce something approaching equality among his children - hence he bequeaths to each of his children one slave, except his son John (these defendants' testator) to whom he bequeathed two - a woman of middle age & a small boy, as these defendants have heard and believe. To his three youngest children as was natural he gave each a tract of land and having probably advanced his elder children before he made his will. That the said will makes no mention of the issue of the slaves is wholly immaterial, because the testator was disposing of his whole estate, mainly by specific devises & bequests, to take effect immediately at his death. and as the said will does not allege that there was any slave born between the publication of the will and the death of the testator it is to be presumed there was no such birth - and the issue of the female slaves born after the death of the testator passed to the legatees entitled to the mothers of such issue under the provisions of the said will. These defendants are advised that if the plain intention of the testator is to be the rule of construction of his will. the following legatees, to wit, Tommy, Sarah, Anthony, Betsey, Polly, John, & Joseph, took a vested interest in remainder, at the death of the said testator, to the slaves bequeathed to them respectively. a life estate in the same slaves being first carved out & bequeathed to the testator's wife - That this is the just construction of the said will they are advised is made most manifest by considering the language of the bequests to the said legatees in connexion with the language of the bequest to the testator's wife - the language of the bequests to most of the said legatees may be stated in the following form "I give to" (the legatee) "my negro slave named ____ to be his (or her) own property at my wife's death". After disposing of all his slaves by name to his children he makes a bequest to his wife in the following words. "Lastly I do will to my well beloved wife all my money on hand or owing to me by notes, bonds, or accounts -together with all my stock of every kind, house hold & kichen furniture, with all my negros that is grown &c. her life time - then to be divided as above. Whatever stock should be on hand at my wife's death, I do will shall be equally divided between John, Joseph, & Ruth being my three younger children." the words "then to be divided as above" refer clearly to the bequests made to his children Tommy, Sarah, Anthony, Betsy, Polly, John, & Joseph & when the terms of these bequests are considered thus corrected, the English language may be appealed to in vain for stronger words to express an intention on the part of the testator, to make an absolute and final disposition of his entire property and estate in the slaves comprehended in the said bequests - the right of each of the last mentioned legatees was as perfect to the slave or slaves bequeathed to him or her respectively at the death of the said testator, as it was at the death of his wife - the right of possession merely was deferred - the right of property was otherwise complete. They therefore deny that the increase of the slaves Rachel, Jude, Hannah & Milly belonged to and was any part of the estate of the said testator until the several specific legatees of the said slaves would under the provisions of the said will be entitled to the possession of the same.

These defendants are advised, and they contend that by the said will "all the said testators money on hand, or owing to him at the time of his death, and all his household and kitchen furniture" was bequeathed to his wife absolutely & unconditionally (subject of course to the payment of debts & legacies) - and that as to the testator's "stock of every kind" the intention of the testator was that his wife should have an unlimited use during her life, without being accountable to the residuary legatees for any portion of it if she had used the whole, as in fact she did. The indefinite terms of the bequest "whatever stock should be on hand at my wife's death" show that the testator was providing for a mere contingency, a naked possibility and utterly negatives the idea that the said Elizabeth was bound to keep up the stocks of hogs - cattle - sheep - brood mares, &c." These defendants do not admit that either the said Elizabeth, or the said John and Tommy Wright, or either or any of them sold & disposed of any property whatever, belonging to the estate of the said John Wright Senr. decd. (Whether devised or bequeathed to the said widow for life or not) without necessity for so doing and so they deny the accountability of the said Elizabeth Wright's estate, or the said John Wright Junrs estate, or the said Tommy Wright to the legatees of John Wright the Elder, or any of them for the value of the same.

These defendants have heard and believe that a suit in chancery was at one time pending in the Superior Court of chancery at Lynchburg, instituted by the said Elizabeth Wright against the said John & Tommy Wright & the bill, answers, decrees, orders &c referred to in said bill, may have been exhibited, filed, & made, as there stated and it may be true, and they believe it to be true, that before the final disposition of said suit, all matters in difference between the parties were settled by compromise, the terms of which are perhaps correctly stated in the said will - but these defendants do not admit that the said suit, or any thing therein decided, has any thing to do with this case, except to show (as may be seen by reference to the bill & answers) that at the commencement of that suit (& probably long before) all the debts against the estate of John Wright the Elder had been paid and his estate distributed according to the provisions of his will.

It is true, they believe, that the executrix & executors never did make any formal settlement of their executorial accounts, and under the circumstances, they are advised that no such settlement was necessary: the debts being all paid and the estate wholly distributed according to the directions of the will, there was nothing to settle and these defendants are advised that their testator as one of the executors of the said John Wright the Elder had nothing to do with said estate after the distribution thereof. his duties and liabilities as executor, as well as the duties & liabilities of the other executor & the said executrix then ceased the widow of the said John Wright the elder held all the property in her possession not as the executrix of her deceased husband, but as a legatee under his will & even if the strange construction of the said will contended for by the said complainants should prevail they have no claims upon these defendants' testator, or the said Tommy Wright, or the said Elizabeth Wright as executors and executrix of the said John Wright the Elder decd. and as a prior effectual protection of the estate of their testator against the groundless claims of the said complainant attempted to be set up in their said bill, these defendants rely upon the great lapse of time and especially when the act of the General assembly entitled "an act for limitation of actions against persons acting in a fiduciary character, & their sureties, & for other purposes." passed the 8th of March 1820: and they pray to be allowed the benefit of said act to protect his estate against the claim or claims of the said complainants founded upon any actual or supposed liability or liabilities of their Testator either as one of the executors of the said John Wright the Elder decd. or as one of the sureties of the other executor or the said Executrix, as fully and to all intents & purposes as if the said act had been by them formally pleaded, in bar of the relief sought by the said complainants in their said bill.

These defendants further answering say that it is true, that on the 7th of december 1834 the said Elizabeth Wright by deed, founded upon both good and valuable consideration conveyed to their intestate all her interest in two slaves named Peter & Ben, she having a perfect right so to do as these defendants are advised but these defendants deny that at the time she made the said deed, her mind "had become so greatly impaired & enfeebled as to render her incapable of making contracts or doing business" - on the contrary they assert that although her mental faculties may have been impaired by reason of her advanced age, yet she was fully capable of making the said deed at the time the same was made and they furthermore deny that the said slaves are now, or ever were liable to the said complainants for any claim or demand which they have now, or ever had against the said Elizabeth Wright either as executrix of her deceased husband, or individually, because (among other reasons) they do not admit or believe that the said complainants have now or ever had any such claim or demand against the said Elizabeth in any character.

These defendants as a further protection of their intestates estate against the claim or claims of the said complainants, here rely upon the act of the assembly entitled "An act for limitation of actions: for preventing frivolous & vexatious suit: concerning _____, & certain proceedings in civil cases" & pray to be allowed the benefit of said act as fully as if they had formally pleaded the same in bar of any and all the relief sought in the complainants' said bill.

These defendants further answering say - that the slave Milly is dead "leaving five children born after the death of John Wright the Elder & before the death of his wife - to wit - Jesse, (sold by their testator in his life time to Isaac James of this county & now in his possession) Ben, Frank, Andrew and John in the possession of these defendants as execution of the said John Wright Junr decd. The slave Judith (or Jude) had ten children between the death of the said John Wright the Elder & the death of his wife - to wit, Lucy, Mary (who is dead) George, Martha, Jim, Susan, Peter, Dicey, Nancy, & Edward - Lucy has had three children.

to wit, Winney, Jerry, & Green - Martha has had children only two or three of whom are now living, & the names of whom are unknown to these defendants - Judith, Lucy & her children, together with Jim, Susan, Peter, Dicey, Nancy, & Edward, are in the possession of the defendant Joel Wright. George is in the possession of Anthony Wright of this county & Martha & her children are in the possession of Henry H. Chapman of Roanoke. The slave Rachel was delivered when she was a girl & without children to William Wheeler the husband of Sarah Wheeler formerly Sarah Wright, to whom she was bequeathed by the said will, and the slave Hannah was delivered whilst a girl & without children to Joseph Hopper the husband of Polly the daughter of the said testator to whom she was bequeathed and having fully answered they pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs and as in duty bound they will pray &c other persons they believe them to be true. Given under my hand the 25th day of November 1844.

Jno Clayton J.P."

Joel Wright filed his separate answer as an individual on November 25, 1844, in File 413:

"The separate answer of Joel Wright to a bill of complaint exhibited against him & others in the circuit superior court of Law and Chancery for the county of Bedford by William Mc:George and Ruth his wife.

This defendant saving and reserving to himself the usual privilege of all just exceptions to the errors &c in the said bill contained for answer thereunto, or unto so much and such parts thereof as he is advised it concerns him to answer he says - That he admits that the said John Wright the Elder died in the year 1803, having first made and published his last will & testament in writing which was duly proved and recorded in the county court of Bedford - that his widow Elizabeth Wright qualified as executrix, & his sons Tommy Wright & John Wright Junr: qualified as executors of the said decedent at the time stated in the said bill, & that the copies of the said last will & testament, and of the executorial bond of said Executrix & executors filed with the said bill are perhaps true copies of the same. But he does not admit that the construction of the said will contended for by the said complainants is the true construction thereof. He is advised that the testators widow, the said Elizabeth, under the said will took a life estate in the slaves bequeathed to her, with remainder in absolute property to the legatees to whom the same slaves were by the said will severally bequeathed - in other words the said testator's children Tommy, Sarah, Anthony, Betsy, Polly, John, & Joseph took a present estate at the death of the said testator in absolute property, to the slave or slaves bequeathed to them respectively subject to the life estate of the said Elizabeth in the same slaves. The fact that the said testator directed in his will that his daughter Sarah should receive the slave Rachel, & that his daughter Polly should receive the slave Hannah whenever his wife (the said Elizabeth) thought proper did not diminish her interest in those slaves to less than an estate for her life. She might whenever "she thought proper" have relinquished her interest in the other slaves bequeathed to her for life to the persons entitled thereto in remainder, and the right of the persons so entitled in remainder, to receive the said slaves as their "own property", would have been as perfect by such relinquishment, as by the death of the said Elizabeth. This defendant therefore denies that the increase of the slaves Rachel, Jude, Hannah, & Milly belonged to, and were any part of the estate of the said testator, until the several specific legatees of the said slaves, would under the provisions of the said will be entitled to the possession of the same.

This defendant further answering says that as respects the other bequests to the said Elizabeth, they are advised that by a fair construction of said will, she, after the payment of debts and legacies, took under the said will, an absolute estate in the money, debts, furniture & stock bequeathed to her - the legacy of the stock alone being subject to a remote and improbable contingency provided for in said will that is to say "whatever stock should be on hand at his wife's death should be equally divided between John, Joseph, and Ruth" &c.

This defendant further answering says that it is true the said Elizabeth Wright, on the 14th day of december 1834, by deed of that date did convey to this defendant the slaves Jude (Judah) & her five children, Jim, Susan, Peter, Dicey, & Nancy - which deed was founded upon both a good & valuable consideration but he denies that at the time she made the said deed her mind had become so greatly impaired and enfeebled as to render her incapable of making contracts or doing business - he charges that at the time she made the said deed, she was fully capable of making contracts and doing business, notwithstanding her mind may have been impaired by her advanced age.

This defendant further answering says that even if the construction of the said will contended for by the said complainants should prevail, they submit it to the consideration of this honorable court, if the right of action of the said complainants, if any such they have, or ever had, (which is here denied) did not accrue to them at the moment the said Elizabeth ceased to hold the said slaves and other property bequeathed to her under the said will - he insists therefore, in this view of the subject, that his right to the slaves in his possession, claimed by the said complainants in their said bill is protected by the act of limitations, upon which he relies, & prays to have the benefit thereof as fully as if he had formally pleaded the same in bar of the complainants said claim.

In relation to the other matters and things contained in said bill which it is necessary this defendant should answer unto he refers to the joint answer of himself and his co-defendant James Wright executors of John Wright Junr decd: to the same bill - and he here adopts the statements of the said answer as his own individual answer to all such statements & interrogatories of the said bill necessary for this defendant to answer & as are not here particularly responded to, and so having fully answered he prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs and as in duty bound he will pray &c

Nicholas Robertson, as administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Wright, also filed his separate answer in File 413:

"The separate answers of Nicholas Robertson admr. of Elizabeth Wright decd. to a bill of complaint exhibited against him & others in the honourable the circuit superior court of law and chancery for the county of Bedford by William McGeorge & Ruth his wife

This defendant saving & reserving to himself the usual privelege of all just exceptions to the errors &c in said bill contained for answer thereunto, or unto so much and such parts thereof as he is advised it in any way concerns him to answer he says - That he knows nothing of his own knowledge of the several matters & things contained in the complainants said bill relating to the transactions of his intestate as the executrix of the said John Wright decd - or relating to the transactions of the other executors of the said John Wright decd. He is advised and believes that the construction of the will of the said John Wright the elder decd contended for by the answer of James Wright & Joel Wright executors of John Wright Junr. decd. in their answer to the said bill is the just, proper, & correct construction of the said will and he avers that it ought to be so construed. he therefore adopts the said answer so far as it relates to the construction of the said will, & he denies that the opposite construction of the said will contented for by the said complainants in their said bill is correct - & he requires proof of all and every allegation in the said bill tending to fix any manner of liability upon the estate of his intestate.

The said defendant further answering says that in bar of the claims asserted by the said complainants in their said bill against his intestate individually or as executrix of the said John Wright the Elder decd. he relies as well upon the act of the assembly entitled "an act for limitation of actions for preventing frivolous and vexatios suits concerning ____ & certain proceedings in civil cases" as upon the act of the assembly entitled "an act for limitation of action against persons acting in a fiduciary character and their sureties, & for other purposes" passed the 8th day of March 1826: and prays that the full benefit of the said acts of the assembly may be extended to him as the administrator of the said Elizabeth in the same manner and to the same extent as if the same were here more formally pleaded - for this defendant has heard and believes that the affairs of the estate of the said John Wright the Elder were all settled up & the property distributed according to his will more than ten years before the exhibition of said will to wit, before the year 1820 and that since the year 1820 & probably several years before, his intestate, as he believes & charges, has held no part of the estate of the said John Wright the Elder as his executrix, but on the contrary, she has held all the slaves & other estate & the increase thereof mentioned in the said will as a legatee under the will of the said John Wright the Elder deceased - and therefore her liability at the time of her death (if any liability there was (which he does not admit) was as tenant for life of such property and not as executrix. and having fully answered he prays to his hence dismissed with his costs & as in duty bound he will pray &c.

On October 9, 1845, Joel Shrewsbury filed his separate answer to the complaint in File 413:

"The separate answer of Joel Shrewsbury to the bill of complaint exhibited against him, and others in the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Bedford by William McGeorge, and Ruth his wife.

This defendant saving &c for answer says: That he admits the probate of the will of John Wright deceased in the bill mentioned, and that he became one of the securities of Elizabeth Wright, Tommy Wright, and John Wright in the bond executed by them as executrix, and executors of the said Will and he presumes the alleged copy of the said bond filed with said bill is a correct copy.

This defendant further answering states, that he wrote the said will, and from the declarations of said testator made at the time said will was being written knows that it was the intention of the said testator that his legatees to whom slaves were in said will specifically bequeathed, subject to his widow's life estate therein, or to be delivered whenever she thought proper, should be entitled respectively to the issue of such slaves born after his death. This defendant conceives that such is the just, and correct construction of said will as it is written, avers that it ought to be so construed, and denies that the opposite construction, contended for in the bill, is proper, or correct. He has no personal knowledge of the transactions stated in the bill as having occurred after the probate of said will, and the qualification of said executrix, and executors, and therefore does not admit any, or either of the allegations of said bill alleging said transactions, or any, or either of them to be true, and so far as he is to be affected thereby requires proof of all said allegations. He denies that he is either legally, or equitable liable to pay the plaintiffs any sum, or sums of money whatever in consequence of his securityship aforesaid for the said executrix, and executors. In bar of the claims asserted by the plaintiffs in their said bill this defendant relies upon the great lapse of time which has occurred and especially upon the act of the General assembly of this Commonwealth entitled "an act for limitation of actions against persons acting in a fiduciary character, and their sureties, and for other purposes" passed the 8th day of March 1826, and prays that the full benefit thereof may be extended to him in the same manner and to the same extent as if the said act was more formally pleaded by him.

Having thus fully answered this defendant prays to the to be hence dismissed with the Costs &c

"The Deposition of Thomas Davis of lawful age taken at the office of Wingfield & Campbell in the Town of Liberty & County of Bedford on the first day of April 1846 to be read as evidence in the trial of a suit in Chancery depending in the Circuit Superior Court of law & chancery for Bedford County in which William McGeorge & Ruth his wife are plaintiffs and Tommy Wright & Joel Wright & James Wright Executors of John Wright Decd & others are Defendants. The said Deponant being first duly sworn deposeseth & saith as followeth

Question by the plaintiff. Please state whether you know any thing about a suit having been instituted in the late Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg District by Elizabeth Wright the widow of John Wright the elder in her life time against Tommy Wright & John Wright two of the Executors of the said John Wright Sr. deceased and of the same having been compromised, and if so state all you know about the said compromise and the property which the said John Wright held under it and the terms upon which he held it.

Answer I know there was such a suit between the parties named in the Question - I know that the said suit was compromised - and that John Wright was by its terms to convey to Elizabeth Wright certain slaves absolutely, and to account to the legatees for the perishable property, but I know nothing of the description, quantity or value of the perishable property

Ques by Joel Wright one of the defendants. Do you recollect whether you were present some years ago when a pair of the slaves in controversy were sold at public auction by John Wright If so, state when the sale took place: whether the plaintiff William McGeorge was present: and whether he at that time set up any claim to said slaves or any of them, or made any objection to the sale

Ans - I was present at the sale alluded to. And the plaintiff William McGeorge was also at the sale. I heard no claim set up to the slaves or any part of them, or any objection made to sale, by any person. Elizabeth Wright was also present & set up no claim further than a life estate.

Ques by Same. Were you acquainted with Elizabeth Wright for the fifteen or sixteen years next before her death; if so, say whether you considered her of sound about the year 1834?

Ans. I was acquainted with her before the compromise & up to some 8 or 9 years before the time of her death. - I considered her mind as good as any other person of her age. I did not perceive any difference between her mind, between from the first time I ever saw her to the last. The compromise was made many years ago. The deeds of gift were made during the time of my acquaintance with her.

Ques. by plaintiff. State whether the property to which Elizabeth Wright was entitled under the will of her husband, was or not ample for her support and maintainance?

Ans - I suppose it was.

On March 8, 1847, Tommey Wright filed his answer to the complaint in File 413:

"The separate answer of Thommy Wright to a bill of complaint exhibited against him and others in the circuit superior court of law and chancery for the county of Bedford by William McGeorge & Ruth his wife.

This defendant for answer unto said bill of unto so much and such parts thereof as he is advised it concerns him to answer he says. It is true he qualified as one of the executors of the said John Wright the Elder decd: but he never acted as such, & never had any portion of said decedent's estate real or personal in his possession as executor. This defendant believes and charges that the other executor & executrix in said Will named administered the said estate and paid out and delivered over the same according to the true intent and meaning of the said decedents last will and testament, arose than twenty years before the institution of this suit by the said complaints. This defendant further answering says that in bar of the claims asserted by the said compainants in their said bill against this defendant either as one of the executors of the said John Wright the Elder decd: or as one of the securities of the other executor and executrix, or against this defendant individually, he relies as well upon the act of the assembly entitled "an act for limitation of actions against persons acting in a fiduciary character, and their sureties, & for other purposes", passed the 8th of March 1826 as upon the act entitled "an act for limitation of actions for preventing problems & vexatious suits concerning __fails, and certain proceedings in civil cases" and prays that the full benefit of the said acts of the assembly may be extended to him in the same manner and to the same extent as if the same were here more formally pleaded.

On September 14, 1847, the counsel for Anthony Wright filed his note in the case in File 413:

"McGeorge & Wife ) Note of Anthony Wrights Counsel
Wrights & als ) In chancery

The Bill in this case ought to be dismissed as to the Defendant Anthony Wright with costs. On September 1803 Anthony Wright united with the Exors & Executrix of John Wright in the execution of an exetorial bond, in which the said Anthony was only bound as security, and an attempt is now made in this suit brought more than 40 years after the date of said bond to make him responsible as one of the security of said Executors & Executrix. In his answer he relies upon the statute of Limitations and it is a complete bar to any recover of him. He is also charged in the Bill with one or two hours which it is alleged the received of the Executrix forty years ago. In his answer he admits that a short time after the death of his Father John Wright he purchased of his Executors & Executrix a hip shod mare which belonged to his esState, for which he paid $50 & he afterwards swaped a valuable young horse with the Executor for a coalt which his mother gave him & received sixty dollars from him as a boot between his fine young horse & said colt, which is all the property he ever received from the Executor & Executrix & for which he gave its full value. He denies the right of the Plaintiffs now to call upon him to account for it & pleads the statute of limitations. It is very clear that the Executors & Executrix were authorized by the Will to dispose of the personal property & if they were not the purchaser of this property could not be required to account for it after the lapse of 40 years to the plaintiffs & if they ever had any just demand against the Defendant Anthony Wright (which is denied) it is completely barred by the Statute of Limitations which is plead & relied upon. I think by a fair interpretation of the last will & Testament of John Wright he made an absolute bequest to his wife and Exutrix of all his money on hands or owing to him by bonds notes or accounts together with all his stock of every kind household & kitchen furniture Subject to this restriction alone, that & whatever stock should be on hands at his wifes death shall be equally divided between John Joseph & Ruth, who can take nothing by this devise or bequest, if the old lady as is stated in the bill left no "stock on hands" at her death; at all events the Exutrix was entitled to a life estate in all the personal property after the payments of the debts & legacies all of which were paid off prior to 1820 when the Exeutrix was entitled to the remainder of the estate for life, and her security in her Exutorial bond are in no way bound for the preservation or forthcoming of any part of said personal property, it is therefore clear that the plaintiffs Bill ought to be dismissed as to the Defendant Anthony Wright with costs, both upon the merits & upon the plea of the Statute. Suppose the Court will not hesitate to give the Defendant Anthony Wright his costs, as there can be no apology for the Plaintiffs dragging him into a Court of Chancery & puting him to the costs of defending himself against their unjust & illegal claim of 40 years standing. I therefore move that the Bill as to the Defendant Anthony Wright may be dismissed with costs

If Tommey Wright was at least 18 years of age when he acquired this property, his birth date would be probably before 1767.

Bedford County, Virginia

D.B. 7/421

The location of this land has been given above in the section on 1803 John Wright.

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommey Wright with the following household:

Tommey Wright	1		1

Total Blacks	No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Weals Ridg Carriages	Ordinary Licenses

This record indicates that Tommey Wright was then over 21 years of age and, therefore, that his date of birth was in approximately 1763 or before.

The 1784 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thommy Wright with the following property:

Name	[Quantity of Acres]	[Average price pr Acre]	[Amount Valuation]	Tax at 1½ pr Cent]
Thommy Wright	190	10.	95.0	1.8.6

This record reflects the gift of 150 acres of land by Bedford County Deed 7/421. As discussed above in connection with 1803 John Wright, the second parcel of forty acres of land included in Deed 7/421 was apparently inadvertently counted twice. The amount of land acquired was corrected in 1785.

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following household:

Landholder	Quantity of Acres	Average price pr Acre	Amount Valuation	Tax at 1__ pr __

This record reflects the correction of the amount of land received by Bedford County Deed 7/421 to the correct 150 acres.

The marriage bond of Tommey Wright and Synthia Mayse was dated on December 15, 1785, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the consent of James Mayse:

"Know all Men by these Presents that We Tommy Wright & William Halley of Bedford County are held & firmly bound unto Patrick Henry Esquire Governor or Chief Magistrate of the State of Virginia in the Sum of Fifty Pounds Current Money to which payment well & truly to be made to the said Patrick Henry or to his Successors We bind ourselves & each of us, our, & each of our Joint & Several Heirs Exors & Admrs firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals & dated this 15th day of December 1785.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that whereas there is a Marriage shortly intended to be had & Solemnized between the above bound Tommy Wright & Synthia Mayse Now if there shall be no lawful Cause to obstruct the said Marriage then the above Obligation to be Void else to remain in full force & Virtue

Signed Sealed & deld.     )     Tommey Wright in presence of             )     William Halley"

Consent to marriage was required for a bride or a groom when they were under 21 years of age. Since consent was given for Synthia, but not for Tommey, his birth date was probably before 1764 and hers probably after that year.

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thomey Wright with the following household:

As will be set forth below, Tommey Wright was taxed on this 35 acres of land, but as a parcel of 30 acres, in the Land Tax Lists, which identifies the Thomas Wright of the deed as Tommey Wright.

The will of James Mayse dated December 15, 1792, and probated on June 22, 1795, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 2/160 listed Sinthey Wright as one of his children:

The will of 1803 John Wright dated on August 11, 1803, and probated on September 26, 1803, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 3/3 listed Tommy Wright as one of his children:

". . . first I do give to my son Tommy my negroe man Call'd Tye to be his own property at my wife's Death . . . I do appoint my Wife, my son Tommy & my son John Exetors to this my Last will . . ."

The distinctive name Tommy identifies 1850 Tommey Wright of Bedford County as the son of 1763 John Wright of Bedford County.

On September 26, 1803, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 3/13 Tommy Wright was appointed Co-Executor of his father's will along with his mother Elizabeth Wright and his brother 1840 John Wright:

This record reflects the purchase of 200 acres of land by Tommey Wright in Bedford County Deed 11/1047 originally purchased in 1794. The delay in proving and recording the deed until 1809 probably accounted for the delay in listing this land as taxed to Tommey Wright.

On July 25, 1808, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 14/348 Thomas Wright was ordered to allot the hands for road repair:

"Ordered that Thomas Wright, Emond Pate, Robert Nemo & Nathan Shrewsbury, or any three of them divide and allot the hands who work on the Road of which Matthew Wright, Anthony Wright, James Johnson & John Holliday are Surveyors, between the said Surveyors, and make Report to the Court"

The listing of the road surveyors as Matthew Wright and Anthony Wright makes it most probable that the Thomas Wright of this listing was Tommey Wright.

