HARD DAY Ronny Gattoni takes a little 'cat nap' during the busy election day. The mock election was held October 30, 1976.

BUNNY HOP Mrs. Kavitz's third period P.E. class participate in a coordination exercise. Lynn Cahill, Crystal Clark, Mari Black and Linda Stokely think it's all just for fun.

You could look back at this year and say that it had been the same as any other year. There was nothing really "big" happening like the Bicentennial. Yet, many things happened that had a big effect on some student's lives.

It was a cold winter in Roanoke. Reports said that this was the coldest winter since 1912. We missed several days of school because of bad driving conditions as a result of snow. There were three snow storms in one week, that resulted in missing six days of school in a row. We also missed two days because of a gas shortage at the Roanoke Gas Company. The shortage came as a result of sub-zero temperatures.

As a result of annexation we will lose several hundred students. Many friends will be lost to the city schools. Some students are grumbling about the situation. Likely so are the teachers as some will lose their jobs.

In contrast six pregnant teachers were doing their best to replenish the county's lost population.

DAILY ROUTINE Most students have upstairs classes so the stairs are an institution. Though many use back stairs, most wish for elevators.

HUDDLE Question: what are two principals, two teachers and two maintenance men talking about? Answer: Could be anything.

DEDICATION

Lisa Barr

Kim Spraker

We the members of the 1976-1977 Northside Junior High School Yearbook Staff dedicate this annual to Lisa Barr and Kim Spraker.

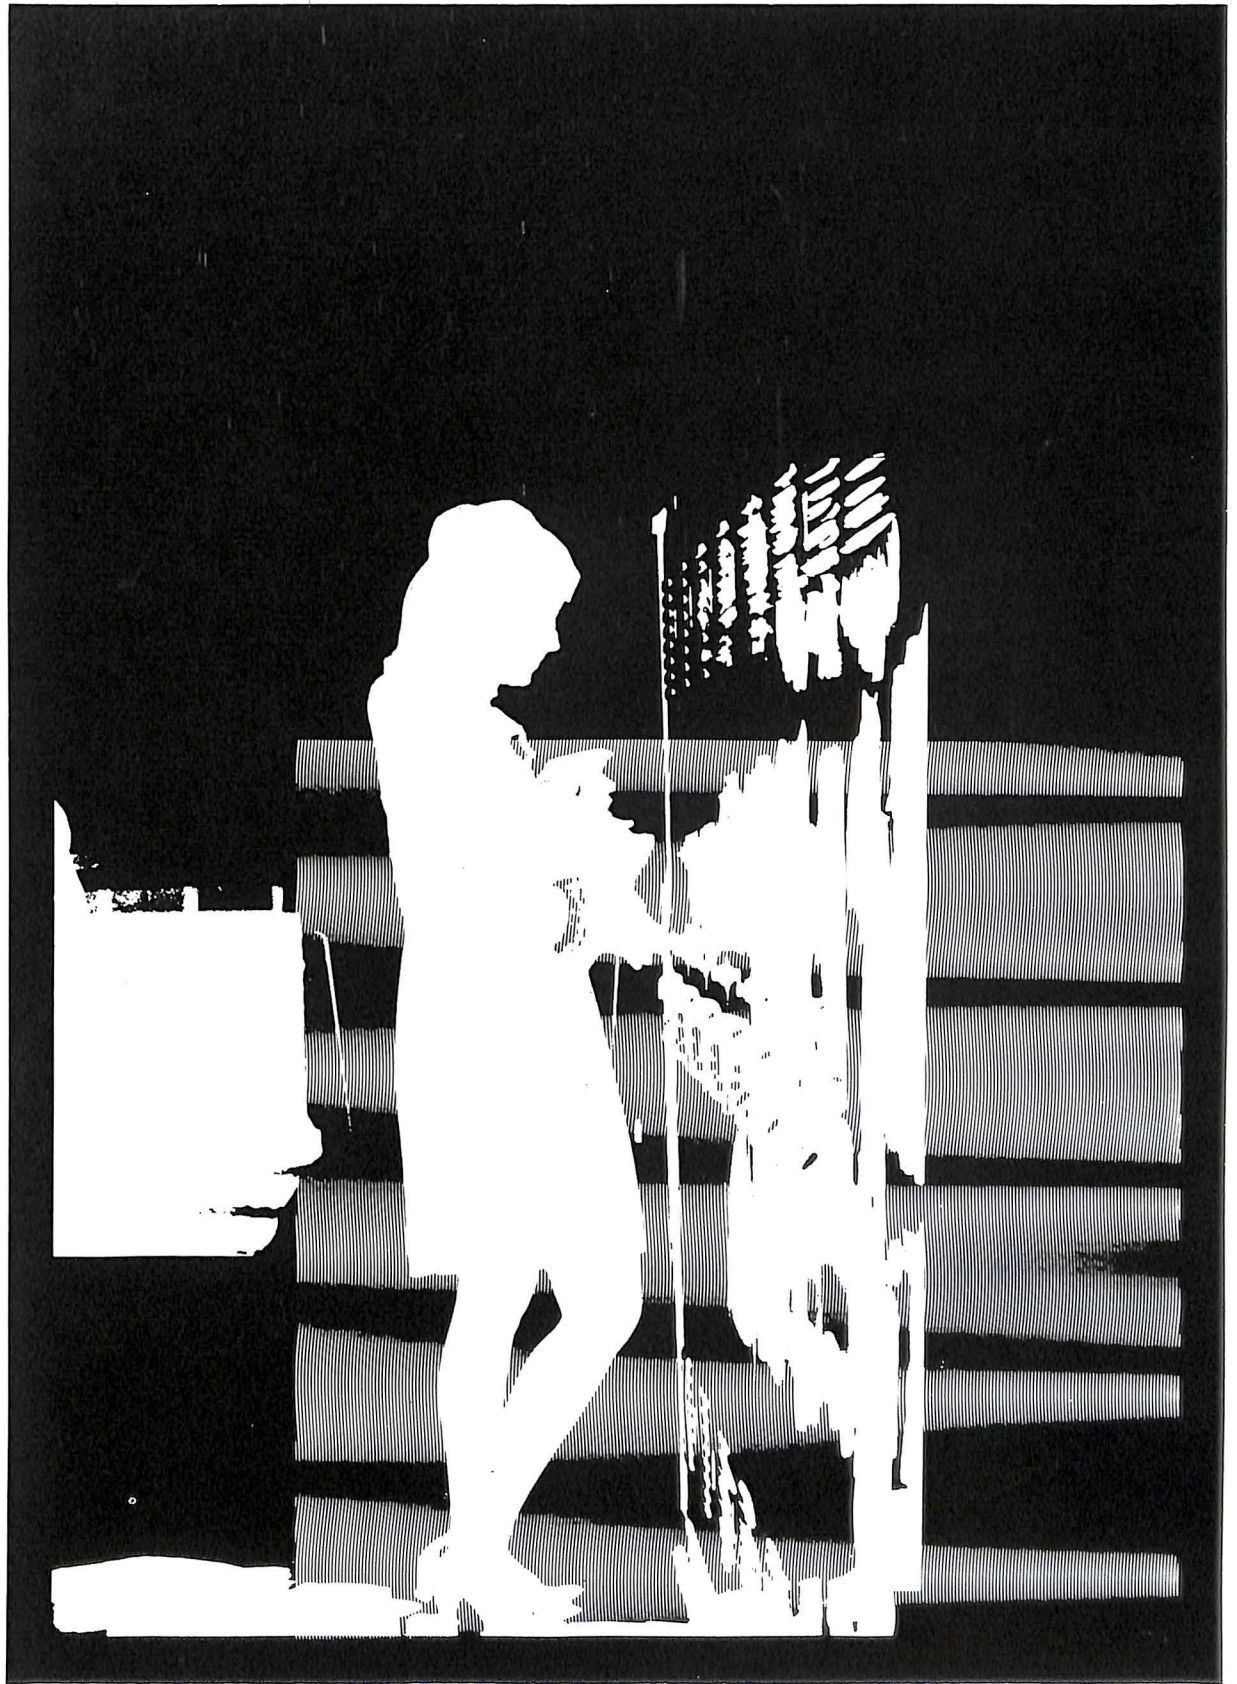

Lisa Barr died August 3, 1976 from a kidney disease. Lisa was a homebound student while enrolled at Northside Junior High, and she would have been a sophomore at Northside High School this year. The S.C.A. sponsored a "Lisa Barr Day" to raise money to help her parents with medical expenses.

Kim Spraker was a ninth grader at Northside Junior High this year. Kim was stricken with cancer in the spring of her eighth grade year. The S.C.A. sponsored a dance to raise money to help with her medical expenses. A giant birthday card was signed by many of the students and sent to her on her birthday Dec. 6, 1976. Kim Spraker died on February 12, 1977.

Lisa and Kim touched our lives. We miss them, and although their time with us was short, they made a contribution to us with their faith and courage. For these reasons we dedicate our 1976-1977-Norseman to Lisa Barr and Kim Spraker.

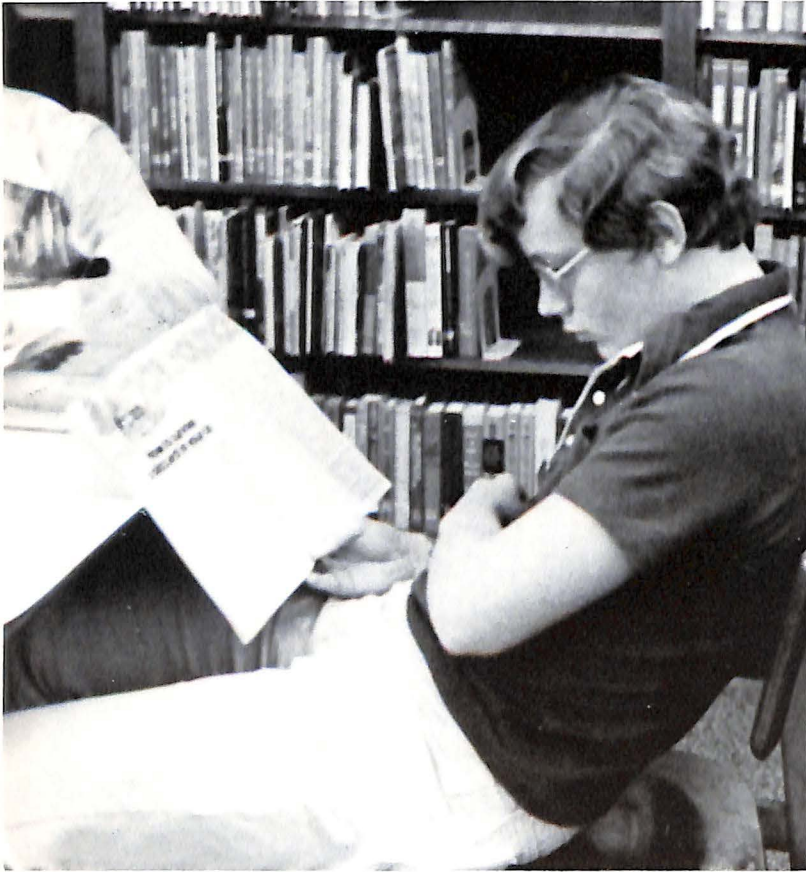

"For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven; A time to be born, and a time to die." Ecclesiastes 3; 1-2

MAGAZINES George Conner relaxes as he reads a magazine. The library carries a wide variety of magazines and newspapers such as the "Washington Post" and "Sports Illustrated."

Just as we've gotten used to it, it all goes down the drain. Northside High will be a challenge. But, we'll always remember the good and the bad times. Though many students will walk through these halls, Northside Junior High will always be our school.

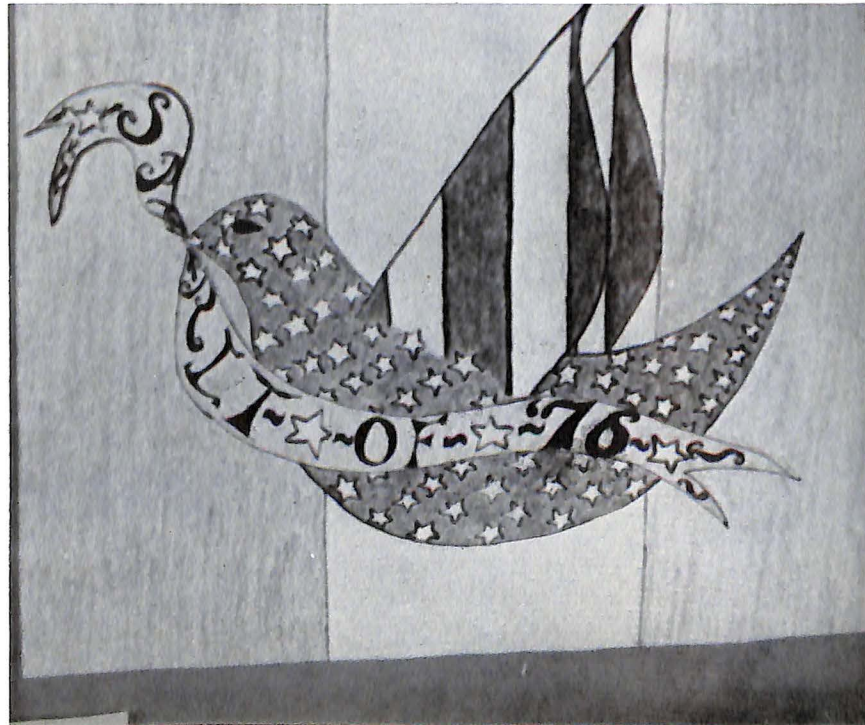

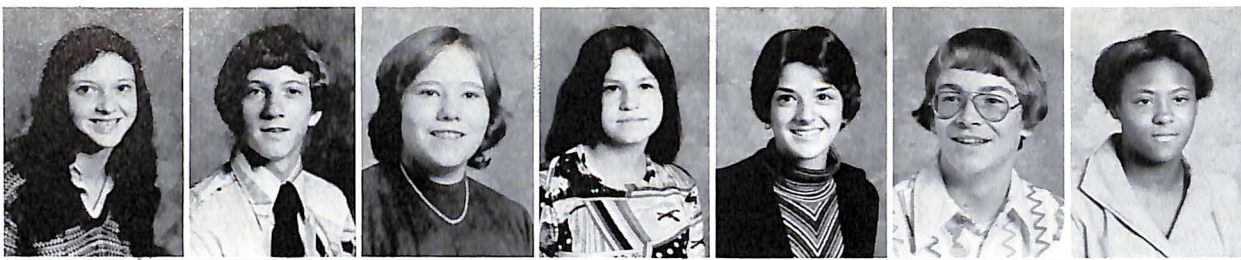

DOWN IN THE DUMPS Steve Hutcherson and Robin Smith look like this was not their day.

WHERE'S THE ELEPHANT? James Hamblin and Mr. Pattasol have a little chat before he gives his speech at our own "Presidential debate."

STATE WINNER This picture by Karen Butler placed first in the statewide Bicentennial Art Contest. Karen is now a sophomore at Northside High School.

DEEP THOUGHT Debbie Sink concentrates hard on what Mrs. Morris has just said.

The eighth grade was really going places this year. This class was one of the largest classes to go through Northside Junior High School.

Approximately thirty eighth grade students planned a trip to Washington D.C. in their foreign language class. They held bake sales to raise money for the trip.

In World Geography class the students held a mock election similar to the national election in order to see what the outcome of voting would be if students were allowed to vote.

Freshmen year will be a great challenge to us and we will try our best to get through it.

Seventh Grade

LET US BE THANKFUL was the theme for Mrs. MacFarlane's bulletin board in A9 during the month of November.

THE LADY WAS IN CHARGE is Trenda Keyton. The other students including Matt Thomas seem to have come to the right place.

YOU'VE SHOT my train of thought. Robert Sells was trying to concentrate on his test and was surprised by the interruption.

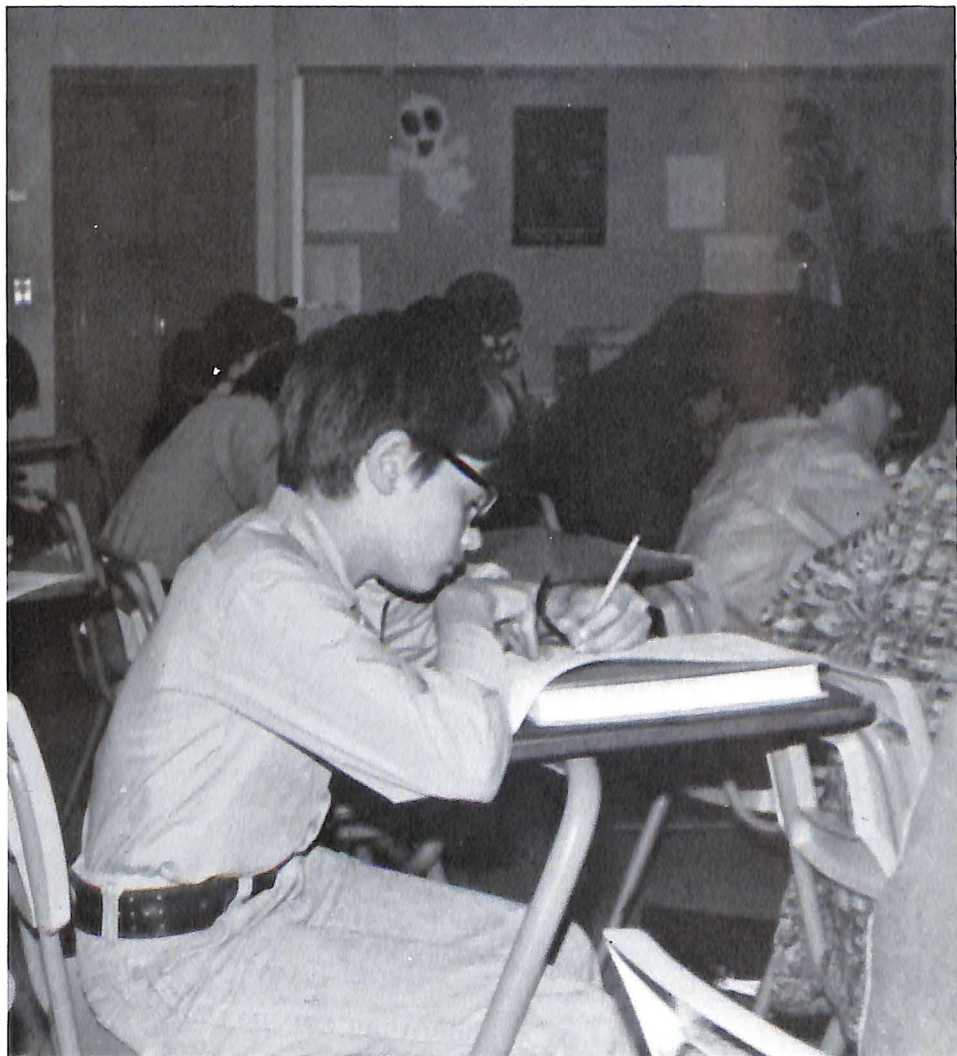

IT'S BEEN FUN:

Coming to the Junior High held new experiences for the seventh graders. There were new schedules, lockers, and new teachers. The first day when all three grades were here the seventh grade found the school a little more crowded than Orientation Day.

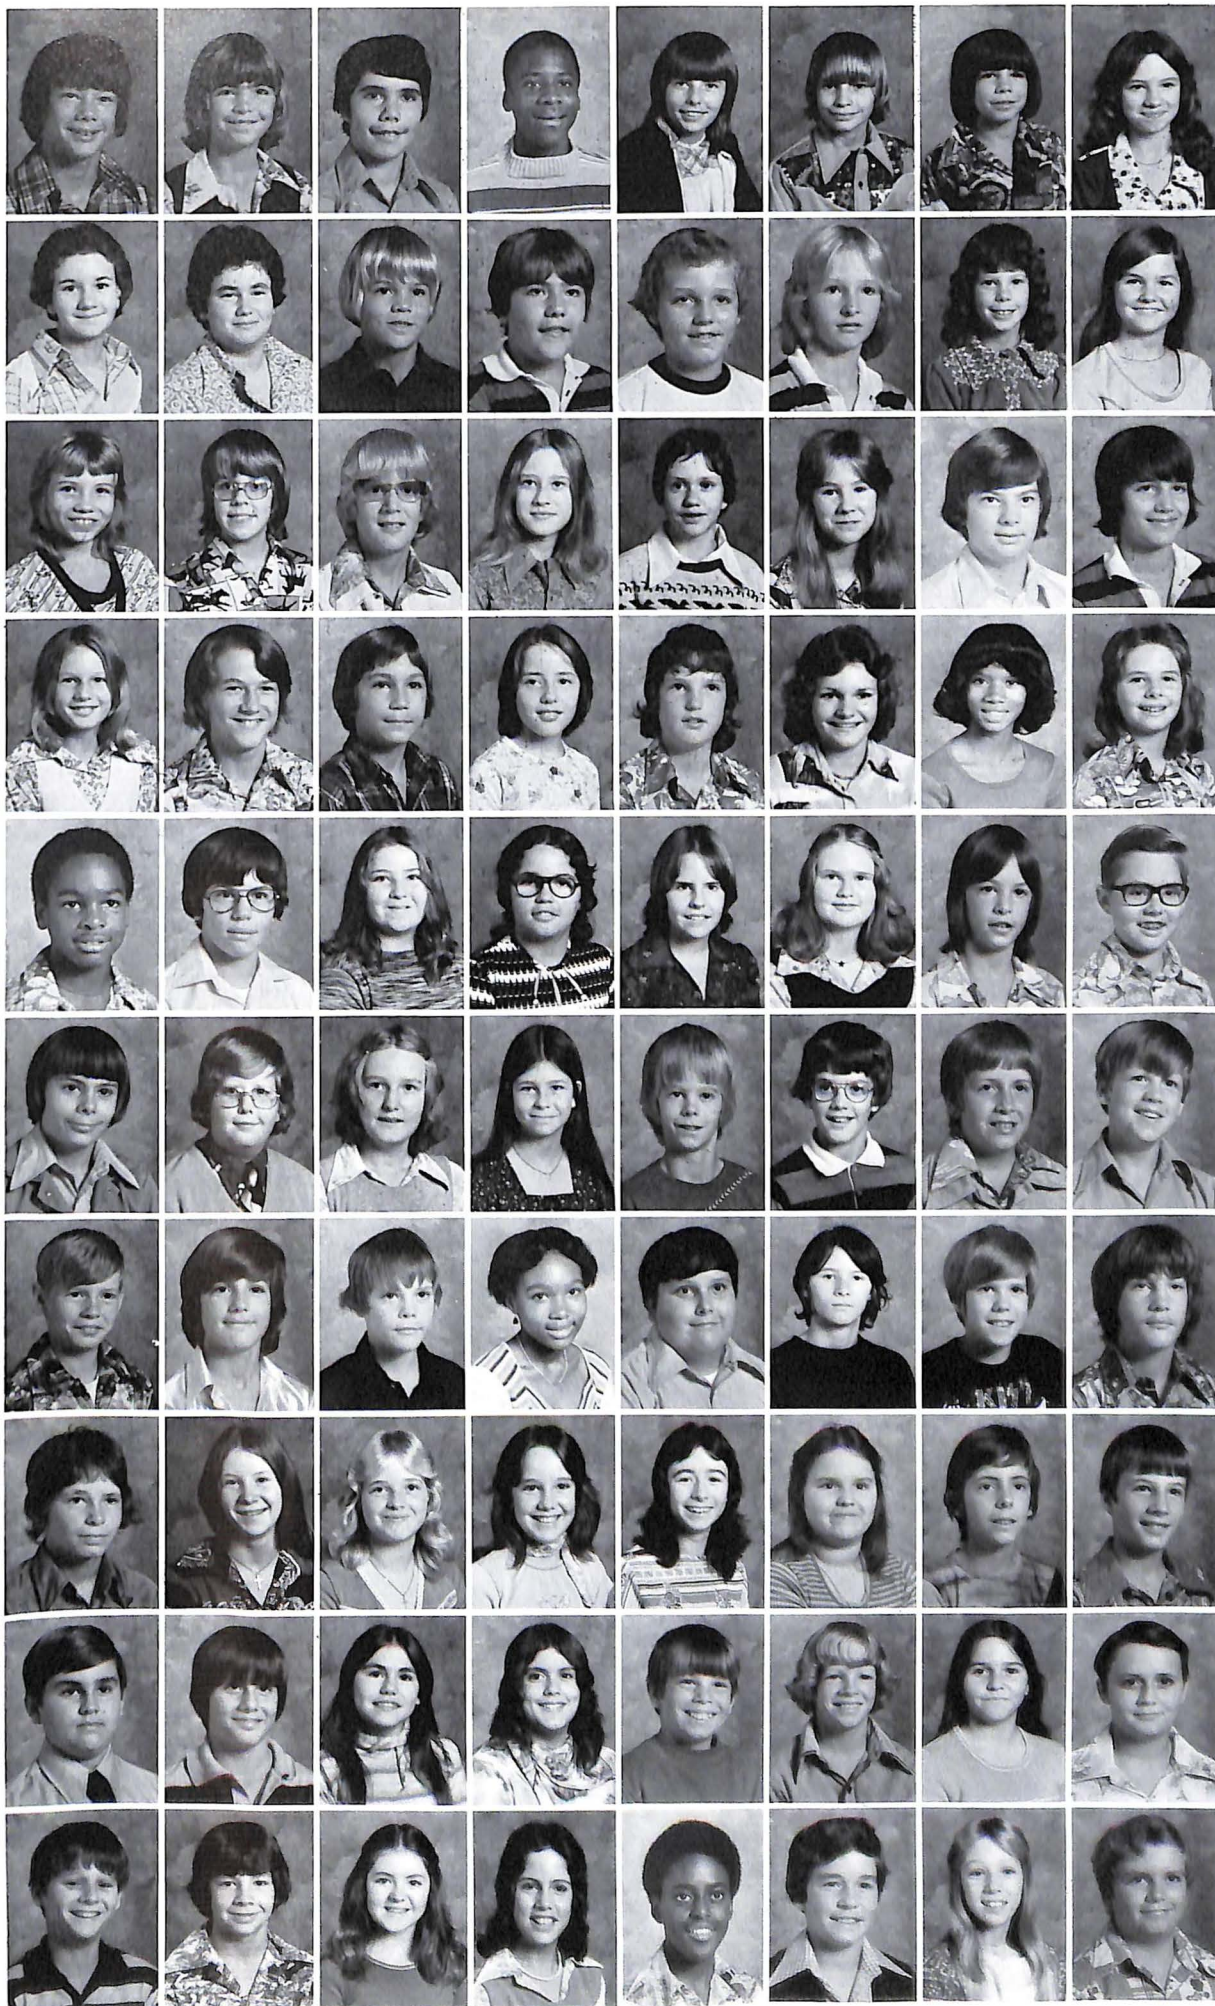

The first week was hectic with lockers that wouldn't open, people not being able to find their class, and renting textbooks.

Starting the second week it wasn't so bad. We learned our schedules, our locker combinations, and got to class on time.

Now that more than half the year is completed, almost everything is running smoothly

IT COULDN'T BE DONE there's too much work to do in Miss Storey's Social Studies class. Burley Harris, Allen James and Lee Harper are really trying to put in a day's work.

N.J.H.S. ADMINISTRATORS

Reflections on the Present School year:

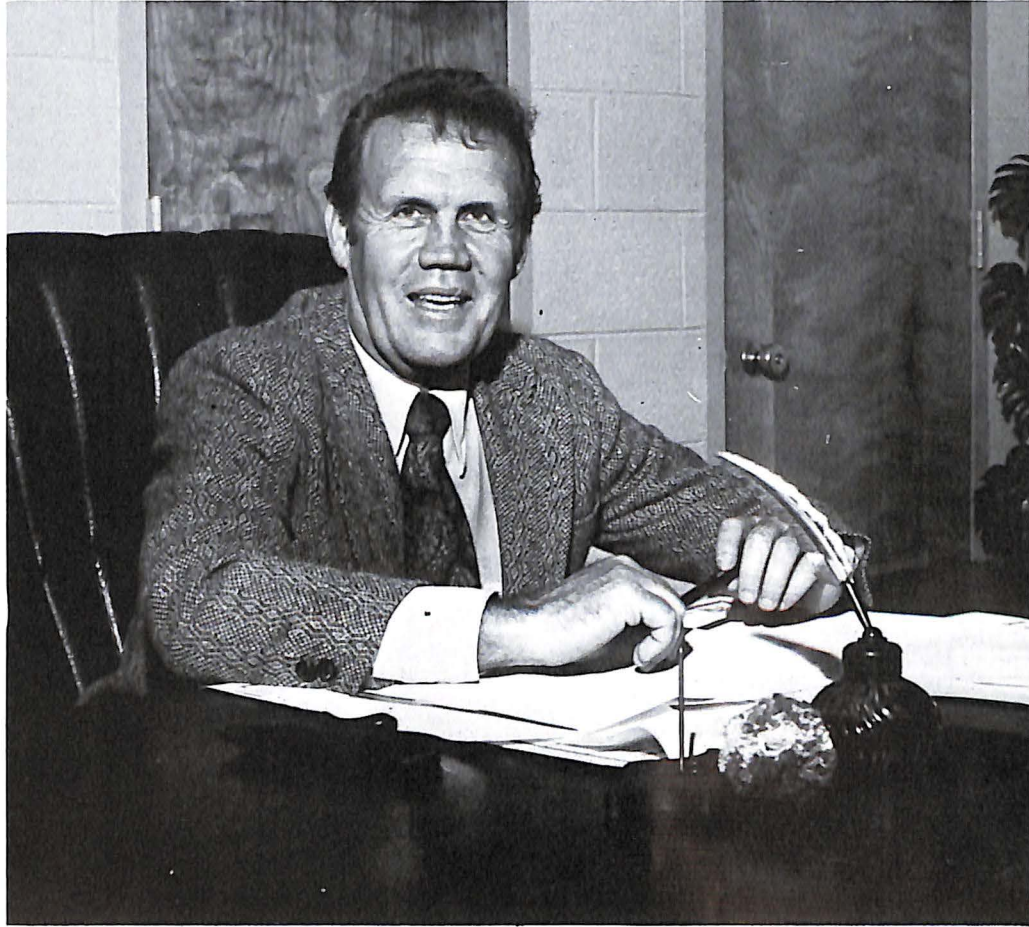

Each of us can be tremendously proud of our accomplishments in athletics, academics, and the fine reputation that our school has maintained throughout the county and state.

Students, teachers and parents are primarily responsible for the type of school that has been established.

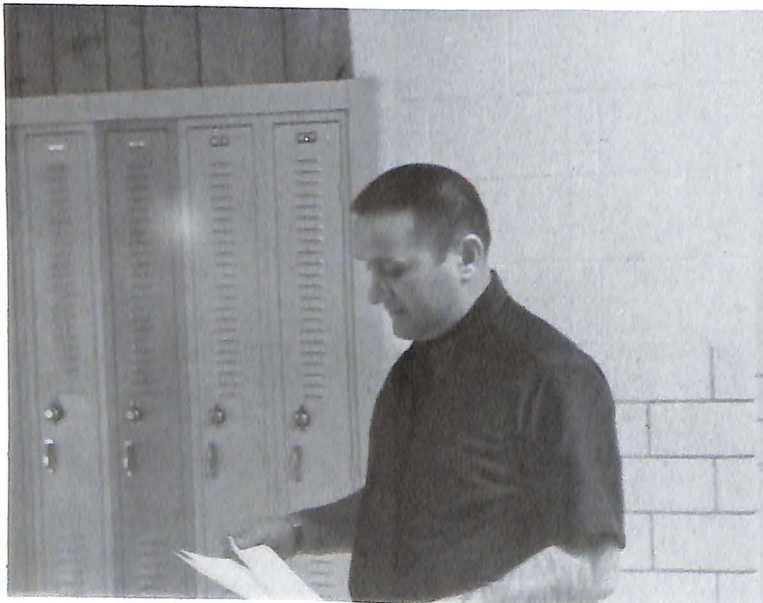

As a final comment may I mention how distressed I am that some of our students and faculty members will be leaving the Northside area at the end of this school year due to annexation. All of us wish them well in the future.