On September 14, 1808, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 12/379 Thomas Wright purchased slave Jude from William and Elizabeth Corley:

"This Indenture made this fourteenth day of September One Thousand eight hundred & eight between William Corley & Betsey his wife of Bedford County of the one part, and Thomas Wright of the same County of the other part Witnesseth that the said William Corley & Betsey his wife for and in Consideration of the Sum of Sixty pounds in hand paid by the said Thomas Wright the Receipt whereof they do hereby acknowledge themselves fully and well satisfied therewith hath sold their right and title unto the said Thomas Wright of One Negro Girl by the name of Jude being the same Negro left her by her Father by will to have and to hold the said Negro unto the only proper use and behoof of him the said Thomas Wright & his heirs and assigns forever without any hindrance or disturbance from any person or persons that shall or may lay any Claim or Claims right or title to the above sold Negro, and the said William Corley & Betsey his wife doth by these presents warrant and forever defend the same against themselves their heirs Executors Administrators or Assigns. Elizabeth Corley was a daughter of 1803 John Wright from whom she inherited her slave Jude and, therefore, a sister of 1850 Tommey Wright. There was no other Thomas Wright in Bedford County at this time of the appropriate age to make the purchase other than 1850 Tommey Wright. For these reasons, the Thomas Wright of this deed is identified as 1850 Tommey Wright of Bedford County.

The 1809 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following household:

Persons Names 1 March 1809	No Whites Over 16 years old	Blacks Over 16	Blacks Over 12 Under 16	Horses	Other Taxable property mentioned in manuscript
Tommy Wright	1			5

The change from two white males over 16 in the 1807 Personal Property Tax List to one white male in the 1809 Personal Property Tax List indicates the move of Tommey Wright's son John from his father's household.

The 1809 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following property:

In April 1810 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 15/207

Thomas Wright was ordered to allot hands for the opening of a road:

"For reasons appearing to the Court It is ordered that that the road petitioned for from James Johnson's house to Stanton river be established agreeable to the report of the Viewers and that John Jeter be appointed to open the same and that Thomas Wright James Johnson Sr & Ro Nemo do allot the hands who shall open the same & allot the hands who shall work under sd. Pate & Matthew Pate & James Johnson surveyors of roads"

The location of the road to Staunton River makes it probable that the Thomas Wright of this listing was Tommey Wright.

The 1810 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a Tommey Wright, although it did list a Thomas Wright over 45 years of age with a wife aged 26 to 45. If this Thomas Wright were Tommey, it would indicate a birth date for Tommey Wright before 1765 and for Synthia (Mayse) Wright between 1765 and 1784. That Thomas Wright had the following family:

Name of Head of Family	Free White Males	Age	Free White Female	Age	All Other Free Persons	Slaves
Thomas Wright	1	45+	1	26-45

This record reflects an acquisition of 59 acres of land charged to Tommey Wright, but this was probably an error and should have been charged to Anthony Wright and was corrected in the 1812 Land Tax List.

In March 1811 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 15/334

Tommy Wright was ordered to open a road to the Staunton River:

"Ordered that Tommy Wright Sur. road & his gang do assist John Jeter in opening a road from James Johnsons Mill to Staunton river"

On July 22, 1811, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 15/379

Tommy Wright was exempted from working on the road by reason of his infirmity:

"Ordered that Tommy Wright be exempted from working on road by reason of infirmity"

The 1812 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following household:

The 1812 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thomas Wrights Est with the following property:

While the record stated that this land belonged to "Thomas Wrights Est", this was simply a transcription error and it properly should have been listed to Tommy Wright.

On April 27, 1812, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 16/55 Thomas Wright was appointed overseer of the poor:

"Charles Gill Thomas Wright William Dickerson & James Ayers qualified as overseers of the poor according to Law"

Since Tommey Wright was thereafter repeatedly appointed overseer of the poor, the Thomas Wright of this listing was probably Tommey Wright.

On June 23, 1812, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 13/738 Tommey Wright executed a surety bond for the appointment of John Melson as constable of Bedford County.

The 1813 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following household:

The 1813 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Thomas Wright with the following property:

ditto	200	.25	50.00	.32	on the same

The quantity and parcels of land listed make it clear that the Thomas Wright of this listing was Tommey Wright.

On July 26, 1813, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 13/866 Tommy Wright executed another surety bond for the appointment of John Melson as constable for Bedford County.

The 1814 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommy Wright with the following household:

The change from two white males over 16 in the household in 1813 to one white male in the household in 1814 indicates the move of Tommey Wright's son James from his father's household. This is consistent with the first appearance of James Wright, Jr., in the 1814 Personal Property Tax List.

On June 1, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 21/143 Tommey Wright was appointed overseer of the poor:

"Tommy Wright qualified as overseer of the poor according to Law"

On July 10, 1829, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 22/113 Tommy Wright, as commissioner, sold 27 acres of land which was part of the estate of John Franklin to William Dickinson, Sr.

In April 1830 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 23/87 Tommey Wright was appointed overseer of the poor:

"Charles Gill & Tommy Wright, Qualified as Overseers of the poor for this County according to law"

There was no listing of Tommey Wright in the 1830 Census as the head of a household. However, there was a listing in the 1830 Census for Joel Wright, one of the sons named in the agreement, which included a male aged 60 to 70 years and a female aged 60 to 70 years who were probably Tommey and his wife Synthia. This listing would place their births between 1760 and 1770.

From the above tax lists and census records, the conclusion seems fair that Tommey Wright was born probably in about 1763 or between 1760 and 1764 and that his wife Synthia (Mayse) Wright was born between 1765 and 1770.

DAR Application #417218 listed Tommey Wright's birth date as c. 1763. The source reference given was DAR Application #181551. Application #181551 repeated the same information and gave as its source Application #149149. Application #149149 was summarized in the DAR Lineage Book, Vol. 149, p.50 for Mrs. Lois Hatcher Simpson, but no reference to Tommey Wright was given and no sources listed.

Since Tommey Wright's father John Wright owned in Bedford County during the period between 1762 and 1770 only the land acquired by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 2/83, the place of birth of Tommey would have been probably at the family house located on that land in Bedford County. 1795 James Mayse did not purchase land in Bedford County until 1776 when by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 5/453 dated June 24, 1776, he purchased 130 acres on Cate's Creek and, therefore, the birthplace of Synthia (Mayse) Wright must remain unknown at this time.

The 1840 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a Tommey Wright, but did list Joel Wright with one male aged 70 to 80, one female aged 70 to 80, and one female aged 80 to 90. The male and female aged 70 to 80 were almost certainly Tommey Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright, indicating dates of birth between 1760 and 1770 for each. The female aged 80 to 90 was Tommey Wright's mother Elizabeth (Pate) Wright.

On November 19, 1845, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 the 1824 Support Agreement was amended to prevent Bannister Meador, daughter Betsy's second husband, from taking the money meant for Betsy's children by her first marriage to William Woodcock:

"Whereas by a covenant and agreement entered into between us (Tommy & Scinthia Wright) and James Wright Joel Wright & Jubal Wright (children of us the said Tommy and Scinthia Wright) bearing date on the 24th January 1824 provision was made by which the said James Wright, Joel Wright & Jubal Wright was to pay to our daughter Betsy (who had intermarried with a William Woodcock & who had departed this life previous to the date of the above mentioned covenants and agreements) the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid after the death of us the said Tommy & Sinthia and which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tenessee & the latter in Kentucky. The said Betsy, widow of said William Woodcock having married again to a certain Bannister Meador and having Some children by him it appears from information derived from undoubted authority that it is the intention of the said Bannister Meador to exclude the above named 3 children of William Woodcock & Betsy & his wife from all benefits arising out of the fund provided for them in the covenant and agreement aforesaid should it when paid go into his hands and thus defeat the true intent and object wich we had in view in making the provision aforesaid - As a proof of the correctness of our information in regard to the intention & determination of the said Bannister Meador in the premises we will here take occasion to state the fact that the appropriation made by Government of the sum of hundred dollars for the education of the three children before named of William Woodcock (who lost his life in the Service of his country) has been applied solely by the said Bannister Meadors to his own individual purposes and thus defeat the object of the appropriation to the injury of those it was intended to benefit. Now therefore with a view of carrying into effect our original design and intention and to prevent the misapplication of the two hundred dollars stipulated to be paid by the aforesaid James Wright, Joel Wright, Jubal Wright, after our death to the said Betsy Meadors we do by these presents direct and require the said James Wright & Joel Wright the surviving parties of the second part in the covenant and agreement before mentioned after our decease to pay the said two hundred dollars to the aforesaid Scinthia, Polly & Green Berry Woodcock the children of the said William Woodcock deceased and to no other person or persons whatsoever & for their own exclusive benefit & use forever - hereby correcting and revoking the authority in said covenant & agreement to the said James Joel & Jubal Wright to pay the same to Betsy Meadors, - In witness whereof we the said Tommy & Scinthia Wright have hereunto set our hands & affixed our Seals this 19th day of November 1845

There was no probate proceeding in Bedford County for Tommey Wright or for Synthia (Mayse) Wright, probably because the disposition of their property had been handled in the 1824 Support Agreement at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318.

DAR Application #417218 listed Tommey Wright's date of death as July 14, 1850, and Synthia (Mayse) Wright's date of death as in 1847. As with the birth date of Tommey, the source reference for this information is uncertain.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1850 Tommey Wright of Bedford County and Synthia (Mayse) Wright were the following:

- 1) John Wright, born probably between August 18, 1787, and March 26, 1788, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Elizabeth "Betsy" (Wright) (Woodcock) Meador, born about 1790 or probably before 1792 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 3) Mary "Polly" (Wright) Mayse, born July 19, 1790, or about 1791 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) James Wright, born on April 13, 1792, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) Joel Wright, born on March 25, 1799, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 6) Jubel Wright, born probably between April 13 and May 23, 1802, probably at Bedford County, Virginia, and
- 7) Nancy (Wright) Chapman, born about 1806 or February 21, 1807 probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

a. John Wright

As set forth above in connection with 1850 Tommy Wright, the 1803 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommey Wright with only one white male over the age of 16 on August 18. The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommey Wright with two white males over age 16 on March 26. As will be set forth below, John Wright was probably the oldest son and was, therefore, probably born between August 18, 1787, and March 26, 1788.

The 1810 Census listed a Thomas Wright, and I believe this should be Tommey Wright, with 1 male 45+, 1 male 16-26, and 2 males 0-10. From other evidence set forth below, it will be seen that James Wright was born about 1793 and Joel Wright in 1797 or 1799. If John was the oldest child and the 1810 Census was for Tommey Wright, then John's date of birth would be probably between 1784 and 1794. From other evidence set forth below, it will also be seen that Elizabeth was born in about 1770 or before 1792, indicating that John was probably born between 1785, the date of marriage, and 1790.

In June 1818 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 17/495 John Wright and James Wright were granted a license to keep an ordinary at their house:

"On the mo. of John & James Wright - Licence is granted them to keep an ordinary at their house for Six months hence who gave bond & Secy. accordingly"

John Wright was identified as a son of Tommey Wright and Synthia Wright in the Support Agreement at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 dated January 24, 1824:

". . . . And they further bind themselves to pay within twelve months after the death of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife, to John Wright, Betsy Meador, Polly Mayse and Nancy Wright son and daughters of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife each the sum of two hundred dollars Virginia Currency . . . ."

This record indicates that John Wright was still alive on January 24, 1824, but no further record has yet been found for him.

- b. Elizabeth "Betsy" (Wright) (Woodcock) Meador, Her Husbands William Woodcock And Bannister Meador, And Her Descendants

The marriage bond of Elizabeth Wright and William Woodcock was dated on November 17, 1807, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Tommey Wright as surety:

"Know all men by these presents that We William Woodcock & Tommy Wright are held & firmly bound unto Wm H Cabell Esqr governor or chief magistrate of this ComWealth in the sum of one hundred & fifty dollars Virga Currency - to which paymt we bind ourselves & each us firmly by these presents Sealed & dated this 17 day of Novem 1807

The Condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage Shortly intended to be had & solemnized between the above bound William

Woodcock & Elizabeth Wright now if there shall be no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force

Teste

William Woodcock
Tommy Wright"

If Elizabeth Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be probably before 1792. Since Tommey Wright was residing in Bedford County at the time of her birth, her place of birth was probably in Bedford County, Virginia.

There was no listing in the Index to the 1810 Census for Bedford or Franklin Counties, Virginia, for a William Woodcock.

The Agreement dated January 24, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 identified Betsy Meador as a child of 1850 Tommey Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright:

". . . . And they further bind themselves to pay within twelve months after the death of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife, to John Wright, Betsy Meador, Polly Mayse and Nancy Wright son and daughters of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife each the sum of two hundred dollars Virginia Currency . . . ."

The Agreement dated November 19, 1845, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 referred to William Woodcock as Betsy's first husband and the three children of that marriage as Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock, and Green Berry Woodcock:

"Whereas by a covenant and agreement entered into between us (Tommy & Scinthia Wright) and James Wright Joel Wright & Jubal Wright (children of us the said Tommy and Scinthia Wright) bearing date on the 24th January 1824 provision was made by which the said James Wright, Joel Wright & Jubal Wright was to pay to our daughter Betsy (who had intermarried with a William Woodcock & who had departed this life previous to the date of the above mentioned covenants and agreements) the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid after the death of us the said Tommy & Sinthia and which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tenessee & the latter in Kentucky. The said Betsy, widow of said

William Woodcock having married again to a certain Bannister Meador and having Some children by him it appears from information derived from undoubted authority that it is the intention of the said Bannister Meador to exclude the above named 3 children of William Woodcock & Betsy & his wife from all benefits arising out of the fund provided for them in the covenant and agreement aforesaid should it when paid go into his hands and thus defeat the true intent and object wick we had in view in making the provision aforesaid - As a proof of the correctness of our information in regard to the intention & determination of the said Bannister Meador in the premises we will here take occasion to state the fact that the appropriation made by Government of the sum of hundred dollars for the education of the three children before named of William Woodcock (who lost his life in the Service of his country) has been applied solely by the said Bannister Meadors to his own individual purposes and thus defeat the object of the appropriation to the injury of those it was intended to benefit. Now therefore with a view of carrying into effect our original design and intention and to prevent the misapplication of the two hundred dollars stipulated to be paid by the aforesaid James Wright, Joel Wright, Jubal Wright, after our death to the said Betsy Meadors we do by these presents direct and require the said James Wright & Joel Wright the surviving parties of the second part in the covenant and agreement before mentioned after our decease to pay the said two hundred dollars to the aforesaid Scinthia, Polly & Green Berry Woodcock the children of the said William Woodcock deceased and to no other person or persons whatsoever & for their own exclusive benefit & use forever - hereby correcting and revoking the authority in said covenant & agreement to the said James Joel & Jubal Wright to pay the same to Betsy Meadors, - In witness whereof we the said Tommy & Scinthia Wright have hereunto set our hands & affixed our Seals this 19th day of November 1845

This record indicates that William Woodcock's death occurred in the service of his country and gives the date of their marriage and the number of children, indicating that he probably died during service in the War of 1812 and probably in 1814 or 1815 when the Bedford County militia was called out for service. This record also establishes that after the death of her first husband, Elizabeth (Wright) Woodcock married Bannister Meador and had children by him.

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which listed the children of Elizabeth (Wright) (Woodcock) Meador and Bannister Meador as follows:

- (1) Joel W. Meador, born April 19, 1845 at Tennessee, and
- (2) Unnamed daughter, born between 1825 and 1830 at Tennessee.

The Support Agreement recorded in Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 was dated January 24, 1824, and referred to Betsy Meador as if she were then living and granted her a gift of $200 after the death of Tommey and Synthia (Mayse) Wright. But the Agreement recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 dated November 19, 1845, amending the Support Agreement stated that:

". . . . our daughter Betsy (who had intermarried with a William Woodcock & who had departed this life previous to the date of the above mentioned covenants and agreements) . . . ."

This might be read to indicate that Betsy had died prior to November 19, 1845, but that would also suggest that she had died before January 24, 1824, the date of the original agreement. Hinshaw does list the issuance of a marriage bond for Bannister Meador and Miriam King on July 28, 1828, with William Greenwood as surety and if this were the same Bannister Meador who married Betsy Woodcock, Betsy would presumably have died prior to July 28, 1828.

However, in his letter dated May 5, 1987, Victor P. Meador stated that Bannister Meador and his wife Elizabeth were listed in the 1850, 1860, and 1870 Census of Macon County, Tennessee.

The apparent discrepancy between the support agreement and the census may be explained by a second marriage of Bannister Meador to another wife named Elizabeth. On the other hand, the second "who" reference in the portion of the agreement dated November 19, 1845, which reads "Betsy (who had intermarried with a William Woodcock & who had departed this life previous, to the date of the above mentioned covenants and agreements)" is probably referring to William Woodcock rather than Betsy. This would then be consistent with Betsy surviving beyond 1845 and being the Elizabeth listed in the censuses of 1850, 1860, and 1870 of Macon County, Tennessee.

- 1) Scinthia Woodcock, born probably between 1807 and 1815,
- 2) Mary "Polly" Woodcock, born probably between 1807 and 1815, and
- 3) Green Berry Woodcock, born probably between 1807 and 1815.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Elizabeth "Betsey" (Wright) (Woodcock) Mayse and Bannister Meador were the following:

- 1) Joel W. Meador, born on April 19, 1845 (1825?), at Tennessee, and
- 2) _____ Meador, a daughter, born between 1825 and 1830 at Tennessee.

- i. Scinthia Woodcock

The Agreement dated November 19, 1845, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 identified Scinthia Woodcock as a daughter of Betsy (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock:

". . . which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tennessee & the latter in Kentucky. . . ."

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which stated that Cynthia Wright was a daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock and resided in 1842 in Mason County, Tennessee.

ii. Mary "Polly" Woodcock

The Agreement dated November 19, 1845, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 identified Polly Woodcock as a daughter of Betsy (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock:

". . . . which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tennessee & the latter in Kentucky. . . ."

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary "Polly" Wright was a daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock and resided in 1842 in Mason County, Tennessee.

iii. Green Berry Woodcock

The Agreement dated November 19, 1845, and recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 identified Green Berry Woodcock as a child of Betsy (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock:

". . . . which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tennessee & the latter in Kentucky. . . ."

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which stated that Green Berry Wright was a son of Elizabeth (Wright) Woodcock and William Woodcock and resided in 1842 in Mason County, Tennessee.

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which stated that Joel W. Meador was a son of Elizabeth (Wright) (Woodcock) Meador and Bannister Meador, was born on April 19, 1845 (1825?), at Tennessee, married Martha Jane "Patsy" Walton, and died in 1873 or 1874 at Tennessee and that Martha Jane "Patsy" (Walton) Meador was born on November 6, 1826, at Tennessee, and died after 1880 in Tennessee.

In his letter dated May 5, 1987, Mr. Victor P. Meador enclosed family group sheets which stated that _____ Meador was a daughter of Elizabeth (Wright) (Woodcock) Meador and Bannister Meador, was born between 1825 and 1830 at Tennessee, and resided in the Bannister Meador household in 1830 and 1840 at Smith County, now Macon County, Tennessee.

c. Mary "Polly" (Wright) Mayse, Her Husband Ballenger Mayse, And Her Descendants

The marriage bond of Polly Wright and Ballenger Mayse was dated on December 21, 1811, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Tommey Wright as surety:

"Know all Men by these Presents that we Balleng - Mayse & Tommy Wright are held & firmly bound unto Geo. Wm Smith Governor of the comWealth of Virginia in the Sum of $150 Va Currency for the true paymt of which to the said Governor or his Successors We bind ourselves & each of us our & each of our heirs Exors &c firmly by these presents Sealed & Dated this 21 Dec 1811

The Condition of the above obligation is such that Whereas there is a marriage Shortly intended to be had & Solemnized between the above bound Ballenger Mayse & Polly Wright Now if there shall be no lawful cause to obstruct the said Marriage then the above Obligation to be Void Else remain in full force &c

Teste
Ballenger Mayse
Tommey Wright"

If Polly Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, her date of birth would be before 1796. Since her father was residing in Bedford County at that time, her place of birth would be probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The Agreement dated January 24, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 listed Polly Mayse as a daughter of 1850 Tommey Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright:

". . . . And they further bind themselves to pay within twelve months after the death of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife, to John Wright, Betsy Meador, Polly Mayse and Nancy Wright son and daughters of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife each the sum of two hundred dollars Virginia Currency . . . ."

On June 14, 1824, at Botetourt County, Virginia, D.B. 16/36 Ballenger Mayse and Polly Mayse executed a deed of trust to Joel Wright to secure James Wright as surety on two bonds:

"This Indenture made the 14 day of June in the year 1824 Between Ballenger Mayse & Polly Mayse his wife of the county of Botetourt and State of Virginia of the one part & Joel Wright of said county & State of the other part Witnesseth that the said Ballenger Mayse and Polly his wife in order to secure and save harmless James Wright from the payment of of Two Bonds executed By the said Ballenger Mayse to David J William Kye Surviving partner of Kyles & Mayse in which said Two bonds the said James Wright is bound as the Security of the said Ballenger Mayse the first of said bonds bears date September the 26 1823 & falls due on the 1st day of April 1824 & is for the sum of Two hundred and thirty five dollars & ninety nine cents and the Second Bond bears the same date with the first & becomes due on the first day of April in the year 1825 and for the

The 1814 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James Wright, Jr. with the following household:

As set forth above, the Personal Property Tax Lists for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Tommey Wright with two males over 16 in 1813 but only one male over 16 in 1814, indicating the move from his household of a son. As will be set forth below, James Wright was born on April 13, 1792, and this record would be the first listing of him in the Personal Property Tax Lists after he had attained age 21. There was also a second

James Wright listed in the 1814 Bedford County Personal Property Tax List, but that was James Wright, the son of 1779 John Wright of Prince Edward County. Since that second James Wright was a much older man, 1877 James Wright was designated as "Jr."

The 1815 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James Wright Jr. with the following household on April 17:

This was probably 1877 James Wright, since the property owned was the same as that listed in the 1815 Personal Property Tax List.

The 1817 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed James Wright with the following household on April 26:

This was probably 1877 James Wright, since the only change from 1816 was the removal from the list of a horse.

The 1818 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a James Wright.

In June 1818 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 17/495 James Wright and John Wright were granted a license to keep an ordinary at their house:

The 1820 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one James Wright, but this was James Wright, a free negro and son of Sylvie (____) (____) Wright, the non-wife of 1805 Thomas Wright of Campbell County.

This again was probably 1877 James Wright, but the appearance and disappearance of the James Wright listing from the Personal Property Tax Lists makes the identification uncertain.

The 1823 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, did not list a James Wright.

The Agreement dated January 24, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 identified James Wright as a son of 1850 Tommy Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright:

This record in conjunction with Amherst County Deed Z/479 indicates that Eliza Ann (Burford) Wright had died between September 1, 1845, and June 13, 1846.

On August 22, 1846, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/417 James Wright and Samuel S. Preston acted as trustees on a deed of trust executed by Richard Bandy to secure certain debts due to John Bradley. 1877 James Wright was the only James Wright in Bedford County at this time and of the appropriate age who might properly serve as such trustee and thus the identification of the James Wright of this deed of trust as probably 1877 James Wright. The only other James Wright in Bedford County at this time was James M. Wright, who was regularly identified by his middle initial and was only 21 years old at this time.

On December 10, 1846, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 33/20 James Wright and Josiah H. Nimmo acted as trustees on a deed of trust executed by Robert Nimmo, Sr., to secure certain debts due to Stephen C. Hurt, Pleasant Preston, and Thomas L. Leftwich. 1877 James Wright is identified as the James Wright of this deed of trust for the same reasons as set forth for Bedford County Deed of Trust 32/417.

This was the property interest purchased by James Wright by Bedford County, Virginia, Deed 31/314.

On September 20, 1851, in Bounty Land Warrant #Wt. 36647-80-50 James Wright, aged 57, executed a declaration in support of a bounty land application by John Q. A. Wright, guardian, on behalf of James O. Wright, minor child of John Wright, deceased. As will be seen below, James O. Wright and John Q. A. Wright were children of 1840 John Wright, who in turn was the son of 1803 John Wright. The declaration by James Wright in that application stated that:

". . . . the within named John Wright deceased was his uncle, that the said James Wright and his uncle John Wright volunteered at what was called Gills old Field in Bedford County Virginia to serve for an indefinite term under Captain Walter Otey who commanded the company of Cavalry, that they marched from Bedford into service about the last of August 1814 and served as was then called a bidebts (?) marching and reconnoitering the section from Richmond to Hampton Tappahannock Yorktown and Williamsburg H. . . . He knows that the said John Wright died about the 20th of March 1840 leaving no widow that survives him and that the only minor child of the said John Wright deseased is the said James O. Wright who is now under twenty one years of age . . . ."

The only nephew of 1840 John Wright named James was the son of Tommey Wright. This record indicates that 1877 James Wright was born about 1794.

The Bounty Land Warrant of James Wright was #Wt. 2662-80-55 and included two declarations which stated that James Wright served as a private in Captain Walter Otey's Troop of Cavalry from August 22, 1814, to February 22, 1815. The first declaration was dated January 2, 1851, by James Wright, aged 57, and provided as follows:

In May 1834 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 24/290 Joel Wright was appointed surveyor of a road in the place of Thomas Melson:

"Ordered that Joel Wright be appointed Surveyor of the road from Thos. Lancasters to Pates road, in room of Thomas Melson with the usual allotment of hands &c."