Affectionally,

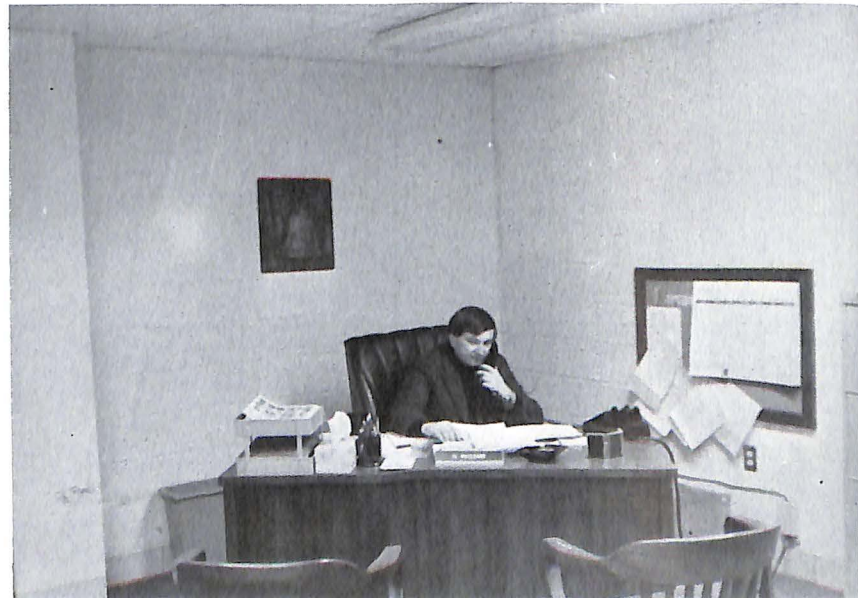

Harold L. Johnston

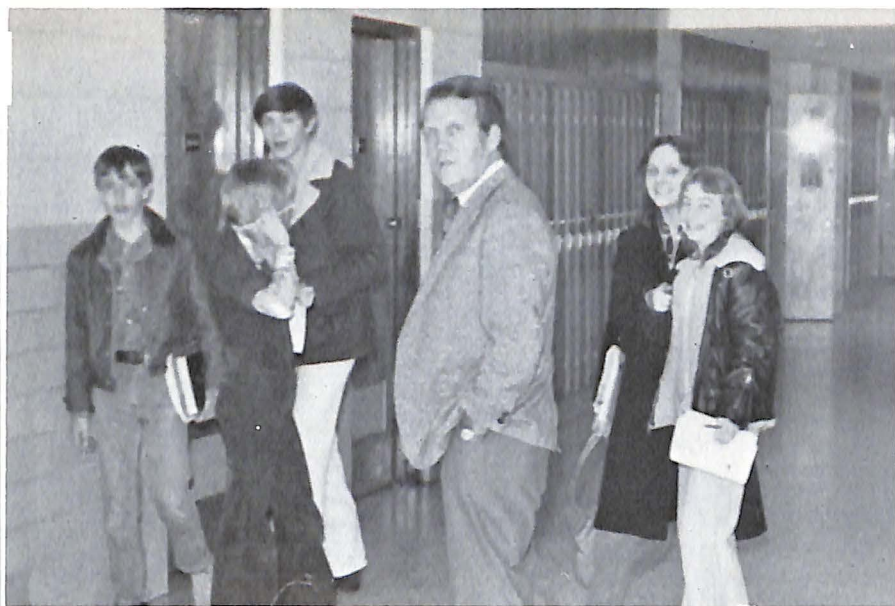

LOOKING UP Mr. Johnston takes time to have his picture taken after a hard days work.

WORKING HARD Mr. Dyer examines a paper while walking down the hall.

RESCHEDULING Mr. McClearn reschedules a basketball game due to the bad weather.

Throughout the school year the students had a few odd and end problems but they always knew who to come to.

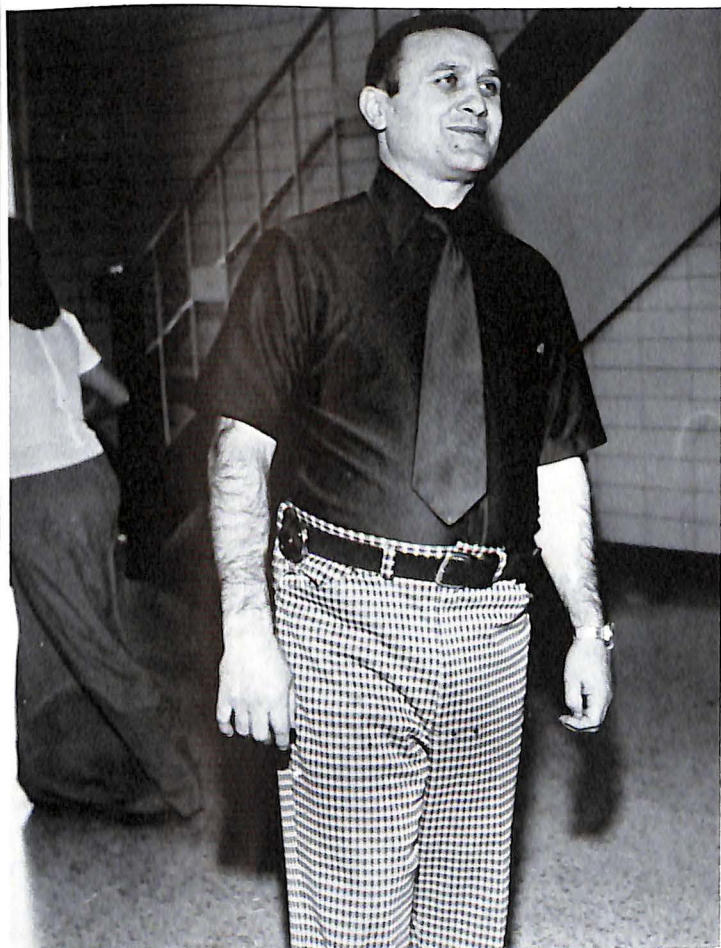

There were three principals who were responsible for our school activities. They not only helped maintain discipline but had many other jobs too.

Mr. Johnston, head principal was in charge of school matters. He spent his days solving student problems often with their parents. He was also seen walking through the halls and supervising the ninth grade lunch.

Mr. Dyer, eighth grade principal was in charge of student lockers. He made sure all student lunch periods operated without any problems. He also made sure schedules and report cards were ready to give out.

Mr. McClearn, seventh grade principal was in charge of the school athletic activities. He was also called in to solve bus problems and help with the discipline in the cafeteria.

POW WOW Mr. Johnston talks to a couple of Pre-Voc students before leaving for Pre-Voc.

WALK THIS WAY Mr. Dyer takes a stroll down the hall to make sure everything is satisfactory.

RELAXED Mr. McClearn stands and supervises the halls.

OUR SECRETARIES

ALL SMILES Mrs. Judy Robertson, our administrative assistant looks up from her work.

COME TO THE AIDS we are fortunate to have the assistance from our aids. Mrs. Gallimore works in the Guidance Department and Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Hamilton help in the reading classes.

Typing, answering the telephone, writing letters, buying office supplies and keeping records in order were just a few of the tasks that kept our two secretaries, Mrs. Robertson and Miss Laprad busy all day long.

Locating students in class, making announcements, stamping lunch tickets, and putting attendance cards in order were the office assistants. These students offered their services during study halls.

A TYPICAL DAY at Guidance. Robin Baker types while Jonathon Reed and Mrs. Ann Journell look on.

TEACHERS TAKE A TRIP

MRS. FRANCISCO, Mrs. Robertson, Mr. Williams and Mr. Jennings joke around outside a pastry shop in Paris, France.

MRS. ROBERTSON and the group guide pose for a picture in Holland.

TRAVELING TEACHERS Mrs. Francisco, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Keller, Mr. Williams and Mr. Jennings

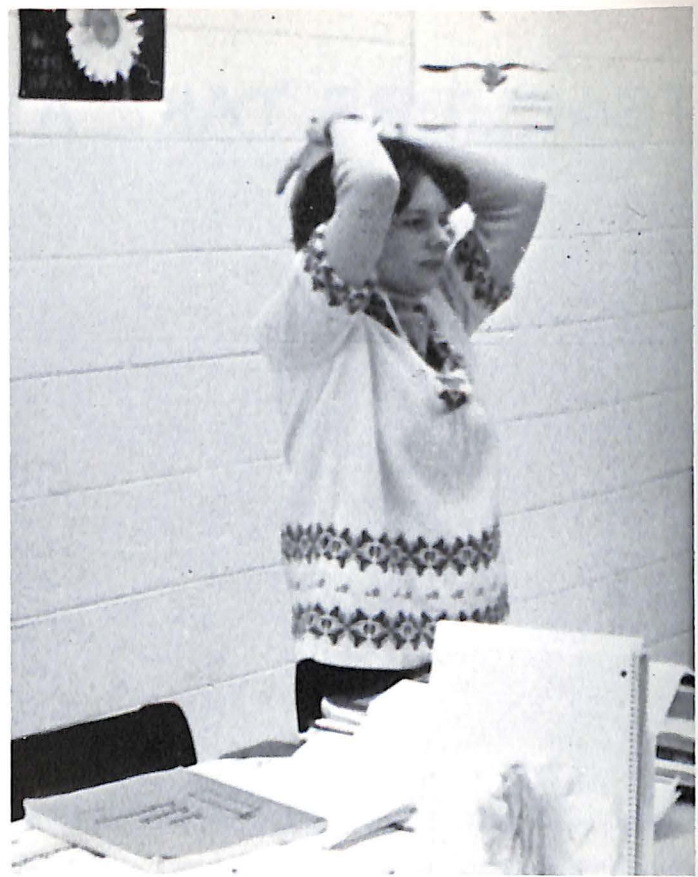

SMILE AND SAY CHEESE Mr. and Mrs. Francisco also have time for a picture while in Holland.

Last summer some of our teachers and their guests took a trip to Europe. Mrs. Martha Robertson, Mrs. Pat Keller, Mrs. Dottie Francisco, Mr. Joe Williams, and Mr. Ray Jennings were the very lucky people from our faculty staff that were able to go. Mrs. Francisco's husband, Randy went with the group as a guest.

The tour was an Educational trip sponsored by Globus Tours, Inc. They toured Holland, France, England, Germany, Italy, and Switzerland.

OH HAPPY DAY! Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Morris meditate while talking about the election.

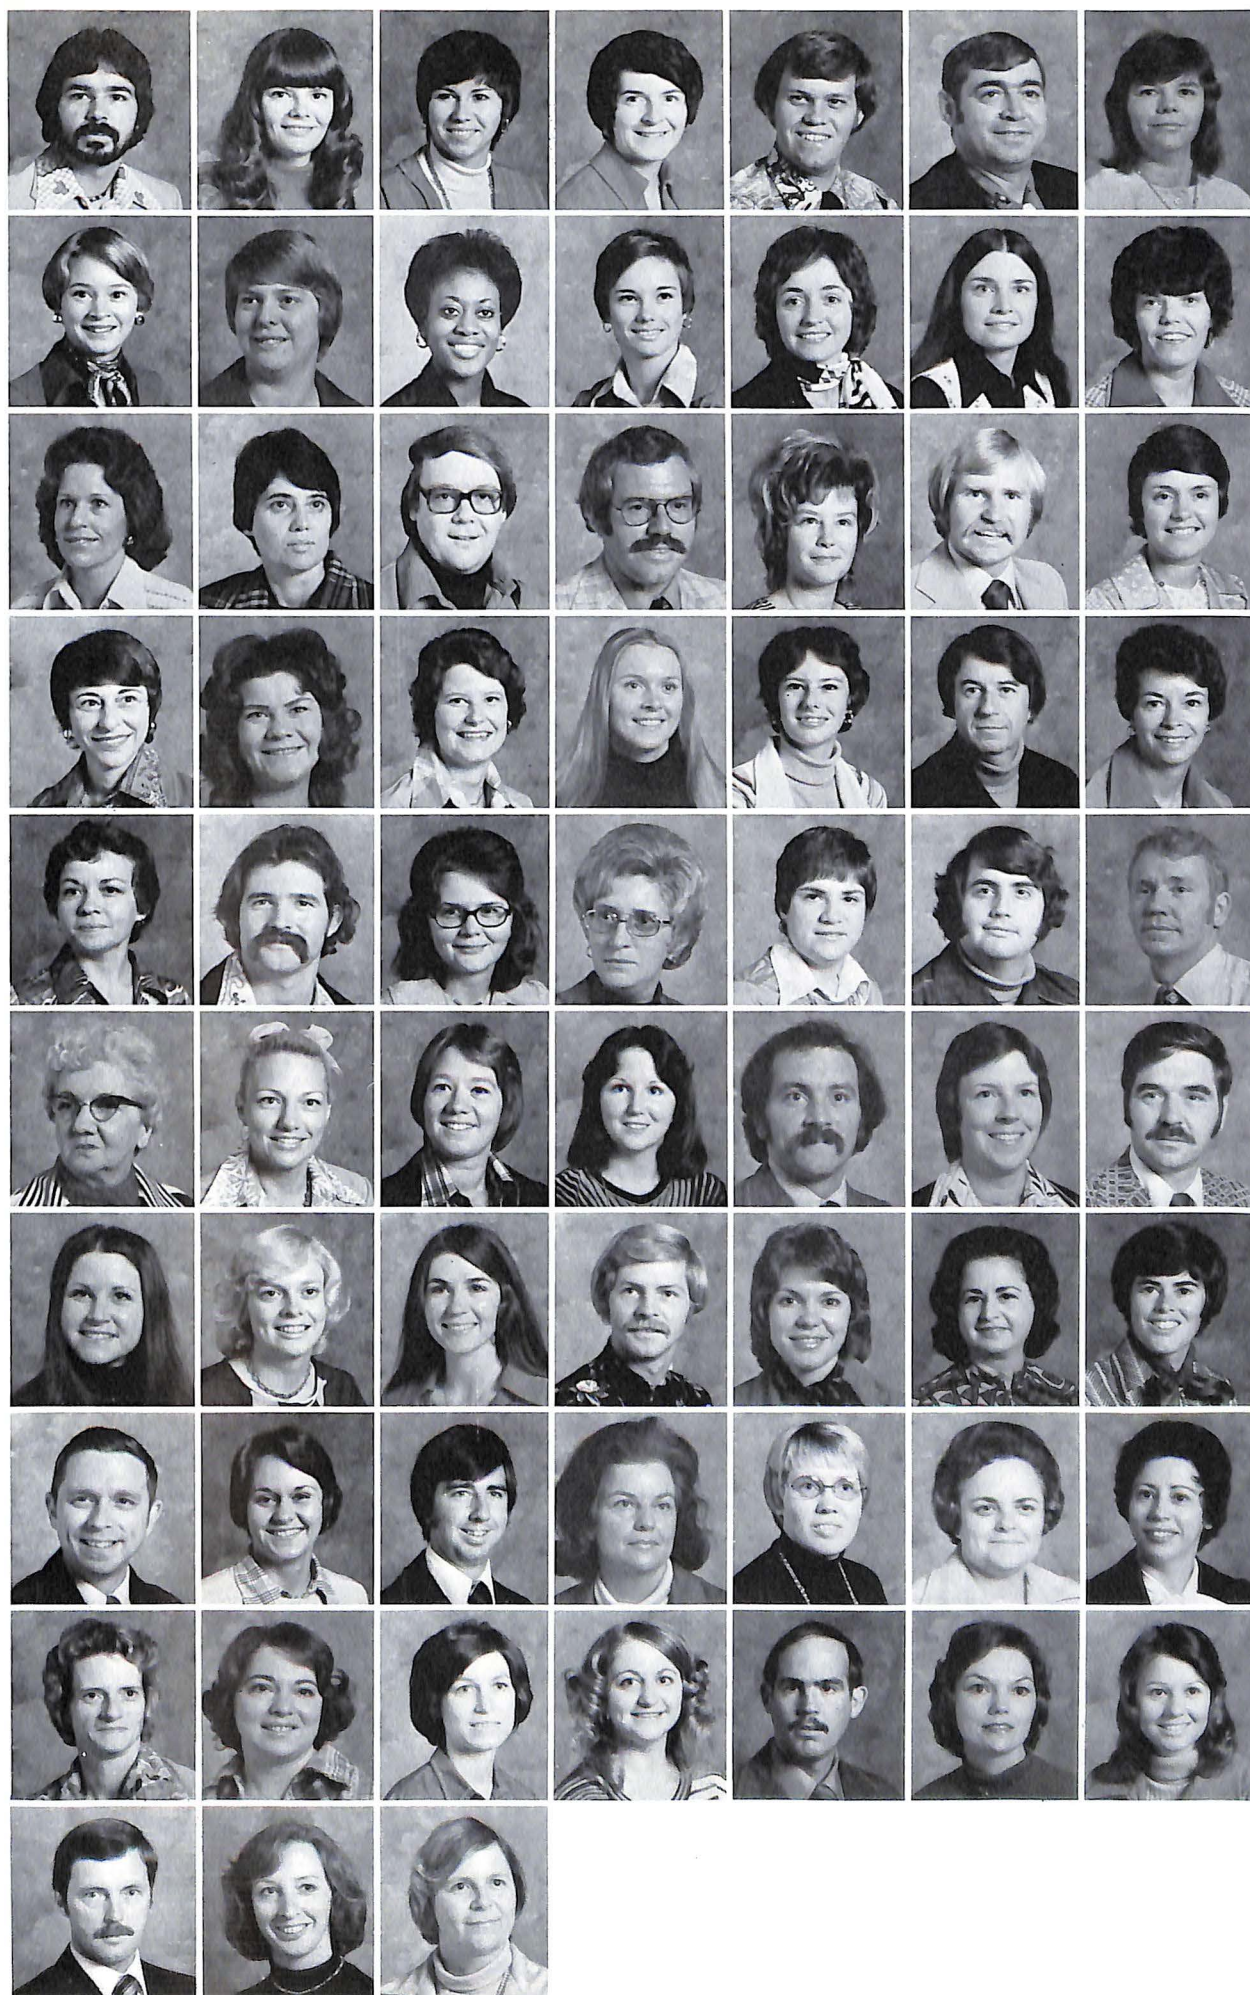

THE ONE PLACE I don't want to feel the pressure of my job is...Mrs. Halterman!