On about November 27, 1834, Joel Wright filed his complaint in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 147, to recover the amount paid by him on his bond from other persons who had property belonging to LeRoy Jordan in their hands:

"To the Honourable William Daniel Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for Bedford County

The bill of complaint of Joel Wright respectfully represents that some time in the year 1830 Leroy Jordan then a resident of Bedford County was apprehended and examined before a justice of the peace for said county charged with forgery of the claims of certain soldiers of the revolution. The magistrates before whom he was examined were of opinion that he was guilty of the charge, but upon his petition he was permitted to give bail for his appearance before the Circuit Court of the United States held in the City of Richmond. Your orator became bound in a recognizance for said Leroy Jordan's appearance as aforesaid in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. Jordan absconded from the Commonwealth, forfeited his recognizance and your orator became bound to pay and has paid the said sum of fifteen hundred dollars as will appear by receipt herewith filed as a part of this bill marked A - of this sum he has received at different times the sum of $716.82c, the residue is still due & owing to your orator. The said Leroy Jordan still resides out of the state of Virginia but your orator is informed and believes that he has money, goods & effects in the hands Peter Dent, Jeremiah Jordan, William Crump Jacob Fizer and Balda McDaniel sheriff of Bedford. Your orator therefore prays that the said Leroy Jordan, Peter Dent, Jeremiah Jordan, William Crump & Jacob Fizer and Balda McDaniel may be made defendants to this bill and answer the allegations thereof upon oath, that said defts Peter Dent, Jeremiah Jordan, Crump, Fizer McDaniel severally say what goods money or effects they have in their hands due or belonging to the debt Leroy Jordan, that they be restrained from paying away, secreting or otherwise disposing of any such money, goods & effects until the further order of this honourable Court. That your honor will grant to your orator a decree against Leroy Jordan for the balance due him as aforesaid, and against the other defendants for whatever money or property they may have in their hands due or belonging to the said defendant Leroy Jordan, to be applied towards the discharge of his debt to your orator and finally grant to your orator such other and further relief as may be just and equitable and he will ever pray &c"

The first summons in File 147 was dated November 27, 1834, and stated that Leroy Jordan was no longer an inhabitant of Virginia. Summonses dated in 1835 stated that the sheriff had levied on two negro slaves owned by Jordan and named Ephraim and Peter and had sold the slaves in partial satisfaction of the amount due.

On August 19, 1835, in File 147 Jacob Fizer filed his answer to the complaint:
"To the Hon: Wm Daniel Judge of the Cir. Sup. Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Bedford.

The separate answer of Jacob Fizer to a bill of complaint exhibited against him and others in this honbl. court by Joel Wright. The said defendant reserving to himself the usual privilege of all just exceptions to the errors &c contained in the said bill for answer thereunto or unto so much and such parts thereof as he is advised it in any way concerns him to answer; He answers and says he knows nothing of the said complainant's becoming bound for the said Leroy Jordan for his appearance before the circuit court of the United States at Richmond, or of his having paid the amount of the recognizance in his said bill of complaint mentioned. In relation to the money and effects in his hands he will state, that at the February Term of the county court of Bedford 1831, his co-defendants Peter Dent and Jeremiah Jordan obtained from the said court a writ of injunction in the nature of a writ of ne exeat to restrain William Crump and Leroy Jordan from carrying out of the state two negro men named Peter and Ephraim alledged to belong to the said Leroy Jordan but whether they did belong to him or not this defendant is wholly ignorant. The said William Crump and Leroy Jordan being unable to give the Security required by the order of injunction the said slaves were put in the possession of the sheriff of Bedford, with directions to hire them out by the month until the future order of the court. This defendant being the deputy sheriff of Thomas Sale the then sheriff of Bedford took possession of the said slaves and hired them out from time to time according to the directions of the said order, and as he continued to act as the deputies of Joseph Slaughter and Balda McDaniel who succeeded the said Thomas Sale as sheriff of said county he held the said slaves until the 27th of October 1834 when the said injunction was partially dissolved, and the said slaves viz the decretal order of said county court were declared to be liable to be sold in satisfaction of a decree of this honorable court, pronounced on the 18th day of October 1834, in a cause then herein depending between Elizabeth Mayse et al. plaintiffs & the said Leroy Jordan et al. defendants, and the said slaves were accordingly sold as this defendant has been informed and believes by Thomas Mead one of the deputies of the said Balda McDaniel. This defendant has in his hands all the hires of the said slaves from the month of March 1831 till the 27th of October 1834 which he is ready to pay as this honbl. court may direct. deducting therefrom his commissions, expenses &c There is now an order of the county court of Bedford directing him to account for the hires before the commissioner of that court and he will in due time file a copy of the commissioners report as a part of this answer which will show the nett balance in his hands. and having fully answered, he prays to be hence dismissed with his cost &c.

On November 19, 1845, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 Joel Wright's parents Tommey Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright amended the Support Agreement at D.B. 18/318:

"Whereas by a covenant and agreement entered into between us (Tommy & Scinthia Wright) and James Wright Joel Wright & Jubal Wright (children of us the said Tommy and Scinthia Wright) bearing date on the 24th January 1824 provision was made by which the said James Wright, Joel Wright & Jubal Wright was to pay to our daughter Betsy (who had intermarried with a William Woodcock & who had departed this life previous to the date of the above mentioned covenants and agreements) the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid after the death of us the said Tommy & Sinthia and which was intened to be applied to the exclusive benefit and support of her the said Betsy's children by William Woodcock her first husband that is to the benefit of Scinthia Woodcock, Polly Woodcock & Green Berry Woodcock the only children of William Woodcock & Betsy Woodcock all of whom are still living the two former residing in the State of Tenessee & the latter in Kentucky. The said Betsy, widow of said William Woodcock having married again to a certain Bannister Meador and having Some children by him it appears from information derived from undoubted authority that it is the intention of the said Bannister Meador to exclude the above named 3 children of William Woodcock & Betsy & his wife

from all benefits arising out of the fund provided for them in the covenant and agreement aforesaid should it when paid go into his hands and thus defeat the true intent and object wick we had in view in making the provision aforesaid - As a proof of the correctness of our information in regard to the intention & determination of the said Bannister Meador in the premises we will here take occasion to state the fact that the appropriation made by Government of the sum of hundred dollars for the education of the three children before named of William Woodcock (who lost his life in the Service of his country) has been applied solely by the said Bannister Meadors to his own individual purposes and thus defeat the object of the appropriation to the injury of those it was intended to benefit. Now therefore with a view of carrying into effect our original design and intention and to prevent the misapplication of the two hundred dollars stipulated to be paid by the aforesaid James Wright, Joel Wright, Jubal Wright, after our death to the said Betsy Meadors we do by these presents direct and require the said James Wright & Joel Wright the surviving parties of the second part in the covenant and agreement before mentioned after our decease to pay the said two hundred dollars to the aforesaid Scinthia, Polly & Green Berry Woodcock the children of the said William Woodcock deceased and to no other person or persons whatsoever & for their own exclusive benefit & use forever - hereby correcting and revoking the authority in said covenant & agreement to the said James Joel & Jubal Wright to pay the same to Betsy Meadors, - In witness whereof we the said Tommy & Scinthia Wright have hereunto set our hands & affixed our Seals this 19th day of November 1845

On November 28, 1870, Joel Wright filed suit in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 1203, against James M. Goggin and Benjamin W. L. Holt regarding a debt due on a bill of exchange:

"To the Honorable Gustavus A. Wingfield Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County Humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor your orator Joel Wright that in the year 1861, on the 13th day of April of that year James M. Matthews James A. Wright and John M. Wright, who are partners and tobacconists, doing business under the firm & style of Matthews & Wright being indebted of your orator drew a bill of exchange directed to James M. Goggin and Benjamin W. L. Holt partners and commission merchants doing business under the firm & style of Goggin and Holt, at Memphis, State of Tennessee directing the said Goggin and Holt to pay six months after the date thereof (the 13th day of April 1861) to the order of your orator, Joel Wright, Thirteen hundred & ninety dollars & fifty two cents Value received and charge the same to account of the said Matthews and Wright and after the said bill of exchange was so drawn by the said Matthews & Wright the said Goggin & Holt accepted the same by writing the words "accepted" on the face of the said bill and subscribing their names thereto by the discription of Goggin & Holt - whereby and according to the legal tenor and effect thereof the said Goggin & Holt promised and bound themselves to pay to your orator the said sum of thirteen hundred & ninety dollars & fifty two Cents six months from and after the 13" day of April 1861 all which will more fully and at large appear by the said bill of exchange herewith filed and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill, marked "B".

Your orator avers that the said bill maturd but the same nor no part thereof was unpaid either by the said Goggin & Holt, or either of them or any one for them, nor was the same paid by the said Matthews & Wright or either of them as by any one for them - but the whole amount thereof both of principal and interest still remains due and unpaid to your orator.

Your orator further avers that he omitted at the maturity of the said bill of exchange & after the said Goggin & Holt had failed to pay the same to have the same protested for non payment and that thereby the said Matthews & Wright are released & discharged from all liability to pay the same and that your orator is compelled to look solely to the said Goggin & Holt for the payment thereof. Your orator further charges that the said James M. Goggins and Benjamin W. L. Holt reside beyond the limits of this Commonwealth in parts to your orator unknown Your orator further charges that on the ____ day of ____ in the year 1870 one John W. Holt Sr last of the County of Bedford, State of Virginia, the father of Benjamin W. L. Holt, died siezed and possessed of a large quantity of real estate lying & being in the said County of Bedford and considerable personal property as follows, a tract or parcel of land lying near Liberty situated in the County of Bedford containing 587 acres - also a tract situated in said county on Little Otter containing 473 acres - also a tract containing 553 acres described on the Commissioners Books for the north side of Bedford County as lying on Rocky Mt in said County.

Your orator can not Certainly say, but he has reason to believe & charge that the said John W. Holt Sr made his last will and testament by which he gave & bequeathed to the said Benjamin W. L Holt an interest in all of his real & personal estate with his other children - eight besides the said Benjamin W. L. Holt and including the heirs of William L. Holt decd, a son of the said John W. Holt Sr decd but if the said John M. Holt Sr did so make his last will and testament the same has not yet been admitted to probate. However that may be, your orator charges that the said Benjamin W. L. Holt has an interest in all of the estate both real and personal of which the said John W. Holt Sr died sized and possessed and that the same is liable to be attached and subjected to the payment of the debt of your Orator hereinbefore mentioned. In tender Consideration whereof and inasmuch as your orator is without adequate remedy save in a Court of equity, he prays that the said James M. Goggin & Benjamin W. L. Holt be made parties defendant to this suit and compelled to answer this bill on their several corporal oaths that your Honor will make a decree attaching and subjecting the interests of the said B. W L. Holt both in the real & personal estate of his deceased father John W. Holt whatever it may be to the payment of your orators debt aforesaid against the said Goggin & Holt & that if the said John W Holt Sr made his last will & testament, as your orator believes & charges that your orator may make the said Executors named in said will parties defendants to this suit when they qualify. Grant to your orator the usual order of publications against absent defendants & the Commonwealths writ of summons commanding &c & all such other & further relief as equity & justice may dictate & as may seem fit to your Honor & as in duty bound &c will ever pray &c

Tombstones Inscriptions Of Bedford County, Virginia listed the following entry for Longwood Cemetery, east of Bedford:

"Amanda Jordan, wife of Joel Wright	February 9, 1810 June 5, 1899"
--	-----------------------------------

Our Kin listed the same dates for the births and deaths as the tombstones except for Joel Wright's birth date, which was listed as March 25, 1799. Based on the Census records, the year 1799 on the tombstone was probably misread as 1797.

Amanda was listed in Our Kin as the daughter of Leroy and Rhoda Mayse Jordan.

Our Kin also stated that based on a Family Bible the children of Joel and Amanda Wright were as follows:

- 1) Elizabeth Rhoda (Wright) Matthews, born on May 13, 1829;
- 2) Mary Ann (Wright) Hensley, born on April 7, 1832;
- 3) James A. Wright, born on March 11, 1834; and

- 4) John Mays Wright, born on September 19, 1836, near Stewartsville, Bedford County, Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1875 Joel Wright of Bedford County and Amanda (Jordan) Wright were the following:

- 1) Elizabeth Rhoda (Wright) Matthews, born on May 13, 1829, at Virginia, probably Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Mary Ann (Wright) Hensley, born on April 7, 1832, at Virginia, probably Bedford County, Virginia,

- 4) John Mays Wright, born on September 19, 1836, near Stewartsville, Bedford County, Virginia.

On May 9, 1899, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 77/385 M. P. Burks filed his report of sales under the deed of trust executed by John M. Wright and James M.

Matthews:

"Report of Sale and Account of M. P. Burks, substituted trustee under a Deed of trust from Matthews & Wright to P. L. Saunders, Trustee, dated March 18, 1889.

By an order of the County Court of Bedford County made January 2, 1896, I was substituted as trustee in the foregoing deed of trust. The terms of sale were such that it was not believed that the property could be sold to advance, so the grantors and C. A. Board Trustee & Receiver of the assets of the Bank of Bedford entered into a written agreement dated December 5, 1895, by which the time and manner of advertizing the property was left to the discretion of the trustee, and the terms were changed to cash enough to pay costs and expenses, and the residue on credits not to exceed one two & three years for equal instalments thereof, which bonds were to have personal security and also be secured by a lien on the property sold. This Agreement is herewith returned as a part hereof. At the request of C. A. Board, Trustee and Receiver as aforesaid, I advertized, by hand-bills well posted and circulated, the old factory lot at the corner of Bridge and Jackson Streets Bedford City, Va. and on January 26, 1896, sold the same at public auction to James W. Ballard, Jno. D. Ballard and Mary L. Elliott, at the price of $310. The trms were $100. cash, and the balance in 8, 16 & 24 months, interest from date, secured by bonds with personal security and a deed of trust on property sold. The purchase money is accounted for in the statement below. At the like request of C. A. Board, trustee and Receiver, I advertized the old Stemmy property in like manner, and on August 29, 1898, sold the same at public auction to Lucy J. McGhee at the price of $392. The terms were one fourth cash, and the balance in 6, 12 & 18 months for equal instalments thereof, to be secured by bonds with good personal security, bearing interest from date, and by a lien on the property sold She paid the cash-payment and gave bond with J. W. McGhee as surety. The cash-payment and first bond are accounted for in the statement below. The building and lot were first offered separately and then as a whole. The price offered for the property as a whole was the best and was accepted. The property had been twice sold for taxes and purchased by the State, and was delinquent for taxes for a number of other years. The amount due on these accounts could not be accurately ascertained and no one was willing to bid for the property subject to these charges, so it was finally determined and announced at the sale that the purchase-money would be applied as far as need be to redeem the land, and to pay all taxes that had accrued, State, County and corporation. Below will be found a statement of all collections and disbursements.

The 1850 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Mary Ann Right in the Joel Right household and her age as 18 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1832.

The marriage consent for Mary A. Wright and Samuel W. Hensley was dated on December 8, 1852, at Bedford County, Virginia, with the license issued on December 15, 1852:

The 1860 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed A. (M.?) A. Hensley in the Joel Wright household and her age as 28 and born in Virginia. This record indicates that Mary Ann (Wright) Hensley was born about 1832.

The will of 1875 Joel Wright dated January 17, 1874, and probated on April 27, 1875, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 23/267 listed Mary A. Hensley as one of his children:

". . . . To my daughter Mary A. Hensley, I give one fourth part of said half of my estate and if at her death any part thereof remains, to the legal heirs of her body to be equally divided between them . . . ."

On September 4, 1875, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 48/249 Samuel W. Hensley and Mary A. Hensley transferred their interest in the estate of Joel Wright to James A. Hensley to be held in trust for the benefit of Mary A. Hensley:

On February 5, 1892, Robert S. Quarles, as court trustee and receiver, filed a complaint in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 2939, for an injunction against John M. Wright to prevent him as an insolvent debtor from transferring any interest he might have in $5,000 of life insurance proceeds payable by reason of the death of his son William A. Wright:

"To the Honorable John D. Horsley, Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford County, sitting as Chancellor.

Humbly complaining showeth unto you Honor your orator, Robert S. Quarles, trustee and receiver, that on the 14th day of September, 1889, he recovered two judgments in this honorable Court as follows: one in the name of the Bank of Bedford, which sues for the benefit of Robert S. Quarles, receiver, against John M. Wright for $1269.04, with interest to be computed after the rate of six per centum per annum from the 1st day of April, 1889, until payment, and $9.03 costs, and the other in the name of the Bank of Bedford which sues for the benefit of Robert S. Quarles, receiver, against John M. Wright and J. E. Helms for $30,391.74, with like interest on $4001.02, a part thereof, from the 26th day of February, 1889, and on $3501.02, another part thereof, from the 2d day of March, 1889, and on $22,809.70, the residue thereof, from the 3rd day of April, 1889, until payment, and $38.73 costs, and that on the 7th day of June, 1890, he recovered another judgment in the same Court in the name of The Bank of Bedford which sues for the benefit of Robert S. Quarles, trustee and receiver, against John M. Wright for $4,000. with like interest thereon from the 26th day of March, 1889, until payment, and $12.03 costs, duly certified copies of which judgments marked respectively A, B, and C, are herewith filed, and prayed to be read as parts of this bill. That immediately thereafter, writs of fieri facias were sued out on each of said judgments and placed in the hands of the sheriff of Bedford County for levy, execution, and return according to law, that each of said writs were returned by the sheriff with the endorsement "No effects" thereon; and that afterwards, towit, on the ____ day of January, 1892, further writs of fieri facias were sued out on each of said judgments and placed in the hands of the sheriff of Bedford County, for levy, execution and return according to law, and which are now in the hands of the sheriff for levy as aforesaid, and like writs of fieri facias on said judgments for $4,000. and $30,391.74 principal money respectively, were placed in the hands of the sergeant of the city of Lynchburg for like purpose on the 29th day of January, 1892, and are now in the hands of said sergeant, and your orator is advised that by reason of said writs of fieri facias, so issued and placed in the hands of said officers as aforesaid, there is a lien on all the personal estate and choses in action of the defendant, John M. Wright.

Your orator further represents that he is receiver of this honorable Court in the suit of Speece for &c. v. Bank of Bedford and others, and acting under decrees of this honorable Court made in said cause, and is authorized and directed to collect all choses in action of the said Bank of Bedford, by suit or otherwise as he may deem most judicious, and the judgments aforesaid and writs of fieri facias are for debts due by said John M. Wright to the said Bank of Bedford. A duly certified copy of the decree in said cause, conferring said authority upon your orator, is herewith filed marked D, and prayed to be read as a part of this bill.

Your orator further represents that William A. Wright, a son of the said John M. Wright, while residing in the state of Mississippi sometime during the year 1890 or 1891, effected insurance on his (said William A. Wright's) life in the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the city of New York, to the amount of Five Thousand dollars, evidenced by three policies or bonds in said Company; that some time after effecting such insurance, said William A. Wright, severed all business connection with the state of Mississippi, and removed to the city of Memphis, in the state of Tennessee, and went into business at that place, and that for several months prior to the 25th of December, 1891, the said William A. Wright was engaged in business in the city of Memphis, in the state of Tennessee, and had neither residence, domicile nor business connections, so far as your orator has been informed, in the state of Mississippi; that some time between the 20th of December, 1891, and the 1st of January, 1892, the said William A. Wright left the city of Memphis, and returned to the home of his father, said John M. Wright, in the town of Bedford City, Virginia, and died at said town a few days after his arrival.

Your orator further represents that through the medium of his counsel he has made active efforts to ascertain whether the said William A. Wright had changed his domicil from the city of Memphis to the town of Bedford City, and to get some information from the members of the family as to the amount of the insurance, in what Company it was, and how or to whom the policies were payable, but he has been wholly unable to get any information from them, and he was unable to learn from any of the family to whom he has applied in what Company said William A. Wright was insured, or how the policies were payable, but from information derived from others he has learned that the amounts of said policies or bonds on his life were Five thousand dollars; two for Two thousand dollars each, and one for One Thousand dollars, issued by the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the City of New York, and payable to said William A. Wright, his executors, administrators, or assigns. From the circumstances under which said William A. Wright returned to his home, being in the last stages of Consumption, your orator believes, and therefore charges, that when he left the city of Memphis for Bedford City, he changed his domicil to the town of Bedford City, and had no expectation or hope of ever returning to the city of Memphis, and that he expected to spend the residue of his life at the home of his father in Bedford City, Virginia, and so your orator charges that at the time of the death of said William A. Wright, he was domiciled in the town of Bedford City, Va.

Your orator further represents that the said William A. Wright was a young man, probably about twenty-four or twenty-five years of age, not married, and that the whole of his estate, including the policies of insurance or bonds aforesaid passed, under the statute of distributions of the state of Virginia, to his father as sole distributee, and that the writs of fieri facias are liens on said policies or the debts represented by them, and the distributive interest of the said John M. Wright in the estate of his son the said William A. Wright deceased and that said policies or debts and distributive interest should be subjected to the satisfaction pro tanto of said writs of fieri facias.

Your orator further represents, that he has been informed, believes, and therefore charges that, shortly after the death of said William A. Wright, one Oscar B. Barker, a brother-in-law of said William A. Wright, took the policies of insurance or bonds aforesaid, and either carried or sent them to the state of Mississippi, and there caused administration to be taken out on the estate of the said William A. Wright by one John P. Mayo, and that said John M. Wright and the brothers and sister of said William A. Wright, deceased, are seeking in the state of Mississippi to collect the insurance on the life of the said William A. Wright, and to have the same paid over to the brothers and sisters of the said William A. Wright, and thereby defeat your orator in the collection of the amount justly due him on said writs of fieri facias. Your orator charges that the said William A. Wright at the time of his death was not domiciled in the state of Mississippi, and that the administrator in the state of Mississippi, to whom said policies have been delivered, has no right to collect said policies of insurance. The facts hereinbefore set forth have but very recently come to the knowledge of your orator, some of them only to-day, and, consequently, he has been unable to have any administration taken out on the estate of the said William A. Wright for the state of Virginia or the state of Tennessee. Your orator is advised that under the laws of the state of Tennessee, the said John M. Wright is likewise sole distributee of the said W. A. Wright, if it shall be ascertained that the said William A. Wright was at the time of his death domiciled in the state of Tennessee, but so recently have the facts come to the knowledge of your orator, that he has been unable thus far to take any steps to have administration in the state of Tennessee

Your orator further represents, that in order to ascertain the estate of the said John M. Wright liable to his writs of fieri facias aforesaid, he propounded to him certain interrogatories and caused said John M. Wright to be examined before a Commissioner in Chancery of this honorable Court, a copy of which interrogatories and the answers thereto are herewith filed, Marked E, and prayed to be read as parts of this bill. From these interrogatories and the answers thereto, it will be readily seen by your Honor how little information he has been able to get from the said John M. Wright.

Your orator further represents that the said John M. Wright is utterly and notoriously insolvent & your Orator is very apprehensive that he will endeavor to transfer or assign his interest in the said policies of insurance in order to defeat you orator in recovering same upon his writs of fieri facias aforesaid, and that the steps already taken by the brothers and sisters of the said William A. Wright indicate that they will endeavor to collect said insurance through the medium of the administrator in Mississippi, and will thereby defeat your orator in collecting the amount of said insurance which is justly due him.

Your orator further represents, that he has caused notice to be served on the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the City of New York, setting forth briefly the claims of your orator, and warning said insurance Company not to make payment to said administrator in the state of Mississippi, nor to any other person save your orator. A copy of said notice is herewith filed, marked F, and prayed to be read as part of this bill.

Your orator further represents that the following persons are the brothers and sisters of the said William A. Wright, deceased, towit: John A. Wright, Estelle Barker, wife of Oscar B. Barker, Jennie Wright, Lizzie Wright, Lelia Wright and Tyree Wright, the last four of whom are infants under the age of twenty-one years.

In tender consideration, therefore, of the premises, and for as much as your orator is without adequate relief save in a court of equity, where matters of this kind are properly cognizable and relievable, he prays that the said John M. Wright, Oscar B. Barker and Estelle Barker his wife, John A. Wright, Jennie Wright, Lizzie Wright, Lelia Wright, Tyree Wright, and the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York, be by proper process made parties defendants to this bill, and waiving any answer under oath from the defendants or either of them, that the said John M. Wright be enjoined, inhibited and restrained from making any transfer, assignment, or other disposition of his interest in the insurance policies or bonds in the bill mentioned, that the said John M. Wright, John A. Wright, O. B. Barker and Estelle his wife be enjoined inhibited and restrained from collecting or receiving any portion of the insurance policies or bonds aforesaid, and that the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York be enjoined, inhibited, and restrained from paying the amounts of said policies or bonds either to the administrator in the state of Mississippi of the said William A. Wright, or to any of the defendants in this cause, that as soon as an administrator can be appointed in the state of Virginia for the said William A. Wright, you orator be allowed to amend his bill by making the same a party to this suit, and that such orders may be made in this cause as will ensure the collection of the amounts of said policies of insurance and the payment of the money on the writs of fieri facias aforesaid of your orator, and that if the said Oscar B. Barker or any of the defendants in this cause have the possession or control of said policies of insurance or bonds, that they be required to produce the same, and file them among the papers in this cause to be collected under order of this Court.

Grant unto your orator the Commonwealth's writ of summons commanding, &c., and all such further and other aid and relief in the premises as equity and good conscience may dictate and the nature of his case require, and as in duty bound, he will ever pray, &c.

From this record the family of John Mays Wright can be identified as follows:

Wife: _____ (_____) Wright

- Children:
- 1) William A. Wright;
  - 2) Estelle (Wright) Barker;
  - 3) John A. Wright;
  - 4) Jennie Wright;
  - 5) Lizzie Wright;
  - 6) Lelia Wright; and
  - 7) Tyree Wright.

On February 6, 1892, in File 2939 John M. Wright gave his answer to various interrogatories posed by the plaintiff:

- "1. When did your son, William A. Wright, remove from Columbus, Miss., and where did he go? With whom was he employed in Memphis, and how long did he remain there before he came home in December, 1891?
2. Did he write to you or any member of your family, or did he tell you or any one in your presence why he left Columbus, and what he was doing in Memphis, and how long he expected to stay in Memphis; if so, what did he say, what employment was he engaged in in Memphis, and why did he leave Memphis to come home?
3. When he came home, was he not in the last stages of Consumption, and did he ever expect to leave home again? Did he not come home with the expectation that he would never be able to return to Memphis, and in order to be with his friends and his family during the latter days of his life? Have you made any assignment, transfer, or disposition of any kind of your interest in the insurance on the life of your son, William A. Wright; if so, when, and to whom, and upon what consideration? and if you answer that you have made such disposition and received a consideration therefor, what disposition have you made of the consideration?