BUSY BEE Guidance coordinator Mrs. Ann Journell Looks for a students schedule.

OVERDUE BOOKS Assistant librarian Mrs. Frances McAllister has the job of checking books in and out.

DAZED Miss Sue Martin seems to be pondering a student's dilemma.

HAVING PROBLEMS? Mrs. Loree Sizemore will be glad to assist.

CHECKING UP Mrs. Edna Barden looks in the file for an overdue book.

HAPPY SMILES Mr. David Blevins is happy to help a student with a problem.

LEANING LIBRARIAN Mrs. Judy Knight, our media specialist stops from her busy day to pose for a picture.

The guidance office was a very busy place. Students could always bring their problems to have conferences with any of the counselors.

There were four counselors. During the middle of the year Mr. Blevins left to be the assistant principal of William Byrd High School.

There was a new check out system this year. The student would fill out a brief form including the parents name, phone number, and their illness, then one of the counselors would call home. The change was made to avoid delay in students getting attention and to keep them from missing classes.

In our library we have over 13,000 books, which include 300 reference books. Students could come in the library and pick out as many books as they liked from the time school opened until it closed. Mrs. Barden said, "this year the behavior is better but getting the books in on time is just as bad as last year." When asked about the handling of books Mrs. Barden said "this year only four or five books were lost, which was good compared to other years."

Making a list of over due books, checking books in and out and making sure that if students need help they were available. There were just a couple of things the librarians did in a day.

CAFETERIA

There were 13 members of the cafeteria staff which prepared approximately 1,075 lunches every day. The lunches cost fifty cents which consisted of one meat, fruit or vegetable and a half pint of milk. Popular food items were pizza, hamburgers and hot dogs.

During the morning the cafeteria served buns, milk and orange juice. The buns were ten cents each and juice ranged from ten to twenty cents. The milk was six cents. They served from 175-200 buns every morning.

TWENTY TWO, TWENTY THREE Mrs. St. Clair prepares the money for the starting of lunch periods.

BUSY BODIES Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Reynolds, and Mrs. Hall prepare lunch for the students.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

BLOWN FUSE Mr. Caldwell talks to somebody on the phone and explains his problem.

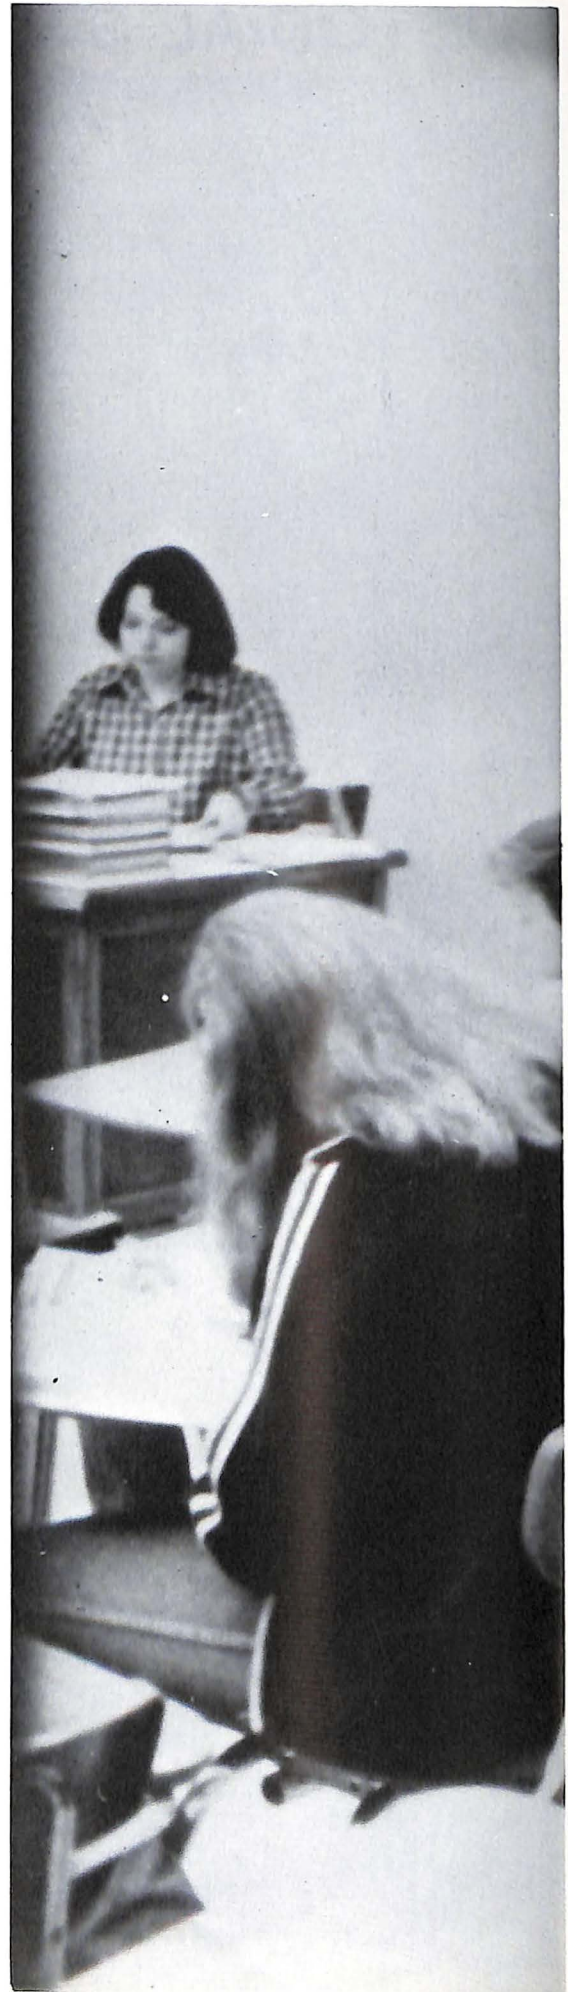

Cleaning required the work of many. Our custodial staff consisted of Mr. Caldwell, building superintendent, a maid, and several custodians. They performed cleaning, plumbing, mopping and sweeping duties.

PREGNANT TEACHERS 76'-77'

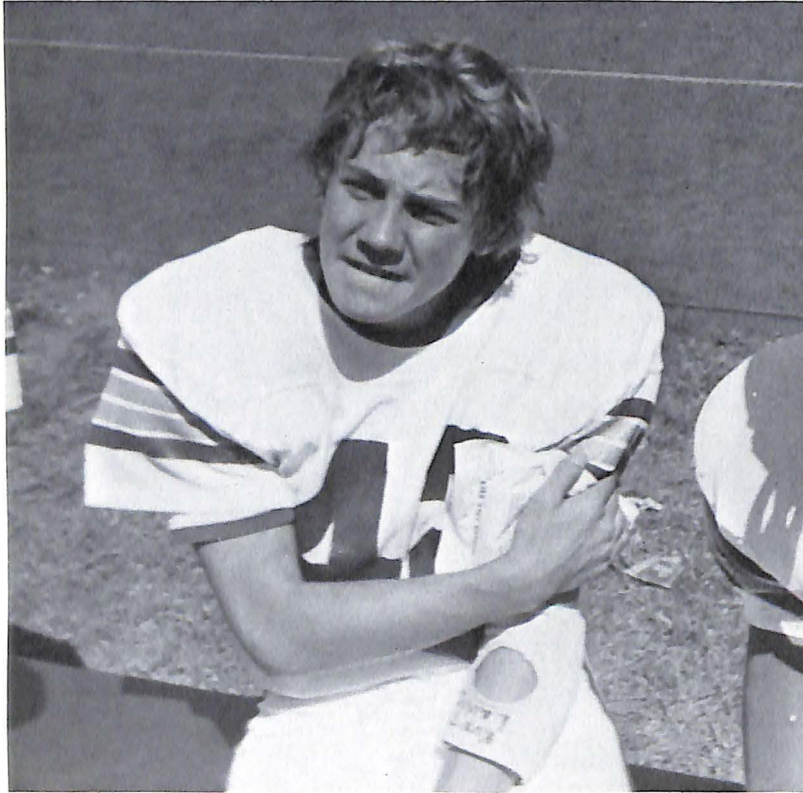

Babies! Babies! Babies! No, it's not an irate teacher screeching at her students for acting immature, it's just that there are 6 (count 'em) 6, pregnant teachers at the school.

Mrs. Giles' baby was born Jan. 26. It was named Natalie Renee. Mrs. Caton, Mrs. Whitfield, Mrs. Birkhead, Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Sink are expecting too. Mrs. Caton prefers the names Martin Bradley and Leslie Marie. Mrs. Whitfield prefers John Fletcher and Andrea Lynn. The others have not decided on the names.

SIX POINTS AWAY

OH THAT SMARTS Dan Chittum sits on the sideline after hurting his arm.

FOOTBALL

Coach Maynard's dream was highly improbable. To go undefeated and unscored upon is quite a dream for a coach. But, the football team came within 6 points of fulfilling Coach Maynard's dream. Coach Maynard still thinks that he will have a 'perfect' season sometime.

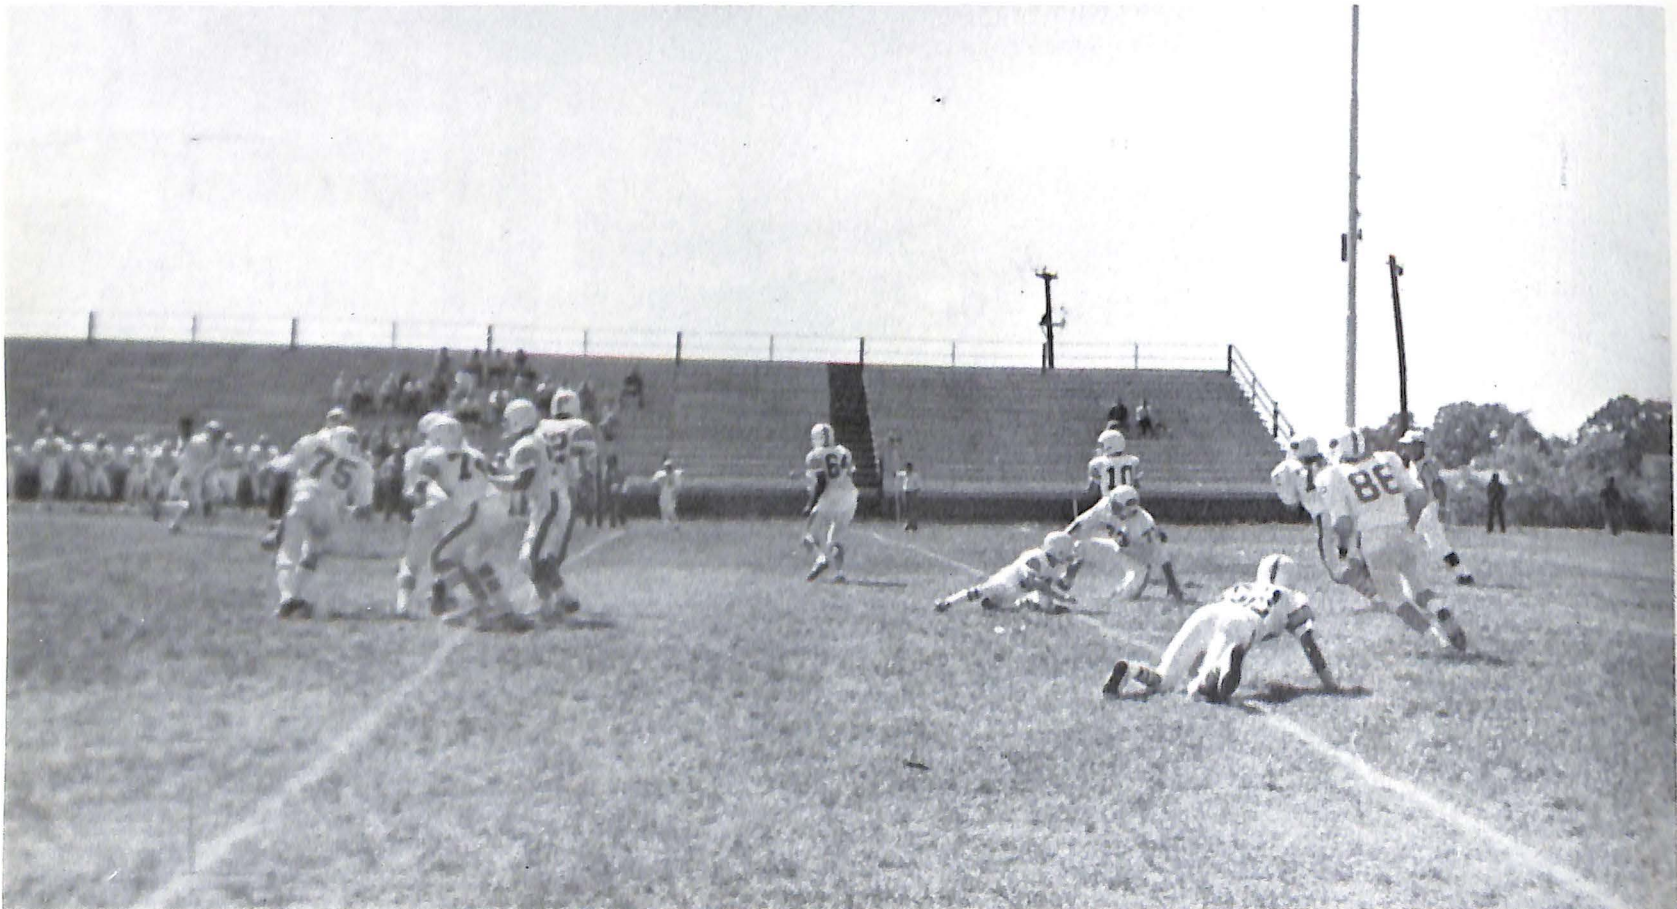

The 6 points came in the Franklin County game. Coach Maynard said that we played a sloppy game and shouldn't have let that guy score. When asked about what he said to the team after the 'fatal' 6 points Coach Maynard replied, "you can't print that."

Many people think Coach Maynard is too rough on the team. When asked about this he said, "football is rough. To play football you gotta be rough. I don't ever think I am too rough on any of my players." When Coach Maynard was asked what he thought about the team in general he said, "they were the smallest team I have ever coached. Both in number and in weight. But we worked hard in track and in weight. They were an enthusiastic team with a lot of confidence. The players were able to take over an injured player's job and do it well. We were small but we made up for it by being rough."

Twenty one seconds. A slow one hundred yard dash, but a fast pin. That's what Ken Lanford had, a twenty one second pin. He also went undefeated along with Scott Sutherland, Eric Miller and Steve Hutcherson.

"We had a hard working team," said Coach Bower about his team. The wrestling team won the tournament this year. "Our closest competition was with Hidden Valley," says Coach Bower, "But we defeated them in the final round."

The team posted a 6-1 record this year. Coach Bower commented on the season. "We worked hard in practice. We didn't goof off as much." The team practiced with the high school once a week. The team was stronger in the upper weight classes. But, the team was balanced pretty well, as shone by their 6-1 record.

BASKETBALL- N.J.H.S.'s PRIDE

FAST BREAK Chuck Ray flashes past defenders. Chuck had the highest point average of anybody ever at N.J.H.S. His average was 20.9 per game.

PAIN Billy Goode is indeed in pain as he injured his leg in the Hidden Valley game. Billy will be an important key to the varsity squad next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

"They were a close team. They worked together more," says Coach English.

The team only needed to defeat Franklin County to be co-champions with Cave Spring. Considering they beat Franklin County by 37 points the first time they stood a good chance of winning the second game. But we lost.

When asked about this Coach English commented, "We were overconfident. The players were talking about trophies and banquets even before the game. The flu didn't help much either. We had three players sick with the flu. There were a lot of factors. It's a shame our season's dream went up in smoke after the last game."

Still the team posted a 14-2 record. They would've been co-champions with Cave Spring if they had defeated Franklin County.

SET UP Clyde Allison sets up the play for the 8th grade team. "Jake" was the starting guard this year.

"Best team we've had in two years," says Coach Summerville, about this year's eighth grade team.

Coach Summerville also commented that this year's team worked together more. "We were the smallest team in the league," says Coach Summerville. "But we were quick and I stressed defense more. I think they'll make a great ninth grade team. But it'll be a competitive league."

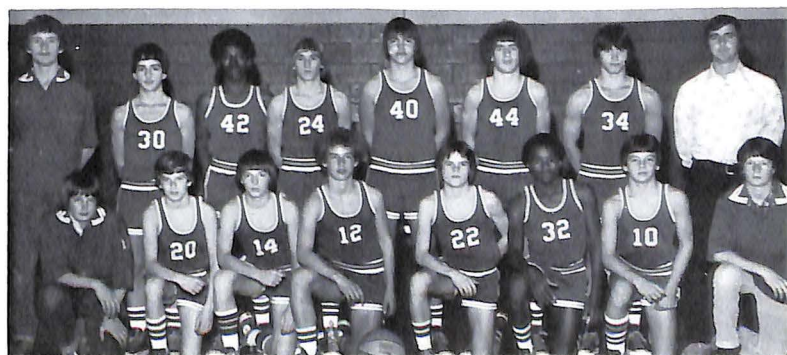

Some of the parents, players, and students blamed Coach Summerville for last year's losing season.

"Oh sure. The coach gets blamed for the losing and the players got the credit for the winning" comments Coach Summerville. "We had a tough league this year. As proven by our three overtime games. One in double overtime. We worked harder this year. I worked on the chalkboard more."

Will Coach Summerville go back to the drawing board? Wait and see what next year offers.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Girl's basketball season started during football season this year and it really helped. The team could practice when they wanted and didn't have to interfere with boy's sports. The cheerleaders and student body showed good spirit throughout the season.

"The team's overall ability has improved," says Miss Bussey, "but, unfortunately, so have our opponents. The team's main fault was not playing as a team, but as individuals."

The J.V. team's league record was 5-5 and the Varsity record was 4-4. Some players were cited for their talents:

Debbie Beard- most valuable varsity player and leading scorer

Beth Dickens- most improved varsity player

Pam Spencer- most valuable J.V. player

Linda Cudd- most improved J.V. player

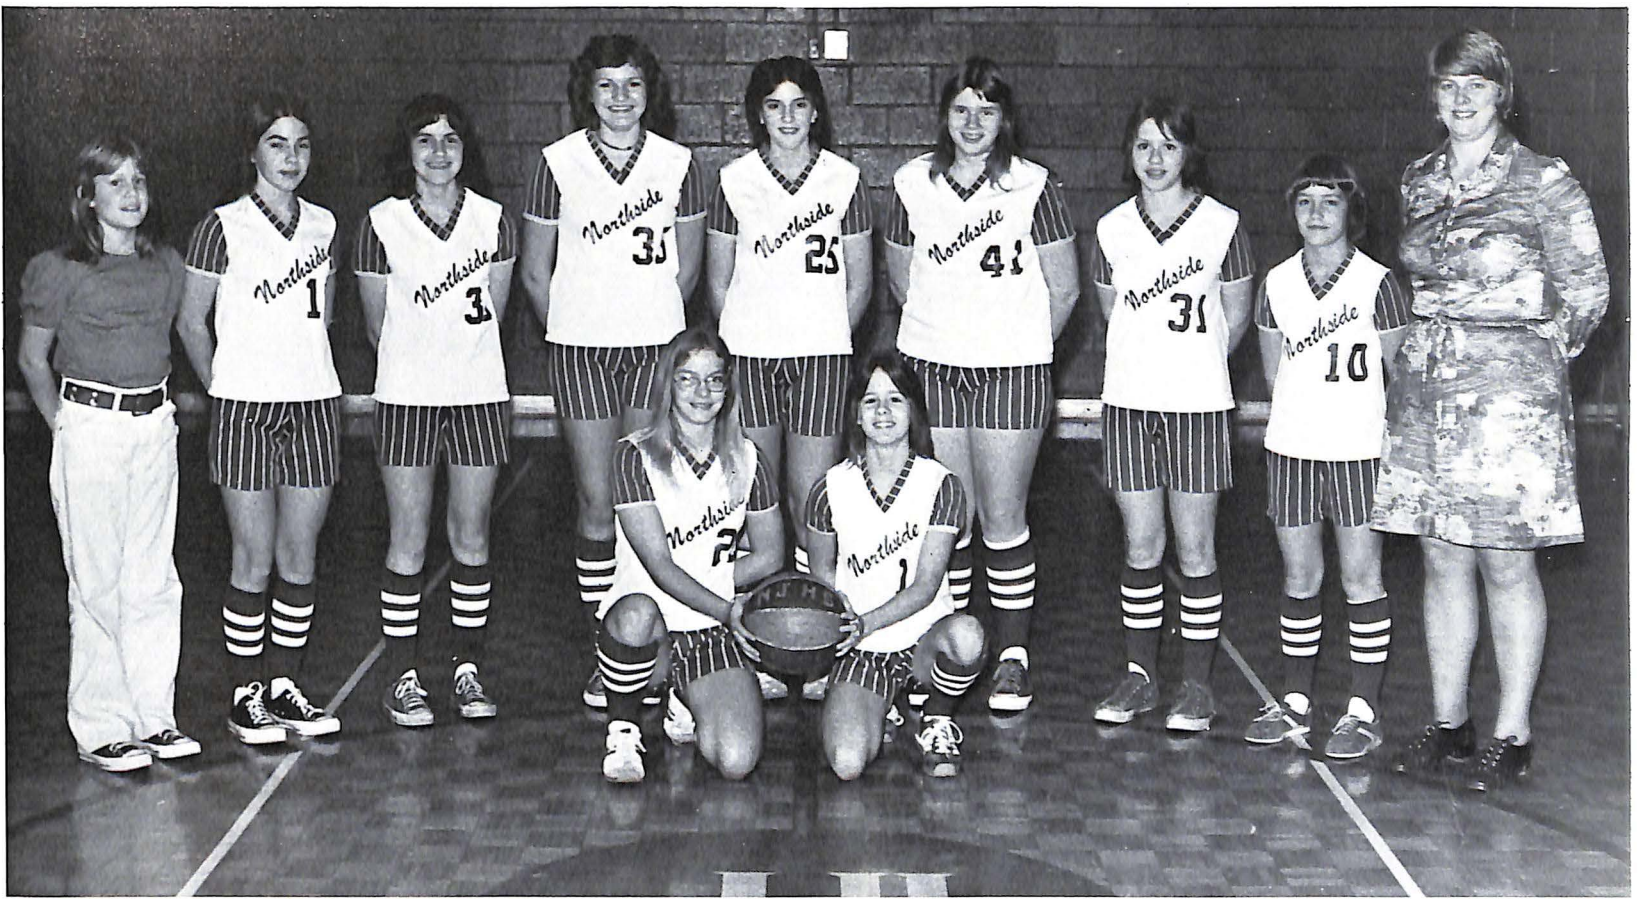

The coaches show an optimistic view on next season.

IN-BOUND PASS Karen Assaid in-bounds the ball during the varsity teams close game with Hidden Valley.

VARSITY TEAM FRONT ROW: Co-captains; Sandy Hoke, Debbie Beard BACK ROW: Pam Reed, Linda Cudd, Shari Smith, Sharon Patton, Elizabeth King, Beth Dickens, Susan Wingfield, Celeste Sparrow, Miss Bussey

Gymnastics enjoyed a very good year. Of the forty to try out, only eighteen made the team. There were some members from each grade level. Some of the gymnasts specialized on one piece of equipment, others competed on two or three. Brandi Morris and Suzanne Williams did all four.

The highlight of the season was "beating Cave Spring twice in our dual meets," said Miss Graube. They won three meets and lost one. In the Championship Tournament N.J.H.S. came in third.

Student Life

SPEAK OUT Mr. Johnston has a discussion with the S.C.A. officers. The S.C.A. officers were: President- James Hamblin, Treasurer- Ken Lanford, Chaplain- Susan Withers, Vice President- Michele Price, Secretary- Charlotte Bratton

8th GRADE OFFICERS FRONT ROW: Joyce Plunkett, Kim Crews and Erica Miller. BACK ROW: Mrs. Gallion, Tracy Linton and Miss Woody.

7th GRADE OFFICERS The 7th grade officers were picked after the school year started. The sponsors and officers were Mrs. Stone, Valarie Patton, Claudette Hale, Diane Hall, Julie Weikel and Miss Storey.

To help the S.C.A. our school elected class officers. These officers supported the S.C.A. with their projects. Those elected were:

OFFICERS WORK FOR EVERYONE

OFFICERS WORK FOR EVERYONE

The S.C.A. consisted of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and a chaplain. They worked very hard planning dances and special events. They sponsored a Lisa Barr day where money was collected and given to her family to pay for the medical bills. On Kim Spraker's birthday they put up a large birthday card and many people signed it. They also sent a large poster to St. Judes with greetings from teachers and students for Kim.

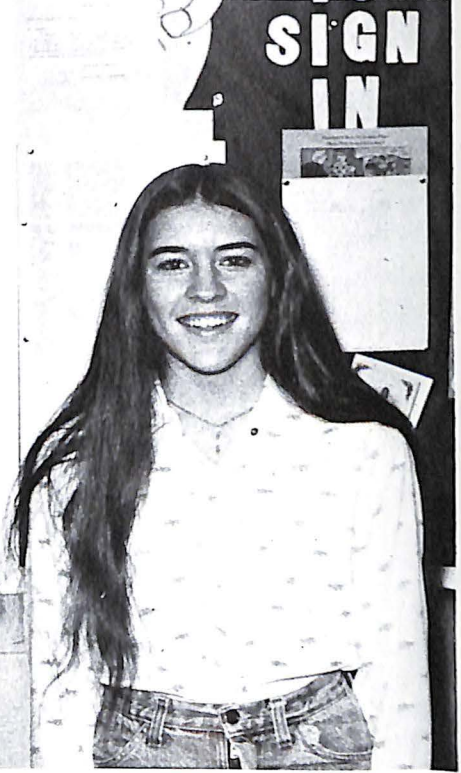

COUNT 'EM 9th grade President Jeff Turner helps the S.C.A. officers count the votes for the school's mock presidential election.

ANNUAL STAFF TELLS YEARS STORY

WHO IS IT? Co-editor Mark Beavers works on cutting and identifying pictures for the gallery. Besides doing the regular tasks Mark also did most of the staff's photography.

"Kiss," no not a rock group but a phrase used by Mr. Brill, the sponsor of the annual staff at Northside High School. It means "Keep It Simple Stupid." This is just a small portion of the things learned by our annual staff in a workshop at the high school. The workshop took place for an hour after school one week in October. The workshop provided needed experience for the newcomers to the staff and extra practice for the old pros. New styles and techniques were taught.

The annual staff received two new sponsors this year. They were Mrs. Webb and Miss Storey. The workshop helped them immensely in learning the ways of putting together an annual.

When Mrs. Webb was asked if she liked working with the annual staff she said, "I really like working on it, I learned a lot. Sometimes, however it's hard to get everyone to work." Later she added "as of right now I'll probably work on it next year, although it is a lot of work and it takes up many of my weekends." As for Miss Storey, she also enjoyed working with the staff.

The Co-editors of the 1977 Norseman were Robbie Anderson and Mark Beavers. Steve Cochran was Index Editor. They wish to express thanks to all staff members who worked so diligently to make the annual a success.

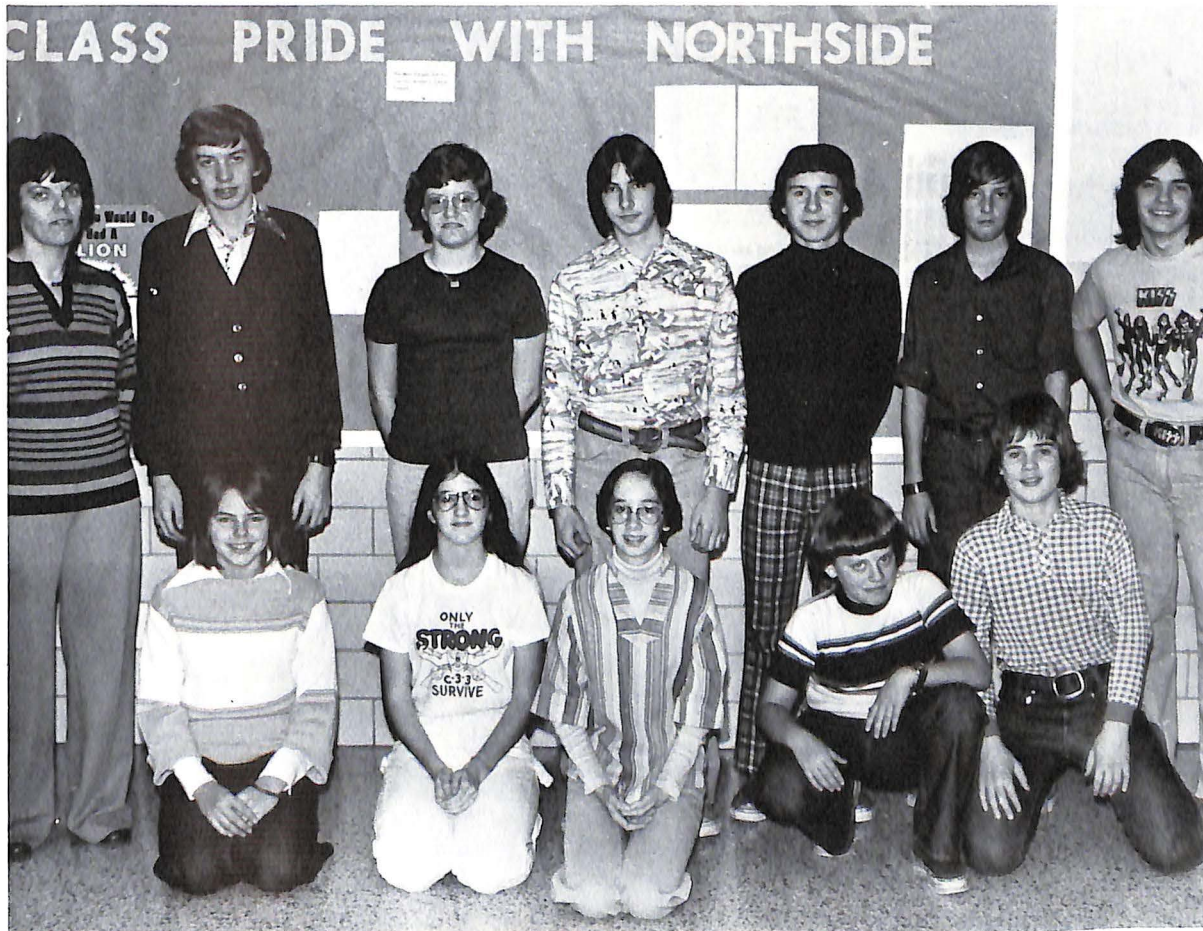

PERFECTION Mike Moore practices working on letreset. Many hours were put into practicing for the different aspects of the annual.

NORTHSTAR HITS BIG

Imaginative ideas, enthusiasm and a lot of hard work got the newspaper rolling this year. Although the first planned issue was postponed, a Christmas edition did come out. Two to three issues were planned for the second semester.

A new idea in putting out the newspaper was started. The plan was for the Newspaper Staff to do the writing, Mrs. Sink's Typing I classes to type and Mr. Gallimore's Communications classes to photograph and print the newspaper. Because this was the first year of the project coordination was sometimes difficult between the three areas.

The Northstar staff met on selected Tuesdays after school. According to the staff sponsor Mrs. Denny, "we're enthusiastic about writing the paper but we'd like more time to work on it."

YOUR TURN Pam Hillman tells Yani Davalous that it's his turn to vote, while a student comes out of the voting booth. The election was four days long and was held in B2 and B3.