4. State all you know about the circumstances attending your son's leaving Columbus, Miss., and also about his employment in Memphis and also about his coming home. Give full particulars as to everything he said or wrote which would tend to show why he left Mississippi and whether he expected to return there, and why he left Memphis, and whether he expected to return to Memphis.
5. What became of your interest in the firm of Newsom & Wright Is D. M. Newsom indebted to you in any sum; if so what? Have you any interest in the Warehouse now conducted by D. M. Newsom; if so, what is your interest.
6. Have you any money or debts due to you from any sources whatever; if so, what money and from whom due? Have you any personal property except what is exempt under the poor-law; if so, file a list with the Commissioner, and state where the property is."
1. My impression is, that it was about Oct. 1st, 1891. He went to Memphis. He was employed with J. S. Robertson, I think. I think he came home about the 25th or 26th of December, 1891.
2. He did not tell me, nor any member of my family that I know of, the reason why he left Columbus. I don't know that he ever told me, but he was in the drug business, I think. He wrote to me a few days before he left that he had the Grippe.
3. My impression is that he did expect to leave home again. I do not know whether he expected to return to Memphis or not. I have made no assignment; transfer, or disposition of my interest in the insurance.
4. I do not know why he left Columbus. I think he was in the Drug business in Memphis. He came home because I wrote to him to come; he had written to me that he had the Grippe. He did not write why he left Mississippi. He had been corresponding with parties in Columbus, I suppose, with a view to returning there. I saw a letter from a party in Columbus. I do not know whether he expected to return to Memphis.
5. I sold my interest in the firm of Newsom & Wright to my mother, two or three years ago. D. M. Newsom is not indebted to me in any sum, and I have no interest in the warehouse.

6. I have no money or debts due me of any kind. I think I have no personal property except what is exempt under the poor-law.

Teste.
John M. Speece, Clerk.

Executed in the City of Lynchburg, Va. on the 6th day Febry 1892, by delivering a true copy of the within Summons to Oscar B. Barker and Estelle Barker

In Person.

R. W. Fariss Deputy for T. H. Johnson S.C.L."

On about September 19, 1892, O. B. Barker, Estelle Barker, and John A. Wright filed their answer to the complaint in File 2939 denying that William A. Wright had changed his residence from Columbus, Mississippi, or that the insurance policy proceeds were subject to the jurisdiction of the Virginia courts:

"The joint and several demurrer and answer of O.B. Barker and Estelle A. Barker, his wife, and John A. Wright, to a bill in chancery exhibited against them and others in the Circuit court of Bedford county by Ro. S. Quarles, trustee and receiver.

These defendants say that the said bill is not sufficient in law.

And without waiving their said demurrer, for answer to said bill, or to so much thereof as they deem it necessary that they should answer, these respondents say:

I.

Of their own knowledge, they know nothing of the state of the indebtedness of their co-defendant, John M. Wright, to the plaintiff, and they therefore neither admit nor deny the allegations of the bill touching such indebtedness.

II.

They admit that Wm. A. Wright died, leaving insurance on his life to the amount of five thousand dollars, represented by three policies in the Equitable Assurance Society of New York, but they deny that their co-defendant, John M. Wright, or the plaintiff through him, has, or ever had, any interest whatsoever in the proceeds thereof, or any right to call for an account thereof.

While it is true that the said decedent died in Bedford county, in the state of Virginia, his domicil at the time of his death was in the state of Mississippi; in which latter state the policies were originally issued to him, and remained at the time of his death.

III.

Respondents submit the following facts, which, as they are advised, effectually debar as well this court from taking further cognizance of this cause, as the plaintiff from any right to any portion of the proceeds if said policies:

Early in the year 1891, while resident and domiciled in the state of Mississippi, the said Wm. A. Wright took out the said policies in the Equitable Assurance Society of New York, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of New York, with its chief office in the city of New York, in the last named state. The said corporation however, by virtue of the statutes of Mississippi and the action of the said corporation in pursuance thereof, had a quasi-domicil in that state; the contracts of insurance were made through an agent of the company, resident in Mississippi; the policies were delivered there with reference to, and to be governed by, the laws of that state, which required payment to be made in that state.

The decedent being fully aware of the insolvent condition of his father, the said John M. Wright, then and now resident in Virginia, and knowing that under the laws of Virginia, his former home, his father would be his sole distributee, in case of his death intestate, took especial occasion to ascertain the laws of Mississippi on that subject before taking out such insurance. It was his fixed intention that his brothers and sisters should be the beneficiaries, except in case of his subsequent marriage.

Having ascertained that under the statutes of distribution of the state of Mississippi, his brothers and sisters would reap the benefit of this provision which he desired to make for them, in case of his death intestate and unmarried---intending to alter the policies, in case of marriage, so that his wife would be the beneficiary, which he could not do if the policies were made payable otherwise,-- --he accordingly had the policies made payable to himself. This subject was fully canvassed between himself and the agent of the company in Mississippi, at the time of his application for said insurance.

Some time afterwards, receiving an offer of a position as drug clerk in the city of Memphis, in the state of Tennessee, he left the state of Mississippi, and went to Memphis. The state of his health, however, and the contingencies naturally incident upon a removal to a strange city, made any such movement experimental and tentative, and he therefore went with the intention of remaining only in case he should find the climate suitable to his condition, and his environment otherwise agreeable and satisfactory. For this reason, his contract with his new employer expressly reserved to him the right to abrogate the same on short notice. And satisfied that the laws of Mississippi, where he regarded his home to be, would secure to his intended beneficiaries the proceeds of the policies, and mindful of the tentative character of his removal from that state, he did not take the policies with him, but left them with his previous employers, who had agreed, if practicable, to receive him again into their employment, in case he decided not to remain in Memphis. He gave the insurance company no notice of his removal, and notices of subsequent premiums due were sent to him, addressed, as formerly, to Columbus, Mississippi; the latter place having been designated as his home in his application for the insurance, and is so set forth on two face of the policies themselves. Three such notices, with the original envelope, dated Jan. 2, 1892, addressed to Wm. A. Wright, Columbus, Miss., are herewith filed, marked exhibit no. 101.

A brief stay in Memphis demonstrated that the climate did not accord with the delicate state of his health, and he soon applied to his former employers in Columbus to be reinstated with them. His malady rapidly developed however into an aggravated form of la grippe, and under advice of his physician, he decided to pay a visit to his father's family in Virginia, for a brief rest. He accordingly left Memphis on Dec. 25, 1891, for his father's home in Bedford City, Virginia, reaching the latter place the next day. He contracted a deep cold on the route, which so aggravated his trouble that he died on the 30th day of the same month. There was no indication of fatal illness when he left Memphis, and his visit to Virginia was not that of a dying man to end his days at his old home, as the bill alleges, but only for rest and recuperation, with the expectation of being soon restored to health. One of his letters filed, written a few days before he left Memphis shows this. In addition to this his statements to the members of his family corroborate it. While at his father's home before his death, he stated to the family that he expected to return to Mississippi as soon as he was well enough.

During the whole of this time, the three policies of insurance remained with his former employers in Columbus, Miss., and the same were never in Virginia until after his death. At the request of respondent John A. Wright, the policies were forwarded to the family in Virginia, and remained here only a few days; respondent O. B. Barker having taken them back to Mississippi on the 6th or 7th of January 1892, for the purpose of having administration taken out on the estate of the insured. Administration was shortly thereafter granted by the proper court of Mississippi to John P. Mayo, who qualified as administrator, and in whose possession said policies now are, and were at the time of the issuance of plaintiff's executions and of the bringing of this suit. The policies were only in the state of Virginia for a few days, and were taken back to Mississippi, as stated, long before the plaintiff's executions were issued, or this suit instituted. Suit has been brought on the policies in Mississippi, and a judgment recovered there against the Insurance Company on behalf of the Mississippi Administrator.

Respondents are advised that by the law of nations, and by the common law, and by the law of Virginia, an intestate's personal estate is distributable according to the laws of his domicil, regardless of the place of death. And that the courts of a foreign state will not undertake to administer the same, or take any jurisdiction whatsoever over the same, unless the subject itself be within its territorial jurisdiction. And that even in the latter case, where the foreign court finds the subject within its territorial grasp, it will administer the same, so far as the distribution is concerned, according to the law of the decedent's domicil.

Respondents are further advised that the fact that the policies were brought within the State, without the authority of any person having legal custody thereof, or the right to collect the same, and their remaining in this state for the brief period mentioned,--all of which was long before the plaintiff's executions were issued or this suit brought,-- does not give this court even the right to undertake to administer upon the proceeds thereof at all; and especially as the policies were in the hands of the Mississippi administrator at the time of the institution of this suit, and of the qualification of the Virginia administrator. Ancillary administration is only granted for the purpose indicated in the term itself, viz, of assisting the domiciliary administrator where the latter himself cannot act by reason of his powers being limited to the territorial jurisdiction of the court from which he derives his authority. In this case, there is no necessity for ancillary administration, and certainly no reason why this court should undertake to interfere with the administration of the domiciliary administrator in whose hands the whole estate of the decedent is.

Under the laws of the State of Mississippi, the brothers and sisters of the decedent are his sole distributees. A copy of the statutes of distribution of that state is herewith filed as a part of this answer. The same is not authenticated according to the act of congress, but plaintiff's counsel has consented to admit the same as a true copy, as will appear by an endorsement thereon. Respondents are also advised that as this statute is construed by the supreme court of Mississippi (a construction by which this court is bound), all personal property, including choses in action, within the state of Mississippi, at the date of a decedent's death, passes and is distributable in accordance with the provisions of this statute, without reference to the domicil of the decedent. So that in either aspect, though the decedent's domicil had been elsewhere than in the state of Mississippi at the time of his death, yet the proceeds of these policies would have been distributable under the provisions of the Mississippi statute.

Respondents file herewith, as a part of their answer, a batch consisting of _____ letters from the decedent, written shortly before his death, and copies of letters to him from sundry parties, in response to letters from him, with reference to the question of his domicil, the batch being marked exhibit no. 100.

These letters, as respondents conceive, clearly show that his removal to Memphis was experimental only, and when taken in connection with the other circumstances already detailed, they conclusively establish the state of Mississippi as the domicil of the decedent at the time of his death.

Respondents therefore ask that the injunction heretofore granted in this case may be dissolved, the bill dismissed, and they be left to the collection and enjoyment of the proceeds of said policies, free from any further interference on the part of the plaintiff.

And having fully answered they pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs.

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of Wm. H. McGhee Admr. of Wm. A. On May 9, 1899, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 77/385 M. P. Burks filed his report of sales under the deed of trust executed by James M. Matthews and John M. Wright:

"Report of Sale and Account of M. P. Burks, substituted trustee under a Deed of trust from Matthews & Wright to P. L. Saunders, Trustee, dated March 18, 1889.

By an order of the County Court of Bedford County made January 2, 1896, I was substituted as trustee in the foregoing deed of trust. The terms of sale were such that it was not believed that the property could be sold to advance, so the grantors and C. A. Board Trustee & Receiver of the assets of the Bank of Bedford entered into a written agreement dated December 5, 1895, by which the time and manner of advertizing the property was left to the discretion of the trustee, and the terms were changed to cash enough to pay costs and expenses, and the residue on credits not to exceed one two & three years for equal instalments thereof, which bonds were to have personal security and also be secured by a lien on the property sold. This Agreement is herewith returned as a part hereof. At the request of C. A. Board, Trustee and Receiver as aforesaid, I advertized, by hand-bills well posted and circulated, the old factory lot at the corner of Bridge and Jackson Streets Bedford City, Va. and on January 26, 1896, sold the same at public auction to James W. Ballard, Jno. D. Ballard and Mary L. Elliott, at the price of $310. The trms were $100. cash, and the balance in 8, 16 & 24 months, interest from date, secured by bonds with personal security and a deed of trust on property sold. The purchase money is accounted for in the statement below. At the like request of C. A. Board, trustee and Receiver, I advertized the old Stemmerly property in like manner, and on August 29, 1898, sold the same at public auction to Lucy J. McGhee at the price of $392. The terms were one fourth cash, and the balance in 6, 12 & 18 months for equal instalments thereof, to be secured by bonds with good personal security, bearing interest from date, and by a lien on the property sold She paid the cash-payment and gave bond with J. W. McGhee as surety. The cash-payment and first bond are accounted for in the statement below. The building and lot were first offered separately and then as a whole. The price offered for the property as a whole was the best and was accepted. The property had been twice sold for taxes and purchased by the State, and was delinquent for taxes for a number of other years. The amount due on these accounts could not be accurately ascertained and no one was willing to bid for the property subject to these charges, so it was finally determined and announced at the sale that the purchase-money would be applied as far as need be to redeem the land, and to pay all taxes that had accrued, State, County and corporation. Below will be found a statement of all collections and disbursements.

Tombstone Inscriptions Of Bedford County, Virginia, compiled by

Mrs. Hamilton A. West and Mrs. George P. Parker, listed the tombstone of John Mays Wright in Longwood Cemetery and his birth date on September 19, 1836, and his death on March 6, 1901, and the tombstone of Lelia Johnson, wife of John Mays Wright, in the same cemetery and her birthdate on December 3, 1836, and her death on April 13, 1883.

Our Kin listed the following information for John Mays Wright:

"John Mays Wright, son of Joel and Amanda (Jordan) Wright, was born near Stewartsville, in Bedford County, Va., September 19, 1836, and died in South Boston, Va., March 6, 1901.

While still a young man he became associated with James M. Matthews, his brother-in-law, in the manufacture of tobacco at Stewartsville, and soon they both moved their families to Liberty, erected a large factory on the northeast corner of Bridge and Jackson Streets, and continued to manufacture the weed until the death of Mr. Matthews.

Mr. Wright then became a partner in the firm of Newsom and Wright, and conducted a warehouse for the sale of tobacco for a number of years, but finally moved his family to South Boston and established a hardware business.

He married, November 10, 1859, Lelia Otweannah Johnson, daughter of William and Lucinda (Robertson) Johnson (see Johnson family), who died soon after the birth of her youngest child. The care of his home and children then fell upon his aged mother, who had always lived with him. She was a gentle, refined, sweet-spirited Christian woman, and her loving ministrations will ever be cherished by her grandchildren."

Our Kin also stated that John Mays Wright and Lelia Otweannah (Johnson)

Wright had the following children:

- 1) Estelle Amanda (Wright) Barker, born on September 14, 1860, at Liberty, Bedford County, Virginia;
- 2) John Ashby Wright, born on September 29, 1862, at Bedford County, Virginia;
- 3) Robert Alexander Wright, born on May 2, 1865, and died in infancy;
- 4) Cora Alice Wright, born on April 29, 1866, and died in childhood;
- 5) William Alexander Wright, born on August 15, 1868;
- 6) Caroline Blanche Wright, born on March 17, 1871, and died in infancy;
- 7) Laura Virginia (Wright) Tolley, born on April 29, 1872;
- 8) Mary Elizabeth (Wright) Moose, born on September 29, 1874;
- 9) Lelia Johnson (Wright) Davis, born on July 20, 1877; and
- 10) Tyree Cornelius Wright, born on September 29, 1881, at Liberty, Bedford County, Virginia.

f. Jubel Wright

Jubel Wright was a son of 1850 Tommey Wright of Bedford County and Synthia (Mayse) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1803 John<sup>2</sup>, 1850 Tommey<sup>3</sup>)

As set forth above in connection with 1850 Tommey Wright, if the 1810 Bedford County Census listing for Thomas Wright was really Tommey Wright, then given the dates of birth that are known for James and Joel Wright, Jubel Wright would probably be one of the sons listed as aged 0 to 10 years of age. Those two sons were then listed as aged 16 to 25 in the 1820 Bedford County Census. These listings suggest a probable birth of Jubel Wright between 1800 and 1804. Since his father was residing in Bedford County at that time, his place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

Also as set forth above in connection with 1850 Tommey Wright, the listing in the Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, for Tommey Wright of two white males over the age of 16 on April 13, 1818, and three white males over 16 on March 22, 1819, indicates the attainment of age 16 by Jubal Wright and this places his date of birth between April 13, 1802, and March 22, 1803.

The 1823 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Jubal Wright with the following household on May 23:

Date of Receiving List	Persons Names Chargeable with Tax	Slaves above 12 years of Age	Horses mares colts &amp; Mules	Stud Horses &amp;c	prices p Season $

This record indicates that Jubel Wright was born before May 23, 1802, which, in conjunction with the Personal Property Tax records, would place his date of birth between April 13 and May 23, 1802.

On January 24, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318, Jubel Wright was named as one of the sons of Tommey Wright agreeing to support his father, mother, and sister in exchange for certain land and property owned by his father and mother:

On about August 25, 1828, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers George Gish, assignee of James West, filed a complaint against Jubal Wright and James Wright for payment of the promissory note for $35.12 1/2:

"Bedford County, to wit

In the Support Agreement Amendment dated November 19, 1845, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 32/207 James and Joel Wright were referred to as the "surviving parties of the second part", suggesting that Jubel had died between April 28, 1828, and November 19, 1845.

There is no marriage bond for a Jubel Wright in Amherst, Bedford, or Franklin Counties, nor is there a listing for a Jubel Wright in any censuses from 1810 to 1850 for Bedford or Franklin Counties. There is, however, a listing in Hinshaw of a Jubal Wright as surety for the marriage bond of Eliza Jane Wright, daughter of Phebe, and Samuel H. Claytor dated June 22, 1849, which would be inconsistent with his death prior to 1845, as suggested by Bedford County Deed 32/207, if the same Jubel Wright were involved. However, the Jubal Wright of the surety bond was almost certainly 1872 Jubal J. Wright, the younger brother of Eliza Jane (Wright) Claytor.

The Agreement dated January 24, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 18/318 listed Nancy Wright as one of the children of 1850 Tommey Wright and Synthia (Mayse) Wright:

". . . . In consideration of the aforesaid estate real and personal conveyed as aforesaid by the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife, the said James Wright, Joel Wright, and Jubel Wright bind themselves, their and each of their heirs, executors, and administrators jointly and severally to provide at all times ample and comfortable support for the said Tommy Wright and his wife during each of their lives of articles of food, clothing and lodging in the houses they now dwell in, suitable to their age and condition, they also bind themselves to provide for their sister Nancy Wright a like ample and comfortable support who is to live in the houses aforesaid with her father & mother so long as she remains a single woman and they further bind themselves to find hourses and saddles for the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife their father and mother to ride to meetings &c, during each of their lives, and also find a horse and saddle for their sister Nancy for the like purposes, so long as she remains single and resides with her father and mother, they further bind themselves to pay to their sister Nancy Wright such sum of money as will make her equal in advance to those of the said Tommy Wrights children who have married and left him, the payment to be made at such time as she may need or require the same to be done. And they further bind themselves to pay within twelve months after the death of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife, to John Wright, Betsy Meador, Polly Mayse and Nancy Wright son and daughters of the said Tommy Wright and Synthia his wife each the sum of two hundred dollars Virginia Currency . . . ."

The marriage bond of Nancy Wright, daughter of Tommey, and Henry H. Chapman was dated on July 13, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Jubel Wright as surety, and the consent and bond provided as follows:

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed a transcription of a letter dated June 4, 1840, from Henry H. Chapman in regard to the pension for his mother Elizabeth Chapman:

"Roanoke County, Virginia
June the 4th 1840

Sir,

I R'd by the politeness of the Hon. R. Craig your official Reply to him touching the widow Elizabeth Chapman's pension papers, which you say have bin examined and placed on your files. You asque Information why he did not apply for a pentian under the act of March 18th, 1818. The reason was under that act the claimant had to make it appeare that his circumstances demanded that petiance which he refused to do, often saying when asqued his reasons for not applying that he would beg before he would take the step necessary to place him on the role as a pentioner. Also saying that it was a position that the government aught not to place a soldier of the Revolution in as the officers of Government well new that the soldiers had bin paid in Continental money which died on their hands not benefiting them anything but the liberties they enjoied. The only objection you say that prevents her being placed on the pention role at this time is the want of Identity. A Nathan Chapman, you say, does appeare on the Va. Role and that it will be required of the claimant to show that this soldier was her Dec'd husband. She can prove that there was a land pention issued for him and that a patent also has bin ishued which patent is now in the hands of her husbands agent for which patent the heirs are now at law. The fact of this patents havin issued you may find by referring to the propper office. The fact is I now of no way to Identify the fact only by the fact as stated in her declaration: 1st his enlistment under Joshua Chafin and in the County of Amelia 2nd ly that his Sertificat was drawn by Foster 3rd ly that he was discharged at old Jamestown, and lastly that there has bin a patent lshued in his name for the servicees alleged. Wee know of no Soldier living that was in the service with him. We therefore want you to take the trouble to Examine the propper office or offices an then say to us If It is or is not made out. If not give us all the Information and as defined as the duties of your office will allow. Wee are very confident that there is no other Nathan Chapman on the Va Role but the one In question.

Yours Respectfully,

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed a copy of an affidavit executed by Benjamin E. Chapman which stated in part as follows:

"A Chancery Suit was conducted in Circuit Court of Roanoke County for the purpose of administering the estate of Henry H. Chapman, deceased, under the short style of "Thomas J. Chapman v. Henry H. Chapman's heirs". The papers in this Chancery Suit being filed in Chancery File No. 382. The Bill of Complaint in this cause alleges, among other things, that Henry H. Chapman "died on the ___ day of October 1862". The record in this case indicates that Henry H. Chapman left at the time of his death the following seven children, towit: Henry Clay Chapman, Pauline C. Gray, F. J. Chapman, Columbia A. Chapman, Thomas J. Chapman, James W. Chapman and Orlanda C. Chapman."

DAR Application #417218 listed the birth date of Nancy (Wright) Chapman as 1807 and her death in 1863. Since Tommey Wright was residing in Bedford County at the time of her birth, the place of birth was probably at Bedford County, Virginia. The birth date of Henry H. Chapman was given as 1793 and his death in 1862. The source given was Application #181551.

DAR Application #417218 also listed one child, Flavius Josephus Chapman, born 1839, died 1894, and married to Clementine Persinger Chapman.

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed a copy of an excerpt from A Brief History of the Chapman Family which stated as follows:

"Henry Harrison Chapman lived his early years in Bedford County. He and Nancy Wright of Bedford County were married on July 15, 1824. They had twelve children, seven of whom survived to adulthood. Sometime before 1830, Henry Harrison left Bedford County with his family and settled near Salem, Virginia. In 1847, Henry Harrison bought Hotel Salem on East Main Street in Salem, which continued to serve the public under family management until 1870. A prosperous man, he built a fine house, called Monterey, a block north-east of the Salem courthouse. It is still in use (1995) though no longer owned by family members. In a local census of slave holders made in 1861, Henry Harrison is listed as the owner of two slaves. Nothing is known about them, whether they wer field hands or house servants. So far as has been recorded, he was the only slave owner in the family.

One of his grandchildren remembered him as something of a scholar, - "Always with a book in his hand." He was a Mason, and in a phtograph of him as an older man he is holding a long-stemmed clay pipe. He died October 4, 1862; his wife Nancy died a few months later, January 24, 1863. They are buried in East Hill Cemetery in Salem, surrounded by their kin. . . ."

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed a photograph of Nancy (Wright) Chapman and Henry Harrison Chapman:

Salem's first tavern to bear the name hotel was operating in 1818 — 16 years after the town was founded — and for nearly 90 years served the public at sites that are now at a busy East Main Street intersection.

The Salem Hotel originally stood on the north side of Roanoke (Main) Street and became a waystop on a well-traveled, dirt road. By 1822, buildings directly across the street, on the south side, were in use as a hotel annex.

Today the sites are at Main and Thompson Memorial Drive, the original hotel about in the middle of what is Thompson Drive itself, just west of a fast food restaurant, and the annex on the southeast corner on frontage extending eastward about 250 feet.

Charles Lynch Mitchell owned the tavern in July 1818 and had moved to Salem the year before from Liberty (Bedford). That July he sold it and an adjoining tract of 250 acres to Christopher Clark of Campbell County. Mitchell is the first recorded operator, and it is likely that he had it built.

"The tavern including all the houses appurtenant on both sides of the street at the east end of the Town of Salem," as the deed put it, was sold in May 1822 to Charles Green for $3,000. Twelve months later Green received $4,500 for the same property from George Hancock of Montgomery County. Included in the record for the first time were rights to pipe water to the hotel from a spring on the east slope of the

not missed until about 9 o'clock, when his daughters, becoming alarmed, commenced to search for him and an hour or so later found him lying on his side dead on the edge of a piece of woods. Near him was a young crow, which it is thought he had chased, and the exertion was too much for his heart, which was weak. Mr. Chapman was 63 years of age and leaves three grown daughters and two sons. He had just been appointed deputy marshal by United States Marshal Levi, and had sent on his bond only a few days ago. Thomas J. Chapman was 26 when he died, son of a prominent family headed by Henry H. and Nancy W. Chapman. He was born at the family home a block northeast of the courthouse at what is today "Monterey" and was graduated from Roanoke College."

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed family group sheets which stated that Thomas James Chapman was a son of Nancy (Wright) Chapman and Henry Harrison Chapman, was born on January 20, 1837, and died on December 16, 1863, in a skirmish with Union cavalry at Hanging Rock.

vii. Flavius Josephus Chapman, His Wife Clementine (Persinger) Chapman, And His Descendants

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Josephus Chapman and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1840.

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed and excerpt from Salem: A Virginia Chronicle by Norwood C. Middleton which stated as follows:

"Private enterprise brought Salem its water works and electric lights, although both found their way into municipal ownership fairly soon after they went into operation.

Proposals for a water system that would free residents from dependence on wells and springs were advanced to the council in mid-1874, and conferences on them continued until May 1875, when a referendum to approve financing by bonds was held. Flavius Josephus Chapman, an entrepreneur in many phases of local development, won the contract in March 1876 on a 4-2 vote in which aldermen W. D. F. Duval, Zebulon Boon, William Karnes and John W. Hurt prevailed over the opposition of Robert McClelland and F. C. Burdett. The mayor, Dr. W. D. Armstrong, who ordinarily would vote only to break a tie, supported the contract award in his exercise of the proxy of Hurt, who was absent. Chapman's proposal was the only one under consideration, but the underlying cause for the split is not clear. A former mayor, James Chalmers, led spirited citizen opposition to the appropriation.