CONGRATULATIONS to Steve Oliver for this fine work he has done.

For the month of December Stephen Oliver

Our congratulations to Stephen Oliver of 1913 June Drive, N.W., Roanoke, as The World-News Carrier of the Month for December, 1976. Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver and is a 9th grader at Northside Junior High.

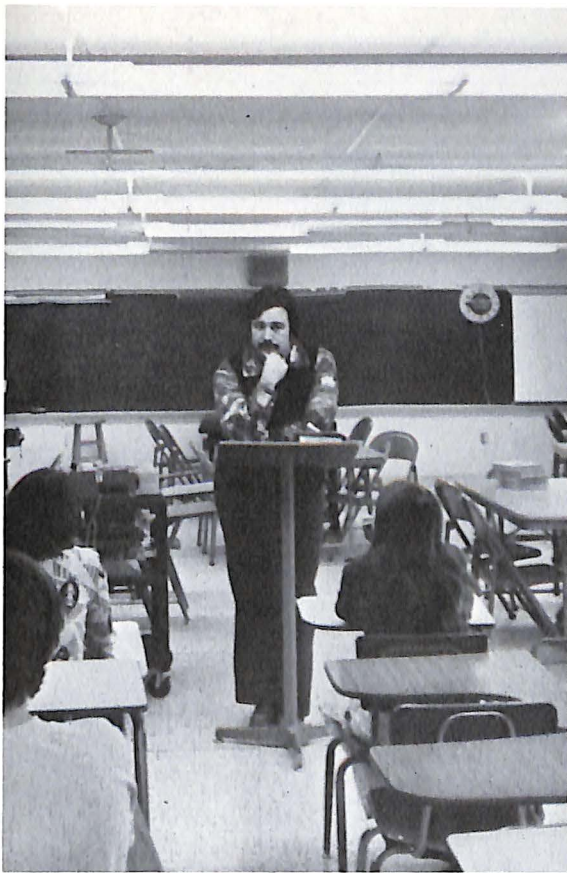

He is active in the youth group and choir of Tabernacle Baptist Church in Salem; he was an honor roll student during 1975-1976; and has a perfect attendance record at school for the past 4 years! His hobbies include fishing and water skiing.

During his 2½ years as a World-News carrier, he has served his 46 daily and 48 Sunday customers faithfully. His District Manager says of him, "He is a district manager's delight. Stephen conducts his route with enthusiasm and attention to the needs of his subscribers. Many of his subscribers consider him the best newspaper carrier they have ever had. Stephen has displayed exceptional maturity and an individual responsibility that reflects most favorably in his daily contract with his subscribers. He requires no supervision—an exceptional quality in any carrier!"

THANKS Sharon Markham thanks Steve Hale for coming to chapel Wednesday, February 2. Sharon was in charge of getting different speakers.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Who says everyone has to be eighteen to vote? Right?

Mrs. Morris', Mrs. Gallion's and Miss Storey's World Geography and Social Studies classes held an election. They decided to hold the election so the students could get a feeling of what the election was all about and how you would go about voting.

All the students were allowed to vote and most of them did. Students were allowed to vote through their World History, Geography, or Social Studies classes. Students who did not have these classes voted through their study hall or before school.

When asked if the election was a success Miss Storey said, "yes, I think it was a complete success and helped my classes while studying the election."

Before the election, a debate was held so the students would know who they wanted to vote for. Richard Pattasol spoke for Jimmy Carter while Ray Garland spoke for President Ford. If the students had not made their minds up by voting time booths for the candidates were set up around the room with information on their stand during the campaign. Besides candidates students voted on amendments and referendum. The results of our election:

President	Carter
Vice President	Mondale
Senator	Byrd
Congressman	Butler

All amendments and referendum were passed.

A chapel was started in October. Sharon Markham was in charge of it and it turned out to be a great success. Chapel was held in the gym at first then moved to A10 and A12. The attendance ranged from twenty to eighty teachers and students. Guest speakers came from different churches in the Roanoke Valley.

Roanoke County schools were closed Tuesday and Wednesday, January 17 and 18 due to the gas shortage. Roanoke Gas Company asked all county schools to close down because eleven schools are heated partially or totally by natural gas. Then later on in January temperatures in the county schools were turned down to 65° school days and 40° Saturdays and Sundays.

SNOWING David Johnson's father has come to pick David up during school. It snowed that day and Roanoke County schools were dismissed early.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

SEW WHAT'S NEW? Rita Loving reads the directions carefully to make sure she doesn't make a mistake.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED Tim Janney and Sidney Vaught were just a couple of boys that took Home Ec. I.

WHAT'S THIS Lisa Spence and Amy Francisco make dough for a delicious pizza.

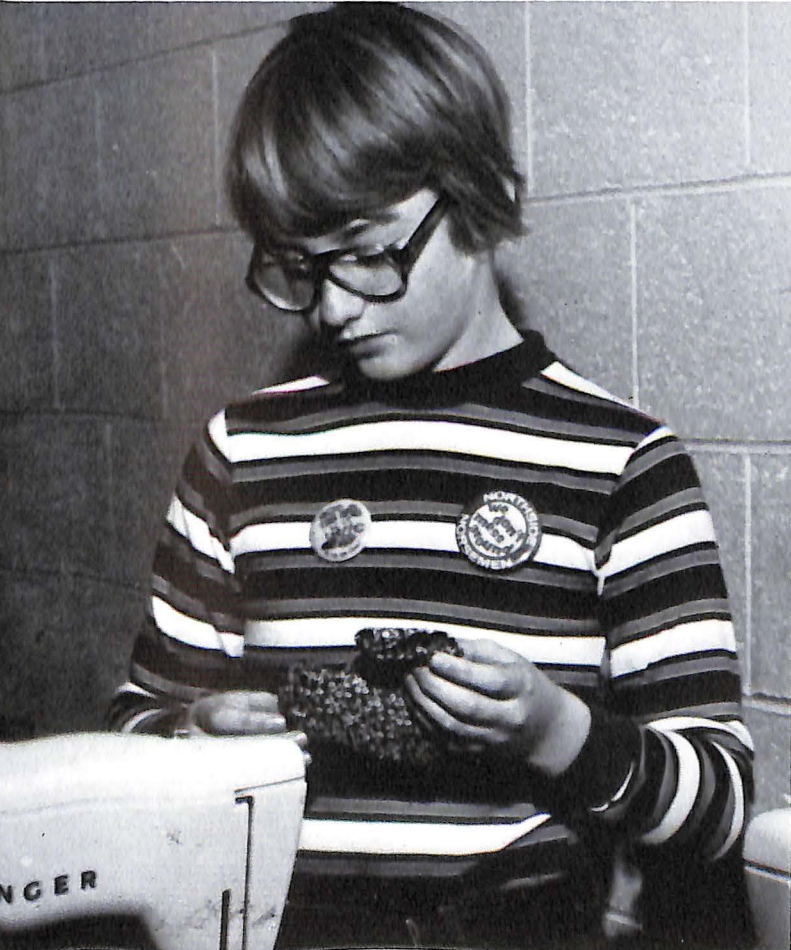

SUBS ON THE HOUSE Kathy Mason, Sandy Hoke and Melinda Wallace make submarine sandwiches.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

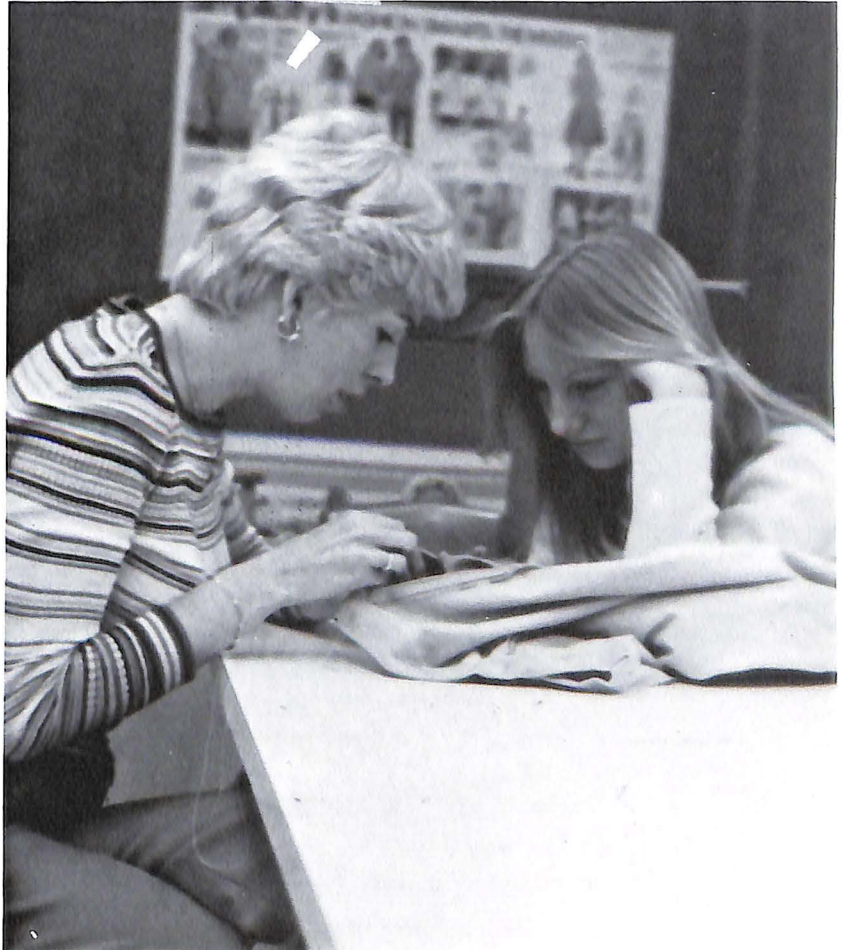

Too much sugar, not enough flour were just a couple of complaints from the home ec. room. One boy Eddie Hill said, "my biggest mistake was when we were making brownies. I was supposed to add ½ cup of flour. I didn't think it was enough so I added two." Another girl Lisa Ellis said, "my biggest mistake was when we were making cookies. I was supposed to add the sugar second. I forgot and added it last." The home ec. classes had six luncheons for the faculty and staff, three per semester. Mrs. Rostovsky said, "we figured no profit was made. We did it for the experience." The Norsemen Galley had the best response with fifty people each day. Each luncheon lasted two days.

WHAT A MESS Leisa Ferris, Lisa Webb, Melinda Wolfe and Lisa Williams have a lot of fun cooking but wait until it's time to clean up.

EXPLAIN AGAIN Ann Smith has problems sewing a new outfit. Mrs. Dillard is always ready and willing to help.

THE GREAT WAY TO LEARN

LOOKING ON Mr. Adams demonstrates how molding on a house fits together as Robert Custer, Paul Vorhees, Derick Kotheimer and Mark Saunders watch closely.

THE GREAT WAY TO LEARN

Industrial Arts has been doing great things this year. In Construction they made individual projects such as: dresser caddies, clocks, flower planters and checkerboards. Mr. Lambruscati has been teaching his students how to work in plumbing, masonry and electrical areas.

In Manufacturing, Mr. Adams has been teaching how to work in woods, metals, plastics and electrical areas.

Communication students have been working with photography, electronics and drafting.

Mr. Price has been teaching his Transportation students how to take apart and repair small engines. Also teaching them hydraulics, welding and automotive services such as: tune-ups, grease jobs and brake repairs.

TYPING CLASS? Chas Glass and David Paschal set type for the letter press.

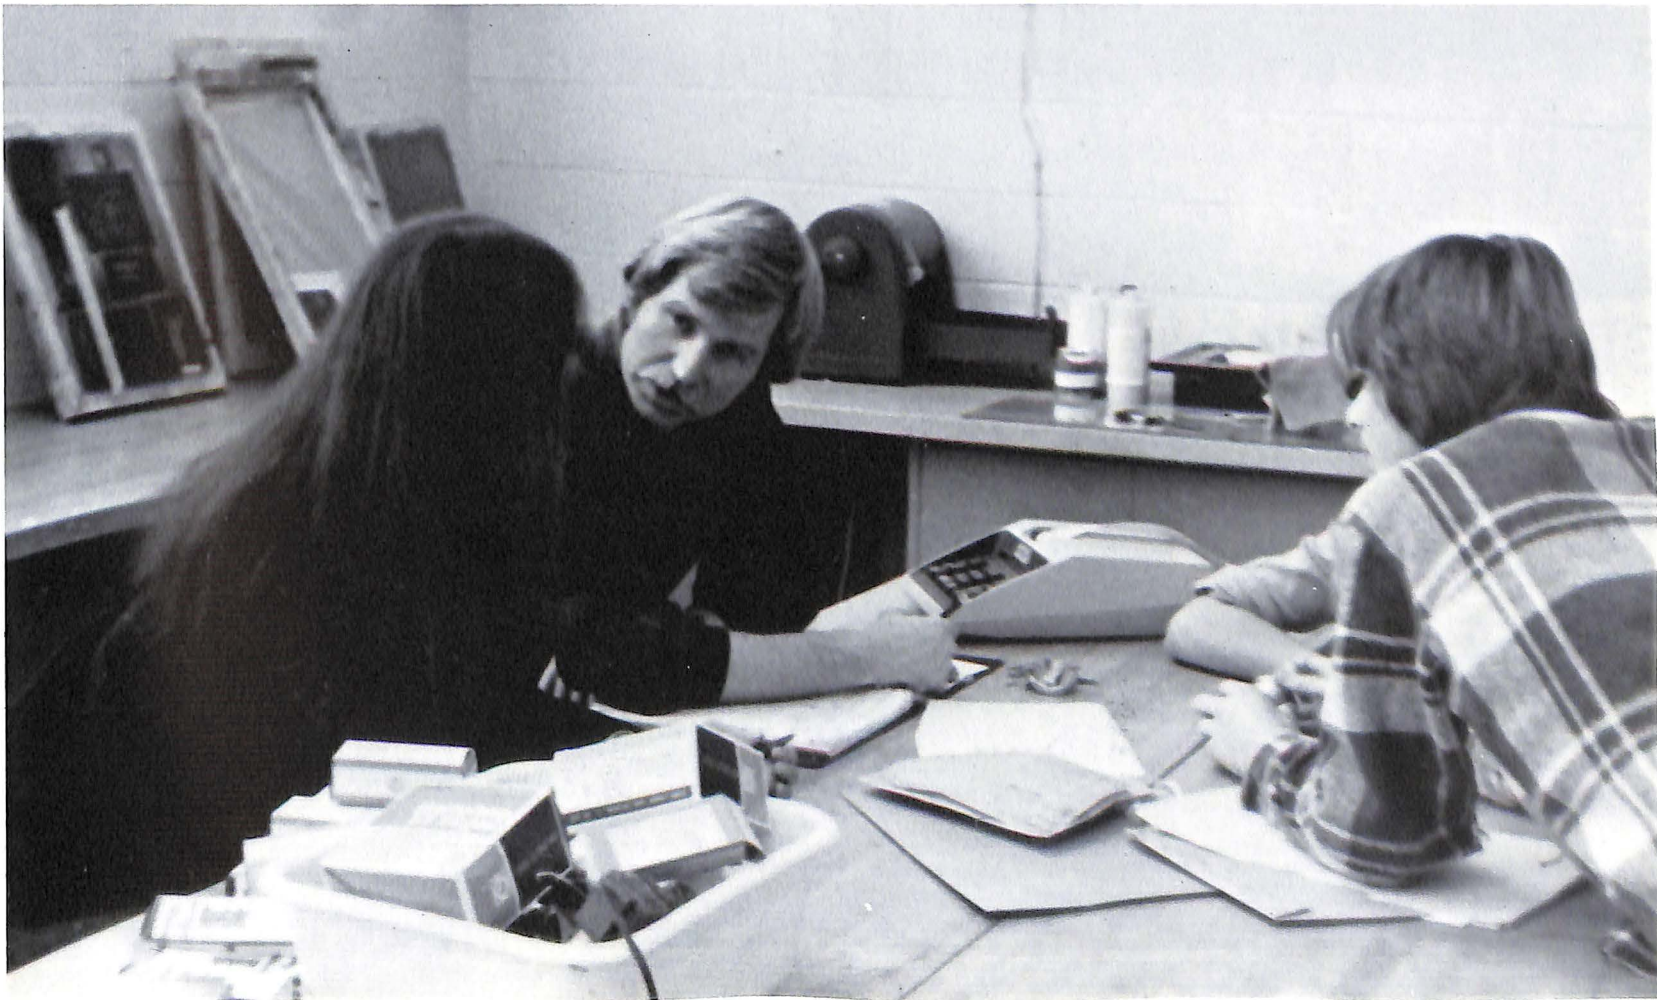

BOOKWORK IS FUN! Steve Bushway and Mark Holdren read about the different types of engines.

BUSY EH? Mark Lawrence, Paul Vorhees and Derick Montgomery work on a model house.

I'M LISTENING! Mr. Gallimore confers with Mrs. Mullins as Mark Holdren listens.

SING A SONG

The Northside Junior High Chorus directed by Mrs. Sue Giles has expanded its growth into three levels of advancement this year; beginning, intermediate and advanced chorus. We are 150 members strong and are proud of our achievements. In the past two years the chorus has received superior ratings in judging at the District VI Festival. This year the choir presented Christmas concerts for the Woodlawn Methodist Church, Mountain View Elementary and Northside Junior. This spring we will present a spring concert for the PTA and plan trips to various other schools. Mrs. Duff took over while Mrs. Giles was on maternity leave.

TURN YOUR HEAD PHONES on says Mrs. Tate to her 6th period Spanish I class.

INNOCENT FACE Chuck Ray listens to a Spanish tape.

LOOK, LISTEN, THINK, Debby Bowman turns on her headphones to prepare for the day's lesson.

TRANSLATE, TRANSLATE, Tonya Osborne, Melinda Simpson, Tom Wilmoth, and Jimmy Stegall are busy at work.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

STUDYING HARD Mike Stevens studies diligently from his textbook and Spanish manual. A lot of studying is required to learn Spanish.

CONCENTRATION Tammy Parish is absorbed in her Spanish lesson.

The Foreign Language Festival held in the spring of 1975-1976 school year was one of the most successful projects presented by the foreign language departments of Roanoke City Schools, Roanoke County, and Botetourt Schools.

Major languages of French, Spanish, Latin, German and Russian were represented by the students studying in these areas. Neighboring colleges and universities were invited to participate with displays, exhibits from many countries, and foreign foods prepared by college students.

Approximately 5,000 people attended the affair using foreign currency to buy exotic foods, crafts, and momentos. Mini-lessons in the five languages were taught to eager students. Latin skits, musical shows, dances, and comedies were presented continuously throughout the day. All proceeds are being used to purchase resource materials for the foreign language departments.

Trombone, trumpet, French horn and tuba. Mr. Spiers starts his day off right with a song. The band has eighty-nine members with all three grades combined. In October the band went to A.M.C. to participate in the annual Pack-a-Pacer contest. The band also performed at the Christmas assembly with the choir.

There were also four people to make all regional band this year. They were: Stephanie Anderson on oboe, the first eighth grader in two years to make all regional band, Linda Wood on clarinet, Everett Easley on bass clarinet and Scott Sullender on the French horn. After many hours of practice the all regional band performed at Cave Spring High School.

The Advanced and Intermediate bands were also preparing for the District Six Festival in March. Students stayed after school on selected Mondays, Tuesdays or Thursdays to practice.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE...

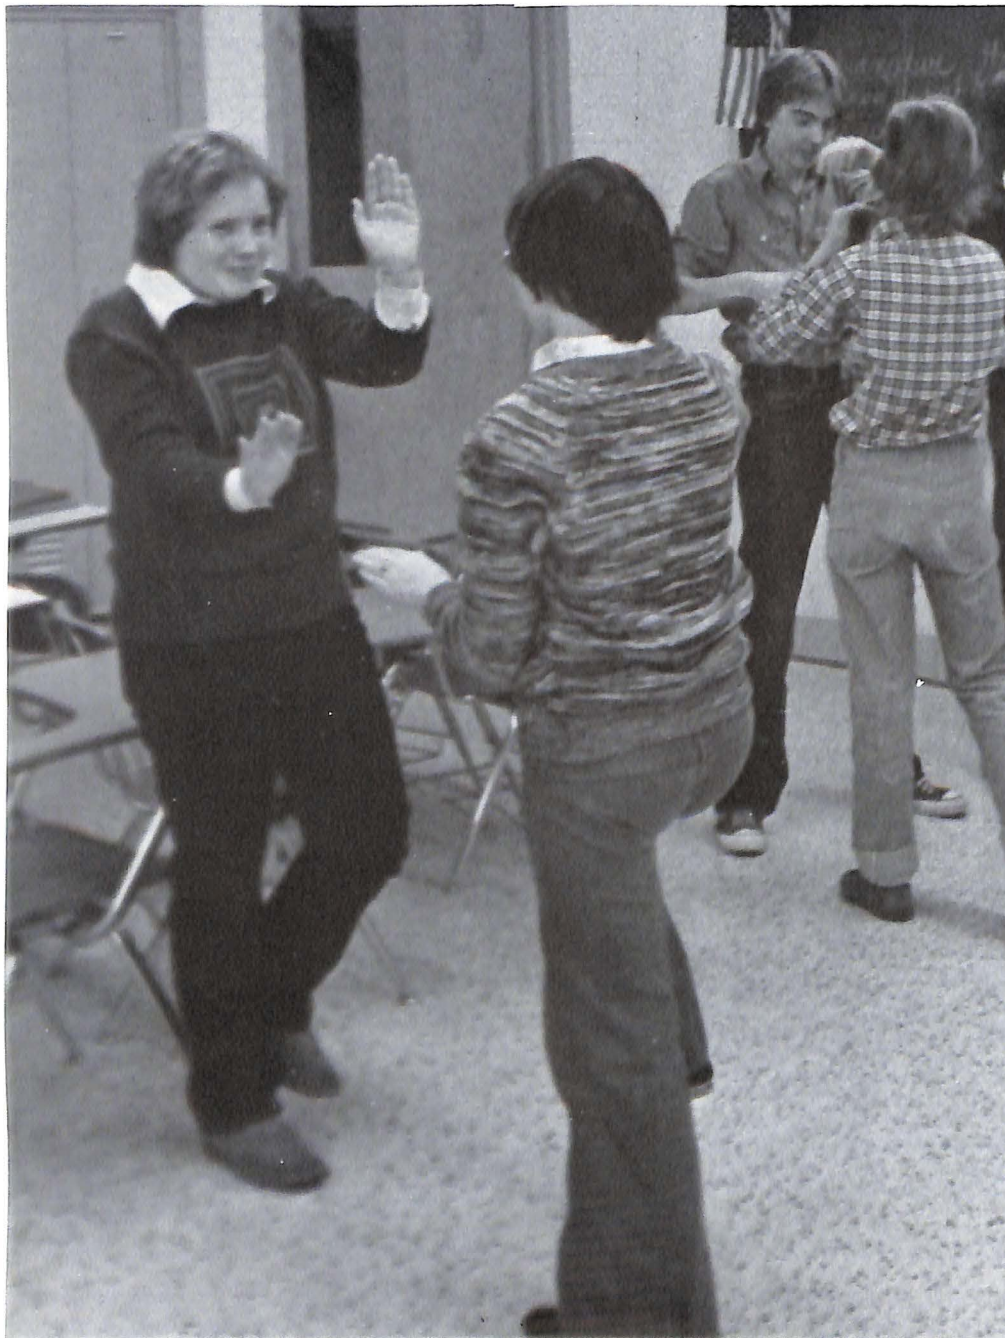

It's a movie. Four words. First word. Little word. It? If? Was? The? Second word, rhymes with sad. Glad? Mad? Bad? Bad? "The Bad News Bears." Charades and pantomines were two of the things the Drama class did during spare time. Robbie Thompson said, "I have enjoyed Drama, especially doing pantomines." Drama is a ninth grade elective which has one credit. There were nine girls and nine boys in this year's class. When Diane James was asked why she took Drama she explained, "I have been taking dancing lessons for eleven years now and my dancing teacher suggested that if I wanted to be in musicals it would be very helpful in performing. So I decided to take it."

The first semester of Drama is devoted to speech making. The class makes approximately five to six speeches first semester, following the rules of good speaking. Some students thought this was a great help in talking in front of groups, while others thought it was a bore.

The second semester is mainly devoted to drama with emphasis on make-up, lighting, costuming, acting and producing. They hope to put a play on for the English classes in the spring with the students doing all the work. "The class will hopefully gain some knowledge about the workings of professional theatre," Mrs. Halterman explained.

So if you want to take an elective in which you can act out charades, pantomines and plays with make-up, lighting and costumes take Speech and Drama I.

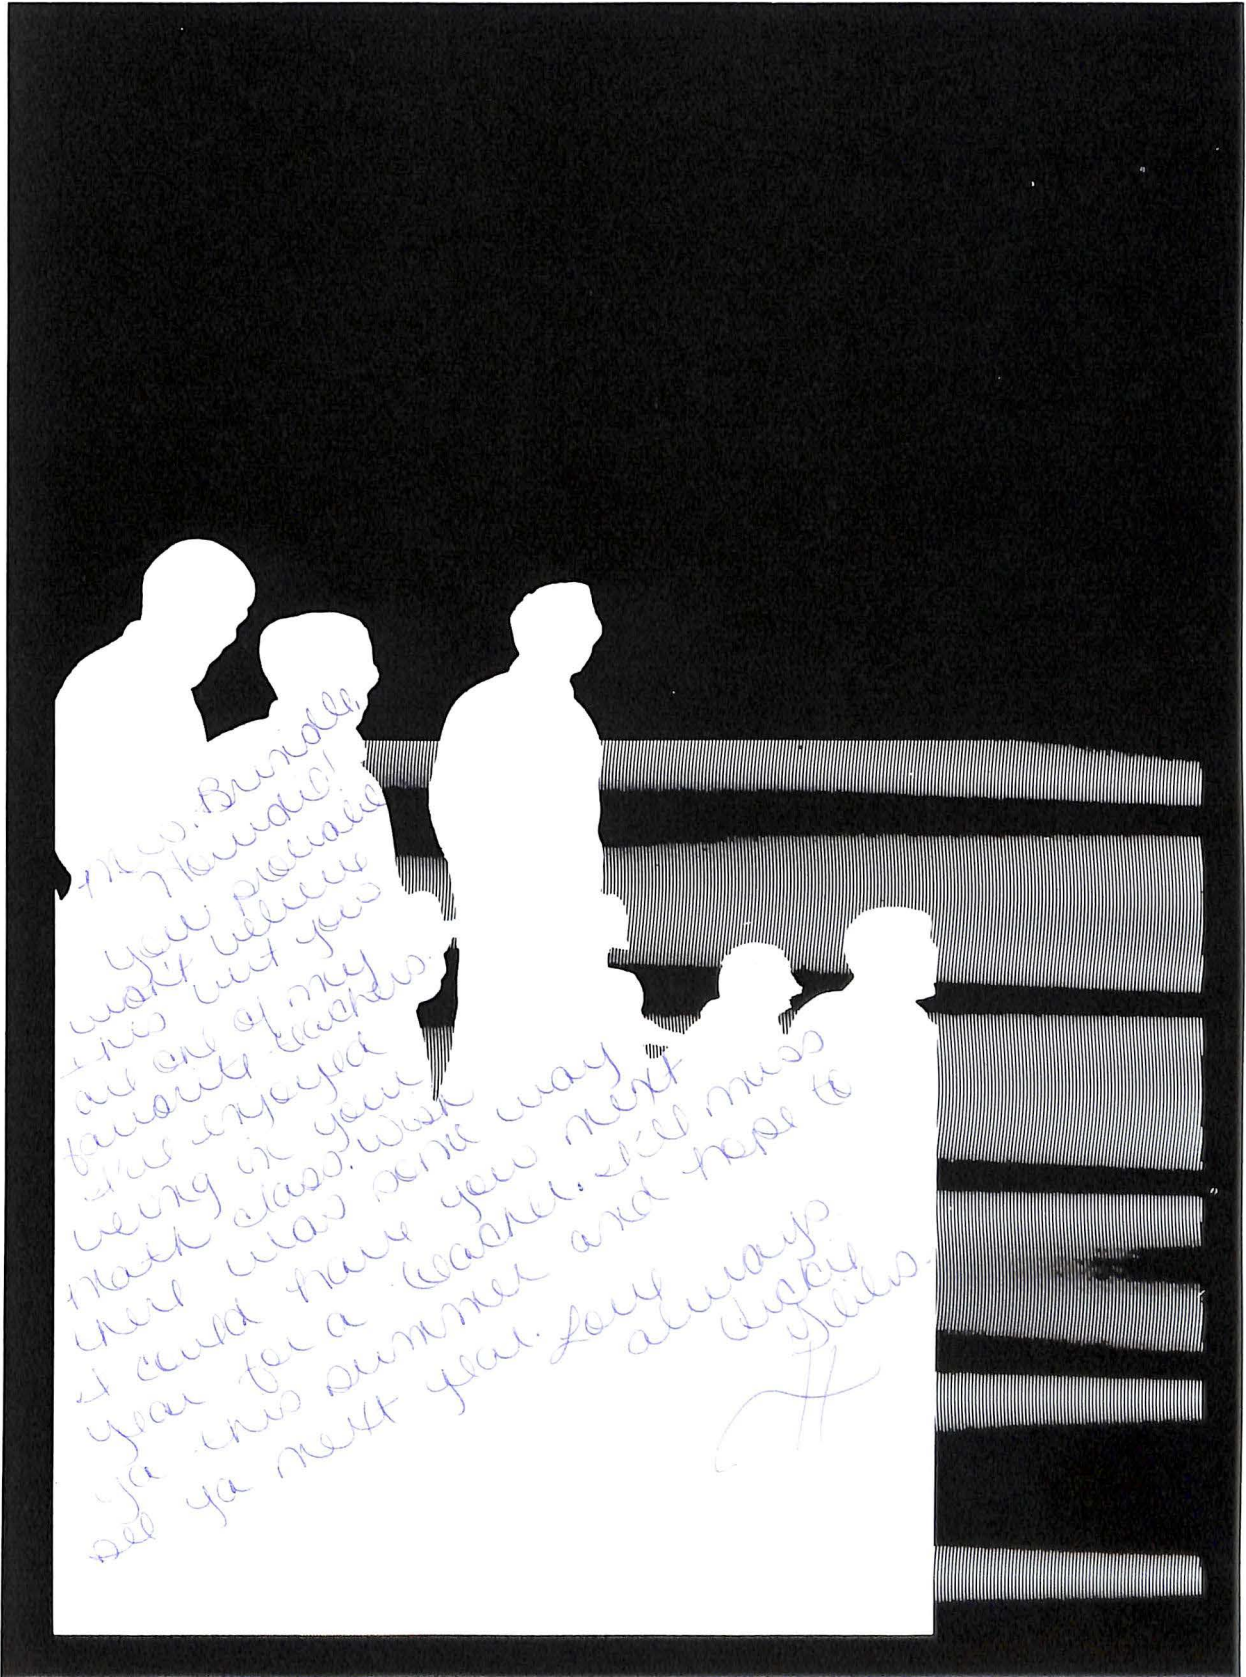

MIRROR, MIRROR on the wall. Diane James is acting like a mirror and is supposed to do whatever Joyce Thomas does. This is one of the many loosening up exercises Mrs. Halterman taught the Drama class.

FOUR WORDS! Kathryn Fisher plays a game of charades with the Drama class.

PULL! PULL! Alan McNutt, David Shinault, Cindy Carl, Eric Danielson, Diane James and Jake Thomas have a fake tug of war with another team.

PEP CLUB OFFICERS: Julie Weikel, Erica Miller, Mari Black

Let's take a ride on the Northside locomotive. Our cheerleaders helped lead our team to victory. Heading the cheerleaders are Valerie Lewis and Mary Beth Waddell. The cheerleaders also won two spirit sticks this year. The pep club assists the cheerleaders in gaining the school's spirit and support.

In his appreciation for the cheerleaders good work, Mr. Maynard wrote this poem:

Who is as acrobatic as a monkey, loose as a goose, and as graceful as a ballerina. (Our Cheerleaders)

Who laughed when we laughed, cried when we cried, but cheered us up with tears in their eyes. (Our Cheerleaders)

Who tried to bankrupt her parent, tried the patience of her sponsors, but was always there when we left the field. (Our Cheerleaders)

Who decorates the locker rooms, fills our lockers with goodies and our hearts with joy. (Our Cheerleaders)

Who never had time for homework, or cleaning their rooms, but always found time for our team. (Our Cheerleaders)

Who shared our hopes and despairs, our dreams and aspirations and earned our respect and admiration, our gratitude and undying friendships. (Our Cheerleaders)

Gary Maynard

GETTING 'EM READY the Cheerleaders cheer the Norsemen Basketball team before a game.

MAKIN' A MESS The Cheerleaders make the crowd laugh at a pep rally.