Chapman's contract price was $11,167. An astute and energetic planner, he seized upon a water works as a companion project to a resort hotel he was building at Johnston's Spring in West Salem. Grading of three lakes to serve as a reservoir went forward in the spring of 1876 at the same time the imposing Lake Spring Hotel was rising 50 to 100 yards to the east. The hotel opened in July, and the water system was accepted in December.

Pipes were to carry water throughout the town from the 150,000 gallon reservoir, which a pump was to keep filled at the rate of 50,000 gallons a day from the Johnston Spring, and from the Roanoke River when the spring flow was inadequate. The water rate was $5 per year for five-member families; $1 per room for hotels and boarding houses; $10 for bar rooms; and $15 for restaurants with bar rooms.

Hardly had the system been formally accepted than problems developed at the reservoir, leading to a decision to retain part of a scheduled final payment to Chapman. Shortages occurred each of the following two summers, and at the height of the 1878 drought Chapman was notified to show cause why his contract should not be forfeited. He won a reprieve, but three years later when the reservoir fell to an intolerably low level, the council ordered the contract forfeited. Chapman's plea for reconsideration failed. The town built a dam across the river, made extensive equipment repairs, and took over operations.

A series of fits and starts brought the newly invented telephone into use in Salem between the late 1880s and mid-1890s. This was at a time when the telegraph, having been used extensively during the war and by the railroads, was experiencing steady growth under Western Union.

As usual, F. J. "Joe" Chapman was looking ahead when, amid news of the magic of voices traveling over wires, he received permission from the town in 1877 to connect by telephone or telegraph his three hotels, the new Lake Spring Hotel in West Salem, the Central on the hill uptown, and his Roanoke Red Sulphur Spring resort in Catawba Valley. While this was a telegraph hookup, Chapman's telephone option was nine years ahead of the next franchise for a phone line.

Other hotels were doing better, particularly those in the main business area. W. D. F. Duval, in 1871, replaced his aging frame Duval House on the crest of the Main Street hill with a three-story brick hotel that weathered two severe depressions before being sold in 1890 to the "Joe" Chapman family. The Chapmans had two or three good years at their renamed Lucerne before the financial setback from the fire at Lake Spring and the 1893 recession, as a result of which ownership reverted to Duval. Chapman had sold an East Main Street hotel bearing his name to Philip Reed in 1870; it became the Virginia House and entertained summer guests for some 30 years before falling into disrepair.

Lake Spring by now had become something of a mecca since it was the only park in town. Its waters were flowing into some homes through pipelines constructed in 1876 by F. J. "Joe" Chapman at the same time he built the Lake Spring resort hotel on the site. After the hotel was destroyed by fire in 1892, ownership of the hotel grounds and of the spring-fed lakes, which were the very heart of the water supply, shifted from financially troubled Chapman to a New York building and loan association."

DAR Application #417218 stated that Flavius Josephus Chapman was born on June 29, 1839, married Clementine Persinger in 1865, and died in 1894 at Salem,

Roanoke County, Virginia, that Clementine (Persinger) Chapman was born on April 16, 1843, and died in 1928 at Roanoke, Virginia, and that they had the following child:

- 1) Clementine (Chapman) Hutchinson, born on June 10, 1877, at Salem, Roanoke County, Virginia.

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed and excerpt from A Brief History of the Chapman Family which stated as follows:

"Henry Harrison's son, Flavius Josephus Chapman, is our ancestor. He was born June 29, 1839, in a house one mile west of Salem. His early schooling was at the historic McCauley School House. When he was twelve years old he was apprenticed to The Beacon, the first newspaper published in Salem, and he became a compositor. After three or four years working at the newspaper, he took charge of his father's hotel, Hotel Salem, and after his father's death when Joe was twenty-three he continued to manage it.

After the Civil War began, in April, 1861, the first unit of volunteers for the Confederate Army left Salem, bound for Lynchburg. Joe's older brother, Thomas, was a captain in the local militia or Home Guard. Joe was a private in the same unit, and so far as can be determined, he never saw any active duty. During the early years of the war, Salem was not in the path of military action and life was basically unchanged."

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed family group sheets which stated that Flavius Josephus Chapman was a son of Nancy (Wright) Chapman and Henry Harrison Chapman, was born on June 29, 1839, married Clementine Persinger on September 7, 1864, at Roanoke County, Virginia, and died on February 1, 1894, that Clementine (Persinger) Chapman was born on April 16, 1843, died on October 23, 1928, and was buried at Easthill Cemetery, Salem, Roanoke County, Virginia, and that Flavius Josephus Wright and Clementine (Persinger) Wright had the following children:

- 1) James Henry or Harry Chapman, born on December 5, 1865, at Roanoke County, Virginia,
- 2) Nannie W. (Chapman) Shanks, born in about 1869,
- 3) Thomas Clay Chapman, born on December 2, 1870, at Roanoke County, Virginia,
- 4) Martha B. Chapman, born in March 1873,

- 5) Flavius Josephus Chapman, Jr., born on March 16, 1875,
- 6) Clementine D. Chapman, born on June 10, 1877, at Roanoke County, Virginia,
- 7) Willison Watts Chapman, born in July 1879, and
- 8) Emma or Emaline Chapman, born on August 17, 1881, at Roanoke County, Virginia.

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Columbia L. V. Chapman in the Henry H. Chapman household and her age as 8 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1842.

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed family group sheets which stated that Columbia A. L. V. Chapman was a daughter of Nancy (Wright) Chapman and Henry Harrison Chapman, was born in about 1842 and married John Henry Palmer in 1864 at Roanoke County, Virginia, that John Henry Palmer was a doctor, and that Columbia A. xi. James W. Chapman

The 1850 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed James Chapman in the Henry H. Chapman household and his age as 6 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1844.

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed family group sheets which stated that James W. Chapman was a son of Nancy (Wright) Chapman and Henry Harrison Chapman, was born on December 19, 1847, and died on March 28, 1906.

xii. Harrison Chapman

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed notes which stated that the 1880 Census for Roanoke County, Virginia, listed Hadassa Chapman in the Lucy Johnson household with the following family:

Names	Color	Sex	Age
Hadassa Chapman	W	F	31
James Chapman			9

In her letter dated October 27, 1998, Angela Brigman enclosed family group sheets which stated that Orlando B. Johnston on August 19, 1870, at Roanoke County, Virginia, and died on October 1, 1879, that Hadassah B. (Johnston) Chapman was born in 1849, and that Orlando B. Chapman and Hadassah B. (Johnston) Chapman had the following children:

- 1) James Chapman, born in 1871,
- 2) Earnest Chapman, born in 1874, and
- 3) Mary Chapman, born in 1878.

2. Sarah (Wright) Wheeler And Her Husband William Wheeler

Sarah (Wright) Wheeler was a daughter of 1803 John Wright of Bedford County and Elizabeth (Pate) Wright. (1763 Thomas<sup>1</sup>, 1803 John<sup>2</sup>)

If Sarah (Wright) Wheeler was at least 16 years old at the time of her marriage, her birth date would be probably before 1770. If she was the second child and Tommey Wright was born in 1763 or 1764, her birth date would be possibly in 1765 or 1766.

The 1786 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed William Wheeler with the following household:

Name	Total Tithes	Whites Over 21	Blacks Over 16	Blacks Under 16	Total Blacks
William Wheeler	-	-	-	-	-

April 27	William Wheeler	1	-	3

The 1790 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed William Wheeler with the following household on March 16:

March 16	William Wheeler	1	-	3

In her email dated February 9, 2002, Gaye M. Whitehead stated that the 1792 Personal Property Tax List for Kanawha County, Virginia, listed William Wheeler, along with Roland Wheeler and Roland Wheeler, Jr., but that the 1793 and 1794 Personal Property Tax Lists did not list William Wheeler. Since Roland Wheeler was surety on the William Wheeler marriage bond and William Wheeler did not appear in the 1791 or later Personal Property Tax Lists for Bedford County, Virginia, this 1792 listing in Kanawha County, Virginia, was probably for William Wheeler who married Sarah Wright.

The will of 1803 John Wright dated August 11, 1803, and probated on September 26, 1803 at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 3/3 listed Sarah as one of his children:

" . . . . Secondly I do give to my daughter Sarah one negroe Girl named Rachel and ten pounds in property to be delivered to her whenever my wife thinks proper, . . . ."

In her email dated February 9, 2002, Gaye M. Whitehead stated that the 1810 Census for Jackson County, Tennessee, listed William Wheeler with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
1	26-45	1	26-45
4	0-10	2	0-10

As will be set forth below, William Wheeler and Sarah (Wright) Wheeler are known to have been in Jackson County, Tennessee, by September 25, 1810. This record indicates that Sarah (Wright) Wheeler and William Wheeler were born between 1765 and 1784.

On September 25, 1810, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 13/589 William Wheeler and his wife Sally of Jackson County, Tennessee, sold 59 acres of land on Beaverdam Creek to Anthony Wright:

Although the legal description is confused and there were apparently some copying errors in writing or recording the deed, it is nevertheless clear that William Wheeler and his wife Sarah "Sally" (Wright) Wheeler had moved to Jackson County, Tennessee, and were living there on September 25, 1810.

Index To The 1820 Census Of Tennessee, compiled by Elizabeth Petty Bentley, listed a William Wheeler in Jackson County, Tennessee, in 1820.

Tennessee 1830 Census Index, published by Accelerated Indexing Systems, listed a William Wheeler in Jackson County, Tennessee in 1830.

That 1830 Census listed William Wheeler, aged 60 to 70, and one female in his household, also aged 60 to 70. This listing indicates a date of birth for both William and Sarah of between 1760 and 1770.

1850 Census Tennessee, compiled by Byron and Barbara Sistler, listed no William Wheeler or Sarah Wheeler household in Jackson County, Tennessee, or of the appropriate age in any county, but in her letter dated July 1, 1987, Pat Spurlock Ford stated that the 1850 Census contained the following household:

#1186-641

Name	Age	Born
Wheler, Jos	34	Tennessee
Agness	23	Tennessee
Julia	16	Tennessee
Elija	14	Tennessee
Granville	10	Tennessee
Zeporah	4	Tennessee
Harrison	3	Tennessee
Aletha	1	Tennessee
William	85	Virginia

This listing is consistent with William Wheeler's date of birth and further research may confirm Joseph Wheeler as his son or grandson.

Tennessee Genealogical Research by George K. Schweitzer stated that many of the records of Jackson County, Tennessee, were destroyed in a fire in 1872 and, therefore, it may be difficult to trace this family further.

In her letter dated February 25, 1987, Mrs. Joe T. Cooke reviewed the information she had been able to locate on William Wheeler.

First, a William Wheeler was listed on the Tax Lists for Jackson County, Tennessee, for the period 1804 through 1811, the only surviving tax lists in the Archives.

Second, there were a number of land grants for William Wheeler in the Mountain District of Jackson County:

- #9673, 75 acres, October 1, 1816, Book 6, page 537;
- #9674, 25 acres, October 1, 1816, Book M, page 911;
- #9762, 20 acres, December 13, 1816, Book 6, page 656;
- #9763, 5 acres, December 13, 1816, Book 6, page 646;
- #10182, 5 acres, June 17, 1817, Book 6, page 725;
- #10214, 10 acres, June 21, 1817, Book 6, page 714;
- #10749, 15 acres, September 8, 1817, Book 8, page 293;
- #1987, 130 acres, August 13, 1825, Book 2, page 113; and
- #2154, 100 acres, August 16, 1825, Book 2, page 284.

Third, Tennessee Records Of Jackson County Ranger Book 1817-1860, W.P.A., June, 1936, page 3, named William Wheeler in connection with the recording of marks identifying his cattle:

"February 19th, 1818. Taken up by William Wheeler living on dry Fork of Flins Creek one Red Brindle steer white face white white on his ears marked with a swallow Fork in the right ear Three years olde posts appraised to six dollars by Thomas Brown and John Brown $6.00. Cow Transmitted 6:00."

Fourth, Mrs. Cooke found a deed for a Wheeler dated 1865 for the Wheeler farm described as "10 mi S.W. of Gainesboro, 4 mi. of Highway 53, up Any Form of Flynn's Creek, 6 mi. N.E. of Granville, Tennessee," but it is not certain that this is the same family or farm as that mentioned in the Ranger Book. In her email dated June 10, 2002, Mary Lu Johnson stated that the legal description should read Dry Fork of Flynn's Creek, not Any Form, and, therefore, the same land is probably involved.

Fifth, no wills for Wheelers could be found for the period 1869 to 1900, no tombstone records listing a Wheeler could be found, and no listing of a William Wheeler could be found in the Minutes of Cumberland Presbyterian Church 1811-1935, Register of Church of Christ 1844-1936, Jackson County Miscellaneous Records, 1810-1909, or Bible Records of East Tennessee, Volumes 1 through 4.

However, the 1830 Census for Jackson County, Tennessee, listed the following Wheelers in addition to William Wheeler and one or more of these may be children of William and Sarah (Wright) Wheeler:

3. 1850 Anthony Wright Of Bedford County, His Wives Elizabeth (Mayse) Wright And Catherine (St. Clair) (Wright) Wright, And His Descendants

The marriage bond of Anthony Wright, son of John, and Elizabeth Mays was dated on December 18, 1789, at Bedford County, Virginia, with James Mays as surety, and the marriage performed by Nathaniel Shrewsbury on December 29, 1789:

"Sir,

I do hereby give my Consent _____ you should Issue License for the Inter_____ of my Son Anthony with Elizabeth M_____

The Condition of this Obligation is such that whereas there is a Marriage Shortly intended to be had & Solemnized between the above bound Anthony Wright & Elizabeth Mays now if there shall be no lawful Cause to obstruct the said Marriage then the above Obligation to be void else to remain in full force

Anthony Wright
James Mayse

Sir I do hereby Certify that the following marriages was Lawfully Solemnized by _____ To wit . . . .

December 29th 1789 Anthony Wright & Betsey Mayse . . . .

Pr Nathaniel Shrewsbury"

If Anthony Wright was at least 18 years of age when he married, his date of birth would be probably before 1772. The consent by the father of the groom to the marriage indicates that Anthony Wright was under the age of 21 years at the time of the marriage and, therefore, was born after December 18, 1768.

DAR Genealogical Records for Bedford County, Virginia, citing a Bible Record of Joseph Wright Mays of Chamblissburg, Bedford County, Virginia, included the following listing:

"John Wright d. 1803 His son Anthony m. Betsey Mays December 29, 1789.
They were the parents of Malinda Wright Mays."

The 1790 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Anthony Wright with the following household on March 13:

Dates of Receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons Names Chargable with the Tax	No. of Tithes Black &amp; White	No. of Blacks over 12	Horses Mares Colts &amp; Mules
March 13	Anthony Wright	1		2

Carriage Wheels	Ordinary License	Billiard Tables	No of Studs	Rates of Covering
------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	--------------------	--------------------------

The fact that Anthony Wright was listed as a tithable for the first time in 1790 indicates that his date of birth was before March 14, 1769. Since the only land known to have been owned by Anthony Wright's father, 1803 John Wright, between 1765 and 1770 was Bedford Deed 2/83 in Bedford County, the place of birth of Anthony was most probably at the family residence on that piece of land in Bedford County.

The 1790 Land Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Anthony Wright with the following property:

Persons Names Owning Land	No of Lotts	Yearly Rent of Lotts	Quantity of Land	Rate of Land per acre

In June 1816 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 17/178

Anthony Wright filed evidence of his payment of taxes on land listed as delinquent:

"On the motion of Anthony Wright who exhibited satisfactory evidence of his having been pryor to the 1st of June 1812 a bona fide purchaser and had a deed to certain piece of land returned delinquent in the name of Archelaus Wheeler for 104 acres returned in the year 1790 also Wm Carnute for fifty acres for the years 1786 "87 & "88 also Charles McManima for 50 acres part of 150 for the year 1800 also Yancy Holman for 163 acres for the years 1786 "87 & "94 took the oath prescribed by law Judgment is given in his favour exhonerating the said lands so claimed by him from all arrears of taxes & damages due thereon anterior to the date of such purchase, the attorney for the ComWealth present"

The parcel referred to as 107 acres listed as delinquent to Archelaus Wheeler is of uncertain identification. The only parcel owned by Anthony Wright which seems to match this land is Patent Deed 24/379 obtained by him on November 17, 1791. This may have been a patent of land originally claimed by Archelaus Wheeler, but as to which a patent and clear title were never obtained. The William Carnute parcel for 50 acres apparently referred to the land purchased by Bedford Deed 9/22 dated November 12, 1791, from Reuben Carnute. The Charles McManima parcel for 50 acres apparently referred to the land purchased by Bedford Deed 11/83 dated June 24, 1799, from Charles McMannama. And the Yancy Holman parcel of 163 acres apparently referred to the land purchased by Bedford Deed 12/102 dated September 19, 1806, from Joseph Wright.

On August 28, 1816, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 15/593 Anthony Wright purchased 30 acres of land from the Sheriff of Bedford County at a tax sale:

On September 13, 1824, Levi Loyd filed a complaint against Anthony Wright, Senior, Anthony Wright, Junior, and Stephen Haynes in the Superior Court of Law and Chancery, Lynchburg, Virginia, File 548, alleging fraud in the sale of a horse:

"To the Honorable Creed Taylor Judge ) of the Superior Court of Chancery for )
The Lynchburg dictrict )

Humbly complaining shew unto your Honor your Orator Levi Loyd of the county of Bedford that some time in the year 18_ he purchased a sorrel Horse of a certain Anthony Wright Junr of the county of Franklin at the price of ninety dollars for which he executed his bond payable the 25th day of December next after said contract to the said Wright, that immediately before the said contract the said Wright warranted the said horse to be sound and healthy and your Orator avers that this warranty upon the part of the said Wright was the inducement with him to buy the horse at the price demanded - Yet notwithstanding the warranty aforesaid, and the repeated declarations of the said Wright that the said horse was sound -. The said horse was unsound and unhealthy being subject to periodical fits, and this fact was at the time of the contract aforesaid distinctly known to the said Wright your Orator expects to be able to prove that the said Horse had been taken with many fits in the presence of said Wright, and that the warranty aforesaid was intended to deceive and defraud your Orator. -

Your Orator further states that the said horse in consequence of the disease aforesaid was rendered of little or no value, that on the very day of the sale and contract aforesaid without your Orator having any intimation of the disease aforesaid whatever, traded the said horse to a certain Stephen Haynes of the county of Bedford as a sound horse and to whom your Orator is now liable upon his warranty aforesaid. -

Your Orator further represents to your Honor that the said Anthony Wright Junior is entirely without any visible property is a young man of idle habits and wholly insufficient to pay any damages that your Orator might recover of him on account of the warranty aforesaid, and in order if possible to obtain the money from your Orator has assigned the bond aforesaid to a certain Anthony Wright Senr who has obtained a judgment against your Orator on the bond aforesaid at the last term of the Superior court of Bedford and who threatens to harrass your Orator with an Execution, all which actings and doings are contrary to equity and good conscience and who manifestly to the injury and oppression of your Orator who is remediless in the premises in a court of common law and only relieveable in Equity where matters of this kind are cognisable to the end that the said Anthony Wright Junior Anthony Wright senr. and Stephen Haynes may be made Defendants to this bill and compelled to answer the allegations thereof on their corporal oaths truly and perfectly and finally may it please your Honor to enjoin the judgment at law aforesaid until the matter herein can be heard in equity, direct ans. issue or issues to determine the injury done to your Orator on account of the false Warranty aforesaid and grant process to and such other and further relief in the premises as the nature of this case may require or to your Honor may seem meet and proper &c &c

"Oct term 1824

On October 25, 1824, in File 548, Anthony Wright, Jr., filed his answer denying the alleged fraud:

"To the Honourable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg district.

The Answer of Anthony Wright junr to a bill of injunction exhibit in this Court by Levi Loyd against him the said Anthony Wright junr and Anthony Wright senr and Stephen Haynes this respondent saving to himself the benefit of all exceptions to the complainants bill in answer thereto says that he did as stated in the bill sell to the complainant a horse at the price of ninety dollars; your respondent denies that he made any warranty as to the soundness of the horse & denies that the horse was unsound or that he was subject to periodical fits; whilst your respondent owned him he was a sound healthy horse & Your respondent denies any desingn to cheat said Loyd or any body else the horse was well worth the money he sold him for; the said horse was purchased by said Loyd for Stephen Haynes to whom he was immediatly delivered and was never used by said Loyd in any way whatever

Your respondent utterly denies that he either did or intended to practise a fraud on said Loyd it is true he has for a valuable consideration transferred the said bond to Anthony Wright Senr who is fairly entitled to the money & having fully answered he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs & that the injunction awarded the complainant may be dissolved and as in duty bound he will ever pray &c

On the same day in File 548, Anthony Wright, Senior, also filed his answer to the complaint denying any knowledge of the alleged fraud:

"To the Honourable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg district

The Answer of Anthony Wright Senr to a bill of injunction exhibited in this Court by Levi Loyd against Anthony Wright junr him the said Anthony Wright Senr & Stephen Haynes this respondent saving to himself the benefit of all exceptions to the complainants bill for answer thereto says that he was not present at the time the horse was sold to the said Levi Loyd _____ & consequently knows nothing about the sale or the warranty & he knows nothing about any unsoundness in the horse

he bought the bond of said Anthony Wright junor & paid a full consideration for it; having fully answered he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs in this behalf expended & that the said injunction be dissolved & is duty bound he will ever pray

And on the same day in File 548, Stephen Haynes filed his answer denying the allegations that he intended to sue Levi Loyd:

"To the Honourable Creed Taylor Judge of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Lynchburg district.

The Answer of Stephen Haynes to a bill of injunction exhibit in this Court by Levi Loyd against Anthony Wright junr Anthony Wright - senr & him the said Stephen Haynes this respondent saving to himself the benefit af all exceptions to the complainants bill for answer thereto says that he traded with said Levi Loyd for a horse which he Loyd had that day bought of Anthony Wright junr that this is the same horse mentioned in the bill; this respondent traded for him immediately after Loyd bought him & received him out of said Wright's possession.

Your respondent kept the horse about six months; he does not believe he laboured under any disease whatever & is certain he had none that injured him; he thinks he was as good a horse as he ever owned it is true the horse had an odd & curious trick at times of stopping & throwing up his head but your respondent never looked at this as a disease it was on the contrary a mere trick & one that was of no real injury to the horse.

Your respondent parted with this horse at a price he was satisfied with he has never heard that any of his subsequent owners was dissatisfied with him. Your respondent never expressed any dissatisfaction about this horse to Loyd or any body else never threatened or intended to sue Loyd or any body else about him indeed he was very well pleased with his trade he is therefore much astonished Loyd should make him a party to this suit & put him to the trouble of putting in an answer if Loyd had come to him he would have released him in any way from all liability to him from his warranty & he now declares that he holds the said Loyd in no way responsible under his warranty with respect to the horse & discharges him from liability under it & having fully answered he prays to be hence dismissed with his costs in his behalf expended & as &c.

Assuming that the oldest male in the households for the 1810 through 1840 Censuses for Bedford was Anthony Wright, his date of birth can be calculated as between 1765 and 1770. Assuming that Anthony Wright's wife Elizabeth (Mayse) Wright was the oldest female in the households listed in the censuses from 1810 to 1840, her birth date would be between 1765 and 1770.

Following Anthony Wright's death and on September 20, 1850, his sole surviving son Joseph Wright and one of his daughters Elizabeth (Wright) (Wright) Ramsey nominated his grandson Anthony P. Wright to be administrator of the estate. A copy of that nomination is in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 682 and provided as follows:

"I do here by certify that it is my request that A. P. Wright serve as admistrator of my father estat and also that the said A. P. Wright be appointed the comitioner to sell the above property mention

In about September 1850 Anthony P. Wright instituted a suit in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File No. 682, for an order authorizing the sale of Anthony Wright's land to satisfy the division of the estate among the widow Catherine and Anthony Wright's descendants. All of the potential distributees, except Rhoda (Wright) Wright and Celia (Wright) Wright who were out of the state, joined in the request for the sale. The complaint provided as follows:

"To the worshipful the Justices of the County Court of Bedford in Chancery sitting

At a Circuit Court held for Bedford County April 12- 1851

The foregoing list of sales of the estate of Anthony Wright deceased was produced in court and it is ordered that the same be recorded

On April 14, 1851, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court Order Book 2/592 the court ordered an allotment of the dower land of Catherine (Wright) (St. Clair)

Wright from the estate of John St. Clair and a distribution of the remainder of the estate to his heirs:

"Anthony Wright & Catharine	)

It appearing to the Court that the plaintiff Anthony Wright has departed this life, the fact is ordered to be suggested of record, - and by consent, it is ordered that this cause be revived & further proceeded in, in the name of Anthony P. Wright admr. of said Anthony Wright decd - And this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read, and the reports of John Huddleston, F. H. Jeter & James H Buford, three of the Commissioners appointed by a former decree in this cause to lay off to the female plaintiff Catharine Wright, her dower in the lands of her deceased husband & testator John St Clair, & the report of James F. Johnson the Commissioner appointed to sell the land in the bill mentioned, to which reports there is no exception, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court approving said reports doth confirm them - and doth adjudge, order and decree that the female plaintiff, Catharine Wright, do hold and enjoy for and during her natural life, the parcel of Sixty Seven and 3/4 acres of land, laid off and mentioned in the report first above named as & for her dower in the lands of her deceased husband John St Clair deceased - And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that James F. Johnson who is hereby appointed a Commissioner for that purpose, do after having executed bond with security to be approved by the Clerk of this Court, conditioned according to law, withdraw the bonds returned with his report, and collect the same, and when collected he shall distribute the proceeds thereof, together with the amount already received by him, in the following manner - He shall in the first place pay all the costs attending the sale of said land, & the laying off the dower aforesaid, including his legal charges for commissions, and also pay all the costs of this suit - that he do then divide the residue of the money into seven equal parts - and pay two parts thereof to Anthony P. Wright admr. of Anthony Wright deceased he being entitled to the same by virtue of the transfers from Joseph D St. Clair and Adaline St. Clair in the bill mentioned - that he pay another part thereof to the deft Nancy St. Clair, another part to the defendants James Patteson & Sally his wife, another part thereof to the defendant Henry T. St Clair - another part thereof to the deft Catharine St. Clair - and the remaining part to the legally qualified guardian of the Defts. John H. Joseph, Mary E, Abram B., Susan F. & Nancy C. St. Clair - and liberty is reserved to any of the parties to apply to this Court for any future order in this cause to carry out the purposes of this decree."

Although authorization to sell the land and slaves of the estate of Anthony Wright was granted in December 1850, the court on August 18, 1852, appointed a commissioner to determine the proper division of the estate, taking into account any advancements made during Anthony Wright's lifetime to his children. The gist of the dispute that had developed related to the proper division of the estate among the heirs. Allegations were made that Anthony Wright gave land to his son Solomon Wright, for which Solomon's heirs should be charged as an advancement, and that Anthony Wright took his daughter Elizabeth (Wright) (Wright) Ramsey and her children into his home after her husband's death and gave her support and other property, for which she should be charged as an advancement, that Anthony Wright became incapable of transacting business after 1840, with the implication that gifts made by him after 1840 to Elizabeth (Wright) (Wright) Ramsey and her son Anthony P. Wright were obtained through their undue influence over him. The dispute resulted in numerous filings in the estate, including depositions, reports, exceptions, and arguments of counsel.

On November 30, 1852, in File 682 the deposition of Anthony P. Wright was taken and dealt in part with a book Anthony Wright kept in which he listed the advancements on their inheritance which Anthony had made to his children during his lifetime:

"State whether in whose handwriting is the Book now shown to you marked A and commencing A Memorandum -

Ans. I have seen Anthony Wright Senior deceased write, and believe the book now shewn to me to be in his hand writing.

By the same - State if you ever had any conversation with Anthony Wright Senior dec in his lifetime in regard to the land conveyed by him to Solomon Wright: if so, state what that conversation was:

Ans. I have frequently had conversation with Anthony Wright Senior dec in regard to the land conveyed by him to Solomon Wright. - He said that he did not intend to charge his son Solomon rent for the land, for if he did, it would eat of his interest in his estate - The land he spoke of is the same land charged on the book just shewn to me. And this conversation took place when he was running the line between myself & Wheeler, and shortly before the deed was made by him to us - in the year 1840 or 1841 - somewhere about that time.

Ques. by counsel of Joel M. Wright & others- Did you regard Anthony Wright Sen about the time he was running the line you have mentioned as of unsound mind:

Ans. I considered him at that time as of as sound mind as he was at anytime I same him from 1841 to the time of his death. At the time the conversation took place he was running the line between Wheeler & myself & said he wished to run the line so as to give Wheeler timber to keep up his outside fence.

By the same - Had you not heard Anthony Wright Senior say previous to this conversation that he was not capable of transacting business.

Ans. I have heard him say that at times he was not capable of transacting business, but whether it was before this conversation, or after, I do not remember.

Question by Counsel for Mrs. Gish - At the time of the conversation alluded to in your former answer, did Anthony Wright converse in[te]lligibly about dividing the lands between Wheeler and yourself and did he seem to understand what he was about -

Ans. He did converse intelligibly about it, & seemed to understand what he about -"

That same day in File 682 the deposition of James Wright was taken on the same subject:

"Ques. by cons - A Book is shewn to you mark A & commencing "A memorandum of property of that my children has had that they have to account with one another after my death -

Say whether you are acquainted with the handwriting of Anthony Wright Sen dec and also in whose handwriting the book now shewn to you is.

Ans. I believe the book now shewn to me to be in the handwriting of Anthony Wright Sen. I have seen his handwriting frequently & think I know his handwriting - though I do not remember that I ever saw him write - I have had his bond which he paid.

James Wright"

On February 3, in File 682 a further deposition of Anthony P. Wright was taken 1853, regarding advancements made to his mother Elizabeth Ramsey:

"Ques. by _____ Claytor - State how many hogs, sheep, cattle and milch cows - how many barrels of corn & other property, did you receive from Anthony Wright deceased for Elizabeth Wright, when you removed to the place where you now live?

Ans. I received no property of any kind from Anthony Wright deceased for Elizabeth Wright when I removed to the place where I now live.

By the same - Did Anthony Wright in his lifetime advance to your mother, Elizabeth Wright within your knowledge any property of any kind: If so - state what that property was: & its value

Ans. He gave her one half of the land conveyed to her and myself - an interest in certain negroes also conveyed - and a black horse -

Anthony P. Wright"

On February 3, 1853, in File 682 the deposition of Thomas Nelson was also taken regarding the advancements made to Elizabeth Ramsey:

"Ques. by _____ Claytor. State whether it comes within your knowledge that Elizabeth Wright & her children boarded with Anthony Wright dec in his lifetime: If so, how many of them boarded with him, and how long:

Ans. Elizabeth Wright and her three children boarded with Anthony Wright, but how long I cannot tell - After they had boarded with him some years, the old man built a house in which Elizabeth Wright and her children lived - they were furnished with some part of their provisions by him, after they went to live to themselves, as I understood.

By the same - During the time they lived with the old man, were the services of Anthony P. Wright worth their board:

Ans. I should not suppose they were.

By the same - Do you think that $30 per year for the board of Elizabeth Wright and her children, after deducting the services of Anthony P. Wright, would be reasonable charge:

Ans. - I think it would be too high for the whole time - Anthony was a right smart boy - perhaps $25 would not be high

By the same. Did Elizabeth Wright render to the old man any services during the time she lived with him:

Ans. I cannot say - I judged they lived together pretty much as a family and her services were for the benefit of the family.

Ques. by W.O.? Jordan Counsel - How old was Anthony P. Wright when he went to live with Anthony Wright:

Ans. I understand by him that he was six years old.

By the same - Did Anthony P. Wright go to school in the meantime: if so, say who paid for his clothes & education:

Ans. - He went to school, but I do not know who paid.

By the same - What would board a grown woman & three children for year:

Ans. - I cannot form any estimate of what it was worth taking into consideration their services - for Wright was somewhat afflicted.

By the same - Does it come within your knowledge that Anthony P. Wright ever received any compensation for his services during the time he lived with the old man -

Ans. - He got some land & a mare, but whether as compensation for his services or not, I cannot tell.

By A. P. Wright - Did Elizabeth Wright ever weave, or sew, and do other work for the old man, after they left home:

Ans. I do not know - her daughter I think lived with him, and wove for him

Thomas Nelson

By _____ Claytor - State what was the state of Anthony Wright's mind from 1840 to the time of his death: whether he was capable of managing his own business.

Ans. I think that at sometimes, he was scarcely capable of transacting his own business - I lived about three quarters of a mile from him. Saw him frequently

Thomas Nelson"

On February 17, 1853, in File 682 Anthony P. Wright was deposed again regarding any agreement between his grandfather Anthony Wright and his mother Elizabeth Ramsey to pay board:

"Ques. by _____ - State if you know on what terms your mother Elizabeth Wright lived with her father Anthony Wright: whether there was any contract to pay him board:

Ans. There was no contract for board that I ever knew of. I have heard it frequently spoken of between my mother and her father - and he always expressed himself satisfied with the services of herself & children for her board. There were some of his children who wished him to charge her board - but I heard him tell her on the day he came to get his license to marry the second time, that he never intended to charge her board.

By Wm. G. Jordan Counsel

State in what year the conversation you have alluded to took place:

Ans. I cannot say - by reference to the clerk's office, it will be seen at what time he got his license.

By the same - Might not your grandfather after the conversation you have spoken of have changed his mind and charged you mother board

Ans. I do not know - if he did, I did not know it.

Anthony P. Wright"

On May 1, 1853, in File 682 the deposition of John J. Dent was taken regarding property received by Elizabeth Ramsey from her father:

"Ques. by _____? Counsel. Do you know or not of Elizabeth Ramsey receiving (?) any of the estate of Anthony Wright dec in his lifetime:

Ans. About the year 1841-1842, Elizabeth Ramsey then Elizabeth Wright moved from the house of Anthony Wright dec her father to a place given to her by the old man - and she brought with her about 25 wagons loads of corn and the such - about 25 or 21 bushels of wheat - 2 cows and calves, a good stock of hogs - and bacon a plenty - These things came from her father's plantation

By the same - How much was corn & wheat worth in those years:

Ans. I suppose from $3 to $3.50 per barrel for corn and there may have been 100 barrels in all - wheat worth about 75 cents per bushel. The cows & calf were worth about $30 -

By the same - Did you see a record of Anthony P. Wright's age:

Ans. - I lived in Mr. Wright's house for two years after she moved to herself and in her house I saw a bible in which there was a register of her children ages. If I am not mistaken, according to that register Anthony P. Wright was 20 years old in June 1841, one of the years that I lived there.

John J. Dent"

On May 1, 1853, in File 682 the deposition of William Anderson was also taken regarding the same:

"Ques. by S. A. Claytor's counsel. Were you acquainted with Archibald Wright in his lifetime: - if so say when he died:

Ans. I was well acquainted with him - and think we has been dead more than twenty years -

2- By the same - Do you know where his widow and children lived after his death:

Ans. They lived with Anthony Wright for several years after the death of Archibald Wright. I do not know how long. They lived in the house with Anthony Wright for several years & then moved to a house built for them by him on his land - where they lived until they went to the place where they now live.

3- By the same. Had they any means of support except what they got from Anthony Wright

Ans. None that I know of.

4- What would it be worth to support a woman and three children for a year - the oldest child being six years old:

Ans. - I would not take them for less than $40 per year - for the first ten years - including their services

5- Were you at the sale of Anthony Wright's property made by himself in his lifetime; if so, say whether Elizabeth Wright, now Elizabeth Ramsey purchased anything:

Ans. I was at the sale and she purchased so little articles, but I do not remember what.

Ques by _____ Ramsey & counsel - State whether while Mrs. Ramsey lived in the house with her father, she did not attend to his domestic affairs; and whether her children were not employed in his service:

Ans. I never was at the house except perhaps once or twice, & cannot say what Mrs. Ramsey did - but after Anthony P. Wright got to be some size, he worked in the plantation.

Question by same. After they moved from Anthony Wright's home to the house he built for them as you have already stated do you know of his furnishing Mrs. Ramsey with anything; and if you do state what it was:

Ans. I do not know of his furnishing her with anything

Question by counsel of Claytor - Joel M. Wright

At the time Mrs. Wright now Mrs. Ramsey lived in the house of Anthony Wright had he daughters - if so what were their ages or were they single or not and if he had daughters where did they live and what employment had they?

Ans. - He had two single daughters, pretty well grown, who lived in the house with him at that time

By the same - Was his wife living at the time that Mrs. Ramsey lived with him:

Ans. She was.

William Anderson"

On May 12, 1853, in File 682 the deposition of Catherine Wright was taken regarding the advancements to Elizabeth Ramsey:

"Ques. by S. A. Claytor's counsel. State whether you ever heard your husband Anthony Wright in his lifetime say anything about his charging his daughter Elizabeth Ramsey and her children board:

Ans. I heard him say he had charged her board - but it was cut off the first time I ever saw the book - I think he said he had charged her $300 board - This he said shortly after the witness & said Wright was married - about six years ago last September.

By the same - Where was the Book marked A now shown to you left during Anthony Wright's lifetime and who had access to it:

Ans. It was kept in his chest under lock & key as far as I know - The chest was frequently open when the old man and Anthony P. Wright were there looking at papers.

By the same - Who had access to the book after Anthony Wright's death:

Ans. It was kept under lock & key - and no one had access to it, but myself, that I know of it, until they were delivered to Mr. Kasey and Anthony P. Wright.

By the same. When did you first see the book with the leaves cut:

Ans. Anthony Wright about six years ago shewed me the book - he signified that there was hard thoughts about his charging Mrs. Ramsey board. And that the charge had been cut off and shewed me book by way of proving that it was so. He conveyed to me the idea that his first wife had cut the leaves off, tho he did not say so in so many words. He told me the book marked A and shewed to me today was the book in which he had charged his children with advancements

Catharine Wright"

On May 12, 1853, in File 682 the deposition of Francis W. Franklin was taken:

"Ques. by counsel of S. A. Claytor, Joel Wright Are you acquainted with Anthony P. Wright: State if you know his age:

Ans. I am acquainted with him, having married his father's sister and lived near to him - Anthony P. Wright was born on the 3d day of June 1821 - I am the more certain of his age from the age of one of my own sons. As there is about 18 months difference in their ages -

By the same - Was you acquainted with Archibald Wright, the father of Anthony P. Wright: if so say what were his circumstances at the time of his death -

Ans. - He was very poor - and if his widow had not been helped by her father, or some other person, she must have suffered -

By the same - When did Archibald Wright die: and when did his widow remove to her father's:

Ans. - Archibald Wright died, I think in 1826 and his widow removed to her father's immediately afterwards.

Francis W. Franklin"

On May 12, 1853, the deposition of Thomas Nelson was taken:

"Ques by S. A. Claytors counsel - Does it come within your knowledge that Anthony Wright in his lifetime furnished his daughter Mrs. Ramsey with anything during the time she lived with him and if so, state what he furnished:

Ans. She lived with her father - and I do not know any further than that he purchased a potrack for her at a sale.

By the same - If you had a wife and two daughters old enough to attend to business, what would you be willing to keep a woman and three children for ten years for:

Ans. I suppose a man could afford to board them for $50 or $60 per year.

By the same. Did Anthony Wright have an overseer during the time that Mrs. Ramsey lived with him:

Ans. I think William Horn lived with him from three to five years about twenty years ago.

Question by Deft Ramsey. State if you know what wages Mr. Wright gave Wm. Horn:

Ans. I do not know. I think I heard he gave $150 - but am not clear that I heard it from Mr. Wright.

Question by same. After Horn left there did not Anthony P. Wright attend to the management of old Mr. Wright's plantation business: and if so state for what length of time he so attended to his business:

Ans. He seemed to manage the old man's business for several years - I do not know the length of time

Thomas Nelson"

Commissioner Wharton filed his report and exceptions to that report were filed on July 9, 1853, in File 682 by attorney William C. Goggin:

"Exceptions to the administration account as reported by Commissioner Wharton.

George Wheeler and Agnes his wife Joseph Mays and Malinda his wife - Joel M. Wright Jeremiah Wright, - Solomon M. Wright and Sameul H. Claytor and Eliza Jane his wife - plaintiffs except to so much of the Report of Commissioner Wharton in the General Statement as refers to the charges vs the Admin and the Administration a/c

1st In allowing the estate credit by no interest atoll except on $793.25 for one year (see 9th page) - when it should be 2 years on that sum -

2 Because the commissioner has allowed no interest atoll (except on the $793.25 as a balance) on the amount of the sales of the perishable est. of $529.90 as of December 31, 1851 - when he should have distinguished between that part sold for cash and that on a credit - the credit portion was then due - but the admin had had in his hands all the cash derived from the sale which took place Dec 1840 one year before

3 Because the commissioner has allowed no interest on the 2 bonds of the admin due the Estate of the intestate of $3980 due in the year 18_ before the 31st Dec 1851 when the bonds purport to have been paid -

4 Because no interest is allowed on $500 paid by Gish at one time and $565.86 at another due intestate in his life

5 Because $104.83 or any other sum is allowed the Admin as a commission - he not having settled his account til the 30th Nov 1852 when he qualified as Admin at Aug or Sept 1850 more than 2 years having elapsed - and though the Comm says that the vouchers had been in his hands since Feb 1852 it would be still nine months after that time before the account was asserted.

6th Because the commissioner has not charged Anthony P. Wright the Admin with a bond of $100 for a horse and other property bought by him of the intestate in his lifetime 7th Because the Com. has allowed (in general allowance of commissioners) a commission on the bonds due from the Admin to the Estate of his intestate.

8th Because the Com. has not charged the Adm with

100 barrels of corn at $3.25	$325.00
nor 25 bushels of wheat at 75 cents	18.75
nor 2 cows and calves at $3	30.00
nor a good stock of hogs say worth	20.00
nor a good lot ("plenty") of bacon say	20.00

which is proven by the deposition of John J. Dent to have been carried off from the intestates farm in 1842 (when the intestate was incapable of managing his own affairs) - by the mother of the Adm See above Deposition of Nelson

July 9th 1853

William Goggin for them See Exceptions to list of advancements on next page

Exceptions to acco of advancements by the same parties - To the account of advancements to Elizabeth Ramsey

1st Because she is not charged in the general statement with the full price of a negroe woman at instead of 1/4 thereof $300.00

2 Because she is not charged with the full value of 60 acres of land at $5 or instead of 1/2 (if she is charged atoll) it having clearly been the intention of the father to advance her with these sums though the land & negroes are charged to her and her children by name - just as in the case of Mrs Wheeler where the full price of the negroe is charged to her yet the Bill of sale is to her and her children $300.00

3 Because Mrs. Ramsey is not charged in the account of advancements with the articles on the preceeding page at for if the adm is not accountable as such surely the mother as a distributee must be accountable for these $413.75
$1013.75

4 Because in same statement Mrs Ramsey is charged with only no board when she should be charged according to the proof or much more 300.00
$1313.75

5 Because in the special statement Mrs Ramsey is charged only with $300.00 in addition to the advancements before stated when it should have been $1313.75 instead of $300 & the $300 is less for board than it should be see proof of Nelson and Wm Anderson

Wm Goggin for the Parties

And the children of Solomon Wright by Joel M. Wright Samuel H. Claytor & wife and Joseph Mays & wife & the active except to so much of said report as charges Solomon Wright with 108 acres of land at $4 per acre in all $432 because the deed dated in 1823 shows on its face, as was the fact, that he paid in cash that sum for it -

9th July 1853

Wm Goggin for the Parties"

Similar exceptions were filed by attorney William Jordan in File 682:

"In this case Green G. Bondurant, Joel M. Wright & Samuel G. Claytor, heirs of Solomon Wright, except to the report of commissioner Wharton in this case

1 Because the advancements to Ramsey & wife on account of board, are not charged

2 Because the estate of Solomon Wright is charged with 108 acres of land at $4 per acre, making $432, when said land was a purchase, & not a gift or advancement,

3 Because Elizabeth Ramsey is only charged with $75 the price of a negro girl when she should be charged with $300

4 Because interest is not allowed on any portion of the credits in the settlement of Anthony P. Wright administrators account

6 Because commissions are allowed over and above what the law allows,

7 Because no list of sales and vouchers are filed for items and money this various affiants (?) on the face of the report, the parties above named except to the report, and ask that it may be recommitted & the errors corrected

Wm Jordan for Green G. Bondurant & other (?)"

Finally, the arguments of counsel were filed about April 14, 1855 in File 682:

"Wright vs Wright

In this case it is contended that $300 charged in the special statement for board for Elizabeth Ramsey is properly charged - but she should be charged more

1st The deposition of Catharine Wright, who was the second wife of the intestate proves that he said he had charged her $300 board. - That charge he said had been cut off and there had been hard thoughts - Anthony P. Wright, the son of Elizabeth, had access frequently to the trunk where the book was kept in the lifetime of his grandfather - Old Mr. Wright however never said he had cut it off himself - He said it had been done but never did disclaim a purpose to make his daughter account for it - He showed the book to prove it had been done and conveyed the idea that his first wife did it - thereby denying that he had done it himself -

But if he even had cut off or erased an entry of this sort which he regarded as an advancement to this daughter - it would still be a subject of proof and if established must be charged - It will be seen that the book by no means contains all the items of advancement - others are proven without regard to the book

The depositions (there are 2) of Thomas Nelson prove that Mrs Wright or Mrs Ramsey as she now is who was a sickly and "afflicted" woman lived in her fathers house for a number of years, a widow, the oldest child but 6 years of age and that in Mrs Wrights condition with a wife and two grown daughters to do all his household work a this too, item was worth from $50 to $60 pr year to board them - That after Anthony P. Wright got old enough to be a "right smart boy" that thus perhaps $25 would not be too high for 10 years previous, which would make Anthony 16 - at $55 the average of $50 and $60 the board to that time would amount to $550 will add on $25 for 5 years longer til Anthony became to be 21, this would make $125 added to the $550 - or an aggregate of $675 instead of $300 -

And again this witness proves that old Mr. Wright had an overseer a part of the time - and that Anthony P. was going to school - any services he ever rendered while a boy in his grandfather's family would not more than have paid for his board - his clothing and his schooling -

This witness also proves that Anthony P. Wright got "Land and a mare" of his Grandfather and yet it is asked that his trifling services (if indeed he rendered any except to aid his grandfather in looking at his papers in the old chest where the lists were kept) shall be taken to offset a fair charge for board, while Anthony P. wants the court to "cut off" also - against his mother in the division of the Estate

The deposition of William Anderson proves that she (Mrs Ramsey formerly Mrs Wright) had no means of support except what she derived from her father Anthony Wright - she was a widow and had "come back" upon her father with 3 small children

This witness proves that it would be worth $40 pr year to support them for 10 years including their services if so the charge of $300 is much too small. He had a wife and two grown daughters to attend to this household.

The deposition of Francis W. Franklin proves the age of Anthony P. - and also that his father (the husband of the then Elizabeth Wright, now Ramsey) was very poor: and if his widow had not been helped by her father she must have suffered - yet she is to be charged nothing - her husband died in 1826 - and she and her children went immediately to her fathers - Anthony P. this boy (who is to pay all charges) was then but five years old!

The deposition of this Anthony P. Wright (which is excepted to) is taken to prove nothing in regard to his mothers services or his own, see the one marked (no 2), but gives more conversations of his grandfather as to his intentions - this man is deeply interested in regard to the very matter about which he testifies - but he shows in deposition no 1 that he is wholly unworthy of credit for he makes his grandfather in 1841 speak of charging (or not charging) Solomon Wright with rent of the Land when in truth his Grandfather had deeded the land to Solomon in fee in the year 1823 see the deed - Wright & wife to Wright.

The same witness further says that his grandfather was incapable of attending to business at times - He considered him of as sound mind then as at any time no doubt - but his mind had become impaired before 1841 - as proven by the facts in this cause.

But again in regard to the advancements - Mrs. Ramsey (or Mrs. Wright then) is proven to have carried away with her from her fathers, when she left there the 2nd time, (as a widow now receiving her second outfit) see deposition of John J. Dent, 25 wagons loads of corn - 25 or 6 bushels of wheat, 2 cows and calves - a good stock of hogs and bacon a plenty - 100 barrels of corn at the average of $3.25 as witness proves it would be $325. The wheat at 75 cents $18.75 - cow & calf $30 (Bacon say $20 - Hogs say $20 estimated) would make an aggregate of $413.75 now due the Estate bindes(?)_ the advancements - This sum the Admin surely will be held to account for, if Mrs R is not.

In regard to the charge against Solomon Wright - of 108 acres of land at $4 pr acre of $432 it seems to me there can be no ground to charge it as an advancement - The little book is contradicted by the deed which declares a consideration of $432 and there is no proof in this record (if such proof were admissible) to the contrary - can the Grantor gainsay his deed by a scrawl on an old book in which he charges the land as an advancement - It is evident to my mind that in 1840-41 (after the old man is proven to be incapable doing business at times) he this aforesaid Anthony got the ear of the old man and induced him then to make out a list of charges against his children so as to benefit his mother and himself and that the old man had forgotten that he had near 20 years before been paid by his son Solomon $432 for the very land that Anthony P. makes him talk about charging rent for - Then this was a deed put upon record in 1824 - and the Bills of sale filed as exhibits in this cause (and the dates in 1845) together with the deed to Mrs Wright go to prove that the old man was wholly under the influence of Anthony P. for while the bills of sale to his children for negroes all express a consideration - yet as to the land given to Mrs Wright & Anthony it is expressed on the face of the deed to be in consideration of natural love and affection - not so in regard to Solomon Wright's land. There the consideration paid is expressed on its face - The bills of sale are unrecorded papers - While in regard to the land going to record he wished to speak according to the fact. All this parade however about the old book in which the advancements were recorded has at least had the good effect of exposing the actings and doings of Anthony P. -

Your honor will bear in mind that Anthony P. himself proves that his grandfather said he was incapable of transacting business - Old Mr Nelson (see 4th page of Dep No. 1) proves that he lived within 3 qrs of a mile of him and that from 1840 he does not think he was capable of attending to business at times - an inspection of the entries on that book will convince any one that all of them were made at one time - the same sort of hand - the same pen the same ink - and on the first page the old man as if fearful of his want of capacity says the account is up to 1840 - he there stopd; Anthony P. who had an interest in the subject of the entires - who had control of the old. has other business in hand for him and procures a deed for 1/2 of a tract of land from his grandfather in the month of January 1841 in consideration of natural love - to the exclusion of his brothers and sisters -

But in my view of this case Mrs Ramsey has had more than her share of the estate already and she must be ordered to pay back as thus -

There is no proof that can be relied on that such of the articles mentioned, as she did get, were given or advanced to her, or whether they were paid for. - But if she did get any of them as a gift to enable her to support herself in making her first esp(?) when she went to live to herself. I think it will require some more certain & minute proof than the guess of Mr. John J. Dent, to induce any person to believe that it took 100 bushels of corn to support Mrs Wright and her 3 children or that Anthony Wright had so much to give away. or indeed that he had so much altogether. - But Anthony P Wright who lived with Anthony Wright at the time and who moved away with her in his first deposition (taken by the plaintiffs -) proves that she received none of these things and he certainly knew better than Mr. Dent - and besides there is no such charge in Memorandum of Advancements made out by the Intestate nor is there any pretence there ever was - the only thing the witnesses say was ever charged there which is not there now is the board.