EXTRA ACTIVITIES IN SCIENCE

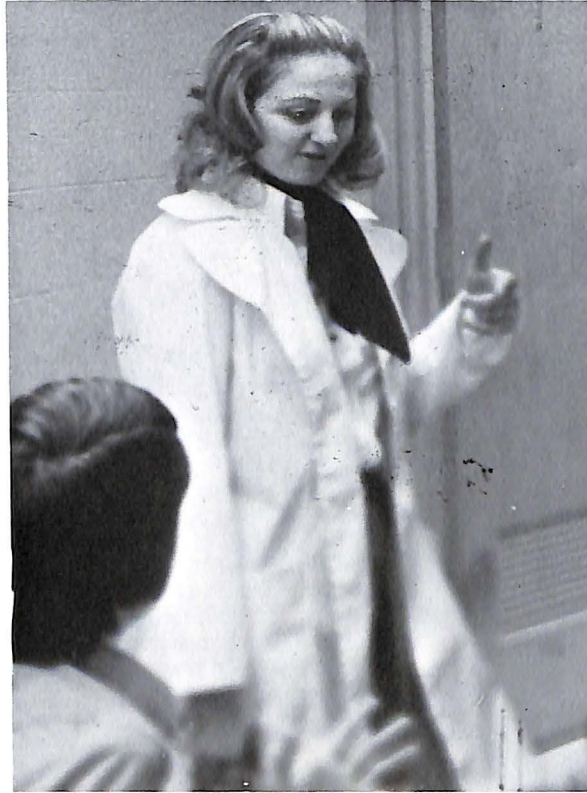

The Science Club had its largest membership this year. Organized to promote interest in all fields of science the club had student reports and guest speakers. The members worked on a library of science. Fact and fiction materials may be used by members for study or general reading.

A Star Trek exchange day was planned as well as a trip to the new Roanoke Science Museum. The club met the first and third Tuesday of every month.

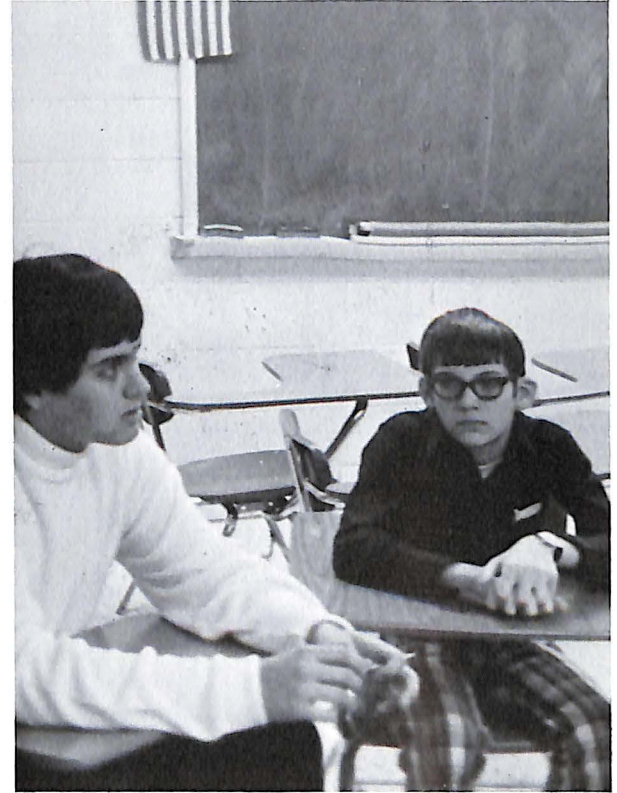

Officers were elected the second meeting and those elected were:

President	James Hamblin
Vice President	Sharon Swink
Secretary	Debbie Falls
Treasurer	Rhonda Grizzle

These students kept all club records, planned meetings with Mr. and Mrs. Williams. Most students found the science club interesting and informing.

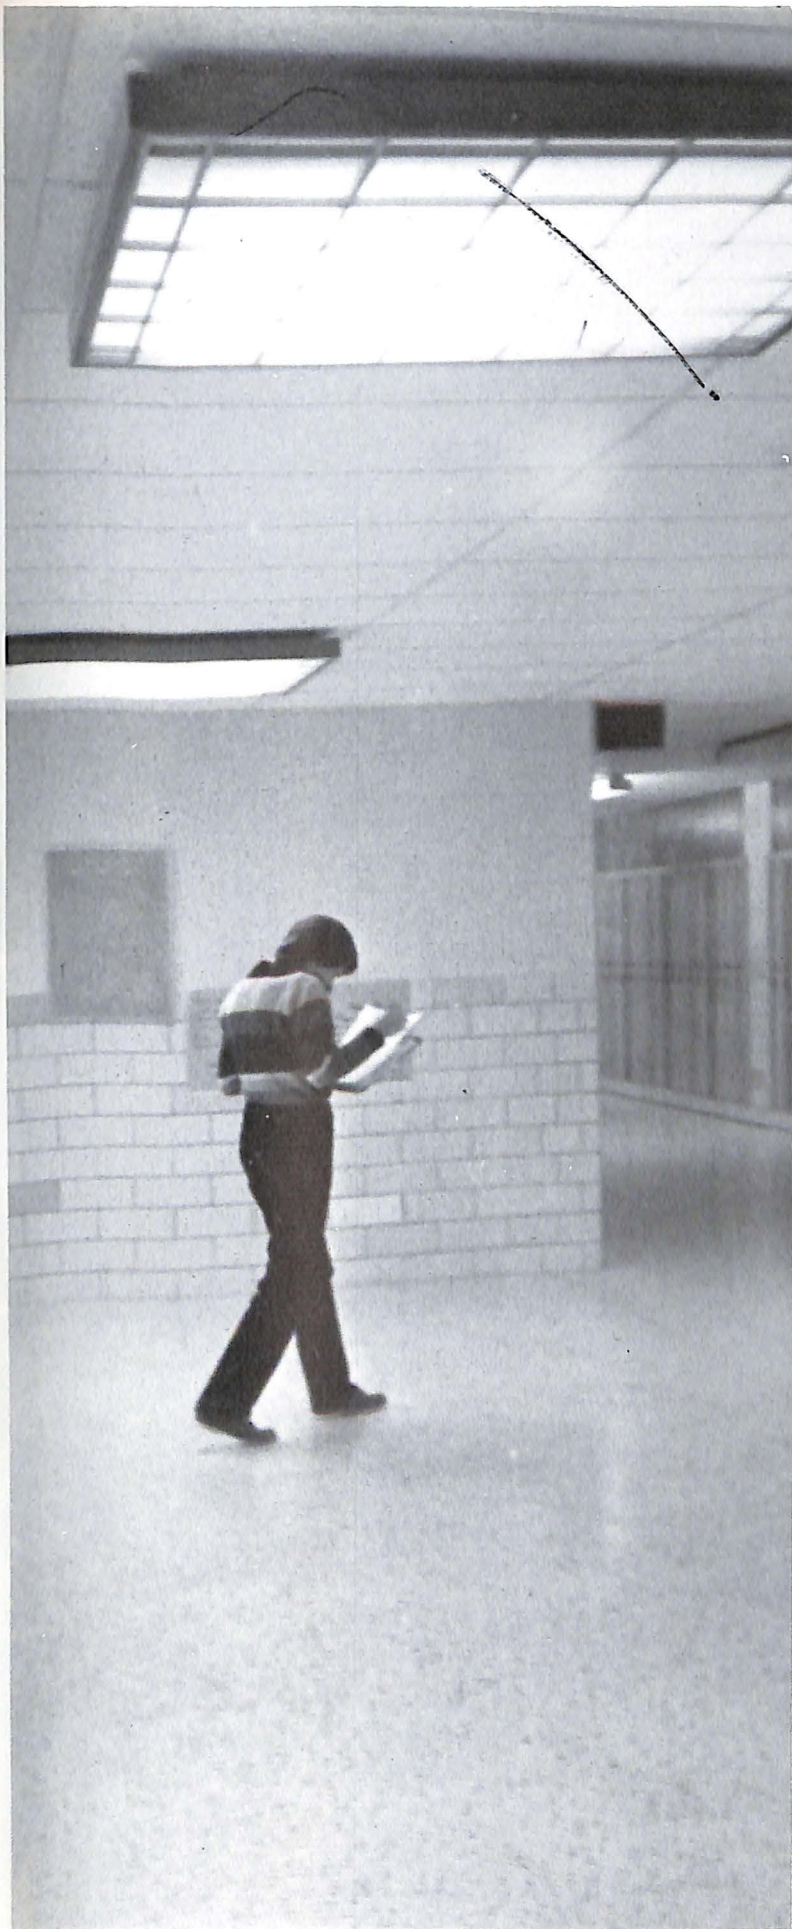

AAAAAY! Mrs. Williams pretends to be the "Fuzz." Really she is explaining the details of the next science club meeting.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS James Hamblin, President talks to Bobby Collins about the treasury. The problem? What to do with it?

SCIENCE CLUB: Tim Mistele, Steve Smith, Robin Johnson, Bobby Collins, Ayers Webster, Sharon Swink, Debbie Falls, Vera Bowles, David Millner, Mrs. Williams, Brent Collins, Mark Wolford, Keith Newcomb, Bill Fish, Clay Ratcliff, Mr. Williams

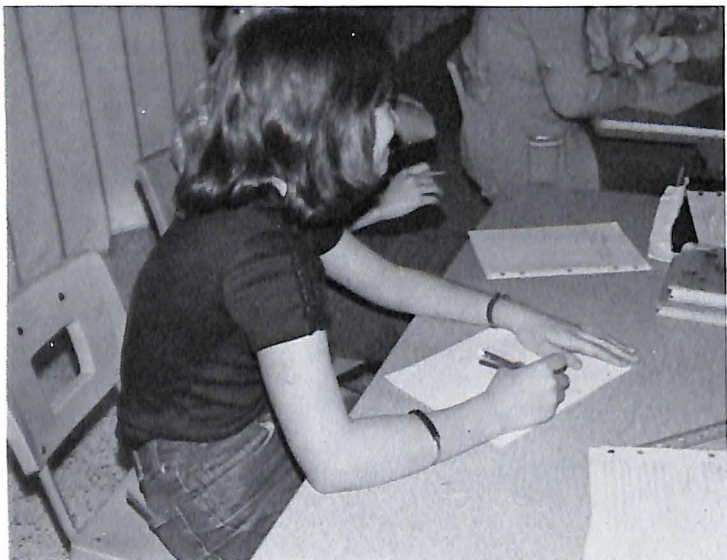

LONELY HALL Mari Black walks through a "lonely" front lobby. It is usually the most crowded place in the school between classes. Mari must have gotten lucky.

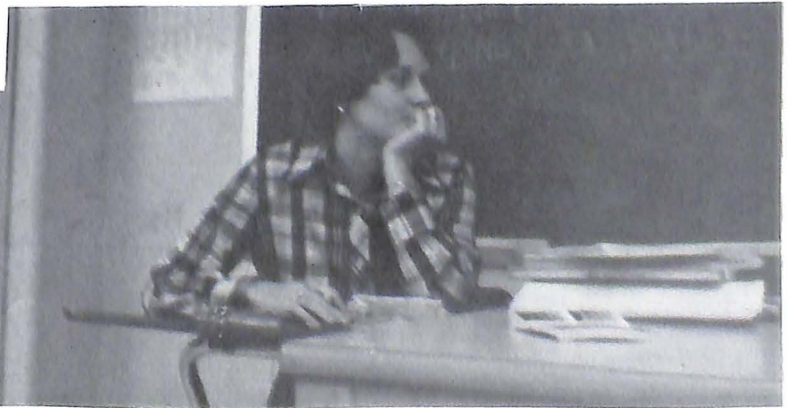

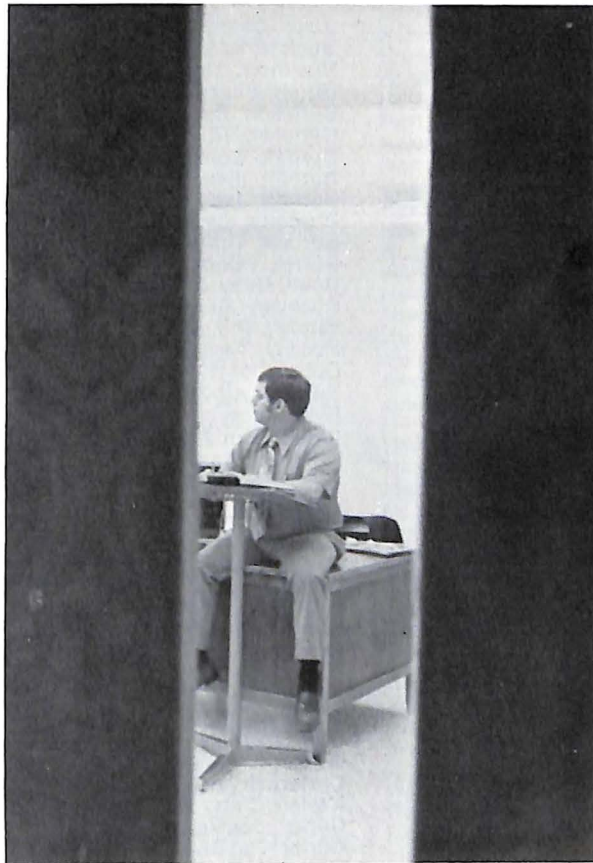

CONCLUSION

So the year has ended. We had outstanding athletic programs and we reached academic excellence. Yet the year, of course, was different from what we remembered in years past. There were no drastic changes, but the atmosphere was different. There was a feeling of curiosity and wonder in the air for most of us, with the changes of who has been annexed, which teachers we would lose and just what the years to come would have in store. But the year went on and we did win the District Football Championship, and we did have over 300 people who were on the honor roll. We had snow and rain just like any year but still we were not the same. Who knows what it is that makes each and every year different but whatever it is we are all glad. So new students will come and they will learn and then they will go to the high school to go off on their own, but we will all remember the year of 1977. A year that was mixed.

OH DARN! Mrs. Robertson broke her fingernail while sitting in the discipline room. When there are no occupants in the room, teachers comment that it can be a little boring.

WE HAD A WEDDING

THEY DON'T SEEM TO MIND, even though the whole world just found out Joe and Debi were married.

"YOU'LL PAY FOR ALL THIS MESS," thinks Debi, but Joe calmly surveys the mess and smiles about the hours of clean-up it will take.

During the week of Halloween Debi Coker and Joe Williams became man and wife. Joe teaches in the Science Dept. and Debi teaches both Science and World Geography. We are all extremely happy for them and we wish them the very best.

To a great
teacher, your pupil,
Andy Stevens

Mrs. Brindle,
You're a really sweet teacher - at least at NSIT I passed
math at CSJ - I didn't!
I guess you're better than they are!

Debbie Sink

Mrs. Brindle,
I tried hard in math the first semester and 3 9 weeks but it got me no where. I almost gave up because I never got those B's but you with your unique personality got me on the track again so I'd pass. Thanks you "Great"
Love it

To a real nice teacher
your student
Larry

To a real nice and easy
math teacher. Stay
straight this summer.
And stay as sweet and
nice as ever.
Keith Dudley

Mrs. Brindle,

You've been real nice teacher
this year. You want to see what
I've learned?
Good Huh!

To a really nice teacher. Wish I could have you next year. A
See you
next year.

Mrs. Brindle

You a real cool teacher.
I'm doing better in math and learning more
with you as a teacher.
Good luck, see ya!
SUSANNA D.

Mrs. Brindle,
I really enjoyed
being in your class.
I miss you!
See you next year!
Love,
Suzie

As keep cool!

Mrs. Brindle -
I think you are the greatest. You are the best & nicest teacher in NJ HS. Now don't let that go to your head,
just kidding. Remember me this summer. I hope you run into you this summer. Hope you go next year too. Have a great summer!

Lots of love
Mandi Hart
P.S. Do I get an A for saying all those nice things? Just kidding!
What I said was true. Bye.

Mrs. Brindle,
You were one of my favorite teachers & really enjoyed this math class. My teacher,
I miss you!
I miss you!
I miss you!

MRS. BRINDLE
You have really
Been a good teacher
You have been my best teacher. Hope your here
next year.

Mrs. Brindle,
For the short time
I've been in your class
I've enjoyed it. Stay as nice as you are and you'll make life pleasant
for a few more people Love
Pat Taylor

Mrs. Brindle,
I enjoyed class because of my teacher! My sister told me to expect someone nice, and she was right! Good luck in the following years, and many,
many more good students!