4 And there is equally as little ground to sustain the 4 Exception.

The proof is that after the death of her first husband, Mrs Ramsey was very poor and would not probably have supported herself and children without aid

And her father took them home to his house to make them more comfortable. Under these circumstances is it reasonable to believe that he contemplated charging them for what they eat? for he never furnished anything else. Besides. It is proved by Nancy Corely, Elizabeth Bandy, Mary Feather. - Anthony P. Wright & the plffs own witness Catharine Wright (the wife of intestate). that he did not intend to charge her for her board. - Some of them prove that Mrs Ramsey's & her children's services was worth their board. Others prove that he said he did not intend to charge her board. And Mrs Wright proves that he said he had once charged it and he had cut the charge out of his book of charges of advancements against his children - Mrs Wright proves conclusively that after this charge was cut out he shewed her the Book A and told her it was the book in which he had charged his children with advancements. Thus clearly shewing that he did not intend to charge her with board if he had ever had such an intention. It is clear that he had then abandoned it. - There is nothing in the exception to A.P. Wrights depo. There is not question of sanity raised here. that could only be raised in a suit to impeach & set aside the deed. when his testimony in this case could not be used in his favor. - And as Admin of the Intestate he is in no sense interested how it is distributed. Because he has to pay all in his hands to some or all of the distributees and what he does not pay to one he will have to pay to another. - There is no reason why his deposition should not be used as testimony in this cause when taken by the Dfts as well as when taken by the Plffs. Unless indeed it is to be presumed that every man who testifies in a case in which his relatives are concerned commits perjury & felony as a matter of course - as is insinuated in the argument of the counsel in this case. -

5. The fifth exception is an exception of the plaintiffs to their own special statement. which itself is an exception to the courts report. - And if they had requested the court to have put the $1300 instead of $300 - he would doubtless have put that and as much more if they desired it -

The pltf's certainly had the right to have any special statement made which they desired. It is therefore perfectly _____ to _____ the 5th exception is sustained or overruled.

As to the Exception of Solomon and Joel M. Wright based on the consideration expressed in the deed. - That is answered by the charge in the Book of Advancements. It is charged in the Book as an advancement of the same value as the amount of consideration named in the deed In that deed & in the deeds for the negroes the amounts at which they were charged as advancements is expressed as the consideration of the deeds. When we know that no pecuniary consideration passed and I suppose Mr. Goggin can hardly be serious in contending that the consideration expressed in a deed is conclusive. When it has so frequently & uniformly been decided otherwise by the courts all over the Union. -

The amount taken by Mr. Wharton who had the ___ before him and heard their statements as well as the statements of witnesses is no doubt as right as can be well arrived at and attains justice much nearer than the counsel in the _____ sides would ever arrive at. -

I hope therefore it will be confirmed.

Apl Term 1855"

"I am counsel for Anthony P. Wright - the admr of Anthony Wright and this note is intended only as a reply to the exceptions taken by Mr. Goggin and Mr. Jordan to the report of the administration account -

As to the 1st Exception that interest should be charged against the admr for a longer time - The law does not require an admr to pay interest from the time he received the money of the estate - he is allowed time to look around and ascertain the creditors before he will be compelled to distribute or pay interest - It appears from the comrs report that the money came into the hands of the admr in the year 1851 and during the year 1851 he paid out large sums. The comr strikes the balance on the 1st March '52 from which time he charges interest.

2nd The sale money became due the 31st Decr 1851. It composes one of the items which constitutes the balance of $793.25 on the 1st March 1852. He is only allowed 2 months to collect until he is charged interest. This is a very short time and furnishes no ground for exception. As to the cash received at the sale they were doubtless small amounts and there is no proof there was any recd.

As to 3rd and 4th Exceptions - see answer above to 1st

5th It appears by this exception that the admr placed his vouchers & papers in the hands of the comr for settlement about 7 months before the expiration of the time within which he was required by law to settle his accounts - The admr cannot be held accountable for the failure of the comr - He did all he could do by placing his vouchers in his hands in due time

6th No proof to sustain this exception

Mr. Jordan excepts to the report of the administration a/c

Because "interest is not charged on any portion of of the credit in the settlement of the administration account." It will be seen that interest is allowed on the balance struck the 1st March 1852.

5th Exception by Mr. Jordan

Answer - The admr is charged with the whole amount of sales including his own purchases -

The 6th exception taken by him is - "that commissions are allowed over and above what the law allows"

The commissions allowed is 5 per cent - on the receipts. I do not think Mr. Jordan can produce the laws allowing a less sum

7th Exception - The vouchers are with the commissioner who can produce them if required

On April 14, 1855 in File 682, the court heard arguments and overruled the exceptions:

"Wright vs Wright

This day this cause came on to be heard on the papers formerly read and the report of commissioner Wharton made in pursuance of a decree of the county court in the year 1852 with exceptions thereto by the pltfs George Wheeler & wife Joseph Mayse & wife Joel M Wright, Jeremiah Wright & Saml H Claytor & wife. and also of the pltfs Joel M Wright, Solomon Wright; Claytor & wife & Mayse & wife, and the _____ & examinations (?) of witnesses taken & filed since the former hearing & was argued by counsel upon consideration whereof the court doth overrule the said Exceptions, and doth adjudge order & decree that Comr Wharton do ascertain & report to the court what was the value of the dower estate of the said Catharine Wright widow of the said Anthony Wright decd, in the lands in the bill mentioned at the time of the sale thereof by Comr Jas F. Johnson under a decree in this cause, That he also take an account of the proceeds of the sale of the land in the hands of Comr James F. On September 12, 1855, in File 682 a final resolution of the dispute was made by the court by its order for the division of the estate:

Johnson is hereby directed to pay all the costs of this suit, not credited to him in the commissioner's account including the fee and to deduct such sums so paid by him in rateable proportions from the amounts decreed to be paid by him as above."(39)

On October 2, 1856, at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court Order Book 3/386 Catherine Wright obtained an order from the court for the conveyance of title of the remaining land of Anthony Wright pursuant to her purchase of that property from this estate:

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1850 Anthony Wright of Bedford County and Elizabeth (Mayse) Wright were the following:

- 1) Joseph Wright, born about 1785 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Rhoda (Wright) Wright, born between December 20, 1791, and June 3, 1792, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 3) Solomon Wright, born about 1794 or 1795 at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) Celia (Wright) Wright, born about 1800 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) Elizabeth "Betsy" (Wright) (Wright) Ramsey, born between 1795 and 1804 or about 1802 or 1804 or 1805 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 6) Agnes (Wright) Wheeler, born about 1809 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

7) Malinda (Wright) Mays, born on July 12, 1812, at Bedford County, Virginia, 9) Possibly Anthony Pennell or P. Wright, born after June 6, 1801.

a. Joseph Wright

The 1814 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright, Jr., with the following household:

As will be set forth below, Joseph Wright, the son of 1850 Anthony Wright, was born in about 1785. This would make him over 16 in 1814, as set forth in this list. The listing of this Joseph Wright as Joseph Wright, Jr., indicates that he was younger than 1815 Joseph Wright of Bedford County who was listed in the same year. The small amount of property and the absence of any other known Joseph Wright of the appropriate age in Bedford County at this time indicates that this listing was probably for Joseph Wright, the son of 1850 Anthony Wright.

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born in about 1785.

Joseph Wright is confirmed as a child of Anthony Wright by a request dated September 20, 1850, and filed in the case of Wright v. Wright, Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court Case 682, in which Joseph Wright asked that Anthony P. Wright be appointed administrator of Joseph's father's estate:

"I do here by certify that it is my request that A.P. Wright serve as admistrator of my father estat and also that the said A.P. Wright be appointed the comitioner to sell the above property mention

The lawsuit at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court Order Book 3/203 named one of the party plaintiffs as Joseph Wright and stated that he was entitled to one share.

Our Kin also listed a Joseph Wright as a son of Anthony Wright.

These documents clearly identify Joseph Wright as a son of Anthony Wright. The order determining the division of the estate dated September 12, 1855, did not award any amount to Joseph Wright and he may have died prior to that date without a will and without a wife or descendants, in which case his share would simply have passed to the other heirs of Anthony Wright.

This record clearly identifies the William Wright who purchased 100 acres of land from John Wright in 1813 or 1814 as John Wright's son. As set forth above, that sale was Bedford County Deed 14/67 from John Wright and Susannah Wright to William S. Wright. Cemetery Inscriptions of Highland County, Ohio, 1954, listed the gravestone of Rhoda Wright in the Auburn Cemetery with the date of death as June 3, 1880, age 88 years.

In her letter dated May 20, 1996, Mrs. Karen Piojda enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Rhoda R. Wright located in the Auburn Cemetery, near Samantha, Highland County, Ohio.

The 1880 Census for Allen County, Ohio, Marion Township listed W. G. Wright, a son of William S. Wright, and stated that W. G. Wright's father was born in Virginia.

The obituary of William S. Wright dated July 6, 1876, for his death on June 26, 1876, and more fully set forth above, stated that he was survived by a widow "in the 84th year of Rhoda's age". This would place Rhoda's date of birth between June 27, 1791, and July 7, 1792. The 1830 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed her age as between 30 and 40. The 1850 Census for Highland County, Ohio, listed her age as 58 and born in Virginia. The 1870 Census for Highland County, Ohio listed her age as 77 and born in Virginia. From this data it seems fair to conclude that Rhoda (Wright) Wright has born between December 20, 1791, and June 3, 1792, and in any event in 1791 or 1792.

The Censuses clearly place her birth in Virginia, and since her father Anthony Wright was residing on a farm in Bedford County, Virginia, at that time, it seems fair to conclude that she was born in Bedford County.

On August 19, 1880, at Highland County, Ohio, Probate File 3392 Anthony G. Wright filed an Application for Letters Testamentary for the estate of William S. Wright:

"Application for Letters Testamentary

On August 19, 1880, in Highland County, Ohio, Probate File 3392 Anthony G. Wright filed his Executor's Bond with W. G. Wright, William S. Henry, and A. J. Frazier as sureties.

In five sets of his undated notes Cletus Orlen Wright stated that his father's father William S. Wright was born in Bedford County, Virginia.

A Portrait and Biographical Record of Mercer and Van Wert Counties, Ohio, 1896, at pages 888-889 in connection with William Greenberry Wright, their son, stated that William S. and Rhoda were members of the Baptist Church.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of Rhoda (Wright) Wright and 1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio, were the following:

- 1) Lucinda (Wright) Hansel or Hensel, born on February 14, 1813, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Washington Wright, born between 1813 and 1818 at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 3) Winfield Scott Wright, born on May 17, 1818, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) John H. Wright, born on August 7, 1821, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) Priscilla (Wright) Johnson, born on May 3, 1824, at Bedford County, Virginia,

- 6) William Greenberry Wright, born on May 3, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 7) Susan Elizabeth "Belle" Wright, born on April 3, 1830, at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 8) James L. Wright, born on November 15, 1832, at Bedford County, Virginia, and
- 9) Anthony G. Wright, born on June 27, 1836, at Highland County, Ohio.

- i. Lucinda (Wright) Hansel Or Hensel And Her Husband John Hansel Or Hensel

In her letter dated December 11, 1995, Mrs. Karen Piojda enclosed a copy of the marriage record of Lucinda Wright and John Hansel dated on October 26, 1848, at Highland County, Ohio:

"October 26th 1848. united in matrimony by me John Hansel and Lucinda Wright

Wm M McReynolds M. G.

Recorded Oct 30th 1848"

Marriage Records Of Highland County, Ohio (1805-1880) listed the marriage of Lucinda Wright and John Hansel in October 26, 1848, at Highland County, Ohio, with the marriage performed by William M. McReynolds.

The 1850 Census for Highland County, Ohio, listed John Hensell with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Property	Born
John Hensell	64	M	Farmer	$6,000	Virginia
Lucinda Hensell	37	F			Virginia

This record indicates that Lucinda (Wright) Hensell was born in about 1817 and that John Hensell was born in about 1786.

1870 Census, Highland County, Ohio listed John H. Wright in Liberty Township with the following household:

Wright

John H. 58, M, Traader, 12000/7500, Va.
Eliza J., 46, F, Keeping house, O.
Clark, 21, M, Bar tender, O.
Laura J., 18, F, Helps Ma, O.
Emma F., 16, F, At school, O.

The will of William S. Wright dated May 3, 1867, and probated on July 28, 1876, at Highland County, Ohio, W.B. 7/13 listed Lucinda Hansell as one of his children:

". . . . that the entire property both real estate and personal property be sold by my Executors hereinafter named and be equally divided between my children; except Winfield Wright my oldest son how having had his portion as per receipt now in my possession; to wit to my daughter Lucinda Hansell one share . . . ."

The declaration of Elisha Johnson dated December 19, 1877, in Pension File WC 6953 listed the birth of Lucinda Wright from the Family Bible:

"Births -

Lucinda Wright born 14th February 1813,
. . . .

On June 16, 1881, at Highland County, Ohio, Probate File 3392 Anthony G. Wright filed his accounting for the estate of William S. Wright which listed L. W. Hansell as a legatee:

"Administrator's Or Executor's Accounts

Said _____ charges himself as follows:
. . . .

A Portrait And Biographical Record Of Mercer And Van Wert Counties, Ohio,

published in 1896, in a biography of William Greenberry Wright stated that:

". . . . His parents, William S. and Rhoda R. Wright, had a family of eight children, who were named as follows: Lucinda, a resident of Missouri, and a widow of John Hensel . . . ."

In undated notes Cletus Orlen Wright stated that John Hensel may have been a policeman.

ii.      Washington Wright

The declaration of Elisha Johnson dated December 19, 1877, in Pension File WC 6953 listed the birth of Washington Wright from a Family Bible:

". . . . Affiant further says that all the foregoing entries were made in said bible by the decedent, William S. Wright in his lifetime; and that he has heard Said decedent Wm. S. Wright say years ago that their second child, died in Early infancy, was named Washington, but the same was not recorded . . . ."

iii.      Winfield Scott Wright

The will of William S. Wright dated May 3, 1867, and probated on July 28, 1876, at Highland County, Ohio, W.B. 7/13 listed Winfield Wright as one of his children:

". . . . that the entire property both real estate and personal property be sold by my Executors hereinafter named and be equally divided between my children; except Winfield Wright my oldest son how having had his portion as per receipt now in my possession; . . . ."

The declaration of Elisha Johnson dated December 19, 1877, in Pension File WC 6953 listed the birth of Winfield S. Wright from a Family Bible:

Winfield S. Wright born 17th May 1818

A Portrait And Biographical Record Of Mercer And Van Wert Counties, Ohio,

published in 1896, in a biography of William Greenberry Wright stated that:

". . . . His parents, William S. and Rhoda R. Wright, had a family of eight children, who were named as follows; . . . . Winfield Scott and John H., deceased; . . . ."

This record indicates that Winfield Scott Wright may have died before 1896.

Since Winfield S. Wright was also not listed as a legatee in the accounting by Anthony G. Wright for the estate of William S. Wright dated June 16, 1881, and filed at Highland County, Ohio, probate File 3392, he probably died before June 16, 1881, without descendants.

iv. John H. Wright And His Wife Eliza Jane (Williams) Wright

Marriage Records Of Highland County, Ohio (1805-1880) listed the issuance of a marriage license to John H. Wright and Eliza Jane Williams on January 16, 1844, at Highland County, Ohio.

The 1850 Census for Highland County, Ohio, listed John H. Wright with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Property	Born
John H. Wright	28	M	Trader	$1200	Virginia
Eliza J. Wright	25	F			Ohio
Clarkson E. Wright	1	M			Ohio

This record indicates that John H. Wright was born in about 1822 and that Eliza Jane (Williams) Wright was born in about 1825.

1870 Census, Highland County, Ohio listed John H. Wright in Liberty Township with the following household:

Wright

John H. 58, M, Trader, 12000/7500, Va.
 Eliza J., 46, F, Keeping house, O.
 Clark, 21, M, Bar tender, O.
 Laura J., 18, F, Helps Ma, O.
 Emma F., 16, F, At school, O.

The will of William S. Wright dated May 3, 1867, and probated on July 28, 1876, at Highland County, Ohio, W.B. 7/13 listed John Wright as one of his children:

In 1882 Mr. Wright came to Van Wert county and purchased a farm of 100 acres on the Ridge road, about three and one-half miles east of the city of Van Wert, and this farm is one of the best improved in the township. In politics Mr. Wright is a democrat, and in 1893 was elected trustee of his township, in which there have been graded sixteen miles of gravel roads under his management. It may here be recorded that Mr. Wright is a man of note as a deer hunter, and many trophies of his skill and prowess, and marksmanship adorn his dwelling. The apiary has also claimed his attention for more than forty-five years, and a card attached to the gable end of his dwelling house bears the inscription, "Hunters' Home - Home of the Bee." Mr. Wright is a Mason in good standing and Mrs. Wright is a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and socially the family mingle with the best of Ridge township's citizens."

The service of the 13th Ohio Cavalry can be traced through the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies.

On May 30, 1864, the regiment was at Port Royal on its way to the Army of the Potomac with only 400 of its men mounted and those without sabres or revolvers. On June 4, 1864, they were ordered to report to General Gregg of the Second Cavalry Division to be dismounted and their horses given to veterans. On June 7, 1864, the regiment had 630 officers and men present for duty and was ordered to White House depot. On June 10, 1864, Inspector-General Ed. Schriver reported as follows:

"Besides the above commands, I looked at the One hundred and thirty-second Ohio National Guard, 100 days' men, and the Thirteenth Ohio, dismounted cavalry. Troops more unfit for the field I never saw."

By June 9 the regimental strength was down to 479 officers and men and by June 25 it was down to 405.

On June 26, 1864, the regiment was ordered to join General Ambrose E. Burnside of the Ninth Army Corps and on June 29 the regiment was assigned to the Third Division of General Orlando Wilcox, First Brigade of Brig. Gen John F. Hartranft, with Lt. Col. Noah H. Hixon commanding the Regiment. The regiment was then moved into the trenches in front of Petersburg.

On July 30, 1864, the 13th Ohio Cavalry (Dismounted) was part of the Battle of the Crater at Petersburg, Virginia. A tunnel had been dug from the Union entrenchments to the Confederate entrenchments and filled at the end with explosives. The plan was to explode a hole in the Confederate lines and then march through to force a battle in the open. The Official Records give a detailed report of the First Brigade:

"Hdqrs. First Brig., Third Div., Ninth Army Corps,
Before Petersburg, Va., August 5, 1864.

Captain: In obedience to orders received from the general commanding the division, I moved forward at about 5 a.m. on the morning of the 30th of July - the Twenty-seventh Michigan, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, One hundred and ninth New York, Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, and Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted), of my brigade, closely following the First Division - to the crater caused by the explosion of the mine. After passing into the crater, which was filled with the troops of the advance division, I pushed my troops to the left as far as possible, occupying that part of the enemy's work not blown up. The length of this part was about ninety feet, and contained two guns, which were partially covered with dirt by the explosion. I immediately ordered the dirt to be removed from the guns, which were afterward served by men from the Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery and men of my command, under the direction of Sergt. W. Stanley, of the Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery. The regimental organizations were more or less broken up by reason of the irregularity of the surface of the crater, the mass of troops, and the enfilading fire of the enemy from the right and left by artillery and infantry. Repeated and most determined efforts were made by the commanding officers and officers of my staff to form the troops for farther advance, but without success. The captured gun on the left was fired to the left along the line of the enemy's pits with some effect. The colored troops now advanced through the crater, passing to the right, and formed line for advance, when the enemy charged the colored troops as well as the pits previously occupied by the white troops, and our troops on the right gave way. The enemy soon reoccupied his pits to the right of the crater. In this attack of the enemy he suffered severely from the right captured gun by Stanley, who gave them canister. Soon after the enemy made another assault in one line of about 500 strong, heading for the crater, and coming direct from the front. My men gallantly mounted the works and poured their shot into their line, which, together with the canister given them by Sergeant Stanley, almost annihilated the column, so that but few of the enemy came up, and they only for protection. The ammunition was now about expended, but the want was soon supplied upon reporting to the general commanding the division. The men were now fast becoming exhausted, and the wounded were suffering for want of water; but little was procured, the enemy's sharpshooters having full command of the ground between the crater and our first line of works. At about 12.30 p.m. an order was received from General Burnside to retire as soon as practicable and prudent, the commanding officers on the line to counsel and determine as to the time of evacuation. The order was indorsed by Brigadier-Generals Bartlett, Griffin, and myself, and sent back to Major-General Burnside. It was thought impossible to withdraw the troops without great slaughter, the enemy enfilading the ground across which the troops would have to pass with artillery and infantry.

While we were awaiting further instructions the enemy made another attack, bearing immediately upon the work occupied by my men. As soon as I discovered this I passed the word to retire, but the men did not all have time to make their escape. Lieutenant Bean, one of my staff officers, communicated with General Bartlett in the crater, that the order was to retire, and that the left was then falling back.

It is with deep regret that I have to announce the death of Sergt. W. Stanley, Company D, Fourteenth New York Heavy Artillery, who volunteered to work the captured guns, and performed his duty well to the last. I deem it my duty to make honorable mention of the Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers, Lieutenant-Colonel Wright commanding; One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, Colonel Catlin commanding; Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Volunteers, Colonel Harriman commanding; Thirty-eighth Wisconsin Volunteers, Captain Ferris commanding; Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted), Lieutenant-Colonel Hixon commanding; Eighth Michigan Veteran Volunteers, Major Belcher commanding, and the Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers, Colonel Bolton commanding. My loss in regimental commanders was severe - Colonel Catlin, Colonel Bolton, Lieutenant-Colonel Stilson, One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, and Lieutenant-Colonel Wright were severely, and Captain Ferris mortally, wounded.

I cannot refrain from noticing especially the conduct of the officers of my staff - Captain Bertolette, assistant adjutant-general; Captain Shorkley, acting assistant inspector general; Captain Doyle, provost marshal; Lieutenants Bean and Watts, aides-de-camp - for their promptness and valor in pushing forward the troops as well as in holding the enemy's work to the last moment. Captain Shorkley was severely wounded, and lost his right hand.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J.F. Hartranft,

Brigadier-General, U.S. Volunteers, Commanding.
Capt. Robert A. Hutchins,
Asst. Adjt. Gen., Third Division, Ninth Army Corps."(16)

The loss in the 13th Ohio Cavalry was severe with 83 men killed, wounded, or missing.

From August 18 through 21, 1864, the battle of the Weldon Railroad was fought and the regiment was lightly engaged and suffered one killed and 6 wounded.

On September 30, 1864, the regiment was again engaged in attacks on the Confederate lines and this time, at the battle of Poplar Springs Church with the brigade under the command of Colonel Samuel Harrison, the regiment did less well. The official division report stated that:

"The left wing did not behave so well; the Thirteenth Ohio (dismounted) Cavalry were thrown into panic and part of them fled ingloriously from the field, breaking the Thirty- eighth Wisconsin, which latter, however, were soon reformed in the woods in rear."

Thereafter, from October 27 to 28, 1864, the regiment was again lightly engaged at the battle of Boynton Plank Road, suffering 3 wounded.

On November 9, 1864, the regiment was reported to have voted 133 for Lincoln and 65 for McClellan.

On December 13, 1864, the regiment was finally remounted and joined the Second Cavalry Division under Major General Gregg.

In April 1865 the regiment joined in the pursuit of General Lee's army, marching parallel and south of that army and attacking part of its supply train. On April 8, 1865, the regiment marched to Appomattox Court House and blocked the Confederate escape route to Lynchburg. On April 9, 1865, the regiment was attacked by the enemy, but held its position until the infantry arrived and forced General Lee and the Confederate Army to surrender.

The Official Records for the Division give an overview of the Regiment's service as part of the First Brigade in July:

"The Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry (dismounted) assigned to division June 29, First Brigade.

July 1 - The division was in the trenches in front of Petersburg and remained there, defending the line and fortifying the position, until July 25, when one brigade (Humphrey's) was taken to the rear, on being relieved by a brigade of the Fourth Division, Ninth Army Corps (colored), Colonel Sigfried commanding.

July 29 - Humphrey's brigade (Second) withdrawn from the left and moved to the rear of the First Brigade.

July 30 - The division was engaged in the assault on the enemy's lines at the crater, supporting the First Division of the corps; carried a portion of the enemy's breast-works on the left of crater by a front attack and captured 100 prisoners; First Brigade dug up two pieces of artillery from the crater produced by the blowing up of the enemy's fort and turned them on the enemy. The division helped to repulse two attacks, losing quite heavily in killed and wounded. At 3 p.m. returned from works captured into our original lines by orders.

The report of the brigade commander describes the fighting at Weldon Railroad:

"Report of Brig. Gen. John F. Hartranft, U.S. Army, commanding First Brigade, of operations August 19-21.

Hdqrs. First Brig., Third Div., Ninth Army Corps,
August 30, 1864.

Captain: In obedience to orders from division headquarters my brigade left camp before Petersburg, Va., at 3:30 a.m. on the 19 instant and marched to Blick's house, on the Weldon railroad, arriving there at 8 a.m. I formed line in front of the Blick house, my left resting about 400 yards from the railroad, where I remained in support until 4 p.m., when an attack was made upon the line of the Fifth Army Corps, penetrating the right of General Crawford's division and some 700 or 800 yards to the front and right. My brigade was immediately formed, and advanced in the direction of this attack, until I met the enemy in line 150 yards distant in the corn-field at the edge of the woods, from which position the enemy had full view of the open space in front of and around the Blick house. My brigade was formed from right to left in the following order: Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Colonel Harriman commanding; Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, Lieutenant Colonel Pier commanding; Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, Captain Clark commanding; Twenty-seventh Michigan, Captain Cash commanding; One hundred and ninth New York Volunteers, Captain Evans commanding, Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers, Major Hart commanding, and the Eighth Michigan Veteran Volunteers, Major Belcher commanding. The four left regiments were in the open field, and the three right regiments were under cover of the woods on the right of the corn-field. After the four regiments on the left were engaged, the right of the brigade kept advancing through the woods and soon met the enemy also advancing, and captured from them between 50 and 60 prisoners. The enemy in the open space were soon repulsed and fell back under a terrific musketry fire to the cover of the woods. The left of my brigade immediately advanced from 75 to 100 yards, and while they were still advancing the enemy rallied in the woods and made a second attack upon my line, coming within about seventy-five yards, but he was again successfully repulsed and retired to the cover of the woods. After the second repulse of the enemy the Second Brigade of this division came up in support, but was immediately ordered to the left. The troops of the First Division also came up about the same time from right and rear, and one brigade moved to my left. I now received orders to move to the left, along the edge of the woods, and connect with the right of the Second Brigade, which I did, the brigade of the First Division on my left moving to the right. Colonel Humphrey had advanced his brigade, and I was about to advance into the woods on his right, when the First Division was attacked by the enemy upon the same ground upon which he had been twice repulsed by my brigade, and I was ordered to the right in support. I moved along the edge of the woods until my right was within seventy-five yards of the left of the First Division, with my left resting about 100 yards from Crawford's right. I saw that the First Division was not heavily pressed, and soon afterward the firing from First Division ceased. When General Crawford advanced I advanced skirmishers and connected with him. It was now getting dark, and I received orders to advance my brigade into the woods and occupy the rifle-pits, which were about 200 yards from edge of the woods, and which had been occupied by General Crawford's division during the day. I immediately advanced, occupied the line designated, connecting with Crawford's division on the left. The First Division did not advance at this time, and a gap was left between the right of my line and left of First Division, which was closed up, however, during the night. During the night the pits were strengthened and the troops supplied with ammunition.

On the morning of the 20th I advanced a thin line of skirmishers, supported by a strong line, about 200 yards in the front of the main line, until the enemy's line of skirmishers was discovered. No shots were exchanged. During the day five regiments of the brigade were withdrawn to the original position occupied on the afternoon of the 19th, where we bivouacked for the night, leaving the Fifty-first Pennsylvania on the skirmish line, supported by the Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers.

At 5 o'clock on the morning of the 21st I moved my brigade, with exception of the Fifty-first and Twenty-seventh Michigan, which remained on the skirmish line, to a position on the left and in front of the Blick house, my right resting on the Ninth Massachusetts Battery and my left extending across railroad (two regiments being on left of the railroad) and resting on _____ Battery. Here I threw up a line of intrenchments, which was almost completed at 9.15 a.m., when the enemy attacked on the left of the Fifth Corps. When this attack was made one of General Ayres' brigades, of the Fifth corps, moved up to my line of works. At 10.30 the enemy attacked on my immediate front; the artillery opened upon him with full force. There was no infantry fire from my line except by a few sharpshooters on the right. The enemy was soon compelled to retire, owing to the murderous fire of our artillery, and about 25 or 30 prisoners came in on my front. The regiments on the line of skirmishers were obliged to retire with some loss.

I am pained to mention the loss of Maj. Horatio Belcher, commanding Eighth Michigan Volunteers, who was killed on the 19th. He was at the time suffering from a wound in right arm, received at Bethesda Church, June 3, and would not leave the field until after he received a third bullet wound, which caused his death. A braver, truer, and nobler soldier never lived.

Major Hart, commanding Fifty-first Pennsylvania, received three severe wounds while gallantly leading his regiment.

I am much indebted to Colonel Harriman, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, for the valuable service rendered by him on the 19th.

The members of my staff - Capt. J.D. Bertollette, assistant adjutant-general; Capt. R. N. Doyle, provost-marshal; Capt. C. H. McCreery, acting assistant inspector-general; Lieutenants Watts and Bean, acting aides-de-camp, and Lieutenant Campbell, acting engineer officer - deserve particular mention for their coolness, bravery, and gallantry in the field, and I am much indebted to them for the valuable and efficient services they rendered me. Lieutenant Bean had his horse killed under him, and was himself severely wounded."

The full division report is as follows:

"Reports of Brig. Gen. Orlando B. Willcox . . . .

Meantime, pursuant to General Parke's orders, the First Brigade, Col. Samuel Harriman, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, commanding, was formed on the left of the Pegram house and obliquely in rear of both the Second Division and Hartranft's brigade, with orders from me to support either, as the occasion should demand. One regiment (One hundred and ninth New York) of this brigade was posted on a road coming in rear from the southwest.

As soon as Potter's division became engaged I ordered the brigade to extend farther to the right as far as the Pegram house road so as to support General Potter. A moment afterward I received orders from General Parke to advance the reserve to the crest of the field toward the Second Division, and both brigades were ordered forward. Harriman was on the left and in front of the Pegram house, in an open field, and the Third Brigade, Col. N.B. McLaughlen, Fifty-seventh Massachusetts Volunteers, commanding, was in rear and in the woods. The orders were scarcely given before the Second Division troops had fallen back as far as Harriman's line, which now became engaged on its own ground.

The field sloping up toward the enemy gave them the advantage of ground, and Harriman's brigade soon began to give way. The right wing, consisting of the Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Eighth and Twenty-seventh Michigan, retired in good order to a fence on the left of the Pegram House, where these regiments halted, faced about, checked the farther advance of the enemy, and threw up hasty breast-works of rails, where they remained. The left wing did not behave so well; the Thirteenth Ohio (dismounted) Cavalry were thrown into panic and part of them fled ingloriously from the field, breaking the Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, which latter, however, were soon reformed in the woods in rear. McLaughlen's brigade was moving forward under my orders toward Harriman's line and rallying fugitives when Captain Wright, assistant adjutant general Second Division, rode up and requested me to send some troops to the right of the Pegram house. Here McLaughlen was put in position, connecting on the right with the Fifth Corps troops and on the left with Harriman's brigade, and opened fire on the enemy, checking his farther advance in this quarter of the field. Hartranft's brigade, in retiring on the left, had considerable skirmishing with the enemy, who drove his skirmishers across the swamp on his left and threatened his rear. But this brigade withdrew in excellent order and took position to the left and rear of Harriman's line. The division now occupied the front on the left of the Fifth Corps. Before dusk the enemy fell back. In the evening there was some firing on our right, but mostly from our own men. Pickets were thrown out and the rest of the troops withdrawn to a position in front of the Peebles house, the right about half a mile from the Pegram house and the left at the Clements house, and defenses thrown up. While leading the troops Lieut. Otis Fisher, Eighth U.S. Infantry, assistant commissary of musters of the division, fell mortally wounded near the Pegram house. He was ever brave and ready in action, high-toned and chivalrous, and his loss is sincerely mourned. Lieut. George Goodsell, Seventeenth Michigan Volunteers, assistant provost-marshal on my staff, also received a serious wound while zealously and gallantly engaged in carrying orders. My casualties for the day, already sent in, were as follows:

On the morning of October 1 the picket-line left out near the Pegram house was attacked in force, and withdrew to our immediate front, and the day was spent in digging rifle pits and slashing.

On the morning of the 2d, under orders from corps headquarters, I moved the division through the woods in line of battle, with the skirmishers, past the Pegram house to the Boisseau house, near which Hartranft's brigade on the right connected with Potter's division. McLaughlen occupied the center and Harriman the left connecting with Mott's division, Second Corps. A forward movement was first ordered from this point, and my skirmishers drove the enemy's pickets some distance. McLaughlen's brigade was advanced about 300 yards up the Boisseau house road, but the movement was countermanded, and the enemy advanced their skirmishers to the foot of the field of the Boisseau house. Their works were in plain sight and they used some artillery. During the demonstration on the enemy's works made by General Mott, a part of Harriman's brigade was moved to the left and occupied the ground vacated by a portion of Mott's troops, but no other assistance was called for. At 6 p.m. the division was withdrawn to a new line running toward the Peebles house, bearing westwardly, the right resting in rear of the Pegram house and connecting with the Second Division. Here intrenchments were thrown up. Casualties for the day were as follows: Third Brigade, enlisted men, killed, 1; wounded, 8; total 9.

On the morning of October 8, under orders from General Parke, two brigades, Hartranft's and McLaughlen's, moved out on the road from the Clements house toward the Hawks house, and the picket-line, under Colonel Harriman, covering the front between the Pegram house and the Clements house, was at the same time moved out, with supports, toward the enemy. The object was twofold, viz, to make a demonstration upon the enemy's skirmishers, and to reconnoiter toward the Boydton plank road. The head of Hartranft's brigade was at the Clements house at 7 a.m. His brigade was soon deployed on the left of the road, McLaughlen's on the right, connecting with Harriman, who connected with the Second Division. We came upon the enemy's vedettes at an abandoned line of the enemy's works half a mile from the Clements house. McLaughlen's brigade was thrown across the line and moved out at an angle with Hartranft until the enemy's skirmishers were encountered. Hartranft came into the Smith house field and discovered a working party of the enemy in a redoubt near the Hawks house. Skirmishers were thrown forward by General Hartranft, before whom the working party retired. A position was now taken across Smith's field to the redoubt, and from there along and across the line of works, and the whole line of skirmishers advanced, driving back the enemy's line about half a mile to the left and front. Their cavalry were in front of Hartranft and hovered around his extreme left with some annoyance. Infantry appeared to be on McLaughlen's front. Meantime Harriman encountered no force, but his scouting parties reported a column of the enemy moving toward our left. A report to the same effect was received from General Potter also. The enemy's skirmishers halted on a ridge covered with brush, and I ordered General Hartranft to push a reconnaissance down the road as far as possible toward the plank road, and reported the situation of affairs to the major-general commanding. His orders were to keep up the connection with Harriman, make a drive at the enemy's skirmishers, but avoid bringing on a general engagement. I then ordered Hartranft to swing up his left, and as soon as he got into line with McLaughlen to attack with his skirmishers simultaneously with those of McLaughlen. During the execution of these orders the enemy's skirmishers advanced. The reconnoitering party were attacked at a cross-road about half a mile from the line by a small party of cavalry, which was repulsed, and considerable skirmishing ensued in front of both brigades. At two points our pickets were driven in. I had some reason to expect an attack in force, and I ordered the troops to close in, and my action now being left discretionary with me by General Parke, I determined to resist with my whole force. Hartranft drew in his left, and McLaughlen re-established his picket line where it had been assailed. The firing along the front of the two brigades rather increased, but no attack was made. I remained on the ground till 6 p.m., when, in obedience to orders, I established a new and advanced picket line in front of the intrenchments between the Pegram and Clements houses, and withdrew the troops to their camps. Casualties for the day as follows:

For more detailed account of the actions of regiments I refer to reports of brigade commanders, herewith forwarded.

The report of the brigade commander expanded on the battle and the role of the 13th Ohio:

"Report of Col. Samuel Harriman, Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Infantry, commanding First Brigade, of operations September 30 - October 9.

Hdqrs. First Brig., First Div., Ninth Army Corps, Near Peebles' House, Va., October 16, 1861.

Captain: I have the honor to make the following report of the operations of my command from September 30 to October 9, 1864:

I assumed command of the brigade on the morning of the 30th of September, as it lay near the Gurley house, relieving Col. B. C. Christ, mustered out of service by reason of expiration of term. My command consisted of six regiments, the Fifty-first Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers and Seventy-ninth New York Volunteers having been left as a garrison to Fort Hays. We moved from camp at 11 o'clock, following the Third Brigade; passed by Poplar Grove Church and formed line of battle in the woods near the road to the left of the Peebles house, to protect the left flank of the army, at the same time throwing out pickets. I advanced a scouting party to beyond the forks of the road, which reported nothing not before discovered. Subsequently I moved my command across the little ravine near by and formed it in line of battle across the road at right angles, leaving two regiments in reserve. I sent out twenty additional men with a lieutenant, conducted by a staff officer, who returned late in the afternoon and reported they had advanced a distance of one mile and a half; found one line of works vacated by the enemy, which were taken possession of. The cavalry pickets were discovered, and through information given a force of cavalry was sent out and occupied the ground. At near 3 o'clock my command was moved to the right and formed in line of battle to the left of the Pegram house. Thus far we had scarcely received a shot from the enemy. The One hundred and ninth New York was posted on picket on a road running west of south. The troops to our left, about 4.30 o'clock, were attacked and compelled to fall back. This emboldened the enemy and they rushed into the field and poured a deadly fire into our ranks. The men held their position for a while, but were finally compelled to fall back. This the right regiments - Thirty-seventh Wisconsin, Eighth Michigan, and Twenty-seventh Michigan Volunteers - did in good order, and sought what shelter they could behind a rail fence from which they hastily constructed rude breast-works. These regiments did good service in keeping the enemy at bay and held the ground till relieved. The Thirteenth Ohio were thrown into a panic by a few shots and fled, the greater part of them, from the field. A part of them, under Captains Wheeler and Gore, were afterward collected and placed on the line. The Thirty-eighth Wisconsin were thrown into confusion by the Thirteenth Ohio, but were formed and placed in line in General Hartranft's brigade. At 11 o'clock my command was relieved and marched farther up the road, where it had lain in the early part of the afternoon, on the hill where a line works were constructed during the night. The works were perfected on Saturday as much as we could in the drenching rain, and our picket-line in front and along the road well established.

Orders were received to be in readiness to advance at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, 2d instant. Just 500 men from the Thirty-eighth Wisconsin, who had joined the brigade the day before, were left in command of Colonel Bintliff to hold the works. We commenced advancing after 8 o'clock, my skirmish line connecting with Colonel McLaughlen on the right and the Second Corps on the left. In passing through the woods no enemy was discovered. In advancing I endeavored to keep my troops near Colonel McLaughlen. The Twenty-seventh Michigan were detailed as skirmishers and the Eighth Michigan as support. I advanced my connections perfect to the cleared field, near where my command lay on the 30th ultimo. The skirmishers were sent forward with support, and soon exchanged shots with the enemy. The brigade was moved forward into the open field, connecting on the right and left; afterward were posted in echelon fifty paces to the rear of Colonel McLaughlen's brigade. At 1 o'clock moved upon a line with him. The brigade was formed into two lines, One hundred and ninth New York and Thirty-seventh Wisconsin Volunteers in front line, Thirty-eighth Wisconsin and Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry in support. Orders were received to keep a sharp lookout on the left, and in case the brigade on the left moved to keep connected with them. Staff officers made frequent visits and an orderly was sent over to report any movements on the left. It was reported that three regiments of General Pierce's brigade had moved to the front a short distance, which fact having been reported to General Willcox, moved my command to the left in his lines and filled up the space vacated. It is understood that the failure to carry the works of the enemy, and which resulted in the repulse of the three regiments making the assault, is attributed in part to the failure of my brigade to properly support the advancing column. I acted in strict obedience to orders, having at no time received instructions to do more than hold the line I then occupied, unless called upon by General Pierce for support. Near sunset I was ordered to withdraw my command, which I did, and moved to the right, where my troops were placed on line, connecting with the line of works captured by the Fifth Corps. Breast-works were constructed and occupied by all my command present, except the Eighth and Twenty-seventh Michigan. Subsequently a new line was laid out and built, which the Eighth Michigan, Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, Twenty-seventh Michigan, One hundred and ninth New York, and Thirty-seventh Wisconsin occupied.

On the 8th instant my command picketed in front of the First and Third Divisions. Orders having been received the night previous that the First Division should make a reconnaissance, the picket line advanced as a line of skirmishers, connecting with General Potter on the right and Colonel McLaughlen on the left. The skirmish line was strengthened from time to time, as gaps were occasioned on my left, until the One hundred and ninth New York, 140 strong, were all placed on the line. The Eighth Michigan, Lieut. Col. Ralph Ely commanding, were in reserve as support. My skirmish line advanced through the woods, beyond the forks of the road, and held a position till night in the edge of the field and in the woods to the left of the field. The remainder of my brigade held the line of works to the rear. I received positive orders at one time from a staff officer on General Willcox's staff to move out my whole command and form it in line of battle 300 or 400 paces to the rear of the skirmish line and connect with Colonel McLaughlen's line, reserve on the left, by scouts. This I did, but afterward received instructions only to keep a sufficient force to support my picket line. I then withdrew these troops to the line of works; subsequently moved out the Twenty-seventh Michigan, Captain Waite commanding, to strengthen the reserve. The enemy was not found in any force. The cavalry outposts of the enemy were driven in, a few shots exchanged, and several of their horsemen unhorsed. A new picket line was established, and after dark the skirmish line and supports were withdrawn to the new line.

I am, captain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

Sam. Harriman,
Colonel, Commanding Brigade.
Capt. John D. Bertolette, Assistant Adjutant-General."

History Of Allen County included the following information about William Greenberry Wright in a biographical sketch of S. W. Wright:

"S. W. Wright was not only a farmer but was regarded as one of the ablest men of affairs in Allen County. He has to his credit two terms of capable service as county commissioner, and discharged other obligations in the common welfare. The Wright farm and home are a mile east of Delphos in Marion Township.

He was born in Highland County, Ohio, November 19, 1850, son of William G. and Louisa (Manker) Wright. His father, who was born in Virginia, May 3, 1827, a son of William and Rhoda R. Wright, came with his parents to Highland County, Ohio, at the age of eight years. William G. Wright married Louisa Manker January 2, 1850. She died October 4, 1871, mother of the following children: Sylvenius W., V. H., Luella B., deceased, Eugenia, Nevada E. and Lena. William G. Wright enlisted in the Thirteenth Ohio Cavalry early in the Civil war, was wounded in the knee at Perryville, and for the rest of the war performed duties as a recruiting officer at Cincinnati. He then resumed farming, and on June 13, 1872, married Martha R. Judkins, daughter of Franklin and Caroline Judkins. The children born to that union were Birdie D., Lulellis, Mabel, Rosaline, Cleotus, Lillie A., Rhoda D. and Goldie., four of whom died in infancy. In 1882 William G. Wright moved to Van Wert County, buying a 100-acre farm east of the county seat. He was a democrat in politics and in 1893 was elected trustee of his township. Besides being a practical farmer he gained a great reputation in early life as a hunter and killed many deer in Ohio and other states. For a number of years he conducted an apiary in connection with his general farming. He was a member of the Masonic order and his wife was a Methodist. . . ."

In various undated notes, but written in about 1968, Cletus Orlen Wright stated that William Greenberry Wright was a son of William S. Wright and Rhoda (Wright) Wright, was born on May 3, 1827, at Bedford County, Virginia, moved to Highland County, Ohio, when he was eight years old, married first Louisa Manker on January 2, 1850,, moved to Allen County, Ohio, served in the 13th Ohio Cavalry in the Civil War, married second Martha Rebecca Judkins on June 13, 1872, at her home, moved to Van Wert County, Ohio, on October 3, 1882, and died on December 23, 1907, at Hudson, Michigan, that Louisa (Manker) Wright was born on June 29, 1832, and died on October 5, 1871, that Martha Rebecca (Judkins) Wright was the daughter of Franklin B. Judkins and Antice Caroline (Drake) Judkins, was born on May 5, 1851, near Lima, Ohio, and died on October 4, 1904, near Van Wert, Ohio, and that William Greenberry Wright and Louisa (Manker) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Sylvanus Wesley Wright, born on November 2, 1850,
- 2) Vinson Howard Wright, born on July 3, 1853,

- 3) Luella Bell Wright, born on October 25, 1855,
- 4) Eugenie Ellen Wright, born on January 1, 1860,
- 5) Novada Emma Wright, born on May 5, 1862, and
- 6) Lena May Wright, born on August 9, 1871, and that William Greenberry Wright and Martha Rebecca (Judkins) Wright had the following children:

- 1) _____ Wright, an unnamed daughter born on December 14, 1874, who died in infancy,
  - 2) Bertie Dell (Wright) Mohler, born on June 20, 1876, near Delphos, Ohio,

  - 6) Lillie Antice Wright, born on March 29, 1885, near Van Wert, Ohio,
  - 7) Dulcena Rhoda Wright, born on February 15, 1888, near Van Wert, Ohio,
- and
- 8) Golda Gertrude Wright, born on May 31, 1891, near Van Wert, Ohio.

In her letter dated October 6, 1994, Karen Piojda stated that Lutellis Wells Wright "told how his Dad would go to the same stump year after year, sit on it, place a blanket over his legs with a lantern under it for heat. He said all he had to do is sit and wait. Claimed he would have his deer within three days."

In her letter dated July 26, 1995, Mrs. Karen Piojda enclosed the following statement:

"On April 23, 1995 while visiting with T. E. Judkins (Great-grandson of Emily J. Judkins) of Critersville, Ohio I was shown old papers. There was no listing in the 1830 Census for Bedford or Franklin County for a Solomon or Phebe Wright. In conjunction with the 1815 Personal Property Tax List, the birth date of Solomon Wright can be estimated as in 1794 or 1795. Since Anthony Wright was residing in Bedford County at the time of birth, the place of birth of Solomon Wright was probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

The complaint in the case of Wright v. Wright at Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 682, listed all seven children of Solomon and Phebe Wright as party plaintiffs:

The daughter Martha Ann was listed in the case as married to Jessie G. Bondurant. The marriage bond of Martha Ann Wright, daughter of Pheba, and Jesse G. Bondurant was dated on December 11, 1843, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Joel M. Wright as surety. The daughter Eliza Jane was listed in the case as the wife of Samuel W. Claytor. The marriage bond of Eliza Jane Wright, daughter of Phebe, and Samuel H. Claytor was dated on June 22, 1849, at Bedford County, Virginia, with Jubal Wright as surety and the marriage on July 4, 1849. An accounting for the estate of Anthony Wright recorded at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. A/158 in 1854 listed Samuel H. Claytor as a distributee.

On September 11, 1852, at Franklin County, Virginia, D.B. 22/302, the heirs of 1849 Thomas Wright sold some of his land and Phebe (Wright) Wright was described as then of Roanoke County, Virginia.

Solomon Wright is identified as the son of 1850 Anthony Wright of Bedford County from the deposition of Anthony P. Wright dated November 30, 1852, and filed in the case of Wright v. Wright, Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 682:

"Ans. I have frequently had conversations with Anthony Wright _____(?) in regard to the land conveyed by him to Solomon Wright. He said that he did not intend to charge his son Solomon rent for the land, for if he did, it would eat of his interest in the estate . . . ."

Similarly, in the argument of counsel Wm Goggin filed in that same case in April 1855 the following statement was made:

". . . . It is evident to my mind that in 1840-41 he (after the old man is proven to be incapable of doing business at times) this aforesaid Anthony got the ear of the old man and induced him then to make out a list of charges against his children so as to benefit his mother and himself and that the old man had forgotten that he had near 20 years before been paid by his son Solomon $432 for the very land that Anthony P. makes him talk about charging rent for --"

On December 30, 1854, at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 37/228 Phebe Wright and her children Jeremiah Wright, Jubal J. Wright, Solomon M. Wright, and Thomas A. Wright, and Eliza Jane (Wright) Claytor conveyed their interest in 108 acres of Solomon Wright's land to Joel M. Wright:

Our Kin listed Solomon Wright as a son of Anthony Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below the children of 1831 Solomon Wright of Bedford County and Phebe (Wright) Wright were the following:

- 1) Thomas Anthony Wright, born between 1817 and 1820 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 2) Martha Ann (Wright) Bondurant, born about 1821 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County,
- 3) Joel Mayse Wright, born on August 8, 1822, at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 4) Jeremiah L. Wright, born between 1820 and 1825 at Virginia, probably at Bedford County, Virginia,
- 5) Solomon Minnis Wright, born between 1825 and 1830 probably at Bedford County, Virginia,

6) Eliza Jane (Wright) Claytor, born between 1825 and 1830 probably at Bedford County, Virginia, and

7) Jubal J. Wright, born about March or April 1830 or probably before October 1929 probably at Bedford County, Virginia.

i. Thomas Anthony Wright And His Wife Mary Jane (Richardson) Wright, And His Descendants

The will of Solomon Wright dated July 1, 1830, and probated on October 24, 1831, at Bedford County, Virginia, W.B. 8/1 listed Thomas Anthony Wright as one of his children:

". . . whatever may remain of my estate I desire shall be equally divided among my children seven in number and names as follows, Thomas, Anthony, . . ."

The 1840 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed the oldest male in the Phoebe Wright household as aged between 20 and 30 years, indicating a date of birth between 1810 and 1820. Since the marriage bond of Solomon and Phebe Wright was dated December 27, 1817, the date of birth was probably between 1817 and 1820.

The marriage consent and bond of Thomas A. Wright and Mary Jane Richardson was dated on May 11, 1841, at Roanoke County, Virginia, with Lewis W. Richardson as surety:

"Mr William Cook Clerk of the County Court of Roanoke

Dear Sir This is to Certify that I am Willing that Thomas A Wright may obtain License for the Marriage of Mary Jane Richardson And that it meets the Approbation of her Mother Given under my hand this 10th of May 1841

On or about January 31, 1855, John Q. A. Wright filed a complaint in Bedford County, Virginia, Chancery Court, File 679, against Joel M. Wright for profits due from a partnership for peddling merchandise. A copy of the complaint was not among the papers in the file, but the gist of the complaint can be determined from the answer of Joel M. Wright filed on April 4, 1855:

"To the Honorable the Judge of the Circuit Court of Bedford in Chancery sitting the answer of Joel M. Wright to a bill of complaint exhibited in this Court against him by a certain John Q. A. Wright - now and at all times saving to himself the benefit of all proper exception to the same for answer saith - that he admits that in the year 1849 he entered into a copartnership with the plaintiff under the style of John Q A and Joel M Wright for the purpose of peddling goods - that the said plaintiff was to furnish goods for the purpose - that this respondent was to peddle them -that they were to divide the profits after paying expenses -that the partnership was to continue for one year - and that the capital put in by the plaintiff was to be repaid him - having regard however to all losses and casualties of every kind - this respondent being expected of course to act with proper prudence in the business and in the sales of the goods. That this respondent was not restricted business to the Counties of Bedford and Roanoke as stated in the bill. That in pursuance of the agreement the plaintiff did furnish goods during part of the year to the amount of near $900 - perhaps a little over, but less than $1000: as he has not the bills of goods now before him - that the said goods were placed in trunks and locked and the keys kept in possession of this respondent - that he did peddle the said goods and sell such as were saleable there being many that were of an old stock that were unsalable - though the plaintiff agreed to furnish such goods as would pay a profit. That the amount of goods sold or the value thereof was above $900 which was the full value of so many as were disposed of. That the balance that could not be sold were brought back to the office of the plaintiff where they were left in the trunks til such time as an inventory could be taken of them so as to be fully accounted for in a settlement to be made thereafter with the plaintiff that said trunks were in fact in the keeping of the plaintiff though this respondent held the keys thereof and the said trunks and goods were placed there with the consent of the plaintiff he
